A Prologue or Preface made by Thomas Cranmer, sometime Archbishop of Canterburie.

Oncerning two sundrie sortes of people, it seemeth necessarie that something bee saide in the entrie of this Booke, by a Preface or Prologue, whereby hereafter it may bee both the cepted of them which hitherto could not well beare it, and alter vsed of them which heretofore haue misused it. For truely some are that be too slowe, and needeth the spurre, some other farme too quick and needeth more of the bridle: some loose their game by short shooting, some by ouer shooting, some walke too much on the left hand, some too much on the right. To the former sort bee all they that refuse to reade or to heare read the Scripture in the vulgare tongue, much worse they that let also or discourage the other from the reading or hearing thereof. To the latter sort be they which by their inordinate reading, worse vsing of others by their licentious liuing, slander and hinder the Word of GOD most of all other, whereof they would seeme to be greatest furtherers. These two sortes, albeit they bee most farre vnlike the one to the other, yet they both deserue in effect like reproch: neither can I well tell whether of them I may iudge more offenders, him that doth obstinately refuse so godly and goodly knowledge: or him that so vngodly and so vngoodly vseth abuse the same. As touching the former, I would marueile much that any man should be so wilfully blinded as to refuse in darkenesse light: in hunger, foode: in colde, fire: for the word of God is light: Lucerna pedibus meis verbum tuum, & lumen semitis meis. Thy word is a lanterne vnto my feete. It is foode: Non in solo pane viuit homo, sed in omni verbo Dei. Man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery word of God. It is fire: Ignem veni mittere in terram, & quid volo, nisi vt ardeat? I am come to send fire on the earth, and what is my desire, but that it be kindled? I would marueile (I say at this) saue that I consider how much custome and vsage may do. So that if there were a people as Gilda write, de Cymeriis, which neuer sawe the Sunne, by reason that they be situated farre towarde the North, and be inclosed and ouershadowed with high mountaines: it is credible, & like ynough, that if by the prouid will of God, the mountaines should sinke downe, and giue place, that the light of the Sunne might have entrance to them, at the first some of them would be offended therewith. As the prouerbe saith that after tillage of corne was first founde, many delighted more to feede of they had bene accustomed, then to eate bread made of good corne. Such causeth vs to beare all things well and easily wherewith we haue bene ac all things thereunto contrary. And therefore I can well thinke them ming abroade of Scripture doubted and drewe backe. But such as will needes iudge not onely foolish, frowarde, and obstinate: but also peeuish
If the matter should be tried by custome, we might also alledge custome for the vulgare tongue, and prescribe the more ancient custome. For it is not much aboue agoe, since Scripture hath not bene accustomed to bee read in the vulgare tongue many hundred yeeres before that, it was translated and read in the Saxone tongue, our mother tongue, whereof there remaine yet diuers copies founde lately in olde manner of writing and speaking, that fewe men nowe be able to reade and language waxed olde and out of common vsage, because folke should not lacke the againe translated into the newer language, whereof yet also many copies remaine, nowe to let passe custome, and to weye, as wise men must, what is in his cuse what it auaileth Scripture to be had and read of the lay and vulgare people.
tend here to say nothing, but that was spoken and written by the noble Iohn Chrysostome, in his thirde Sermon de Lazaro, albeit I will be some into fewer words and lesse roome then he doeth there, because I his audience, that euery man should reade the Bible at home mon and Sermon, to the intent they might had saide before vpon such textes, whereupon

[illegible] hee ſhould ſay from thence [illegible] not yet declared and preached vpon: therefore ſayth he [illegible] common vſage is to giue you warning before, what matter I intend after to intreate vpon, that you [illegible] in the meane dayes, may take the Booke in hand, reade, wey, and perceiue the ſumme, and effect of the matter, and marke what hath bene declared, and what remaineth yet to be declared, ſo that thereby your minde may be the more furniſhed to heare the reſt that ſhall be ſayde. And that I exhort you (ſayth hee) and euer haue and will exhort you, that you (not onely here in the Church) giue eare to that that is ſayde by the Preacher: but that alſo when you bee at home in your houſes, ye applie your ſelues from time to time to the reading of holy Scriptures: which thing alſo I neuer linnne to beate into the eares of them that be my familiars, and with whom I haue priuate acquaintance and conuerſation. Let no man make excuſe and ſay (ſayth hee) I am buſied about matters of the Common wealth, I beare this office, or that, I am a craftes man, I muſt applie mine occupation, I haue a wife, my children muſt be fedde, my houſholde muſt I prouide for, briefly I am a man of the world, it is not for me to reade the Scriptures, that belongeth to them that haue bidden the world farewell, which liue in ſolitarineſſe, and contemplation, and haue bene brought vp and continually nouſelled in learning and Religion. To this anſwering, What ſayeſt thou man (ſaith hee?) Is it not for thee to ſtudie and to reade the Scripture, becauſe thou art encumbred and diſtract with cares and buſineſſe? So much the more it is behouefull for thee to haue defence of Scriptures, howe much thou art the more diſtreſſed in worldly dangers. They that be free and farre from trouble and intermedling of worldly thinges, liue in ſafegard, and tranquilitie, and in the calme, or within a ſure hauen. Thou art in the middeſt of the ſea of worldly wickednes, and therefore thou needeſt the more of ghoſtly ſuccour and comfort. They ſit farre from the ſtrokes of battell, and farre out of gunne ſhotte, and therefore they be but ſeldome wounded. Thou that ſtandeſt in the forefront of the hoſte, and nigheſt to thine enemies, muſt needes take nowe and then many ſtrookes, and be grieuouſly wounded, and therefore thou haſt moſt neede to haue thy remedies and medicines at hand. Thy wife prouoketh thee to anger, thy childe giueth thee occaſion to take ſorowe and penſiueneſſe, thine enemies lie in waite for thee, thy friend (as thou takeſt him) ſometime enuieth thee, thy neighbour miſreporteth thee, or pyketh quarels againſt thee, thy mate or partner vndermineth thee, thy Lorde, Iudge, or Iuſtice threatneth thee, pouertie is painefull vnto thee, the loſſe of thy deare and welbeloued cauſeth thee to mourne, proſperitie exalteth thee, aduerſitie bringeth thee lowe: briefly, ſo diuers and ſo manifolde occaſions of cares, tribulations, and temptations beſet thee, and beſiege thee rounde about. Where canſt thou haue armour or fortreſſe againſt thine aſſaultes? Where canſt thou haue ſalues for thy ſores, but of holy Scripture? Thy fleſh muſt needes be prone and ſubiect to fleſhly luſtes, which dayly walkeſt and art conuerſant among women, ſeeſt their beautie ſet foorth to the eye, heareſt their nice and wanton wordes, ſmelleſt their balme, ciuit, and muske, with many other like prouocations and ſtirrings: except thou haſt in a readineſſe wherewith to ſuppreſſe and auoyde them, which can not elſe where bee had, but onely out of the holy Scriptures. Let vs reade and ſeeke all remedies that we can, and all ſhall be litle ynough. Howe ſhall we then doe, if we ſuffer and take dayly wounds, and when we haue done, will ſit ſtill and ſearche for no medicines? Doeſt thou not marke and conſider howe the Smith, Maſon, or Carpenter, or any other handicraftes man, what neede ſoeuer he be in, what other ſhift ſoeuer he make, he will not ſell nor lay to pledge the tooles of his occupation: for then howe ſhoulde he worke his feate, or get his liuing thereby? Of like minde and affection ought we to be towardes holy Scripture. For as mallets, hammers, ſawes, cheſils, axes, and hatchets be the tooles of their occupation: ſo be the Bookes of the Prophets, and Apoſtles, and all holy writers inſpired by the holy Ghoſt, the inſtruments of our ſaluation. Wherefore let vs not ſticke to buy and prouide vs the Bible, that is to ſay, the Bookes of holy Scripture, and let vs thinke that to be a better iewell in our houſe, then either golde or ſiluer. For like as theeues be loth to aſſault an houſe where they knowe to bee good armour and artillerie: ſo whereſoeuer theſe holy and ghoſtly Bookes be occupied, there neither the deuill nor none of his angels dare come neere. And they that occupie them be in much ſafegard, and haue a great conſolation, and be the readier vnto all goodnes, the ſlower vnto al euil: and if they haue done any thing amiſſe, anon euen by the ſight of the Bookes their conſciences be admoniſhed, and they waxe ſorie and aſhamed of the fact. Peraduenture they will ſay vnto me, How and if we vnderſtand not that we reade, that is conteined in the Bookes? What then? Suppoſe thou vnderſtand not the deepe & profound myſteries of Scriptures, yet can it not be but that much fruite and holineſſe muſt come and growe vnto thee by the reading: for it cannot be that thou ſhouldeſt be ignorant in all things alike. For the holy Ghoſt hath ſo ordered and attempered the Scriptures, that in them aſwell Publicanes, fiſhers, and ſhepheards may finde their edification, as great Doctours their erudition. For thoſe Bookes were not made to vaineglorie, like as were the writings of the Gentile Philoſophers and Rhetoricians, to the intent the makers ſhould be had in admiration for their hie ſtiles and obſcure maner of writing, whereof nothing can bee vnderſtanded without a maſter or an expoſitour: But the Apoſtles and Prophets wrote their Bookes ſo, that their ſpeciall intent and purpoſe might be vnderſtanded and perceiued of euery reader, which was nothing but the edification or amendement of the liſe of them that reade or heare it. Who is it that reading or hearing read in the Goſpel, Bleſſed are they that bee meeke, Bleſſed are they that bee mercifull, Bleſſed are they that bee of cleane heart, and ſuch other like places, can perceiue nothing except hee haue a maſter to teach him what it meaneth? Likewiſe the ſignes and miracles, with all other Hiſtories of the doings of Chriſt or his Apoſtles, who is there of ſo ſimple witte and capacitie, but he may be able to perceiue and vnderſtand them? Theſe be but excuſes and clokes for the raine, and couerings of their owne ſlouthfulneſſe. But ſtil yee wil ſay I cannot vnderſtand it. What marueil? How ſhouldeſt thou vnderſtand, if thou wilt not reade nor looke vpon it? Take the bookes into thine hands, reade the whole ſtory, and that thou vnderſtandeſt keepe it well in memorie: that thou vnderſtandeſt not reade it againe, and againe: if thou can neither so come by it, counsell with some other that is [illegible] thy Curate and Preacher, shewe thy selfe to be desirous to knowe and learne: and I doubt not but by thy diligence and readinesse (if no man elfe teach thee) will himselfe vouchsafe with his holy Spirit to illuminate thee, and to open vnto thee that which was locked from thee. Remember the Eunuch of Candace Queene of Ethiopia, which albeit hee was a man of a wilde and barbarous countrey, and one occupied with worldly cares and businesse, yet ryding in his charet, hee was reading the Scripture. Nowe consider, if this man passing in his iourney was so diligent as to reade the Scripture: what thinkest thou of like was he wont to doe sitting at home? Againe, hee that letted not to reade, albeit he did not vnderstand: what did hee then trowest thou, after that when he had learned and gotten vnderstanding? For that thou mayest well knowe that he vnderstood not what he read, hearken what Philip saith there vnto him, Vnderstandest thou what thou readest? And he nothing ashamed to confesse his ignorance, answered, Howe should I vnderstand hauing no body to shewe mee the way? Loe when he lacked one to shewe him the way, and to expound to him the Scriptures, yet did he reade: and therefore God the rather prouided for him a guide of the way, that taught him to vnderstand it. God perceiued his willing and toward minde, and therefore he sent him a teacher by and by. Therefore let no man be negligent about his owne health and saluation. Though thou haue not Philip alwaies when thou wouldest, the holy Ghost which then mooued and stirred vp Philip, will be readie and not faile thee, if thou doe thy diligence accordingly. All these things be written vnto vs for our edification and amendment, which bee borne towardes the latter ende of the world. The reading of the Scriptures is a great and strong bulwarke or fortresse against sinne: the ignorance of the same is a greater ruine and destruction of them that will not knowe it. That is the thing that bringeth in heresie, that is it that causeth all corrupt and peruerse liuing, that is it that bringeth all things out of good order. Hitherto all that I haue said, I haue taken and gathered out of the foresaide Sermon of this holy Doctour Saint Iohn Chrysostome. Nowe if I should in like maner bring forth what the selfe same Doctour speaketh in other places, and what other doctours and writers say concerning the same purpose, I might seeme to you to write another Bible, rather then to make a Preface to the Bible. Wherefore in fewe wordes to comprehend the largenesse and vtilitie of the Scriptures, howe it conteineth fruitfull instruction and erudition for euery man, if any thing be necessarie to be learned, of the holy Scripture we may learne it. If fashood shalbe reprooued, thereof we may gather wherewithall. If any thing be to be corrected and amended, if there need any exhortation or consolation, of the Scripture we may well learne. In the Scriptures be the fatte pastures of the soule, therein is no venemous meate, no vnwholesome thing, they be the very daintie and pure feeding. He that is ignorant shall finde there what he shoulde learne. He that is a peruerse sinner, shall finde there his damnation, to make him to tremble for feare. He that laboureth to serue God, shall finde there his glorie, and the promissions of eternall life, exhorting him more diligently to labour. Herein may Princes learne howe to gouerne their Subiects: Subiects obedience, loue, and dread to their Princes: husbands howe they should behaue themselues vnto their wiues, howe to educate their children and seruants: And contrary, the wiues, children, and seruants, may knowe their duetie to their husbands, parents, and masters. Here all maner of persons, men, women, yong, olde, learned, vnlearned, rich, poore, priestes, lay men, lordes, ladies, officers, tenants, and meane men, virgins, wiues, widowes, lawyers, marchants, artificers, husbandmen, and all maner of persons, of what estate or condition soeuer they be, may in this booke learne al things what they ought to beleeue, what they ought to do, and what they should not do, aswell concerning Almightie God, as also concerning themselues and all other. Briefly, to the reading of the Scripture none can be enemie, but that either be so sicke that they loue not to heare of any medicine, or else that be so ignorant that they know not Scripture to be the most healthfull medicine. Therefore as touching this former part, I wil here conclude, and take it for a conclusion, sufficiently determined and appointed, that it is conuenient and good, the Scriptures to bee read of all sortes and kindes of people, and in the vulgare tongue, without further allegations or probations for the same, which shal not need, since that this one place of Iohn Chrysostome is ynough, and sufficient to perswad all them that be not frowardly and peruersly set in their owne wilful opinion, specially now that the Kings highnesse being Supreme head next vnder Christ of this Church of England, hath approued with his royall assent the setting foorth hereof, which only to all true and obedient Subiects ought to be a sufficient reason for the allowanc of the same, without further delay, reclamation, or resistance, although there were no Preface, or other reason herein expressed. Therefore now to come to the second or latter part of my purpose: here is nothing so good in this world, but it may be abused, and turned from vnhurtfull and wholesome, to hurtfull and noysome. What is there aboue better then the Sunne, the Moone, and the starres? Yet was there that tooke occasion by the great beautie and vertue of them, to dishonour God, & to defile themselues with idolatrie, giuing the honour of the liuing God and creator of all things, to such things as he had created. What is there here beneath better then fire, water, meates, drinkes, metals of golde, siluer, yron, and steele? Yet we see dayly great harme and much mischiefe done by euery one of these, aswell for lacke of wisedome and prouidence of them that suffer euill, as by the malice of them that worke the euill. Thus to them that be euill of themselues, euery thing setteth forwarde and increaseth their euill, be it of his owne nature a thing neuer so good: like as contrarily, to them that studie and endeuour themselues to goodnesse, euery thing preuaileth them, and profiteth vnto good, be it of his own nature a thing neuer so bad, as Saint Paul saith, His qui diligunt Deum, omnia cooperantur in bonum. All things do bring good successe, to such as doe loue God, euen as out of most venemous wormes is made triacle, the most soueraigne medicine for the preseruation of mans health in time of danger. Wherefore I would aduise you all that come to the reading or hearing of this Booke, which is the Word of God, the most precious iewell, and most holy relique that remaineth vpon earth, that ye bring with you the feare of God, and that ye do it with all due reuerence, and vse your knowledge thereof, not to vaineglory of friuolous disputation: but to the honour of [illegible] and edification both of your ſelues and others. And to the intent that my words may [illegible]re regarded, I will vſe in this part the authoritie of S. Gregorie Nazianzene, like as in the other I did [illegible]n Chryſoſtome. It appeareth that in his time there were ſome (as I feare me there be alſo nowe at [illegible]ery eyes a great number) which were idle bablers, and talkers of the Scripture out of ſeaſon and all good order, and without any increaſe of vertue, or example of good liuing: to them he writeth al his firſt Booke, de Theologia. Wherefore I ſhall briefly gather the whole effect, and recite it here vnto you. There be ſome (ſayth he) whoſe not onely eares and tongues, but alſo their fiſtes be whetted and ready bent all to contention and vnprofitable diſputation, whome I woulde wiſh as they bee vehement and earneſt to reaſon the matter with tongue, ſo they were all ready and practiue to doe good deedes. But for as much as they ſubuerting the order of all godlineſſe, haue reſpect onely to this thing, how they may binde and looſe ſubtill queſtions, ſo that now euery market place, euery alehouſe and tauerne, euery feaſthouſe, briefly euery companie of men, euery aſſembly of women, is filled with ſuch talke: Since the matter is ſo (ſayth he) and that our faith and holy Religion of Chriſt beginneth to waxe nothing els but as it were a ſophiſtrie or a talking craft, I can no leſſe doe but ſay ſomething thereunto. It is not fit (ſayth he) for euery man to diſpute the high queſtions of Diuinitie, neither is it to be done at all times, neither in euery audience muſt we diſcuſſe euery doubt: but we muſt knowe when, to whome, and howe farre we ought to enter into ſuch matters. Firſt, it is not for euery man, but it is for ſuch as be of exact, and exquiſite iudgements, and ſuch as haue ſpent their time before in ſtudie and contemplation, and ſuch as before haue clenſed themſelues aſwell in ſoule as body, or at the leaſt endeuoured themſelues to be made cleane. For it is dangerous (ſayth hee) for the vncleane to touch that thing which is moſt cleane, like as the ſore eye taketh harme by looking vpon the Sunne. Secondarily, not at all times, but when we be repoſed, and at reſt from all outward dregs and trouble, and when that our heads be not encombred with other worldly and wandring imaginations: as if a man ſhould mingle balme and dirt together. For he that ſhal iudge and determine ſuch matters and doubtes of Scriptures, muſt take his time when he may apply his wittes thereunto, that he may thereby the better ſee and diſcerne what is trueth. Thirdly, where, and in what audience. There and among thoſe that haue bene ſtudious to learne: And not among ſuch as haue pleaſure to triſle with ſuch matters, as with other things of paſtime, which repute for their chiefe delicates, the diſputation of high queſtions, to ſhewe their wittes, learning, and eloquence in reaſoning of high matters. Fourthly, it is to be conſidered howe farre to wade in ſuch matters of difficultie. No further (ſayth he) but as euery man [illegible]owne capacitie will ſerue him, and againe no further then the weakeneſſe or intelligence of the other audience may beare. For like as too great noyſe hurteth the eare, too much meate hurteth the mans body, heauie burdens hurt the bearers of them, too much raine doeth more hurt then good to the ground: briefly in all things too much is noyous: euen ſo weake wittes, and weake conſciences, may ſoone be oppreſſed with ouer hard queſtions. I ſay not this to diſſwade men from the knowledge of God, & reading or ſtudying of the Scripture: for I ſay that it as neceſſarie for the life of mans ſoule, as for the body to breathe. And if it were poſſible ſo to liue, I would thinke it good for a man to ſpend all his life in that, and to doe none other thing. I commend the Lawe which biddeth to meditate and ſtudie the Scriptures alwayes both night and day, and Sermons and preachings to be made both morning, noone, and euentide, and God to be lauded and bleſſed in all times, to bedward, from bed, in our iourneyes, and in all other workes. I forbid not to reade but I forbid to reaſon. Neither forbid I to reaſon ſo farre as is good and godly: but I allowe not that is done out of ſeaſon, and out of meaſure and good order. A man may eate too much honie be it neuer ſo ſweete, and there is time for euery thing, and that thing that is good is not good if it be vngodly done. Euen as a flower in winter is out of ſeaſon, and as a womans apparell becommeth not a man, neither contrarily, the mans the woman, neither is weeping conuenient at a brideale, neither laughing at a buriall. Now if we can obſerue and keepe that is comely and timely in all other things: ſhall not we then the rather do the ſame in the holy Scriptures? Let vs not runne foorth as it were wilde horſes, that can ſuffer neither bridle in their mouthes, nor ſitter on their backes. Let vs keepe vs in our bounds, and neither let vs go too farre on the one ſide, leaſt we returne into Egypt, neither too farre ouer the other, leaſt we be caried away to Babylon. Let vs not ſing the ſong of our Lord in a ſtrange land, that is to ſay, let vs not diſpute the word of God at all aduentures, aſwell where it is not to be reaſoned as where it is, and aſwell in the eares of them that be not fit therefore, as of them that be. If we can in no wiſe forbeare, but that we muſt needes diſpute, let vs forbeare thus much at the leaſt, to do it out of time and place conuenient: and let vs entreate of thoſe things which be holy, holily: and vpon thoſe things that be myſticall, myſtically: and not to vtter the Diuine myſteries in the eares vnworthy to heare them, but let vs knowe what is comely, aſwell in our ſilence and talking, as in our garments wearing, in our feeding, in our geſture, in our goings, in all our other behauing. This contention and debates about Scriptures and doubtes thereof (ſpecially when ſuch as doe pretende to be the fauourers and ſtudents thereof, cannot agree within themſelues) doth moſt hurt to our ſelues, and to the furthering of the cauſe and quarels that we ſhould haue furthered aboue all other things. And we in this (ſayth he) be not vnlike to them that being madde, ſet their owne houſes on fire, and that ſlay their owne children, or beate their owne parents. I marueile much (ſayth he) to recount whereof commeth all this deſire of vaineglory, whereof commeth all this tongue itche, that we haue ſo much delight to talke and clatter? And wherein is our communication? Not in the commendation of vertuous and good deeds, of hoſpitalitie, of loue betweene Chriſtian brother and brother, of loue betweene man and wife, of virginitie and chaſtitie, and of almes towarde the poore: not in Pſalmes and godly ſongs, not in lamenting for our ſinnes, not in repreſſing the affections of the body, not in prayers to God. We talke of Scripture, but in the meane time we ſubdue not our fleſh by faſting, watching and weeping, we make not this life a meditation of death, we doe not ſtriue to be lords ouer our appetites and affections, wee goe not about to pull downe our proude and high mindes, to abate our fumiſh and rancorous ſtomackes, to reſtraine our luſt and bodily delectations, our vndiſcrete ſorowes, our laſciuious mirth, our inordinate looking, our inſatiable hearing of vanities, our ſpeaking without meaſure, our inconuenient thoughts, and briefly, to reforme our life and maners: but all our holineſſe conſiſteth in talking. And we pardon eche other from all good liuing, ſo that wee may ſticke faſt together in argumentation, as though there were no mo wayes to heauen but this alone, the way of ſpeculation and knowledge (as they take it) but in very deede it is rather the way of ſuperfluous contention and ſophiſtication. Hitherto haue I recited the minde of Gregorie Nazianzene in that Booke which I ſpake of before. The ſame Authour ſayth alſo in another place, that the learning of a Chriſtian man ought to beginne of the feare of God, to ende in matters of high ſpeculation: and not contrarily to beginne with ſpeculation, and to ende in feare. For ſpeculation (ſaith hee) either high cunning or knowledge, if it be not ſtayed with the bridle of feare to offende God, is dangerous, and ynough to tumble a man headlong downe the hill. Therefore, ſaith he, the feare of God muſt be the firſt beginning, and as it were an A. B. C. or an introduction to all them that ſhall enter into the very true and moſt fruitefull knowledge of holy Scriptures. Where as is the feare of God, there is (ſayth he) the keeping of the commaundements: and where as is the keeping of the commaundements, there is the cleanſing of the fleſh: which fleſh is a cloude before the ſoules eye, and ſuffereth it not purely to ſee the beame of the heauenly light. Where as is the cleanſing of the fleſh, there is the illumination of the holy Ghoſt, the ende of all our deſires, and the very light whereby the veritie of Scriptures is ſeene and perceiued. This is the minde, and almoſt the wordes of Gregorie Nazianzene, doctour of the Greeke Church, of whom Saint Ierome ſaith, that vnto his time the Latine Church had no writer able to be compared, and to make an euen match with him. Therefore to conclude this latter part, euery man that commeth to the reading of this holy Booke, ought to bring with him firſt and formoſt this feare of Almightie God, and then next, a firme and ſtable purpoſe to reforme his owne ſelfe according thereunto, and ſo to continue, proceede, and proſper from time to time, ſhewing himſelfe to be a ſober and fruitfull hearer and learner: which if he doe, he ſhal proue at length well able to teach, though not with his mouth, yet with his liuing and good example, which is ſure the moſt liuely and effectuous forme and maner of teaching. He that otherwiſe intermedleth with this Booke, let him be aſſured that once he ſhall make account therefore, when he ſhall haue ſayd to him as it is written in the Prophet Dauid, Peccatori dicit Deus, &c. Vnto the vngodly ſayd God, Why doeſt thou preach my Lawes, and takeſt my teſtament in thy mouth? Whereas thou hateſt to be reformed, and haſt bene partaker with adulterers. Thou haſt let thy mouth ſpeake wickedneſſe, and with thy tongue thou haſt ſet forth deceite. Thou ſateſt and ſpakeſt againſt thy brother, and haſt ſlandered thine owne mothers ſonne. Theſe things haſt thou done, and I helde my tongue, and thou thoughteſt wickedly, that I am euen ſuch a one as thy ſelfe: But I will reprooue thee, and ſet before thee the things that thou haſt done.

O conſider this, ye that forget God, leaſt I plucke you away, and there be none to deliuer you. Who ſo offereth me thankes and prayſe, he honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his conuerſation right, will I ſhew the ſaluation of God.

God be prayſed.

The whole Scripture of the Bible is deuided into two Teſtaments, the olde Teſtament and the New, which Booke is of diuers natures, ſome Legall, ſome Hiſtoricall, ſome Sapientiall, and ſome Propheticall. The olde teacheth by figures and ceremonies, that the Lawe was giuen terribly in lightning and thundring, to induce the people to the obſeruance thereof by feare. The newe Teſtament came in more gloriouſly with the gentle name of the Goſpel, and good tidings, to induce men to obſerue it by loue.

Of the Golden number.

The Golden number is so called, because it was written in the Kalender with letters of gold, right at the day whereon the Moone changed: and it is the space of 19. yeeres, in the which the Moone returneth to the selfe same day of the yeere of the Sunne: and therefore it is also called the Cycle of the Moone, in the which the Solstices and Equinoctials doe returne to all one point in the Zodiaque.

To finde it euery yeere, you must adde one yeere to the yere of Christ (for Christ was borne one yeere of the 19. aforesaid past) then deuide the whole by 19. and that which resteth, is the Golden number for that yeere: if there bee no surpluſage, it is then 19.

The Epact.

Epactæ hewerz in Greeke, doeth signifie in English, hapes for betweene, and therefore the 11. dayes, and 3. houres that are added to the yeere of the Moone, are called Epactæ, and are added to make the yeere of the Moone, which is but 354. dayes, full with the yere of the Sunne, which hath 365. dayes and a quarter.

To finde out the Epact of the yeere, doe thus. To the Epact of the yeere that last went before that yeere for which you woulde finde the Epact, adde 11. and the summe of these two make the Epact. If it surmount 30. then take 30. out, and that which resteth aboue 30. is the Epact you desire.

The vse of the Epact.

To knowe how olde the Moone is at any time by euer by the Epact, doe thus: Adde vnto the dayes of your moneth wherein ye would knowe this, the Epact, and as many dayes moe as are moneths from March to that moneth, inclusing both moneths, out of the which subtract 30. as often as you may, the age remaineth: if nothing remaine, the Moone changeth that day.

The first booke of Moses, called in Hebrewe [a] Bereschith, and in Greeke [b] Genesis.

[a] That is, In the beginning.

[b] That is, generation, or creation.

The first Chapter,

1 How heauen & earth, 3 the light, 6 the firmament, 16 the Sunne, the Moone, the Starres, 21 and fishes in the Sea, 24 and all beasts, and soules, were made by the worde of God, 26 and how man also was created.

Iob.26.13.

IN * the beginning God created heauen & earth.

2 And the earth was [a] without forme, & void: and darkenes was vpon the face of the deepe, and the [b] spirite of God moued vpon the face of the waters.

[a] Although the members of God, both in the creation, & in his spirituall operation in man, be very rude and imperfect at the first: yet God by the working of his holy spirit, bringeth all things to a perfection at the last.

[b] The exalted power of heauen & earth being considered and handled, and yet not vnderstood, like as all other things that proceede from the strength of Gods spirite, are vnsearchable: euen so is the working of the holy spirite.

Heb.11.3. Psal.33.6.

3 And God said, * Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light that it was good: & God deuided the light from the darkenesse.

5 And God called the light, Day, and the darkenesse, Night: and the euening and the morning were the first day.

The first day.

6 * And God said, Let there be a [‡] firmament betweene the waters, and let it make a diuision betweene waters and waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and set a diuision betweene the waters which were vnder the firmament, and the waters that were aboue the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament, Heauen: and the euening and the morning were the second day.

The second day.

‡ Heb. A stretching out, or setting abroad.

[c] As the heauens, from whose waters the cloudes distill, which are also called waters. Psal.104.

9 And God said, * Let the waters vnder the heauen bee gathered together vnto one place, & let the drie land appeare: & it was so.

10 And God called the drie land the earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he the Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grasse, the herbe yeelding seede, and the fruite tree yeelding fruite after his kinde, whose seede is in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grasse, and herbe yeelding seede after his kinde, & the tree yeelding fruite, whose seede is in it selfe after his kinde: and God saw that it was good.

The third day. Psalme 36. 7.

13 And God saw that it was good. And the euening and the morning were the third day.

14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heauen, that they may diuide the day and the night, and let them bee * for [d] signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeeres.

[d] These lights were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies, but for signes in naturall things, and tokens of Gods iudgements or mercy.

Deut.4.19.

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heauen, that they may giue light vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights: a great light to rule the day, and a lesse light to rule the night, and he made starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth, 18 And to rule the day and night, and to make difference betweene the light and the darkenesse: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the euening & the morning were the fourth day.

The fourth day. Eccl.6.47.

20 And God said, * Let the waters bring forth [e] abundantly the moouing creature that hath life, and fowle that may flie aboue the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

[e] He shall and will bring forth abundantly, when heauen, firmament, or ayre.

21 And God created great whales, and euery liuing and moouing creature, which the waters brought forth abundantly after their kinde: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitfull, and multiply, and fill the waters of the [f] sea, and let fowle multiply in the earth.

23 And the euening and the morning were the fifth day.

The fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the liuing creature after his kinde, cattell, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kinde: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kinde, and cattell after their kinde, and euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth after his kinde: and God saw that it was good.

26 And God said, Let vs make man in our image, after our likenesse, and let them haue dominion ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the fowle of the ayre, and ouer the cattell, and ouer all the earth, and ouer euery creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his owne image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said vnto them, Be fruitfull, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and haue dominion dominion of the fiſh of the Sea, and foule of the ayre, and of euery liuing thing that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God ſaid, Behold, I haue giuen you euery hearbe bearing ſeede, which is in the vpper face of all the earth, & euery tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree, bearing ſeede, that they may be meat vnto you:

30 To euery beaſt of the earth alſo, and to euery byrd of the ayre, & to euery ſuch thing that creepeth vpon the earth, which ‡ doeth liue, I haue giuen euery greene hearbe for meat: and it was ſo.

‡Heb. hath a liuing ſoule.

31 And God ſaw euery thing that he had made: and beholde, it was exceeding good. And the euening and the morning were the ſixth day.

The ii. Chapter.

3 The hallowing of the Sabboth day. 17 The tree of knowledge is forbidden. 19 Adam nameth all creatures. 22 Heua is created, 23 And marriage is ordeined.

THus the heauens and the earth were finiſhed, and all the a hoaſt of them.

a That is, the innumerable creatures of God in heauē and earth. b His mere naturall creations of creatures are to be loked for: yet God ſtil by his prouidence continually gouerneth them all. Exo. 20. 11.

2 And in the ſeuenth day, God b ended his worke which he had made. And the ſeuenth day hee * reſted from all his worke which he had made.

3 And God bleſſed the ſeuenth day, and ſanctified it: becauſe that in it he had reſted from all his worke, which God created to make.

4 Theſe are the generations of the heauens, and of the earth, when they were created in the day when the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,

5 And euery plant of ‖ field, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the fielde before it grew: For the Lord God had not yet cauſed it to raine vpō the earth, neither was there a man to till the ground.

6 But there went vp a miſt from the earth, and watered the whole face of the grounde.

7 The Lord God alſo did ſhape man e of the duſt of the ground, and breathed into his noſethrilles the breath of life, * and man was a liuing ſoule.

8 And the Lorde God planted a ‖ garden eaſtward in Eden, and there he put the man whome he had ſhapen.

9 Moreouer out of the ground made the Lord God to grow euery tree that was faire to ſight, & pleaſant to eate: The tree of f life in the middeſt of the garden, and the tree of g knowledge of good and euill.

10 And out of Eden there went forth a flood to water the garden, and from thence it was deuided, and became into foure heads.

11 The name of the firſt is * Piſon, the ſame is it that compaſſeth the whole land of Hauilah, where there is golde:

12 And the gold of the land is very good. There is alſo Bdellium, and the Onix ſtone.

13 The name of the ſeconde riuer is Gyhon: the ſame is it that compaſſeth the whole land of h Ethiopia.

14 The name of the third riuer is ‖ Hedekel, and it goeth toward the Eaſt ſide of Aſſyria: and the fourth riuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that hee might worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God i commaunded the man, ſaying, Eating, thou ſhalt eate of euery tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of the knowledge of good and euill, thou ſhalt not eate of it: For in what day ſoeuer thou eateſt thereof, thou ſhalt die k the death.

18 And the Lord God ſaid, It is not good that the man ſhoulde bee alone, I will make him an helpe ‡ like vnto him.

19 And ſo out of the ground ℣ Lord God had ſhapen euery beaſt of the field, and euery foule of the ayre, & brought them vnto man, that he might ſee how hee would call them: For like wiſe as man named euery liuing thing, ſo was the name thereof.

20 And the man gaue names to all cattell, and foule of the ayre, and to euery beaſt of the field: but for man found he not an help like vnto him.

21 The Lord God cauſed a deepe ſleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he ſlept, and he tooke one of his ribbes, & cloſed vp the place with fleſhe in ſtead thereof.

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, ‡ made hee a woman, and l brought her vnto the man.

23 And man ſaid, * This is now bone of my bones, and fleſh of my fleſh, ſhe ſhalbe called m woman, becauſe ſhe was taken out of man.

24 * For this cauſe ſhall man leaue his father and his mother, & ſhalbe ioyned with his wife: and they ſhall become one fleſh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were n not aſhamed.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Serpent deceiueth the woman. 4 The Serpent, woman, and man are curſed and driuen out of Paradiſe. 15 Chriſt the bleſſed ſeed of the woman is promiſed.

NOw the Serpent was * ſubtiller then euery beaſt of the fields which the Lord God had made, and he ſaid vnto the b woman, Yea, hath God ſaid, Ye ſhal not eate of euery tree of the garden?

2 And the woman ſaid vnto the Serpent, We eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But as for the fruit of the tree which is in the midſt of the garden, God hath ſaid, Ye ſhal not eate of it, neither ſhall ye touch it, leaſt peraduenture ye die.

4 And the ſerpent ſaid vnto the woman, * Ye ſhall not die the death.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they [c] knewe that they were naked, and they ſowed figge leaues together, and made themſelues aprons.

c By the ſinne of diſobedience they began to feele the corruption of their owne nature, which they ought to remedie, not by ſeeking vnto God, but by their owne deuiſes, in couering their nakednes with figge leaues.

8 And they heard the voyce of the Lorde God, walking in the garden in the coole of the day: and Adam and his wife [d] hid themſelues from the preſence of the Lord God, amongſt the trees of the garden.

d The ſhamefull conſcience flieth Gods preſence.

9 And the Lord God called Adam, & ſayd vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Which ſayde, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afraid [e] becauſe I was naked, and hid my ſelfe.

e Adam playeth the hypocrite. In that he hid the cauſe of his nakednes, which was the tranſgreſſion of Gods commandement.

11 And he ſayd, Who tolde thee that thou waſt naked? Haſt thou not eaten of the ſame tree, concerning the which I commaunded thee that thou ſhouldeſt not eate of it?

12 And Adam ſayde, The woman whom thou gaueſt to be with me, ſhe gaue me of the tree, and I did eate.

13 And the Lord God ſayd vnto the woman, Why haſt thou done this? And the woman ſayd, The ſerpent [f] beguiled me, and I did eate.

f In ſteade of confeſſing her ſinne, ſhe encreaſeth it, by accuſing the ſerpent.

14 And the Lorde God ſayde vnto the ſerpent, Becauſe thou haſt done this, thou art curſed aboue all cattel, and aboue euery beaſt of the fielde: vpon thy belly ſhalt thou go, and duſt ſhalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.

g The continuall fight betwixt Satan and the children of God, by Chriſt.

15 I will alſo put [g] emmitie betweene thee and the woman, betweene thy ſeede and her ſeede: and [†] it ſhall treade downe thy head, and thou ſhalt treade vpon his [h] heele.

h Satan ſhall alwayes be ſtriuing to ouerthrow Chriſt in his members: but euer ouercome them.

† Or, both ſhe ſhall bruiſe thy head, and thou ſhalt bruiſe her heele.

16 Vnto the woman he ſaid, In multiplying, I will multiplie thy ſorow and thy conceptions. In ſorow [i] thou ſhalt bring forth children: thy deſire ſhalbe to thy huſband, and he ſhall haue the rule of thee.

i God doth ſhewe how he puniſh the woman in her body, that her ſoule might be ſaued by faith in righteouſneſſe.

17 Vnto Adam he ſaid, Becauſe thou haſt hearkened vnto the voyce of thy wife, and haſt eaten of the tree concerning the which I commaunded thee, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not eate of it: curſed is the ground for thy ſake, in ſorow ſhalt thou eate of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 Thorne alſo and thiſtle ſhall it bring forth to thee, and thou ſhalt eate the herbe of the field.

19 In the ſweate of thy face ſhalt thou eate bread, till thou bee turned againe into the ground: for out of it waſt thou taken: for duſt thou art, and into duſt ſhalt thou be turned againe.

20 And Adam called his wifes name Heua, becauſe ſhe was the mother of all liuing.

21 Vnto Adam alſo, and to his wife, did the Lord God make garments of ſkins, and he put them on.

22 And the Lord God ſayd, Beholde, this man is become as one of vs, [k] in knowing good and euill: And now leaſt peraduenture he put forth his hand, and take alſo of the tree of life, and eate, and liue for euer:

k By this diſſimulation God vpbraideth Adam of the miſerie wherevnto he was fallen by diſobedition.

23 Therfore the Lord God ſent him forth frō the garden of Eden, to dreſſe the ground whence he was taken.

24 And ſo hee droue out man, and at the Eaſt ſide of the garden of Eden, he ſet Cherubims, and a ſtrie two edged ſword, to keepe the way of the tree of life.

The iiij. Chapter.

8 Cain killeth his righteous brother Habel. 11 Cain is curſed, and deſpaireth. 17 The generation of Enoch, Mathuſael, Iabal, Lamech, Seth, and Enos.

NOw Adam knewe Heua his wife, who conceiuing, bare Cain, ſaying, I haue [a] gotten a man of the Lord.

a By the fauour and gift of God, as the prieſteth: God which had ſent her a man, and the ſeede that ſhoulde breake the ſerpents head, according to the promiſe of God, as ſhe thought.

2 And ſhe proceeding, brought forth his brother Habel, and Habel was a keeper of ſheepe, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in proceſſe of dayes it came to paſſe, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground, an [b] oblation vnto the Lord.

b This declareth that the father inſtructed his children in the knowledge of God, and alſo howe God gaue the ſacrifices to ſignifie their ſaluation Heb. 11.4.

4 Habel alſo brought of the firſtlings of his ſheepe, and of the fat thereof: and the Lord [c] had reſpect vnto Habel, and to his oblation.

5 But vnto Cain & to his offering he had no reſpect: for the which cauſe Cain was exceeding wroth, and his countenance abated.

6 And the Lord ſaid vnto Cain, Why art thou wroth? And why is thy countenance abated?

7 If thou do wel, [‖] ſhalt thou not receiue? and if thou doeſt not well, lieth not thy ſinne at the [d] doores? vnto thee alſo pertaineth the deſires thereof, and thou ſhalt haue dominion ouer it.

‖ Or, ſhall there not be an acceptation?

c That is, the ſinne is pardoned, and ſhall not torment the conſcience.

d That is, the deuil prouoke and ſtirre thee to kill thy brother, but take heede, giue no place to it, reſiſt it, and the Lord helpe it.

8 And Cain talked with Habel his brother: and it came to paſſe when they were in the field, Cain roſe vp againſt Habel his brother, and ſlew him.

9 And the Lord ſaid vnto Cain, Where is Habel thy brother? Which ſaid, I wote not: Am I my brothers keeper?

10 And he ſaid, What haſt thou done? the [e] voyce of thy brothers blood crieth vnto mee out of the ground.

e God reuengeth the bloud of his ſeruants though none complaine for the innocent bloud ſhed.

11 And nowe art thou curſed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receiue thy brothers bloud from thy hand.

12 If thou till the grounde, it ſhall not yeelde vnto thee her ſtrength. A fugitiue alſo & a vagabond ſhalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain ſayde vnto the Lord, [‖] My iniquitie is more then that it may be forgiuen.

‖ Or, my puniſhment is greater then that I may beare.

14 Behold, thou haſt caſt me out this day from the vpper face of the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, fugitiue also and a vagabond shall I be in the earth: and it shall come to passe, that euery one that findeth me, shall slay me.

15 And the Lord sayde vnto him, Verily whosoeuer slaieth Cain, he shall be punished [f] seuen folde. And the Lord set a [g] marke vpon Cain, least any man finding him, should kill him.

16 And Cain went from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, Eastward from Eden.

17 Cain also knew his wife, which conceiued, and bare Henoch, and building a citie, he called the name of the same citie, after the name of his sonne, Henoch.

18 Vnto the same Henoch was borne Irad: Irad begate Mehuiael, Mehuiael begate Methusael, Methusael begate Lamech.

19 And Lamech tooke vnto him [h] two wiues, the name of the one was Ada, and the name of the other was Zella.

20 And Ada bare Jabel, which was the father of such as dwell in the tentes, and of such as haue cattell.

21 His brothers name was Jubal, which was the father of such as handle Harpe and Organ.

22 And Zella also bare Thubalcain, which wrought cunningly euery craft of brasse and of yron: the sister of Thubalcain was Noema.

23 And Lamech said vnto his wiues, Ada and Zella, Heare my voyce, yee wiues of Lamech, hearken vnto my speech: for I haue slaine a man to the wounding of my self, and a yong man to mine owne punishment.

24 If Cain shall bee auenged seuen fold, truely Lamech [i] seuentie times and seuen times.

25 Adam knew his wife againe, and shee bare a sonne, and called his name Seth: For God said she hath appointed me another seed, in stead of Abel whom Cain slew.

26 And vnto the same Seth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enos: then began men to make inuocation in the name of the Lord.

f God did not this for the loue that he bare to Cain, but to terrifie other from murder.

g A visible signe of Gods iudgement, that other should feare.

h The lawful institution of marriage, which is, that two should be one flesh, was first corrupt in the house of Caine by Lamech.

i He mocked at Gods sufferance in Cain, iesting as though God would suffer none to punish him, & per suffer him to murder as then.

The v. Chapter.

The genealogie of Adam and other fathers, and the yeeres of their liues, vnto Noah and his children.

THis is the booke of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likenes of God made he him.

Sap. 2. 23. 2 [k] Male and female created hee them, and blessed them, and called their name [a] Adam, in the day of their creation.

a The husband and the wife no more.

3 And Adam liued an hundred and thirty yeeres, and begate a sonne in his owne likenesse, after his image, and called his name Seth.

4 All the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Seth, were eight hundred yeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

5 [b] And all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundred and thirtie yeeres, and he died.

b Adam liued vnto Noahs fathers dayes.

6 Seth liued an hundred and fiue yeeres, and begate Enos.

7 And Seth liued after hee begate Enos [c] eight hundred and seuen yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

c The chiefe cause of long life in the first age, was the multiplication of mankinde, that according to Gods commandement at the beginning, the world might be encreased with people, which might immortally praise his name.

8 And all the dayes of Seth, were nine hundred and twelue yeeres, and he died.

9 Enos liued ninetie yeeres, and begate Kenan.

10 And Enos liued after he begat Kenan eight hundred and fifteene yeres, [d] and begate sonnes and daughters.

11 And all the dayes of Enos were nine hundred and fiue yeeres, and he died.

12 Kenan liued seuentie yeeres, and begate Mahalaleel.

d They be onely rehearsed by name, who were as lights in the church.

13 And Kenan liued after he begate Mahalaleel, eight hundred & fourtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundred and ten yeeres, and he died.

15 Mahalaleel liued sixtie & fiue yeeres, and begate Jered.

16 And againe Mahalaleel liued after he begate Jered eight hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

17 And all the dayes of Mahalaleel, were eight hundred ninetie and fiue yeres, and he died.

18 Jered liued an hundred sixtie and two yeeres, and he begate Henoch.

19 And Jered liued after hee begate Henoch, eight hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 And all the dayes of Jered were nine hundred sixtie and two yeeres, and he died.

21 * Henoch liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Methuselah. Eccl. 44. 16 heb. 11. 5.

22 [e] And Henoch walked with God after he begate Methuselah three hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

e He directeth his life not after the maners of the world then, but according to Gods word.

23 And al the dayes of Henoch were three hundred sixtie and fiue yeeres.

24 And Henoch walked with God: and he was no more seene, for God tooke him away.

25 Methuselah also liued an hundred eightie and seuen yeres, and begate Lamech.

26 And againe Methuselah liued after hee begate Lamech, seuen hundred eightie and two yeeres, & begate sonnes and daughters.

27 And all the dayes of Methuselah [f] were nine hundred sixtie and nine yeeres, and he died.

f He liued fiue yeeres before the flood as S. Augustine reckoneth.

28 Lamech liued an hundred eightie and two yeeres, and begate a sonne:

29 And called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort vs, as concerning our worke and sorow of our hands about the earth, which God cursed.

30 And

30 And Lamech liued after he begat Noah, fiue hundred ninetie and fiue yeers, and begat sonnes and daughters.

31 And all the dayes of Lamech were seuen hundred seuentie and seuen yeeres, and he died.

32 Noah was fiue hundred yeeres old, and Noah begate Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

The vi. Chapter.

5 The cause of the flood is the sinne of man. 18 Noah the iust is preserued in the Arke, with all kindes of beastes.

AND it came to passe, that whē men began to bee multiplied in the vpper face of the earth, there were daughters borne vnto them:

2 And the [a] sonnes of God also sawe the daughters of men that they were faire, and they tooke them wiues, such as they liked, from among them all.

3 And the Lord said, [b] My spirit shall not alwayes striue with man, because he is flesh: yet his dayes shall be an hundred and twentie yeeres.

4 But there were ‖ Giants in those dayes in the earth: yea and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and had begotten children of them, the same became mightie men of the world, and men of [c] renowme.

5 But God sawe that the malice of man was great in the earth, and all the imagination of the thoughts of his heart was onely euill euery day.

6 And it repented the Lorde that he had made man vpon the earth, and he was touched with sorow in his heart.

7 And the Lord said, I wil from the vpper face of the earth, destroy man whome I haue created: from man vnto cattel, vnto worme, and vnto fowles of the aire: for it repenteth me that I haue made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lorde, 9 * These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a iust man, and perfect in his generations, and walked with God.

10 Noah begat three sonnes, Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the same earth was filled with crueltie.

12 And God looked vpon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupt his way vpon earth.

13 And God said vnto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me, for the earth is filled with crueltie through them, and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make thee an Arke of [d] Pine trees: habitations shalt thou make in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And of this fashion shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke shall be three hundred cubites, the breedth of it fiftie cubits, and the height of it thirtie cubites.

16 A window shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it aboue: but the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof. With three loftes one aboue another shalt thou make it.

17 And behold, [e] I, euen I do bring a flood of waters vpon the earth, to destroy all flesh wherein is the breath of life vnder heauen, and euery thing that is in the earth shal perish.

18 With thee also will I make my couenant: and thou shalt come into the Arke, thou and thy sonnes, thy wife & thy sonnes wiues with thee.

19 And of euery liuing thing of all flesh, a paire of euery one shalt thou bring into the Arke, to keepe them aliue with thee, they shall be male and female.

20 Of feathered fowles also after their kind, and of all cattel after their kind: of euerie worme of the earth after his kind, two of euery sort shal come vnto thee, to keepe them aliue.

21 And take thou with thee of all meate that is eaten, and thou shalt lay it vp with thee, that it may be meat for thee and them.

22 Noah therefore did according vnto all that God commanded him, euen so did he.

The vii. Chapter.

1 Noah with them that were with him, entreth into the Arke. 10 The flood destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

AND the * Lord said vnto Noah, Come thou and [a] all thy house into the Arke: for thee haue I seene righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of euery cleane beast thou shalt take with thee seuen [b] and seuen, the male and his female: but of vncleane cattell, two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowles also of the aire seuen & seuen, the male and the female, to keepe seede aliue vpon the face of all the whole earth.

4 For after [c] seuen dayes, I will raine vpon the earth fortie dayes and fortie nights: and all substance that I haue made, will I destroy from the vpper face of the earth.

5 Noah therefore did according vnto all that God commanded him.

6 And Noah was [d] fiue hundred yeeres old, when the floods of water came vpon the earth.

7 And Noah came, and his sonnes, & his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him, to the Arke, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of cleane beasts, and vncleane beasts, and of fowles, and of euery such as creepeth vpon the earth, 9 There [e] came two and two vnto Noah into the Arke, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

a The sonnes of the godly ioyned themselues with the daughters of the wicked, without all feare of God.

b God is therefore said to striue in spirit, because he translated earnestly to bring his people to repentance: but when he sawe their stubbornesse and disobedience to be such, he would no longer striue, but purposed vtterly to destroy them.

10 And so it came to passe after seuen daies, that the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

11 In the fire hundred yeere of Noahs life, in the [f] second moneth, the seuententh day of the moneth, in the same day were all the [g] fountaines of the great deepe broken vp, & the windowes of heauen were opened.

12 And the raine was vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nights.

13 In the selfe same day entred Noah, and Sem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wiues of his sonnes with them into the Arke, 14 They, [h] and euery beast after his kind, and all the cattell after their kinde: yea, and euery worme that creepeth vpon the ground after his kinde, & euery birde after his kind, and euery flying and feathered fowle.

15 And they came vnto Noah into the Arke, two and two, of al flesh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entring in, came, male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and God shut him in round about.

17 And the flood came fourtie dayes vpon the earth, & the waters were increased, and bare vp the Arke, which was lift vp aboue the earth.

18 The waters also waxed strong, and were encreased exceedingly vpon the earth: and so the arke went vpon the vpper face of the waters.

19 And the waters preuailed exceedingly vpon the earth, and all the high hilles that are vnder the whole heauen were couered.

20 Fifteene cubites vpward did the waters preuaile, so that the mountaines were couered.

21 * And all flesh perished that mooued vpon the earth, in fowle, in cattell, in beast, and in euery worme that creepeth vpō the earth, yea, and euery man also.

22 So that [i] all that had the breath of life in his nosethrilles, throughout all that was on the [k] drie land, dyed.

23 And euery substance was destroyed that remained, & that was in the vpper part of the grounde, both man and cattell, and worme, and the fowle of the heauen, they were destroyed from off the earth, and [l] Noah onely remained aliue, and they that were with him in the Arke.

24 But the water preuailed vpon the earth, an hundred and fiftie dayes.

f In the latter end of Aprill, when all things were most pleasant, then this destructiō came.

g Both the waters in the earth rising vp, did ouerflowe, and also the cloudes being open, powred down.

h This is oftimes repeated, for that it seemeth incredible to the sense of man.

The viii. Chapter.

3 The waters of the flood being diminished, Noah sendeth forth the Rauen and the Doue. 16 Noah goeth out of the Arke, and offereth sacrifice vnto God.

AND God [a] remembred Noah and euery beast, and al the cattell that was with him in the Arke: and God made [b] a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceased.

a Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he sendeth succour, then he is said to remember them.

b As God vp a vehement winde in Moses time dried vp the red sea: so here God caused vp a wind to deliuer the land from waters.

2 The fountaines also of the deepe, and the windowes of heauen were stopped, and the raine from heauen was restrained.

3 And the waters from the earth returned, going and comming againe: and after the end of the hundred and fiftie dayes, the waters were abated.

4 And in the [c] seuenth moneth, in the seuententh day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaines of Armenia.

5 And the waters were going and decreasing vntill the tenth moneth: In the tenth moneth, & in ỹ first day of the same moneth, were the toppes of the mountaines seene.

6 And after the ende of the fourtie dayes, it came to passe that Noah opened the window of the Arke which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a Rauen, which went out, going forth, and returning, vntill the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.

8 And againe he sent forth a Doue from him, that he might see if the waters were abated from the vpper face of the ground.

9 But the Doue found no rest for the sole of her foote, and she returned vnto him into the Arke: for the waters were in the vpper face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his [d] hand, and tooke her, and pulled her to him into the Arke.

10 And he abode yet other seuen dayes, and againe hee sent forth the Doue out of the Arke:

11 And the Doue came to him in the euentide, and loe, in her mouth was an Oliue leafe that she had pluckt, whereby Noah did knowe that the waters were abated vpon the earth.

12 And hee abode yet other seuen dayes, and sent forth the Doue, which returned not vnto him any more.

13 And it came to passe in the fire hundred and one yeere, in the first moneth, the first day of the moneth, the waters were dried vp from the earth, and Noah remoued the couering of the Arke, and looked, and behold, the vpper face of the ground was dried vp.

14 And in the second moneth, in the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth, was the earth dried.

15 And God spake vnto Noah, saying,

16 [e] Go forth of the Arke, thou, and thy wife, thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wiues with thee:

17 And bring forth with thee euery beast that is with thee, of all flesh, both foule and cattell, and euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, that they may breede in the earth, and bring forth fruite, and multiplie vpon earth.

18 And so Noah came forth and his sonnes, his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him:

19 Euery beast also, and euery worme, euery foule, and whatsoeuer creepeth vpon the earth, after their kindes, went out of the Arke.

c The waters encreased fortie dayes, and were at one stay 110. dayes, and so continued frō the latter ende of Aprill, vntil the beginning of October.

d It seemed that the Rauē being a vile & an vncleane fowle, fed of the dead carkeises, & therefore refused to turne again into the Arke. But the Doue being of nature a cleane fowle, and vsed to cleane foode, and finding no place to rest on, straightly her self to be receiued in againe.

e Noah was in the arke one yeere and ten dayes.

f It is called a whole burnt offering, because ꝑ whole sacrifice was consumed with fire, by the which is signified, that the person which did offer the same, should haue his heart & mind wholy vpon God, as it is written, Loue thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soule, &c.

20 And Noah builded an altar vnto the Lorde, and tooke of euery cleane beast, and of euery cleane foule, f & offered a whole burnt offering on the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a sweete or quiet sauour, and the Lorde sayde in his heart, I will not hencefoorth curse the grounde any more for mans sake, for the imagination of mans heart is euill from his youth: neither will I smite any more euery thing liuing, as I haue done.

g The order of nature destroyed by the flood, is restored by Gods promise.

22 Yet therefore shall not g sowing time and harueſt, colde and heate, sommer and winter, day and night, cease all the dayes of the earth.

The ix. Chapter.

1 God blesseth Noah and his sonnes. 3 God giueth libertie of meates, and forbiddeth the eating of blood. 9 Hee promiseth no more to destroy the worlde with water, 13 and giueth the Rainebowe for a token thereof.

AND God blessed Noah, and his sonnes, and said vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiplie, and replenish the earth.

a By the vertue of this commandement beasts rage not so much against man, as otherwise they would, but are appointed ministers to his necessaris vses.

2 The a feare of you, and the dread of you shalbe vpon euery beast of the earth, and vpon euery foule of the ayre, vpon all that moueth vpon the earth, and vpon all the fishes of the sea: into your hand are they deliuered.

b By this grant of God, all may vse a good conscience in all the creatures of God for his glorie.

3 Euery thing that moueth it selfe, and that liueth, shall bee b meate for you, euen as the greene herbe haue I giuen you all things.

4 * But c flesh in the life thereof which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eate.

c That is, liuing creatures, and the flesh of beasts which are strangled, whereby all cruelties is forbidden.

9 Behold I, euen I stablish my couenant with you, and with e your seede after you:

e The children which are not yet borne, are comprehended in Gods couenant made with their fathers.

10 And with euery liuing creature that is with you, in foule, in cattell, in euery beast of the earth, which is with you, of all that goe out of the arke, whatsoeuer liuing thing of the earth it be.

11 And my couenant I make with you, that from hencefoorth all flesh bee not rooted out with the waters of a flood, neyther shall there be a flood to destroy the earth any more.

12 And God said, This is the token of the couenant which I make betweene mee and you, and euery liuing creature that is with you for euer.

13 I doe set my f bowe in the cloude, and it shall be for a token betweene mee and the earth.

f The rainebowe is now first made a figure of Gods couenant.

14 * And it shall come to passe, that when I bring a cloud vpon the earth, the bowe also shalbe seene in the same cloude, Eccl. 43.12.

15 And I will thinke vpon my couenant which is betweene me and you, and euery liuing creature in all flesh: and it shal no more come to passe, that waters make a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bowe shalbe in the cloud, and I wil looke vpon it, that I may thinke vpon the euerlasting couenant, betweene God and euery liuing creature in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 And God said vnto Noah, This is the token of the couenant which I haue made betweene me & all flesh that is vpon earth.

23 And Sem and Japheth taking a garment, laid it vpon their shoulders, and comming backeward, couered the nakednesse of their father, namely their faces being turned away, least they should see their fathers nakednesse.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his yonger sonne had done vnto him.

25 And he said, Cursed h bee Chanaan, a seruant of seruants shall hee be vnto his brethren.

h He pronounceth as a Prophet the curse of God against Chanaan, to the vnnatural griefe of his father Ham.

7 And the children of Chus: Seba, and Hauilah, and Sabthah, and Raamah, and Sabtheca.

8 The children of Raamah: Seba, and Dedan: Chus also begate Nimrod.

9 The same began to bee mightie in the earth, for hee was a mightie c hunter before the Lorde: wherefore it is saide, Euen as d Nimrod the mightie hunter before the Lord.

c Cruell princes are called in scripture hunters.

d God made the first authors of tyrannie odious to the worlde by a common prouerbe.

11 Out of that land came Ashur, and builded Nineue, and the citie ‖ Rehoboth, and Calah, 15 Chanaan begate Sidon his first borne sonne, and f Heth, f The seuen nations that came of these, were destroied afterward by the people of God.

16 And Iebusi, and Emori, and Girgasi,

17 And Hiui also, and Arki, and Sini,

18 And Aruadi, and Semari, and Hamathi: and afterward were the kinreds of the Changanites spred abroad.

19 The border of the Chanaanites, was from Sidon, as thou commest to Gerar, vnto Azah, & as thou goest vnto Sodoma and Gomorra, and Adama, and Seboim, euen vnto Lesa.

20 These are the children of Ham in their kinreds, in their tongues, countries, and in their nations.

g In his stock the Church was preserued therefore Moses leaueth off speaking of Iapheth and Ham, and prosecuteth of Sem more at large.

21 Vnto Sem also the g father of all the children of Heber, and elder brother of Japheth, there were children borne.

22 The children of Sem: Elam, and Ashur, Arpharad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 The children of Aram: Vs, and Hul, Gether, and Mas.

24 Arpharad begate Selah, and Selah begate Heber.

25 Vnto Heber also were borne two sonnes: the name of one was Peleg, for in his dayes was the earth diuided, and his brothers name was Iactan.

26 Iactan begate Almodad, and Saleph, Hazarmaueth, and Ierah, 27 And Hadoram, and Vsal, and Dicla,

28 Obal also, and Abimael, and Seba,

29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Iobab: all these were the children of Iactan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesa, as thou goest vnto Sephar, a mount of the East.

31 These are the children of Sem, after their kinreds & tongues, in their landes and nations.

32 And so these are the kinreds of the children of Noah after their generations, in their peoples: and of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

The xi. Chapter.

4 And they sayde, Goe to, let vs build vs a citie and a towre, whose top may reach vnto heauen, and let vs make vs a name, lest peraduenture wee be scattered abroad vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lorde c came downe to see the citie and towre, which the children of men builded.

c Whereby he declareth his iudgement, that the workes of wicked rulers, be nothing the same.

d God thus deryding this attempt of their deuilish perswasion saith and enterpriseth.

7 Come on, let vs goe downe, and there confound their language, that euery one perceiue not his neighbours speach.

8 And so the Lorde scattered them from that place vpon all the earth: and they left off to build that citie.

9 And therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: & from thence did the Lorde scatter them abroade vpon the face of all the earth.

1.Chr.1.20 26 * Tarah liued seuentie yeeres, and begate f Abram, Nachor, and Haran.

27 These are the generations of Tarah: Tarah begate f Abram, Nachor, and Haran: Haran begate Lot.

g Abraham was borne when his father was 130. yeeres olde.

28 And Haran died in the presence of his father Tarah in the land of his nativitie, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 Abram and Nachor tooke them wiues: the name of Abrams wife was Sarai, and the name of Nachors wife was Milcha, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcha, and the father of Iischa.

h It was a temptation to Abram to see the wicked blessed with children, and his wife barren.

30 But Sarai was h barren, and had no childe.

31 And Tarah tooke Abram his sonne, and Lot the sonne of Haran his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in lawe his sonne Abrams wife, and they departed together from Ur of the Chaldees, that they might goe into the land of Chanaan: and they came vnto ‖ Haran, and dwelt there.

Actes 7.2. a From the flood to this time, were 365. yeeres passed through the land.

AND the * Lord sayde vnto Abram, Get thee a out of thy Countrey, and out of thy nation, and from thy fathers house, vnto a land that I will shewe thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great people, and will blesse thee, & make thy name great, that thou shalt be a blessing.

3 I will also blesse them that blesse thee, and curse them that curse thee: and in thee shall all kinreds of the earth be b blessed.

b Christ, the seede of Abraham, blessed all the cursed kinreds of the world.

4 And so Abram departed, as the Lorde had spoken vnto him, and Lot went with him: and Abram was seuentie and fiue yeres olde when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram c tooke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that they had in possession, and the soules that they had begotten in Haran, and they departed, that they might come into the land of Chanaan: and into the land of Chanaan they came.

c After his father was dead, and the curse of the famine.

6 Abram d passed through the land, vnto the place of Sichem, vnto the plaine of Moreh. And the Chanaanite was then in the land.

d He wandred to and fro in the land, before he could finde a setling place. Thus God exerciseth the faith of his children.

7 And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, sayd, vnto thy seede will I giue this land: and there e builded he an altar vnto the Lord which appeared vnto him.

e It was not enough for Abram to worship God in his heart, but it was requisite to declare by outward deedes his faith before men.

8 And remouing thence vnto a mountaine that was Eastward from Bethel, hee pitched his tent, hauing Bethel on the west side, and Hai on the East: and there he, building an altar vnto the Lord, did cal vpon the name of the Lord.

9 And Abram tooke his iourney, going and iourneying toward the South.

10 And then there was a famine in that land, and therefore went Abram downe into Egypt, that hee might soiourne there: for there was a grieuous famine in the land.

11 And when he was come neere to enter into Egypt, hee sayde vnto Sarai his wife, Beholde, I knowe that thou art a faire woman to looke vpon:

12 Therefore shall it come to passe, that when the Egyptians see thee, they shall say, Shee is his wife, and they will kill mee, but they will saue thee aliue:

13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my f sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my soule may liue through thy occasion.

f The weakenesse of Abrams faith appeareth in this, that he vsed vnlawful meanes for to saue his owne life.

14 And so when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman, for she was very faire.

15 The princes also of Pharao sawe her, and commended her before Pharao: and the woman was taken into Pharaos house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheepe, and Oxen, and Hee Asses, men seruants, and maid seruants, she Asses, and Camels.

17 But the Lorde plagued Pharao and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 And Pharao calling Abram, sayde, Why hast thou done this vnto me?

19 Why diddest thou not tell me that thee g was thy wife? why saidest thou, She is my sister, and so I might haue taken her to bee my wife? Now therefore behold, there is thy wife, take her, and goe thy way.

g Though Pharao were innocent touching Abrams wife, yet this fact of Pharao declareth that the court was full of corruption.

20 And

20 And Pharao gaue his men commandement concerning him: and they conueyed him foorth, and his wife, and all that hee had.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Abram and Lot depart out of Egypt. 8 Abram deuideth the land and cattell with Lot his brothers sonne. 14 The promise made to Abram, is renued.

AND so Abram gate him vp out of Egypt, hee and his wife, and all that hee had, and Lot with him, toward the South.

‡Heb, heauie, or laden

2 And Abram was very ‡rich in cattell, in siluer, and in golde.

3 And he went forth on his iourney from the South, toward Bethel, vnto the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, betweene Bethel and Hai:

a Men are delighted with those places where they haue tasted of Gods graces.

4 Vnto the a place of the altar, which he had made there at the first, and there Abram called on the name of the Lord.

5 Lot also, which went with Abram, had sheepe, cattell, and tents.

6 And the lande was not able to beare them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they couldo not dwell together.

7 And there fell a strife betweene the heardmen of Abrams cattell, and the heardmen of Lots cattell: Moreouer, the Chananites, and Pherizites dwelled at that time in the land.

b Though they dwelt among their enemies, yet the strife was not abated.
e An example how to pacifie them that are fallen out.
d To yeelde part of mans right, it is a remedie against strife.

8 Then said b Abram vnto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, betweene thee and me, and betweene my heardmen and thine: for we c be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thy selfe, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, d I will goe to the right: or if thou depart to the right hand, I will goe to the left.

‖Or, plaine.

10 And so Lot lifting vp his eyes, beheld all the ‖countrey of Iordane, which was wel watered euery where, before the Lorde destroyed Sodome and Gomorrhe, it was as the Garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou commest vnto Soar.

11 Then Lot chose all the plaine of Iordane, and tooke his iourney from the East, and so c departed the one brother from the other.

e This was done by Gods prouidence, that onely Abram and his seede might dwell in the land of Chanaan.

12 Abram dwelled in the lande of Chanaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent toward Sodome.

f Lots choise was not very luckie, who had nowe such neighbours.

13 But the f men of Sodome were wicked, and exceeding sinners against the Lord.

g God comforteth Abram in his griefe, for the departure of Lot.

14 And the Lord said vnto g Abram, after that Lot was departed from him, Lift vp thine eyes nowe, and looke from the place where thou art, Northward, Southward, Eastward, and Westward.

15 For all the land which thou seest, will I giue vnto thee, and to thy seede for euer.

16 And I will make thy seede as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seede also be numbred.

h Though Abram had no inheritance in this land, yet he satisfied him selfe with Gods word.

17 Arise, and h walke about in the lande, after the length of it, and after the breadth of it: for I will giue it vnto thee.

‡Heb. set with trees.

18 Then Abram taking downe his tent, came and dwelled in the plaine ‡ of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and builded there an altar vnto the Lord.

The xiiij. Chapter.

11 Lot after the spoyle of Sodome is taken prisoner. 16 Abram deliuereth him. 18 Melchisedec offereth gifts to Abram.

AND it came to passe in the dayes of Amraphel King of ‖Sinar, Arioch King of Elasar, Chodorlaomer King of ‖Elam, and Thidal King of the a nations.

‖Or, Babylon.
‖Or, Persia.

a His armie was of souldiers which were gathered out of diuers nations.

2 These made warre with Bera King of Sodome, and with Birsa King of Gomorrhe, and with Sinab King of Adma, and with Semeber King of Seboiim, and with the King of Bela, the same is Soar.

3 All these were ioyned together in the vale of Siddim, where nowe the salt Sea is.

4 Fortwelue yeeres were they subiect to King Chodorlaomer, and in the thirteenth yeere rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth yeere came Chodorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the ‡ Giants in Astaroth Carnaim, and the Susimes in Ham, and the Emims in the plaine of Cariathaim, ‡Heb. Rephaims.

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, vnto the plaine of Paran, which bordereth vpon the wildernesse.

7 And they returning, came to Enmishpat, which is Cades, and smote all the countrie of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelt in Hazezon-thamar.

8 And there went out the King of Sodome, and the King of Gomorrhe, and the King of Adma, and the King of Seboiim, and the King of Bela, which is Soar.

b They might haue sought meanes of reconciliation, by the ouerthrow of their neighbours.
c The Sodomites might know that for their punishment, God gaue victorie to the smaller number, and in a strange maner.
d The terrible destruction of rebels.

9 And b they ioyned battell with them in the vale of Siddim, that is to say, with Chodorlaomer the King of Elam, and with Thidal King of Nations, and with Amraphel King of Sinar, and with Arioch king of Elasar, foure kings against c fiue.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits: and d the kings of Sodome and Gomorrhe fled, and fell there: and they that remained, fled to the mountaine.

11 And they, taking all the goods of Sodome and Gomorrhe, and all their victuals, went their way.

e The godly are partakers of the harmes which come to the wicked among whom they dwell.

12 And they carried away e Lot also, Abrams brothers sonne, and his goods (for he dwelled in Sodome) and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped, and and tolde Abram the Hebrue, which dwelled in the plaine of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eschol, and brother of Aner, which were confederate [f] with Abram.

f God moued them to ioyne with Abram, and pet preferued him from their idolatrie and superstition.

14 When Abram heard that his brother was taken, hee armed his exercised seruants which were borne in his owne house, three hundred and eighteene, and followed on them vnto Dan.

15 And he and his seruants were parted in companies against them by night, and smote them, and pursued them vnto Hoba, which lyeth on the left hand of Damascus:

16 And recouered all the goods, and also brought againe his brother Lot, and his goods, the women also, and the people.

17 After that hee returned againe frō the slaughter of Chodorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, came the king of Sodome forth to meete him in the valley Sauch, which is the kings dale.

18 And Melchisedec king of Salem [g] brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most highest God, g For to refresh Abram and his souldiers, and not to make any oblation. Which doeth signifie that Christ doeth feed the world with his Gospell.

19 And blessed him, saying, Blessed bee Abram vnto the high God, possessour of heauen and earth, 20 And blessed bee the high God, which hath deliuered thine enemies vnto thy hand: and Abram [h] gaue him tythes of all.

h Whereby these tythes is figured, that Christ the Apostle of the Gentiles should receiue tythes.

21 And the king of Sodome sayd vnto Abram, Giue me the soules, & take the goods to thy selfe.

22 And Abram answered the king of Sodome, I haue [i] lift vp my hand vnto the Lord the high God, the possessour of heauen and earth, i An olde maner of swearing.

23 That I will not take of all that is thine, so much as a threde or shoe latchet, lest thou shouldest say, I haue made Abram rich:

24 Saue onely that which the yong men haue eaten, and the portions of the men which went with mee, Aner, Eschol, and Mamre, which shall take their portions.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The Lord is Abrams defence and reward. 4 God promiseth seede to Abram. 6 and he beleeued, and was iustified. 7 The land of Chanaan is yet againe promised to Abram.

AFter these [*] things, the word of the Lord came vnto Abram in a vision, saying, Feare not Abram, I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

*Hebr. words.

2 And Abram said, Lord, what wilt thou giue me, when I goe childelesse, & the [‖] childe of the possession of my house is this Eliezar of Damascus.

3 And Abram said, Beholde, to me thou hast giuen no seede: loe, one borne in my house is mine heire.

4 And behold, the word of the Lord came vnto him, saying, He shall not be thine heire: but one that shall come out of thine owne bowels shall be thine heire.

5 And hee brought him out, and sayde, Looke vp to heauen, and tell the starres, if thou be able to number them. And hee sayde vnto him, Euen so shall thy seede be.

6 And Abram beleeued the Lord, and that counted he to him for righteousnesse.

7 And againe he said vnto him, I am the Lorde that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to giue thee this lande, and that thou mightest inherite it.

8 And he saide, Lord God, [c] whereby shall I knowe that I shall inherite it?

c This asking of signes is a special motion of Gods spirit, not permitted to all men, but to certaine, As to Gedeon, Ezechias, and to the virgine Marie, &c.

9 He answered vnto him, Take an Heyfer of three yeres old, and a shee goate of three yeeres olde, and a three yeeres olde Ramme, a turtle Doue also, and a yong Pigeon.

10 He tooke therefore all these vnto him, and [d] deuided them in the middes, and layde euery piece one ouer against another: but the birdes deuided he not.

d This dismembring of beasts was an olde maner in making leagues among many people, Ier. 34.

11 And when the foules fell on the carkasses, Abram droue them away.

12 And when the sunne was downe, there fell a deepe sleepe vpon Abram: and loe, an horrour of great darkenesse fell vpon him.

13 And he said vnto Abram, Knowe this of a suretie, that thy seede shall be a stranger in a lande that is not theirs, and shall serue them, and they shall entreate them euill [e] foure hundred yeeres.

e Their sore hundred yeres are to be counted from the birth of Isaac, vnto the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

14 But the nation whom they shal serue, will I iudge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 And thou shalt goe to thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good olde age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither againe: for [f] the wickednes of the Amorites is not yet full.

f Though God suffered the wicked for a time, yet his vengeance fell at length vpon them when the measure of their wickednesse was full.

17 And so it was, that when the sunne went downe, and it was twylight, behold, a smoking furnace and a fyrebrand going betweene the said pieces.

18 In that same day the Lorde made a couenant with Abram, saying, Vnto thy seede haue I giuen this land, from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the great riuer, the riuer [*] Euphrates.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 Sarai giueth Abram leaue to take Hagar her mayde to wife. 4 Hagar despiseth her mistresse, 6 and beeing euill entreated, runneth away from Sarai. 7 An Angel comforteth her, 9 willing her to turne againe, and nameth her first childe Ismael.

SArai Abrams wife bare him no children: but shee had an [‖] handmayde, an Egyptian, Hagar by name,

‖Or, a hood woman.

2 And Sarai said vnto Abram, Behold,

Beholde, now the Lorde hath restrayned me, that I cannot beare: I pray thee goe in to my maid, it may be that I may ‖ be builded by her: and Abram obeyed the voyce of Sarai.

a She erred in that she sought vnlawfull meanes, as though God could not giue her children in her olde age.

‖ Or, receiue a childe.

3 And Sarai Abrams wife, tooke Hagar her maide the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten yeeres in the land of Canaan, and gaue her to her husband Abram, to bee his wife.

4 And hee went in vnto Hagar, and shee conceiued. And when shee saw that shee had conceiued, b her mistresse was despised in her eyes.

b This punishment declareth the anger of God against those that attempt any thing against his worde.

5 And Sarai said vnto Abram, There is wrong done vnto me by thee: I haue giuen my maid into thy bosome, which, seeing that she hath conceiued, I am despised in her eyes: the Lord be iudge betweene thee and me.

6 But Abram said vnto Sarai, Behold, thy c maid is in thy hand, doe with her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from the face of her.

c Abram beareth with the anger of his wife.

7 And the Angell of the Lorde found her beside a fountaine in the wildernesse, by the well that is in the way to Sur:

8 And hee sayde, Hagar Sarais maide, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou goe? She said, I flee from the face of my mistresse Sarai.

9 And the Angell of the Lorde sayd vnto her, d Returne to thy mistresse againe, and submit thy selfe vnder her hands.

d The seueritie of the master should not make the seruant neglect his duetie.

10 And againe e the Angell of the Lorde saide vnto her, In multiplying, I will multiplie thy seed, in such sort, that it shall not be numbred for multitude.

e The ministers that God sendeth, vse to speake in Gods person.

11 And the Lordes Angell sayde vnto her, See, thou art with childe, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name ‖ Ismael: because the Lorde hath heard thy tribulation.

‖ Or, that is the Lorde shall heare.

12 He also will be a ‖ wilde man, and his hand will be against euery man, and euery mans hand against him: and he shal dwel in the presence of all his brethren.

‖ That is, a fierce or a cruell man.

13 And shee called the name of the Lorde that spake vnto her, Thou God lookest on me: for she sayd, Haue I not also here looked after him that seeth me?

f God by this worde signifie his iust iudgement, that such as delight to be at continuall enmitie with other men, shall likewise haue other men continuall enemies vnto them.

14 Wherefore the well was called, The well of him that liueth and seeth me: and it is betweene Cades and Bared.

15 And Hagar bare Abram a sonne: and Abram called his sonnes name, which Hagar bare vnto him, Ismael.

16 And Abram was fourescore and sixe yeeres old, when Hagar bare Ismael to him.

The xvii. Chapter.

5 Abram is called Abraham. 8 The land of Chanaan is promised vnto Abraham the fift time. 11 Circumcision is ordeyned. 15 Sarai is named Sara. 16 Isaac is promised againe vnto Abraham. 23 Abraham circumciseth him selfe, Ismael, and his houshold seruants.

When Abram was ninetie yeeres olde and nine, the Lord appeared to him, and saide vnto him, I am the almightie GOD, walke before mee, and be thou perfect.

2 And I wil make my couenant betweene me and thee, and will multiplie thee exceedingly.

3 Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 It is I, beholde, my couenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many a nations.

a Not of them only that were of his children: but also of the beleeuing Gentiles.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be called b Abraham: * for a father of many nations haue I made thee.

b The changing of his name, is a seale of Gods promise.

Rom. 4. 17.

6 c I will make thee exceeding fruitfull, and will make nations of thee, yea ‡ kings shall spring out of thee.

c It was a hard thing for an old man to be perswaded herein, therefore God reiterateth his saying.

‡ Heb. I wil make to rise

7 Moreouer, ‡ I wil make my couenant betweene mee and thee, and thy seede after thee, in their generations, by an euerlasting couenant, that I may be God vnto thee, and to thy seede after thee.

8 And I will giue vnto thee, and to thy seede after thee, the lande wherein thou art a stranger, euen all the land of Chanaan, for an euerlasting possession, & will be d their God.

d The promise made to Abram, stayed not it selfe only vpon this life.

9 And God saide againe vnto Abraham, Thou shalt keepe my couenant therefore, both thou, and thy seede after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my couenant, which yee shall keepe betweene me and you, and thy seede after thee: euery * man childe among you shall be e circumcised.

Actes 7. 8.

11 Yee shall circumcise f the flesh of your foreskinne, and it shall be a token of the couenant betwixt me and you.

e Circumcision is called the couenant, because it hath included in it the promise of Gods grace.

f That privie part is circumcised, to shewe that all that is begotte of man is corrupt, and must be mortified, Rom. 4.

12 And euery manchilde of eight dayes olde, shalbe circumcised amongst you in your generations: both hee that is borne in thy house, as he that is bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seede.

13 He that is borne in thine house, and he also that is bought with money, must needs be circumcised: and my couenant shall be in your flesh for an euerlasting couenant.

14 And the vncircumcised manchilde, in whose flesh the foreskin is not circumcised, g that soule shalbe cut off from his people, because he hath broken my couenant.

g The ordinances of Gods sacraments shal not be broken of Gods promises and benefites must abide sure.

15 And God sayd vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sara shall her name be.

16 And I will blesse her, and giue thee a sonne of her: yea, I will blesse her, and shee shalbe a mother of nations, yea and kings of people shall spring of her.

17 Then Abraham fell vpon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be borne vnto him that is an hundred yeeres olde? and shall Sara that is nintie yeeres olde beare?

h This commandement of God vrgeth vniuersally, but that pertaineth not to the strangers thereof.

18 And Abraham saide vnto God, O that Ismael might liue in thy sight.

19 Vnto whom God said, Sara thy wife shall beare thee a sonne in deede, and thou shalt call his name Isahac: and I will establish my couenant with him for an [i] euerlasting couenant, and with his seede after him.

20 And as concerning Ismael also I haue heard thee: for I haue blessed him, and will make him fruitefull, and will multiplie him exceedingly: Twelue princes shall he beget, and I will make a great nation of him.

21 But my couenant will I make with Isahac, which Sara shall beare vnto thee, euen this time twelue moneth.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God departed vp from Abraham.

23 Abraham tooke Ismael his sonne, and such as were borne in his house, and all that was bought with money, as many as were men children, which were amongst the men of Abrahams house, and [k] circumcised the flesh of their foreskinne in the selfe same day, as God had said vnto him.

24 Abraham also himselfe was ninetie yeeres olde and nine, when the flesh of his foreskinne was circumcised.

25 Ismael his sonne was thirteene yeres olde, when hee was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskinne.

26 The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ismael his sonne.

27 And all the men of his house borne in his house, or bought with money of strangers, were circumcised with him.

i The euerlasting couenant is made with the children of the spirit: and with the children of the flesh is made the temporall promise, as in this place to Ismael.

k They were wel instructed, which obeyed to bee circumcised without resistance: which thing declareth, that maisters in their houses ought to be preachers to their families, that from the highest to the lowest, they may obey the will of God.

The xviij. Chapter.

1 Christ is promised to all nations. 11 The destruction of Sodome is declared to Abraham. 23 Abraham prayeth for them.

Heb. 13. 2.

AND the Lord [a] appeared vnto him in the plaine of Mamre: and hee sate in his tent doore in the heate of the day.

2 And he lift vp his eyes and looked, and loe, three men stood by him: and when he sawe them, he ranne to meete them from the tent doore, and bowed himselfe toward the ground,

3 And said, [b] Lord, if I haue nowe found fauour in thy sight, passe not away, I pray thee, from thy seruant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be set, and wash your feete, and refresh your selues vnder the tree,

5 And I will set a morsell of bread to comfort your hearts withall, and then shall you goe your wayes: for therefore are you come to your seruant. And they said, Doe as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham went apace into the tent, vnto Sara, and said, Make ready at once three measures of fine meale, kneade it, and make cakes vpon the hearth.

7 And Abraham running vnto his beasts, fet a Calfe, tender and good, and gaue it vnto a yong man: and he hasted to make it ready at once.

8 And he tooke butter, and milke, and the Calfe which he had prepared, and set it before them, and stood himselfe by them vnder the tree: [c] and they did eate.

9 And they said vnto him, Where is Sara thy wife? He answered, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainely returne vnto thee [d] if I liue: and loe, Sara thy wife shall haue a sonne. That heard Sara in the tent doore, which was behind him.

11 Abraham & Sara were both olde, and well stricken in age: and it ceased to be with Sara, after the maner as it is with women.

12 Therefore Sara laughed within her selfe, saying, Nowe I am wared olde, shall I giue my selfe to lust, and my lord olde also?

13 And God said vnto Abraham, Wherefore did Sara laugh, saying, Shall I of a suretie beare a childe, which am olde?

14 Is any thing [e] vnpossible to God? According to the time appointed will I returne vnto thee, if I liue: and Sara shall haue a sonne.

15 Then Sara denied it, saying, I laughed not: for she was afrayd. And he sayde, It is not so, but thou diddest laugh.

16 And the men, rising vp from thence, looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord sayd, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I doe, 18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely be a great and a mightie nation, and all the nations of the earth shalbe blessed in him?

19 I knowe this also, that he will commaund his children and his household after him, that they keepe the way of the Lorde, and to do iustice & iudgement, that the Lord may bring vpon Abraham that hee hath spoken vnto him.

20 And the Lord sayde, [f] Because the crie of Sodome and Gomorrhe is great, and because their sinne is exceeding grieuous:

21 I will goe downe nowe, and see whether they haue [g] done altogether according to that crie which is come vnto me: and if not, I will knowe.

22 And the men departed thence, & went toward Sodome: but Abraham stoode yet before the Lord.

23 And Abraham drewe neere, and sayd, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 If there bee fiftie righteous within the citie, wilt thou destroy, and not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therin?

25 That bee farre from thee, that thou shouldest doe after this maner, and slay the righteous with the wicked, and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be farre from thee: Shall not the iudge of all the world doe according to right?

26 And the Lord said, If I finde in Sodome fiftie righteous within the citie, I will [h] spare a Though they were Angels, yet in outward shew they were but men.

b He calleth them, but directeth his speech to one, whereby the mysterie of the Trinitie is declared.

c For as God gaue them bodies for a time, so gaue he them the vse thereof, that is, to walke, to eate & drinke, and such like.

d As the Angel before did walke, eate and drinke like a man, so he speaketh here as a man.

e Heb. hidden.

f God foreseeth punishment, vntill the ripenesse of our sinnes compell him to inflict punishment.

g God had before by warre and destruction of their enemies, called them to repentance: but they contemned Gods calling.

h Abraham wisheth not the wicked to be vnpunished: but the godly to be deliuered out of this great destruction.

h God bindeth not himselfe here alwaies to spare the wicked for the godly mens sake: as Ezechiel 18.

27 And Abraham answering, saide, Beholde, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes:

28 If there shall lacke fiue of fiftie righteous, wilt thou destroy all the citie for lacke of fiue? And he said, If I finde there fourtie and fiue, I will not destroy them.

29 And hee proceeded to speake vnto him againe, and sayd, what if there shall be fourtie found there? He answered, I will not doe it for fourties sake.

30 He saide vnto him againe, O let not my Lord bee angry that I speake: what if there shall thirtie be found there? And hee sayde, I will doe nothing if I finde thirtie there.

31 He said againe, O see, I haue taken vpon me to speake nowe also vnto my Lord: what if there shall be twentie found there? Hee answered, I will not destroy them for twenties sake.

32 And he said, O let not my Lord be angry, & I will speake yet but this once: what if tenne shalbe found there? He answered, I will not destroy them for tennes sake.

33 And the Lord went his way alloone as hee had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham also returned vnto his place.

The xix. Chapter.

2 Lot receiueth two Angels into his house. 4 The filthy lustes of the Sodomites. 24 Sodome is destroyed.

AND there came two Angels to Sodome at euen, and Lot sate at the gate of Sodome: & Lot seeing them, rose vp to meete them, and he bowed himselfe with his face toward the ground.

2 And he said, Oh my Lords, turne in, I pray you, into your seruants house, and tary all night, and wash your feete, and ye shall rise vp earely to goe in your waies. Which sayd, Nay: but we will bide in the streete all night.

3 And he pressed vpon them exceedingly: and they returning in vnto him, entred into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake vnleuened bread, and they did eate.

4 And before they went to rest, the men of the citie, euen the men of Sodome compalled the house round about, a both olde and yong, all people from all quarters.

5 And they calling vnto Lot, sayde vnto him, b where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs, that we may knowe them.

6 And Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and shut the doore after him,

7 And said, Nay, I pray you brethren, doe not so wickedly.

8 Beholde, I haue two daughters, which haue knowen no man, them will I bring out nowe vnto you, and c doe with them as it seemeth good in your eyes: onely vnto these men doe nothing: for therefore came they vnder the shadowe of my roofe.

a Nothing is more hospitable then to dwell where charge is required, the purpose to preuent euill acts. b This one place declareth the manifold wickednesse of the citie.

c In the darknes of the transgression was ignorance to this goodnes to do as them, it was not good.

9 d And they said, Stand backe: And they sayde againe, He came in to sojourne, and will he be nowe a iudge? We will surely deale worse with thee then with them. And they prealled sore vpon the man, euen Lot, and came to breake vp the doore.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the doore.

11 And the men that were at the doore of the house, they smote with blindnesse both small and great: so that they were wearied in ‡seeking the doore.

12 And the men said vnto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? e sonne in law, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters, and whatsoeuer thou hast in the citie, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is great before the face of God: for the Lord hath sent f vs to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake vnto his sonnes in law, which married his daughters, saying, Stand vp, get yee out of this place, for the Lord will ouerthrow this citie. But he seemed as though he had mocked vnto his sonnes in law.

15 And when the morning arose, the Angels caused Lot to speed him, saying, Stand vp, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which be at hand: least thou perish in the ‖sinne of the citie.

16 And as he prolonged the time, the men caught both him, his wife, & his two daughters by the hands, the Lord being merciful vnto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the citie.

17 And when they had brought them out, the Angell h said, ‖ Saue thy selfe, and looke not behinde thee, neither tarry thou in all this playne country: ‖ saue thy selfe in the mountaine, least thou perish.

18 And Lot sayde vnto them, Oh not so, my lordes.

19 Behold, thy seruant hath found grace in thy sight, & thou hast magnified thy mercy which thou hast shewed vnto mee in sauing my life: i Beholde, I cannot be saued in the mountaine, least some harme fall vpon me, and I die.

20 Beholde, here is a citie by, to flee vnto, euen ponder little one: Oh let mee escape thither: Is it not a little one, & my soule shal liue?

21 And he said vnto him, See, I haue receiued thy ‡request, as concerning this thing, that I will not ouerthrowe this citie for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, and ‖ be saued there: for I can doe nothing till thou bee come thither. And therefore the name of the citie is Soar.

23 And the Sunne was now risen vpon the earth, and Lot was entred into Soar.

24 Then the Lord rayned vpon Sodome and Gomorrha brimstone and fire, from the Lord out of heauen:

25 And ouerthrew thole cities, and all that that plaine region, and all that dwelled in the cities, & that that grew vpon the earth.

26 But Lots wife following him, looked behind her, and [k] was turned into a pillar of salt.

27 Abraham rising vp early, got him to the place where he stood before the presence of God, 28 And looked toward Sodome and Gomorrhe, & toward all the land of that plaine countrey, & beheld, and lo, the smoke of the countrey arose, as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to passe, that when God destroyed the cities of that region, [l] hee thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middest of the ouerthrow, when he ouerthrewe the cities, in one of the which Lot dwelled.

30 And Lot departed out of Soar, and dwelled in the mountaine, with his two daughters: for he feared to tary in Soar, but dwelled in a caue, he & his two daughters.

31 And the ‖ elder said vnto the yonger, [m] Our father is olde, and there is not a man in the earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of all the world.

33 And so they gaue their father wine to drinke that night: & the elder daughter went and lay with her father: and he perceiued it not, neither when she lay downe, neither when he rose vp.

34 And on the morow the elder said vnto the yonger, Beholde, yesternight lay I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and goe thou and lye with him, that wee may kayle vp seede of our father. And they made their father drinke wine that night also.

35 And the yonger arose, and lay with him: and he perceiued it not, neither when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp.

36 Thus were [n] both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites vnto this day.

38 And the yonger bare a sonne also, and called his name Benammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon vnto this day.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerar.

[a] ABraham [a] departed thence toward the South countrey, and dwelled betweene Cades and Sur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sara his wife, [b] Shee is my sister: And Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and set Sara away.

3 But God came to Abimelech by night in a dreame, and saide to him, See, [c] thou art but a dead man for the womans sake which thou hast taken away: for shee is a mans wife.

4 But Abimelech had not yet touched her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay righteous people?

5 Said not he vnto me, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: with a [d] single heart, and innocent handes haue I done this.

6 And God said vnto him in a dreame, I wote well that thou didst it in the singlenes of thy heart: I kept thee also that thou shouldest not sinne against me, and therefore suffered I not thee to touch her.

7 Nowe therefore, deliuer the man his wife againe: for he is a Prophet, and he shall pray for thee that thou mayest liue: But and if thou deliuer her not againe, bee sure that thou shalt die the death, both thou and all that thou hast.

8 Therefore Abimelech rising vp betimes in the morning, called all his seruants, and told all these sayings in their eares: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my [e] kingdome so great a sinne? thou hast done deedes vnto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech saide vnto Abraham, what sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 Abraham answered, For I ‖ thought thus, Surely, the feare of God is not in this place: and they shall slay me for my wifes sake.

12 Yet in very deed she is my sister: for she is the daughter of my father, though she bee not the daughter of my mother, and shee became my wife.

13 And after God caused mee to wander out of my fathers house, I saide vnto her, This kindnesse shalt thou shewe vnto me: in all places where we come, that thou say of me, He is my brother.

14 Then tooke Abimelech sheepe & oxen, men seruants, and women seruants, and gaue them vnto Abraham, & deliuered him Sara his wife againe.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land lyeth before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee best.

16 But vnto Sara he said, See, I haue giuen thy brother a thousande peeces of siluer: behold, it is a couering of thine eyes vnto all that are with thee, and to all other: and thus she was [f] reproued.

17 And so Abraham prayed vnto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidens, and they bare children.

The xxj. Chapter.

3 Iſahac is borne. 14 Hagar is caſt out, with her yong ſonne Iſmael. 17 The Angel comforteth her.

THe Lorde viſited Sara, as he had promiſed, and did vnto her accordyng as he had ſpoken.

2 For Sara conceiued, and bare Abraham a ſonne in his olde age, the ſame ſeaſon which the Lorde had appointed.

3 And Abraham [a] called his ſones name that was borne vnto him, which Sara bare him, ‡ Iſahac.

4 And Abraham circumciſed his ſonne Iſahac, when he was ‡ eight dayes olde, as God commaunded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred yeeres olde, when his ſonne Iſahac was borne vnto him.

6 But Sara ſaid, God hath made ‡ me to reioyce, ſo that all that heare, will ioy with me.

7 She ſaide alſo, Who would haue ſaide vnto Abraham, that Sara ſhould [b] haue giuen children ſucke? for I haue borne him a ſonne in his olde age.

8 The childe grewe, & was weaned: and Abraham made a great feaſt the ſame day that Iſahac was weaned.

9 Sara ſawe alſo the ſonne of Hagar the Egyptian, which ſhe had borne vnto Abraham, to be a [c] mocker.

10 Wherefore ſhee ſaide vnto Abraham, Caſt out this bond woman, and her ſonne: for the ſonne of this bond woman ſhal not be heire with my ſonne Iſahac.

11 And this ſaying was very grieuous in Abrahams ſight, becauſe of his ſonne.

12 And God ſaide vnto Abraham, Let it not be grieuous in thy ſight, becauſe of the lad, and of thy bond woman: In all that Sara hath ſaid vnto thee, heare her voyce: for in Iſahac ſhall thy ſeede be called.

13 Moreouer, of the ſonne of the bonde woman will I make a nation: becauſe he is thyſeede.

14 And [d] Abraham roſe vp early in the morning, and tooke bread, and a bottell of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her ſhoulder, and the lad alſo, and ſent her away: who departing, wandered vp & downe in the wildernes of ‡ Beer-ſeba.

15 And the water was ſpent in the bottel, & ſhe caſt the lad vnder ſome one of the trees:

16 And went and ſate on the other ſide a great way, as it were a bowe ſhoote off: for ſhe ſaid, I will not ſee the death of the childe. And ſhe ſitting downe on the other ſide, lift vp her voyce, and wept.

17 And God [e] heard the voyce of the lad, and the Angell of God called to Hagar out of heauen, & ſaide vnto her, What ayleth thee, Hagar? feare not: for God hath heard the voyce of the lad where he lyeth.

18 Arile, and lift vp the ladde, and take him in thine hand: for I will make of him a great people.

19 And God [f] opened her eyes, and ſhee ſaw a well of water, & ſhe went and filled the bottell with water, and gaue the lad drinke.

20 And [g] God was with the ladde, and he grewe, and dwelt in the wildernes, and became a principall archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderneſs of Paran: and his mother got him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 And at the ſame ſeaſon, Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captaine ſpake vnto Abraham, ſaying, God is with thee in al that thou doeſt:

23 And nowe therefore, ſweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not ‡ hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: but that thou ſhalt deale with me, and the countrey where thou haſt bene a ſtraunger, according vnto the kindeneſſe that I haue ſhewed thee.

24 And Abraham ſaid, I will [h] ſweare.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelechs ſeruants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech ſaide, I wote not who hath done this thing: alſo thou toldeſt mee not, neither heard I of it but this day.

27 And Abraham tooke ſheepe and oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech: and they made both of them a league together.

28 And Abraham ſet ſeuen ewe lambes by themſelues.

29 And Abimelech ſaide vnto Abraham, what meane theſe ſeuen ewe lambes, which thou haſt ſet by themſelues?

30 Hee anſwered, For theſe ſeuen ewe lambes ſhalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witneſſe vnto me, that I haue digged this well.

31 Wherefore the place is called [i] Beerſeba: becauſe that there they ſware both of them.

32 Thus made they a [k] league together at Beerſeba: and Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captaine roſe vp, & turned againe into the land of the Philiſtines.

33 And Abraham planted a wood in Beerſeba, and [l] called there on the name of the Lord the euerlaſting God.

34 And Abraham ſoiourned in the Philiſtims land a long ſeaſon.

3 Then Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and saded his asse, and tooke two of his yong men with him, and Isaac his sonne, and cloue wood for the burnt offering, and rose vp, and went vnto the place which God had appointed him.

4 The third day Abraham lift vp his eyes, and saw the place a farre off.

5 And said vnto his yong men, Abide ye here with the asse, I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come againe to you.

6 And Abraham tooke the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it vpon Isaac his sonne: and he tooke fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 Then spake Isaac vnto Abraham his father, and said, My father? And he answered, Here am I, my sonne. And he said, Behold, here is fire and wood: but where is the lambe for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham answered, My sonne, God will prouide him a lambe for a burnt offering: so they went both together.

9 And when they came to the place which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there, & ordered the wood, and bound Isaac his sonne, and laid him on the altar aboue vpon the wood.

a The godly may mourne so that they mourne not out of measure: for the nature all affection is not to be disalowed.

3 And Abraham stood vp from the sight of his coarse, and talked with the sonnes of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner amongst you: giue me a possession to burie in with you, that I may burie my coarse out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying vnto him, b That is, godly, as excellent, for so the Hebrues vse to speake of all things that are notable.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your ‡ minde that I shall burie my dead out of my sight, heare me, and speake for me to Ephron the sonne of Soar,

The xxiiii. Chapter.

2 Abraham causeth his seruant to sweare to take a wife for Isahac of his owne kinred.

AND Abraham was old and well stricken in dayes: and the Lorde had blessed Abraham in all thinges.

2 And Abraham saide vnto his eldest seruant of his house, which had the rule ouer all that he had, [a] Put thy hande vnder my thigh:

3 And I will make thee sweare by the Lorde God of heauen, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne, of the daughters of the Chananites, amongst which I dwell:

4 But thou shalt goe vnto my countrey, and to [b] my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne Isahac.

5 But the seruant said vnto him, Peradventure the woman will not agree to come with me vnto this lande, shall I bring thy sonne againe vnto the lande which thou camest out of?

6 To whome Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne thither againe.

7 The Lord God of heauen, which tooke me from my fathers house, and from the lande of my kinred, and which spake vnto me, and that sware vnto me, saying, vnto thy seede will I giue this lande, he shall send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence.

8 Neuertheless, if the woman will not followe thee, then shalt thou be cleare from this my othe: onely bring not my sonne thither againe.

a An old manner of taking an oth, whereby the inferior did testifie his subiection. And here also may be gathered the mysterie of Christ, which came of the loynes of Abraham.

b Abraham would not that his sonne should marrie out of the godly kinrike, for the inconueniences that come by marrying with the vngodly, which are set forth in sundry places of the Scripture.

9 And the seruant put his hande vnder the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him as concerning that matter.

10 And the seruant tooke tenne Camels of the camels of his master, and departed (and had of all maner of goods of his master with him) and arose and went to Mesopotamia, vnto the citie of Nachor.

‡ Heb. Aram, Naharaim. that is, Syria of the two floods.

11 And made his Camels to lie downe without the citie by a well of water, at euen, about the time that women come to drawe water.

c He grounded his praier vpon Gods promise made to his master.

12 And he said, O Lord God of my master Abraham, I pray thee send me good speede this day, and shewe mercie vnto my master Abraham.

‡ Make to meete before me to day.

13 Lo, I stande here by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of this citie come out to draw water.

d The seruant desired by Gods spirite, desired to be assured by a signe, whether he should speede of his message, or no.

14 Now let the damsell to whome I say, Bowe downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: & she shall answere, Drinke, and I will giue thy Camels drinke also: let the same be she that thou hast prepared for thy seruant Isahac, & thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed mercie vnto my master.

15 And it came to passe, or he had left speaking, behold, Rebecca came out, she daughter of Bethuel sonne of Milcha, the wife of Nachor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder.

16 The damsell was very faire to looke vpon, and yet a mayde, and vnknowen of man: and she went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 And the seruant running to meete her, sayde, Let me, I pray thee, drinken a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke my Lorde. And she hasted, and let downe her pitcher vpon her arme, and gaue him drinke.

19 And when she had giuen him drinke, she said, I will drawe water for thy Camels also, vntill they ‖ haue dronke ynough.

‖ Or, ceasse to drinke.

20 And she powred out her pitcher into the trough hastily, and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and drewe for all his Camels.

21 And the man wondered at her, and held his peace: to wit whether the Lorde had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And as the Camels had left drinking, the man tooke a golden earering of halfe a sicle weight, & two bracelets for her handes, of ten sicles weight of golde, 23 And saide, whose daughter art thou: tell me, I pray thee: is there rowme in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

24 She answered him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcha, which he bare vnto Nachor:

25 And said moreouer vnto him, we haue litter and prouender ynough, & also rowme to lodge in.

26 And

26 And the man bowed him selfe, and worshipped the Lord,

27 And saide, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hath not left destitute my master of his mercie and trueth: for when I was [c] on my iourney, the Lorde brought me to my masters brothers house.

28 And the damsel ranne, and tolde them of her mothers house these things.

29 And Rebecca had a brother called Laban: and hee ranne out vnto the man to the well.

30 For as soone as he had seene the earerings, and the bracelets in his sisters hande, and heard the wordes of Rebecca his sister, saying, Thus sayde the man vnto mee: hee went out vnto the man, and loe, he stoode with the Camels by the welles side:

31 And he sayde, Come in, thou blessed of the Lord, wherefore standest thou without? I haue dressed the house, and roume for thy Camels.

32 And then the man came into the house: and he vnharnessed the Camels, & brought litter and prouender for the Camels, & water to wash his feete, and the mens feete that were with him.

33 And there was set meate before him to eate: [d] but he said, I will not eate, vntill I haue said mine errand. And he said, Say on.

34 And he said, I am Abrahams seruant,

35 And [e] God hath blessed my master marueilously, that he is become great: and hath giuen him sheepe and oxen, siluer and golde, men seruantes, and mayde seruantes, Camels and Asses.

36 And Sara my masters wife bare a sonne to my master when she was olde: and vnto him hath he giuen all that he hath.

37 And my master made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne amongst the daughters of the Chanaanites in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt goe vnto my fathers house, and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne.

39 And I sayde vnto my master, Peraduenture the woman will not followe me.

40 And he answered mee, The Lorde, before whome I walke, will sende his angell with thee, and prosper thy iourney: and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred, and of my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be free from this othe made to me, when thou commest to my kinred: and if they giue not thee one, thou shalt be free from this othe made to me.

42 And so I came this day vnto the well, and saide [h] O Lorde, the God of my master Abraham, if it be so now that thou makest my iourney which I goe, prosperous, 43 Beholde, I stand by the well of water: and when a virgin commeth forth to draw water, and I say to her, Giue me I pray thee a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke:

44 And she say to me, Drinke thou, and I will also draw for thy Camels: let the same be the woman whome the Lorde hath prepared for my masters sonne.

45 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine heart, beholde, Rebecca came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder: and shee went downe vnto the well, and drew water: and I said vnto her, Giue me drinke, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher from her shoulder and sayde, Drinke, and I will giue thy Camels drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the Camels drinke also.

47 And I asked her, saying, Whose daughter art thou? She answered, The daughter of Bethuel, Nachors sonne, whom Milcha bare vnto him: and I put the earering ‡ vpon her face, & the bracelets vpon her hands.

48 And [i] I bowed my selfe, and worshipped the Lorde, and blessed the Lorde God of my master Abraham, which had brought me the right way, to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.

49 Now also if yee will consent to deale mercifully and truely with my master, tell me: [k] and if not, tell mee also, that I may turne me to the [l] right hand, or to the left.

50 Then answered Laban and Bethuel, saying, This saying proceedeth of the Lorde: wee can not therefore say vnto thee eyther good or bad.

51 Beholde, Rebecca is before thee, take her, and goe, that shee may be thy masters sonnes wife, euen as God hath sayd.

52 And when Abrahams seruant heard their wordes, he worshipped the Lorde, bowing himselfe toward the earth.

53 And the seruant tooke forth ‡ iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment, and gaue them to Rebecca, & to her brother, and to her mother he gaue ‡ costly giftes.

54 And they did eate and drinke, both he and the men that were with him, and taried all night: and when they rose vp in the morning, he said, Let me depart vnto my master.

55 Her brother and her mother answered, Let the damsell abide with vs, and it be but ten dayes, and then shall she goe.

56 He sayde vnto them, Hinder me not: beholde, the Lorde hath prospered my iourney: sende mee away therefore, that I may goe to my master.

57 And they said, [m] we will call the damsell, and enquire ‖ at her mouth.

58 And they called forth Rebecca, and saide vnto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she answered, I will goe.

59 So they let Rebecca their sister go, and her nurse, & Abrahams seruant, & his men, 60 And they blessed Rebecca, & said vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousand thousands: and thy seede [n] possesse the gate of his enemies.

61 And Rebecca arose, & her damsels, and gate them vp vpon the Camels, and followed ABraham proceeded further, & tooke him another wife, called Cetura.

The xxvi. Chapter.

9 Abimelech rebuketh Isahac for calling his wife his sister. 28 The atonement betweene Abimelech and Isahac.

AND there fell a famine in the lande, besides the first that was in the dayes of Abraham: and Isahac went vnto [a] Abimelech king of the Philistines, vnto Gerar.

a All the kings of Gerar were called Abimelech, as the kings of Egypt Pharaohs.

2 And the Lorde appeared vnto him, and said, Go not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shal shew vnto thee.

3 Sojourne in this land, & I wil be with thee, and will blesse thee: for vnto thee, and vnto thy seede, I will giue all these countreys, and I will performe the othe which I sware vnto Abraham thy father:

4 And will make thy seede to multiply as the starres of heauen, and will giue vnto thy seede all these countreis: and in thy seede shal all the nations of the earth be blessed:

5 Because that [b] Abraham hearkened vnto my voyce, and kept my ordinance, my commandements, my statutes, and my lawes.

b God commendeth Abrahams obedience, that Isahac should be more ready to do the like: by as God made his promise to Abraham of his free mercie, so the confirmation thereof to Isahac, proceeded of the same fountaine.

6 And Isahac dwelled in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife. And he said, [c] Shee is my sister: for he feared to say, Shee is my wife: least the men of the place shoulde haue killed him because of Rebecca, which was beautifull to the eye.

c Whereby we see that feare & distrust are ioynde to the most faithfull. & By shewing some familiar signe of loue, whereby it might be knowen she was his wife.

8 And after he had bin there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw Isahac [d] sporting with Rebecca his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isahac, and said, Beholde, she is of a suretie thy wife: and why saydest thou, Shee is my sister? To whome Isahac answered, Because I thought that I might peraduenture haue died for her sake.

d A heathenish king reproueth Isahac of his foolish dissimulation.

10 Abimelech [e] said, why hast thou done thus vnto vs? one of the people might lightly haue lien by thy wife, and so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.

11 And so Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife, shall dye the death.

12 Then Isahac sowed in that land, and receiued in the same yeere ‡ an hundred fold: and the Lord ‖ blessed him.

Iacob stealeth his fathers blessing from Esau by his mothers counsell. 41 Esau hateth Iacob. 43 Rebecca sendeth Iacob away into Haran to his vncle Laban.

AND it came to passe, that when Isahac waxed old, and his eyes were dimme, so that hee coulde not see, he called Esau his eldest sonne, and saide vnto him, My sonne: And he said vnto him, Here am I.

2 And he said, Behold, I am now old, and know not the day of my death.

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiuer, and thy bowe, and get thee to the field, that thou mayest take mee some venison.

4 And make me well tasting meate, such as I loue, and bring it to me, that I may eat, [a] that my soule may blesse thee before that I die.

5 But Rebecca heard when Isahac spake to Esau his sonne: And Esau went into the field to hunt venison, and to bring it.

6 And Rebecca spake vnto Jacob her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue hearde thy father talking with Esau thy brother, and saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me daintie meate, that I may eat, and blesse thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Nowe therefore my sonne, [b] heare my voyce, in that which I commaund thee, 9 Get thee to the flocke, and bring mee thence two good kids from the goates, and I will make of them pleasant meates for thy father, such as he loueth.

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eate, and that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 Then said Jacob to Rebecca his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is a hairie man, and I am smooth:

12 My father shal peraduenture feele me, & I shall seeme vnto him as though I went about to beguile him, and so shall I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said vnto him, [c] vpon mee bee the curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and goe and fetch me them.

14 And Iacob went, and fet them, and brought them to his mother, & his mother made pleasant meate, such as thee knewe his father loued.

15 And Rebecca set ‖ goodly rayment, of her eldest sonne Esau, which were in the house with her, and put them vpon Jacob her yonger sonne:

16 And she put the skinnes of the kids vpon his handes, and vpon the smooth of his necke.

17 And shee put that pleasant meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hande of her sonne Jacob.

18 When he came to his father, he saide, My father: And hee answered, Here am I: who art thou my sonne?

19 And Jacob saide vnto his father, [d] I am Esau thy eldest sonne, I haue done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit, and eate of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

20 And Isahac said vnto his sonne, How commeth it that thou hast found it so quickly, my sonne? He answered, The Lorde thy God brought it to my hands.

21 Then said Isahac vnto Jacob, Come neere, and I will feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be my very sonne Esau, or not.

22 Then went Jacob vnto Isahac his father, and he felt him, and said, The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the handes are the hands of Esau.

23 And [e] he knewe him not, because his handes were hairie, as his brother Esaus hands: and so he blessed him.

24 And he asked him, Art thou my sonne Esau? And he said, That I am.

25 Then said he, Bring mee, and let mee eate of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought him, and he ate: and he brought him wine also, and hee dranke.

26 And his father Isahac said vnto him, [f] Come neere, and kisse me, my sonne.

27 And he went vnto him, and kissed him: & he smelled the sauour of his raiment, and blessed him, and saide, See, the smell of my sonne is as the smel of a field which the Lord hath blessed.

28 God giue thee [g] of the dewe of heauen, and of the fatnes of the earth, and plentie of corne and wine.

29 People be thy seruants, and nations bow to thee: be Lord ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children stoupe with reuerence vnto thee: cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 As soone as Isahac had made an ende of blessing Jacob, & Jacob was scarce gone out from the presence of Isahac his father, then came Esau his brother from hunting.

31 And he also had made a pleasant meat, and brought it vnto his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eate of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 Then his father Isahac saide vnto him, who art thou? He answered, I am thy sonne, thy first borne Esau.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy blessing.

38 And Esau sayde vnto his father, Hast thou but that one blessing, my father? Blesse me, I am also thy sonne, O my father. So lifted vp Esau his voyce, [i] and wept.

39 Then Isahac his father answered, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, [k] thy dwelling place shall be the fatnesse of the earth, and of the dewe of heauen from aboue.

40 And through thy sword shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant: and it shall come to passe, that thou shalt get the maistrie, and thou shalt loose his yoke from off thy necke.

41 And Esau hated Iacob, because of the blessing that his father blessed him withall: And Esau sayd in his heart, The dayes of sorowing for my father are at hand, then will I [l] slay my brother Iacob.

42 And these wordes of Esau her elder sonne were told to Rebecca: And she sent, and called Iacob her yonger sonne, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doeth comfort himselfe, full purposing to kill thee.

43 Nowe therefore my sonne, heare my voyce: make thee ready, and flee to Laban my brother at Haran:

44 And tary with him a while, vntill thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, 45 And vntill thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and hee forget the things which thou hast done to him: then will I sende, and fetch thee away from thence: [m] why shoulde I be desolate of you both in one day?

46 And Rebecca sayde to Isahac, I am weary of my life [n] for the daughters of Heth: If Iacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of this land, what good shall my life doe me?

The xxviij. Chapter.

5 Thus Isahac sent forth Iacob, and he went toward Mesopotamia, vnto Laban, sonne of Bethuel the Syrian, and brother to Rebecca, Iacob and Esaus mother.

6 When Esau sawe that Isahac had blessed Iacob, and sent him to Mesopotamia to fetch him a wife from thence, and that as he blessed him, hee gaue him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

7 And that Iacob had obeyed his father and mother, and was gone to Mesopotamia:

8 And Esau seeing also that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isahac his father:

9 Then went Esau vnto Ismael, & tooke vnto the wiues which he had Maiah [b] the daughter of Ismael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

10 Iacob departed from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he came vnto a certaine place, and taried there all night, because the sunne was downe: and tooke of the stones of the place, and put vnder his head, and laid him downe in the same place to sleepe.

12 And he dreamed, and beholde, there stoode [c] a ladder vpon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and see, the Angels of God went vp and downe vpon it.

13 Yea, and God from aboue leaned vpon it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isahac, [d] the land which thou sleepest vpon, will I giue thee and thy seede.

14 And thy seede shall be as the dust of the earth, & thou shalt spread abroad to the west, to the east, to the north, and to the south: and in thee, and in [e] thy seede, shall all the kinreds of the earth be blessed.

15 And see, I am with thee, & will kepe thee, and in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee againe into this land: for I will not [f] leaue thee, vntill I haue made good that which I promised thee.

16 When Iacob was awaked out of his sleepe, he sayde, Surely, the Lord is in this place, and I knewe it not.

17 And he was afraid, & said, How dreadfull is this place? It is none other, but the [g] house

[h] Vnder Gods mercies promised by Isahac, it shall be sure.

[i] The wicked lament their losse but neuer thinke vpon amendment of their wicked liues.

[k] The spirituall blessing only remained in Iacob: this was but a temporall blessing.

[l] The wicked thinke by their power to ouercome the iudgements of God.

[m] For the wicked sonne shall kill the godly, and the plagues of God shall afterward light vpon the wicked sonne.

[n] Which were Esaus wiues. Behold still matters the wrath as an argument to send Iacob away.

[‡] Padan Aram.

[a] If this be made the lawe to vs, that Iacobs seede shall be blessed, what shall they thinke that vse their father hath blessed him before, without Gods mercie.

[b] Thinking thereby to haue reconciled himselfe to his father, but all was in vaine, for he taketh not away the cause of the euill.

[c] It may signifie Christ, by whose mediation all graces come downe to vs, & all helpe, and by whom we ascend into heauen.

[d] Gods promise of mercie in blessing his sonne, is confirmed by God, who giueth to Iacob this land for a pledge of the spirituall inheritance.

[e] Christ promised.

[f] God taketh all the charge of his elect, and neuer forsaketh them.

g Where God appeareth by the ministerie of Angels or men according to his word, there he is said to dwell.

house of God, and it is the gate of heauen.

18 And Iacob rose vp early in the morning, and tooke the stone that hee had layde vnder his head, and pitched it vp on an ende, and powred oyle in the top of it.

19 And hee called the name of the place Bethel: but the name of the citie was called Luza, before time.

20 And Iacob vowed a vowe, saying, If God will bee with mee, and will keepe me in this iourney in which I go, and will giue me bread to eate, and clothes to put on,

21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safetie, then shall the Lord be my God:

22 And this stone which I haue set vpon an ende, shall be Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue mee, I will surely giue the tenth vnto thee.

The xxix. Chapter.

13 Iacob commeth to his vncle Laban, and serueth him seuen yeeres for his daughter Rachel. 23 Lea was brought to his bed in stead of Rachel.

‡ Lift vp his feete. ‡ Children.

THen Iacob ‡ went on his iourney, and came into the land of the ‡ people of the East.

2 And as he looked about, beholde, there was a well in the fielde, and loe, three flocks of sheepe lay thereby: for at the well were the flockes watered: and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks brought, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouth vnto his place.

4 And Iacob sayde vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they saide, Of Haran are we.

5 And he sayde vnto them, Knowe ye Laban the sonne of Nachor? They sayde, Wee knowe him.

‡ Peace to him.

6 And he sayd vnto them, Is ‡ he in good health? And they sayd, He is in good health: and beholde, his daughter Rachel commeth with the sheepe.

‡ Great day.

7 And he said, Loe, it is yet a great ‡ while to night, neither is it time that the cattell shoulde bee gathered together: water ye the sheepe, and goe and feede them.

8 And they said, We may not, vntil all the flocks be brought together, and till they rolle the stone from the welles mouth, and so wee water our sheepe.

9 While he yet talked with them, Rachel came with her fathers sheepe: for shee kept them.

10 Assoone as Iacob sawe Rachel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother, Iacob went, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iacob kissed Rachel, and lift vp his voyce and wept.

12 And Iacob tolde Rachel that he was her fathers [a] brother, and that hee was Rebeccas sonne: therefore ranne she, and told her father.

a The Hebrues call all kinsmen brethren.

13 And when Laban heard certainely tel of Iacob his sisters sonne, he ranne to meete him, and imbraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house: And he tolde Laban [b] all these things.

b That is, vpon what occasion he came alone and so bare from his countrey.

14 To whom Laban saide, Well, thou art my bone and my flesh. And hee abode with him the space of a moneth.

15 And Laban said vnto Iacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serue me for nought? Tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 Laban had two daughters: the elder called Lea, the younger, Rachel.

17 Lea was tender eyed: but Rachel was beautifull and well fauoured.

18 And Iacob loued Rachel, and saide, I will serue thee seuen yeeres for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Laban answered, [c] It is better that I giue her vnto thee, then that I shoulde giue her vnto another man: abide with me.

c He as an hypocrite, he hath refused to bis aduantage in the marriage, as this selling of his daughter.

20 And Iacob serued seuen yeeres for Rachel: and they seemed vnto him but a fewe dayes, for the loue he had to her.

21 And Iacob sayd vnto [d] Laban, Giue me my wife, that I may ‡ lie with her: for my dayes are fulfilled.

d The fathers authoritie in marriage of his children.

22 Then Laban gathered together all the men of that place, and made a feast.

23 And when euen was come, he tooke Lea his daughter, [e] and he brought her to him, and he went in to her.

e The bride was brought to her chamber couered with a vaile, as the maner was in those dayes: So Labans deceit was not fully spyed.

24 And Laban gaue vnto his daughter Lea, Zilpha his mayd to be her seruant.

25 And when the morning was come, behold, it was Lea. Then sayd he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou played thus with me? did not I serue thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 Laban answered, [f] It is not the maner of this place to marrie the yonger before the first borne.

f He afterward more the manner that he had by Iacobs seruice, then either his promise or the maner of the countrey, though he alleaged customs for his excuse.

27 Make out this weeke, and then we will giue thee this also, for the seruice which thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeeres more.

28 And Iacob did euen so: and fulfilled out the weeke: and then he gaue him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gaue to Rachel his daughter, Bilha his handmaid, to be her seruant.

30 So lay he by Rachel also, and loued Rachel more then Lea: and serued him yet seuen yeeres more.

31 When the Lord sawe that Lea was ‖ despised, he ‡ made her fruitful: and Rachel remained barren.

‖ Or, hated. ‡ Opened her wombe.

32 And Lea conceiued and bare a sonne, and she called his name ‡ Reuben: for she said, The Lord hath looked vpon my tribulation: now therefore my husband will loue me.

‡ Reuben, that is, see the childe.

33 And

33 And she conceiued againe, and bare a sonne, and said, The Lorde hath heard that I am despised, and hath therefore giuen me this sonne also. And she called his name ‡Shimeon.

‡Shimon, that is hearing.

34 And she conceiued yet, & bare a sonne, and sayd, Nowe this once will my husbande keepe my company, because I haue borne him three sonnes. And therefore was his name called ‡Leui.

‡Added to him.

35 And shee conceiued yet againe, and bare him a sonne, saying, Now will I ᵍ praise the Lord. Therefore she called his name ‡Iudah: and left bearing.

g By the names of her children she rendreth the reason of the singular gifte of God ‡Iehuda, that is, praise.

The xxx. Chapter.

9 Rachel and Lea being both barren, giue their maidens to their husband. 22 God enriched Laban for Iacobs sake, 24 and blessed Iacob with plentie.

RAchel when she sawe that shee bare Iacob no children, she enuied her sister, and saide vnto Iacob, Giue me children, or els I am but dead.

a This was godly anger, which preferred the honour of God to my wife, whom he charyely admonished.

2 And Iacobs ᵃ anger was kindled against Rachel, and said, Am I in Gods stead, which keepeth from thee the fruite of thy wombe?

b I will receiue her children vpon my lap, as though they were mine owne.

3 Then she said, Here is my maide Bilha: goe in vnto her, and she shall ᵇ beare vpon my knees, that I may also haue children by her.

‡Be built by her.

4 And she gaue him Bilha her handmaide to wife, and Iacob went in vnto her.

5 And Bilha conceiued, and bare Iacob a sonne.

6 Then said Rachel, God hath giuen sentence on my side, & hath also heard my voyce, and hath giuen me a sonne. Therefore called she him ‡Dan.

‡Iudgement.

7 And Bilha Rachels mayde conceiued againe, and bare Iacob another sonne.

8 And Rachel said, With ‖ goodly wrastlings haue I wrastled with my sister, & haue gotten the vpper hand. And shee called his name ‡Nephthali.

‖Or, earnest.

‡Nephtah, that is my wrastling.

9 When Lea sawe that shee had left bearing children, she tooke Zilpha her maid, and gaue her Iacob to wife.

10 And Zilpha Leas maide bare Iacob a sonne.

11 Then said Lea, ‖ Good lucke: and called his name ‡Gad.

‖Or, a troupe, company, meaning, of children.

12 And Zilpha Leas maide bare Iacob a seconde sonne.

‡A company.

13 Then saide Lea, Happie am I: for the ‖ daughters will call me blessed: and called his name ‡Aser.

‖Or, women.

‡Happie.

14 And Ruben went out in the dayes of ᵉ wheate haruest, & found Mandragoras in the field, and brought them vnto his mother Lea. Then said Rachel to Lea, Giue mee, I pray thee, of thy sonnes Mandragoras.

15 To whom Lea answered, Is it not enough that thou hast taken away my husband: but wouldest thou take away my sonnes Mandragoras also? Then said Rachel, well, let him sleepe with thee this night for thy sonnes Mandragoras.

16 And Iacob came from the field at euen, and Lea went out to meete him, and saide, Thou shalt come in to me: for I haue bought thee in deed with my sonnes Mandragoras. And he slept with her that same night.

17 And God heard Lea, that she conceiued, and bare Iacob the fifth sonne.

18 Then said Lea, ᶜ God hath giuen me a reward, because I gaue my maiden to my husband. And she called him ‡Isachar.

c She boasteth of her fault, and maketh that a cause which was none in deede.

‡Ishsachar, that is, a reward.

19 And Lea conceiued yet againe, & bare Iacob the sixth sonne.

20 And Lea saide, God hath endued me with a good dowrie, now will my husbande dwel with me, because I haue borne him six sonnes: and called his name ‡Zabulon.

‡Zebulon, that is abiding.

21 After that she bare a daughter, and called her name ‡Dina.

‡Iudgement.

22 And God remembred Rachel, and God ᵈ heard her, and ‡ made her fruitfull, d Faithfull prayer obtaineth at the length her request.

23 So that she conceiued & bare a sonne, and said, God hath taken away my rebuke, ‡Adding.

24 And she called his name ‡Ioseph, saying, The Lord giue me yet another sonne.

e Now his prentiserne seruice was expired.

25 ᵉ Assoone as Rachel had borne Ioseph, Iacob said vnto Laban, Sende me away, that I may go vnto mine owne place, and to my countrey.

26 Giue me my wiues and my children, for whom I haue serued thee, and let me go: for ᶠ thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

f He had done his seruice with a good conscience.

27 To whome Laban answered, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, tarie: (for ᵍ I haue proued that the Lord blessed me for thy sake)

g This hypocrite speaketh of God and yet he worshippeth false gods, and continueth in his wickednesse.

28 And he said, Appoint what thy reward shall be, and I will giue it thee.

29 But he said vnto him, Thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattell haue bene vnder me.

30 For that little which thou hadst before ‡I came, is now increased vnto a multitude, and the Lord hath blessed thee through ‡ my comming: but now when shall I make prouision for mine owne house also?

‡My face.

‡My foote.

31 And he said, what shall I then giue thee? And Iacob answered, Thou shalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, then will I turne againe, feede thy sheepe, and keepe them.

32 I will go about all thy flocks this day, and separate from them all the cattell that are spotted, and of diuerse colours: and all the blacke among the sheepe, and the partie and spotted among the kiddes, the same shalbe my reward.

33 So shall my righteousnesse answer for me ‡ in time to come: for it shall come for my reward before thy face. And euery one that is not specked & partie amongst the Goates, and blacke among the sheepe, let it be counted theft in me.

‡To morow

34 And Laban said, Goe to, would God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore hee tooke out the same day the he Goates that were ringstraked, and of diuers colours, and all the she Goates that were spotted and coloured, and all that had white in them, and all the black amongst the sheepe, and put them in the keeping of his sonnes, 36 And set three dayes iourney betwixt himselfe and Iacob: and so Iacob kept the rest of Labans sheepe.

h It is not lawfull by fraude to seeke recompence of iniurie: therefore Moses sheweth afterward that God thus instructed Iacob.

37 h Iacob tooke rods of greene populer, hasel, and chessenut trees, and pilled white strakes in them, & made the white appeare in the rods, 38 And put the rods which he had pilled, before the sheepe, in the gutters & watering troughes when the sheepe came to drinke, that they should conceiue when they came to drinke.

39 And the sheepe conceiued before the rods, and brought forth lambes ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

i He did diuide his owne lambes before Labans sheepe to that they alwayes sawe before them, such as were of diuers colours.

40 And Iacob did separate these lambes, and i turned the faces of the sheepe, which were in the flocke of Laban, towarde these ringstraked, and all maner of blacke: and so put his owne flockes by themselues, and put them not with Labans cattell.

41 And in euery conceiuing time of the stronger cattell, Iacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattell, in the gutters, namely that they might conceiue before the rods.

42 But when the cattell were feeble, hee put them not in: and so the feebler were Labans, and the stronger Iacobs.

k By Gods singular prouision, and according to his promise.

43 And the man k increased exceedingly, and had much cattel, and maides seruants, & men seruants, and Camels, and Asses.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1 Labans children doe grudge against Iacobs wealth. 19 Rachel stealeth her fathers gods. 23 Laban pursueth Iacob.

a The enuious repining of couetous Laban, thinke the welth of another, their vtter vndoing.

AND hee heard the wordes of a Labans sonnes, saying, Iacob hath taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hath hee gotten al his glory.

2 And Iacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not towards him ‡ as it was wont to be.

‡ As yesterday, and yer yesterday.

3 And b the Lord said vnto Iacob, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, & to thy kinred, and I will be with thee.

b Though he was in great feare & doubt, yet he durst not returne without Gods commandement.

4 Therefore Iacob sent, and called Rachel and Lea to the field, vnto his flocke:

5 And said vnto them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not toward mee as it was wont to bee: but the God of my father hath bene with me.

6 And ye know how I haue serued your father to the best of my power.

c A certaine number is set for an vncertaine oftentimes.

7 But your father hath deceiued me, and changed my wages c ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 When he said, The spotted shall be thy wages: then all the sheepe were spotted. And when he said, The ringstraked shal be thy reward: then bare all the sheepe ringstraked.

d He would shew what iust causes he had to depart from their father, and how they wrongfully accused him.

9 Thus hath God taken away the encrease of your fathers flocke, and giuen it to mee.

10 But in ramming time I lifted vp mine eyes, and sawe in a dreame, & behold, the ‡ rammes leaped vpon the sheepe that were ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

‡ It signifieth the hee goate also: as vnder sheepe are conteined the Goates.

11 And the Angel of God spake vnto me, in a dreame, saying, Iacob: And I answered, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift vp now thine eyes, & see all the rammes leaping vpon the sheepe that are ringstraked, spotted, and partie: for I haue e seene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

e Gods eye obserueth what wicked doeth vnto the godly.

13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou annointedst the stone set vp on an end, and where thou vowedst a vowe vnto mee: now therefore arise, and get thee out of this countrey, and returne vnto the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rachel and Lea, and said vnto him, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritance in our fathers house?

15 Doeth not he count vs out as strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath quite deuoured also our money.

16 Therefore all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours & our childrens: now then whatsoeuer God hath said vnto thee, that doe.

17 Then Iacob rose vp, & set his sonnes and wiues vp vpon Camels:

18 And caryed away all his flocks, and all his substance which he had procured, the increase of his cattell which hee had gotten in ‡ Mesopotamia, for to goe to Isaac his father, vnto the land of Chanaan.

‡ Padan Aram.

19 But Laban was gone to sheare his sheepe: and Rachel had stollen her fathers f images.

f Images made in the likenesse of women which he had in reuerence as his houshold Gods.

20 And Iacob g stale away the heart of Laban the Syrian, in that hee told him not that he fled.

g That is, to bee auaricious without the parties mistrust or knowledge, or consent.

21 So fledde he, and all that hee had, and made himselfe readie, and passed ouer the riuer, & set his face straight toward the mount Gilead.

22 Vpon the third day after, was it tolde Laban that Iacob fled.

h They would reuenge the iniuries done by their false religion: for their gods were stollen.

23 Then he tooke his h brethren with him, and followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertooke him at the mount Gilead.

i Thus God restraineth the cruel purposes of tyrants against his Church.

24 And i God came to Laban the Syrian in a dreame by night, & said vnto him, Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought ‡ saue good.

‡ From good to bad.

25 And Laban ouertooke Iacob: and Iacob had pitched his tent in the mount, and Laban with his brethren pitched also vpon the mount Gilead.

26 And

26 And Laban ſaide to Jacob, What haſt thou done? for thou haſt ſtollen away my heart, and caried away my daughters, as though they had bene taken captiue with the ſworde.

27 Wherefore wenteſt thou away ſecretly ‡ vnknowen to me, [k] and didſt not tell me, that I might haue let thee goe thy way with mirth and ſongs, with timbrel and harpe,

28 And haſt not ſuffered mee to kiſſe my ſonnes and my daughters? Thou waſt a foole now in ſo doing.

29 For it is in [l] my ‡ hand through God to doe you hurt: but the God of your father ſpake vnto mee yeſternight, ſaying, Take heede that thou ſpeake not to Jacob ought ſaue good.

30 And now though thou wouldeſt needs be gone away, becauſe thou ſore longeſt after thy fathers houſe, yet wherefore haſt thou ſtollen my gods?

31 Jacob anſwered and ſaide to Laban, Becauſe I was afraide, and thought that peraduenture thou wouldeſt take away thy daughters from me.

32 But with whomſoeuer thou findeſt thy gods, let him die. Here before our brethren, ſeeke that thine is by me, and take it to thee: But Jacob wiſt not that Rachel [m] had ſtollen them.

33 Then went Laban into Jacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two maide ſeruants tents: but founde them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent.

34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the Camels ſtraw, and ſate downe vpon them, and Laban tolled vp all the tent, but found them not.

35 Then ſayd ſhe to her father, My lorde, bee not angry that I can not riſe vp before thee: for the cuſtome of women is come vpon me. So ſearched he, but [n] found not thoſe images.

36 And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban, Jacob alſo anſwered, and ſayde to him, What haue I treſpaſſed? or what haue I offended thee, that thou doeſt ſore purſue after me?

37 Thou haſt tolled vp all my ſtuffe, and what haſt thou founde of all thy houſholde ſtuffe? put it here before thy brethren, and my brethren, [p] they may iudge betwixt vs both.

38 Beholde, this twentie yeeres haue I bene with thee, thy ſheepe and thy Goates [o] haue not bene barren, and the Rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

39 Whatſoeuer was torne of beaſtes, I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my ſelfe: of my hand diddeſt thou require it that was ſtollen by day or night.

40 I was in ſuch caſe, that by day the heate conſumed me, and the froſt by night, and my ſleepe departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus haue I bene twentie yeeres in thy houſe, and ſerued thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and ſixe yeeres for thy Sheepe, and thou haſt changed my rewarde ten times.

42 And except the God of my father, [p] the God of Abraham, and the feare of Iſahac had bene with me, ſurely thou hadſt ſent mee away nowe all emptie: but God beheld my tribulation, and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yeſternight.

43 And Laban anſwered, and ſaide vnto Jacob, Theſe daughters are my daughters, and theſe children are my children, and theſe Sheepe are my Sheepe, and all that thou ſeeſt is mine: and what can I doe this day vnto theſe my daughters, or vnto the children which they haue borne?

44 Nowe therefore come on, and let vs make a league, I and thou, which may bee a witneſſe betwene me and thee.

45 Then tooke Jacob a ſtone, and ſet it vp on end.

46 And Jacob ſaid vnto his brethren, Gather ſtones. And they tooke ſtones, [r] made an heape, [r] they did eate there vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it [q] Jegar Sahadutha: but Jacob called it ‡ Galeed.

48 Then ſaid Laban, This heape is witneſſe betweene thee and me this day. Therefore it is called ‡ Galeed, 49 And ‡ Miſpah: for he ſaid, The Lord looke betweene thee and me, when wee are departed one from another, 50 If thou ſhalt vexe my daughters, or ſhalt take [r] other wiues beſide my daughters: here is no man with vs, beholde, God is witneſſe betwixt thee and me.

51 And Laban ſaide moreouer to Jacob, Beholde this heape, and this ſtone ſet vp on ende, which I haue laide betwixt mee and thee, 52 This heape be witneſſe, and alſo this ſtone ſet vp on end, that I will not come ouer this heape to thee, and thou ſhalt not come ouer this heape, and this ſtone ſet vp on ende, vnto me, to doe any harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the [ſ] God of Nachor, and the God of their father bee iudge betwixt vs. And Jacob [t] ſware by the feare of his father Iſahac.

54 Then Jacob did ſacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eate bread: and they did eate bread, and taried all night in the hill.

55 And early in the morning Laban roſe vp, and kiſſed his ſonnes and his daughters, and [u] bleſſed them: and Laban departing, went into his place againe.

‡ And haſt ſtollen me.

[k] A diſſembling hypocrite, when he can doe no harme, yet he will burden the godly in deedes.

[l] The wicked bragge of their power, as Pharaoh did.

‡ By manhood.

[m] It was not godlineſſe, but ſuperſtition, that moued Rachel to this theft.

[n] So this ſuperſtition remained in Jacobs houſe till after the deſtruction of Sichem.

[o] This was Gods benefite, yet beſtowed vpon Laban for Jacobs ſake: ſo Jacob counteth it his.

[p] God would not haue the ſeruant defrauded of his iuſt reward.

[q] Theſe be Syriake words, and ſignifie the heape of witneſſe, which thing alſo this word Galeed, meaneth.

‡ Galed.

‡ Mitſpah, that is, a looking glaſſe.

[r] He now condemneth the ſinne of Polygamie, whereof he was afore the author.

[ſ] This was a wicked fact, to ioyne his falſe gods with the true God, and to iudge the falſe to be the elder God.

[t] Jacob would not ſweare ſo corruptly as Laban would haue him.

[u] The ſuperſtitious keepe the outward maners of the godly.

The xxxij. Chapter.

1 God comforteth Iacob by a viſion of Angels. 24 Iacob wreſtleth with the Angel, who named him Iſrael.

But Jacob went forth on his iourney, and [a] the Angels of God came and met him.

2 And when Jacob ſaw thē, he ſaid, This is Gods hoſte, and called the name of the same place [b] Mahanaim.

[a] God would certainely perſwade him of his protection, in the feare he was in of Eſau.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir the ‖ field of Edom:

‖ Or, region.

4 And hee cõmanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speake to my lord Esau, Thy seruant Jacob saith thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban, and haue staied there vnto this time,

5 And haue oxen, asses, and sheepe, men seruants, and women seruants: and haue sent to shew it my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers came againe to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and he commeth to meete thee, and hath foure hundred men with him.

7 But Jacob was greatly afraid, & wist not which way to turne himselfe, and diuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe, and oxen, and camels, into two companies:

8 And said, If Esau come to the one part, and smite it, the other shall saue it selfe.

9 And Jacob said againe, [c] O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Lord which saidst vnto me, Returne vnto thy countrey, and to thy kinred, and I wil doe well with thee:

10 I am ‡ not worthy of the least of al the [d] mercies & trueth which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: for with my staffe came I ouer this Jordane, and nowe haue I gotten two companies.

11 Deliuer me from the hand of my brother Esau: for I feare him, least he will come and smite me, yea the mother with the children.

12 Thou saidst, I will surely doe thee good, and make thy seede as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbred for multitude.

13 And hee taried there that same night, and tooke of that which came to hand, [e] a present for Esau his brother,

14 Two hundred she goates, and twentie hee goates, two hundred sheepe, and twenty rammes,

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, fourtie kine, and ten buls, twentie she asses, and ten foales:

16 And deliuered them into the handes of his seruants, euery droue by themselues, and said vnto his seruants, Goe foorth before me, and put a space betwixt droue and droue.

17 And hee commanded the formost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these that goe before thee?

18 Thou shalt say, They bee thy seruant Jacobs, and it is a present sent vnto my lorde Esau: and beholde, hee himselfe commeth after vs.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droues, saying, On this maner see that you speake vnto Esau when ye meete him.

20 And say moreouer, Beholde, thy seruant Jacob also commeth after vs: for hee saide, I will appease ‡ his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterwarde I will see him my selfe, peraduenture he wil receiue ‡ me to grace.

‡ His face.

‡ My face.

21 So went the present before him: and he taried all that night in the company.

22 And he rose vp the same night, & tooke his wiues, and his two maide seruants, and his eleuen sonnes, and went ouer the foorde Jaboc.

23 And hee tooke them, and set them ouer the riuer, and sent ouer that he had.

24 And Jacob was left himselfe [f] alone, and there wrestled a man with him vnto the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he could not preuaile against him, [g] he smote him vpon the huckle bone of his thigh, and the huckle bone of Jacobs thigh loosed out of ioynt as he wrestled with him.

26 And hee saide, Let me goe, for the day breaketh. Which answered, I will not let thee goe, except [h] thou blesse me.

27 And hee sayde vnto him, What is thy name? He answered, Jacob.

28 Hee saide, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but ‡ Israel: For as a prince hast thou wrestled with God, and with men, and hast preuailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, saying, Tell [i] me thy name. And he said, Wherefore doest thou aske after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place ‡ Peniel: for I haue [k] seene God face to face, and my life is preserued.

31 And as hee went ouer Peniel, the sunne rose vpon him, and he halted vpon his thigh.

32 And therefore it is that the children of Israel eate not of the synewe that shranke in that place of the thigh, vnto this day: because that hee touched the huckle bone of Jacobs thigh, about the synewe that shranke.

The xxxiij. Chapter.

1 Esau meeteth his brother Iacob, 4 and is agreed with him. 19 Iacob byeth a possession, and buildeth an altar vnto God.

IAcob lifting vp his eyes, looked, and behold, Esau came, hauing with him foure hundred men: and hee diuided the children vnto Lea, and vnto Rachel, and vnto the two handmaidens.

2 And he put the handmaidens and their children formost, and Lea and her children after, and Rachel and [a] Joseph hindermost.

3 And hee went before them, and bowed himselfe to the ground seuen times, vntill he came to his brother.

5 And he lift vp his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Whence hast thou these? And hee answered, They are the children which God hath given thy seruant.

6 Then came the handmaidens foorth, and their children, and bowed themselues.

7 Lea also with her children, came, and did their obeisance: and last of all, came Ioseph and Rachel, and did their obeisance.

8 And he said, What is all the droue which I met? Hee answered, That I may finde grace in the sight of my Lord.

9 And Esau said, I haue ynough, my brother, keepe that thou hast vnto thy selfe.

10 And Iacob answered, Nay, I pray thee: but if I haue founde grace in thy sight, receiue, I pray thee, my present of my hand: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, and so thou hast receiued me to grace.

11 Oh take my blessing that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and I haue enough. And so he compelled him, and he tooke it.

12 And he said, Let vs take our iourney, and goe, I will goe before thee.

13 Iacob answered him, My lorde, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the small and great cattell with yong vnder my hands, which if men should ouerdriue but one day, all the flocke will die.

14 Oh let my lord goe before his seruant, and I will driue faire and softly, according as the cattell that goeth before mee, and the children bee able to endure, vntill I come vnto my lord vnto Seir.

15 And Esau saide, I will leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needeth it? I shall finde grace in the sight of my lorde.

16 So Esau went his way againe that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob tooke his iourney toward Succhoth, and built him an house, and made boothes for his cattell: therefore is it that the name of the place is called Succhoth.

18 And Iacob came to Salem, a citie of Sichem, which is in the land of Chanaan, after that hee was come from Mesopotamia, and pitched before the citie.

19 And bought a parcel of ground, where hee pitched his tent, of the children of Hemor Sichems father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he made there an altar, and called it, The mightie God of Israel.

3 And his heart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Iacob, and he loued that damsell, and spake kindly vnto her.

4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying, Get mee this maiden vnto my wife.

5 And Iacob heard that hee had defiled Dina his daughter (his sonnes being with their cattell in the fielde) and Iacob held his peace vntill they were come.

6 And Hemor the father of Sichem, went out vnto Iacob to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Iacob (comming out of the fielde) heard it, it grieued them, and they were not a litle wroth, because hee had wrought folly in Israel, in that hee had lyen with Iacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hemor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Sichem longeth for your daughter: I pray you giue her him to wife, 9 And make mariages with vs, and giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you.

10 And yee shall dwell with vs, and the land shalbe before you: dwel, and be your businesse therein, and haue possessions therein.

11 And Sichem said vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let mee finde grace in your eyes, and what so euer ye appoint me, that will I giue.

12 Aske freely of mee both dowrie and giftes, and I will giue according as yee say vnto mee, so that ye giue me the damsell to wife.

13 But the sonnes of Iacob answered to Sichem and Hemor his father, talking amongst themselues deceitfully: because hee had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And they said vnto them, We can not doe this thing, that we should giue our sister to one that is vncircumcised: for that were an abomination vnto vs.

15 But in this wil we consent vnto you: if yee will be as we be, and all the males amongst you be circumcised:

16 Then will we giue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and will dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But and if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then will wee take our daughter, and goe our waies.

18 Their words pleased Hemor, and Sichem his sonne.

AND a God said vnto Iacob, Arise, and get thee vp to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

b He exhorteth his houshold to repentance and outward profession of the same.

4 And they gaue vnto Iacob all ‡ c strange gods which they had in their hand, and all their earerings which were in their eares, and Iacob hid them vnder an oke which was by Sichem.

c Thus one womans folly had polluted almost all the Church.

5 And when they departed, the feare of God fell vpon the cities that were rounde about them, & they did not pursue the sonnes of Iacob.

6 So came Iacob to Luza, which is in the land of Chanaan (the same is Bethel) he and all the people that was with him.

5 Ioseph telleth his dreames, and is hated of his brethren. 34 Iacob being perswaded that his sonne Ioseph was dead, bewayleth him.

IAcob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the lande of Chanaan.

2 These are the [a] generations of Iacob: when Ioseph was seuenteene yeers olde, hee kept sheepe with his brethren, and the lad was with the sonnes of Bilha, and with the sonnes of Zilpha, his fathers wines: and Ioseph brought vnto his father [b] their euill report.

3 But Israel loued Ioseph more then all his children, because hee begate him in his [c] olde age: and he made him a coate of many ‡ colours.

4 And when his brethren sawe that their father loued him more then all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speake peaceably vnto him.

5 Moreouer, when Ioseph [d] had dreamed a dreame, he tolde it his brethren, which hated him yet the more.

6 And he sayde vnto them, Heare I pray you this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Beholde, we were binding sheaues in the fielde, & loe, my sheafe arose and stoode vpright, and behold, your sheaues stoode round about, and made obeisance to my sheafe.

8 To whome his brethren sayde, Shalt thou be a king in deede ouer vs? or shalt thou in deede haue dominion ouer vs? [e] And they hated him yet the more, because of his dreames, and of his wordes.

9 And hee dreamed yet another dreame, and told it his brethren, saying, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the Sunne, & the Moone, and eleuen Starres made obeisance to me.

10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked him, and said vnto him, What is this dreame that thou hast dreamed? Shall [f] I and thy mother and thy brethren in deede come to bowe to thee?

11 And his brethren enuied him: but his father noted the saying.

12 His brethren also went to keepe his fathers cattell in Sichem.

13 And Israel sayd vnto Ioseph, Do not thy brethren keepe in Sichem? come, and I will send thee to them.

14 He answered, Here I am. And he sayd vnto him, Goe, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren and the cattell, and bring me worde againe. And so hee sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and hee came to Sichem.

15 And a certaine man founde him, and beholde, hee was wandring out of his way in the fielde, and the man asked him, What seekest thou?

16 He answered, I seeke my [g] brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keepe cattell.

17 And the man sayde, They are departed hence: for I haue heard them say, Let vs goe vnto Dothan. Thus went Ioseph after his brethren, and founde them in Dothan.

18 And when they sawe him a farre off, before hee came at them, they tooke counsell against him, [h] for to slay him:

22 And Ruben said moreouer vnto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wildernesse, and lay no hand vpon him: this he sayde that hee might ridde him out of their handes, and deliuer him to his father againe.

23 And when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript him out of his coate, his partie coloured coate, that was vpon him.

24 And they tooke him, and [k] cast him into an emptie pit, wherein was no water.

l They were vnferuible, without any ſenſe of conſcience of ſinne.

25 And they ſate them downe to eate bread: and as they lift vp their eyes and looked about, beholde, there came a company of Iſmaelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with ſpicerie, baulme, and myrrhe, and were going downe to carry it to Egypt.

m Thus ſhoulde all ſinners ſay, what commoditie doth ſinne bring?

26 And Juda ſayde vnto his brethren, What m auaileth it if we ſlay our brother, and keepe his blood ſecret?

27 Come on, and let vs ſell him to the Iſmaelites, & let not our handes be vpon him: for he is our brother, and our fleſh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then as the Madianites marchant men paſſed by, they drewe and lift Joſeph out of the pit, and ſolde him vnto the Iſmaelites for twentie pieces of ſiluer: And they brought Joſeph into Egypt.

29 Then Reuben came againe vnto the pit, and beholde, Joſeph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes, 30 And went againe vnto his brethren, ſaying, The lad is not yonder, wo is me, whither ſhall I goe?

31 And they tooke Joſephs coate, and killed a kidde, and dipped the coate in the blood.

32 And they ſent that partie coloured coate, and cauſed it to bee brought vnto their father, and ſayde, This haue wee found, ſee whether it be thy ſonnes coate, or no.

33 And hee knewe it, ſaying, It is my ſonnes coate, a naughtie beaſt hath deuoured him, Joſeph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put ſackcloth about his loynes, and mourned for his ſonne a long ſeaſon.

35 But all his ſonnes and all his daughters roſe vp to comfort him: neuertheleſſe n he woulde not be comforted, but ſayde, I will goe downe into the graue vnto my ſonne, mourning. And thus his father wept for him.

n He refuſed worldly comfort, yet he was obedient to God.

The xxxviij. Chapter.

1 The mariage of Iuda. 7 The treſpaſſe of Er and Onan, and the vengeance of God that came therefore.

‡ Iehudah.

ABout that time ‡ Juda went from his brethren, and gate him to a man called Hirah of Odollam, o The curſed and peeuiſh that this mariage pleaſed not God.

2 And there hee ſawe o the daughter of a man called Sua, a Chanaanite: and he tooke her, and went in to her.

3 And ſhee conceiued and bare a ſonne, and called his name Er.

4 And ſhee conceiued againe, and bare a ſonne, and called him Onan.

5 And ſhe conceiued againe, and bare yet a ſonne, whom ſhe called Selah: and he was at b Chezib when ſhe bare him.

b A towne in Paleſtina.

6 And Juda c gaue Er his firſt borne ſonne a wife, whoſe name was Thamar.

c The fathers authoritie in the marriage of his ſonne. Num. 26. 19.

7 And * Er Judaes firſt borne ſonne was wicked in the ſight of the Lord, and the Lord ſlew him.

8 And Juda ſaid vnto Onan, Goe in to thy brothers wife, and ‡ marry her, that thou mayeſt ſtirre vp ſeede vnto thy brother.

‡ The word ſignifieth to marrie the wife of his brother, dead without children.

9 And when Onan perceiued that the ſeede ſhoulde not bee his, therefore when he went in to his brothers wife, he ſpilled it on the ground, and gaue not ſeede vnto his brother.

10 And the thing which he did, diſpleaſed the Lord: wherefore he ſlew him alſo.

11 Then ſaid Juda to Thamar his daughter in law, Remaine a widow at thy fathers houſe, till Selah my ſonne be growen. (For he ſaid, Leſt peraduenture he die alſo as his brethren did.) And Thamar went and dwelt in her fathers houſe.

12 And in proceſſe of time, the daughter of Sua Judaes wife died: Then Juda, when he had left mourning, went vnto his ſheepe ſhearers to Thimnath, he and his friend Hirah of Odollam.

13 And one tolde Thamar, ſaying, Beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp to Thimnath to ſheare ſheepe.

14 And ſhee put her widowes garments off from her, and couered her with a vayle, and diſguiſed her ſelfe, and ſate her downe in ‡ an open place, which is by the way ſide to Thimnath: for d becauſe that ſhe ſaw Selah was growen, and ſhee was not giuen vnto him to wife.

d Wicked maners are not to be practiſed, though wrong be done to vs.

15 When Juda ſaw her, he thought it had bene an harlot, becauſe ſhee had couered her face.

16 And hee turned to her vnto the way, and ſayd, Come, I pray thee, let mee lie with thee: (For hee knewe not that it was his daughter in lawe.) And ſhe anſwered, What wilt thou giue me for to lie with me?

17 Then ſaide he, I will ſend thee a kidde from the flocke. She ſaide, Then giue mee a pledge, till thou ſend it.

18 He ſaid, What pledge ſhall I giue thee? She ſaide, Thy ſignet, thy e bracelet, and thy ſtaffe that is in thine hand. And hee gaue it her, and lay by her, and ſhee was with childe by him.

e Some thinke the word to ſignifie a couering of the head.

19 And ſhe gate her vp, and went, and put her vaile from her, and put on her widowes raiment.

20 And Juda ſent the kidde by his friende Odollam, for to receiue his pledge againe from f womans hand: but he found her not.

21 Then aſked hee the men of the ſame place, ſaying, Where is the f harlot that ſate openly by the way ſide? They anſwered, There is no harlot here.

f The Hebrew word ſignifieth conſecrating, or preparing. (For that ſuch a one is nothing leſſe than holy) or readie for all men.

22 He came therefore to Juda againe, and ſaid vnto him, I cannot finde her: and alſo the men of the place ſayde, that there was no harlot there.

23 And

23 And Juda sayd, Let her take it to her, g lest we bee shamed: beholde, I sent the kid, and thou hast not found her.

g He careth more for his outward fame, then that he displeased God, or lost his goods.

24 And it came to passe, after three moneths, one tolde Juda, saying, Thamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot, and with playing the harlot, is become great with childe. And Juda sayd, Bring her forth, that she may be burnt.

25 And when they brought her forth, shee sent to her father in lawe, saying, By the man vnto whom these things pertaine am I with childe: and sayde also, Looke I pray thee, whose are these, this seale, this bracelet, and this staffe.

26 And Juda acknowledged them, and said, h Shee hath bene more righteous then I: because I gaue her not Selah my sonne. And he lay with her no more.

h He is remisse in the punishment toward himselfe: though he acknowledge his fault, and no man now calleth for punishment.

27 But when the time was come that she should be deliuered, beholde, there was two twinnes in her wombe.

28 And when shee trauailed, the one put out his hand, and the midwife tooke and bound a red threed about it, saying, This is come out first.

29 And he plucked his hand backe againe, and beholde, his brother came out. And she saide, Wherefore hast thou rent a rent vpon thee? and called his name Phares.

30 Afterward came out his brother that had the red threed about his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 Ioseph is sold to Putiphar. 2 God prospereth Ioseph, 5 and blesseth Putiphar for Iosephs sake. 7 Ioseph doeth withstand the temptation of his mistresse. 13 He is falsly accused and cast into prison, 21 where God sheweth him fauour.

IOseph was brought vnto Egypt: and Putiphar, a lorde of Pharaos, and his chiefe steward, an Egyptian, bought him of the Ismaelites which had brought him thither.

2 And God was with Joseph, and he became a a luckie man, continuing in the house of his master the Egyptian.

a Men are neuer luckie in deede, but when God is with them. For the felicitie of the wicked is cursed. b Yet he would not permit himselfe to serue that God.

3 And his master sawe that b God was with him, and that God made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph found grace in his masters sight, and serued him: and he made him ouerseer of his house, and put all that hee had in his hand.

5 And it came to passe, from the time that he had made him ouerseer of his house, and ouer all that hee had, the c Lord blessed the Egyptians house for Josephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was vpon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

c So happy a thing it is to receiue the elect of God.

6 And therefore he left all that hee had in Josephs hand: and d he knewe nothing with him, saue onely the bread which he did eate.

d That is, he tooke none account of him, but made merrie.

And Joseph was a goodly person, and a well fauoured.

e The deuill of Gods gifts will make ingrate, either to ouercome men, or vere them.

7 And after this, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Joseph, and sayde, Come lie with me.

8 But he refused, and saide vnto his masters wife, f Beholde, my master wotteth not what he hath in the house with me, and hath committed all that he hath to my hand.

f The more benefite the godly receiue, the lesse will they vse deceit.

9 There is no man greater in the house then I, neither hath he kept any thing from me, but onely thee, because thou art his wife: howe then can I doe this g great wickednesse, and sinne against h God?

g Adulterie and vnthankfulnesse, two great sinnes before God. h The feare of God is of great force to ouercome this temptation.

10 And after this maner spake shee to Joseph day by day: but hee hearkened not vnto her, to sleepe neere her, or to bee in her company.

i The godly auoydeth the occasion of sinne.

11 And on a certaine day, Joseph entred into the house to doe his businesse, and there was none of the houshold by, in the house.

12 Then she caught him by the garment, saying, Lye with me. And he k left his garment in her hand, and fledde, and got him out.

k He aduenturech his fame rather then he would sinne, though secretly.

13 And when shee sawe that hee had left his garment in her hande, and was fled out,

14 l She called vnto the men of her house, and tolde them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrewe vnto vs, to doe vs shame: for he came in to me to haue lyen with me, and I began to crie with a loud voyce:

l Here it appeareth what beastly affections lust draweth after her.

15 And when he heard that I lift vp my voyce, and cryed, hee left his garment with me, and fled away, and got him out.

16 And shee layed vp his garment by her, vntill her lord came home.

17 And she tolde him with these wordes, saying, This Hebrewe seruant which thou hast brought vnto vs, came vnto me to do me shame.

18 But as soone I lift vp my voyce, and cryed, hee left his garment with mee, and fled out.

19 When his master heard the wordes of his wife, which shee tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruant to me, hee waxed wroth.

20 And Josephs master m tooke him, and put him in prison, in the place where the kings prisoners lay bounde: and there continued he in prison.

m His seuerite made him beare but one part, and condemne before iust examination.

21 But the Lorde was with Joseph, and shewed him mercie, and got him fauour in the sight of the lord of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Josephs hand all the prisoners that were in the prison house, and whatsoeuer was done there, that did he.

23 And the keeper of the prison looked vnto nothing that was vnder his hande, seeing that the Lorde was with him: for whatsoeuer hee did, the Lorde made it to prosper.

The

The xl. Chapter.

12 Ioseph expoundeth the dreames of the two prisoners.
20 The meeth whereof appeared at the birth day of Pharao.

AND it came to passe after these ‡ things, that the butler of the king of Egypt, and his Baker, had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

‡ Words.

2 And Pharao was angry against his two officers, against the chiefe Butler, and the chiefe Baker,

3 And put them in warde in his chiefe stewards house, in the prison a place where Ioseph was bound.

a Ioseph's matter bestoe after better aduancement, was reconciled to him.

4 And the a chiefe steward gaue Ioseph a charge with them, and he serued them, and they continued a season in ward.

5 And they dreamed either of them in one night, both the Butler and the Baker of the King of Egypt, which were bounde in the prison house, either of them his dreame, and eche mans dreame of a sundry interpretation.

6 When Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and looked vpon them, beholde, they were sadde.

7 And hee asked Pharaos chiefe officers that were with him in his masters warde, saying, Wherefore looke ye so sadly to day?

8 They answered him, Wee haue dreamed a dreame, and haue no man to declare it. And Ioseph sayde vnto them, Doe not interpretings belong to God? tell me, I pray you.

9 And the chiefe Butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and sayde vnto him, In my dreame, me thought there stoode a vine before me,

10 And in the vine were three branches, and it was as though it budded, and her blossomes shot forth: and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes.

11 And I had Pharaos cup in my hand, and tooke of the grapes, and pressed them in Pharaos cup, and deliuered Pharaos cup into his hand.

12 And Ioseph sayde vnto him, This is the interpretation of it. The three branches, b are three dayes:

b That is, the three branches are often times spoken in the next chapter, & otherwhere.

13 For within three dayes shall Pharao ‖ lift c vp thine head, and restore thee into thine office againe, and thou shalt deliuer Pharaos cup into his hande, after the olde maner when thou wast his Butler.

c That is, take thee out of prison.

14 But thinke on mee when thou art in good case, and shewe mercy I pray thee vnto me, d and make mention of mee to Pharao, and bring me out of this house.

d He refuseth not to make meanes for his deliuerance, although he misdeemeth not how God would deliuer him.

15 For I was priuily by stealth taken away out of the lande of the Hebrewes: and here also haue I done nothing at all wherefore they should haue put mee into this dungeon.

16 When the chiefe Baker sawe that the interpretation was good, he sayde vnto Ioseph, Me thought also in my dreame, that I had three ‖ white wicker baskets on my head,

‖ Or, full of holes.

17 And in ‡ vppermost basket there was of all maner bake meates for Pharao, and the birdes did eate them out of the basket, that was vpon my head.

18 And Ioseph answered, and sayd, This is the interpretation thereof. The three baskets, are three dayes:

19 For within three dayes shall Pharao take thy head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, and the birdes shall eate thy flesh from off thee.

19 And it came to passe the third day, which was Pharaos birth day, that hee made a feast vnto all his seruantes: and hee ‖ lifted vp the head of the chiefe Butler, and of the chiefe Baker among his seruants, ‖ Or, reckoned.

20 And restored the chiefe Butler vnto his Butlership againe, which also reached the cup into Pharaos hand:

21 But hee hanged the chiefe Baker, as Ioseph e had interpreted vnto him.

e Thus Ioseph was proued a true prophet of God, as it is Ierem. 28.

22 Neither did the chiefe Butler remember Ioseph, but forgate him.

The xlj. Chapter.

1 Ioseph expoundeth Pharaos dreames of kine and eares.
41 He is made ruler ouer all Egypt. 54 The dearth beginneth in all lands.

AND after two yeeres a Pharao dreamed, b behold, he thought that he stoode by a riuer.

a This dreame was not so much for Pharao, as it was for Ioseph by whom God purposed to prouide for his Church.

2 And there came out of the riuer seuen goodly kine, and fat fleshed, and fed in a medow.

3 And seuen other kine came vp after them out of the riuer, euill fauoured, and leane fleshed, and stoode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.

4 And the ill fauoured and leane fleshed kine did eate vp the seuen well fauoured and fat kine: and Pharao awoke.

5 And hee slept againe, and dreamed the second time: and behold, seuen eares of corne growe vpon one stalke, ranke, and goodly.

6 And againe, seuen thinne eares blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

7 And the seuen thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke and full eares. And Pharao awaked, and behold, it was a dreame.

8 And when the morning came, his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the soothsayers of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharao tolde them his dreame, but there was none of them that could interprete it vnto Pharao.

9 Then spake the chiefe Butler vnto Pharao, saying, I doe remember my faults this day:

10 Pharao being angry with his seruants, put me in warde, in the chiefe stewardes house, both me, and the chiefe Baker.

11 And wee dreamed both of vs in one night, and eche mans dreame of a sundry interpretation.

12 And there was with vs a yong man, an

an Hebrewe borne, seruant vnto the chiefe steward: to whom when we tolde them, he declared our dreames to vs, according to either of our dreames.

13 And as hee declared them to vs, so it came to passe: for he restored me to mine office againe, and hanged him.

b Whom men do litle regard in prosperitie, him they are glad to heare in aduersitie.

14 Pharao [b] sent therefore and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: And he shaued himselfe, and changed his raiment, and came vnto Pharao.

15 And Pharao said vnto Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interprete it: and I haue heard say of thee, that assoone as thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interprete it.

16 Ioseph answered Pharao, saying, ‖Not I, [c] but God shall giue Pharao an answere of peace.

‖Or, without me.

c He giueth al the glorie to God, yet denieth not his ministerie.

17 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, In my dreame me thought I stoode by ariuers side,

18 And there came out of the riuer, seuen fat fleshed and well fauoured kine, and fedde in a medowe, 19 And then seuen other kine came out after them, poore, and very ill fauoured, and leane fleshed, such as I neuer sawe in all the land of Egypt, they were ‖ so ill fauoured.

‖or, so leane

20 And the seuen leane and ill fauoured kine, did eate vp the first seuen fat kine.

21 And when they had ‡ eaten them vp, a man could not perceiue that they had eaten them, but they were still ill fauoured, as they were at the beginning: and I awoke.

‡Come to the inward partes of them.

22 And I sawe againe in my dreame, and behold, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, full and faire.

23 And beholde, seuen eares againe ‖ withered, thinne, and blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

‖Or, small.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares: and I haue told the soothsayers, but there was no man that could tell what it meaneth.

25 And Ioseph answered Pharao, Both Pharaos dreames are [d] one, God hath shewed Pharao what [e] he is about to doe.

d In signification and meaning.

e God doeth not onely foresee things to come, but also doth rule the same: thus Ioseph would begin to teach Pharao some godlinesse.

26 The seuen good kine, are seuen yeres: the the seuen good eares, are seuen yeres also: and it is but one dreame.

27 Likewise the seuen thinne and ill fauoured kine that came vp after them, are seuen yeeres: and the seuen emptie and blasted eares with the East winde, shalbe seuen yeeres of famine.

28 This worde which I haue sayde vnto Pharao, is it that [f] God is about to doe, and sheweth it vnto Pharao.

f Lest Pharao should thinke any thing of his idoles: or that God is onely a beholder of the world, & not a doer.

29 Beholde, there come seuen yeeres of great plentie throughout all the lande of Egypt.

30 And againe, there shall arise after them seuen yeres of famine, and all the plenteousnes shalbe forgotten in the land of Egypt: and the famine shall consume the land.

31 Neither shall the plenteousnesse bee knowen in the lande, by reason of that famine that shall come after, for it shal be exceeding great.

32 And as concerning that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the second time: beholde, the thing is certainely prepared of God, and God will [s] shortly bring it to passe.

g We are very negligent in Gods iudgements, if we remember not that the time is at hand.

33 Now therefore, [h] let Pharao prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisedome, and set him ouer the land of Egypt.

h Gods true prophets tell remedies for the punishments that God will send.

34 And let Pharao doe this also, that hee make ‡ officers ouer the land, and take vp the fifth part in the lande of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeeres.

‡Visitours, or ouertakers.

35 And let [i] them gather all the foode of those good yeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharao, & let them keepe foode in the cities.

i Fy in plentie, there is much spoile & waste, & Gods blessings are abused.

36 And so shal that foode be for store in the land, against the seuen yeeres of famine, which shall come in the lande of Egypt, that the land perish not through famine.

37 And the saying seemed good in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of all his seruants.

38 Then said Pharao vnto his seruants, May there be found a man such as this is, in whom the spirit of God is?

39 And Pharao sayd vnto Ioseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee al this, there is no man of vnderstanding or of wisedome like vnto thee.

40 Thou therefore shalt be ouer my house, and according vnto thy worde shall all my people be ‡ ruled: onely in the kings seate will I be aboue thee.

‡Armed, or fedde.

41 And Pharao sayde againe vnto Ioseph, Behold, I haue set thee ouer al the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharao tooke off his [k] ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, and arayed him in cloth of silke, and put a golden chaine about his neche, k In such pompe, pryde and vanitie must be auoyded. For the godly may vse such honour, though her grieuously seeke not after them.

43 And set him vpon the [l] best charet hee had saue one: and they cryed before him, Tender father: and made him ruler ouer al the land of Egypt.

‡The second.

l This word Abrech seemeth rather to be an Egyptian name, then an Hebrew.

44 And moreouer Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, [m] I am Pharao, and without thee shall no man [n] lift vp his hand or foote in all the land of Egypt.

m As the Lord liueth, or by my maiestie.

n That is, be promoted or aduanced.

45 And Pharao called Iosephs name ‡ Zaphnath Paaneach, and he gaue him to [o] wife Aseneth the daughter of Potipherah ‖ priest of On. Then went Ioseph ouer the land of Egypt.

‡A man to whome secrets are reuealed.

o Being in a strange land, he tooke a wife of his owne kinred.

‖Or, prince.

46 (And he was thirtie yeeres olde when hee stoode before Pharao king of Egypt:) And Ioseph departing from the presence of Pharao, went throughout all the lande of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeres, the earth brought forth great store for to lay vp.

48 And hee gathered vp all the foode of the seuen plenteous yeeres which were in the the land of Egypt, and laid vp the food in the Cities: the foode of the fieldes that grewe rounde about euery Citie, laid hee vp in the same.

49 And Joseph laid vp corne in store like vnto the sand of the sea, in multitude out of measure, vntill he left numbring: for it was without number.

50 And vnto Joseph were borne two sonnes before ỹ yeres of famine came: which Asnath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On bare vnto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first sonne ‡Manasses: for God said he hath made me forget all my labour, and all my fathers household.

‡ Forgetfulnesse.

52 The name of the second called he ‡Ephraim: for God said he hath caused me to be fruitfull in the land of my trouble.

‡ Increasings.

53 And when the seuen yeeres of plenteousnesse that was in the land of Egypt, were ended, 54 Then came the seuen yeeres of dearth, according as Joseph had said, and the dearth was in all landes: but in all the lande of Egypt was there foode.

55 And when the land of Egypt also began to hunger, the people cryed to Pharao for bread. And Pharao saide vnto all the Egyptians, Goe vnto Joseph: and what hee saith to you, that doe.

56 And the dearth was throughout all the land: and Joseph opened all the barnes wherein was corne, and sold vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corne, because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

The xlii. Chapter.

1 Iacob sendeth Iosephs brethren into Egypt to buy corne. 7 Ioseph knoweth them, and tryeth them. 24 Simeon remaineth in prison. 29 The other returne to their father to fetch Beniamin. 39 Iacob is loth to let Beniamin goe, but at the last he is content.

This Chapter likewise plainly ꝓueth all things are gouerned by Gods ꝓuidence, for the profite of his Church. Acts 7.12.

NOW * Jacob seeing that there was ‡corne in Egypt, said vnto his sonnes, why gape yee one vpon another?

‡ Breaking.

2 And he said, Behold, I haue heard that there is corne in Egypt: get you downe thither, and buy vs corne from thence, that we may liue, and not die.

3 So went Josephs ten brethren downe to buy corne in Egypt.

4 But Beniamin Josephs brother would not Jacob send with his other brethren: for he said, Least peraduenture destruction come vpon him.

5 And the sonnes of Israel came to buy corne among other that came: for there was dearth in the land of Chanaan.

6 And Joseph was gouernour in the land, and solde to all the people of the lande. And Josephs brethren came, & bowed themselues with their faces downe to the ground before him.

7 When Joseph sawe his brethren, hee knewe them, and made himselfe strange vnto them, and spake roughly vnto them, saying, Whence come yee? They answered, Out of the land of Chanaan, to buy victuall.

8 And Joseph knewe his brethren, but they knewe not him.

9 And Joseph remembred his dreames which he dreamed of them, & said vnto them, Yee are [a] spies: and to see where the land is ‡ weake is your comming.

[a] The Egyptians commonly called the Philistims thereby, for they liued much by spoile and warre.

‡ The secrets of the land.

10 And they said vnto him, Nay my lord, but to buy victuall are thy seruants come.

11 We are all one mans sonnes, & ‡ mean truely, and thy seruants are no spies.

‡ Are true.

12 And hee said vnto them againe, Nay: but [b] to see where the land is weake, is your comming.

[b] Great men thinke it sufficient for them to affirme a thing without adding any reason.

13 And they saide, Wee thy seruants are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the land of Chanaan: & behold, the yongest is this day with our father, and one, no man woteth where he is.

14 And Joseph said vnto them, [c] That is it that I spake vnto you, when I saide, Yee are spies.

[c] Becauſe of the absence of two of the brethren, it was ſuſpitious.

15 Hereby yee shalbe proued: by the life of Pharao, yee shall not goe hence, except your yongest brother come hither.

16 Sende out one of you, which may fet your brother, & ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proued whether there be any truth in you: or els, by the life of Pharao, ye are but spies.

17 And he put them all together in ward three dayes.

18 And Joseph said vnto them the third day, This doe, and liue: for I [d] feare God.

[d] The feare of God is the beginning of a faithfull & sincere dealing.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: & goe yee, carrie corne to put away the famine from your houshold.

20 But bring your yongest brother vnto me, and so shall your wordes be tryed true, & ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 And one said to another, We haue verily [e] sinned against our brother in that we sawe the anguish of his soule, when hee besought vs, and we would not heare him: and therefore is this [f] trouble come vpon vs.

[e] Affliction brought them to the conſcience of their ſinne done 22. yeeres before.

[f] Sinne is the cauſe of affliction.

22 And Ruben answered them, saying, Said I not vnto you, that you should not sinne against the lad, & ye would not heare: and see, now his blood is required.

23 They were not aware that Joseph vnderstood them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And hee turned from them and wept: and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and toke out Simeon from amongst them, and bounde him before their eyes.

25 And Joseph commaunded to fill their sackes with corne, and put euery mans money in his sacke, and to giue them victuall to spend by the way: and thus did hee vnto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corne, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouender in the ‖ Inne, he espied his money, for it was in his sackes mouth.

‖ The Hebrue word signifieth a place where one abideth all night.

28 And hee saide vnto his brethren, My money is restored to me againe, for loe, it is in my sacke. And their heart ‡ failed them, & they were astonied, and said one to another,
Why hath God thus dealt with vs?

‡ Went foorth.

29 And they came vnto Iacob their father, vnto the land of Chanaan, & tolde him all that befell vnto them, saying,

30 The man who is the lorde of the lande, spake roughly to vs, and tooke vs for spies of the countrey.

31 And h we said vnto him, Wee meane truely, we neuer were spies.

h They tell here no more then they thought made for their owne honestie and fame.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is away, and the yongest is this day with our father in the land of Chanaan.

33 And the lorde of the countrey saide againe vnto vs, Hereby shall I know that yee meane truely: Leaue one of your brethren here with me, and take food to put away the famine from your households, and get you away,

34 And bring your yongest brother vnto
mee, that I may know that you are no spies, but meane truely: so will I deliuer you your brother, and ye shall occupie in the land.

35 And as they emptied their sackes, behold, euery mans bundle of money was in his sacke: And when both they and their i father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

i Ioseph ment not to grieue his father: yet sometimes wise mens deedes are otherwise then they minded.

36 And Iacob their father said vnto them, k Ye haue ye robbed of my children: Ioseph is away, & Simeon is away, and ye will take Beniamin away: all these things are against me.

k He was also tempted with the decay of Gods promise, which should continue in his seed that now dayly decayed.

37 Ruben said vnto his father, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to my hand, and I will bring him to thee againe.

38 And hee saide, My sonne shall not goe downe with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if destruction come vpō him by the way which yee goe, ye shall bring my gray head with sorow vnto the graue.

The xliii. Chapter.

13 Iacob suffereth Beniamin to depart with his children.

AND the dearth was great in the land.

2 And it came to passe when they had eaten vp the corne which they had brought out of the land of Egypt, their father said vnto the,
Goe againe and buy vs a little foode.

3 Iuda answered him, and saide, The man did solemnely protest vnto vs, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with vs, we will goe downe and buy thee foode.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not goe downe: for the man said vnto vs, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother bee with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt yee so cruelly with a me, as to tell the man that yee had yet a brother?

a Meaning, though they hated their brother, yet they should haue pitied him.

7 They answered, The man asked vs straitly of ‡ our state, & of our kinred, saying,
Is your father yet aliue? haue ye not another brother? And wee told him according to the ‡ tenor of these wordes: Could wee by any meane know that he would say, Bring your brother downe with you?

‡ Of vs.

‡ Mouth.

8 Then said Iuda vnto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, that wee may arise &
goe, and that wee may liue, and not die, yea both we and thou, and also our ‖ meanie.

‖ Or, children.

9 I will bee suretie for him, of my hande shalt thou require him: if I bring him not vnto thee againe, & set him before thine eyes, then let me beare the blame for euer.

10 Truely, except wee had made this tarrying, by this wee had returned the seconde time.

11 And their father Israel said vnto the,
If it must needes bee so, now then doe thus:
Take of the ‡ best fruites of the land in your vessels, and bring the man b a present, a cur-die of balme, and a curdie of hony, spices, and myrrhe, nuttes and almonds.

‡ Of the praise of the land.

b This thing had prooued well with him before, as Gen. 32.

12 And take double money in your hand, and the money that was brought againe in your sackes, take it againe with you, peraduenture it was some ouersight.

c Wisedoms and equitie in Iacob.

13 Take also your brother with you, and arise, and goe againe vnto the man.

d Iacob doth all things necessarie, yet resteth vpon God chiefly in a matter betwixt man and man.

14 And d God almightie giue you mercy in the sight of the man, that hee may deliuer you your other brother, and this Beniamin:
and thus I am as one that is quite robbed of his children.

15 Thus tooke they the present, and twise so much more money in their hande, with Beniamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt, and stoode before Ioseph.

16 When Ioseph saw Beniamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make readie:
for these men shall ‡ dine with me at noone.

‡ Eate.

17 And the man did as Ioseph bade, and brought them into Iosephs house.

18 When the men were brought into Io-sephs house, e they were afraid, and said, Because of the money that came in our sackes mouthes at the first time are we brought in, that he may ‡ seeke occasion against vs, and violently lay handes vpon vs, to bring vs in bondage, and our asses also.

e An euil conscience taketh all things suspitiously.

‡ Tumble or rol himselfe vpon vs.

19 Therefore came they to the man that was was the ruler ouer Iosephs house, and communed with him at the doze of her house, 20 And said, Oh sir, wee came dowme hyther at the first time to buy soode, 21 And as wee came to an Inne, wee opened our sackes, and behold, euery mans money was in the mouth of his sacke, euen our money in full waighe: and we haue brought it againe in our hand.

22 And other money haue wee brought also in our hands to buy soode: but wee cannot tell who put our money in our sackes.

23 And he saide, Peace be vnto you, feare not: your [f] God, and the God of your father, hath giuen you that treasure in your sackes: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them.

f Ioseph instructed his owne familie in the knowledge of God, though he could not reforme the whole realme.

24 And the man led them into Iosephs house, and gaue them water to washe their feete, and gaue their asses prouender.

25 And they made ready their present against Ioseph came at noone: for they heard say that they should eate bread there.

26 Whē Ioseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their hands, and bowed themselues to the ground before him.

‡ Peace.

27 And hee asked them of their ‡ welfare, and said, Is your father, that old man which ye told me of, in good health? and is he yet aliue?

28 They answered, Thy seruant our father is in good health, and is yet aliue. And they [g] bowing themselues, made their obeisance.

g Thus they fulfill Iosephs dreame, which they mocked before.

29 And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Beniamin his mothers sonne, and sayde, Is this your yonger brother of whom ye spake vnto me? And he said, God be mercifull vnto thee, my sonne.

‡ Bowels.

30 And Ioseph made haste (for his ‡ heart did melt vpon his brother) and sought where to weepe, and entred into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face and came out, and refrained himselfe, and sayde, Set on bread.

32 And they prepared for him by himselfe, and for them by themselues, & for the Egyptians which did eate with him, by themselues: because the Egyptians may not eate bread with the Hebrewes, for that is an [h] abomination vnto the Egyptians.

h The nature of the superstitious is to condemne all other in respect of themselues.

33 And they sate before him, the [i] first borne, according to his age, and the yongest, according to his youth: and the ‡ men marueiled among themselues.

‡ Man to his fellow.

34 And he sent rewards vnto them from before himselfe: but Beniamins part was fiue times as much as any of theirs: and they [i] dranke, and were made ‡ merie with him.

i Sometime this word signifieth to be dronken in deede, & sometime to be well refreshed with wine and not dronken.

‡ Drunke.

The xliiii. Chapter.

1 Ioseph commaundeth his cup to be put in the sacke of Beniamin, 5 The cup is founde in the sacke of Beniamin. 12 Ioseph accuseth his brethren of theft. 33 Iuda offereth himselfe to be bound for his brother Beniamin.

AND hee commanded the ruler of his house, saying, Fill the mens sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put euery mans money in his sackes mouth.

2 [a] And put my cup, my siluer cup, in the sackes mouth of the yongest, and his corne money also. And he did according to the word that Ioseph had said.

a We may not by this example vse any vnlawfull practise, seeing God hath commanded vs to walke in simplicitie.

3 And in the morning as soone as it was light, the men were let goe, they, and their asses.

4 And when they were out of the citie, & not yet farre away, Ioseph saide vnto the ruler of his house, vp, & follow after the men: and when thou doest ouertake them, thou shalt say vnto them, Wherefore haue yee rewarded euill for good?

5 Is not that the cuppe in the which my lord drinketh? and in the which he [b] prophecieth? Ye haue euill done that ye haue done.

b He speaketh according to the opinion of the Egyptians, who thought that all the wise men of Egypt could prophecie.

6 And when he ouertooke them, he sayde the same words vnto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore saith my lord such words? God forbid that thy seruants should doe so.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sackes mouthes, we brought againe vnto thee out of the land of Chanaan: how then should we steale out of thy lords house either siluer or gold?

9 With whomsoeuer of thy seruants it be found, let him die, and wee also will bee my lords bondmen.

10 And he said, Nowe also let it bee according vnto your words: hee with whom it is found, shall be my seruant: and yee shall bee blamelesse.

11 And at once euery man tooke downe his sacke to the ground: and euery man opened his sacke.

12 And he searched, & began at the eldest, and left at the yongest: & the cup was found in Beniamins sacke.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his Asse, and went againe vnto the citie.

14 And Iuda and his brethren came to Iosephs house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Ioseph sayde vnto them, What deede is this that ye haue done? wote ye not that such a man as I can certainly prophecy?

16 Then sayde Iuda, What shall wee say vnto my lord? what shall we speake? or how shall we ‡ cleare our selues? God hath [c] found out the wickednesse of thy seruants: behold, we are my lords seruants, both wee, yea and he also with whom the cup is found.

c If we see my euident cause of our affliction: let vs search & diligently the secrets of our hearts: for God punisheth not without a iust cause.

17 And hee answered, God forbid that I shoulde doe so: but the man with whom the cup is found, he shall bee my seruant, and get you hence vp in peace vnto your father.

18 Then Iuda went vnto him, and saide, Oh my lorde, let thy seruant, I pray thee, speake a word in my lords eares, and bee not inflamed with wrath against thy seruant: for ‡ thou art euen as Pharao.

‡ As thou, as Pharao.

19 My lord asked his seruants, saying, Haue ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, Wee haue a father that is old, and a yong lad, which he begate in his age: and the brother of the said lad is dead, and he is al that is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 And thou saidst vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto mee, that I may set mine eies vpon him.

22 And we answered my lord, that the lad could not goe from his father: for if he should leaue his father, he were but dead.

d As if he had bene the cause that Beniamin came into Egypt: and therfore should be merciful.

23 Then saidst d thou vnto thy seruants, Except your yongest brother come with you, looke that ye see my face no more.

24 And when we came vnto thy seruant our father, we shewed him the wordes of my lord.

25 And our father saide vnto vs, Goe againe, and buy vs a little foode.

26 And wee answered, Wee cannot goe downe: neuertheless, if our yongest brother be with vs, then will we goe downe: for we may not see the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 And thy seruant our father saide vnto vs, Ye know ‖ that my wife bare me two sonnes, 28 And the one went out from me, and I saide, e Of a suretie he is torne in pieces: and I saw him not since.

e Ioseph might vnderstand what lie they had made before of his selling. So wickednesse will bewray it selfe.

29 And if ye take this also away from me, & destruction come vnto him, yee shall bring my gray head with sorow vnto the graue.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, & the lad bee not with vs (seeing that his f life ‡ hangeth by ‖ the lads life,) f That is, whom he loueth as his life. ‡ Tied vnto.

31 Then shall it come to passe, that as soone as he seeth that the lad is not come, he will die, so shall we thy seruants bring ‖ the gray head of thy seruant our father with sorowe vnto the graue.

32 For I thy seruant became suretie for the lad before my father, and said, If I bring him not vnto thee againe, ‖ I shall beare the blame vnto my father all my life long.

‖ Or, shall sinne, or be guilty of sinne.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide here for the lad, & bee my lordes g bondman, and let the lad goe vp with his brethren.

g As token of godlinesse, to beare ‖ the blame of breaking promise and fidelitie.

34 For howe can I goe vp to my father, if the lad be not with me, vnlesse I would see ‖ the wretchednesse that shall come on my father?

The xlv. Chapter.

1 Ioseph maketh himselfe knowen to his brethren. 5 He comforteth them, and sheweth that hee was sent thither by Gods prouidence.

THen Ioseph could no longer refraine before all them that stoode by him: wherfore he cryed, a Cause euery man to auoide. And there remained no man with him, while Ioseph vttered himselfe vnto his brethren.

a He would not haue the shame of their wickednesse spread abrode.

2 And hee wept aloude: and the Egyptians, and the house of Pharao heard.

3 And Ioseph saide vnto his brethren, I am Ioseph, doth my father yet liue? And his brethren could not answere him, they were so abashed at his presence.

4 And Ioseph saide vnto his brethren, Come nere to me, I pray you. And they came neare. And he saide, I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Nowe therefore, bee not greeued herewith, neither let it seeme a cruell thing in your eyes that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserue life.

6 For this is the second yeere of dearth in the lande: and fiue more are behinde, in the which there shall neither be earing, nor haruest.

7 wherefore, God sent me before you, to preserue you a ‖ posteritie in the earth, and to saue your liues by a great deliuerance.

‖ Or, remnant.

8 So now, it was not yee that sent me hither, b but God, which hath made mee a father to Pharao, & lord of all his house, & ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

b Though God vse the wicked, & turn their doings to his purpose: yet they are not excusable for their mischieuous intent.

9 Haste you, and goe vp to my father, and tell him, Thus saith thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lord of c all Egypt, come downe therefore vnto me, tary not.

c He doth not bragge of his glory, but would come for his father by this worke of God.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the lande of d ‡ Gosen, and be a neighbour vnto me, thou, and thy children, and thy childrens children, thy sheep, & thy beasts, and all that thou hast.

d It was called afterward Thebaida. ‡ Goshen.

11 And there will I prouide thee sustenance (for there remaine yet fiue yeeres of dearth) least thou, and thy houshold, & al that thou hast, come to pouertie.

12 And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eies also of my brother Beniamin, that e mine owne mouth speaketh vnto you.

e He spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue.

13 Therefore tell my father of all my glorie in Egypt, and of all that you haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

14 And he fel on his brother Beniamins neck, and wept: and Beniamin wept on his necke.

15 Moreouer, he kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and after that, his brethren talked with him.

16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaos house, so that they saide, Iosephs brethren are come. And it pleased Pharao well, and all his seruants.

17 And f Pharao spake vnto Ioseph, Say vnto thy brethren, This doe yee, lade your beastes, and goe and returne vnto the land of Chanaan:

f This was Gods singular worke: for the Egyptians could not abide the Hebrewes.

18 Take your father, and your housholds, and come vnto me: and I will giue you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shal eate the fat of the land.

19 And thou also shalt commaund them, This doe yee, take charets with you out of the lande of Egypt, for your children, and for your your wiues, and bring your father, & come.

‡ Let not your eyes ſpare your veſſels.
20 Alſo ‡ regard not your ſtuffe: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.
21 And the children of Iſrael did euen ſo: and Ioſeph gaue them charets, according to the ‡ commandement of Pharao, and gaue them victuall alſo to ſpend by the way.
‡ Mouth.
22 And he gaue vnto ech of them change of raiment: but vnto Beniamin hee gaue three hundred pieces of ſiluer, & fiue change of rayment.
23 And vnto his father he ſent, after the ſame maner, tenne Aſſes laden with good out of Egypt, and ten ſhee aſſes laden with corne, and bread and meate for his father, by the way.
24 So ſent he his brethren away, & they departed: and he ſayde vnto them, See that ye § fall to no ſtrife on the way.
§ Seeing Ioſeph had remitted the ſame vnto againſt him, he would not that they ſhould blame or accuſe one another.
25 They departed therefore from Egypt, and came into the lande of Chanaan, vnto Iacob their father, 26 And tolde him, ſaying, Ioſeph is yet aliue, and is gouernour ouer all the lande of Egypt. And Iacobs heart ‡ wauered: for he beleeued them not.
‡ Was looſed.
27 And they told him all the words of Ioſeph, which hee had ſaide vnto them: And when he ſawe the charets which Ioſeph had ſent to carrie him, the ſpirite of Iacob their father reuiued.
28 And Iſrael ſaide, I haue enough, that Ioſeph my ſonne is yet aliue: I will goe and ſee him, yer that I die.

The xlvj. Chapter.

2 God aſſureth Iacob of his iourney into Egypt.

a In the beginning of his iourney he calleth vpon God, and proteſteth not to leaue his faith, though he left his countrey.
ISrael tooke his iourney with all that hee had, and came to Beer ſeba, and a offered offerings vnto the God of his father Iſahac.
2 And God ſpake vnto Iſrael in a viſion by night, ſaying, Iacob, Iacob. And he anſwered, Here am I.
b For the land of Chanaan was as a pledge of Gods ſpirituall benediction, therefore he was loth to leaue it.
3 And hee ſayde, I am God, the God of thy father, b feare not to goe downe into Egypt: for I will there make of thee a great people.
4 I will goe downe with thee into Egypt: and I will ſurely make thee come vp againe, and Ioſeph ſhall put his hand vpon thine eyes.
5 And Iacob roſe vp from Beer-ſeba: and the ſonnes of Iſrael caried Iacob their father, and their children, and their wiues, in the Charets which Pharao had ſent to carrie him.
6 And they tooke their cattel, & the goods which they had gotten in the lande of Chanaan, and came into Egypt, both Iacob and all his ſeede with him, 29 And Joseph made readie his charet, and went vp to meete Israel his father vnto Gosen, and presented himselfe vnto him: and hee fell on his necke, and wept on his necke a good while.

i His dignitie letteth him not from doing his duetie to his father.

30 And Israel sayde vnto Joseph, Nowe am I content to die, in so much as I haue seene thy face, and because thou art yet aliue.

31 And Joseph sayde vnto his brethren, and vnto his fathers house, k I will goe vp, and shewe Pharao, and tell him, My brethren, and my fathers house, which were in the land of Chanaan, are come vnto me.

k He will doe nothing as of priuate affection, without the consent of Pharao, though his authoritie was great.

32 And they are Shepheards, for their trade hath bene to feed cattell: and they haue brought their sheepe and their cattell and all that they haue.

33 And if that Pharao call you, and aske you, What is your occupation?

l Joseph is not ashamed of the baseness of his kinred. m This pride of the enemie made for the better vniting of the Church, and other commodities.

34 Ye shall answere, l Thy seruants haue bene occupied about cattell from our childhood vnto this time, wee and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Gosen. For euery one that keepeth cattell, is an m abomination vnto the Egyptians.

The xlvij. Chapter.

1 Iacob commeth before Pharao, 11 to whome Pharao giueth the land of Gosen.

IOseph came therefore, and told Pharao, and sayde, My father and my brethren, their sheepe, and their cattell, and all that they haue, are come out of the land of Chanaan: and behold, they are in the land of Gosen.

‡ Of the extreme parts.

2 And Joseph tooke ‡ of the meanest of his brethren, euen fiue men, and presented them vnto Pharao.

3 And Pharao saide vnto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they answered Pharao, Thy seruants are a keepers of cattell, both we, and also our fathers.

a The godly are not ashamed of the baseness of their occupation, so it be lawfull.

4 They sayde moreouer vnto Pharao, For to sojourne in the land are we come: for thy seruants haue no pasture for their cattell, so sore is the famine in the lande of Chanaan: Now therefore let thy seruants dwell in the land of b Gosen.

b It was in the confines of the land of Chanaan, and Arabia, and in the extreme partes of Egypt.

5 And Pharao sayd vnto Joseph, Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto thee.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the lande make both thy father and thy brethren dwell, euen in the lande of Gosen let them dwell. Moreouer, if thou knowest any man of activitie amongst them, make them rulers ouer my cattell.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharao: and Jacob blessed Pharao.

‡ The dayes of the yeres of thy life.

8 And Pharao sayde vnto Jacob, Howe olde art thou?

9 Jacob sayde vnto Pharao, The dayes of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirtie yeeres: few and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and c haue not attained vnto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimage.

c He doth not complaine of his dayes: but praiseth God for his goodnesse towardes his fathers.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharao, and went out of his presence.

11 And Joseph prepared dwellings for his father, and his brethren, and gaue them possessions in the lande of Egypt, in the best of the lande, euen in the lande of d Rameses, as Pharao had commanded.

d Which was a citie of Gosen.

12 And Joseph made prouision for his father and his brethren, and all his fathers houshold, with bread, e euen to the mouthes of the yong children.

e That is, he prouided for them all, from the least to the most.

13 There was no bread in all the lande: for the dearth was exceeding sore, so that the land of f Egypt, and all the land of Chanaan were famished by reason of the dearth.

f God prouideth for his, when most fruitfull lands want.

14 And Joseph brought together all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and of Chanaan, for the corne which they bought: and hee layde vp the money in Pharaos house.

15 When money failed in the lande of Egypt and of Chanaan, all the Egyptians came vnto Joseph, and saide, Giue vs bread: wherefore sufferest thou vs to dye before thee, when our money is spent?

16 Then sayde Joseph, g Bring your cattell: and I will giue you for your cattell, if money fayle.

g Joseph is not to be condemned of crueltie: for he was but another mans officer herein: and they had to pay.

17 And they brought their cattell vnto Joseph: and Joseph gaue them bread for horses, and sheepe, and oxen, and asses, and fedde them with bread for all their cattell that yeere.

18 But when that yeere was ended, they came vnto him the next yeere, and sayde vnto him, We will not hide it from my lord how that our money is spent, my lord also had our heardes of cattell: neither is there ought left in the sight of my lord, but euen our bodies, and our lands.

19 Wherefore letteth thou vs dye before thine eyes, both wee and our land? h bye vs and our land for bread, and both we and our land will be bound vnto Pharao: onely giue vs seede, that we may liue and not dye, and that the land goe not to waste.

h God punished the delicate pride of this people by this extreme hunger.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharao: For the Egyptians solde euery man his possessions, because the dearth was so sore vpon them: and so the land became Pharaos.

21 And hee caused the people to remoue from citie to citie, from one side of Egypt into the other.

22 Onely the land of the priests bought he not: for the Priests had a portion assigned them of Pharao, and did eate their portion which Pharao gaue them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph sayde vnto the folke, Beholde, I haue bought you this day, and your lande land for Pharao: Lo, here is ſeede for you, and ye ſhall ſowe the land.

24 And of the increaſe you ſhall giue the [i] fifth part vnto Pharao, and four parts ſhall be your owne for ſeede of the fielde, and for you and them of your houſholds, and for your children to eate.

25 And they anſwered, Thou haſt ſaued our liues: let vs finde grace in the ſight of my lord, and we will be Pharaos ſeruants.

26 And Ioſeph made it a lawe ouer the lande of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharao ſhoulde haue the fifth part, except the land of the Prieſtes onely, which was not Pharaos.

27 And Iſrael dwelt in Egypt, in the countrey of Goſen, and they had their poſſeſſions therein, and grewe, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Moreouer, Iacob liued in the land of Egypt ſeuenteene yeeres, ſo that the whole age of Iacob was an [k] hundred and fourtie and ſeuen yeeres.

29 When the time drewe nigh that Iſrael muſt die, he ſent for his ſonne Ioſeph, and ſaid vnto him, If I haue founde grace in thy ſight, oh put thy hand vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truely with mee, that [l] thou burie me not in Egypt.

30 But I ſhall ſleepe with my fathers, and thou ſhalt carie mee out of Egypt, and burie me in their buriall. And he anſwered, I will doe as thou haſt ſaid.

31 And he ſayde, Sweare vnto me. And he ſware vnto him. And [m] Iſrael ‡ worſhipped toward the beds head.

7 And Ioseph went vp to burie his father, and with him went all the seruants of Pharao that were the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt:

8 And all the house of Ioseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: onely their children, and their sheepe, and their cattell, left they behind in the land of Gosen.

9 And there went with him also charets and horsemen: and it was an exceeding great companie.

10 And they came to the corne flooze of Atad, which is beyond Iordane, and there they made a great and exceeding sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seuen dayes.

11 And when the inhabiters of the land, euen the Chanaanites, sawe the mourning in the corne flooze of Atad, they sayd, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: wherefore the name of the place is called, The mourning of the Egyptians, and it is beyond Iordane.

13 For his sonnes caried him into the land of Chanaan, and buried him in the caue of the fielde Machpelah, which fielde Abraham bought to be a place to burie in of Ephron the Hethite, before Mamre.

14 And Ioseph returned into Egypt againe, he and his brethren, and all that went vp with him to burie his father, as soone as he had buried him.

15 And when Iosephs brethren sawe that their father was dead, they sayd, Ioseph may paraduenture hate vs, and reward vs againe all the euill which we did vnto him.

16 And they did send a message vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father did commaund before he died, saying, 17 This wise shall ye say vnto Ioseph, Forgiue, I pray thee, the trespasse of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euill. And now we pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of the seruants of the God of thy father. And Ioseph wept when they spake vnto him.

8 But there arose vp a newe king in Egypt, which [b] knewe not Ioseph:

9 And he sayd vnto his folke, Behold, the people of the children of Israel, are [c] greater and mightier then we.

10 Come on, let vs deale wittily with them, least they multiplie, and least it come to passe, that if there be any warre, they ioyne themselues vnto our enemies, and fight against vs, and so get them vp out of the land.

11 Therefore did they set taskemasters ouer them, to keepe them vnder with burdens: And they built vnto Pharao treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they [d] multiplied & grewe: so that they abhorred at the sight of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians helde the children of Israel in bondage without mercie, 14 And they made their liues bitter vnto them in that cruell bondage, in clay, and bricke, and all maner of worke in the fielde: for all their bondage wherin they serued thē, was full of tyrannie.

15 And the king of Egypt [e] spake vnto the Midwiues of the Hebrewes women: (of which the one was named Siphrah, and the other Puah) and sayd, 17 Notwithstanding, the Midwiues feared God, [f] and did not as the king of Egypt commaunded them, but saued the men children aliue.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the Midwiues, and sayde vnto them, Why haue ye dealt on this maner, and haue saued the men children aliue?

19 And the Midwiues answered Pharao, that the Hebrues women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are more liuely women, and are deliuered yer the Midwiues come at them.

20 And [g] God dealt well therefore with the Midwiues: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mightie.

21 And it came to passe, that because the Midwiues feared God, [h] he made thē houses.

23 And in processe of time, the king of Egypt dyed, and the children of Israel sighed by the reason of h bondage, and cryed.

24 And their complaynt came vp vnto God for the bondage: and God heard their mone, and God remembred his couenant with Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

25 And God looked vpon the children of Israel, and God had respect vnto them.

g Thus he continued the remembrance of the deliuerance of the children of Israel out of Egypt promised by his hand.

h God humbleth his people by afflictions, that they should cry vnto him, and receiue the fruits of his promise.

The iij. Chapter.

1 Moses keepeth the sheepe of Iethro his father in law,
2 God appeareth to him in a bush,
10 and sendeth him to deliuer the children of Israel.

MOses kept the sheepe of Iethro his father in law, priest of Madian: and he droue the flocke to the backeside of the desert, and came to the mountaine of God a ‡ Horeb.

a Thabid was called also Sinai, vpon another part of it.
‡ Corebah.

2 And the Angell of the Lorde appeared vnto him in a flame of fire out of the middes of a bush: and he looked, and beholde, b the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

b Though the church be grieuously afflicted, yet the presence of God keepeth it from destruction.

3 Therefore Moses sayd, I will goe now, and see this great sight, howe it commeth that the bush burneth not.

4 And when the Lord sawe that he came for to see, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses: And he answered, Here am I.

5 And hee sayde, Draw not nigh hither: c put thy shooes off thy feete, for the place whereon thou standest, is holy ground.

c By this externall ceremonie he was put in mind humblie and reuerently to heare God.

6 And he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to looke vpon God.

d God seeth the affliction of his Church, he remembreth his promise, and heareth their prayers.
e God is said to come downe when he heareth and answereth prayers, and deliuereth vs out of trouble.

7 And the Lord said, I d haue surely seene the trouble of my people which are in Egypt, and haue heard their crie from e the face of their taskemasters: for I knowe their sorowes,

8 And am come downe e to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, & to bring them out of that land, vnto a good land and a large, vnto a land that floweth with milke and honie, euen vnto the place of f Chanaanites, and Hethites, & Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, and of the Jebusites.

9 Nowe therefore beholde, the complaint of the children of Israel is come vnto mee: and I haue also seene the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppressed them:

10 Come thou therefore, and I will send thee vnto Pharao, that thou mayest bring my people the childrē of Israel out of Egypt.

11 And Moses said vnto God, f what am I to goe vnto Pharao, and to bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

f This refusall was of humilitie, and not of disobedience.

12 And he answered, For I will be with thee: and this shalbe a token vnto thee, that I haue sent thee: After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, yee shall serue God vpon this mountaine.

g By a signe that thou shalt come, thanke God for this mercie, at his vocation.

13 And Moses sayde vnto God, Behold, when I come vnto the children of Israel, and shall say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me vnto you, And if they say vnto me, what is his name? what answere shall I giue them?

14 And God answered Moses, h I AM THAT I AM. And he sayde, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, i I AM hath sent me vnto you.

h Ehie is read in the future tense in this place, I shalbe.
i That is, I am the God which haue bene, doe am, that God almightie, by whō all things haue their beginning, and the God of mercy, mindful of my promise, Reuel. 1. Chap. verse 4.

15 And God sayde further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, k The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me vnto you: This is my name for euer, and this is my memorial vnto generation and generation.

k God would haue them rest vpon his free promise which they had almost forgotten.

16 Goe, and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say vnto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob, appeared vnto me, and said, Visiting, haue I visited you, and know that which is done to you in Egypt.

|Or, I haue surely vnderstood you.

17 And I haue said, I will bring you out of the tribulation of Egypt, vnto the land of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, & Jebusites, euen vnto a lande which floweth with milke and honie.

18 And they shall heare thy voyce: then both thou and the Elders of Israel shall goe vnto the king of Egypt, and say vnto him: The Lorde God of the Hebrues hath |met with vs, and now let vs go, we beseech thee, three dates iourney into the wildernesse, and doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

l Because Egypt was full of idolatrie, God would appoint them a place where they should serue him purely.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you goe, |no not by a mightie hand.

|Or, but by a strong hand,

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will doe in the middes thereof: and after that he will let you goe.

21 And m I will get this people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that when yee goe, ye shall not goe emptie:

m God can turne the hearts of the most cruell enemies.

22 But euery wife shall borowe of her neighbour, and of her that soiourneth in her house, ‡ ie wels of siluer, and ie wels of golde, and rayment: and ye shall put them on your sonnes and daughters, and shall robbe the Egyptians.

‡ Vessels.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 God giueth three signes vnto Moses, which do declare that he was sent of God. 18 Moses taketh his leaue of his father in law.

Moses

MOses answered and said, [a] See, they will not beleeue mee, nor hearken vnto my voyce: but will say, The Lord hath not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lord sayde vnto him, What is that which is in thine hand? Hee answered, A ‖ rodde.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the grounde, and it became a serpent: and Moses fled from the sight of it.

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Put foorth thine hande, and take it by the tayle. And therefore hee put foorth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rodde in his hand.

5 [b] By this thing shall they beleeue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Lorde sayde furthermore vnto him, Thrust thine hand into thy bosome. And he thrust his hand into his bosome: and when hee tooke it out againe, beholde, his hand was leprous as snowe.

7 And he sayde, Put thine hand into thy bosome againe. And he put his hand into his bosome againe, and pluckt it out of his bosome, and beholde, it was turned againe as his other flesh.

8 Therefore if they will not beleeue thee, neither heare the ‖ voyce of the first signe, yet will they beleeue for the voyce of the seconde signe.

9 But and if they will not beleeue these two signes, neither hearken vnto thy voyce: thou shalt take of the water of the riuer, and powre it vpon the drie lande, and the water which thou takest out of the riuer, shall bee turned into blood vpon the drie land.

10 Moses sayde vnto the Lorde, Oh my Lord, I ‖ am neither yesterday, nor yet yesterday, a man eloquent, neither since thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant: but I am slowe mouthed, and slowe tongued.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Who hath made mans mouth? or who maketh the dumbe, or deafe, the seeing, or the blinde? haue not I, the Lord?

12 And nowe goe, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 He said, Oh my Lord, send I pray thee by the hande of him, whome thou wilt sende.

14 And the Lorde was angry with Moses, and sayde, Doe not I knowe Aaron thy brother ‡ the Leuite, that he can speake? for loe, hee commeth foorth to meete thee: and when he seeth thee, hee will bee glad in his heart.

15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put [c] these wordes in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye ought to doe.

16 And he shalbe thy spokesman vnto the people, and he shall be, euen he shalbe to thee in steade of ‖ a mouth, and thou shalt bee to him in [d] steade of God.

17 And thou shalt take this rodde in thy hand, wherewith thou shalt doe miracles.

18 Therefore Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in lawe againe, and said vnto him, Let me goe I pray thee now, and turne againe vnto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they bee yet aliue. And Jethro said to Moses, Goe in peace.

19 And the Lord said vnto Moses in Madian, Goe and returne againe into Egypt, for all the men are dead which went about to ‡ kill thee.

20 And Moses tooke his wife, and his sonnes, and put them on an Asse, and went againe to Egypt: And Moses tooke the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said vnto Moses, when thou art entred ‖ come into Egypt againe, see that thou do all the wonders before Pharao, which I haue put in thy hand: [e] but I will harden his heart, and hee shall not let the people goe.

22 And thou shalt say vnto Pharao, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my sonne, euen my first borne.

23 And I said vnto thee, that thou let my sonne goe, that he may serue me: and if thou refuse to let him goe, beholde, I doe [f] slay thy sonne, euen thy first borne.

24 And it came to passe by the way, in the Inne, that the Lorde met him, and would haue [g] killed him.

25 And Zephora tooke a stone, and cut away the foreskinne of her sonne, and cast it at his feete, and sayde, A bloodie husband art thou vnto me.

26 Then [h] he let him goe, and she sayd, A bloody husband: because of the circumcision.

27 Then said the Lord vnto Aaron, Goe meete Moses in the wildernesse. And hee went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses tolde Aaron all the words of the Lord which had sent him, and all the signes which he charged him withall.

29 So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron tolde all the words which the Lorde had spoken vnto Moses, and did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people [i] beleeued: And when they heard that the Lord had visited the children of Israel, & had looked vpon their tribulation, they bowed themselues, & worshipped.

The v. Chapter.

1 Moses and Aaron doe their message to Pharao, who will not suffer the people of Israel to depart: but oppresseth them more and more.

MOses and Aaron went in afterward and tolde Pharao, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Let my people goe, that they may ‖ holde a feast vnto me in the wildernesse.

2 And

[a] Though Moses continued not Gods calling, yet difficulties thereof troubled him much.

‖ Or, Shepherds staffe.

[b] Whatsoeuer signes God gaue Moses to worke the first signes to confirme his doctrine, to assure him of his vocation.

‖ Or, the words confirmed by the first signe.

‖ Or, was neuer eloquent.

‡ Of Leui.

[c] Thou shalt instruct him what to say.

‖ Or, he shal be the interpreter, and thou shalt be his guide [d] That is, thou shalt be to him a wise counseller, and full of Gods spirite.

‡ Seeke thy soule.

[e] God is said to harden mens heart, when he both inflicts punishment vpon their obstinacie and wickednesse, by withdrawing his spirite and grace.

[f] Speaking, most bearing vnto thee.

[g] Because he had not circumcised his children as God had appointed.

[h] That is, the Lorde that would haue killed him.

[i] So that Moses had many experiences of Gods promise that he should haue good successe in deliuering the people of Israel.

‖ Worship God solemnly.

2 And

2 And Pharao sayde, who is the Lorde that I should heare his voyce, and let Israel goe? I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel goe.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrues ‡ hath called vs: let vs go, we pray thee, three dayes iourney into the desert, and doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, least he smite vs with pestilence, or with the sword.

‡ Heb. is called ouer vs.

4 Then said the king of Egypt vnto them, wherefore doe ye Moses and Aaron let the people from their workes: get you vnto your burdens.

5 And Pharao said furthermore, Behold, there is much people now in the lande, and you make them leaue their burdens.

6 And Pharao commaunded the same day the taskemasters which were amongst the people, and the officers, saying, a The godly ought not to be offended at afflictions: they cease when God begynneth to deliuer them.

7 Ye shall giue the people no more strawe to make bricke withal, as ye did in time past: let them goe and gather them strawe themselues.

8 And the number of bricke which they were wont to make in time past, lay vnto their charges also, & minish nothing thereof, for they be idle, and therefore cry, saying, we will goe and doe sacrifice vnto our God.

9 They must haue more worke layd vpon them, that they may labour therein, and not regarde b vaine words.

b The more cruelly that tyrants rage, the nerrer is Gods helpe.

10 Then went the taskemasters of the people, and the officers out, and told the people, saying, Thus saith Pharao, I will giue you no more strawe.

11 Goe your selues and gather you strawe where ye can finde it: yet shall none of your labour be minished.

c This intolerable labour was layde on Gods people, that they might learne alway thanks vnto Moses.

12 And so were the people scattered abroade throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steade of strawe.

13 And the taskemasters hasted them forward, saying, Fulfill your worke, your dayly tasks in their due time, as if you had strawe.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaos taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten. And they said vnto them, wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making of bricke, both yesterday, and to day, as well as in time past?

15 Then officers also of the children of Israel came & complayned vnto Pharao, saying, wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruants?

16 There is no straw giuen vnto thy seruants, & they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and thy seruants are beaten, ‖ and the fault is in thine owne people.

‖ Or, they deale euill with thy people.

17 He said, Ye are idle, idle are ye: therefore ye say, we will goe and doe sacrifice vnto the Lord.

18 Goe therefore now and worke, & there shall no straw be giuen you, and yet shall ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in worse case, when it was said, Ye shall minish nothing of your bricke, of your dayly taske in due time.

20 And they met Moses & Aaron, which stoode in their way as they came out from Pharao, 21 And said vnto them, d The Lord looke vpon you, and iudge you, which haue made the sauour of vs ‡ to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of his seruants, & haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

d They mis-iudging Gods grace by the present aduersitie, become vnthankfull to men, & inuisious to God.

‡ To stinke.

22 Moses returned vnto the Lord, & said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so euill intreated this people? And wherefore hast thou sent me?

e Moses imbecillitie appeareth in that he is wearie of his vocation, & complaineth of Gods slowenesse in deliuering his people.

23 For since I came to Pharao to speake in thy name, he hath fared worse with this folk: yet thou hast not deliuered thy people at all.

The vi. Chapter.

1 God renueth his promise concerning the deliuerance of the Israelites.

Then the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will doe vnto Pharao: for in a mightie hand shall he let them goe, and in a mightie hand shall he driue them out of his land.

2 And God spake vnto Moses, and said vnto him, I am the Lord.

3 I appeared vnto Abraham, Isahac, & Jacob, as an almighty God: but in my name Iehouah was I not knowen vnto them.

a The patriarkes knewe God before, but such manifest knowledge of God as Moses had, they had not. And it is vnto by Moses.

4 Moreouer, I made a couenant with them, to giue them the land of Chanaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were straungers.

5 And therefore I haue also heard ‖ grening of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keepe in bondage: and haue remembred my couenant.

6 Wherefore say vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lorde, I will bring you out from vnder burdens of the Egyptians, and will ridde you out of their bondage, and will deliuer you in a stretched out arme, & with great iudgements.

‖ Or, cries.

7 And I will take you for my people, and will be vnto you a God: & ye shall know that I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you from vnder the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the land concerning the which I did lift vp mine hand to giue vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and will giue it vnto you for a possession: for I am the Lord.

b So hard a thing it was to driue true obedience vnto the people.

9 And Moses told the children of Israel euen so: but they hearkened not vnto Moses for anguish of spirite, and for cruell bondage.

10 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Goe in, and speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Behold the children of Israel hearken not vnto me: how then shall Pharao heare me, which am of vncircumcised lippes?

‖ Or, which haue an impediment in my speach: or am rude.

c It appeareth that this is principall cause wherefore God sharply reproueth Moses, because he mistrusted, and the people enuied.

13 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and vnto Aaron, and gaue them a charge concerning the children of Israel, and concerning Pharao king of Egypt, ‖ that they shoulde bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

‖ Or, he should let goe.

14 These be the heads of their fathers houses. The childrē of Ruben the first borne sonne of Israel, are these: Hanoch, and Phallu, Hesron, and Charmi: these be the children of Ruben.

15 The children of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, Ohad, and Jachin, Sohar, and Saul the sonne of the Chanaanitish womā: these are the kinreds of Simeon.

d It was necessarie to be knowen, what the ministers of this deliuerance were of Abrahams stocke.

16 These are also the names of the children d of Leui in their generations: Gerson, and Cehath, and Merari: Leui liued an hundred, thirtie, and seuen yeeres.

17 The sonnes of Gerson: Libni, and Simi, by their kinreds.

18 The children of Cehath: Amram, and Ishar, and Hebron, and Uziel. And Cehath liued an hundred, thirtie, and three yeeres.

19 The children of Merari: Mahli, and Muli: these are the kinreds of Leui by their generations.

e Which kind of mariage was afterward in the law forbidden. Leuit. 18, 12.

20 Amram tooke Jochebed e his fathers sister to wife, and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and Amram liued an hundred, and thirtie, and seuen yeeres.

21 And the children of Ishar: Corah, Nepheg, and Sichri.

22 The children of Uziel: Misael, Elizaphan, and Zithri.

f Whereby is ment the wife of the tribe of Iudah.

23 And Aaron tooke f Elisheba, daughter of Aminadab and sister of Naason to wife, which bare him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

24 The children of Corah: Assir, and Elcanah, and Abiasaph: these are the kinreds of the Corahites.

25 Eleazar Aarons sonne tooke him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife, which bare him Phinees: these are the principall fathers of the Leuites, throughout their kinreds.

‖ Or, carie.

26 This is that Aaron & Moses to whome the Lord said, ‖ Leade the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, according to their armies.

g For their families were so great, that they might be compared to armies.

27 These are that Moses and Aaron, which spake to Pharao king of Egypt, that ‡ they might bring the children of Israel out of Egypt.

‡ Might let goe.

28 And in the day when the Lord spake vnto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 He spake vnto him, saying, I am the Lord, speake thou vnto Pharao the king of Egypt all that I say vnto thee.

30 And Moses said before the Lord, Behold, I am of vncircumcised lippes, and how shall Pharao giue me audience?

The vi. Chapter.

1 Moses and Aaron speaketh to Pharao, that the rod is turned into a serpent: the water into bloud, and Pharaos sorcerers doe the like. 13 and Pharaos heart is hardened the more.

AND the Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaos God: And Aaron thy brother shall be thy Prophet.

a God communicateth his authoritie and power with his ministers.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaund thee, & Aaron thy brother shal speake vnto Pharao, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaos heart, and multiplie my miracles, and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharao shall not harken vnto you, that I may set my hande vpon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, and my people the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt ‖ in great iudgements.

b To strengthē Moses, Gods promise is, that he will so worke against Pharao, that he shall be compelled to let the people go.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth my hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commaunded them, euen so did they.

7 Moses was fourescore yeeres olde, and Aaron fourescore and three, when they spake vnto Pharao.

8 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharao speake vnto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharao, that it may be a serpent.

10 Then went Moses and Aaron in vnto Pharao, and did as the Lord had commaunded: and Aaron cast forth his rodde before Pharao, and before his seruants, and it turned to a serpent.

11 Then Pharao called for the wise men, and enchanters: and those sorcerers of Egypt did in like maner with their inchantments.

c It is likely that the two Iannes and Iambres, mentioned 2. Tim. 3. 8. were then the chiefe of Pharaos sorcerers.

12 For they cast downe euery man his rodde, & they turned to serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rodds.

13 And he hardened Pharaos heart, & he hardened not vnto him, as the Lord had said.

14 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Pharaos heart is ‡ hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

‡ Made heauie, or burdened.

15 Get thee vnto Pharao in the morning, lo, he will come out vnto the water, and thou shalt stand ouer against him by the riuers brinke, and the rodde which was turned to a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hande.

‡ Nylus.

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of the Hebrues hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people goe, that they may serue me in the wildernesse: and behold, hitherto hast thou not obeyed.

‖ Or, they dealt with the people.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rodde that is in my hand the riuer, and they shall be turned to bloud.

18 And the fishes that is in the riuer shall die, and the riuer shall ‖ corrupt, and the getaine the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the riuer.

19 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers and ponds, and al pooles of water which they haue, that they may be blood, & that there may be blood throughout all the lande of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and also of stone.

The first plague.

20 And Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commaunded: and he lift vp the rodde, and smote the [d] waters that were in the riuer, in the sight of Pharao, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer turned into blood.

d The waters wherein the Israelites children were drowned, are now turned to the Egyptians sorowe.

21 And the fish that was in the riuer, died: and the riuer corrupted, and the Egyptians could not drinke of the water of the riuer, and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did likewise with their sorceries: and he hardened Pharaos heart, neither did he hearken vnto them, as the Lord had said.

23 And Pharao turned himselfe, and went againe into his house, and set not his heart thereunto.

e These circumstances declare that this was no lesse illusion.

24 And the Egyptians [e] digged rounde about the riuer for water to drinke: for they could not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And it continued seuen dayes, after that the Lord had smitten the riuer.

The viii. Chapter.

6 The plague of frogges, which dye at the prayer of Moses. 30 Moses prayeth againe, but Pharaos heart is hardened.

THe Lord spake vnto Moses, Go vnto Pharao, & tell him, Thus saith the Lorde, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I wil smite all thy borders with frogges:

3 And the riuer shall sraule vp frogges, which shall go vp and come into thine house, and into thy priuie chamber where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed, and into the house of thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine ouens, and vpon all thy ‖ victuals in store:

‖ Or, thy dough, or in thy ambrie.

4 And the frogs shal come vp vpon thee, & on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants.

5 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rodde ouer the streames, ouer the riuers, and ouer the ponds: and cause frogs to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

The second plague.

6 And Aaron stretched his hand ouer the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the land of Egypt.

e Thus God will exercise his seruants with aduersaries to their triall.

7 And [e] the sorcerers did likewise with their sorcerie, and brought frogges vp vpon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharao called for Moses and Aaron, and saide, Pray [b] ye vnto the Lorde, that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people: and I will let the people goe, that they may doe sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

b Hypocrites feared with Gods iudgement, pretend a certaine repentance.

9 And Moses said vnto Pharao, [c] Glory herein because of me, and appoynt when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruantes, and for thy people, to driue away the frogs from thee and thy houses: that they may remaine but in the riuer onely.

c This was the glory of Pharao, that he might chuse the time when Moses should pray for him.

10 He said, To morow. And he said, Euen as thou hast saide: That thou mayest knowe that there is none like vnto the Lorde our God.

11 And so the frogges shall depart from thee, and frō thy houses, from thy seruants, and from thy people, and shal remaine in the riuer onely.

12 Moses & Aaron went out from Pharao, and Moses cryed vnto the Lord as touching the frogges which he had brought against Pharao.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: and the frogges dyed out of the houses, out of the villages and fieldes.

14 And they gathered them together vpon heapes, and the land ‡ had an euill smell through them.

‡ Stanke.

15 But when Pharao sawe that he had rest giuen him, he hardened his heart, & harkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

16 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the lande, that it may be turned to lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and there were lice in man and beast: so that all the dust of the land was lice, throughout all the land of Egypt.

The third plague.

18 And the inchanters ‡ allayed likewise with their inchantments, to bring forth lice, [d] but they could not: and the lice were both vpon men and beastes.

‡ wrought.

d God confounded their wisedome and authority in a thing most vile.

19 Then said the inchanters to Pharao, This is the finger of God. And Pharaos heart remained obstinate, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had saide.

20 And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Rise vp earely in the morning, and stande before Pharao, loe, he will come forth vnto the water, and thou shalt say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

21 Els, if thou wilt not let my people goe, behold, I will send ‡ all maner of flies, both vpon thee and thy seruants, and thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of flyes, & the ground whereon they are.

‡ Swarmes of flies.

22 And the lande of Goshen where my people are, will I ‖ cause to bee wonderfull in that day, so that there shall no flies be there: whereby thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord in the middest of the earth.

‖ Or, separate.

‡ Redemption.

23 And I will put a ‡ diuision betweene my people and thine: and to morowe shall this miracle be done.

e God graunteth a time of repentance.

24 And the Lord did so, and e there came an intolerable swarme of flies into the house of Pharao, and into his seruants houses, and into all the land of Egypt: and the lande was corrupt with these flies.

The fourth plague.

f This miracle was wrought without the meanes of the rodde.

25 And Pharao called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Goe g doe sacrifice vnto your God in this land.

26 And Moses answered, It is not meete that we so do: for we must offer vnto the Lord our God, that which is h an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Loe, if we sacrifice that which is an abhomination vnto the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone vs?

g For the Egyptians worshipped their God Apis in the likenesse of an ore, & their god Jupiter in the likenesse of a sheepe, which kinde of beast the Israelites offred in sacrifice to the true God.

27 We will goe three dayes iourney into the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God, as he hath commaunded vs.

28 And Pharao saide, I will let you goe, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wildernesse, but goe not i farre away: pray for me.

h The wicked wickedly prescribeth vnto Gods ministers howe farre they shal goe.

29 And Moses saide, Beholde, I wil goe out from thee, and pray vnto the Lorde, that the flies maydepart from Pharao, and from his seruants, and from his people to morow: but let Pharao from henceforth deale deceitfully no more, that he will not let the people goe to sacrifice vnto the Lord.

30 And Moses went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lord:

31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, and the flies departed from Pharao, and from his seruants, and from his people, and there remained not one.

32 And Pharao hardened his heart once more at this time, & did not let the people goe.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The murraine of beastes. 10 The plagues of botches and sores. 23 The horrible hayle, thunder, and lightnings.

THe Lord said vnto Moses, Goe in vnto Pharao, & thou shalt tel him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrues, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

2 If thou refuse to let them goe, and wilt holde them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thy flocke which is in the fielde, for vpon horses, vpon asses, vpon camels, vpon oxen, and vpon sheepe, there shall be a mightie great murraine.

4 And the Lord shall doe wonderfully betweene the beastes of Israel, and the beastes of Egypt, so that there shall nothing die of al that perteineth to the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, saying, To morowe the Lord shall finish this worde in the land.

The fifth plague.

a This speach signifieth a very great number, or the most part.

6 And the Lord did that thing on the morow, & a all the cattell of Egypt died: but of the cattell of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharao sent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: And the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not let the people goe.

8 And the Lord saide vnto Moses and Aaron, Take your handes full of ashes out of the furnace, and Moses shall sprinkle it vp into the ayre in the sight of Pharao:

9 And it shall be dust in all the land of Egypt, and shal be swelling sores with blaines both on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they tooke ashes out of the furnace, and stoode before Pharao, and Moses sprinkled it vp into the ayre: and there were swelling sores with blaines: both in men, and in beasts:

The sixth plague.

11 And the b sorcerers could not stand before Moses because of the blaines, for there were botches vpon the inchanters, and vpon all the Egyptians.

b The sorcerers ceased not to resist Moses & Aaron, wherefore this plague did more grieue them then the residue of the Egyptians.

12 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao, & he harkened not vnto thē, as the Lord had said vnto Moses.

13 And the Lorde said vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, & stand before Pharao, and thou shalt tell him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Hebrues, Let my people go, that they may serue me:

14 Or els I wil at this time send all my plagues vpon thine c heart, & vpon thy seruants, & on thy people: that ye maiest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

c So y thine owne conceit that condemne thee of ingratitude and malice.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee & thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And in very deede d for this cause haue I ‡ kept thee, for to shew thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the world.

d God would haue him know that he could quickly haue destroyed him, yet for other causes he reserued him.

17 Yet exaltest thou thy selfe against my people, that thou wilt not let them goe?

‡ Made thee stand.

18 Behold to morow this time I wil send downe a mightie great haile, such a one as was not in Egypt since y foundation thereof was layde, vnto this time.

19 Send therefore now, and c gather thy beasts, and all that thou hast in the field: for vpon all the men and the beastes which are found in the fielde, & not brought home, shall the hayle fall, and they shall die.

e Here wee see though Gods wrath be kindled, yet there is a certaine mercie shewed euen to his enemies.

20 And as many as feared the word of the Lord amongst the seruants of Pharao, made their seruants and their beastes flee into the houses.

21 But he that regarded not the worde of the Lord, left his seruants and his beastes in the fielde.

22 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Stretch forth thy hand vnto heauen, that there may be haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beasts, and vpon all the herbes of the fielde, throughout the lande of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rodde vnto heauen, and the Lorde thundered and hayled, hayled, and the fire ranne along vpon the grounde, and the Lord hayled in the land of Egypt.

The seuenth plague.

24 So there was haile, and fire mingled with the haile, so grieuous, and such as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since people inhabited it.

25 And the hayle smote throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the fielde, both man and beast: and the hayle smote all the herbes of the fielde, and broke all the trees of the fielde.

26 Onely in the land of Gosen, where the children of Israel were, was there no haile.

27 And Pharao sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, I haue nowe sinned: the Lord is righteous, and I and my people are vngodly.

28 Pray yee vnto the Lord, that these thundrings of God and haile may bee sufficient: and I will let you goe, and yee shall tarie no longer.

f Ye sheweth the king that though his incredulitie he yelded the place where he was.

29 Moses sayde vnto him, f Assoone as I am out of the citie, I will spreade abroad my handes vnto the Lord, and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there bee any more hayle: that thou mayest knowe howe that the earth is the Lords.

30 But I knowe that thou and thy seruants yet feare not the ‡face of the Lord God.

g Moses flourly condemneth the king and all his court of vngodlinesse.

31 And so the flaxe and the barley were smitten, for the barley was shot vp, and the flaxe was bolled:

32 But the wheate and the rye were not smitten, for they were late ‡sowen.

‡Hidde.

33 And Moses went out of the citie from Pharao, and spread abroad his handes vnto the Lord: and the thunder and hayle ceased, neither rained it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharao sawe that the raine, and the haile, and thunder were ceased, hee sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his seruants:

35 And the heart of Pharao was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel goe, as the Lord had sayde by the hand of Moses.

The x. Chapter.

13 The plague of Grashoppers. 16 Pharao confesseth his sinne. 28 Pharao forbiddeth Moses to come any more in his presence.

AND the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Goe in to Pharao: for I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruants, that I might shewe these my signes before him, a Gods miracles be so great, that they ought to be spoken of for euer: and the diuerse of parents is to declare the same to their children.

2 And that thou tell a in the audience of thy sonne, and of the sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and the miracles which I haue done amongst them, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

3 And so Moses and Aaron came in to Pharao, and sayd vnto him, Thus saith the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Howe long wilt thou b refuse to submit thy selfe vnto mee? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

b The ende of afflictions is to humble our selues with true repentance vnto the mercy of God.

4 Or els if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe will I bring Grashoppers into thy coastes:

5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that it can not be seene: and they shall eate the residue which remaineth vnto you, and is escaped from the haile: and they shall eate euery greene tree that beareth you fruit in the fielde.

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, after such a maner, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene, since the time they were vpon the earth, vnto this day. And he turned himselfe about, and went out from Pharao.

7 And Pharaos seruants sayde vnto him, Howe long shall he be ‡hurtfull vnto vs? Let the men goe, that they may serue the Lorde their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

‡A snare.

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharao, and he said vnto them, Goe and serue the Lord your God: but who are they that shall goe?

9 And Moses answered, We will go with our yong, and with our olde, and with our sonnes, and with our daughters, and with our sheepe, and with our oxen we must goe: for we must holde a feast vnto the Lord.

10 And he said vnto them, c Let the Lord be so with you as I will let you go, and your children: take heede, ‡for ye haue some mischiefe in hand.

c That is, I wonder the Lord were no more bent towards you, then I am minded to let you goe.

‡For euil is before your face.

11 Nay, not so, but goe ye men, and serue the Lorde: for that was your desire. d And they were thrust out of Pharaos presence.

d Moses is carefull to haue Gods commandement in all poynts duely obserued, choosing rather to be pared for Gods sake, then to consent to a thing vnlawfull.

12 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hande ouer the lande of Egypt for grashoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eate all the herbes of the land, and all that the haile left behinde.

The eight plague.

13 And Moses stretched foorth his rodde ouer the land of Egypt, and the Lord brought an e East winde vpon all the land that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East winde brought the Grashoppers.

e Hereby we learne that distemperate and noysome weather is chiefly to be ascribed to the iust iudgement of God, and not to any naturall cause.

14 And the Grashoppers went vp ouer all the lande of Egypt, and remained in all quarters of Egypt very grieuously: before them were there no such Grashoppers, neither after them shalbe.

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the land was darke, and they did eate all the herbes of the land, and all the fruites of the trees whatsoeuer the haile had left: there was no greene thing left in the trees and herbes of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharao called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and sayde, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And nowe forgiue me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that hee may take away from mee this death onely.

18 And Moses went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strong West winde, and it tooke away the Grashoppers, and cast them into the red sea: so that there was not one Grashopper in all the coastes of Egypt.

20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, so that he woulde not let the children of Israel goe.

21 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Stretch out thy hand vnto heauen, that there may bee vpon the land of Egypt darkenesse which may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched foorth his hand vnto heauen: and there was a ‡thicke darkenesse vpon all the land of Egypt three dayes. The ninth plague. ‡ Palpable darkenesse.

23 No man sawe another, neither rose vp from the place where hee was by the space of three dayes: But all the children of Israel had light where they dwelled.

24 And Pharao called for Moses, and sayde, Goe, and serue the Lorde: onely let your sheepe and your oxen abide, and let your children goe with you.

25 [f]And Moses saide, Thou must giue vs also sacrifice and whole burnt offerings, for to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God. f Moses will not yeelde in any point in such things as God commanded, for all that Pharao could doe.

26 Our cattell also shall goe with vs, and there shall not one hoofe bee left behinde: for thereof must we take to serue the Lorde our God: neither doe we knowe with what we must doe seruice vnto the Lord, vntill wee come thither.

27 But the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, and he would not let them goe.

28 [g]And Pharao sayde vnto him, Get thee from me, and take heede vnto thy selfe, that thou seest my face no more: for, when so euer thou commest in thy sight, thou shalt die. g The wicked, the nigher they be to their destruction, the more furious commonly they be. Therefore the godly in such cases ought to be of good hope.

29 And Moses said, Let it be as thou hast said, I will see thy face no more.

The xj. Chapter.

2 The Lorde commaundeth the Hebrues to robbe the Egyptians. 4 The death of the first borne of all things in Egypt is signified.

AND the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more vpon Pharao, and vpon Egypt, and after that he will let you goe hence: when he shall let you go quite, he shall vtterly driue you hence.

2 [a]Speake thou therefore in the eares of the people, that euery man borowe of his neighbour, and euery woman of her neighbour, iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde. a We must not take this for an example to spoyle our neighbour, that was enioyned by especiall commission for the due punishment of the Egyptians, Exod. 3. 9.

3 And the Lord shall giue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: Moreouer, Moses was a very great man in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaos seruants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, At midnight will I goe out into the middest of Egypt,

5 And all the first borne in all the land of Egypt shall die, from the first borne of Pharao that sitteth on his seate, vnto the first borne of the maid seruant that is behinde the mill, and all the first gendred of the cattell,

6 And there shall be a great crie throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was neuer none like, nor shall be.

7 But amongst all the children of Israel, shall not a dogge moue his tongue, from a man vnto a beast: that yee may knowe how that the Lord putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Israel.

8 [b]And these thy seruants shall all come downe vnto mee, and fall before mee, and say, Get thee out, and all the people that are vnder thee: and then will I depart. And he went from Pharao ‖ with an angry countenance. b Pharaos seruants shall desire Moses to depart with his people: for the king spake no more to Moses, as was said before, Chap. 10. verse 28. ‖ Or, in a great anger.

9 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Pharao shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharao: and the Lord hardened Pharaos heart, so that hee would not let the children of Israel goe out of his land.

The xij. Chapter.

2 The Lord ordeineth the Passeouer. 37 The number that went out of Egypt, and howe long they continued in Egypt.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron in the lande of Egypt, saying,

2 This moneth shall be vnto you in the beginning of moneths: and the first moneth of the yeere shall it be vnto you.

3 Speake yee vnto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this moneth, euery man take vnto him a [a]lambe, according to the house of their fathers, a lambe throughout euery house. a God ordeined this sacrifice for a token and pledge of their deliuerance.

4 If the housholde bee too little for the lambe, let him take his neighbour which is next vnto his house, according to the nomber of the soules, euery one of you according to his eating, shall make your count for a lambbe.

5 And let your lambe bee without blemish, a male of a yeere olde, which yee shall take out from among the sheepe, and from among the goates.

6 And yee shall keepe him in, vntill the fourteenth day of the same moneth: and euery assemblie of the congregation of Israel shall kill him about ‖ euen. ‖ Or, twilight.

7 [b]And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side postes, and on the vpper doore post, in the houses where they shall eate him. b The Church is distinguished from the synagogue of the vnfaithful, by the word of God, and by the Sacraments.

8 And they shall eate the flesh the same night, rosted with fire, and with vnleauened bread, and with sowre herbes they shal eat it.

9 See that ye eate not thereof rawe nor sodden sodden with water, but roste with fire: the head, feete, and purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remaine vnto the morning: That which remaineth of it vntill the morowe, shall yee burne with fire.

11 Of this maner shall yee eate it, with your loynes is girded, and your shoes on your feete, and your staffe in your hand, [c] and ye shall eate it in haste: for it is the Lordes Passeouer.

c This was the Passeouer of the Iewes: but our Passeall Lambe is Christ, as witnesseth Paull, 1.Cor.5.

12 For I will passe through the lande of Egypt this same night, and will smite all the first borne of Egypt, from man to beast, and vpon all the [‡] godds of Egypt I will execute iudgement: I am the Lord.

‡ Princes, or Idoles.

13 And the blood shall bee vnto you a token in the houses wherin you are: and when I see the blood, I will passe ouer you, and the plague shall not be vpon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall bee vnto you a remembrance: and you shall keepe it an holy feast vnto the Lorde throughout your generations, you shall keepe it holy for an ordinance for [d] euer.

d Euer is not here taken for a time without ende, but for a long season indefinite, as in Gene 13.

15 Seuen dayes shall yee eate vnleauened bread, so that the first day ye put away leauen out of your houses: For who so euer eateth leauened bread, from the first day vntill the seuenth day, that soule shall be rooted out of Israel.

16 The first day shall be an holy conuocation vnto you, and the seuenth day shall be an holy conuocation vnto you: there shall be no maner of worke done in them, saue about that onely which euery man must eate, that onely may ye doe.

17 And yee shall obserue the feast of vnleauened bread: for this same day haue I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt, therefore ye shall obserue this day, and all your children after you, by an euerlasting decree.

18 The first moneth, and the fourteenth day of the moneth [e] at euen yee shall eate vnleauened bread, vnto the one and twentieth day of the same moneth at euen againe.

e The Iewes counted the beginning of the day at sunne set, till the nexte day at the same time.

19 Seuen dayes shall there bee no leauened bread found in your houses: and who so euer eateth leauened bread, that soule shall be rooted out from the congregation of Israel, whether he be stranger, or borne in the land.

20 [f] Ye shall eate no leauened bread: but in all your habitations shall yee eate vnleauened bread.

f By leauen is meant corruption, either of life, or doctrine.

21 Then Moses called for all the Elders of Israel, and saide vnto them, Choose out, and take you to euery householde of you a Lambe, and kill the Passeouer.

22 And take a bunch of hysope, and dippe it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the vpper poste of the dooze, and the two side postes, with the blood that is in the bason: and none of you goe out at the dooze of his house vntill the morning.

23 For the Lorde will passe ouer to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the vpper dooze post, and the two side postes, he will passe ouer the dooze, and will not suffer [g] the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

g The Angel sent of God to destroy the first borne.

24 Therefore shall yee obserue this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sonnes for euer.

25 And when yee bee come to the lande which the Lord will giue you, according as he hath promised, ye shall keepe his seruice.

26 And when your children aske you, What maner of seruice is this that ye doe?

27 Yee shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lordes Passeouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, and hee smote the Egyptians, and saued our houses. And the people bowed themselues, and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And at midnight the Lord smote the first borne in the land of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharao that sate on his seate, vntil the first borne of the captiuitie that was in prison, and all the first borne of cattell. The tenth plague.

30 And Pharao rose in the night, he and his seruants, and al the Egyptians, and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called vnto Moses and Aaron by night, saying, Rise vp, and get you out from amongst my people, both you, and also the children of Israel: and goe, and serue the Lord, as ye haue said.

32 And take your sheepe and your droues with you as yee haue sayde: and depart, and blesse me.

33 And the Egyptians forced the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste: for they sayde, Wee bee all but dead men.

34 And the people tooke their dough before it was sowred, which they had in store, being bound in clothes, vpon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses: and they borowed of the Egyptians iewels of siluer, and iewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they ‖granted such things as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.

‖ Or, lent them.

37 And the children of Israel tooke their iourney from Ramesis to Succoth, [h] sixe hundred thousand men of foote, beside children.

h If they goe so amongst their enemies, being so small a number at their first comming to Egypt: how did it also be of good hope, that God will encrease his Church, be it neuer so much oppressed.

38 And a great multitude of sundry other nations went also with them, and sheepe, and oxen, and exceeding much cattell.

39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not sowred: for they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarie, neither had they prepared for themselues any prouision of meate.

40 The dwelling of the children of Israel which they dwelled in Egypt, was i foure hundred and thirtie yeeres.

41 And when the foure hundred and thirtie yeeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to bee obserued vnto the Lord, in the which hee brought them out of the land of Egypt: This is that night of the Lord, which all the children of Israel must keepe throughout their generations.

43 And the Lord said vnto Moses and Aaron, This is the lawe of Passeouer: there shall no stranger eate thereof.

44 But euery seruant that is bought for money, after that thou hast circumcised him, shall eate thereof.

45 A stranger and an hired seruant shall not eate thereof.

46 In one house shall it bee eaten, thou shalt carie none of the flesh out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall obserue it.

48 If a stranger also dwell among you, and will holde Passeouer vnto the Lord, let him circumcise all that bee males, and then let him come and obserue it, and hee shall bee as one that is borne in the land: for no vncircumcised person shall eate thereof.

49 One maner of lawe shall be vnto him that is borne in the land, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 And all the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And the selfe same day did the Lorde bring the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt, with their armies.

i From Abrahams departing from Vr in Chaldea, vnto the departing of the children of Israel out of Egypt, were 430. yeeres.

The xiij. Chapter.

Sanctifie, that is, offer.

2 The first borne are sanctified vnto the Lord. 8 Children must bee taught howe their fathers were deliuered out of Egypt.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 a Sanctifie vnto me al the first borne, whatsoeuer openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beast: for it is mine.

a A law for the offring of the first begotten vnto God, who were deliuered not from death only, but from bondage also.

3 And Moses sayde vnto the people, Remember this day in which yee came out of Egypt out of the house of ‡ bondage: for through a mightie hand the Lord brought you from thence: there shall no leauened bread be eaten.

‡ Seruants.

4 This day came yee out, in the moneth b Abib.

b This was about Aprill, when corne began to ripe in that countrey.

5 When the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites, and Iebusites, which hee sware vnto thy fathers that hee would giue thee, a lande wherein milke and honie floweth: thou shalt keepe this seruice in this same moneth.

6 Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the seuenth day is the feast of the Lord.

7 Vnleauened bread shall be eaten seuen dayes: and there shall no leauened bread be seene with thee, nor yet leauen be seene with thee in all thy quarters.

8 c And thou shalt shewe thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lorde did vnto mee when I came out of Egypt.

c God willeth the cause of the ceremonie to be vttered at the celebration thereof.

9 d And it shall be as a signe vnto thee vpon thine hand, and as a remembrance betweene thine eyes, that the Lords lawe may be in thy mouth: for in a strong hande hath the Lord brought thee out of Egypt.

d Sacraments make to this purpose: that Gods word might be the oftpeller rooted in our hearts, so that thence might flowe a sincere confession of the mouth.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinance in his season from yeere to yeere.

11 And when the Lorde shall bring thee into the land of the Chanaanites, which he sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee:

12 Then thou shalt appoint vnto the Lord all that openeth the matrix, and euery first borne that commeth of a beast which thou hast, if it be a male, it shall be the Lords.

13 And euery first borne of an Asse thou shalt redeeme with a Lambe: if thou redeeme him not, thou shalt breake his necke: All the first borne of man amongst thy children also shalt thou e buy out.

e By offering a cleane beast in sacrifice, Leuit. 12.6.

14 And when thy sonne aske thee in time to ‡ come, saying, What is this? Thou shalt say vnto him, With a mightie hand the Lord brought vs out of Egypt out of the house of bondage.

‡ To morow

15 And when Pharao was very loth to let vs goe, the Lorde slewe all the first borne in the land of Egypt, as well the first borne of man, as the first borne of beast: Therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lord all the males that open the matrix: but all the first borne of my children I redeeme.

16 This shall bee as a token vpon thine hande, and as a remembrance betweene thine eyes, that the Lord brought vs out of Egypt through a mightie hand.

17 It came to passe that when Pharao had let the people goe, God caryed them not through the way of the lande of the Philistines, which was the nere nigh way: But God sayde, Least peraduenture the people f repent when they see warre, and so turne againe to Egypt.

f Repent, this word declareth the great weakenesse of the Israelites for all the wonders that were wrought.

18 But God led the people about thorow the way of the wildernesse of the red sea, and the children of Israel went vp ‡ harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

‡ By fiue in a ranke.

19 And Moses tooke the bones of Joseph with him: for he made the children of Israel sweare, saying: God will surely visite you, and ye shall take my bones away hence with you.

20 And they tooke their iourney from Suchoth, and abode in Ethem in the edge of

of the wildernesse.

21 And the Lorde went before them by day in a pillar of a cloude to leade them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might goe both by day and night.

22 ‖ The pillar of the cloude departed not by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, out of the sight of the people.

g God neuer faileth his people, whom he aideth beyond the compasse of mans reason, euen in their most desperate case.

The xiiij. Chapter.

4 Pharaos heart is hardened, 8 and he pursueth the Israelites.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they turne & pitch their tentes before Pi-hahiroth, betweene Migdol and the sea, ouer against Baal-sephon: and before that shal they pitch by the sea.

3 For Pharao will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land, the wildernesse hath shut them in.

4 And I wil harden Pharaos heart, that he shall followe after you, and I will get me honour vpon Pharao and vpon all his hoste: The Egyptians also shall knowe that I am the Lord. And they did so.

5 And it was tolde the king of Egypt that the people fled: And the heart of Pharao and of his seruants turned against the people, and they sayde, Why haue we done this, that we haue let Israel goe out of our seruice?

6 And he made readie his charet, & tooke his people with him,

7 And tooke fiue hundred chosen charets, and all the charets of Egypt, and captaines vpon euery one of them.

8 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao king of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

9 And the Egyptians followed after them, and all the horses & charets of Pharao, and his horsemen, and his hoste ouertooke them pitching of their tent by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth before Baal-sephon.

10 And when Pharao drewe nigh, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians followed after them, and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cryed out vnto the Lord.

a See the inconstancie and vnkinde dealing of the people: They burden Moses their guide, not considering the power of God, but the common course of things natural.

11 But they sayd vnto Moses, a Because there were no graues in Egypt, hast thou therefore brought vs away for to dye in the wildernesse? wherefore hast thou serued vs thus, for to cary vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not wee tell thee this in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that wee may serue the Egyptians? For it had bene better for vs to haue serued the Egyptians, then for to die in the wildernesse.

b Moses nothing discouraged, goeth forward manfully in his calling: a worthy patterne for the godly magistrate alwayes to embrace.

13 b And Moses sayd vnto the people, Feare ye not, stand still, and behold the saluation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day: for ye that haue seene the Egyptians this day, shall see them no more for euer.

c When we be hardest bestead, our strength shall stand in rope and quiet tentes. God mightily fighting for vs.

14 c The Lord shall fight for you, and yee shall hold your peace.

15 And the Lord said vnto Moses, wherefore d criest thou vnto me? Speake vnto the children of Israel that they goe forward:

d This cry is to be vnderstand, not of the sound of his voyce, but of the earnest affection of his heart.

16 But lift thou vp thy rod, & stretche out thy hand ouer the sea, and deuide it asunder, & let the children of Israel go on drie ground through the middes of the sea.

17 And behold, I, euen I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they shall follow after them: and I will get mee honour vpon Pharao, and vpon al his hoste, and vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen.

e Gods dreadfull iudgement is executed against them that resist his right hand.

18 e And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten mee honour vpon Pharao, vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen.

19 And the Angel of God which went before the hoste of Israel, remoued, & went behind them, and the pillar of the cloude went from before their face, & stood behinde them, 20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Israel, and it was a cloude and darkenesse, and gaue light by night: and all the night long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand ouer the sea, and the Lord caused the sea to go backe by a very strong East winde all that night, and made the sea drie land, and the waters were deuided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the mids of the sea vpon the drie ground, and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

f Of the blinde confidence of the vngodly to their utter vndoing, presuming of their owne strength.

23 And the Egyptians followed, & went in after them f to the middes of the sea, euen all Pharaos horses, his charets, and his horsemen.

24 And in the morning watch, the Lorde looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians out of the pillar of the fire and the cloude, and troubled the hoste of the Egyptians, 25 And tooke off his charet wheeles, and caried them away violently: So that the Egyptians sayde, g Let vs flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

g Late repentance sheweth not the vngodly, whose heart is not changed.

26 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Stretch out thy hande ouer the sea, that the waters may come againe vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets, and vpon their horsemen.

The last plague.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hande ouer the sea, and it came againe to his course early in the morning, and the Egyptians fled against it: and the Lorde ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middes of the sea.

28 And the water returned, and couered the charets, and the horsemen, & all the hoste of Pharao that came into the sea after them, so that there remayned not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked vpon

dry land through the mids of the sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hand of them, and on the left.

h The benefites that we receiue of God, and his iudgements against the wicked, tend al to this purpose, that we should stand in feare of him, & be strengthened in ẏ faith of his promises.

30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Israel the selfe same day out of the hande of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead vpon the sea side.

31 h And Israel saw that ‡mightie power which the Lorde shewed vpon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lorde, and beleeued the Lord, and his seruant Moses.

‡He, mightie hand.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Moses with the men and women sing prayses vnto God for their deliuerance.

THen Moses and the children of Israel sang this song vnto the Lord, and sayde on this maner: I will sing vnto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, the horse and him that rode vpon him hath he ouerthrowen in the sea.

2 The Lorde is my strength and prayse, and he is become my saluatiō: he is my God, and I will glorifie him, my fathers God, and I will exalt him.

3 The Lord is a man of warre, the Lorde is his name.

4 Pharaos charets and his hoste hath he cast into the sea, his chosen captaines also are drowned in the red sea.

5 The deepe waters haue couered them, they sunke to the bottome as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, Lord, is become glorious in power, thy right hand, Lord, hath all to dashed the enemie.

7 And in thy great glory thou hast ouerthrowen them that rose vp against thee: thou sentest foorth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

8 Through the blast of thy nosethrils the waters gathered together, the floods stoode still as an heape, and ẏ deepe waters congeled together in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemie said, I wil follow on them, I will ouertake them, I will deuide the spoile, and my lust shalbe satisfied vpon them: I will draw me my sworde, mine hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy winde, the sea couered them, they sanke as leade in the mightie waters.

11 Who is like vnto thee, O Lord, amōgst the gods? Who is like thee, so glorious in holinesse, feareful in prayses, shewing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hande, the earth swallowed them.

a Ye sheweth howe this ꝑte of Gods mightie power, not onely for the time present, but also hereafter, shalbe of great efficacie and force, as Deut. 2.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast caryed this people which thou hast redeemed, and hast brought them in thy strength vnto thy holy habitation.

14 a The nations shall heare, and bee afraid, sorow shall come vpon Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of the Edomites shall bee amased, and the mightiest of the Moabites: trembling shall come vpon them; all the inhabiters of Chanaan shall waxe faint hearted.

16 Feare and dread shall fall vpon them, in the greatnesse of thine arme they shall bee as stil as a stone, till thy people passe through, O Lorde, while this people passe through which thou hast gotten.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the b mountaine of thine inheritāce, the place, Lord, which thou hast made for to dwell in, the sanctuarie, O Lord, which thy hands haue prepared.

b which was mount Sion, where after the Temple was built.

18 The Lord shall reigne for euer & euer.

19 For Pharao on horsebacke went in with his charets and horsemen into the sea, and the Lorde brought the waters of the sea vpon them: But the children of Israel went on dry land in the middes of the sea.

20 And Marie a prophetisse, the sister of Aaron, tooke a timbrell in her hand, and all the women came out after her with c tymbrels and daunces.

c Signifying their great ioy, which customs the Iewes obserued in certaine solemnities, Iudg. 11. 34. which ought not to be a cloke for our wanton dances.

21 And Marie sang before them, Sing ye vnto the Lorde, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath hee ouerthrowen in the sea.

22 And so Moses brought Israel from the red sea, and they went out into the wildernesse of Sur: and they went three dayes in the wildernesse, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of d Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

d It is called bitter, & signifieth affliction & temptation, which through the crosse of Christ in faith is made sweete.

24 e And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drinke?

e A sudaine change of the inconstant & vnkinde people, neither considering Moses, by whose ministerie they had receiued such benefites, nor remembring the strange wonders that God had wrought for them already.

25 And hee cryed vnto the Lorde: and the Lorde ‡ shewed him a tree, which when hee had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweete: there hee made them an ordinance and a law, and there he proued him, ‡Taught.

26 And saide, If thou wilt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, and wilt doe that which is right in his sight, & wilt giue eare vnto his commaundements, & keepe all his ordinances: then wil I put none of these diseases vpon thee, which I haue brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

27 And the children of Israel came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and three score & tenne palme trees, and they pitched their tents there by the waters.

The xvj. Chapter,

1 The Israelites come into the desert of Sin. 32 Manna is reserued for a remembrance vnto their posteritie.

AND they tooke their iourney from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wildernes of Sin, which is betweene Elim and Sinai, the fifteenth day of the seuenth moneth geth after their departing out of the lande of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wildernesse.

3 And the children of Israel sayde vnto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the lande of Egypt, when wee sate [a] by the flesh pots, and when we did eate bread our bellies full: for ye haue brought vs out into this wildernesse to kill this whole multitude with hunger.

a So hard a thing it is to the flesh, not to murmure against God, when the belly is punished.

4 Then sayde the Lord vnto Moses, Behold, I will rayne bread from heauen to you: and the people shall goe out, and gather a certaine rate euery day, that I may proue them, whether they will walke in my lawe or no.

5 The sixth day they shall prepare for themselues that which they will bring in, and let it be twise as much as they gather in dayly.

6 And Moses and Aaron sayd vnto al the children of Israel, At euen ye shal know that it is the Lorde which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

7 And in the morning ye shal see the glory of the Lorde, because hee hath [b] heard your grudgings against the Lord: And what are we, that ye haue murmured against vs?

b He gaue the not Manna because they murmured, but for his promise sake.

8 And Moses said, At euen shall the Lord giue you flesh to eate, & in the morning bread enough: for the Lorde hath heard your murmurings which yee murmure against him: for what are we? Your murmurings are not against vs, but against the Lord.

9 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Say vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come forth before the Lorde: for hee hath heard your grudgings.

10 And as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wildernesse, and beholde, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloude.

11 And ¶ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tel them therfore, and say, At euen ye shal eate flesh, and in the morning ye shalbe filled with bread: [c] and ye shal know that I am the Lord your God.

c God worketh all that he worketh for this ende, that the knowledge of him may sticke deeper in our minds.

13 And at euen the Quailes came vp, and couered the tentes: and in the morning the dewe lay round about the hoste.

14 And when the dewe was gone, beholde, vpon the grounde in the wildernes there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoare frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel sawe it, they said euery one to his neighbour, It is [d] Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses sayde vnto them, This is the bread which the Lord hath giuen you to eate.

d Manna, which signifieth gift.

16 This is the word which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it euery man so much as is enough for him to eate, a gomer [e] for euery man, according to the number of your soules, and take euery man for them which are in his tentes.

e Gomer is a measure of liquid things, as Ephah was of drie things, and Bath of both, Exod. 16.36. Ezech. 45.11. Of the same measure was the pot, Exod. 16.33. and the pitcher, Iudg. 7.16. 1. Sam. 1.24. 1. King. 17.12. 18.32. 2. King. 4.2. 6.25.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did mete it with a Gomer, vnto him that gathered much, remayned nothing ouer, and vnto him that had gathered litle, was there no lacke: euery man gathered sufficient for his eating.

19 And Moses said vnto them, [f] See that no man let ought remaine to the morning.

f This doctrine also pertaineth to vs, who are bidden to aske but our daily food, and forbidden to be carefull for to morow.

20 Notwithstanding, they hearkened not vnto Moses: but some of them left of it vntil the morning, & it wared [g] full of wormes, and corrupted: and Moses was angry with them.

g So God punisheth them that greedily gather goods, trusting rather to their owne riches and diligence, then to his goodnes & prouidence.

21 And they gathered all mornings euery man as much as sufficed for his eating: and as soone as the heate of the sunne came, it moult.

22 And the sixth day they gathered twise as much bread, two Gomers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and tolde Moses.

23 He said vnto them, This is that which the Lord hath saide, To morow is the rest of the holy Sabboth vnto the Lord, bake that which you will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe, and that which remayneth, lay vp till the morning.

24 And they layd it vp til the morning as Moses bade: and it did not corrupt, neither bred there any wormes therein.

25 And Moses saide, Eate that to day, for it is the Sabboth vnto the Lorde: to day yee shall not finde it in the field.

26 Sixe dayes yee shall gather it, and in the seuenth day which is the Sabboth, in it there shalbe none.

27 Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seuenth day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, How long refuse ye to keepe my commandements and my lawes?

29 See, the Lord hath giuen you a Sabboth, therefore hee giueth you the sixth day bread for two dayes: bide therefore euery man at home, and let no man goe out of his place the seuenth day.

30 And the people rested the seuenth day.

31 And ¶ house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like Coriander seede, and white: and the taste of it was like wafers made with hony.

g In forme and figure, & not in colour, Num. 11.7.

32 And Moses said, This is that which the Lorde commandeth, Fill a Gomer of it, which may bee kept for your children after you, that they may see the bread where with I haue fed you in the wildernesse, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Take a pot, and put a Gomer full of Manna therein, and lay it vp before the Lorde, to be kept for your children after you.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron

Aaron layde it vp before the testimonie to bee kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eate Manna fourtie yeeres, vntill they came to a land inhabited, and so they did eate Manna, vntill they came vnto the borders of the land of Chanaan.

h Which measure conteineth about ten pottels.

36 Now Gomer is the tenth part of an h Epha.

The xvij. Chapter.

1 The Israelites come into Raphidim. 11 Moses holdeth vp his hands in prayer, and the Amalekites are ouercome.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel went on their iourneyes from the wildernesse of Sin, after the commaundement of the Lorde, and pitched a in Raphidim, there was no water for the people to drinke.

a Moses here noteth not as euery place where they camped, as Num. 33. but onely those places where some notable thing was done.

2 And the people did chide with Moses, and sayde, Giue vs water to drinke. Moses sayde vnto them, why chide you with mee? wherefore doe ye tempt the Lord?

3 There the people thirsted for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and sayde, wherefore hast thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kill vs, and our children, and our cattell with thirst?

4 And Moses cryed vnto the Lorde, saying, what shall I do vnto this people, they be almost ready to stone me.

5 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Goe before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rodde wherewith thou smotest the riuer, take it in thine hand, and goe.

6 Beholde, I will stand before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rocke, and there shall come water out thereof, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel.

7 And hee called the name of the place b Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the Lorde, saying, Is the Lord amongst vs, or not?

b To print this example in our hearts, Dauid mentioneth it, Psal. 95. saying, Harden not your hearts, &c.

8 Then came Amalec, and fought with Israel in Raphidim.

‡ Iehosuah.

9 And Moses said vnto ‡ Iosuah, Choose vs out men, and goe fight with Amalec: and to morowe I will stand on the top of the hill, and the rod of God shalbe in my hand.

10 Iosuah did as Moses bade him, and fought with Amalec: and Moses & Aaron, and Hur went vp to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to passe, that when Moses held vp his hand, c Israel had the better: and when hee let his hand downe, Amalec had the better.

c The feruent prayer of the godly, of how great force it is, hereby it is well knowen.

12 But Moses handes were heauie, and therefore they tooke a stone and put it vnder him, and he sate downe thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: and his hands remayned steadie vntill the going downe of the sunne.

d This slaughter of the Amalekites was but the beginning of Gods vengeance, as it appeareth, Deut. 25. 17. & 1. Sam. 15.

13 And Iosuah discomfited Amalec and his people with the edge of the sworde.

14 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, d write this for a remembrance in a booke, & commit it into the eares of Iosuah: for I will vtterly put out the remembrance of e Amalec from vnder heauen.

e An example to be trembled at, of them that persecute Gods Church.

15 And Moses made an altar, and called the name of it, ‡ The Lord is he that worketh miracles for me.

‡ Iehouah Nissi, that is, the Lorde my banner.

16 For he sayde, The f hand is on the seate of God, the Lorde will haue warre with Amalec from generation to generation.

f This Hebrew speach meaneth as much, as if he should say, God sweareth by his throne.

The xviij. Chapter.

1 Iethro Moses father in lawe, brought his wife and children vnto him.

IEthro the Priest of Madian, Moses father in lawe, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Therefore hee tooke Sephora Moses wife, after he had a sent her backe, a It may seeme that he sent her backe to her father, by her ouersight, left she should be a let to his businesse, which was so dangerous, chap. 4. ver. 26.

3 And her two sonnes, of which the one was called Gershom: for he said, I haue bene an aliant in a strange land.

b So called, because the presence of God was there, and wrought many miracles.

4 The name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father sayde he was mine helpe, and deliuered mee from the sworde of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moses father in law, came with his two sonnes, & his wife, vnto Moses into the wildernesse, where hee abode by the b mount of God.

6 And c he said vnto Moses, I thy father in law Iethro am come to thee, and thy wife also, and her two sonnes with her.

c That is, he sent messengers to speake.

7 And Moses went out to meete his father in lawe, and did obeisance, & kissed him: and eche asked other of his ‡ health, and they came into the tent.

‡ Peace.

8 And Moses tolde his father in lawe all that the Lord had done vnto Pharao and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trauaile that had ‡ come vpon them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.

‡ Found them.

9 And Iethro reioyced ouer all the goodnesse which the Lord had done to Israel, and because hee had deliuered them out of the hands of the Egyptians.

10 And Iethro said, d Blessed be the Lord which hath deliuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharao, which hath also deliuered his people from the hand of the Egyptians.

d Whereby it may appeare that he worshipped the true God, and therefore Moses refused not to admit him to baptisme.

11 Now I know that the Lord is greater then all gods: for in the thing wherein they delt proudly with them, e were they destroyed themselues.

e For they that persecute the Church of God, procure their owne destruction.

12 And Iethro Moses father in lawe tooke whole burnt offerings and sacrifices to offer to God: and Aaron & all the elders of Israel

Israel came to eate bread with Moses father in lawe before God.

13 And on the morowe Moses sate to iudge the people: and the people stood about Moses, from morning vnto euen.

14 And when Moses father in lawe sawe all that he did vnto the people, he said, What is this that thou doest vnto the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stande about thee from morning vnto euen?

15 And Moses said to his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto mee to seeke counsell of God.

16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man and his neighbour, and shew them the ordinances of God and his lawes.

17 And Moses father in lawe sayde vnto him, It is not [f] well that thou doest.

f Is negligent and slouthfull in matters to be speedily ended: & so a man to ouercharge himselfe further then he is able to suffer, is not well.

18 Thou both weariest thy selfe, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is of more waight then thou art able to performe thy selfe alone.

19 Heare therefore now my voyce, and I will giue thee counsell, and God shalbe with thee: Bee thou vnto the people [g] to Godward, that thou maiest bring the causes vnto God:

g Iudge thou in hard causes which cannot be vnderstood, but by consulting with God.

20 And thou shalt teache them ordinances and lawes, & shew them the way wherein they must walke, and the worke that they must doe.

21 Moreouer, thou shalt seeke out among all the people men of courage and such as feare God, true men, hating couetousnesse, and place of these ouer the people rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes, 22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: and euery great matter that commeth, let them bring vnto thee, but let them iudge all small causes themselues, and so shal it be easier for thy selfe, and they shall beare a burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt doe this thing, and God charge thee withall, thou shalt be able to endure, and yet the people shall come to their place in peace.

h Though Iethro were not to be compared, yet Moses followeth his counsell. So we also must follow instructions, whosoeuer putteth them in our minde.

24 [h] And so Moses obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them as heads ouer the people, rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes, 26 And they iudged the people at all seasons: but brought the hard causes vnto Moses, and iudged all small matters themselues.

i Reade the 20 verses, Num. 10.29.

27 And Moses [i] let his father in lawe depart: and he went into his owne land.

The xix. Chapter.

10 The people are commanded to be sanctified.

IN the third moneth, when the children of Israel were gone out of the lande of Egypt, the same day came they into the wildernesse of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Raphidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched their tents in the wildernesse, and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 But Moses went vp vnto God, and the Lord called vnto him out of the mountaine, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto the house of Iacob, and tell the children of Israel, a The Eagle carrieth her yong ones vpon her wings, fearing onely mans violence which rather then they should take harme, she would receiue the harme in her owne body. In stead wherof, serued the cloude that kept off the Egyptians foes.

4 Yee haue seene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and tooke you vp vpon [a] Eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto my selfe.

5 Now therefore if ye will heare my voice in deede, and keepe my couenant, ye shall be as a deare ‡ treasure vnto me aboue all nations: for all the earth is mine.

‡ A deare and precious thing of all men greatly desired.

6 Ye shall be vnto me also a priestly kingdome, and an holy people. And these are the wordes which thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel.

7 Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laide before their faces all these wordes which the Lorde commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said, All that the Lord hath said, we wil doe. And Moses brought the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Loe, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare mee talking with thee, & beleeue thee for euer. Moses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

10 And the Lorde said vnto Moses, Goe vnto the people, and [b] sanctifie them to day and to morowe, and let them washe their clothes, b Teach them to be pure in heart, as they shew themselues outwardly clene by washing.

11 And bee readie against the third day: for the third day ‡ the Lord will come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai.

‡ The Lord will come downe, for I will come downe.

12 [c] And thou shalt set boundes vnto the people round about, and say, Take heede to your selues, that ye go not vp into ‖ mount, or touche the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the mount, shall surely die.

c Men must be no bolder in Gods matters, then he giueth them leaue, nay fare ther curious, then he reuealeth in his worde.

‖ Or, corner.

13 There shall not an hande touch it, else he shall be stoned, or shot thorow: whether it bee beast, or man, it shall not liue: when the ‖ trumpet bloweth long, then may they come vp into the mountaine.

14 And Moses went downe frō the mount vnto the people, & sanctified them, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said vnto the people, Be readie against the third day, and come not at your wiues.

16 And the third day in ẏ morning there was thunder and lightning, and a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the voyce of the trumpet exceeding loude, so that all the people that was in the hoste was afraid.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the tents to meete with God, and they stoode at the neither part of the hill.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended vp as the smoke of a furnace, and all the mount [d] quaked exceedingly.

d God vsed these fearefull signes, to signifie that his law doth terrifie the conscience of man whereby hee might be moued the more to reuerence & feare the maiestie of God.

19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voyce.

20 And the Lord came downe vpon mount Sinai in the top of the hill: and when the Lord called Moses vp into the top of the hil, Moses went vp.

21 And the Lorde said vnto Moses, Goe downe, charge the people, least they breake out from their bounds to see the Lorde, & so, many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also which come to the Lord sanctifie themselues, least the Lord destroy them.

23 And Moses said vnto the Lorde, The people cannot come vp into the mount Sinai, for thou chargest vs, saying, Set bounds about the hill, and sanctifie it.

24 And the Lord said vnto him, Away, & get thee down, and thou shalt come vp, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the [e] priests and the people presume for to come vp vnto the Lord, least he destroy them.

e Neither dignitie nor multitude haue authoritie to passe þ bounds that Gods worde prescribeth.

25 And so Moses went downe vnto the people, and told them.

The xx. Chapter.

1 The ten commandements of God are declared vnto the people. 23 Gods of siluer and golde are againe forbidden.

The first Table.

AND [a] GOD spake all these wordes, and sayde, a When Moses and Aaron were gone vp, or had passed the bounds of the people, God spake thus out of the mount, that all the people heard. Deut. 5. 25.

2 I * am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt haue none other Gods in my sight.

4 Thou shalt make thee no graue image, neither the likenesse of any thing that is in heauen aboue, either in the earth beneath, nor in the waters vnder the earth.

5 Thou shalt not bowe downe to them, nor worship them: For I the Lorde thy God am a iealous God, & visite the sinne of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

6 And shewe mercy vnto thousandes in them that loue me, and keep my commandements.

b Not onely periurie, but rash and light othes be condemned.

7 [b] Thou shalt not take the name of the Lorde thy God in vaine: for the Lorde will not holde him guiltelesse that taketh his name in vaine.

8 Remember the Sabboth day, that thou [c] sanctifie it.

c The day is halowed, whē they that come together on the Sabboth be holy themselues.

9 Sixe dayes shalt thou labour, and doe all that thou hast to doe,

10 But the seuenth day is the Sabboth of the Lorde thy God: in it thou shalt doe no maner of worke, thou and thy sonne and thy daughter, thy man seruant, and thy mayde seruant, thy cattell and the stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in sixe dayes the Lorde made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seuenth day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seuenth day, & hallowed it.

The second Table.

12 [d] Honour [e] thy father and thy mother: that thy daies may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

d By honour is meant all dueties due which we owe vnto them.

e Vnder the name of parents, all magistrates and superiours be conteined.

13 Thou shalt not [f] kill.

f Here, not only slaughter, but wrath and hatred is forbidden.

14 Thou shalt not [g] commit adulterie.

g And here with the outward act, the inward affection, with all that procedeth thereof, is condemned.

15 Thou shalt not [h] steale.

h We must withdraw we both our handes, our eyes, and our mindes from another mans good. And here all auarice and vnlawfull gaines is disproued.

16 Thou shalt not beare false witnesse against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not couet thy neigbours house, neither shalt thou couet thy neighbors wife, nor his mā seruant, nor his maid, nor his oxe, nor his asse, nor any thing that is thy neighbours.

18 And all the people sawe the thundering, and lightning, & the noyse of the trumpet, and the mountaine smoking: And when the people saw it, they remoued, and stood a farre off, 19 And saide vnto Moses, Talke thou with vs: and we wil heare: But let not God talke with vs, least we die.

20 And Moses said vnto the people, Feare not, for God is come to proue you, and that his feare may bee before your eyes, that yee sinne not.

21 And the people stood a farre off, & Moses went into the thicke cloude, where God was.

22 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Thus thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel, Ye haue seene that I haue talked with you from out of heauen.

23 Yee shall not make therefore with me gods of siluer, neither shall ye make yee gods of gold.

24 An altar of earth thou shalt make vnto me, and thereon offer thy whole burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheepe, & thine oxen: In all places where I shall put the remembrance of my name, thither I wil come vnto thee, and blesse thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, see thou make it not of hewen stone: els if thou lift vp thy toole vpon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shall thou go vp by steppes vnto mine altar, that thy ‖ shame be not shewed thereon.

‖ Or, filthines.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Iudiciall and ciuill ordinances appointed by God, touching seruitude, stealing of men, manslaughter, cursing of parents, brawling, punishment of like with like, and of a goaring oxe, and such like.

These

a That is, the firſt partition of this booke after the Hebrewes, called the iudiciall part, that is, ſayings taken for the diſcloſing of controuerſies. Deut. 15.12.

THeſe are the lawes which thou ſhalt ſet before them.

2 a If thou buy a ſeruant that is an Hebrewe, ſixe yeeres he ſhall ſerue, and in the ſeuenth he ſhall goe out free paying nothing.

3 If he came alone, he ſhal goe out alone: and if he came married, his wife ſhall go out with him.

b Albeit God made this law for defence of libertie, yet ſo would he haue it kept, that the maſter might not be endamaged: for we muſt not do good to one with an others harme.

4 b And if his maſter haue giuen him a wife, & ſhee haue borne him ſonnes or daughters: then the wife and her children ſhall bee her maſters, and hee ſhall goe out alone:

5 And if the ſeruant ſay, I loue my maſter, my wife, and my children, I will not go out free:

6 His maſter ſhall bring him vnto the iudges, and ſet him to the doore, or the doore-poſt, and his maſter ſhall bore his eare thorow with a naule, and he ſhal be his ſeruant for euer.

7 And if a man ſell his daughter to bee a ſeruant, ſhee ſhall not goe out as the men ſeruants doe.

8 If ſhee pleaſe not her maſter, who hath now promiſed her marriage, then ſhal hee let her redeeme her ſelfe: To ſell her vnto a ſtrange nation ſhall he haue no power, ſeeing he deſpiſed her.

9 If he haue promiſed her vnto his ſonne to wife, hee ſhall deale with her as men doe with their daughters.

10 And if hee take him another wife, yet her foode, her raiment, and duetie of marriage ſhall he not minish.

c That is, if he neither marie her to himſelf, nor to his ſonne, nor let her redeeme her ſelfe out of bondage.

11 And if he do not c theſe three vnto her, then ſhall ſhe go out free, and pay no money.

12 He that ſmiteth a man that he die, ſhal be ſlaine for it.

13 If a man lay not a-wait, but God deliuer him into his hand, then I will point thee a place ‡ whither he ſhall flee.

‡ Sanctuarie appointed for place of refuge.

14 If a man come preſumptuouſly vpon his neighbour, to ſlay him with guile, thou ſhalt take him from mine altar, that he die.

15 Hee that ſmiteth his father or his mother, let him ‡ be ſlaine for it.

‡ Die the death.

16 Hee that ſtealeth a man, & ſelleth him, if he be proued vpon him, ſhalbe ſlaine for it.

17 And he that curſeth his father or mother, ſhalbe put to death for it.

‡ Of harme done by occaſion of brawles.

‖ Or, his neighbour.

18 ‡ If men ſtriue together, and one ſmite ‖ another with a ſtone, or with his fiſt, and he die not, but lyeth in his bed:

d In theſe ciuill lawes, we muſt not ſeeke for abſolute perfection, which God tempered according to the rudeneſs of the people, as amongſt whom many things were to be wincked at for the time.

19 If he riſe againe, and walke without vpon his ſtaffe, then ſhall he that ſmote him goe quite, ſaue onely he ſhall beare his charges for loſing his time, and ſhall pay for his healing.

20 And if a man ſmite his ſeruant or his maide with a rodde, and they die vnder his hand, he ſhalbe grieuouſly puniſhed.

21 And if he cõtinue a day or two, d it ſhall not be reuenged, for he is his money.

22 If men ſtriue, & hurt a woman with childe, ſo that her fruite depart from her, and yet no deſtruction followe: then he ſhall bee ſore puniſhed, according as the womans husband will lay to his charge, and he ſhall pay as the dayes men will appoint him.

e The execution hereof pertaineth to magiſtrates. For priuate wreck is forbidden. Matth. 5.33.

23 And if any deſtruction e folow, then he ſhall giue life for life,

24 Eie for eie, tooth for tooth, hande for hande, foote for foote, 25 Burning for burning, wounde for wound, ſtripe for ſtripe.

26 And if a man ſmite his ſeruant, or his maide in the eie, that it periſh, he ſhall let the goe free for the eyes ſake.

27 Alſo, if he ſmite out his mans ſeruant or his maides tooth, he ſhal let them goe out free for the toothes ſake.

‖ Puſh, or ſmite with his hornes.

28 If an oxe ‖ gore a man, or a woman, that they die, then the oxe ſhall be ſtoned, and his fleſh ſhall not be eaten: but the owner of the oxe ſhall goe quite.

f So God would haue his to vnderſtand howe hainous a matter it is for any man to annoy Gods image.

29 If the oxe were wont to puſh with his horne in time paſt, and it hath been tolde his maſter, & he hath not kept him, but that hee hath killed a man or a woman: f then the oxe ſhall be ſtoned, and his owner ſhall die alſo.

30 If there be ſet to him a ſumme of money, then he ſhall giue for the redeeming of his life, whatſoeuer is laid vpon him.

31 And whether he haue gored a ſonne or a daughter, according to the ſame iudgemẽt ſhall it be done vnto him.

32 But if it be a man ſeruant, or a maid, that the oxe hath gored, then he ſhal giue vnto their maſter thirtie * ſicles, & the oxe ſhalbe ſtoned. Gen. 23.15.

33 If a man open a well, or dig a pit, and couer it not, and an oxe or an aſſe fall therein:

34 The owner of the pit ſhal make it good, and giue money vnto their maſter, and the dead beaſt ſhall be his.

35 If one mans oxe hurt another, that he die: then they ſhal ſel the liue oxe, & deuide the money, and the dead oxe alſo they ſhal deuide.

36 Or if it be knowen that the oxe hath vſed to puſh in time paſt, and his maſter hath not kept him: he ſhall pay oxe for oxe, and the dead ſhalbe his owne.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 The lawes of God concerning theft, 5 damage, 7 lending, 14 borowing, 16 entiſing of maides, 18 witchcraft, 19 Idolatrie, 21 ſupporting of widowes, ſtrangers, and fatherleſſe, 25 vſurie, 28 reuerence to magiſtrates.

a Puniſhment ordained for thiefes.

IF a a man ſteale an oxe or a ſheepe, and kill it, or ſell it: hee ſhal reſtore fiue oxen for an oxe, foure ſheepe for a ſheepe.

2 If a thiefe be found breaking vp, and be ſmitten that he die: there ſhall no blood be ſhed for him.

3 But if the ſunne bee vpon him, then there ſhall be blood ſhed for him, for he ſhould make restitution: if he haue not wherewith, he shalbe sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be founde in his hand aliue, whether it be oxe, or asse, or sheepe, he shall restore double.

5 If a man do hurt fielde or vineyard, and put in his beast to feede in another mans fielde, of the best of his owne field, and of the best of his owne vineyarde, shall he make restitution.

6 If fire breake out and catche in the thornes, and the staches of corne, or the standing corne, or field be consumed therwith: he that kindled the fire, shall make restitution.

7 If a ‖ man deliuer his neighbour money or stuffe to keepe, and it be stollen out of his house, if the theef be founde, let him pay double:

8 And if the theef be not founde, then the good man of the house shall bee brought vnto the iudges, that it may bee knowen b whether hee haue put his hande vnto his neighbours good.

b That is, whether he haue stollen it.

9 And in all maner of trespasse, whether it be for oxe, asse, or sheepe, rayment, or anie maner of lost thing, which another challenge th to bee his: the cause of both parties shall come before the iudges, and whome the iudges condemne, let him pay double vnto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliuer vnto his neighbour to keepe, asse, oxe, sheepe, or what soeuer beast it be: and it die, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it:

11 Then shall an othe of the Lorde bee betweene them, that he hath not put his hande vnto his neighbours good: and the owner of it shall take the othe, and the other shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stollen from him, then hee shall make restitution vnto the owner therof.

c Or, shewe some part of the beast.

If it be torne in pieces, then let him c bring record of the tearing, and hee shall not make it good.

13 And if a man borowe ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or els die, and the owner thereof be not by, he shall surely make it good.

d Hereby we see what authority the parents haue in the bestowing of their daughter, whome it were not reason to take him for their sonne in law against their wils, that had wrought them so great villanie.

14 But if the owner thereof be by, he shall not make it good: If it bee an hired thing, it came for his hire.

15 If a man entice a maide that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall endow her, and take her to his wife.

e The worde in Hebrew signifieth a sorcerer or inchanter, or any that by diuelish meanes hurteth either cattell, corne, or men.

16 d And if her father refuse to giue her vnto him, he shal pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

17 Thou shalt not suffer a e witch to liue.

f And here also the word signifieth not bare killing, but cursing, and damning, for the more detestation therof.

18 Whosoeuer lieth with a beast, shall f be slaine for it.

19 Hee that offereth vnto any gods, saue vnto the Lord onely, he shalbe killed.

20 Vexe not a straunger, neither oppresse him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

21 Yee shall trouble no widow nor fatherlesse childe.

22 If ye shall euil intreate them, and they cry out vnto me, I will surely heare their cry.

23 And then will my wrath ware hote, & I will kill you with the sword, & your wiues shalbe widowes, & your children fatherlesse.

24 If thou lende money to any of my people that is poore by thee, thou shalt not be as a g creditour vnto him, neither shalt thou lay vpon him vsurie.

g Or, taskemaster.

25 If thou take thy neighbours rayment to pledge, thou shalt deliuer it vnto him by that the sunne goe downe.

26 For that is his couering onely, euen the rayment for his skinne, wherein hee sleepeth: and when hee cryeth vnto mee, I will heare him, for I am mercifull.

27 Thou shalt not raile vpon the ‖ gods, neither blaspheme the ruler of thy people.

‖ Or, Iudges

28 Thy fruites, whether they bee drie or moist, see thou keepe them not backe: thy first borne sonne thou shalt giue me.

29 Like wise also shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheepe: seuen dayes it shall be with the damme, and the eight day thou shalt giue it me.

30 Yee shall be an holy people vnto mee, neither shall ye eate any fleshe that is torne of beastes in the field, but shall cast it to a dog.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 A multitude is not to be followed in euill. 25 The reward of them that keepe the commandements.

THou shalt not haue to doe with any false reporte, neither shalt thou a put thine hande with the wicked, to bee an vnrighteous witnesse.

a That is, thou shalt not conspire with the wicked, &c. as sweare with them: for the Iewes take no othe, but they lay their hand vpon the booke of the law.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do euill, neither shalt thou ‡ speake in a matter of iustice according to the great number, for to peruert iudgement.

‡ Answere.

3 Neither shalt thou b esteeme a poore man in his cause.

b Truely of the matter, & not respect of any person, or to be esteemed in iudgement.

4 If thou meete thine enemies oxe or asse going astray, thou shalt bring them to him againe.

5 If thou see the asse of him that hateth thee sinke vnder his burden, thou shalt not passe by and let him alone, but shalt helpe him to lift him vp againe.

6 Thou shalt not hinder the right of the poore in his suite.

7 Keepe thee farre from a false matter, & the innocent and the righteous see thou slay not: c for I will not iustifie the wicked.

c Though the wicked oppresse the godly in this life, and goe for good men notwithstanding: yet before God it shall not be so, who will be reuenged of the wrong.

8 d Thou shalt take no giftes: for giftes blinde the ‡ seeing, and peruert the wordes of the righteous.

d Against bribes.

‡ Wise.

9 Thou shalt not oppresse a stranger: for yee knowe the heart of a stranger, seeing yee were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy lande: and gather in the fruites thereof.

11 And the seuenth yeere thou shalt let it rest and lye still, that the poore of thy people may eate: and what they leaue, the beasts of

of the field thal eate. In like maner thou ſhalt deale with thy vineyard & thine Olyue tree.

12 Sixe dayes thou ſhalt do thy worke, & in the ſeuenth day thou ſhalt reſt: that thine Oxe and thine Aſſe may reſt, & the ſonne of thy maid, and the ſtranger may be refreſhed.

13 In all things that I haue ſaide vnto you, be circumſpect: and make no reherſall of the names of ſtrange gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 Three feaſts thou ſhalt holde vnto me in a yeere.

a Becauſe the paſſouer was eaten but on one day, the vnleauened bread ſeuen dayes together: this ſolemnitie tooke his name of that that longeſt continued.

15 Thou ſhalt keepe [a] the feaſt of vnleauened bread: thou ſhalt eate vnleauened bread ſeuen daies, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the moneth ‡ Abib: for in that moneth ye came out of Egypt, and ſee that no man appeare before me emptie:

‡ March.

16 And the feaſt of [f] harueſt, when thou reapeſt the firſt fruites of thy labours, which thou haſt ſowen in the fielde: and the feaſt of [g] ingathering which is in the end of the yeere, when thou haſt gathered in thy labours out of the fielde.

f Exod. 16. it is alſo called the feaſt of weekes.

g The feaſt of tabernacles.

17 Theſe three times in the yeere, ſhall all thy men children appeare before the Lorde God.

18 Thou ſhalt not offer the blood of my ſacrifice vpon leauened bread, neither ſhall the fat of my feaſt remaine vntill the morning.

19 The firſt of the firſt fruites of thy land, thou ſhalt bring into the houſe of the Lorde thy God: thou ſhalt not [h] ſeethe a kidde in his mothers milke.

h Vntimely fruites ought neither to be offered nor eaten, for it hath a ſpice of cruelti, and of an intemperate appetite.

20 Behold, I ſend an Angell before thee, to keepe thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I haue prepared.

21 Beware of him, and heare his voyce, and reſiſt him not: for he will not ſpare your miſdeedes, and my [i] name is in him.

i I will giue him mine authoritie, and he ſhall gouerne you in my name.

22 But and if thou ſhalt in deede hearken vnto his voyce, & do all that I ſpeake, I will be an enemie vnto thine enimies, and an aduerſarie vnto thine aduerſaries.

23 For mine Angell ſhall goe before thee and bring thee in vnto the Amorites, and Hethites, and Pherezites, and Chanaanites, Heuites, and Jebuſites, and I ſhal deſtroy them.

24 Thou ſhalt not bowe downe to their gods, neither ſerue them, neither doe after the works of them: but ouerthrowe them, and breake downe the images of them.

25 And ye ſhall ſerue the Lord your God, and he ſhall bleſſe thy bread, and thy water: and I will take all ſickneſſes away from the middes of thee.

26 There ſhall nothing haue his vntimely birth, nor be vnfruitfull in thy lande: the number of thy dayes [k] I will fulfill.

k I will proloug thy life to my honour, and thy ſaluation.

27 I will ſend my feare before thee, and will deſtroy all the people whether thou ſhalt goe: and I wil make all thine enemies turne their backes vnto thee.

28 And I will ſend hornets before thee, which ſhall driue out the Heuites, the Chanaanites, and the Hethites before thee.

29 Neuertheleſſe, I will not caſt them out before thee in one yeere, leaſt the lande growe to a wildernelle, and the beaſt of the fielde multiplie againſt thee.

30 By litle and litle, I will driue them out before thee, vntill thou be increaſed, and inherite the land.

31 And I will make thy coaſtes from the red ſea, vnto the ſea of the Philiſtines, and from the [l] deſert vnto the riuer: for I will deliuer the inhabiters of ye land into thy hand, and thou ſhalt driue them out before thee.

l From the deſert of Shur vnto the riuer Euphrates.

32 Thou ſhalt make no couenant with them, nor with their gods, 33 Neither let them dwell in thy lande, leaſt they make thee ſinne againſt me: for if thou ſerue their gods, it will ſurely bee thy decay.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

5 Moſes offred vp ſacrifice vnto the Lord, and ſprinkled the people with the blood of the couenant. 7 The people promiſe obedience vnto the Lord.

AND he ſaid vnto Moſes, Come vp vnto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the threeſcore and ten elders of Iſrael, and ye ſhall worſhip a farre off.

2 And Moſes himſelfe alone ſhall goe vnto the Lorde: but they ſhall not come nigh, neither ſhall the people goe vp with him.

3 And Moſes came, and tolde the people all the wordes of the Lord, and all the iudgements: and all the people anſwered with one voyce, and ſaid, All the words which the Lord hath ſaid, will we doe.

4 And Moſes wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and roſe vp earely, and ſet vp an altar vnder the hill, and twelue ſtones, according to the twelue tribes of Iſrael,

5 And ſent yong men of ye children of Iſrael, which brought whole burnt offrings, and offred peace offrings of oxen vnto the Lorde.

6 And Moſes tooke halfe of the [a] blood, and put it in baſons, and the other halfe he ſprinkled on the altar.

a The reaſon of this ceremonie, is declared in the 9. to the Hebrewes, verſ. 20.

7 And he tooke the booke of the couenant, and read it in the audience of the people: and they ſaid, All that the Lord hath ſaid, wil we doe and be obedient.

8 And Moſes tooke the blood, & ſprinkled it on the people, and ſaid, Beholde, this is the blood of the couenant which the Lord hath made with you vpon all theſe wordes.

9 Then went Moſes and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the threeſcore and ten elders of Iſrael vp.

10 And they ſawe the God of Iſrael: and there was vnder his feete, as it were, a worke of a Saphire ſtone, and as it were the heauen when it is cleare.

b God neither deſtroyed the, nor ſhewed himſelfe terrible, as he did to the people, chap. 10.

11 And [b] he laide not his hande vpon the nobles of the children of Iſrael: & they ſawe God, and did eate and drinke.

12 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Come vp to me into the hill, and bee there, and I will giue thee [c] tables of stone, & a law and commaundements which I haue written, that thou mayest teach them.

[c] Signifying the hardnes of our hearts, except God doe write his lawes therein by his holy spirit.

13 And Moses rose vp, and his minister Iosuah: and Moses went vp into the hill of God, 14 And said vnto the elders, Tary ye here vntill we come againe vnto you: Beholde, here is Aaron and Hur with you. ‡If any man haue any matters to doe, let him come to them.

‡Heb. Who is a master of wordes.

15 And Moses went vp into the mount, and a cloude couered the hill.

16 And the glory of the Lorde abode vpon the mount Sinai, and the cloude couered it sixe dayes: and the seuenth day he called vnto Moses out of the middes of the cloude.

17 And the sight of the glory of the Lorde, was like consuming fire on the top of the hil, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the middes of the cloude, and gate him vp into the mountaine: and * Moses was in the mount fourty dayes, and fourtie nights.

Deut. 9.9.

The xxv. Chapter.

The voluntarie gifts for making of the Tabernacle.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offring: ye shall take it of euery man that giueth it willingly with his heart.

3 This is the offring which yee shall take of them, gold, and siluer, and brasse,

4 And blew silke, and purple, and scarlet, and white silke, and goates haire,

5 And rammes skinnes that are red, and the skinnes of Tarus, and Sittim wood,

6 Oile for light, spices for anoynting oile, and for sweete sence:

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the brest plate.

8 And let them make mee a sanctuarie, that I may dwell amongst them.

9 And according to all that I shewe thee, both after the fashion of the tabernacle, and after the fashion of the ornaments thereof, so shall ye make it.

10 And they shall make an arke of Sittim wood, two cubites and a halfe long, a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and a halfe high.

11 And thou shalt ouerlay it with pure golde, within and without shalt thou ouerlay it, and shalt make an high vpon it, a ‖crowne of gold round about.

‖Or, border.

12 And thou shalt cast foure rings of gold for it, and put them in the foure corners thereof: two rings shall be in the one corner, and two in the other.

13 And thou shalt make barres of Sittim wood, and couer them with gold:

14 And put the barres into the rings along by the sides of the arke, that the arke may bee borne with them.

15 And the barres shall be in the rings of the arke, and shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put in the arke, [a] the testimonie which I shall giue thee.

[a] Testimonie he calleth here the two tables of stone, wherein were compiled the ten commandements, because in them God witnessed his will.

17 And thou shalt make a ‖mercie seate of pure golde: two cubites and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broad.

‖Or propitiatorie.

18 And thou shalt make [b] two Cherubims of golde: euen ‖of a whole worke shalt thou make them, in the two endes of the mercie seate.

[b] The Cherubims were winged images, and as the Hebrew interpreters doe hold, they had the shapes of boyes. But as Iosephus writeth, they were flying beastes, which had such figure, as of no man hath been seene.

19 And the one Cherubim shalt thou make on the one end, and the other on the other ende: of the same mercie seate shall yee make Cherubims in the two endes thereof.

20 And the Cherubims shall stretch forth their wings abroad ouer an high, couering the mercie seate with their wings, and their faces shall looke one to another: to the mercy seateward shall the faces of the Cherubims be.

b In the tabernacle of the congregation, so called, because that Israel resorted and was gathered together there at a certaine and an appointed time, or because that God resorted thither to speake with Moses and his successors, as before in ỹ 25. Chapter. Some do take it, in the tabernacle of couenant: but the olde interpreter, in the tabernacle of witnesse.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all maner of seruice, and the pinnes thereof, yea and all the pinnes also of the court, shalbe of brasse.

20 And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they giue thee pure oyle Oliue beaten, for the light, that they may make the lampes to burne alwayes.

21 In the tabernacle b of the congregation without the vaile which is before ỹ witnesse, shall Aaron and his sonnes dresse the lampes both euening and morning, before the Lord: and it shalbe a statute for euer, vnto the generations of the children of Israel.

The xxviij. Chapter.

1 The Lord calleth Aaron and his sonnes to the Priesthood, 4 and the fourme of their garmentes is described.

AND take thou vnto thee Aaron thy brother, & his sonnes with him, from among the children of Israel, that Aaron may minister vnto me in the priests office, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, Aarons sonnes.

2 And thou shalt make holy rayment for Aaron

Aaron thy brother, glorious and beautifull.

3 And thou shalt speake vnto all that are wise hearted, whome I haue filled with the spirit of wisedome, that they may make Aarons raiment to consecrate him, that he may minister vnto me in the priests office.

a Which is to separate him from the rest.

4 These are the garments which they shall make, a brestlap and an Ephod, a tunicle, a brodered cote, a mitre, and a girdle. these holy garments shall they make for Aaron thy brother and his sonnes, that they may minister vnto me in the priests office.

5 And let them take gold, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.

6 They shall make the Ephod of golde, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke, with brodered worke.

7 The two sides shall come together, and be closed vp in the two edges thereof.

8 And the girdle of the Ephod shall be of the same workemanship, and of the same stuffe, euen of gold, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.

9 And thou shalt take two Onix stones, and graue in them the names of the children of Israel, 10 Sixe names of them in one stone, and the other sixe in the other stone, according to their birth.

Sap. 18. 24. 11 *After the worke of a stone grauer, and of him that graueth signets shalt thou graue the two stones, with the names of the children of Israel, and shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the two shoulders of the Ephod, that they may be b stones of remembrance vnto the children of Israel: And Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 And thou shalt make ouches of golde:

14 And two chaines of fine golde of a certaine length, linke worke, & wreathed, and fasten the wreathed chaines to the ouches.

c It was so called, because the high priest could not giue sentence in iudgement without that on his brest.

15 And thou shalt make the c brestlap of iudgement with brodered worke: euen after the worke of the Ephod thou shalt make it, namely, of gold, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.

16 Foure square it shall be, and double: and an handbreadth long, and an handbredth broad.

17 And thou shalt fill it with foure rowes of stones: in the first rowe shal be a Sardius, a Topas, and a smaragdus.

18 In the second rowe a Rubie, a Saphir, and a Diamond.

19 In the third, a Lyncurius, an Achat, and an Amathyst.

20 In the fourth, a Turcas, an Onix, and a Jaspis: and they shall be set in gold in their inclosers.

21 And ỹ stones shalbe grauen, as signets be grauen, with the names of the children of Israel, with twelue names, euery one with his name according to the twelue tribes.

22 And thou shalt make vpon the brestlap two fastening chaines of pure golde, and wreathen worke.

23 And thou shalt make likewise vpon the brestlap two rings of gold, and put them on the edges of the brestlap.

24 And put the two wreathen chaines of gold in the two rings which are in the edges of the brestlap.

25 And in the other two endes of the chaines thou shalt fasten in the two close ouches, and put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod on the forepart of it.

26 And thou shalt yet make two rings of golde, which thou shalt put in the two edges of the brestlap, euen in the borders thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod ouer against it.

27 And yet two other rings of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod beneath, ouer against the brestlap, alowe where the sides are ioyned together, vpon the brodered girdle of the Ephod.

28 And they shal binde the brestlap by his rings, vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it may lye close about the brodered girdle of the Ephod, and that the brestlap be not loosed from the Ephod.

29 And Aaron shall d beare the names of the children of Israel in the brestlap of iudgement, vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance before the Lord alway.

d Aaron shall not enter into the holy place in his owne name, but in the name of the children of Israel.

30 And thou shalt put in the brestlap of iudgement the ‖ Urim and the Thummim, and they shall bee euen vpon Aarons heart when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before ỹ Lord alway.

e Vrim and Thummim signifie light and perfectnes, out of the which it pleased God to giue answers, oracles, and iudgement: but what they were, it doeth not well appeare vnto any vnto this day. They were placed in the priests brest, to admonish him that he ought to shine with doctrine, and to be perfect in conuersation of life.

‖ Or, Aurim

31 And thou shalt make the tunicle vnto the Ephod, altogether of blew silke.

32 And there shall be an hole for the head in the middes of it, hauing a band if woouen worke round about the coller of it, as it were the coller of a partlet, that it rent not.

33 And beneath vpon the hemme, thou shalt make pomegranates of blew silke, and of purple, and of scarlet, rounde about the hemme, and belles of golde betweene them round about.

34 And let there be euer a golden bell and a pomegranate: a golden bell and a pomegranate round about vpon the hemme of the tunicle.

35 *And Aaron shall haue it vpon him when he ministreth, and the sounde shall be heard when hee goeth into the holy place before the Lorde, and when he commeth out: and he shall not f die.

Eccle. 45. 10.

f As who should say, he should die, if he ministred not so apparelled as God hath here appointed.

36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue thereon as signets are grauen, THE HOLINES OF THE LORD.

37 And put it on a blew silke lace to be vpon the mitre, euen vpon the forefront of it.

38 And it shall be vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may g beare the sinne of the holy holy things which the children of Israel halow in all their holy giftes: and it shall be alwayes vpon his forehead, for the reconciling of them before the Lord.

39 And thou shalt make a coate of white silke, embrodered with knots, and thou shalt make a mitre of white silke, and a girdle of needle worke.

40 And thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes also coates, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonets shalt thou make for them, glorious and beautifull.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, & on his sonnes with him: and h anoynt them, and i fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto me in the priests office.

42 And thou shalt make them linnen slops to couer their priuities: from the loines vnto the thighes they shall reach.

43 And they shall be vpon Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come vnto the altar to minister in holinesse: k that they beare not sinne, and there die. And it shall be a lawe for euer vnto Aaron and his seede after him.

h That is, consecrate them. For the ceremonie of consecrating priests, was to put part of the sacrifices into the hands of them that should be made priests for to sacrifice and to offer.

i Lest if they be otherwise apparelled, they sinne, and therefore be punished with death.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 The maner of the consecrating of the Priestes. 38 Of the two lambes of one yeere olde dayly to bee offered.

THis thing also shalt thou do vnto them, when thou halowest them to be my priests. * Thou shalt take one yong calfe, and two Rammes that are without blemish:

3 And thou shalt put them in a maunde, and bring them in the maund with the calfe and the two Rammes.

4 And bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

5 And take the garments, and put vpon Aaron, the coate, the tunicle of the Ephod, and the Ephod it selfe, and the brestlap, and gird them to him with the brodered girdle which is in the Ephod.

6 And put the mitre vpon his head: and put the holy crowne vpon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oile, and powre it vpon his head, and anoint him,

8 And bring his sonnes, and put coates vpon them:

9 And gird them with girdles, as well Aaron as his sonnes, and put the bonets on them, and the priests office shall be theirs for a perpetual lawe: and thou shalt fill the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes.

10 * And thou shalt cause a calfe to bee brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sonnes shall a put their hands vpon the head of the calfe.

a Signifying that the sacrifice was also offred for them and that they had approued it.

11 And thou shalt kil him before the Lord, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar with thy finger: and powre all the rest of the blood beside the bottome of the altar.

13 * And take all the fat that couereth the inwards, and the hall that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fatte that is vpon them, and burne them vpon the altar.

Leuit. 3. 3.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, & his skinne, and his dung, shalt thou burne with fire without the hoste: it is a sinne offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the Ramme.

16 And whē thou hast slaine the Ramme, thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about vpon the altar:

17 And cut the Ramme in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them vnto the pieces, and vnto his head.

18 And then burne the whole Ramme vpon the altar: for it is a whole burnt offring vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

19 And take the other Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon his head.

20 Then shalt thou kill him, and take of his blood, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of Aaron, and vpon the tip of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thombe of their right hands, and vpon the great toe of their right foote, and sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the altar, and of the anointing oile, and sprinkle it vpon Aaron and his vestments, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon their garments with him, and he shalbe halowed and his clothes, and his sonnes, and their clothes with him.

22 And thou shalt take the fatte of the Ramme, and his rumpe, and the fatte that couereth the inwardes, and the hall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fatte that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, for that Ramme is a b full offering:

b It is the Ramme that was offered at the filling of the hands and consecrating of the high Priest.

23 And a sinnell of bread, and a cake of oyled bread, and a wafer out of the basket of vnleauened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And put all vpon the handes of Aaron, and on the handes of his sonnes, and ‖ waue them for a c waue offering before the Lorde.

c This sort of offering, after the priest had lifted it vp, was moued into euery side of all coastes, to signifie that God was Lord of all the earth.

25 And againe, thou shalt take it from off their hands, and burne it vpon the altar for a whole burnt offering, to bee a sauour of sweetenesse before the Lord: for it is a sacrifice by fire vnto the Lord.

26 And thou shalt take the brest of the Ramme

Ramme of Aarons consecration, and waue it for a waue offering before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of the waue offering, and the shoulder of the [d] heaue offering, which is waued and heaued vp of the Ramme of the consecration for Aaron and for his sonnes.

[d] The heaue offering was lifted vpward and downeward, but not on the sides.

28 And it shall be Aarons and his sonnes by a statute for [e] euer from the children of Israel, for it is an heaue offering: and it shall be an heaue offering from the children of Israel, of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, euen their heaue offering shall it be vnto the Lord.

[e] Ener, vntil Christs comming.

29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sonnes after him, to be anoynted therein, and to ‖ fill their hands therein.

‖ Or, consecrate.

30 And that sonne that is Priest in his steade after him, shall put them on seuen dayes, when hee commeth into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 And thou shalt take the Ramme of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sonnes shall eate the flesh of the Ramme, and the * bread that is in the basket, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Leuit. 8. 31. matt. 12. 4.

33 And they shall eate them, because the atonement was made therewith, to fill their hands, & to consecrate them: but a stranger shall not eate thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remaine vnto the morning, thou shalt burne it with fire: and it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 Therefore shalt thou doe vnto Aaron and his sonnes, according to al things which I haue commaunded thee: seuen dayes shalt thou fill their hands.

36 And thou shalt offer euery day a calfe for a sinne offering for [f] to reconcile withall: and thou shalt cleanse the altar when thou hast offered vpon it the sacrifice of expiation, and thou shalt anoynt it, to sanctifie it.

[f] To appease Gods wrath, that sinne may be pardoned.

37 Seuen dayes thou shalt reconcile the altar, and sanctifie it, and it shall be an altar most holy: and whatsoeuer toucheth the altar, shall be holy.

38 This is that which thou shalt ‖ offer vpon the altar, * two lambes of one yeere old day by day continually:

‖ Or, present. Num. 28. 3.

39 The one thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other at Euen.

40 And with the one lambe a tenth deale of flowre mingled with the fourth part of an [g] Hin of beaten oyle: and the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drinke offering.

[g] A Hin was a measure of liquid things containing twelue logins, and one login was so much as fiue egges shells would receiue.

41 And the other lambe thou shalt offer at Euen, and shalt doe thereto according to the meate offering and drinke offering in the morning, to be an odour of a sweete sauour, and a sacrifice by fire vnto the Lord.

42 And let this bee a continuall whole burnt offering amongst your children after you, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord, where I will meete you, to speake there vnto thee.

43 There I will meete with the children of Israel, and the place shall be sanctified in my glory.

44 And I will sanctifie the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar: and I will sanctifie also both Aaron and his sonnes to be my priestes.

45 And I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God:

46 And they shall knowe that I am the Lorde their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, for to dwel amongst them, euen I the Lord their God.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 The fourme of the altar of incense. 13 The summe that the Israelites should pay to the tabernacle.

AND thou shalt make an altar for sweete incense: of Sittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubite long, and a cubite broade, foure square shall it be, and two cubites high: the hornes thereof shal proceede out [a] of it.

7 And Aaron shall burne thereon sweete incense euery morning, when he dresseth the lampes, then shall he burne it.

8 And likewise at Euen when he setteth vp the lamps, he shall burne incense, and this incensing shal be perpetually before the Lord throughout your generations.

9 Ye shal offer no [b] strange incense thereon, nor whole burnt sacrifice, nor meate offring, neither powre any drinke offering thereon.

[b] After any other sort then is here prescribed by Gods word.

10 And Aaron shall ‖ reconcile vpon the hornes of it once in a yere, with the blood of the sinne offering of reconciling, euen once in the yeere shal he reconcile vpon it throughout your generations: it is most holy vnto the Lorde.

‖ Make reconciliatiō.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 If thou takest the summe of the children of Israel [c] after their number, they shal giue euery man a ‖ reconciling of his soule vnto the Lorde when thou numbrest them, that there be no plague amongst them when thou numbrest them.

[c] After they be come to xx. yeeres of age: for vnder that age they were not to be numbred.

‖ Or, redēption. For by that oblation they redeemed their liues, whom els God would kill, as hee did in Dauids dayes, 1. Reg. 24. verse 1.

13 And this much shall euery man giue that that goeth into the number: halfe a [d] sicle, after the sicle of the Sanctuarie. A sicle is twentie [‡] Gerahs: an halfe sicle shall be the heaue offering of the Lord.

14 All that are numbred from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, shall giue a heaue offering vnto the Lord.

15 The rich shall not passe, and the poore shall not goe vnder halfe a sicle, but yee shall giue an heaue offering vnto the Lorde, that he may haue mercy on your soules.

16 And thou shalt take the reconciling money of the children of Israel, and shalt put it vnto the vse of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be a memoriall vnto the children of Israel before the Lorde, that he may haue mercie vpon your soules.

17 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt make a lauer of brasse, and his foote also of brasse, to wash withall, and shalt put it betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shall [e] wash their hands and their feete therein.

20 When they goe in to the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they goe in to the altar to minister and to burne the Lords offering, they shal wash themselues with water, least they die.

21 Likewise they shal wash their handes and their feete, lest they die: and it shall be an ordinance vnto them for euer, both vnto him and his seede throughout their generations.

22 And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Take vnto thee principall spices, of the most pure Myrrhe, fiue hundred [f] sicles, of sweete Cynamome halfe so much, euen two hundred and fiftie sicles, of sweete Calamus two hundred and fiftie sicles,

24 Of Cassia fiue hundred sicles, after the weight of the Sanctuarie, and of oyle Oliue an hin:

25 And thou shalt make of ỹ oyle an holy oyntment, an oyntment compound after the craft of the Apotecarie:

26 It shall be the oyle of holy oyntment, and thou shalt anoynt the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the Arke of the testimonie,

27 And the table and all his apparell, and the candlesticke and all his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of whole burnt sacrifice with all his vessels, and the lauer & his foote.

29 And thou shalt sanctifie thē, that they may bee most holy: whatsoeuer toucheth them, shalbe sanctified.

30 And thou shalt anoynt Aaron and his sonnes, and consecrate them, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

31 And thou shalt speake vnto ỹ children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy oynting oyle vnto me throughout your generations.

32 Vpon mans flesh shall it not bee powred, neither shall ye make any other after the making of it: for it is holy, and shall be holy vnto you.

33 Whosoeuer maketh like that, or whosoeuer putteth any of it vpon a stranger, shal perish from amongst his people.

34 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Take vnto thee sweete spices, Storte, Onycha, sweete Galbanum: these spices with pure Frankincense, of eche a like weight:

35 And make of them sweete smelling incense, after the craft of the Apoticarie, mingled together, pure and holy,

36 And beate it to powder, and put of it before the Arke of the testimonie in the tabernacle of the congregatiō, where I wil meete with thee: it shalbe vnto you most holy.

37 And you shall not make to your selues, after the making of that incense which thou shalt make: it shalbe vnto you holy for ỹ Lord.

38 Who so euer shall make like vnto that to smel thereto, shall perish from amongst his people.

The xxxj. Chapter.

13 The Sabboth day is the signe of our sanctification.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Behold, I haue called by name Besaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iuda,

3 And I haue filled him with the [a] spirite of God, in wisedome and vnderstanding, in knowledge, and in all maner worke,

4 To finde out wittie deuices, and to worke in golde, siluer, and in brasse,

5 And in the craft to set stones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner workemanshippe.

6 And behold, I haue giuen him to be his companion, Oholiab the sonne of Achisemec, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I haue put wisedome, to make all that I haue commanded thee:

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, the Arke of the testimonie, and the mercie seate that is thereupon, and all the [‡] furniture of the tabernacle:

8 And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlesticke with all his furniture, and the altar of incense:

9 And ỹ altar of whole burnt offering, & all his furniture, & the lauer with his foote,

10 The vestments to minister in, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes to minister in:

11 And the anoynting oyle, and sweete incense for the Sanctuarie: according to all that I haue commanded thee, shall they doe.

12 And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

13 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, In any wise see that yee [b] keepe my Sabboths: for it is a signe betweene me and you in your generations, for to know that I the Lord am he that doeth sanctifie you.

14 Keepe my Sabboth therefore, for it is holy [e] Signifying, that all ministers in the house of God, must be washt from all sinne and corruptiō.

[f] Not in value of money, but in weight, Exod. 29. 41.

[a] By this ye may gather that handie crafts be the gifts of God.

[b] Though I command these works to be done, yet will I not that you breake ỹ Sabboth.

holy holy vnto you. He that defileth it, shall be put to death: for whosoeuer worketh therein, the same soule shall be rooted out from amongst his people.

15 Sixe dayes shall men worke, and in the seuenth day is the Sabboth of the holy rest of the Lord: whosoeuer doeth any worke in the Sabboth day, shall die the death.

16 Wherefore let the children of Israel keepe the Sabboth, that they obserue the Sabboth throughout their generations: it is a perpetuall couenant.

17 For it is a signe betweene me and the children of Israel forever: * for in sixe dayes the Lord made heauen and earth, and in the seuenth day he rested, and c was refreshed. Gene. 1. 31.

c As man refresheth himselfe after labour, euen so doth the scripture speake of God that he did.

18 And when the Lord had made an ende of communing with Moses vpon ‡ mount Sinai, he gaue him two tables of witnesse, euen tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

The xxxii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites worship the golden Calfe. 11 Moses prayeth for the sinne of the people.

AND when the people sawe that it was long yer Moses came downe out of the mountaine, they gathered themselues together ‖ vnto Aaron, and sayde vnto him, * vp, make vs goddes to goe before vs: for wee wote not what is become of this Moses, the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt. ‖ Or against. Acts 7. 40.

a Thinking y they would rather forgoe idolatrie then forsake their most precious iewels.

2 And Aaron said vnto them, a Plucke off the golden earerings which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 And all the people plucked off the golden earings which they had in their eares, and brought them vnto Aaron.

‖ Or, he cast it into a moulde.

4 And he receiued them of their handes, and ‖ fashioned it with a grauer, and made of it a b Calfe of molten mettall: and they saide, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

b They smelled of the idolatrie of Egypt, where they sawe the image of calues, oxen, and serpents worshipped.

5 And when Aaron sawe that, he made an altar before it, ‡ Aaron made proclamation, saying, To morowe is the holy day of the Lorde.

6 And they rose vp in the morning, and offered whole burnt offerings, and brought peace offrings also: and the people sate them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp againe to play.

7 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Go get thee downe, thy people which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt hath marred al.

Deut. 9. 8.

8 * They are turned quickely out of the way which I commaunded them, for they haue made them a Calfe of molten mettall, and haue worshipped it, and haue offered thereunto, saying, These be thy gods, O Israel, which haue brought thee out of ‡ lande of Egypt.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, I haue seene this people, and beholde, it is a stiffenecked people.

10 And now ‡ suffer me, that my wrath may ware hot against them, ‡ consume the: and I will make of thee a mightie people. c God threwth that the prayers of the godly stay punishment.

11 And Moses besought the Lorde his God, ‡ sayde, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath ware hot against thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mightie hand?

12 Wherefore should ‡ Egyptians speake and say, For a mischiefe did hee bring them out, euen for to slay them in the mountaines, ‡ to consume them from the face of ‡ earth? Turne from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this euill against thy people. Num. 14. 13.

13 Remember Abraham, Isahac, and Israel thy seruants, to whom thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saidest vnto them, * I wil multiplie your seed as the starres of heauen, and all this lande that I haue spoken of will I giue vnto your seede, and they shall inherite it for euer. Gene. 22. 17.

14 And the Lord refrained himselfe from the euill which he said he would do vnto his people.

15 And Moses turned his backe, ‡ went downe from the hill, and the two tables of the testimonie were in his hand.

16 And the same tables were written in both the leaues, euen on the one side and on the other were they written: ‡ these tables were the worke of God, and the writting was the writting of God, grauen in the tables.

17 And when a Iosuah heard the noyse of the people as they shouted, he sayde vnto Moses, There is a noyse of warre in the hoste. a Iosuah accompanied Moses in the mount, although there was not like reuelation to him as to Moses.

18 And he answered, It is not the crie of them that haue the maisterie, nor of them that haue the worse: but I do heare the noise of them that sing.

19 And as soone as he came nigh vnto the hoste, he sawe the Calfe and the daunsing: and Moses wrath ware hot, and he cast the tables out of his handes, and brake them beneath the hill.

20 And hee tooke the Calfe which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and stamped it into powder, and strawed it in the water, and made the children of Israel c drinke of it.

c Partly to despite them of their idolatrie, and partly y they should haue no occasion to remember it afterwarde.

21 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, What did this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 And Aaron answered, Let not ‡ wrath of my lord ware fierce: thou knowest the people that they are set on mischiefe.

23 For they said vnto me, Make vs gods to goe before vs, for we wote not what is become of Moses, the man that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.

24 And I said vnto them, Let them that haue golde, plucke it off: And they brought it vnto me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came out this calfe.

25 Moses therefore sawe that the people were naked (and that Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame amongst their enemies,) f That is, destitute of Gods grace, wilde, licentious, & ready to fal into al kind of idolatrie, whereby they gaue their enemies an occasion to speake euill of their God.

26 And Moses stoode in the gate of the hoste, and sayde, Who pertaineth to the Lord, let him come vnto mee. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered themselues together vnto him.

27 And he saide vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put euery man his swoorde by his side, and goe in and out from gate to gate throughout the host, g and slay euery man his brother, and euery man his companion, and euery man his neighbour.

g This fact did to please God that he turned the curse of Jacob against Leui, Gene. 49.5. to a blessing, Deut. 33.9.

28 And the children of Leui did as Moses had said: And there fell of the people the same day about three thousand men.

29 And Moses said, ‖ Fill your hands vnto the Lorde this day, euery man vpon his sonne, and vpon his brother, and that there may be giuen you a blessing this day.

‖ Or, consecrate.

30 And on the morowe Moses said vnto the people, Ye haue sinned a great sinne: And nowe I will goe vp vnto the Lorde, peradventure I may purchase an atonement for your sinne.

31 Moses therefore went againe vnto the Lorde, and saide, h Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne: and haue made them gods of golde.

h Moses prostrate made his prayer fourtie dayes and nights, Deut. 9.

32 And nowe forgiue them their sinne: or if thou wilt not, wipe me, I pray thee, out of thy i booke which thou hast written.

i Out of the number of the that be elect and predestinated to life euerlasting.

33 And the Lord said vnto Moses, k I will put him out of my booke that hath sinned against me.

k I will make it knowen that he was neuer any of the elect.

34 And nowe goe thou, bring the people vnto the place which I sayde vnto thee, Behold, mine Angell shall goe before thee: Neuertheless, in that day when I visite, I will visite their sinne vpon them.

35 And the Lorde plagued the people, because they made the Calfe which Aaron made.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

2 The Lorde sendeth an Angell before his people. 3 The people sorowe because the Lorde denieth to goe vp with them.

AND the Lorde said vnto Moses, Depart, and go vp hence thou & the people which thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt, vnto the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, Isahac and Jacob, saying, * Vnto thy seede will I giue it:

Gene. 12.7.

2 * And I will send an Angel before thee, (and I will cast out the Chanaanites, the Amorites, and the Hethites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Jebusites:)

Deut. 7.21.

3 Vnto a land that floweth with a milke and honie. For I will not goe amongst you my selfe: for ye are a stiffenecked people, lest I consume thee in the way.

a By milke, vnderstand all necessarie things: by honie, all delicates and pleasant things.

4 And when the people heard this euill tidings, they sorowed: and no man did put on his best rayment.

5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, Say vnto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffenecked people: I must come once sodainely vpon you, and make an ende of you: Therefore nowe put thy goodly rayment from thee, that I may wit what to doe vnto thee.

6 And the children of Israel layde their goodly rayment from them, by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses tooke the tabernacle, & pitched it without the host, a farre off from the host, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation: And so it came to passe, that euery one which would pray vnto the Lord, went out vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the host.

8 And when Moses went out vnto the tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stoode euery man at his tent doore, and looked after Moses, vntill hee was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And as soone as Moses was entred into the tabernacle, the cloudie pillar descended, and stoode at the doore of the tabernacle, and he talked with Moses.

10 And all the people sawe the cloudie pillar stand at the tabernacle doore, and they rose vp, and worshipped euery man in his tent doore.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses b face to face, as a man speaketh vnto his friende. And he turned againe into the host: but the yong man Josuah his seruant the sonne of Nun, departed not out of the tabernacle.

b Spoke plainly & familiarly then euer he did to any other, as Num. 12.7. for no man can see God in this life, and liue.

12 And Moses sayd vnto the Lord, See, thou sayest vnto me, Leade this people forth: and thou hast not shewed mee whome thou wilt send with me. And thou hast said moreouer, I knowe thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Nowe therefore if I haue found fauour in thy sight, then I pray thee, shewe me thy c way, that I may knowe thee, and that I may finde grace in thy sight, and consider also that this nation is thy people.

c The meanes whereby thou wilt keepe and saue thy people out of so many perils, seeing thou wilt not goe with them.

14 And he said, My presence shal go with thee, and I will giue thee rest.

15 He saide vnto him, If thy presence goe not with me, carry vs not hence.

16 For how shall it be knowen here that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy sight, but in that thou goest with vs? If thou goest with vs, shal not I and thy people haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the face of the earth?

17 And the Lorde said vnto Moses, I wil doe this also that thou hast sayd, for thou hast founde grace in my sight, and I knowe thee by name.

d Heart and affection to this my people.

18 And he said, I beseech thee shewe me thy glorie.

e Passing by I will sounde with a loude voyce my name Jehouah, whome thou canst not see.

19 Who answered, I will make all my d good goe before thee, and I will proclayme the the name of the Lorde before thee: and will shew mercy to whom I will shew mercy, and will haue compassion on whom I will haue compassion.

20 And he said furthermore, Thou maiest not see my face: for there shal no man see me, and liue.

21 And the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by mee, and thou shalt stande vpon a rocke.

22 And while my glory goeth foorth, I will put thee in a clift of the rocke, and will put my hand vpon thee, while I passe by.

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my backe partes: but my face shall not be seene.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

6 The description of God. 28 After the fast of fourtie dayes, Moses commeth downe from the mountaine, and speaketh to the people with a couered face.

Deut.10.1. AND the Lorde said vnto Moses, * Hewe thee two tables of stone, like vnto the first, & I will write vpon these tables, the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come vp early vnto the mount of Sinai, and thou shalt ‖ stande there for me in the toppe of the mount. ‖Or, waite.

3 There shall no man come vp with thee, neither let any man be seene throughout all the mount, neither let sheepe nor oxen feede before the hill.

4 And Moses hewed two tables of stone, like vnto the first, and rose vp earely in the morning, and went vp vnto the mount Sinai as the Lord had commanded him, and tooke in his hand the two stables of stone.

5 And the Lorde descended in the cloude, and stoode with him there, and proclaymed the name of the Lord.

6 And the Lord passed by before him, and cried, Lord Lorde ‖ God merciful and gracious, long suffring, and abudant in goodnes and trueth, ‖Or, strong.

Psal.142.2. 7 And keeping mercie in store for * thousands, forgiuing wickednesse, transgression, ‖Or, doth pardon, and doth not pardon. and sinne, and not ‖ leauing one innocent, visiting the wickednesse of the fathers vpon the children, and vpon the childrens children vnto the third and fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed himselfe to the earth, and worshipped, 9 And said, If I haue found grace in thy sight, O Lord, then let my Lord, I pray thee, goe in the middest of vs: for it is a stiffenecked people: and thou shalt haue mercie vpon our wickednes, and our sinne, and shalt take vs for thine inheritance.

10 And he saide, Behold, I make a couenant before all thy people, and I will doe marueiles, such as haue not bene done in all the world, neither in all nations: and all the people amongst which thou art, shall see the worke of the Lorde: for it is a terrible thing that I will doe with thee.

11 Keepe diligently those thinges that I commaunde thee this day: Beholde, I cast out before thee, the Amorites, Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites.

12 Take heede to thy selfe, lest thou make any compact with the inhabiters of the land whither thou goest, least they bee cause ‖ of ruine amongst you: ‖Or, offence

13 But ouerthrowe their altars, and breake their images, and cut downe their groues.

14 Thou shalt worship no strange god: for the Lord is called [b] Ielous, because he is a ielous God:

[b] God is called Ielous, because he will not permit that any other gods shall be worshipped with him: but he alone will be loued and worshipped for God.

15 Least, if thou make any agreement with the inhabiters of the land, and they goe a whoring after their gods, and doe sacrifice vnto their Gods, they call thee, and thou eate of their sacrifice, 16 And thou take of their daughters vnto thy sonnes, and their daughters goe a whoring after their gods, and make thy sonnes goe a whoring after their gods also.

17 Thou shalt make thee no gods of mettall.

18 The feast of vnleauened bread shalt thou keepe: Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, as I commanded thee in the time of the moneth Abib: for in the moneth Abib thou camest out of Egypt.

19 * All that openeth the matrix, is mine, and all that breaketh the matrix amongst thy cattell, if it be male, whether it be oxe or sheepe. Exod.13.

21 * Sixe dayes thou shalt worke, and in the seuenth day thou shalt rest, both from earing and reaping. Deut.16. 16.

22 Thou shalt obserue the feast of weekes, with thy first fruites of wheate haruest: and the feast of ingathering at the yeeres ende.

23 Thrise a yeere shall all your men children appeare before the almightie Lord God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy coastes: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt goe vp to appeare before the Lord thy God thrise in a yeere.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice vpon leauen, neither shall ought of the feast of Passeouer bee left vnto the morning.

26 * The first ripe fruits of thy land, thou shalt bring vnto the house of the Lorde thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a * kid in his mothers milke. Deut.14. 21. Exod.23. 19.

27 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Write these wordes: for after the tenour of these

28 And he was there with the Lord fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, and did neither eate bread, nor drinke water, and he wrote vpon the table the wordes of the couenant, ‖Or, words. the ten ‖commandements.

29 And when Moses came downe from mount Sinai, the two tables of testimonie were in Moses hand: when he came downe from the mount, Moses wist not that the skinne of his face shone, while he talked with ‡That is, with God, or, while God talked with him. ‡him.

30 And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked vpon Moses, and beholde, the skinne of his face shone, and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And when Moses had called them, Aaron and all the chiefe of the congregation came vnto him, and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterwarde, all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gaue them in commandement all that the Lord had sayde vnto him in mount Sinai.

33 And when Moses had made an ende of communing with them, he put 34 And againe, when Moses went in before the Lorde to speake with him, he tooke the couering off, vntill he came out: And he came out, and spake vnto the children of Israel, that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skinne of Moses face shone: and Moses put the couering vpon his face againe, vntill he went in to commune with him.

The xxxv. Chapter.

2 The Sabboth is commaunded to be kept.

AND Moses gathered all ỹ congregation of the children of Israel together, and said vnto them, These are the wordes which the Lorde hath commaunded, that ye should doe them.

2 Sixe dayes ye shall worke: but the seuenth day shalbe vnto you the holy Sabboth of the Lords rest: whosoeuer doth any worke therein, shall dye.

a Therefore was he put to death, that gathered sticks on that day, Num.15. 3 Ye shal kindle a no fire throughout your habitations vpon the Sabboth day.

4 And Moses spake vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lorde commanded, saying,

5 Take from amongst you an heaue offering vnto the Lorde: Whosoeuer is of a willing heart, let him bring that heaue offering to the Lorde, namely, golde, siluer, and brasse,

6 And blewe silke, purple, scarlet, white silke, goates haire,

7 And rammes skinnes redde, and Taxus skinnes, with Sittim wood,

8 Oyle for light, and spices for anoynting oyle, and for the sweete incense:

9 And Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the brestlap.

10 And let all them that are wise hearted among you, come and make al that the Lord hath commanded,

11 The tabernacle and the tent thereof, and his couering, and his rings, his boords, his barres, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The arke and the staues thereof, with the mercy seate, and the vaile that coueretht it,

13 The table, and his barres, and all his vessels, and the shewe bread,

14 The candlesticke of light, and his furniture, and his lampes with the oyle for the light,

15 The incense altar, and his barres, the anoynting oyle, and the sweete incense, and the hanging of the doore at the entring in of the tabernacle,

16 The altar of whole burnt sacrifice, with his brasen grediron, his staues, and all his vessels, the lauer and his foote:

17 And the hangings of ỹ court, with his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging in the doore of the court,

18 The pinnes of the tabernacle, and the pinnes of the court, with their cordes, 19 The b ministring garments to minister in the holy place, and the holy vestments for Aaron the Priest, and the vestments of his sonnes, that they may minister in the Priestes office.

b Such as appertaine to the service of the tabernacle.

20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And euery one came, as many as their hearts encouraged them, & as many as their spirites made them willing, and brought an heaue offering for the Lord, to the making of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his vses, and for the holy vestments.

22 And they came both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, & brought bracelets and earerings, rings, & chaynes, which iewels were all of golde: and all the men brought a waue offering of golde vnto the Lorde.

23 And euery man with whome was founde blewe silke, purple, scarlet, white silke, and goates haire, and redde skinnes of rammes, & Taxus skinnes, brought them.

24 All that did heaue vp an oblation of siluer and brasse, brought an heaue offring vnto the Lorde: and all men with whome was founde Sittim wood for any maner worke of the ministration, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise hearted, did spinne with their handes, and brought the spunne worke, both of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white silke.

26 And all the women that excelled in wisedome wiſedome of heart, ſpunne goates haire.

27 And the lordes brought Onix ſtones, and ſtones to be ſet in the Ephod, and in the breſtlap, 28 And ſpice, and oyle for light, and for the anointing oyle, and for the ſweet incenſe.

29 And the children of Iſrael brought a willing offering vnto the Lorde, both men and women, as many as had willing hearts, to bring for all manner workes, which the Lorde had commanded to be made: by the hands of Moſes.

e Willing ſubiects as a ſpiritter thereof.

30 And Moſes ſaide vnto the children of Iſrael, Beholde, the Lorde hath called by name Beſaleel the ſonne of Uri, the ſonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iuda,

31 And hath filled him with the ſpirite of God, in wiſedome and vnderſtanding, in knowledge, and in all maner of worke,

32 To finde out curious workes, which are made in golde, ſiluer, and braſſe, 33 In the craft of ſtones to ſet them, and in caruing of wood, to make any maner of ſubtill worke.

34 And he hath put in his heart, that hee may teach, both he and Ooliab the ſonne of Achimelech, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wiſedome of heart, to worke all manner of grauen, and brodered, and needle woorke, in blewe ſilke, and purple, in ſcarlet, and white ſilke, and in weauing, and to doe all maner of worke, and wittie deuiſes.

The xxxvj. Chapter.

3 The great readineſſe of the people in offering toward the building of the tabernacle.

AND Beſaleel wrought, and Ooliab, and all wiſe hearted men, to whom the Lord gaue wiſedome & vnderſtanding to knowe howe to worke all maner of worke for the ſeruice of the Sanctuarie, and all that the Lord had commanded.

2 And Moſes called Beſaleel, Ooliab, and al the wiſe hearted men, and ſuch as the Lord had giuen wiſedome vnto, and as many as their heartes couraged to come vnto that worke, to worke it.

3 And they receiued of Moſes all the heaue offering which the children of Iſrael had brought for the worke of the ſeruice of the ſanctuarie, to make it withall. And beſide that, they brought free offerings vnto it euery day in the morning.

4 And all the wiſe men that wrought all the holy worke, came euery man from his worke which they made:

5 And they ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, The a people bring too much, and more then enough for the ſeruice and worke which the Lorde hath commanded to be made:

a A rare example and notable, to ſee the people ſo ſerue God with their goods.

6 And then Moſes gaue commaundement, and they cauſed it to bee proclaimed throughout the hoſte, ſaying, See that neither man nor woman prepare anie more worke for the heaue offering of the ſanctuarie: and ſo the people were forbidden to bring.

7 For the ſtuffe they had, was ſufficient for all the worke to make it, and too much.

8 All the wiſe hearted men therefore, and they that wrought for the tabernacle, made tenne curtaines of white twined ſilke, blew ſilke, purple, and ſcarlet, with Cherubims of brodered worke made they them.

9 The length of one curtaine was twentie and eight cubites, and the breadth foure: and the curtaines were all of one ciſe.

10 And he coupled fiue curtaines by them ſelues, and other fiue by themſelues.

11 And hee made loopes of blewe ſilke along by the edge of one curtaine, eiten in the ſeluedge of the coupling curtaine: and likewiſe he made on the ſide of the coupling curtaine on the other ſide.

12 Fiftie loopes made hee in the one curtaine, and fiftie in the edge of the coupling curtaine on the other ſide, and the loopes helde one curtaine to another.

13 And hee made fiftie taches of golde, and coupled the curtaines one to another with the taches: and ſo was it made one tabernacle.

14 And hee made eleuen curtaines of goats haire, to be a tent ouer the tabernacle.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirtie cubites, and was foure cubites broade, and they all eleuen of one ciſe.

16 And he coupled fiue curtaines by them ſelues, and ſixe by themſelues.

17 And he made fiftie loopes along by the border of the vttermoſt coupling curtaine, and fiftie in the edge of the other coupling curtaine.

18 And he made fiftie taches of braſſe, to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And hee made a couering vpon the tent of Rammes ſkinnes, redde, and yet another of Tarus ſkinnes aboue that.

20 And he made ſtanding boords for the tabernacle, of Sittim wood.

21 The length of a boord was ten cubits, the breadth one cubite and a halfe.

22 One boord had two tenons, whereby they were ioyned one to another: and thus made he for all the boordes of the tabernacle.

23 And he made twentie boordes for the South ſide of the Tabernacle.

24 And fourtie ſockets of ſiluer vnder the twentie boordes: two ſockets vnder one boorde for his two tenons, and two ſockets vnder another boord for his two tenons.

25 And for the other ſide of the tabernacle which is toward the North, hee made twentie boords, 26 And their fourtie ſockets of ſiluer: two ſockets vnder one boorde, and two ſockets vnder the other boord.

27 And toward ‡ the weſt ende of the tabernacle, he made ſixe boordes. ‡ The Sea.

28 And two other boordes made he in the corners of the tabernacle, for either ſide.

29 And they were ioyned cloſe beneath and aboue with a ring: and thus they did to both the corners.

30 And there were eight boordes, and ſixteene ſockets of ſiluer: vnder euery boorde two ſockets.

31 And he made barres of Sittim wood, fiue for the boordes of the Tabernacle in the one ſide, 32 And fiue for the boordes of the tabernacle in the other ſide, and fiue barres for the boordes of the tabernacle in the weſt end.

33 And he made the middeſt barre to ſhut through the boordes, from the one end to the other:

34 And ouerlaid the boords with golde, & made rings of golde to thruſt the barres thorowe, and couered the barres with golde.

35 And hee made a vayle of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke: with Cherubims made he it of broydered worke.

36 And he made thereunto foure pillars of Sittim wood, and ouerlaide them with golde: their knoppes were alſo of golde, and he caſt for them foure ſockets of ſiluer.

37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle doore, of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke, of needle worke, 38 And the fiue pillars of it, with their knoppes: and ouerlaide the knops of them, and the hoopes with golde: their fiue ſockets alſo were of braſſe.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

The making and framing of the arke of witneſſe.

AND Beſaleel made the Arke of Sittim wood: two cubites and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and a cubite and a halfe high:

2 And ouerlayde it with fine golde within and without, and made a crowne of golde to it rounde about,

3 And caſt for it foure ringes of golde for the foure corners of it: two rings for the one ſide, and two for the other.

4 And made barres of Sittim wood, and couered them with golde,

5 And put the barres in the ringes along by the ſide of the arke, to beare the arke withall.

6 And hee made the mercie ſeate of pure golde: two cubites & a halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite & a halfe the breadth.

7 And he made two Cherubims of thicke golde, vpon the two endes of the mercie ſeate.

8 One Cherub on the one ende, and another Cherub on the other ende: of the mercie ſeate made he the Cherubims in the ends thereof.

9 And the Cherubims ſpread out their wings aboue on high, and couered the mercie ſeate therewith, and their faces were one to another, euen to the mercie ſeateward were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 And hee made the Table of Sittim wood: two cubites was the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth, and a cubite and a halfe the height of it.

11 And hee ouerlaide it with fine golde, and made thereunto a crowne of gold round about, 12 And made thereunto an hoope of an hande broade rounde about: and made vpon the hoope a crowne of gold round about.

13 And he caſt for it foure rings of golde, and put the ringes in the foure corners that were in the foure feete thereof.

14 Euen harde by the hoope were the ringes, into the which the barres were put, to beare the table withall.

15 And hee made the barres of Sittim wood, and couered them with golde, to beare the table withall, 16 And made the veſſels for the table of pure golde, his diſhes, his incenſe cuppes, his coueringes, and his bolles to powre out withall.

17 And he made the candleſticke of pure golde, of a whole worke made he the candleſticke: his ſtaffe, his branches, his bolles, his knops, and his flowres were of one piece.

18 Sixe branches proceeding out of the ſides thereof: three branches of the candleſticke out of the one ſide thereof, and three branches of the candleſticke out of the other ſide thereof.

19 And in one branch three bolles, made like vnto almondes, with a knop & a flowre: and in an other branche three bolles made like almondes, with a knoppe and a flowre: and ſo throughout the ſixe braunches that proceede out of the candleſticke.

20 And vpon the candleſticke it ſelfe, were foure bolles, after the faſhion of almondes, with knops and flowres.

21 Vnder euery two branches, a knop of the ſame, and a knop vnder two branches of the ſame, and a knoppe vnder two branches of the ſame, according to the ſixe braunches that proceede out of it.

22 And the knoppes and the braunches proceeded out of it: and it was all one piece of pure thicke golde.

23 And he made his ſeuen lamps, with the ſnuffers, & veſſels for the ſnuffe, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure golde made he it, with all the veſſels thereof.

25 And he made the incenſe altar of Sittim wood: the length of it was a cubite, and the breadth a cubite: for it was foure ſquare, and two cubites high, with hornes proceeding out of it.

26 And he couered it with pure golde, both the toppe and the ſides thereof rounde about, and the hornes of it: and made vnto it a crowne of golde rounde about.

27 And he made two rings of golde for it vnder the crowne thereof, in the two corners of it, and in the two ſides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it withall.

28 And

28 And hee made the barres of Sittim wood, and ouerlayde them with golde.

29 And he made the holy anoynting oyle, and the ſweete pure incenſe after the Apoticaries craft.

The xxxviij. Chapter.

1 The altar of the whole burnt offerings. 8 The braſen lauer. 24 The ſumme of that which the people offered.

AND hee made the whole burnt offering altar of Sittim wood: fiue cubites was the length thereof, and fiue cubites the breadth, foure ſquare, and three cubittes high.

2 And he made vnto it hoꝛns in the foure coꝛners of it, proceeding out of it, and hee ouerlaid it with braſſe.

3 And he made all the veſſels of the altar, the aſhpannes, and ‖beſoms, and baſons, fleſhhookes, and fire pannes: all the veſſels thereof made he of braſſe.

‖Or, as ſome reade, Forcipes, that is, tonges.

4 And he made a braſen grediron of netwoꝛke vnto the altar, rounde about alow beneath, vnto the middeſt of the altar,

5 And caſt foure rings of braſſe foꝛ the foure endes of the grediron, to put barres in.

6 And hee made the barres of Sittim wood, and couered them with braſſe:

7 And put the barres into the rings in the foure coꝛners of the altar, to beare it withall, and made the altar holowe within the booꝛdes.

8 And hee made the lauer of braſſe, and the foote of it alſo of braſſe, of the [a] glaſſes of the women aſſembling, which came together at the dooꝛe of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

a Rabbi Kimhi ſaith, that the women brought their looking glaſſes which were of braſſe of fine mettall, and offered them to the vſe of the Tabernacle.

9 And hee made the court on the South ſide, full South: and the hangings of the court were of white twined ſilke, hauing a hundꝛed cubites.

10 Their pillars were twentie, and their braſen ſockets twentie: but the knoppes of the pillars, and their hoopes were of ſiluer.

11 And on the Noꝛth ſide, the hangings were an hundꝛeth cubites, their pillars were twentie, and their ſockets of braſſe twentie: but the knoppes and hoopes of the pillars were of ſiluer.

12 On the weſt ſide were hangings of fiftie cubites, ten pillars, and their ten ſockets: but the knoppes and the hoopes of the pillars were of ſiluer.

13 And toward the Eaſt ſide, full Eaſt, were hangings of fiftie cubites.

19 And their pillars were foure, and their foure ſockets of braſſe, and the knoppes of ſiluer, and the heads ouerlaid with ſiluer, and hooped about with ſiluer.

20 And all the [b] pinnes of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of braſſe.

b The curtaines of the Tabernacle were faſtened with theſe pinnes, to ſtay them that they were not driuen with the winde hither and thither.

21 This is the [c] ſumme of the Tabernacle, euen of the Tabernacle of witneſſe, as it was counted accoꝛding to the commandement of Moſes, foꝛ the office of the Leuites, by the hand of Ithamar, ſonne to Aaron the Prieſt.

c The particular pieces by number delinered to the Leuites.

22 And Beſaleel the ſonne of Uri, the ſonne of Hur, of the tribe of Juda, made all that the Loꝛd commanded Moſes:

23 And with him was Aholiab, ſonne of Ahiſamach, of the tribe of Dan, a cunning woꝛkeman, an embꝛoderer, and a wooꝛker of needle woꝛke, in blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke.

24 All the golde that was occupied foꝛ all the woꝛke of the holy place, was the golde of the waue offering, twenty and nine talents, and ſeuen hundꝛed, and thirtie ſicles, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie.

25 And the ſumme of ſiluer of them that were numbꝛed in the congregation, was an hundꝛed talents, and a thouſand, ſeuen hundꝛed, and threeſcoꝛe and fifteene ſicles, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie.

26 Foꝛ euery man an halfe weight, euen halfe a ſicle, after the ſicle of the ſanctuarie, foꝛ all them that went to be nombꝛed, from twentie yeeres olde, and aboue, euen foꝛ ſixe hundꝛed thouſand, and three thouſand, and fiue hundꝛed, and fiftie men.

27 And of the hundꝛed talents of ſiluer, were caſt the ſockets of the Sanctuarie, and the ſockets of the vaile: an hundꝛed ſockets of the hundꝛed talents, a talent to euery ſocket.

28 And of the thouſand, ſeuen hundꝛed, ſeuentie and fiue ſicles, hee made knoppes to the pillars, and ouerlayde the heads, and hooped them.

29 And the braſſe of the waue offering was threeſcoꝛe and ten talents, and two thouſand, and foure hundꝛed ſicles.

30 And therewith hee made the ſockets to the dooꝛe of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the braſen altar, and the braſen grediron foꝛ it, with all the veſſels of the altar, 31 And the ſockets of the court round about, and the ſockets foꝛ the court gate, and all the pinnes of the Tabernacle, and all the pinnes of the court round about.

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 The apparell of Aaron and his ſonnes. 32 All that the Lord commaunded, was done and finiſhed. 43 Moſes bleſſeth the people.

AND of the blewe ſilke, purple, and ſcarlet, they made veſtments of miniſtration, to doe ſeruice in the holy place: and made the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

2 And hee made the Ephod of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke.

3 And they did beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wyers, to worke it in the blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and in the fine white, with brodered worke.

4 And they made two ſides for it, to cloſe them vp by the two edges.

5 And the brodering of the girdle that was vpon it, was of the ſame ſtuffe, and after the ſame worke, of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and twined white ſilke, as the Lorde commanded Moſes.

6 And they wrought Onix ſtones, cloſed in ouches of golde, and graued as ſignets are grauen, with the names of the children of Iſrael.

7 And he put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod, that they ſhoulde be ſtones for a remembrance of the children of Iſrael, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

8 And hee made the breſtlappe of brodered worke, like the worke of the Ephod, of golde, blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and twined white ſilke.

9 It was foure ſquare, and they made the breſtlap double, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broade.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of ſtones. The firſt rowe, a Sardius, a Topazius, and a Smaragdus.

11 The ſecond rowe, a rubi, a Saphire, and a Diamond.

12 In the third rowe, a Lyncurius, an Achates, and an Amathyſt.

13 In the fourth rowe, a Turcas, an Onix, and a Jaſpis: and they were cloſed in ouches of golde in their incloſers.

14 And the twelue ſtones were grauen as ſignets, with the names of the children of Iſrael, euery ſtone with his name, according to the twelue tribes.

15 And they made vpon the breſtlap, two faſtening chaines of wrethen worke, of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of golde, and two golde rings: and put the two rings in the two corners of the breſtlap.

17 And they put the two chaines of golde in the two rings in ꝑ corners of the breſtlap.

18 And the two endes of the two chaines, they faſtened in the two ouches, & put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod, vpon the fore front of it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two corners of the breſtlap, vpon the edge of it which was on the inſide by the Ephod.

20 And they made two golden rings, and put them on the two ſides of the Ephod, beneath on the foreſide of it, & ouer againſt his fellow, aboue vpon ꝑ brodering of the Ephod.

21 And they ſtrayned the breſtlap by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe ſilke, that it might be vpon the brodering of the Ephod, and that the breſtlap ſhould not be looſed from off the Ephod, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

22 And hee made the tunicle vnto the Ephod, of wouen worke, altogether of blewe ſilke.

23 And there was a hole in the midſt of the tunicle, as the collar of a partlet, with a band round about ꝑ collar, that it ſhould not rent.

24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with Pomegranates of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke.

25 And they made little belles of pure gold, & put them amongſt the Pomegranats round about vpon the edge of the tunicle.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, rounde about the hemmes of the tunicle to miniſter in, as the Lorde commanded Moſes.

27 And they made coats of fine white ſilke of wouen worke, for Aaron and his ſonnes.

28 And a miter of fine white ſilke, and goodly bonnets of fine white ſilke, and linen ſloppes of twined white ſilke.

29 And a girdle of twined white ſilke, blewe, purple, and ſcarlet, euen of needle worke, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it with grauen worke as ſignets are grauen, THE HOLINES OF THE LORD.

31 And he tyed vnto it a lace of blew ſilke, to faſten it an high vpon the mitre, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

32 Thus was all the worke of the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation finiſhed: And the children of Iſrael did according to all that the Lord commanded Moſes, ſo did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moſes, euen the tabernacle, and all his furniture, his taches, his boordes, his barres, his pillars, and his ſockets, 34 The couering of Rammes ſkinnes, red, and the couering of Tarus ſkinnes, and the hanging vayle, 35 The Arke of the Teſtimonie, and the barres thereof, and the mercie ſeate, 36 The table, and all the veſſels thereof, and the ſhewe bread,

37 The pure candleſticke, with the lamps thereof, euen with the lamps to be prepared, and all the veſſels thereof, & the oyle for light,

38 The golden altar, and the anoynting oyle, and the ſweete incenſe, and the hanging of the tabernacle doore,

39 And

39 And the brasen altar, with his gredyron of brasse, his barres, and all his vessels; the lauer, and his foote, 40 The curtaines of the court, with his pillars and sockets, the hanging to the court gate, and his pinnes and cordes, and all the vessels of the seruice of the tabernacle, euen of the tabernacle of the congregation.

41 The ministring vestiments to serue in the holy place, and the holy vestiments for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes rayments to minister in, in the Priests office.

42 According to all that the Lorde commaunded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

43 And Moses did looke vpon all the worke: and beholde, they had done it as the Lord had commanded, euen so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

The xl. Chapter.

2 The Tabernacle is reared vp. 34 The glory of the Lord appeareth in a cloude, couering the Tabernacle.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 In the first day of the first [a] moneth shalt thou set vp the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation.

a In the first point of their comming out of Egypt.

3 And put therein the arke of the testimonie, and couer the arke with the vayle: and thou shalt bring in the table, and order it according to the appoyntment thereof:

4 And thou shalt bring in the candlesticke, and light his lampes,

5 And set the incense altar of golde before the arke of the testimonie, and put the hanging at the doore of the tabernacle.

6 And set the whole burnt offering altar before the doore of the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation:

7 And set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein,

8 And make the court round about, and hang vp the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anoynting oyle, and anoynt the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it, with all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoynt the altar of the whole burnt offering, & all his vessels, and sanctifie the altar: and it shalbe an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt also anoynt the lauer and his foote, and sanctifie it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy vestments, and anoynt him, and sanctifie him, that hee may minister vnto me in the Priestes office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments, 15 And anoynt them, as thou diddest anoynt their father, that they may minister vnto me in the Priests office: for their anoynting shall be an euerlasting priesthoode vnto them throughout all their generations.

16 And Moses did according to all that the Lord commanded him, so did he.

17 Thus was the tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth, in the [b] second yeere.

b Of the comming of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

18 And Moses reared vp the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, & set vp the boordes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillars:

19 And spred abrode the tent ouer the tabernacle, & put the couering of the tent an high aboue it, as the Lord commanded Moses.

20 And he tooke the [c] testimonie, and put it in the arke, & set the barres to the arke, and put the mercie seate an high vpon the arke.

c That is, the tables of the lawe.

21 And hee brought the arke into the tabernacle, and hanged vp the vayle, and couered the arke of the testimonie, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tabernacle of the congregation, in the North side of the tabernacle, without the vayle, 23 And set the bread in order before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the candlesticke in the tabernacle of the congregation, ouer against the table toward the south side of the tabernacle, 25 And set vp the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tabernacle of the congregation before the vayle, 27 And burnt sweete incense thereon, as the Lord commanded Moses.

28 And he hanged vp the hanging at the doore of the tabernacle:

29 And set the whole burnt offring altar by the entring in of the tabernacle, that is, the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered whole burnt offerings, and meate offerings thereon, as the Lord commanded Moses. * Exod. 30. 9.

30 And he set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation & the altar, and powred water therein, to wash withall.

31 And Moses, Aaron, and his sonnes, washed their hands and their feete thereat, 32 when they went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and when they went to the altar, they washed themselues, as the Lord commanded Moses.

33 And hee reared vp the court round about the tabernacle, and the altar, and set vp an hanging at the court gate: and so Moses finished the worke.

34 * And the cloude couered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. * Num. 9. 15.

35 And Moses could not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloude was taken vp from off the tabernacle, the children of Israel tooke their iourneys throughout their armies:

37 And when the cloude was not taken vp, they iourneyed not till it was taken vp.

38 For the [d] cloude of the Lord was vpon the tabernacle by day, and fire by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their iourneys.

d Tyme the presence of God preserued and guided them both day and night, till they came to the land of promise.

The ende of the second booke of Moses, called Exodus.

This booke is so named, because that in the same is chiefly entreated of the Leuiticall sacrifices, and other ceremonies of the law, vnto the which the Leuites were commixted, and ordeined by the Lorde.

The third booke of Moses, called in the Hebrew Vaicrah, and in the Latine Leuiticus.

The first Chapter.

2 Of whole burnt offrings for particular persons. 3 The maner to offer whole burnt offerings, aswell of Bullocks, as of sheepe and Birdes.

AND the Lorde [a] called vnto Moses, and spake vnto him out of the tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt say vnto them, If any [b] of you bring a [c] sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shall bring your sacrifice from among the cattel, euen from among the beeues, and the [d] sheepe.

3 If his sacrifice be a whole burnt offring of beeues, let him offer a male without blemish, and bring him of his owne voluntarie will vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord.

4 And hee shall put his [e] hande vpon the head of the whole burnt sacrifice, and it shall be accepted for him to be his atonement.

5 And he shall kill the bullocke before the Lord: And the Priests Aarons sonnes shall bring the blood, and sprinckle it round about vpon the altar that is by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And then shall hee slay the whole burnt offering, and hew him in pieces.

7 And the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shal put fire vpon the altar, and put wood vpon the fire.

8 And the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall lay the parts, euen the head and the fat vpon the wood that is in the fire on the altar.

9 But the inwardes & the legges thereof shall hee wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on the altar, that they may bee a whole burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire for a sweete odour vnto the Lord.

10 And if his sacrifice be of flockes, namely of the Sheepe or Goates, let him bring a male without blemish for a whole burnt offering:

11 And let him kill it on the North side of the altar before the Lord: And the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall sprinckle the blood round about vpon the altar.

12 And he shal cut it into his pieces, euen with his head and his fat: and the Priest shal put them vpon the wood that lieth vpon the fire on the altar.

13 But he shal wash the inwards and the legges with water, and the Priest shal bring all together, and burne it vpon the altar for a whole burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

14 If the whole burnt offering for the sacrifice of the Lorde bee of fowles, hee shall bring his sacrifice of Turtle Doues, or of the young Pigeons.

15 And the Priest shall bring it vnto the altar, and [f] wring the necke asunder of it, & burne it on the altar: but the blood thereof shalbe wrung out vpon the side of the altar.

16 And he shal pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast them beside the altar on the East part in the place of ashes.

17 And he shal breake the wings of it, but plucke them not asunder: And the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, euen vpon the wood that is vpon the fire: that it may be a whole burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

a Moses doth euidently declare that these sacrifices were instituted of God, and not of man.

b When any priuate man will offer for himselfe a priuate sacrifice.

c That the Leuiticall sacrifices were preachings of the passion & death of Christ, & of his gospel, which should afterward be published thorowe all the worlde, men haue not dreamed it, but the holy Ghost hath taught it and hath confirmed it by many testimonies aswell of the old Testament, as of the newe, as Psal. 39. The ij. Chapter.

1 The order of meate offerings. 13 All meate offerings must be seasoned with salt.

AND the soule that will offer a meate offering vnto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flowre: and he shall powre oyle vpon it, and put Frankincense thereon:

2 And shall bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priestes: And he shall take thereout his handfull of the flowre, and of the oyle, with all the Frankincense, & the Priest shal burne it for a memorial of him vpon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

3 And the remnant of the meate offering shalbe Aarons and his sonnes, a thing most [a] holy of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire.

4 If thou bring also a meate offring that is baken in the Ouen, let it bee an vnleauened cake of fine flowre mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anoynted with oyle.

5 If thy meate offering bee baken in the frying panne, it shalbe of vnleauened flowre mingled with oyle.

6 And thou shalt part it in pieces, & powre oyle a Because it doeth remaine of that which was burnt in the honour of God, & therefore might not be eaten but of the holy, that is, the Priests.

oyle thereon; that it may be a meate offring.

7 And if thy meate offering bee a thing broyled vpon the gridiron, let it bee of flowre mingled with oyle.

8 And thou shalt bring the meate offring that is made of these things vnto the Lorde, & shalt deliuer it vnto the Priest, that he may offer it vpon the altar.

9 And the Priest shal take from the meate offering a memoriall thereof, & shall burne it vpon the altar, that it may be a burnt offring for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

10 And that which is left of the meate offring, shalbe Aarons and his sonnes: It is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lorde made by fire.

11 All the meate offerings which ye shall bring vnto the Lord, shall be made without leauen: for yee shall neither burne leauen nor [b] honie in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

b That is, all maner of fruit, as sweete as honye: as figs, dates, and such like. Of these nothing might be burned, but kept only to be offered before God.

12 In the oblation of the first fruites yee shall offer them vnto the Lord: but they shall not bee burnt vpon the altar for a sweete sauour.

13 All the meate offerings also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the couenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offering: but vpon all thine offerings thou shalt bring [c] salt.

c By this ceremonie is the nature of Christ set forth which is figured in all sacrifices. For Christ is the true & heauenly salt, by whō all that beleeue in him, bee made sauourie & pleasant vnto God the father, so that they shal neuer be putrified that they shall perish.

14 And if thou offer a meate offring of thy first fruites vnto the Lord, thou shalt offer for the meate offring of thy first fruites, eares of corne dryed by the fire, euen beaten wheate of full eares.

15 And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lay frankincense thereon, that it may bee a meate offering.

16 And the Priest shall burne part of the beaten corne, & part of that oyle with all the frankincense, for a remembrance: and it shall be a sacrifice vnto the Lord made by fire.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The order of peace offerings. 6 Of Sheepe. 7 Of Lambes. 12 Of Goates.

a That is, a sacrifice of thanksgiuing, offered for peace & prosperitie, either generally or particularly.

AND if his sacrifice be a [a] peace offering, and hee take it from among the droues, whether it be a male or female, he shall bring such as is without blemish before the Lorde,

2 And put his hand vpon the head of his offering, & kill it at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And Aarons sonnes the Priests shall sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

b One part was burnt, an other appointed to the Priests, & the third to him that offered.

3 And he shal offer [b] somewhat of the peace offring, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord: euē the fat that couereth the inwards, and all the fat that is vpon the inwards:

4 And the two kidneys, and the fatte that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall with the liuer shall hee take away with the kidneys.

5 And Aarons sonnes shall burne them on the altar with the whole burnt sacrifice which is vpon the wood that is on the fire, to be a burnt sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

6 If hee bring a peace offering vnto the Lord from off the flocke, let him offer male or female, but without blemish.

7 And if he offer a lambe for his sacrifice, he shall bring it before the Lord,

8 And put his hande vpon his offerings head, and kill it before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: & Aarons sonnes shall sprinckle the blood thereof round about the altar.

9 And of the peace offring let him bring a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord; the fatte thereof, & the rumpe altogether, which they shall take off hard by the backe bone: and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes,

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall that is vpon the liuer shal he take away, with the kidneys.

11 And the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, to be the foode of a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 If his offering be a goate, he shal bring it before the Lord, 13 And put his hand vpon the head of it, & kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: & the sonnes of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the altar round about.

14 And he shall bring thereof his offring, euen [c] a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that couereth the inwards, and al the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

c In a whole burnt offering all was consumed, but in the offering made by fire, onely the inwards were burnt.

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer shall hee take away with the kidneys.

16 And the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, for the foode of the sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour: All the fat is the Lordes.

17 Let it be a perpetuall statute for your generations throughout your dwellings, that ye eate neither fat nor blood.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 The offering for the sinnes, 3 Of the Priest, 13 Of the congregation, 22 The princes, 27 The priuate persons sinne done of Ignorance.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say, If a soule shall sinne through ignorāce in any of the commandements of the Lorde, which ought not to be done, but shall do contrary to any of them;

a By commīsseration or doctrine to do any thing whereby ye people sinne, or els if the people sinne through the Priests fault, their sinne is required at his handes.

3 As if the Priest that is anoynted, doe sinne according to the sinne of the people, let him bring for his sinne which hee hath sinned, a yong bullocke without blemish, vnto the Lord for a sinne offering.

4 And

4 And he shal bring the yong bullocke vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord, and shal put his hand vpon the yong bullockes head, and [b] kill the yong bullocke before the Lord.

[b] Thereby confessing that he deserued the same punishment which the beast suffered.

5 And the Priest that is anoynted, shall take of the yong bullockes blood, and bring it into the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinckle thereof seuen times before the Lorde, before the vaile of the sanctuarie.

7 And the Priest shall put some of the blood before the Lorde, vpon the hornes of the altar of sweete incense, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall powre all the blood of the yong bullocke, vnto the bottome of the altar of the whole burnt offering, which is at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offering, the fat that couereth the inwards, and all the fat that is about the inwardes,

9 And the two kidneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the hall vpon the liuer shall hee take away with the kidneys,

10 As it was taken away in the bullocke of the peace offerings: and let the Priest burne thē vpon the altar of the whole burnt offering.

11 But the skinne of the yong bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head and his legs, with his inwardes and his doung, shall he beare out, 12 And carry the whole bullocke altogether out of the hoste vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred out, and * burne him there on wood in the fire: by the place where the ashes are cast out shall he be burnt.

Heb.13.11

13 If the whole congregation of Israel sinne through ignorance, and the thing bee hid from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done somewhat against any of the commandements of the Lorde, which should not bee done, and haue offended:

14 When the sinne which they haue sinned is knowen, the congregation shall bring a yong bullocke for the sinne, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation,

15 And the Elders of the multitude shall put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord: and the bullocke shall be slaine before the Lord.

16 And the Priest that is anoynted, shall bring of the bullockes blood into the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinckle it seuen times before the Lord, euen before the vaile, 18 And shal put of the blood vpon the hornes of the altar which is before the Lorde, in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the altar of the whole burnt offering, which is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shal take his fat from him, and burne it vpon the altar, 20 And shall doe with this bullocke as he did with the bullocke for sinne, so shall he doe with this: And the Priest shal make an atonement for them, and it shalbe forgiuen them.

21 And he shall bring this bullocke without the hoste, and burne him as hee burned the first bullocke: for it is an oblation for the sinne of the congregation.

22 When a lord sinneth, and committeth through ignorāce any of these things which the Lorde his God hath forbidden to be done in his commandements, and hath offended:

23 And if his sinne be [b] shewed vnto him which he hath done, hee shall bring his offering, euen an hee goate without blemish,

[b] Either by knowledging, punishe to haue sinned, confessing his fault, or some other way that made it knowen him.

24 And lay his hand vpon the head of the hee goate, and kill it in the place where the whole burnt offering is vsed to be killed before the Lord: for it is a sinne offering.

25 And let the Priest take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and powre his blood vnto the bottome of the whole burnt offering altar, 26 And burne all his fat vpon the altar, as the fat of the peace offerings: & the Priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sinne, and it shall be forgiuen him.

27 If one of the common people of the land sinne through ignorance, and commit any of the things which the Lorde hath forbidden in his commandements to bee done, and so hath trespalled:

28 If his sinne which hee hath sinned come to his knowledge, he shall bring for his offering a shee goate from among the flockes without blemish for his sinne which he hath sinned,

29 And shal lay his hand vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slay the sinne offering in the place of the whole burnt offerings.

30 And the Priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the altar,

31 And * shal take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offering is taken away: and the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, that it may be a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde, and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

Leuit.3.1

32 And if he bring a sheepe for a sinne offering, he shal bring a female without blemish, 33 And lay his hand vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slay it for a sinne offering, in the place where they kill the whole burnt offering.

34 And the Priest shal take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and shall powre the blood thereof vnto the the bottome of the altar.

35 And hee shall take away all the fatte thereof, as the fat of the sheepe of the peace offrings is wont to be taken away: & the Priest shall burne it vpon the altar, that it may bee the Lords burnt sacrifice, and the Priest shal make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

The v. Chapter.

1 Of othes. 2 The cleansing of him that toucheth vncleane things. 6 The purgation of an othe. 15 And of sinne done by ignorance.

IF a soule sinne, and heare the voice of sweating, and is a witnesse whether hee hath seene or knowen of it, if he doe not vtter it, he shall beare his sinne.

2 Either if a soule touche any vncleane thing, whether it bee the carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creeping things, and is not ware of it: beholde he is vncleane, and hath offended.

3 Either if hee touch any vncleannesse of man, whatsoeuer vncleannesse it be that a man is wont to be defiled withall, and is not ware of it, and commeth to the knowledge of it, he hath trespalled.

4 Either if a soule sweare, and pronounceth with his lippes to do euil or to doe good, whatsoeuer it be that a man shal pronounce with an othe, and the thing be hid from him, and commeth to the knowledge of it, & hath offended in one of these:

5 When hee hath sinned in one of these thinges, he shall confesse that he hath sinned in that thing.

6 Therefore shal he bring his trespalle offering vnto the Lorde for his sinne which he hath sinned, a female from the flocke, a lambe or a shee goate, for a sinne offering: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

7 And if he be not able to bring a sheepe, he shall bring for his trespalle which he hath sinned, two Turtle doues, or two yong pigeons vnto the Lorde: one for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering.

8 And he shal bring them vnto the Priest, which shall offer the sinne offering first, and wring the necke a-fumper of it, but pluche it not cleane off.

9 And he shal sprinckle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shal he powre by the bottome of the altar: for it is a sinne offering.

10 And he shal offer the second for a whole burnt offering as the maner is: and so shall the Priest make an atonement for him for the sinne which he had sinned, and it shal be forgiuen him.

11 And if hee bee notable to bring two Turtle doues, or two yong Pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an Epha of fine flowre for a sinne offering: but put none oyle thereto, neither put any Frankincense thereon: for it is a sinne offering.

12 Then shal he bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handefull of it for a remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar, to be a sacrifice for the Lorde made by fire: for it is a sinne offering.

13 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sinne that hee hath sinned in one of these, and it shal be forgiuen him: and the remnant shall bee the Priests, as a meate offering.

14 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

15 If a soule trespalle and sinne through ignorance in thinges that are consecrated vnto the Lorde, let him bring for his trespalle vnto the Lorde, a Ramme without blemish out of the flockes, valued in money at two sicles, after the sicle of the Sanctuarie, that it may be for a trespalle offering.

16 And hee shall make amendes for the harme that hee hath done in the holie thing, and let him put the fift part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme that is for the trespalle, and it shal be forgiuen him.

17 If a soule sinne, and commit any one of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commaundements of the Lorde, and wist it not, yet hath offended, and beare his sinne.

18 Then shal he bring a Ramme without blemish out of the flocke, that is esteemed to be worth a trespalle offring, vnto the Priest. And the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance, wherein hee erred and was not ware: and it shall bee forgiuen him.

19 This is a trespalle offering, for the trespalle committed against the Lord.

The vi. Chapter.

1 The offering for sinnes, which are done willingly. 20 The offering of Aaron and his sonnes.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 If a soule sinne and trespalle against the Lorde, and denie vnto his neighbour that which was taken him to keepe, or that was put into his hands, or doeth violent robberie or wrong vnto his neighbour,

3 Or if he haue founde that which was lost, and denieth it, and * sweareth falsely: on whatsoeuer thing it be that a man doeth, and sinneth therein: * Nom. 5.6.

4 If hee haue so sinned and trespalled, he shall restore againe that he tooke violently away, or the wrong which he did, or that which was deliuered him to keepe, or the lost thing which he found:

5 And all that about which hee hath sworne falsely, he shal restore it againe in the a This is diuersly expounded, because the Hebrewe word hath a double signification: this is the same as some thinke. If a Iudge charge minister an othe to any priuate man, to declare the truth of any thing that he hath seene, and doe it not, he sinneth: other, thus: If any man for his neighbour commit any sinne, which is by the lawe of God forbidden, or declareth, or bid concealde it, and not vttered it as much as in him lieth, he hath sinned. Or els indeede it thus. All such as did heare any man curse, ban and abuse the name of God, & did not vtter it vnto the magistrate, did sinne: the first sense is best liked.

whole ſumme, and ſhall adde the fifth part more thereto, and giue it vnto him to whom it appertaineth, the ſame day that he offereth for his treſpaſſe.

6 And let him bring for his treſpaſſe vnto the Lorde a Ramme without blemiſh out of the flocke, that is eſteemed worthy a treſpaſſe offering vnto the Prieſt.

7 And the Prieſt ſhal make an atonement for him before the Lorde, and it ſhal be forgiuen him, whatſoeuer thing it be that he hath done and treſpaſſed therein.

8 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

9 Commaund Aaron and his ſonnes, ſaying, This is the lawe of the whole burnt offring. (The whole burnt offering ſhall be vpon the hearth of the altar all night vnto the morning, and the fire ſhalbe kindled on the altar.)

10 And the Prieſt ſhall put on his linnen garment, and his linnen breeches vpon his fleſh, & take away the aſhes vpon the which the fire conſumed the whole burnt ſacrifice in the altar, and he ſhall put them beſide the altar, 11 And put off his raiment, and put on o-ther, and carie the aſhes out without the hoſt vnto a cleane place.

12 The fire vpon the altar ſhal burne ſtil, and neuer be put out: But the Prieſt ſhall lay wood on it euery day in the morning, & put the whole burnt ſacrifice vpon it, and he ſhal burne thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 a The fire ſhall euer burne vpon the altar, and neuer goe out.

14 This is the lawe of the meate offring, which Aarons ſonnes ſhall bring before the Lord, before the altar.

15 And one of them ſhal take his handful of the floure of the meate offering, and of the oyle, and all the Frankincenſe which is vpon the meate offring, and ſhall burne it vnto a remembrance vpon the altar for a ſweete ſauour, a memorial of it vnto the Lord.

16 And of the reſt thereof ſhall Aaron and his ſonnes eate: vnleauened ſhall it be eaten in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they ſhall eate it.

17 It ſhall not bee baken with leauen: I haue giuen it vnto them for their portion of my ſacrifices made by fire: It is moſt holy, as is the ſinne offering, and the treſpaſſe offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron ſhall eate of it: It ſhall be a ſtatute for euer in your generations concerning the ſacrifice of the Lord made by fire: let euery one that toucheth it, be holy.

19 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron, and of his ſonnes, which they ſhall offer vnto the Lorde in the day when he is anoynted: The tenth part of an Ephi of fine floure for a meate offering perpetuall, halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

21 In the frying panne it ſhall bee made with oyle, and when it is fryed, thou ſhalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meate offerings ſhalt thou offer for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord.

22 And the Prieſt amongeſt his ſonnes that is anoynted in his ſtead, ſhall offer it: It is the Lordes ordinance for euer, it ſhalbe burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offering that is made for the Prieſt, ſhall be burnt altogether, and ſhall not be eaten.

24 And ꝑ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron & to his ſonnes, and ſay, This is the law of the ſinne offering: In the place where the whole burnt offring is killed, ſhall the ſinne offering be killed before the Lord, for it is moſt holy.

26 The Prieſt that offreth it, ſhall eate it: In the holy place ſhal it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatſoeuer ſhall touch the fleſh thereof, ſhall be holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon any garment, thou ſhalt waſhe that whereon it droppeth, in the holy place.

28 But the earthen pot that it is ſodden in, ſhal be broken: And if it be ſodden in a braſen pot, it ſhalbe ſcoured, and rinſed in water.

29 All the males among the Prieſts ſhall eate thereof, for it is moſt holy.

30 And no ſinne offering, whoſe b blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withall in the holy place, ſhalbe eaten: but ſhalbe burnt in the fire.

12 If he offer it to giue thankes, he shall bring vnto his b thanke offring vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and cakes mingled with oyle of fine flowre fried.

b The Hebrew word signifieth to praise & giue thankes: this sacrifice they vsed to offer vnto any man knowledged himselfe to be a sinner, and confessed his sinnes vnto the Lorde, willing to reconcile himself vnto him.

13 He shall bring his offering, with cakes of vnleauened bread for his peace offrings, to giue thankes:

27 Whatsoeuer soule it be that eateth any maner of blood, the same soule shalbe cut off from his people.

28 And the Lorde talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, he that bringeth his peace offring vnto the Lorde, let him bring his gift vnto the Lorde of his peace offring.

30 Let his owne hands bring the offrings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fatte with the brest shall he bring, that the brest may be waued for a waue offring before the Lord.

31 And the Priest shall burne the fat vpon the altar, and the brest shalbe Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall yee giue vnto the Priest for an heaue offering of your peace offrings.

33 The same that offreth the blood of the peace offrings and the fat, among the sonnes of Aaron, shal haue the right shoulder for his part:

34 For the waue brest & the heaue shoulder haue I taken of the children of Israel of their peace offerings, and haue giuen them vnto Aaron the Priest, and vnto his sonnes, by a statute for euer frō among the children of Israel.

35 This is the anoynting of Aaron, and the anoynting of his sonnes, concerning the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, in the day when he offred them to be Priestes vnto the Lord:

36 And these bee the portions which the Lorde commaunded to be giuen them in the day of their anoynting from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is the lawe of the whole burnt offring, and of the meate offring, and of the sacrifice for sinne and trespasse, * for consecrations, and for the peace offring:

* Which sacrifice was offred, when the priestes were consecrated, Exod. 29.22.

38 Which the Lorde commanded Moses in the mount of Sinai, when he commaunded the children of Israel to offer their sacrifices vnto the Lord in the wildernesse of Sinai.

The viii. Chapter.

The consecration of Aaron and his sonnes, and of the anoynting of the tabernacle.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the vestures, and the anoynting oyle, and a bullock for a sinne offring, and two Rams, and a basket of vnleauened bread:

3 And gather thou all the congregation together, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the Lord commaunded him: and the people were gathered together vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses saide vnto the congregation, This is the thing which the Lorde commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water, 7 And put vpon him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, & put vpon him the robe, and put the Ephod thereon, which he girded with the brodered garde that was in the Ephod, and bound it vnto him therewith.

8 And he put the brestplate thereon, and put in the brestplate the Urim & the Thummim.

9 And he put the cap of estate vpon his head, and put vpon the cappe, euen vpon the foze front, the golde plate, [a] the holy crowne, as the Lord commanded Moses.

[a] So called, because this superscription (holinesse to the Lord) was grauen in it.

10 And Moses tooke the anoynting oyle, and anoynted the Tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them, 11 And sprinkled thereof vpon the altar seuen times, and anoynted the altar and all his vessels, the layer and his foote, to sanctifie them.

12 And he [*] powred of the anoynting oyle vpon Aarons head, and anoynted him, to sanctifie him.

[*] Ecclu.45. 18.

13 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets vpon their heads, as the Lord commanded Moses.

14 And hee brought the bullocke foz the sinne offering: and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke foz the sinne offering.

[b] Moses did this, because that the priests were not established in their office.

15 And Moses [b] slue him, and tooke the blood, which he put vpon the homes of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and powred the blood at the bottome of the altar, & sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 And he tooke all the fat that was vpon the inwards and the hall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and their fatte, and Moses burned it vpon the altar.

17 But the bullocke, & his hide, his flesh, and his doung he burnt with fire without the hoste, as the Lord commanded Moses.

18 And he brought the Ramme foz [‖] whole burnt offering, & Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, 19 which Moses killed, and sprinkled the blood vpon the altar round about.

20 And Moses cut the Ramme into pieces, and burnt the head, the pieces, & the fat, 21 And washed the inwards & the legges in water, and Moses burnt the Ramme euery whit vpon the altar: foz it was a whole burnt sacrifice foz a sweete sauour, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lorde, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And he brought the other Ramme, the Ramme of consecration: and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the Ramme, 23 which Moses slewe, and tooke of the blood of it, & put it vpon the tippe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right foote.

24 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the tippe of the right eare of them, and vpon the thumbes of their right hands, and vpon the great toes of their right feete: and Moses sprinckled the blood vpon the altar round about.

25 And he tooke the fatte, and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the hall of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and their right shoulder.

26 And out of the basket of vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, he tooke one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder:

27 And put all together vpon Aarons hands, and vpon his sonnes hands, and waued it a waue offering before the Lord.

28 And Moses tooke them from off their hands, and burnt them vpon the altar foz a whole burnt offering: These were consecrations foz a sweete sauour and sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 And Moses tooke the brest, and waued it foz a waue offering before the Lorde: foz of the Ramme of consecration it was Moses part, as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And Moses tooke of the anoynting oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron & vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon his sonnes garments with him: and sanctified Aaron and his vestures, and his sonnes, and his sonnes vestures with him.

31 And Moses saide vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Boyle the flesh at the dooze of the tabernacle of the Congregation, & there [*] eate it with the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commaunded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eate it.

[*] Exod.29. 32.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh, and of the bread, shall ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shall not depart from the dooze of the tabernacle of the Congregation, seuen dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecration be at an ende: foz seuen dayes shall he [‖] fill your hand.

[‖] Or, consecrate you.

34 As he did this day, so the Lorde hath commaunded to doe, to make an attonement foz you.

35 Therefoze shall ye abide at the dooze of the tabernacle of the Congregation, day and night, seuen daies long, and keepe the watch of the Lorde, and ye shall not die: foz so I am commanded.

36 And so Aaron and his sonnes, did all things which the Lord commaunded by the [‡] hand of Moses.

The ix. Chapter.

8 The first offerings of Aaron. 22 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glorie of the Lord is shewed.

AND in the eight day, Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the elders of Israel.

Exod. 29. 1. 2 And he said vnto Aaron, Take thee a yong calfe for a sinne offering, and a Ramme for a whole burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lorde.

3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take ye an he goate for a sinne offering, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeere olde, without blemish, for a whole burnt sacrifice.

4 Also, a Bullocke and a Ramme for peace offerings, to offer before the Lorde, and a meate offering mingled with oyle: for to day the Lorde will appeare vnto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded, before the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the Congregation came and stoode before the Lorde.

6 Then Moses sayde, This is the thing that the Lorde commanded, that ye should doe, and the glory of the Lorde shall appeare vnto you.

7 Moreouer Moses sayde vnto Aaron, Get thee to the altar, and offer the sacrifice for thy sinne, and thy whole burnt offering, and make an atonement for thee and for the people: and then shalt offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, as the Lord commanded.

8 Aaron therefore went vnto the altar, and killed the calfe of the sinne offering, which was for himselfe.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar, and powred the blood at the bottome of the altar.

10 But the fat, and the two kidneis, and the caule of the liuer of the sinne offering, he burnt vpon the altar, as the Lord commanded Moses.

11 The flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the host.

12 And he slewe the whole burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about vpon the altar.

13 And they brought the whole burnt offering vnto him, with the pieces thereof, & the heade: and he burnt them vpon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards, and the legges, and burnt them vpon the whole burnt offering on the altar.

15 And then he brought the peoples offering, taking the Goat, which was the sinne offering for the people, and slewe it, and offered it for sinne, as he did the first.

16 And brought the whole burnt offring, and offered it as the manner was.

17 And he brought the meate offering, and filled his hande thereof, and burnt it vpon the altar, beside the whole burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slewe also the Bullocke and the Ramme, for the peace offering which was for the people: And Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinkled vpon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullocke and of the Ramme, the rumpe, and that couereth the inwards, & the kidneis, & the caule of the liuer, 20 Euen they put the fat vpon the breastes, and he burnt the fat vpon the altar.

21 But the breastes and the right shoulder Aaron waued for a wauen offering before the Lorde, as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted vp his hande toward the people, and blessed them, & came downe from making of the sinne offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the Lorde, and consumed vpon the altar the whole burnt offering, and the fat: which when all the people sawe, they gaue thankes, and fell on their faces.

2. Mac. 2. 13

a This miracle was done to this purpose, to signifie that the Lord had alowed this kinde of sacrifice by Aaron.

a Fire taken of the altar, which fire was kindled from heaven, & reserued to the captiuitie of Babylon.

b This terrible punishment worthy declare, that vnlawfull seruice of God though it seme to be done of good deuotion, displeaseth God.

10 And Nadab and Abihu the sonnes of Aaron, tooke either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and laide incense thereon, and offered a strange fire before the Lorde, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out a fire from the Lorde, and deuoured them, and they died before the Lorde.

3 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lorde spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Misael and Elisaphan the sonnes of Oziel, the vncle of Aaron, and said vnto them, Come nere, carie your brethren from before the Sanctuarie, out of the host.

5 And they went to them, and caried them in their coates out of the host, as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, Vncouer not your heades, neither rent your clothes, least ye dye, and least wrath come vpon all the people: But let your brethren the whole house of Israel bewaile the burning which the Lorde hath kindled.

7 And go not out from the doore of the Tabernacle of the congregation, least ye dye: for the anointing oyle of God is vpon you. And they did as Moses saide.

8 And the Lord ſpake vnto Aaron, ſaying,
9 Thou ſhalt not drinke wine nor ſtrong drinke, thou, nor thy ſonnes that are with thee, when ye goe into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, leſt ye die: Let it be a lawe for euer throughout your generations,
10 And that ye may put difference betweene holy and vnholy, betweene vncleane and cleanne, 11 And that ye may teache the children of Iſrael all the ſtatutes which the Lorde hath ſpoken vnto them by the hand of Moſes.
12 And Moſes ſpake vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his ſonnes that remayned, Take the meate offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lorde made by fire, and eate it vnleuened beſide the altar, for it is moſt holy.
13 Ye ſhall eate it in the holy place, becauſe it is thy portion, and thy ſonnes portion, of the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire; for ſo I am commanded.
14 And the waue breaſt and heaue ſhulder ſhall ye eate in a cleane place, euen thou, and thy ſonnes, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy portion, and thy children portion, giuen out of the peace offerings of the children of Iſrael.
15 The heaue ſhoulder, and the ſhake breſt ſhall they bring in, with the ſacrifices made by fire, of the fat, to waue it for a waue offering before the Lord: and it ſhall be thine and thy ſonnes with thee, by a law for euer, as the Lord hath commanded.
16 And Moſes ſought the goate that was offered for ſinne, and he was burnt: And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the ſonnes of Aaron remayning, ſaying, 17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the ſinne offering in the holy place? ſeeing it is moſt holy, & God hath giuen it you, to beare the ſinne of the Congregation to make agreement for them before the Lord.
18 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: Ye ſhould haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.
19 And Aaron ſaid vnto Moſes, Beholde, this day haue they offered their ſinne offering, and their whole burnt offering before the Lorde: and ſuch things are come vnto me; if I had eaten the ſinne offering to day, ſhould it haue been accepted in the ſight of the Lorde?
20 And when Moſes heard that, he was content.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Of beaſtes, fiſhes, and birdes: which be cleane, and which be vncleane.

ANd the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, and ſaide vnto them,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay, Theſe are the beaſtes which ye ſhall eate among all the beaſtes that are on the earth.
3 Whatſoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and chaweth cud among the beaſtes, that ſhall ye eate.
4 Neuertheleſſe, theſe ſhall ye not eate of them that chawe the cud onely, and of them that deuideth the hoofe onely, as is the Camel, which chaweth cud, but hee deuideth not the hoofe, therefore he is vncleane vnto you.
5 Euen ſo the Conie which chaweth the cud, but deuideth not the hoofe, he is vncleane vnto you.
6 And the Hare, becauſe he chaweth the cud, yet becauſe he deuideth not the hoofe, he is therefore vncleane vnto you.
7 And againe, the Swine, though he deuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet he chaweth not the cud, he is vncleane vnto you.
8 Of their fleſh ſhall ye not eate, and their carkaſſe ſhall ye not touche: but they are vncleane vnto you.
9 Theſe ſhall ye eate of all that are in the waters: whatſoeuer hath finnes and ſcales in the waters, ſeas, and riuers, them ſhall ye eate.
10 And all that haue not finnes and ſcales in the Sea and riuers, of all that moue and liue in the waters, let them be abomination vnto you.
11 They, I ſay, ſhall be an abomination vnto you: ye ſhall not eate of their fleſh, but abhorre their carkaſſes.
12 Let all that haue no finnes and ſcales in the waters, be abominable vnto you.
13 Theſe are they which ye ſhall abhorre among the fowles, and ſhall not be eaten, for they are an abomination: The Eagle, the Oſſifrage, and the Oſprey,
14 The vulture, and the Kite after his kinde,
15 And all Rauens after their kinde,
16 The Oſtrich, the night Crowe, the Cuckowe, and the Hawke after his kinde, 17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle,
18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Oſpe,
19 The Storke, the Jay after his kinde, the Lapwing, and the Swallowe.
20 Yet all fowles that creepe and goe by all fours, be an abomination vnto you.
21 Yet theſe may ye eate, of euery creeping thing that hath wings, and goe vpon foure feete: euen thoſe that haue not hauings aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth.
22 Euen theſe of them ye may eate: the Arbe after his kinde, the Solaam after his kinde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kinde.
23 All other fowles that creepe, and haue foure feete, ſhall be abomination vnto you.
24 In ſuch ye be vncleane, and who ſo euer toucheth the carkaſſe of them, ſhall be vncleane vntill the euen.

25 And

c Some think that Nadab & Abihu being ouercome with drinke, did not their ſeruice lawfully, wherevpon they thinke that this lawe of forbidding of wine & ſtrong drinke to prieſtes was made.

d I haue not left this vnknowne of any contempt or negligence, but both my children be dead, and how could I be merie in ſuch a woefull and lamentable caſe of my children?

Deut. 14.4.

a He noteth foure ſortes of beaſtes: ſome chewe the cud onely, and ſome haue onely the foote clouen: others neither chewe the cud, nor haue the foote clouen: & fourth, both chewe the cud, and haue the foote clouen. This laſt only may be eaten.

1. Mac. 6. 18

25 And who so euer beareth the carkeise of them, shall wash his clothes, and bee vncleane vntill the Euen.

26 And euery beast that hath foote, and is not clouen footed, nor chaweth cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane.

27 And what so euer goeth vpon his paines, among all manner beasts that goe on all foure, such are vncleane vnto you: and who so doth touch their carkeise, shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

28 And hee that beareth the carkeise of them, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the Euen: for such are vncleane vnto you.

29 And let these also bee vncleane vnto you among the things that creepe vpon the earth: the Weesell, and the Mouse, and the great Lizard after his kinde, 30 And the Ferret, the Chameleon, the Lizard, the Snaile, and the Mole.

31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doth touch them when they be dead, shall be vncleane vntill the Euen.

32 And vpon whatsoeuer any of the dead carkeises of them doeth fall vpon, shall be vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke, or what kinde of vessell it is that any vvorke is wrought in: and it must be plunged in the water, and it shall be vncleane vntill the Euen, and so shall it be cleansed.

33 All manner of earthen vessell wherevnto any of them falleth, shall be vncleane, with all that therein is, and it shalbe broken.

34 All manner meate also that is vsed to be eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shalbe vncleane: And all manner drinke that is vsed to be drunke in all manner such vessels, shalbe vncleane.

35 And euery thing that theirs carkeise falleth vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it bee ouen or kettle, it shalbe broken: for they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.

36 Neuertheless, yet the fountaines and welles, and collections of waters, shall bee cleane still: but that which toucheth their carkeises, shalbe vncleane.

37 And if the dead carkeise of any such fall vpon any seede that is sowne, it shal yet be cleane still.

38 But and if any water bee put vpon the seede, and a dead carkeise fall thereon, it shalbe vncleane vnto you.

39 And if any beast of which ye may eate, die, and any man touche the dead carkeise thereof, he shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

40 Hee that eateth of the dead carkeise of it, shall wash his clothes, and bee vncleane vntill the Euen: And hee also that beareth the carkeise of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

41 Let euery creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth, be an abomination and not be eaten.

42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon foure, or that hath more feete among all creeping things that creepe vpon the earth: of that see ye eate not, for they are abominable.

43 Ye shall not make your soules abominable with any thing that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

1.Pet.1.15. 44 For I am the Lord your God: ye shall therefore sanctifie your selues, and ye shall be holy, for I am holy: neither shall ye defile your soules with any manner of creeping thing that moueth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that bringeth you vp out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the foule, and of euery liuing creature that moueth in the waters, and of euery creature that creepeth vpon the earth.

47 That ye may put difference betweene the vncleane and the cleane, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

The xij. Chapter.

Luke 2. 21. 1 Women conceiued, and bearing a male child, be vncleane seuen dayes: according to the dayes of the separation of her infirmitie shall she be vncleane.

Luke 2. 21. 2 And in the eight day, the flesh of the childes foreskinne shall be circumcised.

3 And the sonne continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirtie dayes: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuarie, vntill the time of her purifying be out.

4 If she beare a maybe childe, she shall bee vncleane two weekes, according as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying three score and sixe dayes.

5 And when the dayes of her purifying are out, whether it bee for a sonne or for a daughter, she shall bring a lambe of one yeere old for a whole burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle dooue for a sinne offering, vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, vnto the Priest:

6 Which shall offer them before the Lord, and make an atonement for her: and she shall be purged of the issue of her blood. And this is the lawe for her that hath borne a male or female.

Luke 2. 24. 7 But and if shee be not able to bring a lambe, then shall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons, the one for the whole burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering.

And the Priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be cleane.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 The Priestes must have a consideration, and iudge who are lepers. 47 Of the leprous garments.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shall haue in the skin of his flesh a swelling, either a scabbe, or a bright spot, and the plague of leprosie in the skinne of his flesh, he shall be brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests.

3 And the Priest shall looke on the sore in the skinne of the flesh: and when the haire in the sore is turned to white, and the sore appeare to be lower then the skinne of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: and the Priest shall looke on him, and iudge him vncleane.

4 If there be a white spot in the skinne of his flesh, and seeme not to be lower then the skinne, nor the haire thereof turned vnto white, the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the plague seuen dayes.

5 And the Priest shall looke on him againe the seuenth day: and if the plague seeme to him to abide still, and the plague growe not in the skinne, the Priest shall shut him vp another seuen dayes.

6 And the Priest shall looke on him againe the seuenth day: and behold, if the plague be darker, and not growen in the skinne, the Priest shall iudge him cleane: for it is a scabbe: and he shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the scabbe growe in the skinne after that he is seene of the Priest, and be iudged cleane, he shall be seene of the Priest againe.

8 If the Priest see that the scabbe hee growen abroade in the skinne, the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: for it is a leprosie.

a No touching his bodily infirmitie, for his disease was not imputed to him for sinne before God; yet was he punished for sinne.

9 When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shall be brought vnto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling bee white in the skinne, and haue made the haire white, and there be raw flesh in the swelling:

11 It is an olde leprosie in the skinne of his flesh, and the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane, and shall not shutte him vp, seeing he is vncleane.

12 If a leprosie breake out abroade in the skinne, and couer all the skinne from his head to his foote wheresoeuer the Priest looketh:

13 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosie haue couered all his flesh, he shall iudge the plague to be cleane, because it is all turned into whitenesse, and he shall bee cleane.

b For it is not that contagious and lepre like infected, but a kind of shirle, which maketh not the flesh raw as the leprosie doeth.

14 But if there be raw flesh on him when he is seene, he shall be vncleane.

15 And the Priest shall see the raw flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the raw flesh is vncleane, seeing it is a leprosie.

16 Or if the raw flesh turne againe, and change vnto white, he shall come vnto the Priest:

17 And the Priest shall see him, and behold, if the sore be changed vnto white, the Priest shall iudge the plague cleane, and he shall bee cleane.

18 If the flesh also in the owne skinne there is a byle, and is healed, 19 And in the place of the byle there appeare a white rising, either a shining white, and somewhat reddish, it shall be seene of the Priest.

20 And if when the Priest seeth it, it appeare lower then the skinne, and the haire thereof be changed vnto white, the Priest shall c iudge him vncleane: for it is a plague of leprosie broken out of the byle.

c Many were attempted, but if the Priest iudged him vncleane he was put out from among the people, as appeareth by many the prophecies, Numb. 12.14. and by king Vzias, 2. Chro. 26.20.

21 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haires therein, and it be not lower then the skinne, but be darker; the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

22 And if it spread abroade in the skinne, the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane: seeing it is a sore.

23 But if the spot stand still, and growe not, it is a scarre of a byle; and therefore the Priest shall declare him cleane.

24 If there be any flesh, in whose skinne there is a whote burning, & the quicke flesh that burneth haue a white spot, somewhat reddish, or white,

25 The Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the haire in that bright spot bee changed to white, and it appeare lower then the skinne, it is a leprosie broken out of the burning, and therefore the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white haire in the bright spot, and the place be no lower then the other skinne, but be darker, the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

27 And the Priest shall looke vpon him the seuenth day: and if he be growen abroade in the skinne, the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the spot stand still in his place, and growe not in the skinne, but is darke, it is a rising of the burning, and the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, seeing it is a scarre of the burning.

29 If man or woman haue a sore vpon the head or the beard,

30 The Priest shall see the sore, and if it appeare lower then the skinne, and there be in it a yealow haire and thinne, the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing that the same fretting is a token of leprosie vpon the head or beard.

31 And if the Priest looke on the sore of the fret, and it seeme not lower then the skinne, shinne, and that the haire is not blacke, the Priest shall shut vp him that hath the fretting sore seuen dayes.

32 And in the seuenth day, the Priest shal looke on the sore: & if the fret be not growen, and there be in it no yellowe haire, and the fret seeme not lower then the shinne, 33 He shall be shauen, but the fret shall he not shaue: and the Priest shal shut vp him that hath the fret, seuen dayes moe.

34 And in the seuenth day the Priest shall looke on the fret: and if the fret be not growē in the shinne, nor seeme lower then the other shinne, the Priest shal cleanse him: and he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the fret grow in the shinne after his cleansing, 36 The Priest shall looke on him, and if the fret be growen in the shinne, the Priest shall not seeke for yellowe haire, for he is vncleane.

37 But if yet see the fret stand still, & that there is blacke haire growen vp therein, the fret is healed, and he shall be cleane, and the priest shall declare him to be cleane.

38 If there be many white spottes in the shinne of the flesh of man or woman, 39 The Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the spots in the shinne of their flesh be somewhat darke and white withall, it is a freckle growen in the shinne, therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whose haire is fallen off his head, he is balde, yet cleane.

41 And hee that hath his haire fallen off on the part of his head towarde his face, is forehead balde, yet cleane.

42 If there be in the balde head, or balde forehead a white reddish sore, there is leprosie sprong vp in his balde head, or balde forehead.

43 And the Priest shall looke vpon him: and if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his balde head, or balde forehead, after the maner of leprosie, which is in the shinne of his flesh, 44 Then he is a leprous man, & vncleane: and the priest shall pronounce him vncleane, for the plague thereof is in his head.

45 The leper in whom the plague is, shal haue his [d] clothes rent, & his head bare, and shall put a couering vpon his lippes, and shal cry, vncleane, vncleane.

[d] The signe of mourning, and lamentation.

46 And as long as the disease lasteth vpon him, he shall be defiled, and vncleane: hee shall dwell alone, euen without the campe shall his habitation be.

47 The garment also, that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garmēt or a linnen garment,

48 whether it be in the warpe or woofe of linnen or of woollen, either in a shinne, or any thing made of shinne:

49 If the disease be light greene, or somewhat reddish in the garment or shinne, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thing that is made of shinne, then it is a plague of leprosie, and shalbe shewed vnto the Priest.

50 The Priest therfore shal see the plague, and shut it vp seuen dayes.

51 And he shall looke on the plague the seuenth day: which if it be increased in the garment, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or in a shinne, or in any thing that is made of shinne, it is the leprosie of a fretting sore, it is vncleane.

52 And he shall burne that garment, either warpe or woofe, whether it be woollen or linnen, or any thing that is made of shinne, wherein the plague is; for it is a fretting leprosie, it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest see that the plague is not growen in the garment, either in the warpe, or woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of shinne it bee, 54 Then the Priest shall command them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seuen dayes more.

55 And the priest shall looke on the plague after that it is washed: & if the plague haue not changed his colour, and is not at all spread further, it is vncleane, thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is fret inward, whether it be bare behinde or before.

56 And if the Priest see that the plague is darke after that it is washed, he shall rent it out of the garment, or out of the shinne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare still in the garment, either in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of shinne, it is a spreading plague; thou shalt burne that wherein the plague is, with fire.

58 And the garment either warpe or woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of shinne it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed therefrom, it shall be washed once againe, and then it shalbe cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment, whether it be woollen or linnen, either in the warpe or woofe, or in any thing of shinnes, to declare it cleane, or vncleane.

The xiiij. Chapter.

3 The cleansing of the Leper, 34 and of the house that he is in.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 This is the lawe of the leper in the day of his cleansing: hee * shall be brought vnto the Priest,

* Matth.8.2. mark.1.40.

3 And the Priest shal go out of the campe, and the Priest shal looke vpon him, and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the Priest command to take for him that is cleansed, two liue birdes and cleane, and Cedar wood, & a scarlet lace, and hyssope.

5 And the Priest shall command that one of the birdes be killed in an earthen vessell, and vpon running water.

6 And he shall take the liuing birde, with the the Cedar wood, the scarlet lace and the hyssope, and shal dippe them and the liuing bird in the blood of the slaine birde vpon the running water.

7 And hee shall sprinckle vpon him that must be cleansed of his leprosie, seuen times, and cleanse him, and shall let the liuing birde goe free into the field.

8 And hee that is cleansed shall wash his clothes, & shaue off all his haire, & wash him selfe in water, that he may be cleane: And after that shal he come into the hoste, and shall tary without his tent seuen dayes.

9 But in the seuenth day, he shall shaue off all his haire of his head, his beard, and his browes, all his haire shall he shaue off: And he shall wash his clothes, and also washe his flesh in water, and he shalbe cleane.

10 And the eight day he shall take two hee lambes, without blemish, and an ewe lambe of a yeere olde, without blemish, & three tenth deales of fine flowre for a meate offering, mingled with oyle, and a Logge of oyle.

a This measure in Hebrewe called Logge, is the quantitie of three egges ful.

11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane, shal bring the man that is to be made cleane, and those things before the Lord, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And the priest shal take one lambe, and offer him for a trespasse offring, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offering before the Lord.

13 And he shal slay the lambe in the place where the sinne offering & the whole burnt offring are slaine, in the holy place: for as the sinne offring is the Priests, so is the trespasse offering, seeing it is most holy.

14 And the Priest shal take of the blood of the trespasse offering, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of him that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

15 The Priest shall take of the Logge of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his left hande:

16 And hee shall dippe his right finger in the oyle that is in his left hand, and sprinckle of the oyle with his finger seuen times before the Lord.

17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hand, shal the Priest put vpon the tippe of the right eare of him that is for to bee cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foot, euen vpon the blood of the trespasse offring.

18 And the remnant of the oyle that is in the Priestes hande, hee shal powre vpon the head of him that is for to be cleansed: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.

19 And the Priest shal offer the sinne offering, and make an atonement for him that is to bee cleansed from his vncleanesse, and then shall he kill the whole burnt offring.

20 And the Priest shall offer the whole burnt offering, and the meate offering vpon the altar: and the Priest shal make an atonement for him, and he shalbe cleane.

21 If he be poore, and can not get so much, he shal take one lambe for a trespasse offring, to waue it for his atonement, & a tenth deale of fine flowre mingled with oyle, for a meate offring, and a Logge of oyle,

22 And two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, such as he is able to get: whereof the one shall be for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them the eight day for his cleansing vnto the Priest before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lord.

24 And the Priest shal take the lambe that is for the trespasse offering, and the Logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offering before the Lord.

25 And he shall kill the lambe for the trespasse offering, and the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespasse offring, and put it vpon the tip of his right eare that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

26 And the Priest shall powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne left hand.

27 And the Priest shal with his right finger, sprinckle of the oyle that is in his left hand seuen times before the Lord.

28 And the Priest shal put of the oyle that is in his hande, vpon the tip of the right eare of him that is to bee cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, & vpon the great toe of his right foote, in the place where the blood of the trespasse offering was put.

29 And the rest of the oyle that is in the priests hand, he shal put vpon the head of him that is to bee cleansed, that he may make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 And he shal offer one of ꝑ turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, such as he can get:

31 Such I say as he is able to get, the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering, with the meate offering: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed, before the Lord.

32 This is the lawe of him in whome is the plague of leprosie, and whose hand is not able to gette that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come vnto the land of Chanaan, which I giue you in possession, and if I put the plague of leprosie in a house of the land of your possession:

35 He that owneth the house shal come, and tell the Priest, saying, Me thinke that there is as it were a plague in the house.

36 Then the Priest shall command them to empty the house, before the Priest goe into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane: and then must the Priest go in, to see the house.

37 And hee shall see the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that that there be no holowe ſtrakes, greenish or reddish, which ſeeme to bee lower then the wall it ſelfe:

38 Then the Prieſt ſhall goe out of the house, to the doore of the house, and ſhut vp the house ſeuen dayes.

39 And the Prieſt ſhal come againe the ſeuenth day, and if he ſee that the plague be increaſed in the walles of the house,

40 Then the Prieſt ſhall command them to take away the ſtones in which the plague is, and let them caſt them into a foule place without the citie,

41 And he ſhall command the house to be ſcraped within round about, and powre out the duſt that they ſcrape off, without the citie into a foule place,

42 And they ſhall take other ſtones, and put them in the place of thoſe ſtones, and other mozter to plaſter the house withall.

43 And if the plague come againe, and breake out in the house, after that hee hath taken away the ſtones, & ſcraped the house, and after that he hath plaſtered the house,

44 Then the Prieſt ſhall come and ſee it: and if that the plague hath growen further in the house, it is a fretting leproſie in the house, it is therefore vncleane.

45 And hee ſhall breake downe the house, and the ſtones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mozter of the house, and hee ſhall carie them out of the citie into a foule place.

46 Moreouer, he that goeth into the house all the while that it ſhut is vp, ſhall bee vncleane vntill the Euen.

47 He alſo that ſleepeth in the house, ſhall waſh his clothes: he likewiſe that eateth in the house, ſhall waſh his clothes.

48 And if the Prieſt come and ſee that the plague hath ſpred no further in the house, after that it is new plaſtered: the Prieſt ſhall iudge that house cleane, becauſe the plague is healed.

49 And let him take to cleanſe the house withall two birdes, Cedar wood, and a ſcarlet lace, and hyſope.

50 And he ſhall kill one of the birdes in an earthen veſſell and vpon running water.

51 And take the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, & the ſcarlet lace, with the liuing birde, and dip them in the blood of the ſlaine birde, and in the running water, and ſprinkle the house ſeuen times.

52 And hee ſhall cleanſe the house with the blood of the birde, and with the running water, with the liuing birde, with the Cedar wood, and the hyſope, and the ſcarlet lace.

53 But he ſhall let the liuing birde flie out of the towne into the broade fieldes, and ſo make an attonement for the house, and it ſhall be cleane.

54 This is the lawe for all maner plague of leproſie and fret,

55 And of the leproſie of garment & house,

56 For a ſwelling, for a ſcabbe, and for a ſhining white, 57 To teach when it is vncleane, and cleane: this is the lawe of leproſie.

The xv. Chapter.

2. 19 The maner of purging the vncleanneſſe both of men and women.

AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer hath a running iſſue out of his fleſh, is vncleane by reaſon of that iſſue.

3 And this ſhalbe his vncleanneſſe in his iſſue: if his fleſh runne, or if his fleſh be ſtopped from his iſſue, then is it vncleanneſſe.

4 Euery bed wherein hee lyeth that hath the iſſue, is vncleane: and euery thing whereon he ſitteth, is vncleane.

5 Whoſoeuer toucheth his bed, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

6 And he that ſitteth on any thing whereon he ſate that hath the iſſue, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

7 Hee that toucheth the fleſh of him that hath the iſſue, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

8 If he alſo that hath the iſſue, ſpit vpon him that is cleane, he ſhall waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

9 And what ſaddle ſoeuer he rideth vpon that hath the iſſue, ſhalbe vncleane.

10 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thing that was vnder him, ſhall be vncleane vnto the Euen: And hee that beareth any ſuch things, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

11 And whomſoeuer hee toucheth that hath the iſſue, and hath not waſhed his hands in water, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

12 The veſſell of earth that he toucheth which hath the iſſue, ſhalbe broken: and all veſſels of wood ſhalbe rinſed in water.

13 When he alſo that hath an iſſue is cleanſed of his iſſue, hee ſhall number vnto him ſeuen dayes for his cleanſing, and waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in running water, and ſo ſhall he be cleane.

14 And the eight day he ſhall take to him two turtle doues, two young pigeons, and come before the Lord vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and giue them vnto the Prieſt.

15 And the Prieſt ſhall offer them, the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering, and the Prieſt ſhall make an attonement for him before the Lord, as concerning his iſſue.

16 If any mans ſeede depart from him in his ſleepe, he ſhall waſh all his fleſh in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

17 And euery garment, and euery ſkinne, wherein is ſuch ſeede of ſleepe, ſhall bee waſhed with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

18 And if hee that hath ſuch an iſſue of ſeede, doe lie with a woman, they ſhall both waſh themſelues with water, and bee vncleane vntill the Euen.

19 Alſo if a woman ſhal haue an iſſue, and her iſſue in her fleſh ſhall be blood, ſhe ſhall be put apart ſeuen dayes: whoſoeuer toucheth her, ſhalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

20 And all that ſhe lieth vpon in the time of her ſeparation ſhall bee vncleane: like as euery thing alſo that ſhee ſitteth vpon is vncleane.

21 Whoſoeuer toucheth her bed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

22 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thing that ſhe ſate vpon, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

23 So that whether hee touch her bed, or any veſſell whereon ſhe hath ſitten, he ſhall be vncleane vntill the euening.

24 And if any man lye with her, and her ſeparation come vpō him, he ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes: and all the bed wherein he lieth ſhalbe vncleane.

25 And if a woman haue an iſſue of her blood many dayes out of the time of her ſeparation, or if it runne beyond her ſeparation, let all the dayes of the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe, be euen as the dayes of her ſeparation: for ſhe is vncleane.

26 Euery bed whereon ſhee lieth as long as her iſſue laſteth, ſhall bee vnto her as the bed of her ſeparation: and whatſoeuer ſhe ſitteth vpon, ſhall be vncleane, as the vncleanneſſe of her ſeparation.

27 And whoſoeuer toucheth any of theſe, ſhalbe vncleane, and ſhall waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

28 But if ſhe be cleanſed of her iſſue, thee ſhall count her ſeuen dayes: and after that ſhe ſhalbe cleane.

29 And in the eight day ſhe ſhall take vnto her two turties, or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Prieſt, before the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the Prieſt ſhall offer the one for a ſinne offring, and the other for a whole burnt offering, and make an atonement for her before the Lord, as concerning the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe.

31 Thus ſhall ye ſeparate the children of Iſrael from their vncleanneſſe, that they die not in their vncleanneſſe, if they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of him that hath an iſſue, and of him whoſe ſeede runneth from him in his ſleepe, and is defiled therein:

33 Alſo of her that for her ſeparation is put apart, and of whoſoeuer hath a running iſſue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lieth with her whych is vncleane.

The xvj. Chapter.

2 What Aaron muſt doe. 8 Of the ſcape Goate. 14 The cleanſing of the Sanctuarie.

AND the Lord * ſpake vnto Moſes after the death of the two ſonnes of Aaron, when they offred before the Lord, & died. * Leuit.10.

2 And the Lord ſayde vnto Moſes, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he * come not at all times into the holy place within the vayle before the mercie ſeate which is vpon the Arke, that hee dye not: for I will appeare in the cloude vpon the mercie ſeate. * Exo.30.10 heb.9.7.

3 But with this thing ſhall Aaron come into the holy place: euen with a yong bullocke for a ſinne offering, and with a ramme for a whole burnt offering.

4 Hee ſhall put the holy linen coate vpon him, and ſhall haue linen breeches vpon his fleſh, and ſhall be girded with a linen girdle, and with a linen cappe ſhall hee be attired. Theſe are holy garments: therefore ſhall he waſh his fleſh in water when hee doeth put them on.

5 And he ſhall take of the congregation of the children of Iſrael, two hee goates for a ſinne offering, and a ramme for a whole burnt offering.

6 And Aaron ſhall offer his bullocke for his ſinne offering, and make an atonement for him, and for his houſe.

7 And he ſhal take the two hee goates, and preſent them before the Lord at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron ſhall caſt lottes ouer the two goates: one lot ſhalbe for the Lord, and the other for the * Scape goate.

9 And Aaron ſhall bring the goate vpon which the Lords lot fell, and offer him for a ſinne offring.

10 But the goate of which the lot fel to be the Scape goate, ſhall be ſet aliue before the Lord to reconcile with, and to let him goe as a Scape goate into the wilderneſſe.

11 And Aaron ſhall bring the bullocke for his ſinne offering, and reconcile for himſelfe and for his houſe, and ſhall kill the bullocke for his ſinne offring.

12 And he ſhall take a cenſor full of burning coales frō off the altar before the Lord, and ſhall fill his hand full of ſweete incenſe beaten ſmall, and bring them within the vaile, 13 And put the incenſe vpon the fire before the Lorde, that the cloude of the incenſe may couer the mercy ſeate that is vpon the witneſſe, and he ſhall not die.

14 * And he ſhall take of the blood of the bullocke, Hebr.9.13 and 10.4.

* a Iu Hebr. it is called Azazel, which ſome ſay is a mountaine neere Arabi whither the goat was ſent but rather is called the Scape goate because he was not offered, but ſent into the wilderneſſe as here is.

bullocke, and ſprinkle it with his finger vpon the mercy ſeate Eaſtwarde: and before the mercy ſeate ſhall he ſprincle of the blood with his finger ſeuen times.

15 Then ſhall he kill the goat that is the peoples ſinne offering, and bring his blood within the vaile, & doe with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, ſprinkling it vpon the mercy ſeate, and before the mercy ſeate.

16 And hee ſhall reconcile the holy place from the vncleannes of the children of Iſrael, & from their treſpaſſes in all their ſinnes: and ſo ſhall hee doe for the tabernacle of the congregation that is ſet among them, euen among their vncleanneſſe.

Luke 1. 10. 17 *And let there be no body in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, vntill he come out, and haue made an atonement for himſelfe, and for his houſhold, & for all the congegation of Iſrael.

18 And he ſhall go out vnto the altar that is before the Lord, and reconcile vpon it, and ſhall take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar round about.

19 So ſhall he ſprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger ſeuen times, and cleanſe it, and halowe it from the vncleanneſſe of the children of Iſrael.

20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he ſhall bring the liue goate.

21 And Aaron ſhall put both his handes vpō the head of the liue goate, & confeſſe ouer him all the miſdeedes of ỹ children of Iſrael, and al their treſpaſſes in all their ſinnes, putting them vpon the b head of the goate, & ſend him away by the hand of a conuenient man into the wilderneſſe.

b Here in this goate is a true figure of Ieſus Chriſt, who beareth the ſinnes of the people, Eſai. 53. verſ. 5.

22 And the goate ſhal beare vpon him all their miſdeeds vnto the land of ſeparation, & he ſhall let the goate go into the wilderneſſe.

23 After, Aaron ſhall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, & put of the linnē clothes which he put on when he went in into the holy place, and leaue them there.

24 And let him waſh his fleſh with water in the holy place, & put on his owne raiment, and then come out, & offer his whole burnt offering, and the whole burnt offering of the people, & make an atonement for himſelfe, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the ſinne offering ſhall he burne vpon the altar.

26 And he ỹ caried forth the goate for the Scape goate, ſhal waſhe his clothes, & bathe his fleſh in water, & then come into the hoſte.

27 And the bullock for the ſinne offering, and the goate for the ſinne offering, whoſe blood was brought in to cleanſe ỹ holy place, ſhall one carie out without the hoſte, to be burnt in the fire, with their ſkinnes, their fleſh, and their doung.

Leuit. 6. 30. Heb. 13. 11.

28 And he that burneth them, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe his fleſh in water, and then come into the hoſte.

29 And this ſhalbe an ordinance for euer vnto you: that in the tenth day of the ſeuenth moneth ye humble your ſoules, and doe no worke at all, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a ſtranger that ſoiourneth among you.

30 For that day ſhall the Prieſt make an atonement for you, to cleanſe you, and that ye may bee cleane from all your ſinnes before the Lord. Leuit. 23. 27.

31 Let it be a Sabboth of reſt vnto you, and yee ſhall humble your ſoules by an ordinance for euer.

32 And the Prieſt whom he ſhal annoynt, and whome he ſhall conſecrate to miniſter in his fathers ſtead, ſhall make the atonement and ſhall put on the linnen clothes, and holy veſtmentes:

33 And ſhal reconcile the holy Sanctuary, & the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhall cleanſe the altar, and make an atonement for the Prieſtes, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this ſhall bee an euerlaſting ordinance vnto you, to make an atonement for the children of Iſrael, for all their ſinnes once a yeere. And he did as the Lord commanded Moſes.

The xvij. Chapter.

4 All ſacrifice muſt be brought to the doore of the tabernacle. 7 To deuils may they not offer. 10 They may not eate blood.

AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, & vnto his ſonnes, and vnto al the children of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, This is ỹ thing which the Lord hath charged, ſaying,

3 What man ſoeuer of the houſe of Iſrael killeth an ore, or lambe, or goate in the hoſt, or that killeth it out of the hoſte,

4 And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering vnto the Lorde before the dwelling place of the Lord, a blood ſhal be imputed vnto that man, he hath ſhed blood, & that man ſhalbe cut off from among his people.

a That man ſhalbe charged with as much as if he had killed a man, as Eſai. 66. 3.

5 Wherefore, when the children of Iſrael bring their offerings that they offer in the wilde fielde, they ſhall bring them vnto the Lorde, euen vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation by the Prieſt, to offer them for peace offerings vnto the Lord.

b That which they offered before of deuſtion in ỹ fielde, muſt now by the lawe be brought to the doore of the tabernacle.

6 And the Prieſt ſhall ſprinkle the blood vpon the altar of the Lorde, which is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, & burne the fat for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord.

c That is ſaid to be offered vnto deuils, which is not done to the true God. 1. Cor. 10. 20. pſalm. 95. 5.

7 And let them no more offer their offerings vnto deuils, after whome they haue gone a whoring: & this ſhalbe an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generations.

d Idolatrie is ſpirituall whoredome, becauſe faith towardes God is broken.

8 And thou shalt say vnto them, Whatsoeuer man it be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourne among you, that offereth a whole burnt offering or sacrifice, e That they might haue no occasion to commit idolatrie, or to swarue from the lawe of God.

9 And bringeth it not vnto the e doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it vnto the Lord, that man shall be cut off from among his people:

10 And whatsoeuer man it bee of ẏ house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourne among you, that eateth any maner of blood, I will set f my face against that soule that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

f That is, I will be angry, and declare my wrath by taking vengeance on him, as Chap. 20.3.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I haue giuen it vnto you vpō the altar, to make an atonemēt for your soules: for this blood shal make an atonement for the soule.

12 Therefore I saide vnto the children of Israel, Let no soule of you eat blood, neither let any stranger that sojourneth among you eate blood.

13 And whatsoeuer man it be of the children of Israel, or of ẏ strangers that sojourne among you, which hunteth & catcheth any beast or foule, that may bee eaten, let him powre out the blood thereof, & couer it with dust.

And it is to bee noted, that besides the persons here specified, are comprised the ascending and descending of the same degrees, either of kinred or alliance.

7 The nakednesse of thy father, & the nakednesse of thy mother, shalt thou not vncouer: for she is thy mother, therefore shalt thou not discouer her nakednesse.

8 The nakednes of thy fathers wife shalt thou not discouer, for it is thy fathers nakednesse.

9 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy sister thy the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be borne at home, or without.

26 Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinances and my iudgements, and commit none of these abominations, neither any of your owne nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you.

29 For whosoeuer shall committe any of these abominations, the same soules that commit them, shall bee cut off from among their people.

25 Yee shall doe no seruile worke therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

28 Ye shall doe no worke the same day, for it is a day of reconciling, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God.

29 For whatsoeuer soule it be that humbleth not himselfe that day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoeuer soule doe any worke that day, the same soule will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shal doe no maner of worke, therefore let it be a law for euer in your generations, and in all your dwellings.

32 Let it bee vnto you a Sabboth of rest, and ye shall humble your soules in the ninth day of the moneth at Euen: from Euen to Euen shall ye celebrate your Sabboth.

Iohn.7.57. exo.29.18.

35 The first day is an holy conuocation, ye shall doe no seruile worke.

36 Seuen dayes yee shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, and in the eight day shall bee an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord: It is the solemne assembly, and ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

37 These are the feastes of the Lorde which yee shall call holy conuocations, for to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, whole burnt offering, meate offering, ‖ sacrifices, and drinke offerings, euery thing vpon his day, 40 And yee shall take you in the first day the fruits of goodly trees, branches of palme trees, and the boughes of thicke trees, and willowes of the brooke, and shall reioyce before the Lord your God seuen dayes.

41 And yee shall keepe this feast vnto the Lord seuen dayes ‖ in the yeere: It shall be a lawe for euer in your generations, that yee keepe it in the seuenth moneth.

44 And Moses declared vnto the children of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 The oyle for the lampes. 15 He that blasphemeth must be stoned. 17 He that killeth, shalbe killed.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commaund the children of Israel, that they bring vnto thee pure oyle Oliue, beaten for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually:

3 without the vaile of witnesse, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron dresse them, both euening and morning before the Lorde alwayes: Let it be a lawe for euer in your generations.

4 Ye shall dresse the lampes vpon the pure candlesticke before the Lord perpetually.

5 And thou shalt take fine flowre, & bake twelue cakes thereof, two tenth deales shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes: sixe on a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord.

7 And put pure frankincense vpon the rowes, ỹ they may be bread of remembrance, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

8 Euery Sabboth hee shall put them in rowes before the Lord euermore, of the children of Israel shall they be offered for an euerlasting couenant.

9 * And they shalbe Aarons & his sonnes, which shall eate them in the holy place: for they are most holy vnto him, of the offerings of the Lord made by fire, by a perpetuall statute.

Exo.29.32 mat.12.4.

10 And the sonne of an Israelitish wife, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this sonne of the Israelitish wife, and a man of Israel stroue together in the hoste.

11 And the Israelitish womans sonne blasphemed the name of the Lorde, and cursed, and they brought him vnto Moses: His mothers name was Selomith, which was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 And they put him in warde, that the minde of the Lord might be shewed them.

13 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

14 Bring the cursed speaker without the hoste, and let all that heard him, put their handes vpon his head, and let all the multitude stone him.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall beare his sinne.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him be slaine, and all the multitude shall stone him to death: whether hee be borne in the lande, or a stranger, when he blasphemeth the name of the Lorde, let him be slayne.

17 * And he that killeth any man, let him die the death.

The xxv. Chapter.

a The Sabboth of the seuenth yeere, 8 and the yeere of Iubilee.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, when I come into the lande which I giue you, the land shal rest and keepe
Exo.23.10. * Sabboth vnto the Lord:
3 Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy fielde, and sixe yeeres thou shalt cutte thy vineyard, and gather in the fruite thereof.
4 But the seuenth yeere shall be a Sabboth of rest vnto the land, the Lords Sabboth it shall be: thou shalt neither sowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyard.
5 That which groweth of the owne accord of thy haruest, thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left behinde: for it is a yeere of rest vnto the land.
6 And the rest of the land shall be meate for you, euen for thee, for thy seruant, and for thy maide, for thy hired seruant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:
7 And for thy cattell, and for the beastes that are in thy land, shall all the encrease thereof be meate.
8 And thou shalt number seuen Sabboths of yeeres vnto thee, euen seuen times seuen yeeres, and the space of the seuen Sabboths of yeeres, will bee vnto thee fourtie and nine yeeres.
9 And then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the [a] Iubilee in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth, euen in the day of atonement shall yee make the trumpet blowe throughout all your land.
10 And yee shall hallowe that yeere, euen the fiftie yeere, and proclaime libertie throughout all the land, vnto all the inhabiters thereof: for it shall bee a Iubilee vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, and euery man vnto his kinred againe.
11 A yeere of Iubilee shall that fiftieth yeere be vnto you. Ye shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes that are left.
12 For that yeere of Iubilee shall be holy vnto you: but yee shall eate of the encrease thereof out of the field.
13 In the yeere of this Iubilee ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession againe.
14 If thou sellest ought vnto thy neighbour, or byest ought of thy neighbours hand, ye shall not oppresse one another.
15 But according to the number of yeres after the Iubilee yeere, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour: and according vnto the number of yeeres of the fruites hee shall sell vnto thee.
16 According to the multitude of yeeres, hee shall encrease the price thereof, and according to the fewenesse of yeeres, he shall minish the price of it: for the [b] number of fruits doth he sell vnto thee.
17 Oppresse not yee therefore euery man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.
18 Wherefore, ye shall doe after mine ordinances, and keepe my lawes, and doe them, and ye shall dwell in the land in safetie.
19 And the land shall giue her fruite, and yee shall eate your fill, and dwell therein in safetie.
20 And if ye shall say, what shall we eate the seuenth yeere, for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase?
21 I will sende my blessing vpon you in the sixth yeere, and it shall bring foorth fruite for three yeeres.
22 And yee shall sowe the eight yeere, and eate yet of olde fruite vntill the ninth yeere: vntill her fruits come, ye shall eat of old store.
23 The lande shall not be solde to [c] waste: for the land is mine, and yee but strangers, and sojourners with me.
24 In all the land of your possession, ye shall [d] graunt a redemption for the land.
25 If thy brother bee waxen poore, and hath solde away of his possession, and if any of his kinne come to redeeme it, let him bye out that which his brother solde.
26 And if he haue no man to redeeme it, and his hand hath gotten & founde as much as may be sufficient to buy it out againe:
27 Then let him count howt long it hath bene solde, and deliuer the rest vnto the man to whome he solde it, that hee may returne to his possession againe.
28 But and if his hand can not get sufficient to restore to the other againe, then that which is solde, shall remaine in the hand of him that hath bought it, vntill the yeere of Iubilee: and in the Iubilee it shall come out, and he shal returne vnto his possession again.
29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled citie, hee may buy it out againe within a whole yeere after it is solde: within a yeere may he redeeme it.
30 But and if hee buy it not out againe within a It was so called, because the ioyfull tidings of liberte was publikely proclaimed by the sound of a trumpet.

b Simply he selleth vnto thee the profite which may rise of the ground all those yeeres, vntil the yeere of Iubile.

within the space of a full yere, then the house that is in the walled citie, shall be stablished, as translated to him that bought it, and his successors after him, and shall not goe out in the Jubilee.

31 But the houses of villages, which haue no walles round about them, are counted as the fielde of the countrey: and therefore they may be bought out againe, and shal goe out in the Jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme at all seasons.

33 And if a man purchase of the Leuites: the house that was sold, and the citie of their possession, shall goe out in the yeere of Jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites, are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fielde of the suburbes of their cities may not be solde, for it is their perpetuall possession.

35 If thy brother be waxen poore, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieue him as a stranger, or a sojourner, that he may liue with thee.

36 And thou shalt take no vsurie of him, or vantage: but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee.

37 Thou shalt not giue him thy money vpon vsurie, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to giue you the lande of Chanaan, and to bee your God.

39 If thy brother that dwelleth by thee, be waxen poore, and be solde vnto thee, thou shalt not compell him to serue as a bond seruant:

40 But as an hyred seruant, and as a sojourner he shall be with thee, and shall serue thee vnto the yeere of Jubilee.

41 And then shall hee depart from thee, both hee and his children with him, and shall returne vnto his owne kinred againe, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne.

42 For they are my seruants, which I brought out of the land of Egypt: and shall not therefore be solde as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bondseruant, and thy bondmaid, which thou shalt haue, shall be of the Heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye purchase seruants and maydes.

45 Moreouer, of the children of the strangers that are sojourners among you, of them shall yee buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your lande: these shalbe your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possesse them for an inheritance, they shall be your bondmen for euer, but ouer your brethren the children of Israel, yee shall not rule one ouer an other cruelly.

47 If a sojourner or stranger waxe rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him waxe poore, and sell himselfe vnto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stocke of the strangers kinne:

48 After that he is solde, he may be redeemed againe, one of his brethren may redeeme him:

49 Either his vncle or his vncles sonne may buye him out, or any that is nigh of kinne vnto him of his kinred, may redeeme him: either if his hand can get so much, hee may be bought out.

50 And hee shall reckon with him that bought him, from the yeere that hee was solde in, vnto the yeere of Jubilee, and the price of his ‡ buying, shall bee according vnto the number of yeeres, according to the time of an hyred seruant shall he be with him. ‡ Sale.

51 If there be yet many yeeres behinde, according vnto them, let him giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that hee was bought for.

52 If there remaine but fewe yeeres vnto the yeere of Jubilee, let him count with him againe, and according vnto his yeeres giue him againe for his redemption.

53 And he shall be with him yeere by yere as an hired seruant: and the other shall not rule cruelly ouer him in thy sight.

54 If he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the yeere of Jubilee, both he and his children with him.

55 For vnto me the children of Israel are seruants, they are my seruants which I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

The xxvj. Chapter.

3 They are blessed that keepe the commandements of God: 14 And cursed are they that keepe them not.

YE shall make you * no idoles nor grauen image, neither reare you vp a pillar, neither shall yee set vp any image of stone in your lande to bowe downe vnto it: for I am the Lorde your God. Exod. 20. deut. 5. 8. psal. 96. 7 7 And yee shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall beefore you vpon the swoord.

8 And fiue of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shal put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall beefore you vpon the swoord.

9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you encrease, and multiply you, and set vp my couenant with you.

10 And ye shal eate old store, and cary out olde, because of the newe.

11 And I will make my dwelling place amongst you, and my soule shall not lothe you.

2.Cor.6.16 12 * I wil walke among you, and will be your God, and ye shalbe my people.

13 I am the Lorde your God which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the chaines of your yoke, and made you goe vpright.

Deut.28.15 malac.2.2. 14 * But and if ye will not hearken vnto me, nor will not doe after these commaundements:

15 And if ye shal despise mine ordinances, eyther if your soule abhorre my lawes, so that ye will not do all my commaundements, but breake my couenant:

16 I also will doe this vnto you, I will bring vpon you fearefulnesse, consumption, and the burning ague, to consume your eyes, and gender sorowe of heart: and yee shall sowe your seede in vaine, for your enemies shall eate it.

17 And I wil set my face against you, and yee shall fall beefore your enemies: they that hate you shall reigne ouer you, and yee shall flee when no man followeth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, then will I punish you seuen times more for your sinnes:

19 And will breake ỹ pride of your power, and I will make your heauen as yron, and your earth as brasse, 20 And your labour shalbe spent in vaine, for your lande shall not giue her increase, neither shall the trees of the lande giue their fruites.

21 And if ye walke contrary vnto me, and wil not hearken vnto me, I wil bring seuen times moe plagues vpon you, according to your sinnes.

22 I will also send in wilde beastes vpon you, which shall robbe you of your children, and destroy your cattell, and make you fewe in number, and cause your high wayes to be desolate.

23 And if ye may not be reformed by these things, but shall walke contrary vnto me:

24 Then will I also walke contrary vnto you, and will punish you yet seuen times for your sinnes.

25 And I will send a swoorde vpon you, that shal auenge my couenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you, and yee shalbe deliuered into the hand of the enemie.

26 And * when I haue broken the [b] staffe of your bread, [c] tenne wiues shall bake your bread in one ouen, and they shall deliuer you your bread againe by waight: yee shall eate, and not be satisfied.

Ezec.4.16.

[b] He speaketh thus, because that man is sustained and strengthned by the bread that he eateth, like as a person is suffered by the staffe he leaneth vnto.

[c] The scarcitie shall be so great, that one little ouen shall serue for tenne households.

27 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, but walke against me:

28 I will walke contrary vnto you also in indignation, and will chastise you seuen times more for your sinnes.

29 And yee shall eate the flesh of your sonnes, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye deuoure.

30 I will destroy your high places, and cut away your images, and cast your carkeises vpon the bodies of your idoles, and my soule shall abhorre you.

31 And I will make your cities desolate, and bring your sanctuarie vnto nought, and will not smell the sauour of your sweete odours.

32 I will bring the lande vnto a wildernesse, and your enemies which dwel therein, shall wonder at it.

33 And I will strow you among the Heathen, and will drawe out a swoorde after you: and your land shall be waste, and your cities desolate.

34 Then shall the lande enioy her Sabbothes as long as it lyeth voyde, and ye shall be in your enemies land, euen then shall the land rest and enioy her Sabbothes.

35 As long as it lieth voide, it shall rest: because it did not rest in your Sabbothes when ye dwelt vpon it.

36 And vpon them that are left aliue of you, I wil send a faintnesse into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaking leafe shall chase them, and they shall flee, as fleeing from a swoorde: they shall fall, no man following vpon them.

37 They shall fall one vpon another, as it were beefore a swoord, no man following vpon them, and ye shal haue no power to stand beefore your enemies.

38 And yee shall perish among the Heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eate you vp.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their vnrighteousnesse in your enemies lands, and in the misdeedes of their fathers shall they consume with them.

40 And they shal confesse their misdeedes, and the misdeedes of their fathers, for their trespasse which they haue trespassed against mee, and for that also that they haue walked contrary vnto me.

41 Therefore I also will walke contrary vnto them, and wil bring them into the land of their enemies: and then at the least way their vncircumcised hearts shalbe tamed, and they

they shall willingly accept their d sinne.

42 Then I will remember my couenant with Jacob, and my couenant with Isaac, and my couenant with Abraham will I remember, and will thinke on the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enioy her Sabbothes while shee lieth waste without them: and they shall willingly accept their ‖ sinne, because they despised my lawes, and because their soule abhorred mine ordinances.

‖ Or, be punishment for their sinne.

44 And yet for all that, when they bee in the lande of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhorre them, to destroy them vtterly, and to breake my couenant with them: for I am the Lord their God.

e God thinketh on his mercie in the middest of his anger.

45 I will for their e sakes remember the couenant of olde, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt in the sight of the Heathen, that I might bee their God: I am the Lorde.

46 These are the ordinances, and iudgements, and lawes, which the Lord made betweene him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

The xxvij. Chapter.

1 Of diuers vowes, and redemption of the same. 31 All tithes are due to the Lord.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them, If any man wil make a singular vow of a person vnto the Lord, by thy estimation:

a As of his sonne or his daughter.

3 Then thy estimation shalbe thus: Of the male from twentie yeeres olde vnto sixtie, shalbe by thy estimation fiftie sicles of siluer, after the sicle of the sanctuarie:

4 And if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirtie sicles.

5 And from fiue yeres to twentie, thy valuation shall bee of the male twentie sicles, and of the female ten sicles.

b He speaketh of those vowes whereby their fathers dedicated their children to God, which were not of such force that they might be redeemed from them.

6 And from a b moneth vnto fiue yeeres, thy estimation shall bee of the male, at fiue sicles of siluer, and of the female, at three sicles of siluer.

7 And from sixtie yeeres olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price shalbe fifteene sicles, and for the female ten sicles.

8 But if he be poorer then thou hast esteemed him, he shall present himselfe before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him: according as the hand of him that vowed is able to get, euen so shall the Priest value him.

9 If it be a beast of which men bring an offering vnto the Lord, all that any man giueth of such vnto the Lord, shalbe holy.

10 Hee shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: And if he change beast for beast, then both the same beast, and it also where with it was changed, shall be c holy.

c That is, consecrate to the Lord.

11 If it be any maner of vncleane beast, of which men doe not offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, he shall set the beast before the Priest:

12 And the Priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as the Priest setteth it, so shall it be.

13 But if he wil buy it againe, he shal giue the fifth part more about that it was set at.

14 If any man dedicate his house to bee holy vnto the Lorde, the Priest shall set it, whether it be good or bad: and as the Priest hath set it, so shall it stand.

15 And when hee that sanctified it, will redeeme his house, let him giue the fifth part of the money that it was iudged at thereto, and it shalbe his.

16 If a man halow a piece of his inherited land vnto the Lord, thou shalt value it according to the seede thereof: An ‡ Homer of barley seede shalbe set at fiftie sicles of siluer.

‡ Corus, w an Hebru measure, conteineth thirtie of our cõmo bushels, e uery bush hauing in weight 1 pound, 8 ounces.

17 If he hallow his field immediatly from the yere of Jubilee, it shalbe worthy according as thou doest esteeme it.

18 But and if hee halowe his fielde after the Jubilee, the Priest shal recken vnto him the money, according to the number of the yeeres that remaine, vnto the yeeres of Jubilee following, and it shall be abated by thy estimation.

19 If he that consecrated the fielde, will redeeme it againe, let him put the fifth part of the price that thou diddest value it at thereunto, and it shall be his.

20 And if he will not redeeme the fielde, but selleth the fielde to another man, he that vowed may redeeme it no more:

21 But when the fielde goeth out in the yere of Jubilee, it shalbe holy vnto the Lord, as a field separate from common vses, and it shall be the Priests possession.

22 If a man sanctifie vnto the Lord a field which hee hath bought, and is not of the ground of his inheritance:

23 The Priest shal recken vnto him what it is worthy vnto the yeere of Jubilee, and he shall giue the price that it is set at the same day, as a thing consecrate vnto the Lord.

24 And in the yere of Jubilee the field shall returne vnto him of whome it was bought, to him whose inheritance of land it was.

25 And all thy valuation shalbe according to the sicle of the sanctuarie: One * sicle conteineth twentie Gerahs. Exo. 30. 1 num. 3. 47 eze. 45. 12

26 But the first borne of the beastes, that is the Lords first borne, may no man sanctifie, whether it be ore or sheepe, for it is the Lords already.

27 If it be an vncleane beast, he shall redeeme it as thou shalt set it at, & giue the fifth part more thereto: Or if it be not redeemed, it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 * Notwithstanding, nothing separate from the common vse, that a man doeth separate vnto the Lord, of all that he hath, whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance, may bee solde or redeemed: for euery thing separate from the common vse, is most holy vnto the Lord. Iof. 6. 19.

29 Nothing

29 Nothyng ſeparate from the common vſe, which ſhalbe ſeparate from man, ſhal be redeemed, but die the death.

30 Euery tithe of the land alſo, both of the ſeede of the land, and of the fruit of the trees, is the Lords, and is ſanctified vnto the Lord.

31 And if a man will redeeme ought of his tithes, let him adde the fifth part thereto.

32 And euery tithe of oxe and of ſheep, and of euery beaſt that goeth vnder the [d] rodde, euen euery tenth, ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord.

d That is, euery tenth as it riſeth by tale, whether it be male or female without acception or reſpect.

33 Hee ſhall not looke if it be good or bad, nor change it: els if he change it, both it and that it was changed withall, ſhall be halowed, and may not be redeemed.

34 Theſe are the commandements which the Lorde commaunded by Moſes, vnto the children of Iſrael in mount Sinai.

The ende of the third booke of Moſes, called Leuiticus.

This fourth booke of Moſes is called the booke of Numbers: becauſe in the beginning of it, Moſes and Aaron did number the children of Iſrael, and that by their tribes

5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Speake vnto the children of Israel, *When a man or woman shall commit any sinne that men commit, and trespasse against the Lorde: when that person shall trespasse,

7 Then they shall knowledge their sinne which they haue done: and let him restore againe the hurt that he hath done, with his principall, and put the fifth part of it more thereto, and giue it vnto him whome hee hath trespalled against.

8 But if the man haue no kinsman to restore the hurt vnto, let the trespasse be made good vnto the Lorde, & it shalbe the Priestes, beside the ramme of the atonement, whereby an atonement shalbe made for him.

9 And euery heaue offering that is made of the holy thinges of the children of Israel, which they bring vnto the Priest, shalbe his.

10 And euery mans halowed thing shall be his: whatsoeuer any man giueth the Priest, it shall be his.

11 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any mans wife goe aside, and trespasse against him,

13 So that another man lie with her fleshly, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and is kept close that she is defiled, and there is no witnesse against her, neither she taken with the maner,

14 And the spirite of iealousie commeth vpon him, so that he is iealous ouer his wife which is defiled: or if the spirite of iealousie come vpon him, so that he is iealous ouer his wife a There were three sorters of tentes among the Hebrues: The tent of the Lorde, that is, the tabernacle: the tent of the Leuites, & the tent of Israel. The lepers were excluded from them all: the impure by an issue, from the two first, & the defiled by the dead, only from the Tabernacle of the Congregation. Leuit. 6. 3.

wife which is yet vndefiled:

15 Then let the man bring his wife vnto the Prieſt, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an b Epha of barley meale: but let him put no oyle vpon it, nor put Frankincenſe thereon, for it is an offering of ieloufie, an offering for a remembrance, cauſing the ſinne to be thought vpõ.

16 And the Prieſt ſhall bring her, and ſet her before the Lord.

17 And the Prieſt ſhall take holy water in an earthen veſſell, and of the duſt that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, the Prieſt ſhall take it, and put it into the water:

18 And let the Prieſt ſet the woman before the Lorde, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offering of memoriall in her handes, which is the ieloufie offering: and the Prieſt ſhall haue bitter and curſed water in his hand.

19 And the Prieſt ſhall charge her by an othe, and ſay vnto the woman, If no man haue lyen with thee, neither haſt gone aſide to vncleanneſſe without thy huſbande, then haue thou no harme of this bitter and curſed waters.

20 But and if thou haſt gone aſide from thy huſbande, and art defiled, and ſome man hath lyen with thee beſide thine huſband:

21 (Then the Prieſt ſhall charge the woman with an othe of curſing, and the Prieſt ſhall ſay vnto the woman) The Lorde make thee accurſed and deteſtable for the othe among thy people, when the Lorde doeth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly ſwell.

22 Theſe curſed waters goe into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly ſwell, and thy thigh to rotte. And let the woman ſay, Amen, Amen.

23 And let the Prieſt write theſe curſes in a booke, and hee ſhall blot them out with the bitter waters:

24 And giue the woman thoſe bitter and curſed waters to drinke, that thoſe curſed and bitter waters may enter into her.

25 And then the Prieſt ſhall take the ieloufie offering out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bring it vnto the altar.

26 And the Prieſt ſhall take an handfull of the offering for a memoriall, & burne it vpon the altar, and then make the woman drinke the waters:

27 And when he hath made the woman drinke the waters, if ſhee be defiled and haue treſpaſſed againſt her huſbande, then ſhall the curſed and bitter waters goe into her, and her belly ſhall ſwell, and her thigh ſhall rotte: and the woman ſhalbe a curſe among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but is cleane, ſhe ſhall haue no harme, but ſhall conceiue and beare.

29 This is ꝑ law of ieloufie, when a wife goeth aſide from her huſband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the ſpirite of ieloufie commeth vpon a man, and he being ielous ouer his wife, doeth bring her before the Lorde, and the Prieſt ſhall doe to her according vnto all this lawe:

31 And the man ſhall be guiltleſſe, & this woman ſhall beare her ſinne.

2. The lawe of conſecration of the Nazarites. 24 How the Prieſts ſhall bleſſe the people.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, When either man or woman doeth ſeparate themſelues to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to ſeparate themſelues vnto the Lord:

a The Lorde hath left free this vowe to the diſcretion and will of perſons without limiting any certaine time for the obſeruation of it. The Hebrewe worde Nazir, whereof the worde of Nazarites commeth, ſignifieth ſeparate.

3 Hee ſhall ſeparate him ſelfe from wine and ſtrong drinke, and ſhall drinke no vineger of wine or of ſtrong drinke, nor ſhall drinke whatſoeuer is preſſed out of grapes, & ſhall eate no freſh grapes, neither yet dryed.

4 All long as his abſtinence endureth, ſhall he eate nothing that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huſke of the grape.

5 And as long as he voweth and is ſeparated, there ſhall no a rasor come vpon his head, vntill his dayes be out in the which he ſeparateth him ſelfe vnto the Lorde, he ſhall be holy, and ſhall let the lockes of his haire growe. Iudg. 13.5.

6 All long as he ſeparateth him ſelfe vnto the Lord, he ſhall come at no dead body.

7 He ſhall not make him ſelfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother, or ſiſter: becauſe that the conſecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his ſeparation he is holy vnto the Lord.

9 And if any man die ſuddenly before him or he bee ware, the head of his conſecration ſhall be defiled: and he ſhall haue his head the day of his cleanſing, the ſeuenth day ſhall he haue it.

10 And the eight day hee ſhall bring two turtles or two young pigeons to the Prieſt, before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 And the Prieſt ſhall offer the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering: and make an atonement for him as concerning that he ſinned by ꝑ dead, and ſhall halowe his head the ſame day.

12 And he ſhall conſecrate vnto the Lord the time of his ſeparation, and ſhall bring a lambe of a yeere olde for a treſpaſſe offering, but the dayes that were before are loſt, becauſe his conſecration was defiled.

13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite: when the time of his conſecration is out, he ſhall be brought vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

14 And hee ſhall bring his offering vnto the Lord, an hee lambe of a yere old without blemiſh, for a whole burnt offring, and a ſhee lambe of a yeere olde without blemish for a sinne offering, and a ramme without blemish also for peace offerings, 15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, cakes of fine flowre mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread anoynted with oyle, with their meate offerings, and drinke offerings.

16 And the Priest shall bring them before the Lord, and offer his sinne offering, and his whole burnt offering, 17 And shall prepare the ramme for a peace offering vnto the Lorde, with the basket of vnleauened bread: and the Priest shall make also his meate offering, and his drinke offering.

Acts 21.24. 18 *And the Nazarite shal shaue the head of his consecration, at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall take the haire of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire which is vnder the peace offering.

19 And the Priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the basket, and one vnleauened wafer also, and put them vpon the handes of the Nazarite, after hee hath shauen his consecration.

20 And the Priest shall waue them before the Lorde: and these holy things shall be the Priestes, with the waue breast, and the heaue shoulder: and then the Nazarite may drinke wine.

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which hath vowed his offering vnto the Lorde for his consecration, besides those things that his hande can get: according to the vowe which he vowed, so he must doe after the lawe of his consecration.

22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, saying, *On this wise ye shall bleſſe the children of Israel, and say vnto them,

Ecclu.36. 19.

24 The Lord bleſſe thee, and keepe thee:

25 The Lorde make his face shine vpon thee, and be mercifull vnto thee:

26 The Lorde lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

27 And they shall put my name vpon the children of Israel, and I will bleſſe them.

The viij. Chapter.

2 The order of the lampes. 4 The forme of the candleſticke. 6 The cleanſing and offering of the Leuites.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, and ſay vnto him, when thou ſetteſt vp the lampes, the ſeuen lampes ſhall giue light toward the forefront of the candleſticke.

3 And Aaron did ſo, & lighted the lampes thereof towarde the forefront of the candleſticke, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

4 And this was the worke of the candleſticke, euen of gold, beaten out with the hammer, both the ſhaft & the flowres thereof was beaten out with the hammer: according vnto the paterne which the Lorde had ſhewed Moſes, ſo he made the candleſticke.

5 And ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

6 Take the Leuites from among the childzen of Iſrael, and cleanſe them.

7 And thus ſhalt thou do vnto them, whē thou cleanſeſt them, Sprinkle a water of purifying vpon them, and let them ſhaue all their fleſh, & let them waſh their clothes, and ſo make themſelues cleane.

a In Hebrew it is called ſinne water, becauſe it is made to purge ſinne.

8 Then let thē take a yong bullocke with his meate offering, euen fine floure mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke ſhalt thou take for a ſinne offering.

9 And thou ſhalt bring the Leuites before the tabernacle of the congregation, thou ſhalt gather the whole multitude of the childzen of Iſrael together,

10 And bring the Leuites before ỹ Lord, & the childzen of Iſrael ſhall put their hands vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron ſhal waue the Leuites before the Lord for a waue offering of the childzen of Iſrael, that they may execute the miniſtration of the ſeruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites ſhall put their hands vpon the heads of the bullockes: and thou ſhalt offer the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering, vnto the Lord, that thou mayeſt make an atonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou ſhalt ſet the Leuites before Aaron and his ſonnes, and waue them for a waue offering vnto the Lord.

14 And thus thou ſhalt ſeparate the Leuites from among the childzē of Iſrael, and the Leuites ſhalbe mine.

15 After that ſhall the Leuites goe in, to doe the ſeruice of the Tabernacle of the congregation: and thou ſhalt cleanſe them, and waue them for a waue offering:

of all the children of Israel haue I taken them vnto me.

17 For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both man & beast: since the day that I smote euery first borne in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, 19 And haue giuen the Leuites as a gift to Aaron & his sonnes, from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, & to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, if the children of Israel come nigh vnto the sanctuarie.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord commanded Moses concerning the Leuites, so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 And the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes: And Aarō waued them as a waue offring before the Lord, and made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 After that, went the Leuites in, to doe their seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and his sonnes: as the Lorde had commaunded Moses concerning the Leuites, so did they vnto them.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth vnto the Leuites: From twentie and fiue yeeres olde, and vpward, they shall goe in to waite vpon the seruice of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

b The Leuites, after they were fiftie yeeres olde, were discharged of all painfull offices, as to beare burdens, and such like: and were after appointed to sing Psalmes, to instruct, to giue counsell, to admonish, and to keepe things in order

25 And from the age of b fiftie yeeres, they shall cease waiting vpon the seruice thereof, and shall serue no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the cōgregation, to keepe things committed to their charge: but shall doe no more seruice. Thus therfore shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites, touching their charge.

The ix. Chapter.

2 What time the cleane, & what time the vncleane ought to keepe the Passeouer. 15 The cloud couering the tabernacle, leadeth the Israelites thorow the wildernesse.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wildernesse of Sinai, in the first moneth of the seconde yeere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel celebrate the Passeouer, at the time appointed thereunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at Euen ye shall keepe it in his season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keepe it.

4 And Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, that they should celebrate the Passeouer.

5 And they kept the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth at Euen, in the wildernesse of Sinai: according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 And certaine men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Passeouer the same day, and they came before Moses and Aaron the same day,

7 And those men sayde vnto him, Wee are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lord in due season, among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lorde will command concerning you.

9 And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any man of you, or of your posteritie, shall bee vncleane by the reason of a coarse, or be in a way farre distant from you, and from your generations, hee shall keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord.

11 The fourteenth day of the second moneth at Euen let them keepe it, & eate it with vnleauened bread, and sowre herbes.

12 Let them leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: *But according to all the ordinance of the Passeouer let them keepe it. * Exo.12.46. Iohn.19.36.

13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to keepe the Passeouer, the same soule shall be cut off from his people, because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his due season: that man shall beare his sinne.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, and will keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord: according to the ordinance of the Passeouer, and maner therof, so shall he do. Ye shall haue one lawe both for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same land.

15 *And the same day that the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of the testimonie: and at Euen there was vpon the Tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, vntill the morning. * Exo.40.34.

16 So it was alway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then the children of Israel iourneyed, and in the place where the cloude abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the ‖ mouth of the Lord the children of Israel iourneyed, and at the mouth of the Lorde they pitched: and * as long as the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle, they lay still. ‖ Or, word. * 1.Cor.10.1.

19 And when the cloude taryed still vpon the Tabernacle long time, the children of Israel a kept the watch of the Lord, and iourneyed not.

a They watched diligently to obserue all those things which God had commanded to be kept by his seruant Moses.

20 And when the cloud abode a few dayes vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tents according to the commandement of the Lorde:

Lorde: and they iourneyed also at the commandement of the Lord.

21 And when the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle from Euen vnto the morning, and was taken vp in the morning, then they iourneyed: whether it was by daye or by night that the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.

22 Or if the cloude taryed two dayes, or a moneth, or a yeere vpon the Tabernacle, and remained thereon, the children of Israel remained still, and iourneyed not: and as soone as the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.

23 At the mouth of the Lorde they rested in the tentes, and at the commandement of the Lord they iourneyed, keeping the watch of the Lord at the commaundement of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

The x. Chapter.

2 The trumpets of siluer, and their vse. 30 Hobab refuseth to goe with Moses.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of siluer: of an whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou maiest vse them, to call the congregation together, and when the campe shall iourney.

3 And when they shal blow with them, al the multitude shall resort to thee, before the doore of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but one trumpet, then the princes which are heads ouer the thousands of Israel shall come vnto thee.

5 But if ye blowe an alarme, the hostes that lie on the East parts shall goe forward.

6 And if yee blowe the alarme the second time, the hoste that lyeth on the South side shall take their iourney, for they shall blow an alarme when they take their iourneys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, they shall blowe without an alarme.

8 And the sonnes of Aaron the Priestes shal blow with their trumpets, & ye shal haue them as a law for euer in your generations.

9 And if yee goe to warre in your land against your enemies that vexe you, yee shall blowe an alarme with the trumpets, and ye shalbe remembred before the Lord your God, to be saued from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladnesse, and in your feast dayes, & in the beginning of your moneths, yee shall blowe the trumpets ouer your whole burnt sacrifices, and peace offerings, that they may bee a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lorde your God.

11 And it came to passe the twentieth day of the second moneth, in the second yere, that the cloude was taken vp from off the Tabernacle of the testimonie.

12 And the children of Israel tooke their iourney out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wildernesse of Pharan.

13 And they first tooke their iourney at the mouth of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

14 In the first place went the standerd of the hoste of the children of Iuda, according to their armies, whose captaine was Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab.

15 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Issachar, was Nathanael the sonne of Zuar.

16 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Zabulon, was Eliab the sonne of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken downe, and the sonnes of Gerson and Merari went forth, bearing the Tabernacle.

18 And the hoste of Ruben went forth with their standerd and armies, whose captaine was Elizur the sonne of Sedeur.

19 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Simeon, was Salamiel the sonne of Surisaddai.

20 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Gad, was Eliasaph the sonne of Duel.

21 The Caathites also went forward, and bare the Sanctuarie, and the other did set vp the Tabernacle against they came.

22 And the standerd of the host of the children of Ephraim went forth according to their armies, whose captaine was Elisama the sonne of Ammiud.

23 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasse, was Gamaliel the sonne of Padazur.

24 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the sonnes of Beniamin, was Abidan the sonne of Gedeon.

25 And the standerd of the hoste of the children of Dan came forth (gathering all the hoste together) throughout their armies, whose captaine was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammisaddai.

26 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Aser, was Pagiel the sonne of Ochran.

27 And ouer the hoste of the tribe of the children of Nephthali, was Ahira the sonne of Enan.

28 These are the iourneys of the children of Israel throughout their armies, and thus the hostes remoued.

29 And Moses said vnto Hobab the sonne of Raguel the Madianite, which was Moses ‖ father in lawe: we goe vnto the place, of which the Lord sayde, I will giue it you. Come thou therefore with vs, and wee will do thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israel. ‖ Or, kinsman.

30 And he answered him, I will not goe, but will depart to mine owne land, and to my kinred.

31 He said, Oh nay, leaue vs not (for thou knowest our mansions in the wildernes, and thou mayest be to vs in stead of ‖ eyes.) ‖ Or, aguide

32 And if thou goest with vs, loake, what goodnes goodnesse the Lorde sheweth vnto vs, the same will we shew vnto thee.

33 And they departed from the mount of the Lorde three dayes iourney, and the arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to searche out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloude of the Lorde was vpon them by day, when they went out of ỹ campe.

35 And when the arke went forth, Moses sayd, * Rise vp Lorde, & let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee. Psal.67.1.

36 And when the arke rested, he said, Returne, O Lorde, vnto the many thousandes of Israel.

The xj. Chapter.

1 The people murmureth. 4 They desire flesh. 6 They lothe Manna. 31 It raineth quailes. 33 The flesh raueners are punished.

AND when the people ‖ did impatiently, it was a displeasure in the eares of the Lorde: And when the Lorde heard it, his countenance was prouoked to wrath, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed them that were the vttermost of the hoste. ‖ Or, murmured.

2 And the people cried vnto Moses: and when Moses made intercession vnto the Lord, the fire quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the Lorde burnt among them.

4 And a number of people that was among * them, fell a lusting, and turned them selues, and wept (as did also the children of Israel) and said, * who shall giue vs flesh to eate? * Which were of those straungers that came out of Egypt with them. 1.Chr.10.6

5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt freely, and the cucumbers, and melons, leekes, onions, and garlike.

6 But now our soule is dried away: for we can see nothing els but * Manna.

7 And * Manna was as coriander seede, and to see to like [b] Bedellion. Exo.12.38. Exo.16.14. b Some call heth it a white precious stone, and some a Indian pearle.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it it, and ground it in milles, or beat it in mortars, and baked it in pannes, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of a fresh oyle cake.

9 And when the deawe fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, Manna fell ‖ vpon it. ‖ Or, with it.

10 And when Moses heard the people weepe throughout their householdes, euerie man in the doore of his tent, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled exceedingly, and it grieued Moses also.

11 And Moses said vnto the Lord, wherefore hast thou troubled thy seruaunt? And wherefore haue I not founde fauour in thy sight, seeing that thou puttest the waight of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceiued all this people, or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Carry them in thy bosome as a nurse beareth the sucking child, vnto ỹ lande which thou sweareſt vnto their fathers?

13 Where should I haue flesh to giue vnto al this people which weepe before me, saying, Giue vs flesh, that we may eate?

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, seeing it is too heauie for me.

15 If thou deale thus with me, kil me, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, that I see not my wretchednes.

16 And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Gather vnto me threescore and ten men, of the elders of Israel, which thou knowest that they are the elders of the people and officers ouer them: and thou shalt bring them vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I wil come downe and talk with thee there, and [c] take of the spirite which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shal beare the burde of the people with thee, least thou be constrained to beare it alone. c That is, I will distribute my spirite as among them as I haue done to thee. Exod.18.

18 And say thou vnto the people, Be hallowed against to morow, & ye shall eate flesh: for your whining is in the eares of the Lord, seeing ye said, who shal giue vs flesh to eate? we were well in Egypt: therefore the Lorde will giue you flesh, and ye shal eate.

19 Ye shall not eate one day, nor two, nor fiue dayes, neither ten, nor twenty dayes:

20 But a whole moneth, vntill it come out at the nostrels of you, and it shalbe lothesome vnto you, because that ye haue cast the Lorde aside which is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we thus out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, Sixe hundred thousand footemen are there of the people among which I am, and thou hast said, I will giue them flesh, that they may eate a whole moneth.

22 * Shall the sheepe & the oxen be slaine for them to find them? either shall all the fishe of the sea be gathered together for them, to sufficie them? Iohn 6.7.

23 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, * Is the Lords hand waxed short? Thou shalt see now whether my worde shall come to passe vnto thee, or not. Esa.59.1.

24 And Moses went out, & tolde the people the saying of the Lorde, and gathered the threescore and ten Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.

25 And the Lord came downe in a cloud, and spake vnto him, and tooke of the spirite that was vpon, and gaue it vnto the threescore and ten Elders: And when the spirite rested vpon them, [d] they prophesied, and did not cease. d The Hebrewes do expound this word prophecie, to sing, plaimes, and giue glaries.

26 But there remained two of the men in the hoste, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested vpon them (& they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophesied in the hoste.

27 And there ranne a yong man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad doe prophesie in the hoste.

28 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses, one of his yong men, answered, and said, My Lord Moses, forbid them.

29 And Moses saide vnto him, Enuiest thou for my sake? Woulde God that all the Lordes people coulde prophesie, and that the Lord would put his spirite vpon them.

30 And Moses gate him into the host, he, and the Elders of Israel.

Exo.16.13 psal.77.26. 31 And there went foorth a * winde from the Lord, and brought quailes from the sea, and let them fall about the host, euen a daies iourney round about on euery side of ꝯ hoste, and they did flie in the aire as it were two cubites high ouer the earth.

32 And the people stoode vp all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered quailes: And hee that gathered little, gathered ten Homers full: and they spread them abroade for their vse rounde about the hoste.

Psal.7.17. 33 And while the * flesh was yet betwene their teeth, ere it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 And hee called the name of the place, * The graues of lust: because they buried the people that lusted there.

Num.33.17. 35 And the people tooke their iourney from the graues of lust, vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

The xij. Chapter.

1 Aaron and Marie grudge against Moses. 10 Marie is stricken with leprosie, & healed at the praier of Moses.

‖ Or, Miriam. AND ‖ Marie and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia which hee had taken: for he had taken a to wife one of Ethiopia.

a Zippora was a Madianite, and because Madian bordered on Ethiopia, it is sometime in the scripture comprehended vnder this name.

2 And they said, Hath the Lord in deede spoken onely through Moses? Hath he not spoken also by vs? And the Lord heard it.

3 (But Moses was a very meeke man, aboue all the men of the earth.)

4 And the Lorde spake at once vnto Moses, vnto Aaron, and to Marie, Come out ye three vnto the Tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out all three.

5 And the Lord came downe in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the doore of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron and Marie: and they went out both of them.

6 And he said, Heare my wordes: If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I will be knowen of him in a vision, and will speak vnto him in a dreame.

Heb.3.2. 7 My * seruaunt Moses is not so, which is faithfull in all mine house.

8 Vnto him will I speak mouth to mouth in a vision, not in darke speeches and similitudes of the Lorde shall hee see: Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speake against my seruant Moses?

9 And the Lord was moued vnto wrath against them, and he went his way.

10 And the cloud departed from the Tabernacle, and behold, Marie was become leprous as it were snow: And Aaron looked vpon Marie, and behold she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Alas my lord, I beseeche thee, put not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed and sinned.

12 Oh, let her not be as one dead, of whō the flesh is half consumed when he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 And Moses cryed vnto the Lord, saying, Heale her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 And the Lord said vnto Moses, If her father had b spit in her face, should she not bee ashamed seuen dayes? Let her be shut out of the hoste seuen daies, and after that let her be receiued in againe.

b If her father vpon displeasure should spit in her face, she may not presume to come into his presence by the space of seuen dayes: how much more shal she not presume to come vnto me?

15 And Marie was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes: and the people remoued not till Marie was brought in againe.

16 And afterwarde the people remooued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wildernes of Pharan.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Certaine men are sent to search the lande of Chanaan. 24 They bring of the fruite of the land.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Send men out to searche the land of Chanaan, which I giue vnto ꝯ childzen of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shall ye sende a man, and let them all bee such as are rulers among them.

3 And Moses at the commaundement of the Lorde, * sent foorth out of the wildernes of Pharan, such men as were all heades of the childzen of Israel. Deu.1.23.

4 Their names are these. Of the tribe of Ruben, Sammua the sonne of Zacur.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Osea the sonne of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zabulon, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Ioseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasse, Gaddi the sonne of Susi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Amiel the sonne of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Aser, Sethur the sonne of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Nephthali, Nahabi the sonne of Vaphsi.

15 Of 15 Of the tribe of Gad, Guel the ſonne of Wacht.

16 Theſe are the names of the men which Moſes ſent to ſpie out the land: And Moſes called the name of Oſea the ſonne of Nun, Joſuah.

17 And Moſes ſent them forth to ſpye out the land of Chanaan, & ſaide vnto them, Get you vp this way Southwarde, that yee may goe vp into the high countrey,

18 And ſee the land what maner thing it is, & the people y dwelleth therein, whether they be ſtrong or weake, either few or many:

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad, and what maner of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tents, or walled townes:

20 And what maner of land that is, whether it be fat or leane, and whether there bee trees therin, or not. Be of good courage, and bring of the fruite of the lande: And it was about the time that grapes are firſt ripe.

21 And ſo they went vp, and ſearched out the land, from the wilderneſſe of Zin, vnto Rehob, as men come to Hemath.

22 And they aſcended vnto the South, and came vnto Hebrō, where Ahiman was, and Seſai, and Thalmai, the ſonnes of Anac. Hebron was built ſeuen yeeres before Zoan in Egypt.

Deut.1.24. 23 *And they came vnto the riuer of Eſcol, and cut downe there a branche with one cluſter of grapes, and twayne bare it vpon a ſtaffe: and they brought alſo of the pomegranates, and of the figges.

24 And the place was called the riuer Eſcol, becauſe of the cluſter of grapes which the children of Iſrael cut downe thence.

25 And they turned backe againe from ſearching of the land after fourty dayes.

26 And they went, & came to Moſes and Aaron, and vnto al the multitude of the children of Iſrael in the wilderneſſe of Pharan, to Cades, and brought them worde, and alſo vnto all the congregation, and ſhewed them the fruite of the land.

27 And they told him, and ſaid, We came vnto the lande whither thou ſenteſt vs, and ſurely it floweth with milke and honie, and here is of the fruit of it.

28 Neuertheles, the people be ſtrong that dwell in the lande, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreouer, we ſaw the children of Anac there.

29 The Amalechites dwel in the South countrey: and the Hethites, and the Jebuſites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaines: and the Chanaanites dwel by the ſea, and by the coaſt of Jordane.

30 And Caleb ſtilled the people before Moſes, ſaying, Let vs go vp at once, and poſſeſſe it, for we be able to ouercome it.

31 But the men that went vp with him, ſaid, We be not able to go vp againſt the people, for they are ſtronger then we.

32 And they brought vp an euill report of the land, which they had ſearched, ſaying vnto the children of Iſrael, The land which we haue gone thorow to ſearch it out, is a land that [a] eateth vp the inhabitours thereof, and the people that wee ſawe in it, are men of a great ſtature.

a The Giants were ſo cruell, that they ſpoiled and killed one another, and thoſe that came vnto them.

33 And there wee ſawe alſo Giants, the children of Anac, which come of the Giants: and we ſeemed in our ſight as it were Graſhoppers, and ſo we did in their ſight.

The xiiij. Chapter.

2 The people murmure againſt Moſes and Aaron. 10 They would haue ſtoned Caleb and Joſuah.

AND all the multitude of the people cried out, and wept thorowout that night.

2 And all the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and Aaron: and the whole congregation ſaid vnto them, Would God that wee had dyed in the lande of Egypt, either that we had died in this wilderneſſe.

3 Wherefore hath the Lorde brought vs vnto this land to fall vpon the ſworde, & that our wiues and our children ſhould be a pray? were it not better that wee returne vnto Egypt againe?

4 And they ſayde one to another, Let vs make a captaine, and returne vnto Egypt againe.

5 Then Moſes and Aaron [a] fell on their faces, before all the aſſemblie of the congregation of the children of Iſrael.

a Lamenting the people, and praying for them.

6 *And Joſuah the ſonne of Nun, & Caleb the ſonne of Jephune which were of them that ſearched the land, rent their clothes: Eccl.46.9 1.mac.2.56

7 And ſpake vnto all the companie of the children of Iſrael, ſaying, The lande which we walked thorow to ſearch it, is a very good land.

8 If the Lorde haue a loue to vs, hee will bring vs into this land, & giue it vs, which is ſuch a land as floweth with milke & honie.

9 But in any wiſe rebell not yee againſt the Lord, neither feare the people of the land, for they are but [b] bread for vs: Their ſhield is departed from them, and the Lorde is with vs: feare them not therefore.

b We ſhall eaſily ouercome them.

10 But all the congregation bade ſtone them with ſtones: and the glory of the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before all the children of Iſrael.

11 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, How long doe this people prouoke me, & how long will it be yer they beleue me, for al the ſignes which I haue ſhewed among them?

12 I will ſmite them with the peſtilence, and deſtroy them, & will make of thee a greater nation, and mightier then they.

13 And *Moſes ſaid vnto the Lord, Then the Egyptians ſhal heare it (for thou broughteſt this people in thy might from among them.) Exo.32.12.

14 And it will bee tolde to the inhabiters of this lande alſo: for they haue heard likewise, that thou Lorde art among this people, and that thou Lord art seene face to face, Exo.13.21. and that thy * cloud standeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them by day time in a pillar of a cloude, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 If thou shalt kil al this people, as they were but one man, then the nations which haue heard the fame of thee, will say,
Deut.9.28 16 *Because the Lord is not able to bring in this people into the lande which he sware vnto them, therefore hee hath slaine them in the wildernesse.

17 And nowe, I beseeche thee, let the power of my Lord bee great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,
Psal.102.8 18 * The Lorde is long yer he be angrie, and of great mercy, and forgiueth iniquitie ‖ Or, doeth pardon, and doeth not pardon. and sinne, and ‖ leaueth no man innocent, * and visiteth the vnrighteousnesse of the fathers vpon the children in the third & fourth generation.
Exo.34.7.

19 Be mercifull, I beseech thee, vnto the sinne of this people, according vnto thy great mercy, as thou hast forgiuē this people from Egypt, euen vntill now.

20 And the Lord said, I haue forgiuen it, according to thy request.

21 But as truely as I liue, all the earth shalbe filled with the glory of the Lord.

22 But all those men which haue seene my glory, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wildernesse, & haue tempted me now this ten times, & haue not harkened vnto my voyce, 23 Shall not see the land which I sware vnto their fathers, neither shall any of them that prouoked me, see it.

Ios.14.6. 24 But my * seruaunt Caleb, because hee had an other maner of spirit (and because he hath followed me vnto the vtmost) him will I bring into the land which he hath walked in, and his seede shal inherite it.

25 And also the Amalechites, and Chanaanites remaine in the valley: To morowe turne you, and get you into the wildernesse, by the way of the red sea.

26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,
Psa.105.26 27 * How long doth this euill multitude murmure against mee? I haue heard ỹ murmuringes of the children of Israel, with the which they murmure against me.

28 Tell them therefore, As truely as I liue, saith the Lord, I will do vnto you as ye haue spoken in mine eares:

29 Your carkeises shall fall in the wildernesse, and all you that were told throughout your numbers, from twenty yeeres & aboue, which haue murmured against me,

30 Shall not come into the lande, ouer which I lifted vp mine hande to make you dwell therein, saue Caleb the sonne of Iephune, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun.

31 But your childrē which ye said should be a pray, them will I bring in, and they shal know the land which ye haue refused.

32 And your carkeises shal fal in this wildernesse.

33 And your children shall wander in the wildernes fourty yeeres, and suffer for your c whoredome, vntill your carkeises bee wasted in the wildernesse.
c That is, their infidelity & disobedience against God.

34 After the number of the daies in which yee searched out the land, euen fourtie dayes (euery day for a yeere) shall ye beare your vnrighteousnesse, euen * fourtie yeeres, and yee shall know d my breach of promise.
Ezec.4.6.
d You shal vnderstand whether my promise be true or no.

35 I the Lord haue said that I wil doe it vnto all this euil congregation, that are gathered together against me: For in this wildernes they shalbe consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men which Moses sent to search the land, and which (when they came againe) made all the people to murmure against him, and brought vp a slaunder vpon the land:

37 Euen those men that did bring vp that slaunder vpon it, as though it had bene euil,
* dyed in a great plague before the Lord.
1.Cor.10. 10.

38 But Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephune, which were of the men ỹ went to search the land, liued still.

39 And Moses tolde these sayinges vnto al the children of Israel, and the people tooke great sorow.

40 *And they rose vp early in the morning, and gate them vp into the top of the mountaine, saying, Loe, we be here, and wil go vp vnto the place of which the Lorde saide: e For we haue sinned.
Deut.1.41.
e They confesse they sinned by rebelling against God, but consider not their offending in going vp without Gods commandement.

41 And Moses said, wherefore transgresse yee thus the worde of the Lorde? it will not come wel to passe.

42 Goe not vp therefore, for the Lorde is not among you, that yee be not slaine before your enemies.

43 For the Amalechites and the Chanaanites f are there before you, & ye will fall vpon the sworde, because yee are turned away from the Lord, and the Lord wil not be with you.
f Be ready to come against you.

44 But they presumed obstinately to goe vp into the hill top: Neuertheless, the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and Moses, departed not out of the hoste.

45 Then the Amalechites & the Chanaanites which dwelt in that hill, came downe, & smote them, & consumed them vnto Horma

The xv. Chapter.

2 What maner of offeringes the Israelites shoulde offer when they enter into the land of promise. 36 The man stoned.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into ỹ lande of your habitations, which I giue vnto you:

3 And will make an offering by fire vnto ỹ Lord, namely, a whole burnt offring, or a saa sacrifice to fulfill a vowe, or a free offering, or in your principall feasts, to make a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde of the heard, or of the flocke:

4 Then let him that offereth his offering vnto the Lord, bring also a meate offring of a tenth deale of floure, mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of oyle.

5 And the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drinke offering shalt thou prepare, with the whole burnt offering, or any other offering, for one Lambe.

6 Or if it be a ramme, thou shalt prepare for a meate offering two tenth deales of floure, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oyle.

7 And for a drinke offring, thou shalt offer the third part of an Hin of wine, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

8 And when thou preparest a bullocke for a whole burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to fulfill a vowe or peace offering vnto the Lord:

9 Let him bring with a bullocke a meate offering of three tenth deales of floure, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drinke offering halfe an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto ℈ Lord.

11 After this maner shall it be done for a bullocke, or for a ramme, or for a lambe, or a kidde, 12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye doe to euery one according to their number.

13 All that are borne of the countrey, shal doe these things after this maner, to offer an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.

14 And if a stranger soiourne with you, or whosoeuer be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord: as ye do, so he shall doe.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that dwelleth with you: It shall bee an ordinance for euer in your generations: as yee are, so shall the stranger be before the Lorde.

16 One lawe, and one maner shall serue both for you, and for the stranger that soiourneth with you.

17 And ℈ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, when yee bee come into the land to the which I bring you, 19 Then when yee will eate of the bread of the lande, yee shall offer vp an heaue offering vnto the Lord.

20 Yee shall offer vp a cake of the first of your dough for an heaue offring: as ye do the heaue offering of ℈ barne, so ye shal heaue it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall giue vnto the Lorde an heaue offring in your generations.

22 And if ye haue erred, and obserue not all these commandements which the Lorde hath spoken vnto Moses,

23 Euen all that the Lord hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the first day that the Lord commanded Moses, and henceforward, among your generations:

24 If ought be committed ignorantly of the congregation, al the multitude shall offer a bullocke for a whole burnt offring to bee a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, with the meat offring and drinke offring thereto, according to the maner, and an hee goate for a sinne offering.

25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all the multitude of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiuen them, for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offring, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, and their sinne offering before the Lord for their ignorance.

26 And it shall bee forgiuen vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among you, seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 If any soule sinne through ignorance, he shall bring a shee goate of a yeere olde for a sinne offering.

28 And the Priest shall make an atonement for the soule that sinneth ignorantly, when hee sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to reconcile him, and that it may bee forgiuen him.

29 And both thou that art borne of the children of Israel, & the stranger that dwelleth among you, shall haue one law, who so doeth sinne through ignorance.

30 But the soule that doeth ought [a] presumptuously, whether hee bee borne in the land, or a stranger, the same blaspheneth the Lorde: and that soule shall be cut off from among his people.

a The Hebrue, by an high hand, that is, boldly, arrogantly, & contemptuously.

31 Because he hath despised the worde of the Lord, and hath broken his commandement, that soule therefore shall be vtterly cut off, and his [b] sinne shall be vpon him.

b That is, he shall suffer for his iniquitie.

32 And whyle the children of Israel were in ℈ wildernesse, they found a man that gathered sticks vpon the Sabboth day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him vnto Moses & Aaron, and vnto all the congregation.

34 And they put him in warde, seeing it was not declared what shoulde bee done to him.

35 And the Lord saide vnto Moses, Let the man die, and let all the multitude stone him with stones without the hoste.

36 And all the multitude brought him without the hoste, & stoned him with stones, and he died as the Lord commanded Moses.

37 And ℈ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

38 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and bid * them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and put vpon the fringe of the borders a ribande of blewe silke.

Deu. 22. 12.

39 And the fringe shall bee vnto you to looke vpon, that yee may remember all the commandements of the Lord, and doe them:
and that ye seeke not after your owne heart, or your owne eyes, after the which yee vse to goe a whoring.

40 But yee shall remember rather, and doe all my commaundements, and bee holy vnto your God.

41 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, for to be your God: I am the Lord your God.

The xvi. Chapter.

30 The rebellion of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, whom the earth swalowed vp quicke.

AND Corah the sonne of Isaar, the sonne of Caath, the sonne of Leui, went apart with Da-than and * Abiram the sonnes Eccl.45.21. of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, the sonne of Ruben:

2 And they rose vp before Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie, which were captaines of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of great renowme.

3 And they gathered themselues together against Moses and Aaron, and saide vnto them, Ye take too much vpon you, seeing a all a All are alike holy, therefore none ought to be preferred aboue other: thus the wicked, as Anabaptists and such like, reason against Gods ordinance.
the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lord is among them: why lift you your selues vp aboue the congregation of the Lorde?

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell vpon
his face,

5 And spake vnto Corah, and vnto all his companie, saying, To morowe the Lord will shewe who are his, who b is holy, and who b Who is the high Priest, that he may cause him to come vnto him.
ought to approch nigh vnto him: and whom hee hath chosen, he will cause to come neere vnto him.

6 This do therfore: Take you ‖ firepannes,
Or, censers.
both Corah and all his companie,

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lorde to morowe: And the man whom the Lord doeth choose, the same shall be holy: Ye take too much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui.

8 And Moses said vnto Corah, Heare, I pray you ye sonnes of Leui.

9 Seemeth it but a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, and brought you to himselfe, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the Lorde, and to stande before the multitude, and to minister vnto them?

10 He hath taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee: and seeke ye the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy companie are gathered together against the Lord: And what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?

12 And Moses sent, and called Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: which said,
We will not come vp.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of the land that floweth with milke and honie, to kill vs in the wilderness:
except thou make thy selfe lorde and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Moreouer, thou hast not brought vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and honoe, neither given vs inheritance of fieldes and vineyards: wilt thou c put out the eyes of these men? We will not come vp.
c Wilt thou make them that searched the land beleeue that they saw not that which they saw?

15 And Moses wared very angry, and said vnto the Lorde, Turne not thou vnto their offering: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said vnto Corah, Be thou and all thy company before the Lorde, both thou, they, and Aaron, to morowe.

17 And take euery man his censer, & put incense in them, & bring ye before the Lorde euery man his censer, two hundred and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.

18 And they tooke euery men his censer, and put fire in them, and laide incense thereon, and stoode in the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Corah gathered al the congregation against them, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the Lord appeared vnto all the cõgregation.

20 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

21 Separate your selues from among this congregation, that I may consume the at once.

22 And they fel vpon their faces, and said,
O God, the God of spirites of all flesh, hath not one man sinned? wilt thou bee wroth with all the multitude?

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the congregation, and say, Get you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake vnto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tentes of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, least ye perish in their sinnes.

27 And so they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stoode in the doore of their tents, with their wiues, their sonnes, and their litle children.

28 And Moses sayd, Hereby ye shal know that the Lorde hath sent me to doe all these workes: for I haue not done them of mine owne minde.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of al men, then the Lord hath not sent me:

30 But

d That is, if the Lord do a thing not ſeene before.

30 But and if the Lorde make a d newe thing, and the earth open her mouth, and ſwallow them vp, with all that they haue, and they goe downe quicke into the pit: then ye ſhall vnderſtand that theſe men haue prouoked the Lorde.

Deut. 11. 6. nom. 27. 3. pſal. 105. 17

31 And aſ ſoone as he had made an end of ſpeaking all theſe wordes, the ground clouē aſunder that was vnder them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and ſwalowed them vp, and their houſes, and all the men that were with Corah, and all their goods.

33 And they, and all that they had, went downe aliue into the pitte, and the earth cloſed vpon them: & they periſhed from among the congregation.

34 And all Iſrael that were about them, fledde at the crie of them: and they ſaid, Leſt the earth ſwalow vs vp alſo.

35 And there came out a fire from the Lorde, and conſumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offred incenſe.

36 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the ſonne of Aaron the Prieſt, that hee take vp the cenſers out of the burning, and ſcatter the fire heere and there, for they are halowed.

e That haue beſtrayed them ſelues by their owne ſinnes, being the cauſes of their owne deſtruction.

38 The cenſers of theſe ſinners e againſt their owne ſoules: let them make of them broade plates for a couering of the altar: for they offred them before the Lord, and therefore they are halowed, and they ſhalbe a ſigne vnto the children of Iſrael.

f To be a remembrance vnto the children of Iſrael, of gods mighty hand againſt rebellion.

39 And Eleazar the Prieſt tooke the braſen cenſers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made broade plates, for a couering of the altar, 40 To be a remembrance vnto the children of Iſrael, that no ſtranger, which is not of the ſeede of Aaron, come neere to offer incenſe before the Lorde, that he be not like vnto Corah and his companie, as the Lord ſaid to him by the hand of Moſes.

41 But on the morowe, all the multitude of the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and Aaron, ſaying, Yee haue killed the people of the Lord.

42 And when the multitude was gathered againſt Moſes and Aaron, they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and behold, the cloud couered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared.

43 And Moſes and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

45 Get you from among this congregation, that I may conſume them quickly. And they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moſes ſaid vnto Aaron, Take a cenſer, and put fire therein out of the altar, and powre on incenſe, and goe quickly vnto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord, and there is a plague begun.

47 And Aaron tooke as Moſes commanded him, and ran into the middes of the congregation: and behold, the plague was begun among the people, & he put on incenſe, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And when he ſtood betweene the dead, and them that were aliue, the plague was ſtayed.

49 They that died in the plague, were fourteene thouſand & ſeuen hundred, beſide them that died about the conſpiracie of Corah.

50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moſes before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was ſtayed.

The xvij. Chapter.

Aarons rod buddeth, and beareth bloſſomes, whereby his Prieſthoode is confirmed againſt the rebellious people.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and take of euery one of them a rodde, after the houſes of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue rods: and write euery mans name vpon his rod.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rod ſhall be for the head of the houſe of their fathers.

4 And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation before the arke of the teſtimonie, where I will declare my ſelfe vnto you.

5 And the mans rod whom I chooſe, ſhal bloſſome: and I will make ceaſe from me the grudgings of the children of Iſrael, whereby they grudge againſt you.

6 And Moſes ſpake vnto the children of Iſrael, and all the princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euery prince according to their fathers houſes, euen twelue rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moſes put the rods before the Lord in the tabernacle of witneſſe.

8 And on the morowe Moſes went into the tabernacle of witneſſe, and behold, the rod of Aaron for the houſe of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, bare bloſſomes, and ripe almonds.

9 And Moſes brought out all the rodes from before the Lord, vnto all the children of Iſrael: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rod.

10 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, * Bring Aarons rod againe before the witneſſe, to be kept for a token to the rebellious children, & that their murmuring may ceaſe from mee, and that they dye not. Heb. 9. 4 11 And Moſes did as the Lord commanded him, ſo did he.

12 And the children of Iſrael ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, Behold, wee are waſted away, and periſhed, we all come to nought.

13 Whoſoeuer commeth nigh, or appro-cheth to the tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: Shall we vtterly consume away and die?

The xviij. Chapter.

1 The office of the Leuites. 8 The riches and first fruits must be giuen them. 20 Aarons heritage.

AND the Lorde sayd vnto Aaron, Thou and thy sonnes, and thy fathers house with thee, shall beare the iniquitie of ỹ Sanctuarie: and thou & thy sonnes with thee shall beare the iniquitie of your Priests office.

a That is, if ye trespasse in any thing concerning the ceremonies of the Sanctuarie or your office, ye shall be punished.

2 And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, and of thy fathers household, thou shalt bring with thee, that they may bee ioyned vnto thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witnesse.

3 They shall keepe thy charge, the charge of all the tabernacle: onely let them not come nigh the vessels of the Sanctuarie and the altar, that they and ye also die not.

4 And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and keepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the seruice of the tabernacle: and let no stranger come nigh vnto you.

5 Therefore shall yee keepe the charge of the Sanctuarie, and the charge of the altar, that there fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

6 Beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, which as a gift of yours are giuen vnto the Lord, to doe the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore shalt thou and thy sonnes with thee, keepe your Priestes office for all things that pertaine vnto the altar, & within the vaile: and ye shall serue, for I haue giuen your Priestes office vnto you as a gift, and therefore the stranger that commeth nigh, must be slaine.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, Behold, I haue giuen thee the keeping of mine heaue offerings, of all the halowed things of the children of Israel, euen vnto thee I haue giuen them for the anoynting, and to thy sonnes for an ordinance for euer.

9 This shall bee thine, of the most holy things reserued from the fire of the altar: all their sacrifices for all their meate offerings, sinne offerings, or trespasse offerings, which they bring vnto me, that shall bee most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it, and all that are males shall eate of it: let it be holy vnto thee.

11 And this also is thine: the heaue offerings of their gifts, throughout all the waue offrings of the children of Israel: I haue giuen them vnto thee, and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: & all that are cleane in thy house shal eate of it.

b That is, the chiefest and the best.

12 All the b fat of the oyle, and all the fatte of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shall offer vnto the Lord for first fruites, the same haue I giuen vnto thee.

13 And whatsoeuer is first ripe in their land, which they bring vnto the Lord, shalbe thine, and all that are cleane in thine house, shall eate of it.

14 All things separate from the common vse in Israel, shalbe thine.

15 All that breaketh the matrice in al flesh that men bring vnto the Lord, whether it be of men or beasts, shal be thine: Neuertheles, the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of vncleane beastes shalt thou redeeme.

16 Those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeeme, from the age of a moneth, according to thine estimation, * for the money of fiue sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie, which is twentie Gerahs.

Num. 3.17. exo. 30.13.

17 But the first borne of a kowe, sheepe, and goate, shalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therefore thou shalt sprinkle their blood vpon the altar, and shalt burne their fat as a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them is thine, as the waue brest, and the right shoulder, these are thine.

19 All the heaue offerings of holy things, which the children of Israel offer vnto the Lorde, haue I giuen thee, & thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it be a c salted couenant for euer before the Lord, both vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee.

c Like as the mouth preserueth flesh from corruption, so this couenant should be stable, and not corrupted.

20 And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou haue any part among them: * I am thy part, & thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

Deut. 18. & eccle. 44.

21 Beholde, I haue giuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israel to inherite for the seruice which they serue in the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they beare sinne, and die.

23 But the Leuites shall doe the seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, and beare their sinne: It shalbe a law for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse no inheritance.

24 But the tythes of the children of Israel which they pay as an heaue offering vnto the Lord, I haue giuen the Leuites to inherite: and therefore I haue saide vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse no inheritance.

25 And ỹ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and say vnto them, When yee take of the children of Israel the tythes which I haue giuen you of them for your inheritance, yee shall take an heaue offering of that same for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tythe.

27 And this your heaue offering shalbe reckoned rectioned vnto you, as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulnesse of the wine presse.

28 Of this maner ye shall therefore offer an heaue offering vnto the Lord of all your tythes which ye receiue of the children of Israel, and ye shal giue therof the Lords heaue offering to Aaron the Priest.

29 Of all your giftes ye shall offer all the Lords heaue offering, euen all the fat of the same, to wit the holy things thereof.

30 Therefore thou shalt say vnto them, when ye haue taken away the fat of it from it, it shall be counted vnto the Leuites, as if it were the increase of the corne flooze, or the increase of the wine presse.

31 And ye shall eate it in all places, both ye and your houshoides: for it is your reward for your seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offered from it the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

The xix. Chapter.

2 Of the ashes of the redde kowe. The water of expiation is made to wash away diuers vncleanesse.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinaunce of the lawe, which the Lord hath commaunded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a redde kowe without spot, and wherein is no blemish, and vpon which neuer came yoke.

3 And ye shall giue her vnto Eleazar the Priest, that hee may bring her without the hoste, and cause her to bee slaine before his face:

4 And let Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and * sprinckle it directly before the Tabernacle of the congregation seuen times, Hebr. 9. 13.

5 And cause the kowe to be burnt in his sight, with her skinne, flesh, and blood: and the dung of her shall he burne also.

6 And let the Priest take Cedar wood, and hysope, and skarlet lace, and cast it in the middes of the burning of the kowe.

7 Then let the Priest wash his clothes, and he shall bath his flesh in water, and then come into the hoste, and the Priest shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

8 And he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and bath his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

9 And a man that is cleane, shall gather vp the ashes of the kowe, and lay them without the hoste in a cleane place, and it shall be kept for the multitude of the children of Israel, for a water of * separation: it is a sinne offering.

10 Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the kowe, shall wash his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntill Euen: and it shall bee vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

11 He that toucheth the dead bodie of any man, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

12 And he shall purifie himselfe with this water the third day, and the seuenth day he shalbe cleane: but if he purifie not himselfe the third day, then the seuenth day hee shall not be cleane.

13 Whosoeuer toucheth the dead coarse of any man that is dead, and purgeth not himselfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lorde, and that soule shall bee cut off from b Israel, because the water of separation was not sprinckled vpon him: he shall be therefore vncleane, his vncleannesse is yet vpon him.

b So that he should not be esteemed to be of the holy people, but as a polluted and excommunicated person.

14 This is the lawe of a man that dieth in a tent: All that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

15 And all the vessels that be open, which haue no couering bound vpon them, shall be vncleane.

16 And whosoeuer toucheth one that is slaine with a sword in the fieldes, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

17 Therefore, for an vncleane person they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sinne offering, and running water shall bee put thereto in a vessell.

18 And let a cleane person take hysop, and dippe it in the water, and sprinckle it vpon the tent, and vpon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therein, and vpon him that touched a bone, or a slaine person, or a dead body, or a graue.

19 And the cleane person shall sprinckle vpon the vncleane the third day and the seuenth day: and the seuenth day hee shall purifie himselfe, and wash his clothes, and bathe himselfe in water, and shall be cleane at Euen.

20 But the man that is vncleane, and purifieth not himselfe, the same soule shall be cut off from among the congregation: because hee hath defiled the sanctuarie of the Lord, and the water of separation hath not bene sprinckled vpon him, therefore shall hee remaine vncleane.

21 And it shall be a perpetuall lawe vnto them, that hee that sprinckleth the water of separation, shall wash his clothes: and hee that toucheth the water of separation, shall be vncleane vntill Euen.

22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane person toucheth, shall bee vncleane: and the soule that toucheth the thing that was touched of the vncleane person shall bee vncleane vntill Euen.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Mary the sister of Moses and Aaron dieth. 12 Moses and Aaron shall not enter into the lande of promise.

And

* Because they that were separated for their vncleannesse, were sprinckled therewith and made cleane. Chap. 8. verse 7. It is also called holy water, because it was consecrated as an holy thing. Chap. 5. verse 17.

AND the childzen of Iſrael came with the whole multitude into the deſert of Zin, in the firſt moneth, and the people abode at Cades: and there died Mary, and was buried there.

2 But there was no water for the multitude: and they gathered themſelues together againſt Moſes and Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moſes, and ſpake, ſaying, Would God that wee had periſhed when our brethren died before the Lord.

Exod.17.2. 4 *Why haue ye brought the congregation of the Lord into this wildernes, that both we and our cattell ſhould die in it?

5 Wherefore haue ye made vs to come out of Egypt, to bring vs to this euill place, which is no place of ſeede, nor of figges, nor vines, nor pomegranates, neither is there any water to drinke?

6 And Moſes and Aaron went from the preſence of the congregation, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fel vpon their faces, and the glory of the Lorde appeared vnto them.

7 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the congregation together, and ſpeake vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it ſhall giue foorth his water, and thou ſhalt bring them water out of the rocke, to giue the company drinke, & their beaſtes alſo.

9 And Moſes tooke the rodde from before the Lord, as he commanded him.

10 And Moſes and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rocke, and 12 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and 14 And Moſes ſent meſſengers from Cades vnto the king of Edom, Thus ſaith thy brother Iſrael, Thou knoweſt all the trauaile that we haue had.

15 Our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we haue dwelt in Egypt a long time: and the Egyptians bered vs and our fathers.

16 And when we cried vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and ſent an Angel, and hath fet vs out of Egypt: and beholde, wee are in Cades, in the vttermoſt citie of thy border.

17 Let vs paſſe, I pray thee, thorow thy countrey, but we will not goe thorowe the fieldes or vineyardes, neither will we drinke of the water of the fountaines: we will goe by the kings high way, and neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill we be paſt thy borders.

18 And Edom anſwered him, Thou ſhalt not goe by mee, leaſt I come out againſt thee with the ſword.

19 The childzen of Iſrael ſaid vnto him, We will goe by the beaten way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will pay for it: I will but onely (without any harme) goe thorow on my feete.

20 He anſwered, Thou ſhalt not goe thorow. And Edom came out againſt him with much people, and with a mightie power.

21 And thus Edom denied to giue Iſrael paſſage thorow his countrey: wherefore Iſrael turned away from him.

23 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron in mount Hor, hard by the coaſt of the land of Edom, ſaying, 24 Aaron ſhall be gathered vnto his people: for he ſhall not come into the land which I haue giuen vnto the childzen of Iſrael, becauſe ye diſobeyed my mouth at the water of ſtrife.

26 And cauſe Aaron to put off his garments, & put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne: and Aaron ſhall be gathered vnto his people, and ſhall die there.

27 And Moſes did as the Lord commanded: And they went vp into mount Hor in the ſight of all the multitude.

28 And Moſes tooke off Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne, and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: *and Moſes and Eleazar came downe out of Deut.10.

29 When all the multitude ſaw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirtie dayes all the houſhold of Iſrael.

ward the South, heard tell that Iſrael came by the way that the ſpies had found out, he fought againſt Iſrael, and tooke ſome of them priſoners.

2 And Iſrael vowed a vow vnto the Lord, and ſaid, If thou wilt deliuer this people into my hand, I wil vtterly deſtroy their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voyce of Iſrael, and deliuered them the Chanaanites: and they deſtroyed them and their cities, and called the name of the place Horma.

4 And they departed from mount Hor, by the way of the red ſea, to compaſſe the land of of Edom: and the soule of the people was sore grieued, because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore haue yee brought vs out of Egypt, for to die in the wildernesse? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soule lotheth this light bread.

Wisd.16.5. 1.cor.10.9. 6 *Wherefore the Lorde sent fierie serpents among the people, which stung them, and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We haue sinned, for we haue spoken against the Lord, and against thee: make intercession to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from vs.

8 And the Lord sayde vnto Moses, Make thee a ‖fierie *serpent, and set it vp vpon a pole: that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue.

‖ Or, brasen serpent. * They were called fierie serpents, because they which were stung therewith, were enflamed with heat, that they died therof.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brasse, and set it vpon a pole, and when a serpent had bitten any man, he beheld the serpent of brasse, and liued.

10 And the children of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they departed from Oboth, & pitched at the heapes of Abarim, in the wildernesse, which is before Moab, on the East side.

12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer Zared.

13 And they departed thence, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wildernesse, and commeth out of the coasts of the Amorites: for *Arnon is the border of Moab, betweene Moab and the Amorites.

Iudg.11.13

14 Wherefore it shalbe spoken in the booke of the warres of the Lord, what thing he did in the red sea, and in the riuers of Arnon,

15 And at the streame of the riuers that goeth downe to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth vpon the border of Moab.

16 From thence they returned vnto Beer: the same is the well whereof the Lord spake vnto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will giue them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song, Spring vp well, sing ye vnto it:

18 The princes digged this well, the captaines of the people digged it with the lawe giuer, and with their staues, and from the wildernesse they went to Mathana:

19 And from Mathana, to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel, to Bamoth, 20 And from Bamoth of the valley that is in the fielde of Moab, vnto the top of ‖the hill that looketh toward Jesimon.

Deut.2.26. Iudg.11.19

21 *And Israel sent messengers vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me passe thorow thy land, we will not turne into the fieldes, or vineyardes, neither drinke of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the kings high way, vntill we be past thy countrey.

23 But Sehon would giue Israel no licence to passe through his countrey: but gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wildernesse: and hee came to Jaza, and fought against Israel.

24 *And Israel smote him in the edge of the sworde, and conquered his land from Arnon vnto Jaboc, vnto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

Iosu.24.8. amos.2.9.

25 And Israel tooke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Hesbon, and in all the townes that long thereto.

26 For Hesbon was the citie of Sehon the king of the Amorits, which fought before against the king of the Moabites, and tooke all his land out of his hand, and Arnon.

27 Wherefore, they that speake in prouerbs, say, Come to Hesbon, and let the citie of Sehon be built and repaired.

28 For there is a fire gone out of Hesbon, and a flame from the citie of Sehon, and hath consumed Ar in Moab, and the lords of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 Wo to thee, Moab, O people of bChamos yee bee vndone: hee hath suffered his sonnes to bee pursued, and his daughters to bee in captiuitie vnto Sehon the king of the Amorites.

3.Reg.11.7 b An idole of the Moabites.

30 Their empire is lost from Hesbon vnto Dibon, and wee made a wildernesse vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Medaba.

31 And thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to search out Jaezer, and they tooke the townes belonging thereto, and rooted out the Amorites that were therein.

33 *And they turned, and went vp toward Basan: and Og the king of Basan came out against them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edrai.

Deut.3.1. and 29.3.

34 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his lande, and thou shalt doe to him as thou didst vnto Sehon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and al his people, vntil there was nothing left him, and they conquered his land.

The xxij. Chapter.

5 King Balac sendeth twise for Balaam to curse the Israelites. 12 The Lord forbiddeth him to goe. 21 The Angel rebuketh him. 28 And Balaams Asse speaketh.

AND the children of Israel departed, and pitched in the fields of Moab, on the other side of Iordane from Iericho.

Iosu.24.9.

2 And Balac the sonne of Zippor, sawe all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were sore afraide of the people, because they were many, and they were stricken with feare of the children of Israel.

4 And

4 And Moab said vnto the elders of Madian, Nowe shall this companie ‡licke vp all that are round about vs, as an oxe licketh vp the grasse of the fielde. And Balac the sonne of Ziphor, was king of the Moabites at that time.

‡Heb. with licking to escape away.

Ios. 24. 9.

5 *He sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the riuer of the land of the children of his folke, to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and beholde, they couer the face of the earth, and dwell a ouer against me.

a Hee farre from me, enim hard by me.

6 Come nowe therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people, for they are too mightie for me, so it may be I shall be able to smite them, and to driue them out of the land: For I wote that he whom thou blessest, is blessed, and he whom thou curlest, is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Madian departed, hauing the reward of the soothsaying in their hande: And they came vnto Balaam, and told him the wordes of Balac.

8 Hee answered them, Tary here this night, and I will bring you worde as the Lord shall say vnto me: And the lords of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam sayde vnto God, Balac the sonne of Ziphor, king of Moab, hath sent vnto me, saying, 11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: come nowe therefore, and curse them for my sake, so it may be that I shalbe able to ouercome them in battell, and to driue them out.

12 And God saide vnto Balaam, Goe not thou with them, neither curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the lords of Balac, Get you vnto your land, for the Lord will not b suffer me to goe with you.

b Balaam was so blinded with couetousnesse, that he was willing to goe, if God had not forbidden him.

14 And the lordes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balac, and said, Balaam woulde not come with vs.

15 And Balac sent againe a greater company of lords, and more honorable then they.

16 which came to Balaam, and told him, Thus saith Balac the sonne of Ziphor, Oh let nothing let thee, but come vnto me:

17 For I will greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and will doe whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come I pray thee, curse this people for my sake.

Nom. 24. 13.

18 And *Balaam answered, and said vnto the seruants of Balac, If Balac woulde giue me his house full of siluer and golde, I can not goe beyond the word of the Lord my God, to doe lesse or more:

c Because he tempted God contrary to his former commandement, his petition was granted, but it turned to his own condemnation.

19 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, tary ye here this night, that I may wit c what the Lord will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayde vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but looke what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou doe.

21 And Balaam rose vp earely, and saddled his Asse, and d went with the lordes of Moab.

d He went more for his hire and vaine glorie sake, then for any affection he had to obey God, as after in the 35. vers.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angel of the Lord stoode in the way to bee against him, as hee rode vpon his Asse, and his two seruants were with him.

23 *And when the Asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and hauing his sword drawen in his hand, the Asse turned aside out of the way, and went out into the fielde: And Balaam smote the Asse, to turne her into the way.

2. Pet. 2. 16.

24 But the Angel of the Lorde stoode in a path betweene the vineyardes, and there was a wall on the one side, and another on the other.

25 And when the Asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, shee thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and crusht Balaams foote against the wall: and he smote her againe.

26 And the Angel of the Lord went further, and stoode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the Asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wroth, and smote the Asse with a staffe.

28 And the Lord opened the mouth of the Asse, and shee sayd vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten mee nowe three times?

29 And Balaam sayde vnto the Asse, Because thou hast mocked mee: I woulde also there were a sword in mine hand, for euen nowe would I kill thee.

30 And the Asse sayde vnto Balaam, Am not I thine Asse, which thou hast ridden vpon since the first time, vnto this day? was I euer woont to doe so vnto thee? He said, Nay.

31 And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way, hauing his sword drawen in his hand: he bowed himselfe therefore, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto him, wherefore hast thou smitten thine Asse these three times? Beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because thine heart hath declined out of the way before me.

33 And the Asse sawe me, and turned from me nowe three times: or els if shee had not turned from mee, I had surely slaine thee, and saued her aliue.

34 Balaam sayde vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned, for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against me: Nowe therefore if it displease thee, I will turne home againe.

35 The Angel of the Lorde sayde vnto Balaam, Goe with the men: but what I say vnto vnto thee, that ſhalt thou ſpeake. And ſo Balaam went with the Lordes of Balac.

36 And when Balac heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meete him, vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, in the vtmoſt coaſt.

37 And Balac ſaide vnto Balaam, Did I not ſende for thee to call thee? and wherefore cameſt thou not vnto me? Am I not able indeede to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made anſwere vnto Balac, Loe, I am come vnto thee: & can I now ſay any thing at all? The word that God putteth in my mouth, that ſhall I ſpeake.

39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came vnto a citie of ſtreetes.

40 And Balac offred oxen and ſheepe, and ſent thereof to Balaam, and to the lordes that were with him.

41 And on the morow Balac toke Balaam, and brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence he might ſee the vtmoſt part of the people.

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 Balaam cauſeth ſeuen altars to be built. 5 God teacheth him what to anſwere. 8 In ſtead of curſing, he bleſſeth the Iſraelites.

AND Balaam ſaide vnto Balac, Builde me here ſeuen altars, & prepare me here ſeuen oxen and ſeuen rammes.

2 And Balac did as Balaam ſaid, and Balac and Balaam offred on euery altar an ox and a ramme.

3 And Balaam ſaide vnto Balac, Stand by thy whole burnt ſacrifice, and I will goe, if ſo be that the Lorde will meete me: and what ſo euer he ſheweth me, I will tell thee. And he went vp [on] higher.

4 And God met Balaam, and Balaam ſaid vnto him, I haue prepared ſeuen altars, and haue offered vpon euery altar an ox and a ramme.

5 And the Lord put a ſaying in Balaams mouth, and ſaide, Goe againe to Balac, and ſay on this wiſe.

6 And when he went againe vnto him, loe, he ſtood by his whole burnt ſacrifice, he, and all the Lordes of Moab.

7 And he tooke vp his parable, and ſaide, Balac the king of Moab hath brought me from Meſopotamia, out of the mountaines of the Eaſt, ſaying, Come, curſe Jacob for my ſake, come and deſie Iſrael.

8 How ſhal I curſe him, whom God hath not curſed? or how ſhall I deſie him, whom the Lord hath not deſied?

9 For from the top of the rockes I ſee him, and from the hils I behold him: loe, the people ſhall dwell by themſelues, and ſhall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can tell the [b] duſt of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Iſrael? I pray God that my ſoule may die the death of the righteous, and that my laſt ende may be like his.

11 And Balac ſaide vnto Balaam, What haſt thou done vnto me? I tooke thee to curſe mine enemies, and behold, thou haſt bleſſed them altogether.

12 He anſwered and ſaide, Muſt I not take heede to ſpeake that which the Lorde hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balac ſaide vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with me vnto another place, whence thou mayeſt ſee them, and thou ſhalt ſee but the vtmoſt part of them, and ſhalt not ſee them all: curſe them out of that place for my ſake.

14 And he brought him into the [c] field of Zophim, vnto the top of Piſgah, and built ſeuen altars, & offered an ox and a ramme on euery altar.

15 And he ſaide vnto Balac, Stand here by thy whole burnt ſacrifice, while I meete the Lorde yonder.

16 And the Lorde met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and ſaide, Goe againe vnto Balac, and ſay thus.

17 And when he came to him, beholde, he ſtood by his whole burnt ſacrifice, with the lordes of Moab with him. And Balac ſayde vnto him, What hath the Lord ſpoken?

18 And he tooke vp his parable, and anſwered, Riſe vp Balac, and heare, hearken vnto me, thou ſonne of Zippor.

19 God is not a man that he ſhould lye, neither the ſonne of man, that he ſhould repent: ſhould he ſay, and not do it? or ſpeake, and not make it good?

20 Beholde, I haue taken in commiſſion to bleſſe: for he hath bleſſed, and I cannot reuerſe it.

21 He hath not ſeene wickednes in Jacob, neither ſawe he peruerſenes in Iſrael: the Lord his God is with him, and the ſhouting of a king is among them.

22 God brought them out of Egypt, he hath ſtrength as an vnicorne.

23 For there is no ſorcerie in Jacob, nor diuining in Iſrael: according to this time it ſhall be ſaid of Jacob & of Iſrael, what hath God wrought.

24 Beholde, the people ſhall riſe vp as a lyon, and lyft vp himſelfe as a young lyon: he ſhall not lye downe vntill he eate of the prey, and drinke the blood of them that are ſlaine.

25 And Balac ſaid vnto Balaam, Neither curſe them, nor bleſſe them at all.

26 But Balaam anſwered, and ſaid vnto Balac, Tolde not I thee, ſaying, All that the Lord ſpeaketh, that I muſt doe?

27 And Balac ſaid vnto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, and I will bring thee yet vnto another place, if at all it will pleaſe God that thou mayeſt thence curſe them for my ſake.

28 And Balac brought Balaam vnto the toppe of Peor, that looketh toward Jeſimon.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

3 Balaam prophecieth prophetically of the kingdome of Israel, and of the comming of Christ.

NOw when Balaam sawe that it pleased the Lorde that hee should blesse Israel, hee went not as he did twise before, to seeke for soothsaying: but set his face toward the wildernesse.

a Hereof may be gathered that heretofore Balak sought for soothsaying vnder the name of God: but the Lord was alway against him, and hindred his soothsaying, that he might haue taken holde of Gods true worde, in the stead of soothsaying.

2 And Balaam lift vp his eyes, and looked vpon Israel as he laye according to his tribes: and the spirit of God came vpon him.

3 And he tooke vp his parable, and saide, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath saide, and the man b whose eyes are open, hath said, b He meaneth not the corporal eye, but the eye of the minde.

4 He hath said which heareth the wordes of God, and knoweth the counsell of the Almightie, and falleth downe and hath open eyes,

‖ Or, bruise,

9 He couched himselfe, and lay downe as a Lion, and as a Lioness: who shall stirre him vp? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 And Balac was wroth with Balaam, and smote his handes together: and Balac saide vnto Balaam, I sent for thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them this three times.

11 Therefore now, get thee quickly vnto thy place: I thought that I would promote thee vnto honour, but lo, the Lorde hath kept thee backe from worship.

12 Balaam answered vnto Balac, Spake I not thy messengers which thou sentest vnto me, saying, 13 If Balac would giue me his house full of siluer and golde, I can not passe the worde of the Lord, to doe either good or bad of mine owne minde: But what the Lord saith, that will I speake.

14 And now behold, I goe vnto my people: Come therefore, and I will aduertise thee what this people shal doe to thy folke in the latter dayes.

15 And he tooke vp his parable, and said, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath sayde, the man whose eyes are open, hath sayd:

16 He hath said that heareth the wordes of God, and hath the knowledge of the most high, & beholdeth the vision of the Almighty, and that falleth, and his eyes are opened,

17 I shall e see him, but not now: I shall beholde him, but not nigh: * There shall come a starre of Jacob, and rise a sceptre of Israel, and shall smite the edaltes of Moab, and vndermine all the children of Seth.

18 And Edom shall be possessed, and Seir shall fall to the possession of their enemies, and Israel shall doe manfully.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall haue dominion, and shall destroy the remnant of the citie.

20 And when hee looked on Amalec, he tooke vp his parable, and said, Amalec is the first of the nations, but his f ende shall perish vtterly.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and tooke vp his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rocke.

22 Neuertheless, the Kenite shalbe rooted out, vntill Assur take thee prisoner.

23 And he tooke vp his parable, and said, Alas, who shall liue when God doeth this?

The xxvij. Chapter.

1 The lawe of the heritage of the daughters of Zalphaad.
16 Moses prayeth for a gouernour of the people, and Iosuah is appointed.

Num.36.2. iosu.17.3. THen came the * daughters of Zalphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, of the kinred of Manasse, the sonne of Ioseph: whose names were, Mahela, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirza,

2 And stoode before Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and before the Lordes, and all the multitude, by the doore of the Tabernacle of the congregation, saying, a As all men dye for that they are sinners, some trade, dyed for his sinne, and expounde it thus: Not for any particular sinne that he had done, but for that generall sinne that the people of the Iewes had committed, in murmuring against Moses, for which they entred not into the land of promise.

3 Our father died in the wildernes, and was not in the company of them that gathered themselues together against the Lord in the Congregation of Corah: but a died in his owne sinne, and had no sonnes.

4 Wherefore then is the name of our father taken away from among his kinred, because he hath no sonne? Giue vnto vs therefore a possession among the b brethren of our father.

b Brethren are here taken for kinsmen.

5 And Moses brought their c cause before the Lord.

c That is, their matter to be iudged, to know what he should determine, as hee did all weighty matters.

6 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zalphaad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherit among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritaunce of their father vnto them.

8 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and haue no sonne, ye shall turne his inheritaunce vnto his daughter.

9 If he haue no daughter, ye shal giue his inheritance vnto his brethren.

10 If hee haue also no brethren, ye shall giue his inheritāce vnto his fathers brethrē.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye shall giue his inheritaunce vnto him that is next to him of his kinred, and he shal possesse it: And this shall bee vnto the children of Israel d a law of iudgement, as the Lorde hath commanded Moses.

d Meaning, an ordinance to iudge by.

12 * And the Lord said vnto Moses, Get thee vp into this mount Abarim, and behold the lande which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel: Deut.33. 37.

13 And ‡ when thou hast seene it, thou shalt be e gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

‡ Hebr. And thou shalt see it.

e Thou shalt die in the lande of Moab.

14 For yee were disobedient vnto my mouth in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the Congregation, neither did ye sanctifie mee in the f waters before their eyes: that is, the water of strife in Cades, in the wilderness of Zin.

f You did not exalt and magnifie my power and omnipotencie before the children of Israel, when they desired water.

15 And Moses spake vnto the Lorde, saying,

16 Let the Lorde God of the spirites of all flesh, set a man ouer the Congregation, 17 Which may goe g out and in before them, and leade them out and in, that the Congregation of the Lorde be not as sheepe which haue no shepheard.

g To rule and gouerne them, to leade them forth to battaile, and to bring them backe.

18 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Take thee Iosuah the sonne of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and put thine hands vpon him.

19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation: and giue him a charge in their sight.

20 And put thy h honour vpon him, that al the company of the children of Israel may be obedient.

h Of thy authoritie or thy dignitie, that the people may haue him in the greater reuerence, and perdie themselues more to his obedience.

21 And he shall stande before Eleazar the Priest, which shall aske counsell for him after the i iudgement of Urim before the Lord: And according vnto his worde shall they goe out and in, both he, and al the children of Israel with him, and all the congregation.

i That is, as God doeth instruct and lighten the heart of the priest, so the priest must declare and shew forth the will of God to others.

22 And Moses did as the Lord commanded him: and hee tooke Iosuah, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the Congregation, 23 And put his handes vpon him, and gaue him a charge, as the Lord commanded through the hand of Moses.

The xxviij. Chapter.

1 What must be offered on euery feast day.

AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, a The Iewes do say, that by the beast that is sacrificed, the sinner is vnderstoode. For when the beast is ledde to be killed, the transgressor thought (say they) to thinke as though he for his offences were led vnto the same, and thus to confesse, O Lord, I am guiltie of death, I haue deserued to bee slaine for my trespasse, and not this beast, and to bee strangled for my transgression, as to be burnt for this crime. But these sacrifices doe by shadowe signifie Christ the true Lambe of God, who would after wast be slaine for our sinnes, and pay the price for them. Wherefore seeing therefore we acknowledge and confesse our sinnes to be, for the which no beast, but the innocent Sonne of God hath died: For the Father hauing vs, hath prepared his Sonne vnto death.

2 Commaund the children of Israel, and say vnto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices, which are made by fire for a sweete sauour, shall yee obserue, to offer vnto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say vnto them, This is the offering made by fire, which ye shall offer vnto the Lorde: two a lambes of a yeere olde without spotte day by day, for a continuall whole burnt offering.

4 One Lambe shalt thou prepare in the morning, and the other at Euen,

7 And let the drinke offering of the same, be the fourth part of an Hin for one Lambe, and in the holy place shalt thou commaunde the wine to be powred vnto the Lord:

8 And the other lambe shalt thou offer at Euen, after the maner of the meate offering, and the drinke offering of the morning, a sacrifice made by fire shalt thou offer for a sweet sauour vnto the Lord.

9 And on the Sabboth day, two lambes of a yeere olde without spotte, and two tenth deales of floure for a meate offering mingled with oyle, and the drinke offering thereto.

13 And a tenth deale of floure mingled with oyle for a meate offering vnto one Lambe, for a whole burnt offering of a sweete sauour, and a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

14 And their drinke offeringes shall bee halfe an Hin of wine vnto one bullocke, and the thirde part of an Hin of wine vnto a Ramme, and the fourth part of an Hin vnto a Lambe: This is the whole burnt offering of euery moneth, throughout the moneths of the yeere.

15 And one hee goate for a sinne offering vnto the Lorde shall bee offered, besides the daily whole burnt offring, and his drinke offering.

20 And let their meat offering be of floure mingled with oile: three tenth deales allo shal ye offer for a bullocke, and two tenth deales for a ramme,

21 One tenth deale shalt thou offer for euery lambe, of the seuen lambes, 22 And an hee Goate for a sinne offering, to make atonement for you.

23 Yee shall offer these beside the whole burnt offering in the morning, which is a continuall whole burnt sacrifice.

24 After this manner yee shall offer thorowout the seuen dayes, the fleth of the sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde: and it shall bee done beside the dayly whole burnt offering, and his drinke offering.

40 And Moſes tolde the children of Iſrael all that the Lord commanded him.

The xxx. Chapter.

2 Of vowes, when they ſhall be kept, and when not.

AND Moſes ſpake vnto the heads of the tribes, concerning the children of Iſrael, ſaying, This is the thing which the Lorde hath commanded.

2 If a man vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, or ſweare an othe to binde his ſoule: hee ſhall not goe backe with his worde, but ſhall fulfill all that is proceeded out of his mouth.

3 If a woman alſo vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and binde her ſelfe, being in her fathers houſe in the time of her youth:

4 And her father heare her vowe and bonde which ſhee hath made vpon her ſoule, and holde his peace thereto: then all her vowes and bondes which ſhee hath made vpon her ſoule, ſhall ſtand in effect.

5 But if her father diſalow her the ſame day that hee heareth all her vowes and bonds which ſhee hath made vpon her ſoule: they ſhall not be of value, and the Lorde ſhall forgiue her, becauſe her father [a] diſalowed her.

[a] Agreed not to her vowe.

6 If ſhe had an huſband when ſhe vowed, or pronounced ought out of her lippes, wherewith ſhe bound her ſoule:

7 And her huſband heard it, and helde his peace thereat the ſame day hee heard it: then her vowes ſhall ſtand, and her bondes wherewith ſhee bound her ſoule, ſhall ſtand in effect.

8 And if her huſband diſalowe her the ſame day that he heard it, then he ſhall make her vowe which ſhee hath vpon her, and the opening of her lippes wherewith ſhee bound her ſoule, of none effect, and the Lorde ſhall forgiue her.

9 But euery vowe of a widow, and of her that is diuorced, that they haue bounde their ſoule withall, ſhall ſtand in effect with them.

[b] Her huſband liuing, or before ſhe be diuorced.

10 If ſhe vowed in her [b] huſbands houſe, or bound her ſoule with an oth:

11 And her huſband heard it, and helde his peace concerning her, and diſalowed her not: then all her vowes ſhall ſtand, and euery bonde wherewith ſhe bound her ſoule, ſhall ſtand.

12 But if her huſbande diſanulled them the ſame day that hee heard them: then nothing that proceedeth out of her lippes in vowes and bondes wherewith ſhee bounde her ſoule, ſhall ſtand in effect: for her huſband hath diſanulled them, and the Lorde ſhall forgiue her.

13 All vowes and othes that binde to [c] humble the ſoule, may her huſband ſtabliſh or breake.

[c] Through mortification, as abſtinence or bodily exerciſe.
[d] Not diſannulling her vowe the ſame day that he heareth it.
[e] Any day after the firſt day that he heard them.

14 But if her huſband holde his peace from [d] one day to another, then hee ſtabliſheth all her vowes and bondes which ſhee had vpon her: he confirmeth them, becauſe he helde his peace concerning her the ſame day that he heard them.

15 But [e] if he breake them, after that he hath heard them, he ſhall beare her ſinne himſelfe.

16 Theſe are the ordinances which the Lord commaunded Moſes betweene a man and his wife, and betweene the father and his daughter, being yet a damſel in her fathers houſe.

The xxxj. Chapter.

8 The Madianites are ſlaine, and their cities burnt, Balaam alſo is ſlaine. 18 Onely the virgins are reſerued aliue.

AND the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 *Auenge the children of Iſrael of the Madianites, and afterward ſhalt thou bee gathered vnto thy people. Num. 25. 17.

3 And Moſes ſpake vnto the folke, ſaying, Harneſſe ſome of you vnto warre, and let them goe vpon the Madianites, and auenge the Lord of the Madianites.

4 Of euery tribe a thouſand, throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſhall ye ſend to the warre.

5 And there were deliuered out of the thouſandes of Iſrael, twelue thouſande prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thouſand.

6 And Moſes ſent them to the warre, a thouſande of euery tribe, and with them Phinees the ſonne of Eleazar the Prieſt to the warre, and the holy veſſels, and the trumpets to blowe were in his hand.

7 And they warred againſt the Madianites, as the Lord commanded Moſes, and ſlewe all the males.

8 *And they ſlue the kings of Madian among other that were ſlaine: Namely Eui, and Rekem, Zur, and Hur, and Reba: fiue kings of Madian, with [a] Balaam the ſonne of Beor, whome they ſlue with the ſword. Ioſu. 13. 22.

[a] Becauſe he falſly prophecied to curſe both to curſe the Iſraelites to obtain [illegible]

9 And the children of Iſrael tooke all the women of Madian priſoners, and their children, and ſpoyled all their cattell, and all their flockes, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly dwellings with fire:

11 And they tooke all the ſpoyle, and all the bootie, both of men and beaſtes.

12 And they brought the captiues, and that which they had taken, and the ſpoyle, vnto Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt, and vnto the companie of the children of Iſrael, euen vnto the hoſte that were in the fieldes of Moab by Iordane, ouer againſt Iericho:

13 And Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt, and all the lordes of the congregation, went out of the hoſte to meete them.

14 And Moſes was angrie with the officers of the hoſte, with the captaines ouer thouſands, and ouer hundreds, which came from the warre and battell.

15 And

15 And Moses sayde vnto them, Haue ye saued all the [b] women aliue?

16 *Beholde, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespasse against the Lord in the businesse of [c] Peor, and there followed a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

17 Nowe therefore slay all the men children, and kil the women that haue lien with men fleshly.

18 But all the women children that haue not lyen with men carnally, keepe aliue for your selues.

19 And ye shal remaine without the hoste seuen dayes, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead body, and purifie both your selues and your prisoners the third day, and the seuenth:

20 And purifie all your rayments, & that is made of skinnes, and all worke of goates haire, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Priest sayde vnto the men of warre which went to the battell, This is the ordinance of the lawe which the Lord commanded Moses.

22 As for golde, siluer, brasse, and iron, tinne, and leade,

23 And all that may abide the fire, ye shall make it goe through the fire, and it shall bee cleane: neuertheles, it shalbe purified with water of separation: And all that suffereth not the fire, yee shall make goe thorowe the water:

24 And wash your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane, and afterward come into the hoste.

25 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take the summe of the pray, that was taken, both of the persons and of the cattell, thou and Eleazar the Priest, and the chiefe fathers of the congregation:

27 And deuide the pray into two parts, betweene them that tooke the warre vpon the and went out to battel, & al the congregation.

28 And take a tribute vnto the Lord of the men of warre which went out to battel: one soule of fiue hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeues, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.

29 And yee shall take it of their halfe, and giue it vnto Eleazar the Priest, as an heaue offering of the Lord.

30 And of the halfe of the children of Israel, thou shalt take one portion of fiftie, of the persons, and of the beeues, of the asses, and of the sheepe, and of al maner of beasts, and giue them vnto the Leuites which waite vpon the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest, did as the Lord commanded Moses.

32 And the bootie, and the rest of the pray which the men of warre had caught, was sixe hundred thousand, and threescore and fifteene thousand sheepe,

33 And threescore and twelue thousande of beeues,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And thirtie and two thousand persons in all, of women that had lyen by no man.

36 And the halfe, which was the part of them that went out to warre, was in number three hundred thousande, and seuen and thirtie thousand, and fiue hundred sheepe.

37 And the [d] Lords part of the sheepe, was fiue hundred and threescore and fifteene, 38 And the beeues were thirtie and fiue thousande, of which the Lordes part was threescore and twelue.

39 And the asses were thirtie thousande and fiue hundred, of which the Lordes part was threescore and one.

40 And the [e] persons were sixteene thousand, of which the Lordes part was thirtie and two persons.

41 And Moses gaue the tribute, which was the Lords heaue offering, vnto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord commanded Moses:

42 And the other [f] halfe of the children of Israel, which Moses deuided from the men of warre, 43 That is to wit the halfe that pertained vnto the congregation, was three hundred thousand, and thirtie and seuen thousande, and fiue hundred sheepe:

44 And thirtie and fiue thousand beeues:

45 And thirtie thousande asses, and fiue hundred,

46 And sixteene thousand persons.

47 And Moses tooke of the halfe that pertained vnto the [g] children of Israel, one portion of fiftie, both of the persons & of the cattell, and gaue them vnto the Leuites which waited vpon the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

48 And the officers of thousandes of the hoste, the captaines ouer the thousands, and the captaines ouer the hundreds, came forth,

49 And sayde vnto Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder our auctoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs:

50 Wee haue therefore brought a present vnto the Lorde, what euery man founde, of iewels of golde, bracelets, chaines, rings, eerings, & spangles, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the golde of them, all the wrought iewels.

52 And al the gold of the heaue offering that they heaued vp to the Lorde, of the captaines ouer thousands and hundreds, was sixteene thousand, seuen hundred and fiftie sicles.

53 (For the men of warre had spoyled, euery man for himselfe.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest tooke the golde of the captaines ouer the thousandes and hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the congregation, for a memoriall of the children of Israel before the Lord.

The xxxij. Chapter.

Moses giueth to the Rubenites, Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasses, their portion of their inheritance beyond Iordane.

THe childzen [a] of Ruben, and the childzen of Gad, had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: And when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell,

2 The childzen of Ruben, & the childzen of Gad, came and spake vnto Moses & Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the lordes of the congregation, saying,

3 The land of Ataroth and Dibon, Jazer, and Nemrah, Hesbon and Elealeh, Sabam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Which countrey the Lorde smote before the congregation of Israel, is a lande meete for cattell, and we thy seruants haue cattell.

5 Wherefore, sayd they, if we haue found grace in thy sight, let this land be giuen vnto thy seruants to possesse, and bring vs not ouer Iordane.

6 And Moses sayde vnto the childzen of Gad and of Ruben, Shall your brethren goe to warre, and shall ye sit here?

7 Wherefore discourage ye the heart of the childzen of Israel, that they should not goe ouer into the land which the Lord hath giuen them?

8 Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Cades Barnea to see the land.

9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Escol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the childzen of Israel, that they should not goe into the land which the Lord had giuen them.

10 And the Lordes wrath was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying,

11 * None of the men that came out of Egypt, from twentie yeeres old and aboue, shall see the land which I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they haue not wholly followed me, 12 Saue Caleb the sonne of Jephunne the Kenesite, and Josuah the sonne of Nun: for they haue constantly followed the Lord.

13 And the Lorde was very angry with Israel, and made them wander in the wildernesse fourtie yeeres, vntil all the generations that had done euill in the sight of the Lord, were consumed.

14 And behold, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade, as an increase of sinfull men, to augment the fierce wrath of the Lord toward Israel.

15 For if ye turne away from after him, he will yet againe leaue the people in the wildernesse, [b] and ye shall destroy all this folke.

16 And they went neere him, and said, We will builde sheepefoldes here for our sheepe, and for our cattell, and walled cities for our childzen:

17 But we our selues will go ready armed before the childzen of Israel, vntill we haue brought them vnto [c] their place: and our childzen shall dwel in the fenced cities, because of the inhabiters of the land.

18 We will not returne vnto our houses, vntill the childzen of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritance.

19 Neither wil we inherite with them on yonder side Iordane forward, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iordane Eastward.

20 And Moses said vnto them, * If ye wil doe this thing, and goe harnessed [d] before the Lord to warre,

21 And will goe all of you in harnesse ouer Iordane before the Lord, vntill he haue cast out his [e] enemies from his sight, 22 And vntill the land be subdued before the Lord: then ye shall returne, and be without sinne [f] before the Lord, and before Israel, and this lande shall be your possession before the Lord.

23 But if ye wil not do so, behold, ye haue sinned against the Lorde: and be sure [g] your sinne will finde you out.

24 Nowe therefore, builde cities for your childzen, and foldes for your sheepe, and doe that ye haue spoken.

25 The childzen of Gad, and the childzen of Ruben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants wil doe as my Lord commandeth.

26 Our childzen, our wiues, our sheepe, and our cattel, shall remaine here in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy seruants will go all harnessed for the warre, and vnto battell before the Lord, as my Lord saith.

28 * And for their sakes Moses commanded Eleazar the Priest, and Josuah the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the childzen of Israel,

29 And Moses said vnto them, If the childzen of Gad, and the childzen of Ruben will go with you ouer Iordane, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shall giue them the land of Gilead to possesse:

30 But if they [h] wil not go ouer with you in harnesse, they shall haue their possessions among you in the land of Chanaan.

31 And the childzen of Gad, & the childzen of Ruben answered, saying, As the Lorde hath said vnto thy seruants, so will we doe.

32 We will goe harnessed before the Lord into the land of Chanaan, that the possession of our inheritance may bee giuen vs on this side Iordane.

33 * And Moses gaue vnto the childzen of Gad, and to the childzen of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, the kingdome of Sehon king of the Amozites, and the kingdom of Og king of Basan, the lande, with the cities thereof, in the coasts, & cities of the countrey round about.

34 And the childzen of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, Gen.50.25. 39 And the children of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, went to Gilead, & tooke it, and put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

40 And Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, and he dwelt therein.
41 And Iair the sonne of Manasse, went and tooke the small townes thereof, and called them k Hauoth Iair.
k That is to say, the villages of Iair.

The xxxiiij. Chapter.

1 The coastes and borders of the lande of promise. 17 Certaine men are assigned to deuide the land.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commaund the children of Israel, and say vnto them, when ye come into the land of Chanaan, *this is the lande that shall fall vnto your inheritance, euen the land of Chanaan, with their coastes.

a That is to say, this is the description of the land of Chanaan, which ye shall inherite.

Iosu.15.1.

3 *And your South quarter shalbe from the wildernes of Zin, along by the coast of Edom, so that your South quarter reach vpon the side of the b salt sea Eastward:

b Otherwise, the dead sea.

4 And set a compasse from the South vp to Acrabim, and reache to Zin: And goe out from the South to Cades Barnea, and goe out also to Hazar Adar, and goe along to Azmon:

5 And set a compasse againe from Azmon vnto the c riuer of Egypt, and shall goe out at the sea.

c Or vnto the riuer of Egypt, or as some other think, vnto the brooke Rhinocorura called Mosaicum.

6 And let your west quarter be the great sea, let the same sea be your west coast.

7 And this shalbe your North quarter: ye shal compasse your border from the great sea, vnto d mount Hor.

d Not a hill, but some part of that mountaine Aaron died.

8 And from mount Hor, yee shall describe your border till it come vnto Hemath, and the ende of the coast shalbe at Zedada.

9 And the coast shal reach out to Ziphron, and goe out at Hazar Enan: This shall be your North quarter.

10 And ye shal describe your East quarter from Hazar Enan to Sepham.

11 And the coast shal go downe from Sepham to Ribla, on the East side of Ain: And the same border shall descende and goe out at the side of e Cenereth Eastward.

e Which is in the Gospell called the Sea of Genezareth.

12 And then go downe along by Iordane, and leaue at the salt sea: and this shalbe your land, with the coasts thereof round about.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which yee shall inherite by lot, & which the Lorde commanded to giue vnto nine tribes & an halfe.

14 For the tribe of the children of Ruben, according to the housholdes of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to their fathers housholdes, and halfe the tribe of Manasse, haue receiued their inheritance.

15 Two tribes & an halfe haue receiued their inheritance on this side of Iordane, ouer against Jericho, Eastward.

16 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 *These are the names of ỹ men, which shall deuide the land vnto you; Eleazar the Priest, and Josuah the sonne of Nun.

18 And ye shall take an f ofspring of euery tribe, when ye deuide the land.

20 Of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the sonne of Ammud.

21 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Elidad the sonne of Chislon.

27 Of the tribe of the sonnes of Aser, the lord Ahiud the sonne of Selomi.

28 Of the tribe of the children of Nephthali, the lord Pedael the sonne of Ammihud.

29 These

29 These are they whom the Lorde commanded to deuide the inheritance vnto the children of Israel, in the land of Chanaan.

The xxxv. Chapter.

16 The law of manslaughter. 30 For one mans witnes shall no man be condemned.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses in the fieldes of Moab by Iordane, ouer against Iericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, * that they giue vnto the Leuites of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in: and yee shall giue also vnto the cities of the Leuites, suburbs, hard by their cities round about them. Iosua 21. 2.

3 The cities shall they haue to dwell in, and the suburbes for their cattell, & for their possession, and all maner of beastes of theirs.

4 And the suburbs of the cities which ye shall giue vnto the Leuites, shall reach from the wall of the citie outward, a thousand cubites round about.

5 And ye shall measure without the citie of the Eastside, two thousande cubites: and of the Southside, two thousand cubites: and of the West side, two thousand cubites: and of the Northside, two thousand cubites also, and the citie shall be in the middes, and these shalbe the suburbes of their cities.

6 * And from among the cities which ye shall giue vnto the Leuits, there shall be sixe cities for refuge, which yee shall appoint to that intent that hee which killeth, may flee thither: And to them ye shal adde fourtie and two cities moe. Deut. 4. 41. Iosu. 20. 2.

7 So that all the cities which ye shal giue the Leuites, may be fourtie and eight, them shall ye giue with their suburbes.

8 And these cities which ye shall giue, shal be out of the possession of the children of Israel. They that haue many, shal giue many: but of them that haue few, ye shall take few. Euery one shall giue of his cities vnto the Leuites, according to the inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, * when yee be come ouer Iordane, into the land of Chanaan, Deut. 19. 2. Iosu. 20. 2.

11 Ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he which slayeth a person vnawares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shall be vnto you a refuge from the [a] auenger of blood: that hee which killeth, die not, vntill hee stand before the [b] congregation in iudgement.

13 And of these cities which ye shall giue, sixe cities shall ye haue for refuge.

14 Yee shall giue three [c] on this side Iordane, & three in the land of Chanaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 And these sixe cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, & for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among you: that all they which kil any person vnwares, may flee thither.

16 And if any man smite another with an instrument of yron, that he die, then is he a murderer, and the murderer shall die for it.

17 If he smite him with throwing a stone, that a man may die with, & if he die, hee that smote him is a murderer: let the same murderer be slaine therefore.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, that a man may die with, then if he die, he is a murderer: let the same murderer be slaine therefore.

19 The [d] reuenger of blood himselfe shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. [d] He that is next of kin to him that is murdered.

20 * But if he thrust him of hate, or hurle at him by laying of waite, that he die, Deut. 19. 11.

21 Or smite him with his hand of enmitie, that he die: he that smote him shall die the death, for hee is a murderer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murderer, when hee meeteth him.

22 But if he pushed him vnaduisedly, and not of hate, or cast vpon him any thing, and not in laying of waite,

23 Or any maner of stone, that a man may die with, and sawe him not, and he cast it to fall vpon him, & he die, and was not his enemie, neither sought him any harme:

24 Then the congregation shall iudge betweene the slayer and the reuenger of blood, according to these lawes.

25 And the congregation shal deliuer the slayer out of the hand of the reuenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the citie of his refuge whither hee was fled: and hee shall abide there vnto the death [c] of the high Priest, which was anoynted with the holy oyle. [c] This was a figure of Christ by whose death our sinnes are pardoned.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of his citie of refuge, whither he was fledde:

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood kill the slayer, he shall be guiltlesse:

28 Because he should haue bidden in the towne of his refuge, vntill the death of the high Priest: and after the death of the high Priest, the slayer should return vnto the land of his possession.

29 So these things shalbe [f] a law of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings. [f] That is, to iudge wilfull murderers.

30 Who so killeth any person, the iudge shall put the murderer to death through witnesses: but one witnesse shall not testifie against any person, to cause him to die.

31 Moreouer, ye shal take no recompence for the life of the murderer which is worthie to die, but he shall be put to death.

32 And yee shall take no recompence for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he should come againe & dwell in the lande, before the death of the high Priest.

33 So ye shal not pollute the land which ye shall dwell in, for blood defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed blood.

34 Defile not therefore the lande which yee shall inhabite, for I am in the middes thereof: euen I the Lorde dwell among the children of Israel.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

1 An order for the marriage of the daughters of Zalphaad. 7 The inheritance could not be giuen from one tribe to another.

a Ye meaneth Moses.

3 If they be married to any of the sonnes of [b] the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance bee taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shal be put to the inheritance of the tribe which they are receiued into, and so shal it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

b To any of another tribe then of Manasses.

4 And when the Iubilee of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereinto they are receiued, & so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the worde of the Lorde, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph hath [c] said well.

c For the tribe could not be continuall, if their inheritance had be taken from them.

6 This therefore doth the Lord command the daughters of Zalphaad, saying, * Let them bee wiues to whome they themselues thinke best: onely to the familie of the tribe of their father shall they marry. Tob. 1.9.

7 So shal not the inheritance of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the children of Israel shal ioyne himselfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritance [d] in any tribe of the children of Israel, shalbe wife vnto one of the kinred of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enioy euery man the inheritãce of his father.

d Which shal be when there is no male childe to the tribe.

9 Neither ought the inheritance to goe from one tribe to another: but euery one of the tribes of the children of Israel, shalbe ioyned to his owne inheritance.

10 And as the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zalphaad:

11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, and Noa, the daughters of Zalphaad, were maried vnto their fathers brothers sonnes.

12 They were wiues vnto the families of the sonnes of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, and so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the kinred of their father.

13 These are the [e] commandements and lawes which the Lorde commanded by the hande of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in the fieldes of Moab, by Iordane toward Iericho.

The end of the fourth booke of Moses, called Numeri.

The fifth booke of Moses, called in the Hebrue Elle haddebarim, and in Latine Deuteronomium.

The first Chapter.

32 Moses reproueth the people for their incredulitie.

THese be the words which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on [a] the other side Iordane in the wildernesse, in the plaine ouer against the red sea, betweene Pharan, & Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

a In the countrey of Moab: & this wildernesse was betweene the plaine of Moab & the sea.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtieth yeere, that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, according vnto all that the Lorde had giuen him in commandement vnto them,

4 * After he had slaine Sehon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Hesbon, and Og king of Basan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrai. Nomb. 21.

5 On the other side Iordane in the lande of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The Lorde our God spake vnto vs in [b] Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long enough in this mount:

b In the couert pastures of Arnon.

7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and goe to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto all all the places nigh thereunto, both vnto the plaine, and hilles, and dales, to the South, to the sea side, to the land of Chanaan, & vnto Libanon, vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

8 Behold, I haue set the land before you: Goe in and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to giue vnto them, and to their seede after them.

9 And [c] I spake vnto you in the same time, saying, [*] I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

10 For the Lord your God hath multiplied you, so that you be this day as the starres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many moe as yee are, and bleſſe you, as he hath promised you.

12 * Howe can I my selfe alone [d] beare your cumbrance, your charge, & your strife that is among you?

13 Bring you men of wisedome, & of vnderstanding, and expert according to your tribes, & I will make them rulers ouer you.

14 And ye answered mee, and said, That which thou hast spoken, is good for vs to doe.

15 And so out of your tribes [e] I tooke the chiefe men of wisedome, and that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, captaines ouer fifties, & captaines ouer tennes, & officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your Iudges that same time, saying, * Heare the cause of your brethren, and iudge righteously betweene euery man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 * Yee shall haue no respect of any person in iudgement, but you shall heare the small as well as the great: You shal not feare the face of any man, for the iudgement is Gods: And the cause that is too hard for you, referre it vnto me, and I will heare it.

18 And I commaunded you the same season, all the things which ye should doe.

19 And when wee departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wildernesse, as ye haue seene by the waye of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commaunded vs: and wee came to Cades Barnea.

20 And [f] I said vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth giue vnto vs.

21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath set the land before thee: goe vp and possesse it, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath said vnto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged.

22 And yee came vnto me euery one, and said, We will send men before vs, to search vs out the lande, and to bring vs worde againe what way we must go vp by, and vnto what cities we shall come.

23 * And the saying pleased me well: and I tooke twelue me of you, of euery tribe one.

24 * Which departed, and went vp into that mountaine, and came vnto the [g] valley Escoll, and searched it out.

25 And tooke of the fruit in their hands, and brought it vnto vs, & brought vs worde againe, and [h] said, It is a good lande which the Lord our God doth giue vs.

26 Notwithstanding, yee would not goe vp, but were disobedient vnto the worde of the Lord your God, 27 And murmured in your tentes, & sayd, Because the Lord [i] hateth vs, therefore hath he brought vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

28 Whither shal we goe vp? Our brethren haue discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller then wee, the cities are great, and walled vp to heauen, and moreouer, we haue seene the sonnes of the [k] Anakims there.

29 Then I said vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraide of them:

30 The Lord your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wildernesse, where thou hast seene how that the Lorde thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his sonne, in all the way which ye haue gone by, vntill yee came vnto this place:

32 And yet in this thing yee did not beleeue the Lord your God.

33 * Yee went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to goe, and in a cloude by day.

34 And the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, and was wrath, and sware, saying,

35 * There shal not one of these men, and of this frowarde generation, see that good lande which I sware to giue vnto your fathers:

36 Saue Caleb the sonne of Iephunne, he shall see it, and to him will I giue the lande that he hath troden vpon, & to his children, because he hath followed the Lord.

37 Also the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, saying, * Thou also shalt not goe in thither.

38 But Iosuah the sonne of Nun, which [l] standeth before thee, he shall goe in thither. Encourage him therefore: for he shall cause Israel to inherite the land.

39 Moreouer, [m] your children, which ye said should be a pray, and your sonnes which in that day had no knowledge betweene good & euill, they shall go in thither, and vnto them will I giue it, and they shall enioy it.

40 But as for you, turne your face, & take your iourney into the wildernesse, by the way of the red sea.

41 * Then ye answered, & said vnto mee, We haue sinned against the Lord, [n] wee will goe vp & fight, according to all that the Lord

The ii. Chapter.

7 A rehearsall of the benefites of God bestowed vpon his people. 9 Israel is forbidden to fight against the Edomites, Moabites, and Ammonites. 33 Sehon king of Hesbon is discomfited.

THen wee turned our face, and tooke our iourney into the [a] wildernesse by the way of the red Sea, as the Lorde spake vnto mee: and wee compassed mount Seir a long time.

a The desert of Arn.

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

3 Yee haue compassed this mountaine long enough: turne you Northward.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shall goe through the [b] coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shall be afraide of you.

b At their returne thither: for before they were repelled by the Ismaelites, as Num. 20. 21. Gen. 32.

5 Take yee good heede vnto your selues therefore: Ye shall not prouoke them, for I will not giue you of their lande, no not so much as a foote breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau to possesse.

6 Yee shall buye meate of them for money to eate, and ye shal procure water of them for money to drinke:

7 For the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thy hand, and [c] knoweth thy walking through this great wildernes, and this fourtie yeeres the Lorde thy God hath bene with thee, so that thou hast lacked nothing.

c Knowing, is here taken for fauouring, as in many other places of Scripture.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the | wildernesse, from Elath, and from Eziongaber, we turned and went by the way of the wildernesse of Moab.

|Or, desert.

9 And the Lorde said vnto me, Thou shalt not fight against the Moabites, neither prouoke them to battaile: For I will not giue thee of their land to possesse, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot to possesse.

10 The [d] Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, many, and tall, as the [e] Anakims, d Emims: the word signifieth terrible men.

e Giants hatefull cause of your blood. Num. 13. 33.

11 which also were taken for Giants, as the Anakims, whome the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whom the children of Esau chased out, and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their stead, as Israel did vnto the lande of his possession, which the Lord gaue them.

13 Now rise vp said I, and get you ouer the riuer Zared: and we went ouer the riuer Zared.

14 The space in which wee came from Cades Barnea, vntill wee were come ouer the riuer Zared, was thirtie & eight yeeres, vntil all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord sware vnto them.

15 For in deede the hand of the Lord was against them, to destroy them from among the [f] hoste, till they were consumed.

f That host of the age of twentie yeres and vpward.

16 And so it came to passe, that al the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people.

17 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

18 Thou shalt goe through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou commest nigh vnto the children of Ammon, thou shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I will not giue thee of the lande of the childrē of Ammon any possession, I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot to possesse.

20 That also was taken for a land of Giants, and Giants dwelt therein in old time, whom the Ammonites cal [g] Zamzummims, g Called Zamzummims, that is to say, wicked and horrible. But they answered their wickednesse with a goly name, calling themselues Euphemins, that is, plaisant, & gay fellowes to eate and refresh vices.

21 A people that was great, many, & tall, as the Anakims: But the Lorde destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, & dwelt in their steade:

22 As he did for the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, for whom he destroied the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their steade vnto this day.

23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazarin, euen vnto Azza, the [h] Caphthorims which came out of Caphthor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their steade.

h Thei are men of Cappadocia, as som men say. Iosephus saith, that this people be vnknown.

24 Rise yee vp therefore, and take your iourney ouer the riuer Arnon: Beholde, I haue giuen into thy hande Sehon the Amorite, king of Hesbon, and his land, begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battaile.

25 This day will I begin to send the feare and dread of thee vpon all nations that are vnder all the heauen, so that they which heare speake of thee, shall tremble and quake before thee.

26 * And so I sent messengers out of the wildernesse of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon king of Hesbon, with words of peace, saying, * Nomb. 21. 21.

27 Let me passe through thy land, I will goe along by the high way, I will neither turne vnto the right hand, nor to the left.

29 As the children of Esau which dwell in mount Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me, vntill I bee come ouer Iordane into the land which the Lord our God giueth vs.

30 But Sehon the king of Hesbon would not let vs passe by him, for the Lord thy God hardened his spirite, and made his heart obstinate, because hee would deliuer him into thy hand, as it is come to passe this day.

Amos 2.9.

31 And the Lorde saide vnto mee, Behold, I haue begun to giue Sehon and his lande before thee, begin to possesse and inherite his land.

32 Then both Sehon and all his people came out against vs to fight at Iasa.

33 And the Lord set him before vs, & wee smote him, and his sonnes, and al his people.

34 And wee tooke all his cities the same season, and slewe the men, women, and children of all the cities, & let nothing remaine, 35 Saue the cattell onely we caught vnto our selues, & the spoile of the cities which we tooke.

36 From Aroer which is by the brinke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is in the riuer vnto Gilead, there was not one citie too strong for vs: the Lord our God deliuered all [k] vnto vs.

The iij. Chapter.

Things that chaunced from the victorie of the two kings, Sehon and Og, vnto the institution of Iosuah in Moses stead.

THen wee turned, and went vp, the way to Basan: * and Og the king of Basan came out against vs, hee and al his people, to fight at Edrai.

Num.21. 33. deut.29.7.

2 And the Lord said vnto me, Feare him not, for I will deliuer him, and all his people, and his lande into thy hande, and thou shalt doe vnto him, * as thou diddest vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

Num.21. 24.

3 And so the Lord our God deliuered into our handes Og also the king of Basan, and all his folke: and wee smote him vntil none was left him aliue.

Numb. 21. 33.

4 And we tooke al his cities the same season, neither was there a citie which we took not from them, threescore cities throughout the region of Argob, of the kingdome of Og in Basan.

5 All these cities also were made strong with high walles, gates, and barres, besides vnwalled townes a great many.

6 And we vtterly destroyed them, as wee did vnto Sehon king of Hesbon, vtterly destroying to nought all the cities, with men, women, and children:

[a] As God had commanded them.

7 But all the cattell, and the spoile of the cities, we tooke for our selues.

8 And thus we tooke the same season out of the hande of two kinges of the Amorites, the land that was on the other side Iordane, from the riuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon:

9 (which Hermon the Sidons call Sirion: and the Amorites call it Senir)

10 All the cities that lie in the plaine, & al Gilead, and al Basan, vnto Salcha, & Edrai cities of the kingdome of Og in Basan.

11 For onely Og king of Basan remayned of the remnant of the Giants: whose bed was a bedde of [b] yron: And is it not yet at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? Nine cubites doeth the length thereof containe, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a man.

[b] The vse of terrible yron, Giant like, the more shall Gods gouernors & powers to be magnified for the conquest.

[c] Of the common stature. Numb. 32. 33.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Basan, of the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasse: euen all the region of Argob, with all Basan, which is called the land of Giants.

[d] Or, the time when this story was written.

15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Rubenites and Gadites, I gaue Gilead, vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the valley, and beyonde, euen vnto the riuer Iaboc, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

[e] Which is vtterly by Moses writers from the Aramites. [f] The plaine. [g] Called also Genezareth, as the sea of Galilee. [h] Chin. Kinnereth.

17 The [f] plaine also, and Iordane, and the coast thereof, from [g] Cenereth, vnto the sea which is in the plaine, euen the salt sea, vnder the sprigs of the hill Gai ward.

18 And I commanded you the same time, saying, The Lorde your God hath giuen you this land to enioy it: yee shall goe harnessed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meete for the warre.

19 Your wiues onely, your children, and your cattell (for I know that yee haue much cattel) shal abide in your cities which I haue giuen you, 20 Euntill the Lorde haue giuen rest vnto your brethren, as well as vnto you, and vntill they also possesse the lande which the Lorde your God hath giuen them beyonde Iordane: and then shall yee returne againe euery man vnto his possession which I haue giuen you.

put thyde two kinges: so shall he doe vnto all kingdomes whither thou goest.

22 Yee shall not feare them: for the Lorde your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lorde the same time, saying,

24 O Lorde God, thou hast begun to shewe thy seruaunt thy greatnesse, and thy mightie hande: for what is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can do after thy workes, and like vnto thy power?

25 I pray thee let me goo ouer, and see the good lande that is beyonde Iordane, that goodly mountaine, and Libanus.

26 But the Lorde was angrie with me for your sakes, and would not heare me: and the Lorde sayde vnto me, Be content, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 Get thee vp into the top of the hil, and lift vp thine eyes westwarde, Northwarde, Southwarde, and Eastwarde, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not goo ouer this Iordane.

28 But charge Iosuah, and encourage him, and holden him: for he shall goe before this people, and see shall deuide vnto them the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley ouer against the house of peor.

The iiij. Chapter.

An exhortation to obserue the law without adding thereto, or diminishing. 6 We might teache the lawes of our God vnto other nations. 7 We ought to make homage whereby we confesse him to be our God.

NOwe therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the ordinaunces and lawes which I teache you, for to do them, that ye may liue, and go in and possesse the land which the Lorde God of your fathers giueth you.

2 Ye shall put nothing vnto the worde which I commaunde you, neither shall you take ought from it, that ye may keepe the commaundementes of the Lorde your God, which I commaunde you.

3 Your eyes haue seene what the Lorde did against Baal peor: for all the men that followed Baal peor, the Lorde thy God hath destroied from among you.

4 But yee that cleaue vnto the Lorde your God, are aliue euery one of you this day.

5 Behold, I haue taught you ordinaunces and lawes, euen as the Lorde my God commaunded me, that ye shoulde doe so in the land whither ye goe to possesse it.

6 Keepe them therefore, and doe them, for that is your wisedome and vnderstanding in the sight of the people, that they may heare all these ordinaunces, and say, Surely it is a wise and vnderstanding people, it is a great nation.

7 For what other nation is so great, that goddes come so nigh vnto it, as the Lorde our God is present vnto vs in all things as often as we call vpon him?

8 Yea, and what nation is so great, that hath ordinaunces and lawes so righteous, as all this lawe which I set before you this day?

9 Take heede to thy selfe therefore, and keepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thy heart all the dayes of thy life: but teache them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes:

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lorde thy God in Horeb, when the Lorde sayde vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they liue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children:

11 Yee came and stoode also vnder the mountaine, and the mountaine burned with fire vnto the mids of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes, and mist.

12 And the Lorde spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, but heard a voyce onely.

13 And he declared vnto you his couenant which he commaunded you to doe, euen ten commaundements, which he wrote vpon two tables of stone.

14 And the Lord commaunded me that same season, that I should teache you ordinances and lawes, whereof ye ought to doe in the land whither ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good heede vnto your selues, as pertaining vnto your soules: for ye saw no maner of image in the day that the Lorde spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of the fire,

16 Lest yee marre your selues, and make you a grauen image and picture of any manner of figure, whether it bee the likenesse of man, or woman,

17 The likenesse of any beast that is on the earth, or the likenesse of any manner feathered fowle that flieth in the aire,

18 Or the likenesse of any maner of thing that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any manner fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne, and the moone, and the starres, with all the host of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worship them, and serue them, which the Lorde thy God hath made to serue all nations vnder the whole heauen.

20 But the Lorde hath taken you, and brought you out of the yron furnace, euen out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people of inheritance, as ye be this day.

21 Furthermore, the Lorde was angry with

The vj. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commandements. 16 God ought not to be tempted.

NOw these are the commandements, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lorde your God commaunded me to teache you, that ye might doe them in the lande whither ye goe to possesse it:

2 That thou mightest feare the Lorde thy God, and keepe all his ordinances and his commandements which I commaunde thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life: that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heede that thou doe it, that it may goe well with thee, and that ye may increase mightely, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath promised thee, a land that * flowth with milke and honie.

4 * Heare, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lorde onely.

5 And thou shalt love the Lorde thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

6 And these wordes which I commaund thee this day, shalbe in thine * heart:

7 And thou shalt shewe them vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou art at home in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest downe, and when thou risest vp.

8 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, and they shalbe as ‖ frontlets betweene thine eyes, 9 And thou shalt write them vpon the ᵇ postes of thy house, and vpon thy gates.

10 And when the Lorde thy God hath brought thee into the lande which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and shall giue to thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 Houses ful of al maner of goods, which thou filledst not, and welles digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyardes & olive trees, which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten, and art full:

12 Then beware least thou forget the Lord which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare the Lorde thy God, and serue him, and shalt sweare by his name.

14 See ‖ ye walke not after strange gods, the gods of the nations which are about you:

15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you) least the countenance of the Lorde thy God be mooued to wrath against thee, & destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16 * Ye shal not tempt the Lord your God, as * ye did in the place of * temptation:

17 But you shal diligently keepe the commandements of the Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt doe that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest goe in, and possesse that good land whereof the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath sayd.

20 And ᶜ when thy sonne asketh thee in time to come, saying, What meaneth these testimonies, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne, We were Pharaos bondmen in Egypt, and the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt with a mightie hand.

22 And the Lord shewed signes and wonders, great and euill, vpon Egypt, vpon Pharao, and vpon all his housholde, before our eyes:

23 And brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the land which he sware vnto our fathers.

24 And he hath commanded vs to doe all these ordinances, and to feare the Lorde our God, for our wealth, all the dayes of our life, as it is come to passe this day.

25 Moreouer, this shall bee our ᵈ righteousnesse before the Lorde our God, if we take heede, and keepe all these commandements, as he hath commanded vs.

2 And when the Lorde thy God hath set them before thee, thou shalt smite them, and vtterly destroy them, * and make no couenant with them, nor haue compassion on them.

3 Thou shalt make no marriages with them: neither giue thy daughter vnto his sonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne.

4 For they will deceiue thy sonne, that he should not follow me, and they shall serue strange gods: and then will the wrath of the Lorde wax hot against thee, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus ye shall deale with them, * ye shall ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire.

9 Vnderstand therefore, that the Lorde thy God, he is God, a that a true God, which keepeth appoyntment and mercy vnto them that loue him, and keepe his commaundements, throughout a thousand generations:

15 Moreouer, the Lorde will take away from thee all maner infirmities, and will put none of the euill diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) vpon thee: but will send them vpon all them that hate thee.

16 Thou shalt consume all the nations which the Lorde thy God shall deliuer thee: thine eye shall haue no pitie vpon them, neither shalt thou serue their goddes, for that shall be thy decay.

17 If thou say in thine heart, These nations are moe then I, how can I cast them out?

18 Thou shalt not feare them: but remember what the Lorde thy God did vnto Pharao, and vnto all Egypt.

22 For the Lorde thy God will put out these nations before thee by a litle and a litle: thou mayest not consume them at once, least the e beasts of the fielde increase vpon thee.

23 But the Lord thy God shall giue them before thee, and shall destroy them with a mightie destruction, vntill he haue brought them to nought.

24 And hee shall deliuer their kings into thine hand, & thou shalt destroy their name from vnder heauen: There shall no man be able to stand before thee, vntill thou haue destroyed them.

25 The grauen images of their gods shalt thou f burne with fire: and couet not the gold and siluer that is on them, nor take it vnto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination before the Lord thy God.

26 Bring not therefore abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing as it is: but vtterly defie it, and abhorre it, for it is a cursed thing.

The viij. Chapter.

Moses putteth the Israelites in remembrance of all the benefites which God bestowed vpon them, and the afflictions which God sent them in the wildernesse, 19 lest the forgetfulnesse thereof should bring them to destruction.

The x. Chapter.

1 The tables are renewed, and put into the Arke.

Exod. 34.1.

IN the *ſame ſeaſon the Lorde ſaide vnto me, Hewe thee two tables of ſtone, like vnto the firſt, and come vp vnto me into the mount, and make thee an Arke of wood.

2 And I will write in ỹ tables the words that were in the firſt tables which thou braſteſt, and thou ſhalt put them in the Arke.

3 And I made an Arke of [a] Sittim wood, and hewed two tables of ſtone like vnto the firſt, and went vp into the mountaine, hauing the two tables in mine hand.

a Which is a very excellent kind of Cedar, not ſubiect to putrifaction, Exod. 32.

4 And he wrote in the tables, according to the firſt writing, the ten cõmandements, which the Lord ſpake vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day when [b] you were gathered together: and the Lorde gaue them vnto me.

5 And I departed, and came downe from the hil, and put the tables in the Arke which I had made, and there they be, as the Lorde commanded me.

b When you came together to receiue the lawe at the mount Sinai.

6 And the children of Iſrael tooke their iourney from Beroth, of the children of Iaakan, to *Molera, where [c] Aaron *died, and was buried, and Eleazar his ſonne became Prieſt in his ſteade.

8 The ſame ſeaſon the Lord ſeparated the tribe of Leui, to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and to ſtande before the Lord, and to miniſter vnto him, and to bleſſe in his name vnto this day.

d He God turned the curſe of Iacob, Gen. 49. into bleſſing.

10 And I taryed in the mount, as at the firſt time, fourties dayes, and fourtie nights: and the Lord heard me at that time alſo, and the Lord would not deſtroy thee.

11 And the Lord ſayd vnto me, Ariſe, and goe forth in the iourneyes before the people, that they may goe in, and poſſeſſe the lande which I ſware vnto their fathers, to giue vnto them.

12 And now Iſrael, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, and to walke in all his wayes, to loue him, and to ſerue the Lorde thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy ſoule?

13 That thou keepe the commandements of the Lorde, and his ordinances, which I commaund thee this day for thy wealth.

14 Behold, heauen, and the heauen of heauens is the Lordes thy God, ỹ the earth, with all that therein is.

15 Notwithſtanding, the Lord had a delight in thy fathers, to loue them, and choſe their ſeede after them, euen you aboue al nations, as thou ſeeſt this day.

16 [e] Circumcile therefore the foreſkin of your heart, and be no more ſtiffnecked.

e That is, let all your euil affections be cut off. Circumciſion in the olde time was the ende of circumciſion, Ieremi. 4.4. Galat. 2.6. rom. 2.11.

17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lorde of lordes, a great God, a mightie, and a terrible, which regardeth *no mans perſon, nor taketh reward.

18 He doth right vnto the fatherleſſe and widow, and loueth the ſtranger, to giue him foode and rayment.

19 Loue ye therefore the ſtranger alſo: for ye were ſtrangers your ſelues in the lande of Egypt.

The xj. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to loue God, and alwayes to be mindfull of his lawes, and to keepe them.

a Loue is the first poynt of the true keeping of the law.

THerefore thou shalt [a] loue the Lord thy God, and keepe his obseruances, his ordinances, his lawes, and his commaundements alway.

2 Know ye this day (for I speake not to your children which haue neither knowen nor seene) the chastisement of the Lord your God, his greatnesse, his mightie hande, and his stretched out arme,

3 His miracles and his actes which hee did in the mids of Egypt, euen vnto Pharao the king of Egypt, and vnto all his land:

4 And what he did vnto the host of Egypt, vnto their horses & charets, how he brought the water of the red sea vpon them as they pursued you behind, and how the Lord hath brought them to nought vnto this day:

5 And what hee did vnto you in the wildernes, vntil ye came vnto this place:

Num.16. 31. psal. 105.17. 6 And what hee did vnto * Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab the sonne of Ruben: howe the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them, with their houholds, and their tents, and all their substance that ‖ Or, at their feete, was ‖ in their possession in the middes of Israel.

7 Doubtlesse, your eies haue seene all the great actes of the Lord, which he did.

8 Therefore shal ye keepe al the commandements which I commaund you this day, that ye may be strong and goe in, and possesse the land whither ye goe to possesse it:

9 And that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue vnto them, and to their seede, a land that floweth with milke and hony.

10 For the lande whither thou goest vp to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt that ye came out of, where thou sowedst thy seede, and [b] wateredst it with thy feete, as a garden of herbes.

b Vs by making gutters and pipes to conuey water out of this land: For they were wont to haue no raine in Egypt.

11 But the lande whither ye goe ouer to possesse it, is a land that hath hilles & valleis, and drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This lande doeth the Lorde thy God care for, and the eyes of the Lord thy God are alwayes vpon it, from the beginning of the yeere, vnto the end of the yeere.

13 If you shal hearken therefore vnto my commaundements which I commaund you this day, that ye loue the Lord your God, and serue him with all your heart, and with all your soule:

14 I also will giue raine vnto your lande in due season, the [c] first raine and the latter, that thou mayest gather in thy corne, thy wine, and thine oyle.

c In the latter time.

15 And I will sende grasse in thy fieldes for thy cattell, that thou maiest eate, and fill thy selfe.

16 But beware that your [d] heart deceiue you not, and ye turne aside, and serue strange gods, and worship them:

d By falling to blinde deuotion, proceeding of your owne inuentions.

17 And then the Lord being wroth against you, shutte vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your land yeeld not her fruit, and lest yee perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giueth you.

18 * Therefore shall yee put vp these my words in your heart, & in your soule, & binde them for a signe vpon your hande, that they may be as a ‖ frontlet betweene your eyes. Deut.6.6. ‖ Or, signes of remembrance.

19 And ye shall teach them your children, that they may talke of them, when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest vp.

20 Yea, and thou shalt write them vpon the doore postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates:

21 That your dayes may bee multiplied, and the dayes of your children, in the lande which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as the dayes of heauen last vpon the earth.

22 For if yee keepe all these commaundements which I commaunde you, to that yee doe them: namely, that ye loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and cleaue vnto him:

23 Then will the Lorde cast out all these nations before you, and ye shall be the heires of great nations, and of them that are mightier then your selues.

24 * All [e] the places whereon the soles of your feete shall tread, shalbe yours: from the wildernesse, and from Libanon, and from the riuer Euphrates, vnto the vttermost sea, shall your [f] coast be. Iosu.1.3. e This was fulfilled in Dauid and Solomons raigne. f He describeth the largenesse of their kingdome when it flourished most.

25 There shal no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall cast the feare and dread of you vpon all the lande that ye shall tread vpon, as he hath said vnto you.

26 Beholde, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commaundements of the Lorde your God, which I commaund you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commaundements of the Lorde your God, but turne out of the way which I commaunde you this day, to go after strange gods which ye haue [g] not knowen.

g The very certaintie of doing well is to follow the word of God, and not the inuention of man.

29 When the Lord thy God therefore hath brought thee into the land whither thou goest to possesse it, thou shalt * put the blessing vpon mount Garizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal. Deu.27.13 iosu.8.33.

30 Are not these mountains on the other side Iordane, on that part of the way where the sunne goeth downe, in the land of the Chanaanites, which dwell in the plaine ouer against Gilgal, beside the groue of Moreh.

31 For ye shall possesse ouer Iordane, to go in, and possesse the land which the Lord your God giueth you, and ye shall possesse it, and dwell therein.

32 Take heede therefore that ye do all the commandements and lawes which I set before you this day.

The xij. Chapter.

1 God commandeth the places of idolatry to be destroyed. 5. 8 God will be serued as he doeth appoint, and not as man doeth fantasie.

THese are the ordinaunces and lawes, which yee shall obserue and doe, in the land which the Lord God of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it, as long as yee liue vpon the earth.

2 Ye shall destroy all places, wherein the nations which yee shall possesse serued their gods, vpon high mountaines, on hilles, and vnder euery greene tree.

3 You shall ouerthrowe their altars, and breake their pillars, and burne their [a] groues with fire, and you shall hewe downe the grauen images of the gods that they haue, and bring the names of them to nought out of that place.

a Wherin they made sacrifice to their false gods.

4 Ye shall not doe so vnto the Lorde your God:

2.Chr.7.12 5 *But ye shall seeke the place which the Lorde your God shall chuse out of all your tribes, to put his name there, and there to dwell, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither yee shall bring your whole burnt sacrifices, your offerings, your tithes, & heaue offerings of your hand, your vowes, your free will offerings, and the first borne of your kine, and of your sheepe.

b In the place where the arke is.

7 And there ye shall eate [b] before the Lord your God, and ye shall reioyce in all that you put your hand vnto, both yee and your households, wherein the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

c Ye meaneth not that they vsed serued God after their owne inventions, but that neuertheles they should serue him yet more purely in the land of Chanaan.

8 Yee shall not doe after all [c] the things that wee doe here this day, euery man that seemeth him good in his owne eies.

9 For yee are not yet come to rest, and to the inheritance which the Lorde your God giueth you.

10 But when ye goe ouer Iordane, and dwell in the lande which the Lord your God hath giuen you to inherit, and when he hath giuen you rest from all your enemies round about, and shall dwel in saftie:

11 Then vnto the place which the Lorde

3.Reg.8.29 your God hath chosen to * put his name there, yee shall bring all that I commaund you: your whole burnt sacrifices, your offerings, your tithes, the heaue offring of your hand, and all your speciall vowes which yee vowe vnto the Lord.

12 And yee shall reioyce before the Lord your God, ye & your sonnes, and your daughters, your seruants and your maidens, and the Leuite that is within your gates, forasmuch as hee hath no part nor inheritaunce with you.

13 Take heede that thou offer not thy whole burnt offeringes in euerie place that thou seest.

14 But in the place which the Lord shall chuse in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy whole burnt offrings, and there thou shalt doe all that I commaund thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eate flesh in all thy [‖] gates whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth after, [d] according to the blessing of the Lorde thy God which he hath giuen thee: both the vncleane and the cleane may eate thereof, of the Roe bucke, and of the Hart.

‖ Or, gates.

d According to the ability that he hath giuen thee.

16 Onely ye shall not [e] eate the blood, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

e This prohibition was made, that men might learne to abhorre cruelty.

17 Thou maiest not eate within thy gates the tithe of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thy oyle, and the first borne of thy kine, and of thy sheepe, neither any of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy free will offeringes, or heaue offering of thine hand:

18 But thou must eate them before the Lorde thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen, thou, & thy sonne, and thy daughter, thy seruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite that is within thy gates: & thou shalt reioyce before the Lorde thy God, in all that thou puttest thine hand to.

19 Beware that thou forsake not the Leuite, as long as thou liuest vpon the earth.

20 If when the Lorde thy God shall enlarge thy border, as hee hath promised thee, thou say, I will eate flesh (because thy soule *longeth to eate flesh) thou mayest eate flesh whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth. Gen.28.14 deut.19.9.

21 If the place which the Lorde thy God hath chosen to put his name there, bee too farre from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy oxen and of thy sheepe, which the Lord hath giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, and thou shalt eate in thine owne citie [‖] whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth.

‖ Or, gates.

22 And as the Roe bucke and the Hart is eaten, so thou shalt eate them: both the clean and the vncleane shal eate of them.

23 But [‖] take heed that thou eate not the [f] blood: for the blood is the life, & thou maiest not eate the life with the flesh.

‖ Or, bee strong.

f Chuse he eth, for that their life consisteth in the blood.

24 Thou shalt not eate it, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eate it, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee: but thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

26 But thy holy [g] things which thou hast, and thy vowes, thou shalt take, and come vnto the place which the Lord hath chosen.

g Things consecrated to God, or that are appointed for sacrifice.

27 And thou shalt offer thy whole burnt offeringes, both flesh and bloud, vpon the the altar of the Lorde thy God: and the blood of thine offrings shalbe powred out vpon the altar of the Lorde thy God, and thou shalt eate the flesh.

28 Take heede, and heare all these wordes which I commaund thee that it may go wel with thee, and with thy children after thee for euer, if thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God.

29 When the Lorde thy God shall destroy the nations before thee, whither thou goest to possesse them, and thou succeedest in their inheritance, and dwellest in their land:

b By falling into their idolatrie and superstition.

30 Beware that thou be not taken in [b] a snare after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and that thou aske not after their gods, saying, As these nations serue their gods, I will doe so likewise.

31 Nay, thou shalt not doe so vnto the Lord thy God: for all abominations, and that which the Lorde hateth, the same haue they done vnto their gods.

i This declareth the extreme horror of idolatrie, by which the Canaanites committed most vnnaturall crueltie. Deut.4.2. prou.30.6.

32 For they haue [i] burned both their sonnes and their daughters with fire before their gods. Therefore whatsoeuer I cõmand you, take heede ye doe it: * put thou nought thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The false prophets, 5 and the inticers to idolatrie, must be put to death.

IF there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreames, and giue thee a signe or a wonder,

2 And that signe or wonder which he hath said, come to passe, and then say, Let vs [a] goe after strange gods (which thou hast not knowen) & let vs serue them:

a He declareth who be the false prophets: euen they that would turne vs from God.

3 Hearken not thou vnto the wordes of that prophet or dreamer of dreames: for the Lord thy God proueth you, to know whether you loue the Lorde your God with all your heart, and with all your soule.

4 Ye shal walke after the Lord your God, and feare him, keepe his commandements, and hearken vnto his voyce, you shall serue him, and cleaue vnto him.

b After that he hath been convicted by witnesse, and had sentence of death pronounced on him by the iudge.

5 And that prophet or dreamer of dreames shall [b] dye (because hee hath spoken to turne you away from the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lorde thy God commanded thee to walke in) and therefore thou shalt put the euill away from thee.

c Gods glory must be preferred before naturall affection.

6 If [c] thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wife that lyeth in thy bosome, or thy friend, which is as thine owne soule vnto thee, entise thee secretly, saying, Let vs goe and serue strange gods, which thou hast not knowen, nor yet thy fathers:

7 And they be any of the gods of the people which are rounde about you, whether they be nigh vnto thee, or farre off from thee, from the one end of the earth vnto the other:

8 Thou shalt not consent vnto him, nor hearken vnto him, thine eyes shall not pitie him, neither shalt thou haue compassion on him, nor keepe him secrete,

9 But * cause him to be slaine: [d] Thine hand shalbe first vpon him, to kill him, and then the handes of all the people.

Deut.17.7. d Thou shalt cast the first stone at him.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that hee dye: because he hath gone about to thrust thee away from the Lorde thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall heare and feare, and shall doe no more any such wickednes as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt heare say in one of thy cities, which the Lorde thy God hath giuen thee to dwell in,

13 That certaine men, being the children ‖ of Belial, are gone out from among you, and haue mooued the inhabiters of their citie, saying, Let vs goe & serue strange gods, which ye haue not knowen:

‖ Or, wicked men.

14 Then thou must seeke & make search, and enquire diligently: and beholde, if it be true, and the thing of a surety, that such abomination is wrought among you:

15 Then thou shalt smite the dwellers of that citie with the edge of the sworde, and destroy it vtterly, and all that is therein, and the very cattell thereof, with the edge of the sworde.

16 And gather all the spoyle of it into the midst of the streete thereof, and burne with fyre both the citie, and all the spoyle thereof euery whit, for * the Lorde thy God: and it shall be an heape for euer, and shall not be built againe.

c In the honour of God, shewing that God is honoured in destroying them that robbe him of his honour.

17 And [f] there shall cleaue nought of the damned thing in thine hand, that the Lorde may turne from the fiercenesse of his wrath, and shewe thee mercy, and haue compassion on thee, & multiplie thee, as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers.

f Thou shalt saue no part of that spoyle.

18 Therefore shalt thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to keepe all his commandements which I commaund thee this day, that thou doe that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 The maner of the Gentiles in mourning for the dead, may not be followed. 4 What meates are cleane to be eaten, and what not.

YE * are the children of the Lord your God: Ye shal not cut your selues, nor make you any baldnesse betweene your [a] eyes for the dead.

Deut.7.6. and 26.18.

a As the heathen vsed in mourning for the dead.

2 For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, & the Lorde hath chosen thee to be a seuerall people vnto him selfe, aboue all the nations that are vpon the earth.

3 Thou shalt eate no maner of abomination.

b Herby was figured to the Iewes a spirituall purenes, euen in their meate and drinke. Leuit. 11.2.

4 b These are the beastes which ye shall * eate of, oxen, sheepe, and goates.

5 Roe, Hart, and Bugle, wilde Goate, Vnicorne, wilde Oxen, and Camoyse.

6 And all the beasts that cleaue the hoofe, and cleaueth the clift into two clawes, and chewe the cud, them ye shall eate.

7 Neuertheleſſe, theſe yee shall not eate of them that chewe cud, and of them that deuide and cleaue the hoofe, onely the Camel, the Hare, and the Conie: for they chewe the cud, but deuide not the hoofe, therefore they are vncleane vnto you.

8 And also the Swine, though he deuide the hoofe, yet he cheweth not cud, therefore is he vncleane vnto you: ye shall not eate of the fleſh of ſuch, nor touch the dead carkeiſe of them.

9 Theſe ye shall eate, of all that are in the waters: all that haue finnes and scales shall ye eate.

10 And whatſoeuer hath not finnes and scales, of that ye may not eate, but it is vncleane vnto you.

11 Of all cleane birds ye shall eate.

12 But theſe are they of which yee shal not eate: the Eagle, the Gothauke, and the Oſprey, 13 The Glede, the Kite, and the Vulture, after their kinde.

14 And all kinde of Rauens.

15 The Eſtritch, the Nightcrowe, the Cuckowe, and the Sparowhauke, after their kinde.

16 The litle Owle, the great Owle, nor the Redshanke.

17 The Pelicane, the Swanne, nor the Cormorant.

18 The Storke, the Heron in his kinde, the Lapwing, the Bache.

19 And let euery creeping foule be vncleane vnto you, and not be eaten of.

20 But of all cleane foules ye may eate.

21 Ye shall eate of nothing that dyeth alone: but thou shalt giue it vnto the ſtranger that is in thy ‖ citie, that he eate it, or thou mayeſt ſel it vnto a ſtranger: For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God. * Thou shalt not c ſeeth a Kid in his mothers milke.

‖Or, gates.

Exo. 23.19. and 3.26.

c This ſignifieth the forbidding of things tending to cruelty.

22 Thou shalt tithe all the increaſe of thy ſeede, that the fielde bringeth forth yeere by yeere.

23 And thou shalt eate before the Lord thy God in the place which he hath choſen, and where he hath put his name, the tithe of thy corne, & of thy wine, & of thine oyle, and the firſt borne of the kine, and of thy sheepe: that thou maieſt learne to feare the Lord thy God alwayes.

24 If the way be too long for thee, ſo that thou art not able to carie it, and if the place be farre from thee, which the Lorde thy God hath choſen to ſet his name there, & the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee:

25 Then shalt thou make it in money, and take ‖ the money in thine hand, and goe vnto the place which the Lord thy God shall chuſe.

‖Or, binde vp.

26 And thou shalt beſtowe that money for whatſoeuer thy ſoule lufteth after, for oxen, and sheepe, wine, and ſtrong drinke, and for whatſoeuer thy ſoule deſireth: and thou shalt eate there before the Lord thy God, and be merie, both thou, and thine houſhold.

27 * And the Leuite that is within thy gates, shalt thou not forſake: for he hath neither part nor inheritance with thee.

Deut. 12. 19.

28 At the end of three yeres thou shalt bring forth all the tithes of thine increaſe the ſame yere, and lay it vp within thine owne gates.

29 And the Leuite which hath no part nor inheritance with thee, shal come, & the ſtranger, the fatherleſſe, & the widowe, which are within thy gates, shall eate and be filled, that the Lorde thy God may bleſſe thee, in all the workes of thine hand which thou doeſt.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The forgiueneſſe of dettes in the ſeuenth yeere. 7 To helpe the poore is commended. 12 The freedome of ſeruants.

AT the terme of * ſeuen yeeres thou shalt make a freedome. Leuit. 25.

2 And this is the maner of the freedome, Whoſoeuer a lendeth ought with his hand vnto his neighbour, may not aſke againe (that which he hath lent) of his neighbour, or of his brother, becauſe it is called the Lordes free yeere.

a This is here in ſtead of thoſe letters that poore, are abſent.

3 Yet of a ſtranger thou mayeſt call it home againe, but he that is thy brother, him shall thine hand remit.

4 In any wiſe there b ſhalbe no begger among you: for the Lord ſhal bleſſe thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance ‡:

b So that the beſt rich, for he ſhall bleſſe plenteouſly him in this world. ‡ To poſſeſſe it.

5 So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to obſerue and to doe all theſe commandements which I commaund thee this day:

6 For the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee, as hee hath promiſed thee, and thou ſhalt lend vnto many nations, but thou thy ſelfe ſhalt not borowe: and thou ſhalt raigne ouer many nations, and they ſhall not raigne ouer thee.

7 If one of thy brethren among you bee poore, within any of thy gates, in the lande which the Lorde thy God giueth thee: thou ſhalt not harden thine heart, nor ſhut to thine hand from thy poore brother:

8 But thou ſhalt * open thine hand vnto him, and lende him ſufficient for his neede which he hath.

Mat. 5. luke. 6.

9 Beware that there bee not a wicked thought in thine heart, that thou wouldeſt ſay, The ſeuenth yeere, the yeere of freedome is at hand: and therefore it grieueth thee to looke on thy poore brother, and giueſt him nought, & he then crie vnto the Lord againſt thee, thee, and it be sinne vnto thee.

10 Thou shalt giue him, and let it not grieue thine heart to giue vnto him: because that for this thing the Lorde thy God shall bl. thee in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thine hand vnto.

11 The lande shall * neuer be without poore: and therefore I commande thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand vnto thy brother that is needie and poore in thy land.

12 If thy * brother an Hebrue sell him selfe to thee, or an Hebrue woman, and serue thee sixe yeeres, in the seuenth yeere thou shalt let him goe free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him goe away emptie:

14 But * shalt giue him liberally of thy sheepe, of thy corne, and of thy wine, and giue him of that wherewith the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee.

15 And remember that thou wast a seruant in the lande of Egypt, and the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence: and therefore I commaunde thee this thing to day.

16 And if he say vnto thee, I will not goe away from thee, because he loueth thee, and thine house, and is well at ease with thee, 17 Then shalt thou take a naule, & nayle his eare to the doore therewith, and let him be thy seruant for euer, and vnto thy maide seruant thou shalt doe like wise.

18 And let it not grieue thine eye when thou lettest him go out from thee, for he hath bene worth a double hyred seruant to thee in his seruice sixe yeeres: and the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in all that thou doest.

19 * All the first males that come of thy cattell, and of thy sheepe, thou shalt hallow vnto the Lorde thy God: thou shalt doe no worke with the first borne bullocke, nor sheare the first borne of thy sheepe.

20 Thou shalt eate it before the Lorde thy God yeere by yeere, in the place which the Lord shall chuse, both thou and thy household.

21 * If there be any blemish therein: as if it be lame, or blinde, or haue any other euill fauouredness, thou shalt not offer it vnto the Lord thy God,

THou shalt offer vnto the Lorde thy God * no ore nor sheepe wherein is a blemish, or any e vnsauouredne: for that is an abomination vnto the Lorde thy God.

b The frailtie of the offender, shal not excuse the offence.

2 If there be founde among you within any of the gates which the Lorde thy God giueth thee, man or b woman that hath wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his couenant:

3 And gone and serued strange gods, and worshipped them, as the Sunne, or Moone, or any of the host of heauen, c which I haue not commanded:

c God refuseth all such seruice as he hath not commanded.

4 And it is told thee, and thou hast heard of it, then shalt thou enquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing of a suretie, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which haue committed that wicked thing) vnto the gates, & shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

Mat.18.16.

9 And come vnto the Priestes the Leuites, and vnto the g iudge that shall be in those dayes, and aske, and they shall shewe thee the sentence of iudgement.

g Who shall pronounce sentence according as the Priest shall instruct him, as greeable to Gods worde.

10 And thou must doe according to that which they of h that place which the Lorde hath chosen shewe thee, and thou shalt obserue to do according to all that they enstructe thee:

11 According to the sentence of the lawe which they tell thee, i shalt thou doe: and bowe not from that which they shewe thee, neither to the right hande, nor to the left.

h That the controuersie may be the sooner ended.

12 And that man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken vnto the Priest (that standeth there before the Lord thy God to minister) or vnto the iudge, that man shal die, & thou shalt put away euill from Israel.

i As long as he is the true minister of God, and pronounceth agreable to his worde.

13 And all the people shall heare, & feare, and doe no more presumptuously.

14 When thou art come vnto the lande which the Lord thy God giueth thee, and enioyest it, and dwellest therein, and if thou shalt say, I will set a king ouer me, like as al the nations that are about me:

15 Then thou shalt make him king ouer thee, whome the Lorde thy God shall chuse: One from among thy brethren shalt thou make king ouer thee, and thou mayest not set a stranger ouer thee, which is not of thy brethren.

16 But he shall not multiplie horses to himselfe, nor bring the people againe to k Egypt, to encrease the number of horses: for as much as the Lord hath said vnto you, Ye shal hencefoorth goe no more againe that way.

19 And it shalbe with him, and he ought to reade therein all the dayes of his life, that he may learne to feare the Lorde his God, and to keepe all the wordes of this law, and these ordinances, for to doe them:

20 And that his heart arise not aboue his brethren, and that he turne not from the commandement, to the right hand, or to the left: but that he may prolong his dayes in his kingdome, he and his children in the middes of Israel.

and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shal they haue no inheritãce among their brethren, but the * Lorde he is their inheritance, as he hath said vnto them.

3 And the Priestes duetie of the people, and of them that offer, whether it bee oxe or sheepe, they must giue vnto the Priest [b] the shoulder, & the two cheekes, and the mawe.

b The right shoulder.

4 The first fruites also of thy corne, wine, and oyle, & the first of the fleece of thy sheepe, shalt thou giue him.

5 For the Lord thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand and to minister in the Name of the Lord, he, and his sonnes for euer.

6 If a Leuite come out of any of thy cities of all Israel, where hee is a soiourner, and come [c] with all the lust of his heart, vnto the place which the Lord hath chosen, c To serue God with a good will.

7 Hee shall minister in the Name of the Lord his God, as his other brethren the Leuites do, which remaine there before ỹ Lord.

8 And they shall haue like portions to eate, beside that which [d] commeth of the sale of his patrimonie.

d Besides that which they haue of their fathers goods, they shall haue of the offrings and first fruits as the other Leuites doe.

9 When thou art come into the lande which the Lorde thy God giueth thee, thou shalt not learne to doe after the abominations of those nations.

10 Let there not be found among you any one that maketh his sonne or his daughter to [e] goe thorowe the fire, or that vseth witchcraft, or a regarder of times, or that regardeth the flying of fowles, e Which thought the going betweene two fires to be a kinde of purifying.

11 * Or a sorcerer, or a charmer, or that counselleth with spirites, or a soothsayer, or that asketh counsaile of the dead. Leui. 20. 27

12 For all that doe such things, are abomination vnto the Lorde: and because of these abominations, the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee.

13 Thou shalt be perfite therefore in the sight of the Lord thy God.

14 For these nations which thou shalt possesse, hearken vnto regarders of times, and vnto sorcerers: but the Lorde thy God hath not suffered thee so to doe.

15 * The Lorde thy God will stirre vp vnto thee a Prophet among you of thy brethrē, like vnto me, vnto him ye shall hearken. Ioh. 1. 45. Actes 3. 22.

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assemblie, when thou saidest, Let me * heare the voyce of my Lorde God no more, nor see this great fire any more, that I die not. Exo. 20. 19.

17 And the Lord said vnto me, They haue well spoken.

18 * I wil raise them vp a Prophet from among their brethren, like vnto thee, & will put my wordes in his mouth, & he shal speake vnto them all that I shall commaund him. Ioh. 1. 45.

19 And whosoeuer will not hearken vnto my wordes, which he shall speake in my Name, [f] I will require it of him.

f I will punish him for it.

20 But the prophet which shall presume to speake a word in my name, which I haue not commaunded him to speake, or that speaketh in the name of strange gods, the same prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine hart, Howe shall we knowe the worde which the Lorde hath not spoken?

22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lorde, & if the thing followe not, nor come to passe: that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not therefore be afrayde of him.

g That is one sure token of a false prophet: of an other, mention is made before, Chap. 13.

2 Thou shalt [a] separate * three cities for thee in the middes of the lande, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it:

a Appoint three cities of refuge. Exo. 21. 13.

3 Thou shalt [b] prepare the way, and deuide the coastes of the lande, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite, into three partes, that whosoeuer [c] committeth murder, may flee thither.

b Make it able to be trauailed without any let.

c That killeth one by chance, and not of set purpose.

4 For this cause must the slayer flee thither: that he may liue, who so killeth his neighbour ignorantly, and hated him not in time past:

5 And when a man goeth vnto the wood with his neighbour, to hewe wood, and as his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut downe the tree, the head slippeth from the helue, and smiteth his neighbour that hee dieth: the same shall flee vnto one of the same cities, and liue:

6 Lest the auenger of the * blood followe after the slayer while his heart is hot, and ouertake him, because the way is long, and slay him, and yet there is no cause [d] worthie of death in him, in as much as he hated him not in time past. Nū. 35. 12.

d He can not be iudged to death.

7 Wherefore I commaund thee, saying, Thou shalt appoint out three cities for thee.

8 And if the Lorde thy God [e] enlarge thy coastes (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) and giue thee all the lande which he saide he would giue vnto thy fathers:

e When thou goest ouer Iordane.

9 Thou shalt * keepe all these commaundements to doe them, which I commaund thee this day, that thou loue thy Lorde thy God, and walke in his wayes euer: and adde * three cities moe, for thee, beside these three, Deu. 12. 20. gen. 28. 14. Iosu. 20. 7.

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy lande which the Lorde thy God giueth thee to inherite, and [f] so blood come vpon thee.

12 The g elders of his citie shall sende and fetch him thence, and deliuer him into the hands of ỹ auenger of blood, that he may die.

h Wilful murder can not be pardoned without gods high displeasure.

13 h Thine eye shall not spare him, but thou shalt i put away innocent blood from Israel, that it may goe well with thee.

i By reuenging of the innocent blood.

k Sperestone, or land bound: The very Paynims did iudge this to be a great offence.

15 One witnesse shall not rise against a man for any trespasse, or for any sinne, or for any fault that hee offendeth in: but at the mouth of two witnesses, or of three witnesses, shall the matter be stablished.

16 If a false witnesse rise vp against a man to accuse him of trespasse:

17 Then both the men which striue together, shall stand l before the Lorde, before the Priestes and the iudges which shall be in those dayes:

l God is present, where his true ministers are.

18 And the iudges shall make diligent inquisition: and if the witnesse be found false, and that he hath giuen false witnesse against his brother:

WHen thou goest out to battell against thine enemies, and seest horses and charets, and people more then thou, be not afraide of them: for the Lorde thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when yee are come nigh vnto battell, the priest shall come forth to speake vnto the people, 11 And if they c answere thee againe peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is found therein, be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee.

12 And if they will make no peace with thee, but make warre against thee, thou shalt besiege it.

13 And when the Lorde thy God hath deliuered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sworde.

14 But the women, and the children, and the cattell, and all that is in the citie, and all the spoyle thereof, shalt thou take vnto thy selfe, and eate the spoyle of thine enemies, which ỹ Lord thy God hath giuē thee.

15 Thus shalt thou doe vnto all the cities which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of d these nations.

d Of the Chanaanites, &c.

16 But of ỹ cities of these nations, which the Lorde thy God shal giue thee to inherite, thou shalt saue alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But shalt destroy them without redemption, namely, the Hethites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they haue done vnto their gods, & so ye should sinne against the Lord your God.

‖ For it is but wood vpon the field, and no man, and can not come & be bulwarkes against thee.

19 When thou hast besieged a citie a long time, and made warre against it, to take it, destroy not the trees thereof, that thou wouldest thrust an axe vnto them: but eate of them, and cut them not downe to further thee in thy siege: ‖ for the tree of the fielde e is mans life.

e That is, beareth fruit good for the sustenance of man. For he speaketh here of fruitfull trees.

17 But he shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, & giue him [k] double portion of all that he hath: [l] for hee is the first of his strength, and to him belongeth the right of the first borne.

18 If any man haue a sonne that is stubborne and disobedient, that he will not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, and voyce of his mother, and they haue chastened him, and he would not hearken vnto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother take him, and bring him out vnto the elders of that citie, and vnto the gate of that same place,

10 Thou shalt not plow with an oxe and an [e] asse together.

e For that match is not alike in strength, declaring that curtesie, humanitie, & charitie should be in mann, or to ouermatch his neighbour.

11 Thou shalt not weare a garment made of woll and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee * gardes vpon the foure quarters of thy vesture, wherwith thou coueresi thy selfe.

Nu. 15. 38.

13 If a man take a wife, & when he hath lien with her, hate her,

14 And lay shamefull thinges vnto her charge, & bring vp an euill name vpon her, and say, I tooke this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a maide:

15 Then shall the father of the damosell, and the mother, bring forth the tokens of the damosels virginitie, vnto the elders of the citie, in the gate,

16 And the damosels father shall say vnto the elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this man to wife, and he hateth her:

17 And loe, he layeth shamefull thinges vnto her charge, saying, I founde not thy daughter a mayde: and yet these are the tokens of my daughters virginitie. And they shal spread the vesture before the elders of the citie.

18 And the elders of that citie shall take that man, and chastise him, 19 And mearse him in an hundred sicles of siluer, and giue them vnto the [f] father of the damosell, because he hath brought vp an euill name vpon a mayde of Israel: And shee shalbe his wife, and he may not put her away all his dayes.

f The father receiueth recompence, because ꝑ shame of the fact should haue lighted vpon him.

20 But and if the thing be of a suretie that the damosell be not found a virgin:

21 They shall bring the damosell to the doore of her fathers house, & the men of that citie shall stone her with stones to death, because shee hath wrought follie in Israel, to play the whore in her fathers house: and so thou shalt put euill from among you.

Leui. 20. 10

22 If a man be found * lying with a woman, that hath a wedded husband, they shall both die, both ꝑ man that lay with the wife, and also the wife: and so thou shalt put away euill from Israel.

23 If a mayde be betrothed vnto an husband, and then a man find her in the towne, and lie with her:

24 Ye shall bring them both out vnto the gates of the same citie, and shall stone them with stones to death: the damosell, because she cried not, being in the citie: and the man, because hee hath [g] humbled his neighbours wife: & thou shalt put away euill from thee.

g Defiled.

25 But if a man finde a betrothed damosell in the fielde, and force her, and lye with her: then the man that lay with her, shall dye alone.

26 But vnto the damosel thou shalt do no harme, because there is in the damosell no cause of [h] death. For as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him: euen [i] so is this matter.

h No sinne worthy of death.

i The maide is no more worthy of blame, then he that is assaulted, and murdered by an other, in ꝑsuite of ꝑ murther.

27 For he found her in the fields, and the betrothed damosell cryed, and there was no man to succour her.

28 If a man finde a maide that is not betrothed, and take her, and lie with her, and they be found,

29 Then the man that lay with her, shall * giue vnto the damosels father fiftie sicles of siluer, & shee shalbe his wife, because he hath humbled her: and he may not put her away all his dayes.

19 Curſed ſhalt thou be when thou goeſt in, and curſed when thou goeſt out.

20 The Lord ſhal ſend vpon thee curſing, deſtruction, and rebuke, in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand to, and that thou doeſt, vntill he deſtroy thee, & bring thee to nought quickly, becauſe of the wickednes of thine inuentions, and becauſe thou haſt forſaken me.

21 The Lorde ſhall make the peſtilence cleaue vnto thee, vntill hee haue conſumed thee from off the lande whither thou goeſt to enioy it.

22 The Lorde ſhall ſmite thee with ſwelling, with feuers, heate, burning, and with the ſworde, with blaſting and mildewe: and they ſhall follow thee vntill thou periſh.

23 * And the heauen that is ouer thy head ſhalbe [d] braſſe, and the earth that is vnder thee, ſhalbe iron.

Leu. 26. [d] Threatning, the heauen ſhalbe ſo hard, that it ſhall geue no moiſture.

24 The Lorde ſhall turne the raine of the land vnto powder and duſt, from heauen ſhal they come downe vpon thee, vntill thou bee brought to nought.

25 And the Lord ſhal cauſe thee to fall before thine enemies: thou ſhalt come out one way way againſt them, and flee ſeuen wayes before them, and ſhalt bee ſcattered among all the kingdomes of the earth.

26 And thy carkeſſe ſhalbe meate vnto all maner of foules of the ayre, and vnto the beaſtes of the earth, and no man ſhall fray them away.

27 The Lorde will ſmite thee with the botch of Egypt, & the emerodes, ſcabbe, and itch, that thou mayeſt not be healed thereof.

28 And the Lorde ſhall ſmite thee with madneſs, and blindnes, and dazing of heart.

29 Thou ſhalt grope at noone dayes, as the [c] blinde gropeth in darkeneſſe, and ſhalt not proſper in thy wayes: Thou ſhalt be oppreſſed with wrong, and be polled euermore, and no man ſhall ſuccour thee.

30 Thou ſhalt bee betrothed vnto a wife, and an other man ſhall lie with her: thou ſhalt build an houſe, and not dwell therein: thou ſhalt alſo plant a vineyarde, and ſhalt * not gather the grapes.

31 Thine oxe ſhall be ſlaine before thine eyes, and thou ſhalt not eate thereof: thine aſſe ſhall be violently taken away before thy face, and ſhall not be reſtored to thee againe: thy ſheepe ſhalbe giuen vnto thine enemies, and no man ſhall reſcue them.

32 Thy ſonnes and thy daughters ſhal be giuen vnto another nation, & thine eyes ſhal ſee it, and [d] daze vpon them all the day long: and there ſhalbe no might in thine hand.

33 The fruite of thy lande, and all thy labours, ſhall a nation which thou knoweſt not, eate vp: and thou ſhalt continually ſuffer violence, and be oppreſſed alway:

34 So that thou ſhalt be cleane beſide thy ſelfe, for the ſight of thine eyes which thou ſhalt ſee.

35 The Lord ſhall ſmite thee in the knees and legs with a miſchieuous botche that cannot bee healed, from the ſole of thy foote, vnto the top of thy head.

36 The [e] Lorde ſhall bring thee, and thy king which thou ſhalt ſet ouer thee, vnto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, that there thou mayſt ſerue ſtrange gods, wood and ſtone.

37 And thou ſhalt bee wondred at, ſpoken of, and iested at, among all nations whither the Lord ſhall cary thee.

38 * Thou ſhalt cary much ſeede out into the fielde, and ſhalt gather but little in: for the graſhoppers ſhall deſtroy it.

39 Thou ſhalt plant a vineyard and dreſſe it, but ſhalt neither drinke of the wine, neyther gather the grapes: for the wormes ſhall eate it.

40 Thou ſhalt haue Oliue trees thorowout all thy coaſtes, but ſhalt not anoynt thy ſelfe with the oyle: for thine Oliue ſhall ‖ fall downe.

41 Thou ſhalt beget ſonnes and daughters, but ſhalt not haue them: for they ſhal be caried away captiue.

42 All the trees and fruite of thy lande ſhall [h] ‖ wormes conſume.

43 The ſtranger that is among you, ſhall clime aboue thee vp on high: and thou ſhalt come downe beneath a lowe.

44 He ſhall lende thee, and thou ſhalt not lend him: he ſhall be the head, and thou ſhalt be the taile.

45 Moreouer, all theſe curſes ſhall come vpon thee, and ſhall followe thee, and ouertake thee, til thou bee deſtroyed: becauſe thou hearkenedſt not vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to keepe his commaundementes, and his ordinaunces which hee commanded thee.

46 And they ſhall be vpon thee for ſignes and wonders, and vpon thy ſeede for euer:

47 Becauſe thou ſeruedſt not the Lorde thy God with ioyfulneſſe, and with a good heart, when thou hadſt abundance of all things.

48 Therefore ſhalt thou ſerue thine enemie, which the Lorde ſhall ſend vpon thee, in hunger, and thirſt, in nakednes, and in need of all things: and he ſhall put a [k] yoke of yron vpon thy necke, vntill he haue brought thee to nought.

49 And the Lord ſhall bring a nation vpon thee from farre, and from the ende of the worlde, as ſwift as an Eagle fleeth, a nation whoſe tongue thou ſhalt not vnderſtand:

50 A nation of a ſhameleſſe & cruell countenance, which ſhall not regard the perſon of the old, nor haue compaſſion on the young:

51 The ſame ſhal eate the fruite of thy catteil, and the fruit of thy land, vntill hee haue deſtroyed thee: and ſhall leaue thee neyther corne, wine, nor oyle, neither the increaſe of thy kine, nor the flockes of thy sheep, vntil he haue brought thee to nought:

52 And he ſhall keepe thee in, in all thy cities, vntil he haue caſt downe thy high walles and ſtrong holds wherein thou truſtedſt, thorowout all thy lande: and hee ſhall beſiege thee in all thy cities thorowout all thy lande which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

53 And thou ſhalt eate the fruite of thine owne body, the fleſh [l] of thy ſonnes and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee, in that ſtraightneſſe & ſiege wherewith thine enemies ſhall incloſe thee.

54 So that it ſhall grieue the man that is tender and exceeding delicate among you, to looke on his brother, and vpon his wife that lyeth in his boſome, & on the remnant of his children which he hath yet left,

55 For feare of giuing vnto any of them of the fleſh of his children, whom he ſhal eate: becauſe hee hath nothing left him in the ſtraightneſſe and ſiege, wherewith thine enemies ſhall beſiege thee in all thy cities.

56 Yea, and the woman that is ſo tender and delicate, that ſhee dare not aduenture to ſet the ſole of her foote vpon the grounde, for ſoftneſſe and tendernеſſe, ſhall bee grieued to looke on her huſbande that lyeth in her boſome, and on her ſonne, & on her daughter,

[c] Thou ſhalt not be able to vnderſtand things that be plaine, for want of diſcretion.

Deut. 20. 6.

[d] Wiſhing that they were in the morning for feare of their enemies.

58 If thou wilt not keepe and doe all the wordes of this lawe that are written in this booke, and feare this glorious and fearefull name, THE LORD THY GOD:

59 The Lord will send vnto thee and thy seed great plagues, and of long continuance, euill sicknesses, and of long durance.

60 Moreouer, he will bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, and those which thou wast afraide of, shall cleaue vnto thee.

61 And all manner sicknesses, and all maner plagues which are not written in the booke of this law, will the Lorde bring vpon thee, vntil he bring thee to nought.

62 And yee shall bee left fewe in number, where before ye were as the n starres of heauen in multitude: because thou wouldest not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God.

n Thee alludeth to the promise made to Abraham.

63 And it shall come to passe, that as the Lorde reioyced ouer you to doe you good, and to multiply you: so hee will reioyce ouer you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought, and ye shalbe walled from off the lande whither thou goest to enioy it.

64 And the Lord shall scatter thee among all nations, from the one ende of the worlde vnto the other: and there thou shalt serue strange gods, which thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, euen wood and stone.

65 And among these nations thou shalt finde none ease, neither shall the o sole of thy foote haue rest: But the Lord shall giue thee there an vnquiet heart, and dazing eies, and sorow of minde.

o Thou shalt be a bacabond.

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, & thou shalt feare both day and night, and shalt haue none assurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, would God it were night: and at night thou shalt say, would God it were morning, for feare of thine heart which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the Lorde shall bring thee into Egypt againe with p ships by the way which I said to thee, Thou shalt see it no more againe: and there ye shall be solde vnto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shal buy you.

The xxix. Chapter.

2 The people are exhorted to obserue the commaundements. 10 The whole people from the highest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenant. 19 The punishment of him that flattereth himselfe in his wickednesse. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

1 Or, Articles.

THese are the wordes of the | couenant which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the appointment which hee made with them in | Horeb.

| Or, mount Sinai, where the lawe was first giuen, fourtie yeres before the entring of this generation into Canaan.

2 And Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Ye haue * seene all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt vnto Pharao, and vnto all his seruaunts, and vnto all his land,

3 The great | temptations which thine eyes haue seene, those great myracles and wonders:

| Or, proofe

4 And yet the Lorde hath not giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eies to see, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yeres in the wildernesse: and your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, and thy shoe is not waxed old vpon thy foote.

6 Yee haue eaten no * bread, nor drunke wine or strong drinke: that yee might know how that I am the Lord your God.

* shalt haue but manna the food of Angels, & ferued for beast all other nance. Num. xi. 33.

7 * And ye came vnto this place: and Sehon the king of Hesbon, and Og the king of Basan, came out against vs vnto battaile, and we smote them,

8 And tooke their land, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Rubenites & Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasse.

9 Keepe therefore the wordes of this couenant, and doe them, that yee may vnderstand all that ye ought to doe.

10 Ye stand this day euery one of you before the b Lorde your God: your captaines, your tribes, your Elders, your officers, and all the men of Israel.

b Who heareth your hearts, & sore put not his trust in 11 Your children also, your wiues, and the stranger that is in thine hoste, from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest c go into the couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his othe which the Lorde thy God maketh with thee this day:

c Yee shall enter an euerlasting couenant, which I make & ratifie, not a bond once passed, but such as shall stand for euer. Gen. xvii.

13 For to make thee a people vnto himselfe, and that he may be vnto thee a God, as hee hath sayde vnto thee, and as hee hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

14 I make not this bonde and this othe with you onely:

15 But both with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lorde our God, and also with him that is not d here with vs this day.

d Meaning, that the posterity.

16 For ye know howe we haue dwelt in the lande of Egypt, and howe we came thorowe the middest of the nations which yee passed by:

17 And ye haue seen their abominations, and their idoles, wood, and stone, siluer and gold, which were among them.

18 Least there be among you man or woman, kinred, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serue the gods of these nations: and least there bee among you some e roote that beareth gall and wormewood.

e That is, some wicked person, by whom others may be infected, as the earth is infected by the rotten roote.

19 So

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, he ‖ blesse himselfe in his heart, saying, I will haue peace, I will walke in the meaning of mine owne heart: ‖ to put the drunken to the thirstie.

‖ Or, flatter.

‖ Or, slacke the thirst with drunkennesse.

20 And so the Lorde will not consent to be mercifull vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lorde, and his iealousie shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this booke, shall light vpon him, and the Lord shal doe out his name from vnder heauen.

21 And the Lord shall separate him vnto euill, out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the couenant that are written in the booke of this lawe.

22 So that the generation to come of your children, that shal rise vp after you, and the strãger that shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the diseases wherewith the Lorde hath smitten it,

23 (Howe all the lande is burnt vp with brimstone and salte, and that it is neither sowen, nor beareth, nor any grasse groweth therin like as in the place of the ouerthrowing of Sodome, Gomorre, Adama, and Zeboim, which the Lorde ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger)

Gen. 19. 25

24 Then shall all nations say, *wherefore hath the Lord done on this fashion vnto this land? O how fierce is this great wrath?

3. Reg. 9. 8. Hiere. 22. 8.

25 And men shall say, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lorde God of their fathers, which he made with thẽ when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

26 For they went & serued strange gods, & worshipped them, gods which they knewe not, and ‖ which had giuen them nothing.

‖ Or, which had not giuen them land to possesse.

27 And the wrath of the Lord wared hot against this land, to bring vpon it al the curses that are written in this boode.

28 And the Lorde cast them out of their lande, in anger, wrath, and great indignation, and cast them into a strange land, as this day beareth witnesse.

29 The ᶠ secrets of the Lord our God are opened vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may doe all the wordes of this lawe.

ᶠ Be condemned such the curious searchers of things reuealed to Gods secrets knowledge neglecting the things reuealed by God, as his lawe.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 Mercie shewed when they repent. 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

WHen all these wordes are come vpon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I haue set before thee, thou shalt ª turne vnto thine heart among all the nations whither the Lorde thy God hath driuen thee, ª By bringing to minde their sinne to fauour and his nature.

2 And * come againe vnto the Lorde thy God, and hearken vnto his voyce in all these things that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule:

* Psal. 105.

3 And the Lord thy God will turne thy captiuitie, and haue compassion vpon thee, and will turne and fetch thee againe from all the nations among which the Lorde thy God hath scattered thee.

b That is, wil change his purpose, will reconcile himselfe to thee.

4 Though thou wast cast vnto the extreme partes of heauen, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, & from thence will he fetch thee.

5 And the Lord thy God will bring * thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, & thou shalt enioy it: & he will shew thee kindnesse, and multiplie thee aboue thy fathers.

1. Mach. 1. 50.

6 And the Lorde thy God will ᶜ circumcise thine heart, & the heart of thy seede, that thou mayest loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and all thy soule, that thou mayest liue.

ᶜ Will cut away thy vngodly will and affections.

7 And the Lord thy God will put all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 But thou shalt turne and hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord, and doe all his commandements which I command thee this day.

9 (And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in all the workes of thine hand, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of thy lande, for thy wealth: For the Lorde will turne againe, and ᵈ reioyce ouer thee to doe thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers, ᵈ Not that God is subiect to affections: but hereby is set forth his fauour toward repentant sinners.

10 If thou hearken onely vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to keepe his commandements and his ordinãces which are written in the booke of this law, & if thou turne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and all thy soule:

11 For the commaundement which I command thee this day, is ᵉ not hidden from thee, neither farre off.

ᵉ Some reade, not separated from thee. He meaneth that the lawe is so plaine, that none can pleade ignorance.

12 It is not in heauen, that thou needest to say, Who shall go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and doe it?

13 Neyther is it beyonde the ᶠ sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall goe ouer the sea for vs, and bring it vnto vs, that we may heare it and doe it?

ᶠ By heauen and the sea, he meaneth places very farre off.

14 But the word is very nigh vnto thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou doe it.

15 Behold, I haue set before thee this day life, and good, death, and euill:

16 For where as I commande thee this day to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to keepe his commandements, his ordinances, and his lawes, if thou so doe thou shalt liue, and multiplie, and the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.

17 But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not heare, but shalt goe astray and worship strange gods, and serue them:

18 I pronounce vnto you this day, that yee shall surely perish, and that yee shall not prolong your dayes vpon the lande, whither thou passe ouer Iordane to go & possesse it.

19 I call heauen and earth to record this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing, and cursing: therefore & choose life, that both thou and thy seede may liue, 20 That thou mayest loue the Lorde thy God, and be obedient to his voyce, and cleaue vnto him: for hee is thy life, and the length of thy dayes, that thou mayest dwell vpon the earth, which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to giue them.

The xxxi. Chapter.

1. 7. Moses preparing himselfe to die, appointeth Iosuah to rule the people. 9 Hee giueth the law to the Leuites, that they should reade it to the people.

AND Moses went & spake these words vnto all Israel,

2 And saide vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeeres olde this day, and can no more a go out and in: also the Lorde hath sayde vnto mee, Thou b shalt not goe ouer this * Iordane.

3 The Lord thy God he will go ouer before thee, and he will destroy these nations before thee, & thou shalt possesse them: and Iosuah shal go before thee, as the Lord hath saide.

4 And the Lorde shall doe vnto them, as he did to Sehon and Og, kings of the Amorites, and vnto the lande of them whome he destroyed.

5 And the Lord shall giue them ouer c before your face, that ye may doe vnto them according vnto al the commandements which I haue commanded you.

6 Pluche vp your hearts therefore, and bee strong, dread not, nor be afraide of them, for the Lord thy God himselfe doeth go with thee, he shall not faile thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called vnto Iosuah, & saide vnto him in the sight of al Israel, Be strong, and of good courage: for thou must goe with this people vnto the lande which the Lorde hath sworne vnto their fathers to giue thē, and thou shalt giue it them to inherite.

8 And the Lord he doeth goe before thee, he shall be with thee, he shall not fayle thee, neyther forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomfited.

9 And d Moses wrote this lawe, & deliuered it vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Leui, which bare the Arke of the Testament of the Lord, and vnto all the Elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded thē, saying, Euery e seuenth yere, in the solemnitie of the free yeere, in the feast of Tabernacles, 11 When al Israel is come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which he hath chosen: thou shalt reade this lawe before all Israel, that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together, men, women, and children, and the stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and learne, and feare the Lorde your God, and keepe and obserue all the words of this lawe, 13 And that their children which ‖ knowe nothing, may heare, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as yee liue in the lande, whither yee goe ouer Iordane to possesse it.

14 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, the dayes are come that thou must die: call Iosuah therefore, and stande yee in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may giue him a charge. And Moses and Iosuah went and stoode in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle, in the pillar of the cloude: and the pillar of the cloud stood ouer the doore of the tabernacle.

16 And & Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people will rise vp, and goe f a whoring after strange gods of the lande whither they goe, and will forsake me, and breake the appointment which I haue made with them.

17 And then my wrath will ware hote against thē in that day, & I will forsake them, and will h hide my face from them, and they shall be consumed, and much aduersitie and tribulation shall come vpon them, so that then they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

18 And I also will surely hide away my face in that day, for all the euils sake which they shal haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto strange gods.

19 Now therefore, write yee this song for you, & teach it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouthes, that this song may bee my witnesse against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the lande which I sware vnto their fathers, that floweth with milke and hony: and they shall eate, and fill themselues, and ware fat, and turne vnto strāge gods, and serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenant.

21 And when much mischiefe and tribulation is come vpon them, this song shal i answere thē as a witnes: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their seede, for I knowe their imagination, which they goe about euen nowe, before I haue brought them into the land which I sware.

22 Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, & taught it the children of Israel.

23 And he gaue Iosuah the sonne of Nun a charge, and sayde, Be bolde and strong: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the lande which I sware vnto them: and I will be with thee.

24 And when Moses had made an ende of writing the words of this law in a booke, vntill he had finished them,

25 Moses cōmanded the Leuites which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde, saying,

26 Take yee the booke of this lawe, and put it in the k side of the Arke of the couenant

g That is to say, shewe thy loue and obedience to God: which is not performed by our owne strength, but by Gods grace working in his elect.

a Can no longer performe the charge cōmitted vnto me.

b That is, into the land of Chanaan: for Iordane in the east of Moab, is the bounde of the land of Chanaan.

c Into your power.

d Before Moses time, the doctrine which contained the maner of seruing God was not put in writing, but onely deliuered by word of mouth, by the fathers to the children from one generation to another.

e Notwithstanding this solemne reading of the law at the end of euery seuen yeeres, they had in the meane time ordinarie exercises in the same.

‖ Or, knewe it not.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion, and thy stiffe necke: while I am yet alyue with you this day, yee haue bene disobedient vnto the Lord, and how much more after my death?

28 Gather vnto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these wordes in their eares, and call heauen and earth to recorde against them.

29 For I am sure, that after my death yee will vtterly be corrupt, and turne from the way, which I haue commaunded you: and tribulation will come vpon you in the latter dayes, because yee shall haue wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, to prouoke him through [1] the workes of your hands.

7 Remember the dayes of the world that is past, consider the yeeres of so many generations: Aske thy father, and he will shewe thee, thy Elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the most highest deuided to the nations their inheritance, and when hee separated the sonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the nations, according to the number of the children of Israel:

‡ Rebelled against God.

16 They prouoked him to anger with strange goddes, with abominations prouoked they him.

17 They offered vnto deuils, and not to God: to gods whom they knew not, to newe gods that came newly vp, whome their fathers feared not.

18 Of God that begate thee thou art vnmindfull, and hast forgotten God that made thee.

19 The Lord therefore sawe it, and was angry: because of ỹ prouoking of his sonnes [d] and his daughters.

[d] He calleth them Gods children, not to honour them, but to shewe them from what state they are fallen.

20 And he sayd, I will hide my face from them, and will see what their ende shall be: For they are a very frowarde generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They haue angred mee with that which is no god, and prouoked mee with their vanities: And * I also will prouoke them with those which are no people, I will anger them with a foolish nation.

* Ier. 15.14. rom. 10.19.

22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, and burneth vnto the bottome of hell, and hath consumed the earth with her increase, and set a fire the bottomes of the mountaines.

23 I will heape mischieues vpon them, and will destroy them with mine arrowes.

24 They shalbe ‖ burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts vpon them, with the ‖ furiousnesse of serpents in the dust.

‖ Or, burnt with heate, and consumed with hunger. ‖ Or, poyso.

25 Outwardly shall the sworde robbe them of their children, and in the chamber feare, both yong men, and yong women, and the sucklings, with the men of graye heads.

26 I haue sayde, I will scatter them abroade, and make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemie, least their aduersaries should [e] waxe proude, and lest they should say, Our high hand hath done all this, and not the Lorde.

[e] Resysting to say the goodly affayres, & attributing that to their owne forces, which is wrought by Gods hand.

28 For it is a nation voyde of counsayle, neither is there any vnderstanding in them.

29 O that they were wise, ‡ vnderstoode this, that they woulde consider their latter ende.

30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their ‖maker had solde them, and except the Lorde had ‖shut them vp?

‖Or, rocke.

‖Or, giuen them ouer, and deliuered them into their enemies hand.

31 For their god is not as our ‖God: our enemies also themselues are iudges.

‖Or, rocke.

32 For their vine is of the vineyarde of Sodome, and of the fields of Gomorra: their grapes are grapes of gall, and their clusters be bitter.

33 Their wine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruell gall of aspes.

‡ As if he said, thinke not that I forget mens sinnes: but reserue them to the time of punishment.

34 Is not ‡ this layd in store with me, and sealed vp among my treasures?

35 * Vengeance is mine, and I will reward, their feete shall slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hande, and the things that shall come vpon them, make haste.

Rom. 12. 19. heb. 10. 30.

36 For the Lorde shall iudge his people, and haue compassion on his seruants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and that they bee in a maner shut vp, or brought to nought and forsaken.

37 And when it shalbe sayde, Where are their gods, their ‖god in whom they trusted?

‖Or, rocke.

38 The fatte of whose sacrifices they did eate, and dranke the wine of their drinke offerings: let them rise vp and helpe you, and be your protection.

39 See now how that I, I am God, and there is none but I: * I kill, and will make aliue: I wound, and will heale: neither is there any that can deliuer out of my hand.

1. Reg. 2. 6. tob. 13. 2.

40 For I will lift vp my hand to heauen, and will say, I liue euer.

41 If I whet the edge of my sworde, and mine hand take holde to doe iustice, I will recompense vengeance on mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrowes drunke with blood, and my sworde shal deuoure flesh, and that for the blood of the slayne, and for their captiuitie, since the captiuitie of the wrath of the enemie.

§ That is, acknowledge Gods goodnesse toward them.

43 § Ye nations * prayse his people, for he will auenge the blood of his seruantes, and wil auenge him of his aduersaries, and will be mercifull vnto his lande, and to his people.

2. Mac. 7. 6.

44 And Moses came and spake all the wordes of this song in the eares of the people, hee, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun.

45 And Moses made an ende of speaking all these wordes to all the people of Israel.

46 And sayd vnto them, Set your hearts vnto all the wordes which I testifie vnto you this day, and yee shall commaund them vnto your children, that they may obserue and doe all the wordes of this lawe.

47 And let it not bee a vaine worde vnto you: for in it is your life, and through this word ye shall prolong your dayes in the land whither ye goe ouer Iordane to possesse it.

48 * And the Lord spake vnto Moses the same day, saying,

Num. 27. 12.

49 Get thee vp into this mountaine Abarim, vnto mount Nebo, which is in the lande of Moab, ouer against Iericho, and beholde the lande of Chanaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel to possesse:

50 And * die in the mount which thou goest vnto, and thou shalt be gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people:

Num. 20. 25.

51 * Because yee trespassed against mee among the children of Israel at the waters of strife, at Cades in the wildernes of Zin: for yee sanctified mee not among the children of Israel.

Num. 20. 10.

52 Thou shalt therefore see the lande before thee, and shalt not goe thither vnto the land which I giue the children of Israel.

The xxxiij. Chapter.

26 There is no god like vnto the God of Israel. 29 Nor any people like vnto his.

THis is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and saide,

2 The [a] Lord came from Sinai, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared from mount Pharan, and he came with tenne thousande of saintes, and in his right hand a law of fire for them.

a. Or, burned, or, gaue light vnto the people of the prouince of the Iewes.

3 And he loued the people, all [b] his saints also are in thy hands: they sate downe at thy feete, to receiue thy wordes.

c. Or, among the people of Iacob.

5 And hee was in Israel as king, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel, were gathered together.

6 Let Ruben liue, and not die, and be few in number.

7 This is the blessing of Iuda: and he said, Heare Lorde the voyce of Iuda, and bring [d] him vnto his people: his hands shalbe good ynough for him, if thou help him against his enemies.

d. Or, be vnto his chiefe people.

8 And vnto Leui he said, ‡ Right & light shalbe with thee, and with euery one that is godly in thee: thou diddest proue him also in thee, thou diddest proue him also in the temptation, and striuedst with him at the waters of strife.

‡ Heb. Thummim and Vrim.

9 Hee that hath sayde [e] vnto his father and to his mother, (I haue not seene him) and hee that knewe not his brethren, nor knew his owne children: those are they that haue obserued thy worde, and shall keepe the couenant.

e. That is, referred all things of them that were of his parentage and kinne.

that hate him, that they rise not againe.

12 And of Beniamin he said, The beloued of the Lord shall dwell in safetie by him, and the Lord shall couer him all the day long, and he shall dwell betweene his shoulders.

13 And of Joseph he saide, Blessed of the Lord is his land for the fruites of heauen, through the dewe & springs that lie beneath,

14 And for the sweet fruits of the increase of the Sunne, and ripe fruits of the Moone:

15 For the first fruites of the principall mountaines, and for the fruites that the hilles bring foorth for euer:

16 And for the fruites of the earth, and fulnesse thereof: and for the good will of him that dwelt in the bush, shall the blessing come vpon the head of Joseph, and vpon the toppe of the head of him that was separated from among his brethren.

17 His glorie is like the first borne Ore, and his hornes are as the hornes of an vnicorne, and with them hee shall tosse the nations together vnto the endes of the worlde: These are also tenne thousands of Ephraim, and the thousands of Manasses.

18 And vnto Zabulon hee saide, Reioyce Zabulon in thy going out, and thou Issachar in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people vnto the hill, and there they shall offer offerings of righteousnesse: for they shall sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of treasure hid in the sand.

20 And vnto Gad he sayde, Blessed be he that enlarged Gad: he dwelleth as a Lion that catcheth for a pray the arme with the head.

21 He looked to himself at the beginning, because there was a portion of the lawgiuer hid, and hee came with the heads of the people, and executed the righteousnesse of the Lord, and his iudgements with Israel.

22 And vnto Dan he said, Dan is a Lions whelpe, he shall leape from Basan.

23 And vnto Nephthali he said, O Nephthali, satisfied with Gods fauour, and full with the blessing of the Lord, possesse thou the west and the South.

24 And to Aser he said, Aser shall be blessed with children, he shall be acceptable vnto his brethren, and shall dippe his foote in oyle.

25 Thy shooes shalbe iron and brasse, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou liuest.

26 There is none like vnto the God of Israel, which though he sit vpon the heauen, as vpon an horse yet is he thine helper, whose glorie is in the | celestiall places.

27 The eternall God is thy refuge, and vnder the armes of the euerlasting God shalt thou liue: he shall cast out the enemie before thee, and say, Destroy them.

28 Israel then shall [a] dwell in safetie, and alone, and the fountaine of Jacob shall bee vpon a land of corne and wine, and his heauens shall drop the dewe. [a] Ieremi. 23. 6

29 Happie art thou, O Israel, who is like vnto thee, O people, that art saued in the Lorde, which is the shielde of thy helpe, and sword of thy glory: thine enemies haue lost their strength to thee warde, and thou shalt treade vpon their high places.

AND Moses went from the plaine of Moab, vp into the mountaine [a] Nebo, to vnto the toppe of the [b] hill that is ouer against Jericho: and the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, vnto Dan:

2 And all Nephthali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasse, and all the land of Juda, vnto the vtmost [c] sea:

3 And the South, and the plaine of the valley of Jericho, the citie of palme trees, vnto Zoar.

4 And the Lord said vnto him, This is the land which I sware vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, saying, I will giue it vnto thy seede: I haue caused thee also to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go ouer thither.

5 Moses the seruant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord.

6 And he [d] buried him in a valley in the lande of Moab, ouer against the house of Peor: but [e] no man knoweth of his sepulchre vnto this day.

7 Moses was an hundred and twentie yeeres olde when hee died: his eye was not dimme, nor his naturall force abated.

8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plaine of Moab thirtie dayes: and the dayes of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 And Josuah the sonne of Nun was full of the spirit of wisedome, for Moses had put his handes vpon him, and the children of Israel were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moses.

10 And there arose not a Prophet since in Israel like vnto Moses, whom the Lorde knewe face [f] to face,

The ende of the fifth booke of Moses, called in the Hebrue Elle haddebarim, and in the Latine Deuteronomium.

THE

The booke of Iosuah, vvhom the Hebrewes call Jehosua.

The first Chapter.

2 The Lorde encourageth Iosuah to inuade the land of promise. 5 The Lord promiseth to assist Iosuah, if he obey his word. 11 Iosuah commandeth the people to prepare themselues to passe ouer Iordane, 12 and exhorteth the Rubenites to execute their charge.

a The beginning of this booke dependeth on the last Chapter of Deut. which was written by Iosuah, as a preparation to his history.

AFter the [a] death of Moses the seruant of the Lord, it came to passe, that the Lord spake vnto Iosuah the sonne of Nun, Moses [b] minister, saying, b Education with Moses by Gods prouidence, was a meane to make Iosuah meete for this high calling. Blessed are they that haue their education with good men.

2 Moses my seruant is dead: nowe therefore arise, goe ouer this Iordane, thou and all this people, vnto the lande the which I to them the children of Israel doe [c] giue.

c God onely disposeth kingdomes, and giueth them to whom he will.

3 All the places that the soles of your feete shall treade vpon, haue I giuen you, as I said vnto Moses.

4 From the [d] wildernesse and this Libanon, vnto the great riuer ‖ Euphrates, all the lande of the [e] Hethites, euen vnto the [f] great sea, toward the going downe of the Sunne, shalbe your coast.

d Of Sin called Cadesh and Paran. ‖Or, Perath.

e Meaning, the whole land of Chanaan.

f Called the Mediterranean, which in respect of the other seas of the land of Chanaan, is called great.

5 There shall not a man bee able to withstand thee all the dayes of thy life: for as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee, and will not faile thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong therefore and bolde: for vnto this people shalt thou deuide the lande for inheritance, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue them.

7 Onely bee thou strong, and of a stout courage, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all the lawe which Moses my seruant commaunded thee: turne from the same neither to the right hand, nor to the left, that thou mayest doe wisely in all that thou takest in hand.

8 Let not the booke of this Lawe depart out of thy mouth, [g] but occupie thy minde therein day and night, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way [h] prosperous, and then thou shalt doe wisely.

g To governe well, requireth continuall studie of Gods lawe.

h Studie and obserue Gods law, & be sure of prosperous successe in all thy doings.

9 Haue not I commaunded thee, that thou shouldest be strong and hardie, and not feare nor be faint hearted? for I the Lorde thy God am with thee, whither so euer thou goest.

10 Then Iosuah commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Goe through the middest of the hoste, and command the people, saying, Prepare your victuals: for after [i] three dayes ye shall passe ouer this Iordane, to goe in, and enioy the lande which the Lorde your God giueth you to possesse it.

i Spoken from the [illegible] prouision.

12 And vnto the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses, spake Iosuah, saying, 13 *Remember the word which Moses the seruant of the Lorde commaunded you, saying, The Lorde your God hath giuen you rest, and hath giuen you this [k] land. Num.

k Spoken for the land of Chanaan.

14 Your wiues, your children, and your cattell, shall remaine in the lande which Moses gaue you on [l] this side Iordane: but ye shall goe before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, and helpe them:

l Iordane on the East side.

15 Vntill the Lorde haue giuen your brethren rest, as he hath you, and vntill they also haue obteined the land which the Lorde your God giueth them: and then shall yee returne vnto the land of your possession, and enioy it, which lande Moses the Lordes seruant gaue you on this side Iordane toward the Sunne rising.

16 And they answered Iosuah, saying, All that thou hast commaunded vs, we will doe, and whither so euer thou sendest vs, we will goe.

17 According as wee obeyed Moses in all things, so will wee obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee, as hee was with Moses.

18 And whosoeuer hee bee that doeth disobey thy mouth, and will not hearken vnto thy wordes in all that thou commandest him, let him die: onely be strong, and of good courage.

The ij. Chapter.

9 Rahab acknowledgeth the God of Israel to bee the highest God.

And

AND Iosuah the sonne of Nun, sent out of [a] Sittim two men, to spie secretely, saying, Goe, and vewe the land, and also Iericho. And they went, and came into an ‖ harlots house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

2 And it was tolde the king of Iericho, saying, Beholde, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel, to spie out the countrey.

3 And the king of Iericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, [b] Bring forth the men that are come to thee, and which are entred into thine house: for they bee come to search out all the land.

4 And the woman tooke the two men, and hid them, and saide thus, In deede there came men vnto me, but I [c] wist not whence they were.

5 And about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was darke, the men went out, whither the men went, I wote not: follow ye after them quickly, for ye shal ouertake them.

6 But shee had brought them vp to the roofe of the house, and hid them with the stalkes of flaxe which shee had lying abroade vpon the roofe.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Iordane, vnto the fourds: and as soone as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 And or euer they were a sleepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the roofe,

9 And said vnto the men, I know that the Lord hath giuen you the land, for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and the Inhabitants of the land faint at the presence of you:

10 For wee haue heard howe the Lorde dried vp the water of the red sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side of Iordane, Sehon and Og, whom ye vtterly destroyed.

11 And as soone as wee had heard these thinges, our hearts did ‖ faint, & there remained no more ‖ courage in any man at the presence of you: for the [d] Lord your God, he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, sweare vnto me by the Lord, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye shall also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token:

13 And that yee shall saue aliue both my father and my mother, my brethren and my sisters, and all that they haue, and that ye shall deliuer our ‖ soules from death.

14 And the men answered her, [e] Our liues for you to die, if yee vtter not this our businesse. And when the Lord hath giuen vs the land, we will deale mercifully and truely with thee.

15 And then she let them downe by a coard through a window: for her house was vpon the towne wall, and shee dwelt vpon the towne wall.

16 And she saide vnto them, Get you into the [f] mountaine, least the pursuers meete you, and hide your selues there three dayes, vntill the pursuers bee returned, and then shall ye goe your owne way.

17 And the men said vnto her, [g] We will be blamelesse of this thy oth which thou hast made vs sweare:

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt binde this coard of redde threed in the window which thou diddest let vs downe by: and thou shalt bring thy father and thy mother, thy brethren, and all thy fathers houshold, into thine house.

19 And then whosoeuer doeth goe out at the doores of thy house into the streete, [h] his blood shall bee vpon his owne head, and we will be guiltlesse: and whosoeuer shalbe with thee in the house, his blood shall bee on our head, if any mans hand touch him.

20 And if thou vtter these our words, we will bee quicte of thy oath which thou hast made vs to sweare.

21 And shee sayde, According vnto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the ‖ red coarde in the window.

22 And they departed, and came into the mountaine, and there abode three dayes, vntill the pursuers were returned: And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 And the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed [i] ouer, and came to Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and tolde him all that came vnto them.

24 And they sayde vnto Iosuah, Truely the Lord hath deliuered into our handes all the land, and all the inhabitants of the countrey faint at the presence of vs.

[a] Which was neere vnto the ryuer.

[g] That is, we shalbe discharged of our oth, if thou doest not performe this condition that followeth. For so and none otherwise shall we be able to saue thee and them.

2 And after [b] three dayes, the officers went throughout the host,

3 And commaunded the people, saying, when ye see the arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests that are Leuites beating it, yee shall depart from your place, and goe after it.

4 So yet that there shall bee a space betweene you & it, about ‖ two thousand cubits by measure: & ye shal not come nigh vnto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must goe: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

7 And the Lorde saide vnto Iosuah, This day wil I begin to magnifie thee in ye sight of all Israel, that they may knowe how that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

8 And thou shalt commaund the Priestes that beare the arke of the couenant, saying, When yee are come to the edge of the waters of Iordane, ye shall stand still in [c] Iordan.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 Twelue stones out of the chanell be erected for a signe of the drying of Iordane.

AND so when the people were al gone ouer Iordane, the Lord spake vnto Iosuah, saying,

2 Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euery tribe a man:

3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordane, out of the place where the Priestes feete stoode in a redinesse, twelue stones, which ye shall take away with you, and leaue them in the lodging where you shall lodge this night.

a Meaning, the place where they should camp.

4 Then Iosuah called the twelue men, whom hee had prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery tribe a man:

5 And Iosuah sayde vnto them, Get you before the arke of the Lord your God, throwe the middes of Iordane, and take vp euery man of you a stone vpon his shoulder, according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may bee a signe among you, that when your [b] children aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What meane these stones with you?

b God commaundeth that not onely in our seruice fit by vprightfull workes but that also our posterite may learne to call vpon him, and praise his name.

7 Yee may answere them howe that the waters of Iordane were deuided at the presence of the arke of the couenant of the Lord, (for when it went ouer Iordane, the waters of Iordane were deuided) and these stones are become a memoriall vnto the children of Israel for euer.

8 And the children of Israel did euen so as Iosuah cõmanded, & tooke vp twelue stones out of the middes of Iordane, as the Lord said vnto Iosuah, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, & carried them away with them vnto the place where they lodged, and layde them downe there.

c Meaning twelue stones which they carried by the tribes, and layd vp in Gilgal.

9 And Iosuah set vp twelue [c] stones in the middes of Iordane, in the place where the feete of the Priestes which bare the arke of the testament stoode: and there haue they continued vnto this day.

10 For the Priestes which bare the arke, stoode in the middes of Iordane, vntill all was finished that the Lord commanded Iosuah to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Iosuah: And the people hasted, and went ouer.

11 And when all the people were cleane passed ouer, the arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priestes [d] before the people.

19 And the people came vp out of Iordane the tenth day of the g first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the East border of the citie Jericho.

20 And the twelue stones which they toke out of Iordane, did Iosuah pitch in Gilgal.

21 And hee spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If your children aske their fathers in time to come, and say, What meane these stones?

22 Ye shall shewe your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iordane on dry land.

23 For the Lorde your God dryed vp the waters of Iordane before you, vntill ye were gone ouer, as the Lord your God did the red sea, which he dryed vp before vs, till we were gone ouer:

The v. Chapter.

2 Of the second circumcision vnder Iosuah, and wherefore it was. 12 Manna faileth, & becommeth scarse.

AND when all the kings of the a Amorites which are beyonde Iordane westward, and al the kings of the Chanaanites which were by the sea, heard howe the Lord had dryed vp the waters of Iordane before the children of Israel, vntill they were gone ouer, their hearts fainted for feare, and there was no ‖ spirite in them any more, for the presence of the children of Israel.

2 That same time the Lord said vnto Iosuah, Make thee sharpe knines, and goe to b againe, and circumcise the children of Israel the second time.

3 And Iosuah made him sharpe knines, and circumcised the children of Israel in the c hill of the foreskinnes.

4 And this is the cause why Iosuah circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt: because that all the men of warre dyed in the wildernesse by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wildernesse, by the way, after they came out of Egypt, were not d circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked fourtie yeeres in the wilderness, till all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lorde: vnto whome the * Lord sware that he would not shewe them the land which the Lord sware vnto their fathers that he would giue vs, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.

a The Amorites were on both sides Iordan, where of two kings were slaine already (as it is after rehearsed) & the rest quite driuen out.

‖ Or, courage.

b For some they had left it off about 40. yeeres.

c Gilgal made to signifie, that circumcision should driue them from vncleannesse.

d They could not do it without danger, in that troubles from where came that they went in, in their iourney.

Num. 14. 28.

7 And their children, whome he set vp in their stead, them Iosuah circumcised, for they were vncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And when they had circumcised all the people, they abode in their places in the campe, till they were whole.

9 And the Lorde said vnto Iosuah, This day haue I taken away the e shame of Egypt from you: wherefore the name of the same place is called Gilgal, vnto this day.

10 And the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and helde the feast of Passeouer, the fourteenth day of the f moneth at Euen, in the playne of Jericho.

11 And they did eate of the corne of the land on the morowe after the Passeouer, sweete cakes, & parched corne, in the selfe same day.

12 & for the Manna ceased on the morow after they had begunne to eate of the corne of the lande, neither had the children of Israel Manna any more, but did eate of the fruite of the land of Chanaan that yeere.

13 And when Iosuah was nigh to Jericho, he lift vp his eyes, & looked: and beholde, there stoode a man against him, hauing a sworde drawen in his hande: and Iosuah went vnto him, and said vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries?

14 And he said, Nay, but as a captaine of the host of the Lord am I now come. And Iosuah fell on his face to the earth, & did g worship, and said vnto him, What sayth my Lord vnto his seruant?

15 And the captaine of the Lordes host saide vnto Iosuah, Do thy shoe h off thy foote, for the place whereon thou standest, is holy. And Iosuah did so.

e Before they were like to the vncircumcised Egyptians: whom though they serued, yet they disdained, & iudged them prophane and shamefull.

f The first moneth, afore spoken of, Chap. 4. 19.

g In that Iosuah worshipped him, he acknowledged him to be God: & in that he called himselfe the Lords captaine, he declared himselfe to be Christ.

h That is, giue ouer thy playne of thy selfe, & of thy affections.

The vi. Chapter.

1 God giueth the citie of Iericho vnto Iosuah. 20 Iericho is taken. 22 Rahab is saued. 26 The builder againe of Iericho is cursed.

AND Jericho was shutte vp, and closed, because of the children of Israel, neyther might any man goe out or in.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Beholde, I haue giuen into thine hande Jericho, and the king thereof, and the strong men of warre.

3 And ye shall compasse all the citie, all ye that be men of warre, and go round about it once: and so shall you doe sixe dayes.

4 And seuen Priests shall beare before the arke seuen trumpets of a rammes hornes: and the seuenth day ye shall compasse the citie seuen times, and the Priests shall blowe with the trumpets.

5 And when they make a long blast with the rammes horne, and ye heare the sound of the horne, all the people shall shoute with a great shoute: and then shal the wall of the citie fall downe, and the people shall ascend vp euery man straight before him.

6 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun called the Priestes, and saide vnto them, Take vp the arke of the couenant, & let seuen Priestes beare seuen trumpets of rammes hornes before the arke of the Lord.

b That is chiefly meant by the Rubenites, Gadites and halfe the tribe of Manasses.

7 And he saide vnto the people, b Goe and compasse the citie, and let him that is harnessed goe before the arke of the Lord.

8 And when Iosuah had spoken vnto the people, the seuen Priestes bare the seuen trūpets of rammes hornes, and went forth before the arke of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets: and the arke of the couenant of the Lord followed them.

c Meaning the rereward, wherein was the standerd of the tribe of Dan, Num. 10 9 And the men of armes went before the Priests that blewe with the trumpets: & the c gathering host came after the arke as they went, and blewe with trumpets.

10 And Iosuah had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shoute, nor make any noise with your voyce, neither shal any word proceede out of your mouth, vntill the day I bid you shoute, then shall ye shoute.

11 And so the arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went about it d once: and they returned into the host, and lodged there.

d For that day.

12 And Iosuah rose early in the morning, & the Priests tooke vp the arke of the Lorde.

13 And seuen Priestes bare seuen trumpets of rammes hornes, and went before the arke of the Lord, and going, blewe with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but the c gathering host came after the arke of the Lorde, which went before with the blowing of the trumpets.

c The tribe of Dan was so called, because it marched last & gathered vp whatsoeuer was left of others.

14 And the second day they compassed the citie once, and returned againe into the host: and so they did sixe dayes.

15 And when the seuenth day came, they rose earely with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after the same maner f seuen times: onely that day they compassed the citie seuen times.

f Besides euery day once for the space of sixe dayes.

16 And at the seuenth time, when the Priestes blewe with the trumpets, Iosuah said vnto the people, Shoute, for the Lorde hath giuen you the citie.

g Condemned vtterly to be destroyed.

17 And the citie shalbe g accursed, and all that are therein, vnto the Lord: only Rahab the harlot shal liue, and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And in any wise be ye ware of the accursed things, least ye make your selues accursed, and take of the accursed things, and make the host of Israel accursed, & trouble it.

h That is beast being destroyed and all other things that could not by fire be molten and transformed, al metals are so reserued to the Lordes vse, that they should neuer be conuerted to any priuate vse.

20 And the people shouted, & blewe with trumpets: & when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, they showted with a great showte, and the wall fell downe flatte, so that the people went vp into the citie, euery man straight before him, and tooke the citie:

21 And they vtterly destroyed al that was in the citie, both man and woman, yong and olde, ore, sheepe, and asse, with the edge of the sworde.

22 But Iosuah had saide vnto the two men that had spyed out the countrey, Goe into the harlots house, and bring out thence the woman and al that she hath, as ye sware vnto her.

23 And the young men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, & her father, and mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: & they brought out all her kinred, & put them i without the host of Israel.

i For it was not lawful to straungers to dwell among the Israelites, till they were instructed in the lawe, and purified.

24 And they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onely the siluer and the golde, the vessels of brasse & yron, they put into the treasurie of the k house of the Lord.

k Meaning the tabernacle.

25 And Iosuah saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers houshold, and all that she had: and l she dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because she hid the messengers which Iosuah sent to spie out Jericho.

l For she was married to Salmah prince of the tribe of Iuda, chap. 2. 3. Reg. 16. 34.

26 * And Iosuah sware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lord, that riseth vp and buildeth this citie Jericho: he shal lay the m foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, and in his yongest sonne shal he set vp the gates of it.

m He that buildeth it to the destruction of all his stocke, which thing was fulfilled in Hiel of Bethel, as 1. King. 4.

BVT yet the children of Israel trespassed in the a cursed thing: for Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zareth, of the tribe of Juda, tooke of the cursed thing: & the wrath of the Lord waxed hotte against the children of Israel.

b There was three Ais: the Ai of the Ismaelites, which was the greater, and is here described: the other of the Ammonites, Jerem. 49.

3 And returned to Iosuah, and said vnto him, Let not all the people goe vp: but let as it were two or three thousande men goe vp, and smite Ai: and make not all the people to labour thither, for they are but fewe.

4 And so there went vp thither of the people about three thousande men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai c smote of them vpon thirtie and sixe men: for they chased them frō before the gate, euen vnto Sebarim, & smote them in the going downe: wherefore the hearts of the people for feare melted away like water.

8 Oh Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies?

9 Surely the Chananites, and al the inhabitants of the land, shal heare of it, and shal conspire against vs, & destroy the name of vs out of the earth: and what wilt thou do vnto thy mighty Name?

10 And the Lord sayd vnto Iosuah, Get thee vp, wherefore lyest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, & they haue transgressed my couenant which I commaunded them: for they haue take of the cursed things, and haue also stollen, and dissembled also, and put them vnto their owne stuffe.

12 And therefore is it that the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies, but shall turne their backs before their enemies, because they be accursed: neyther will I be with you any more, except ye b destroy the accursed from among you.

b To suffer wickednesse vnpunished, is as much as God forbiddeth.

13 Vp, and sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morow, for so said ẏ Lord God of Israel, There is a ‖damned thing among you, O Israel: and therfore ye can not stand against your enemies, vntill ye haue put the damned c thing from among you.

15 And he that is found with the accursed thing, shalbe burnt with fire, he, & all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lord, & wrought folly in Israel.

16 And so Iosuah rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Iuda was caught.

17 And he brought the kinreds of Iuda, and tooke the kinred of the Zarehites: and he brought the kinred of the Zarehites, man by man, and Zabdi was caught.

18 And he brought his houshold, man by man, and Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, ẏ sonne of Zared, of the tribe of Iuda, was caught.

19 And Iosuah sayde vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseech thee giue glory to the Lord God of Israel, & e make confession vnto him, and shewe me what thou hast done, hyde it not from me.

e God is glorified when the truth is confessed.

20 And Achan answered Iosuah, & sayd, Of a trueth I haue sinned against the Lorde God of Israel, and thus & thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoiles, a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred sicles of siluer, & a tongue of gold of fifty sicles waight, and I coueted them, and tooke them, and beholde, they lie hid in the earth in the middes of my tent, and the siluer is thereunder.

22 And so Iosuah sent messengers, which when they ranne vnto his tent, beholde, they were hid in his tent, & the siluer thereunder.

23 Therefore they tooke them out of the middest of his tent, and brought them vnto Iosuah, and vnto all the children of Israel, and laid them out f before the Lord.

24 And Iosuah tooke Achan the sonne of Zareth, and the siluer, and the garment, and the ‖ tongue of golde, and his sonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, his sheepe, his tent, and all that hee had, and all Israel with him, brought them vnto the valley of Achor.

25 And Iosuah said, In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, and ouerwhelmed them with stones.

g What hard iudgement & grieuous punishment they ought to haue, that by wickednesse draw Gods wrath vpon the multitude.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lord turned from the wrath of his indignation. And the name of the place is called, The valley of h Achor vnto this day.

b God would not destroy Ai by miracle, as he did Iericho, to the intent that other nations might feare the power & puissance of his people.

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approch vnto the citie: And when they come out against vs, as they did at the first time, then will we flee before them:

6 For they will come out after vs, till we haue brought them out of the citie, for they will say, They flee before vs as at the first time: and we will flee before them.

14 And when the king of Ai sawe it, they hasted, and rose vp early, and the men of the citie went out against Israel to battell, he, and all his people, at a time appoynted, euen before the playne, and wyst not that there were lyers in waite against him on the backside of the citie.

16 And all the people of the towne were called together to follow after them: and they followed after Iosuah, and were drawen away from the citie.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, and in Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the citie open, and followed after Israel.

18 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, g Stretch out ỹ speare that is in thine hande, toward Ai, for I wil giue it into thine hand. And Iosuah stretched out the speare that hee had in his hand, toward the citie:

g Or, lift vp the banner, to signifie when they shall inuade the citie.

19 And the lyers in waite arose quickly out of their place, and ranne as soone as Iosuah had stretched out his hand: and they entred into the citie, and took it, and hasted, and set the citie on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they sawe the smoke of the citie ascende vp to heauen, and they had no ‖ place to flee, either this way or that: and the people that fled to the wildernes, turned backe again vpon the followers.

13 And these bottels of wine which wee filled, were newe, and see they bee rent: and these our garments and shooes are woxne for oldnesse, by the reason of the exceeding long iourney.

14 And the men tooke of their [g] victuals, and counselled not with the mouth of the Lozd.

15 * And Iosuah made peace with them, and made a couenaunt with them, that they should be suffered to liue: and the princes of the congregation sware vnto them.

16 But at the ende of three dayes, after they had made a league with thē, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them,

17 And the children of Israel tooke their [h] iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day: and their cities were Gibeon, and Caphira, Beroth, and Kiriath-iarim.

18 And the children of Israel slewe them not, because the princes of the Congregation had sworne vnto them by the Lozde God of Israel: And all the multitude murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes sayde vnto all the congregation, Wee haue sworne vnto them by the Lozd God of Israel: and therefoze we may not hurt them.

20 But this we will doe to them, We wil let them liue, least wzath be vpon vs, because of the othe which we sware vnto them.

21 And the princes said vnto them again, Let them liue, and hewe wood, and dzawe water vnto all the congregation, and they did as the princes said vnto them.

22 And Iosuah called for them, and talked with them, and said, Wherefoze haue yee beguiled vs, saying, We d'wel farre from you, when ye d'wel among vs?

23 And nowe are ye cursed, and there shall not ceasse to be of you bondmen, and hewers of wood, and dzawers of water, for the [i] house of my God.

24 And they answered Iosuah, and said, It was tolde thy seruaunts howe that the Lozde thy God had commanded his seruant Moses to giue you all the lande, and to destroy all the inhabitours thereof out of your sight, and therefoze we were exceeding sore afraide for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing.

25 And behold, we are in thine hande: as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to do vnto vs, so do.

26 And euen so did he vnto them, and rid them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slewe them not.

27 And Iosuah made them that same day hewers of wood, and dzawers of water for the congregation, and for the [k] altar of God vnto this day, in the place which he should choose.

The x. Chapter.

1 Fiue kings make warre against Gibeon, whome Iosuah discomfiteth. 12 The sunne standeth still at Iosuahs prayer. 26 The fiue kings are hanged.

NOw when Adonizedec king of Hierusalem, had heard howe Iosuah had taken * Ai, and had destroyed it (and howe that as he had done to Iericho and her king, euen so he had done to * Ai & her king) & how the inhabiters of * Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them, Iosu. 6. 15.

Iosu. 8. 3.
[a] That is, Lord of iustice, & Tyrants take to them selues glorious names, when indeede they be verie enemies against God and all iustice.

2 They feared exceedingly, for Gibeon was a great citie, as any citie of the kingdome, and was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were very mightie.

3 Wherefoze [a] Adonizedec king of Hieruſalem, ſent vnto Hoham king of Hebron, and vnto Piram king of Jarmuth, and vnto Japhia king of Lachis, and vnto Dabir king of Eglon, ſaying, 4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may ſmite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Ioſuah, and with the children of Iſrael.

5 Therefore the fiue kinges of the Amorites, the king of Hieruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon, gathered them ſelues together, and went vp, they with all their hoſtes, and beſieged Gibeon, and made warre againſt it.

6 And the men of Gibeon ſent vnto Ioſuah to the hoſte in Gilgal, ſaying, Withdraw not thy hande from thy ſeruants, come vp to vs quickly, and ſaue vs, and helpe vs: for all the kings of the Amorites which dwel in the mountaines, are gathered together [b] againſt vs.

[b] As ſoone as thou makeſt a league with the children of God by regeneration, thou ſhalt be ſure to haue the wicked children of the world in thy toppe.

7 And ſo Ioſuah aſcended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lord ſaid vnto Ioſuah, [c] Feare them not: for I haue deliuered them into thine hand, neither ſhal any of them ſtand againſt thee.

[c] Leſt Ioſuah ſhould haue thought that God had ſent this great power againſt him for his league with the Gibeonites, the Lorde here doeth ſtrengthen him.

9 Ioſuah therefore came vnto them ſuddenly, and went vp from Gilgal all night.

10 And the Lorde troubled them before Iſrael, and ſlewe them with a great ſlaughter at Gibeon, & chaſed them along the way that goeth vp to Bethoron, and ſmote them to Azeka and Makeda.

11 And as they fledde from before Iſrael, and were in the going downe to Bethoron, the Lord caſt downe great ſtones from heauen vpon them vntill Azeka, and they dyed: there were mo dead with haile [d] ſtones, then they were whome the children of Iſrael ſlue with the ſword.

[d] All kinde of creatures ſhall deſtroy the wicked when the Lorde of hoſtes will haue it ſo.

12 Then ſpake Ioſuah to the Lord, in the day when the Lorde deliuered the Amorites before the children of Iſrael, and hee ſaide in the ſight of Iſrael, * Sunne, ſtande thou ſtill vpon Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Jalon.

Eſai. 28. 21. eccle. 46. 5.

13 And the Sunne abode, and the moone ſtoode ſtill, vntill the people had auenged themſelues vpon their enemies. Is not this written in the booke of the righteous? So the Sunne abode in the middeſt of heauen, and haſted not to goe downe by the ſpace of a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, or after it, that the Lorde hearde the voice of a man: for the Lord [e] fought for Iſrael.

[e] By taking away the enemies hearts, and deſtroying them with haileſtones.

15 And Ioſuah returned, and all Iſrael with him, vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the fiue kings fled, and were hid in a caue at Makeda.

17 And it was tolde Ioſuah, ſaying, The fiue kings are founde hid in a caue, which is at Makeda.

18 And Ioſuah ſayd, Roule great ſtones vpon the mouth of the caue, and ſet men by it, for to keepe it:

19 And ſtande ye not ſtill, but follow after your enemies, and ſmite all the hindmoſt, and ſuffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lorde your God hath deliuered them into your hand.

20 And when Ioſuah and the children of Iſrael had made an end of ſlaying them with an exceeding great ſlaughter, till they were waſted: the reſt that remained of them, entred into walled cities.

21 And al the people returned to the hoſte to Ioſuah at Makeda in peace, neither did any man moue his tongue againſt the children of Iſrael.

22 Then ſaid Ioſuah, Open the mouth of the caue, and bring out thoſe fiue kings vnto me out of the caue.

23 And they did ſo, and brought thoſe fiue kings vnto him out of the caue, euen the king of Hieruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they brought out thoſe fiue kings vnto Ioſuah, Ioſuah called for all the men of Iſrael, and ſaid vnto the chiefe of the men of warre which went with him, Come neere, and put your feete vpon the [f] necks of theſe kings. And they came neere, and put their feete vpon the neckes of them.

[f] By this Ioſuah woulde encourage his captaines, and ſignifie vnto them what victorie they ſhould haue for all of the reſt of their enemies, ſeing kings acteins by themſelues.

25 And Ioſuah ſaid vnto them, Yee ſhal not feare, nor be faint hearted, but be ſtrong, and plucke vp your hearts: for thus ſhall the Lord doe to all your enemies againſt whom ye fight.

26 And then Ioſuah ſmote them, and ſlew them, and hanged them on fiue trees: & they hanged ſtil vpon the trees, vntil the euening.

27 And at the going downe of the ſunne, Ioſuah gaue commandement, and they tooke them downe off the trees, and caſt them into the caue wherein they had bene hid, and laid great ſtones in the caues mouth which remain vntill this day.

28 And that ſame day, Ioſuah tooke Makeda, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the king thereof alſo deſtroyed hee vtterly, with ‖ all the ſoules that were therein, and let none remaine: and hee did to the king of Makeda, as he did * vnto the king of Jericho.

‖ Or, euery perſon.

Ioſu. 6. 21.

29 Then Ioſuah went from Makeda, and all Iſrael with him, vnto Libna, and fought againſt Libna.

30 And the Lord deliuered it and the king thereof, into the hand of Iſrael: and he ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde, and all the ‖ ſoules that were therein: Yee let none remaine in it, but did vnto the king thereof, as he did vnto the king of Jericho.

‖ Or, perſons.

31 And Ioſuah departed from Libna, and all Iſrael with him, vnto Lachis, and beſieged it, and aſſaulted it.

32 And the Lorde deliuered Lachis into the hand of Iſrael, which tooke it the ſecond day, day, & smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the soules that were therein, doing according to al, as he had done to the city of Libna.

33 Then Horam king of Geser, came vp to helpe Lachis: and Iosuah smote him and his people, vntill none remained of him.

34 And from Lachis, Iosuah departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him, & they besieged it, and assaulted it, 35 And tooke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and al the soules that were therein, hee vtterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachis.

36 And Iosuah departed vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him, vnto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sworde, and the king thereof, and all the townes that pertained to it, and all the soules that were therein, and hee left none remaining, but did according to all as he had done to Eglon, and destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 And Iosuah returned, and all Israel with him to Dabir, and fought against it.

39 And when hee had taken it, and the king thereof, and all the townes that pertained thereto, they smote them with the edge of the sworde, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, neither let hee any remaine: euen as hee did to Hebron, so hee did to Dabir, and the king thereof, as hee had done also to Libna, and her king.

40 Iosuah therefore smote all the hill countreys, and the South countreys, and the valleyes, and the downes, and all their kings, and let none remaine of them, but vtterly destroyed all that breathed, as the Lord God of Israel commanded.

41 And Iosuah smote them from Cades Barnea, vnto Asah, and all the countrey of Gosen, euen vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their land did Iosuah take at & one time: because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 And Iosuah and all Israel returned vnto the hoste that was in h Gilgal.

& In one battell.

The xj. Chapter.

1 Certaine kings are gathered against Iosuah. 6 God deliuereth all the kings vnto Iosuah, which had conspired against him.

AND when Iabin king of Hazor had heard those things, a hee sent to Iobab king of Madon, and to the king of Simron, and to the king of Achsaph, a The Gibeonites at the appearing of Gods mightie hand for Israel, perlued to Gods decree, & fought (although in the same) but yet twice here, the mightie hand of God appeareth, the more they rage against it.

2 And vnto the kings that were by the North, in the mountaines and plaines toward the South side of b Cenereth, and in the lowe countreys, and in the borders of Dor, Westward:

b The Sea of Galile, and the sea of Tiberias.

3 And vnto the Chanaanites both by East and west, and vnto the Amorites, Hethites, Pherizites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Heuites that c were vnder Hermon in the land of Mispah.

c And by another name, Sion, but not Sion in Hierusalem, as Deut 4.42.

4 And they came out, and all their hostes with them, a multitude of folke, euen as the sand that is on the sea shore, in a great number, with horses and charrets exceeding many.

5 And all these kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Be not afraid at the presence of them: for to morowe about this time will I deliuer them all slaine before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burne their charets with fire.

7 And so Iosuah came, & all the men of warre with him, against them, by the waters of Merom, and suddenly fell vpon them.

8 And the Lorde deliuered them into the hand of Israel, and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Sidon, and vnto d Misrephothmaim, and vnto the valley of Mispah, which is Eastward: & smote them, vntill they had none remaining of them.

d Which signifieth hot waters, or according to some, dyers pittes.

9 And Iosuah did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, & burnt their charets with fire.

10 And Iosuah at that time turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: and Hazor before time was the head of all those kingdomes.

11 And they smote all the e soules that were therein with the edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying all, and nothing that breathed was let remaine: and hee burnt Hazor with fire.

e Both men, women, and children.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Iosuah take, and smote them with the edge of the sworde, and vtterly destroyed them, * as Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded.

Num.33.52 deut.7.2.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stoode still in their f strength, saue Hazor onely that Iosuah burnt.

f Which were strong by situation, and not part by warre.

14 And all the spoyle of the said cities, and the cattell, the children of Israel caught vnto themselues: but & euery man they smote with the edge of the sworde, vntill they had destroyed them, neither left they ought that had breath.

& That is, man, woman, and child.

15 * As the Lord commanded Moses his seruant, so * did Moses commaund Iosuah, and euen so did Iosuah, so that hee minished no word of all that the Lorde commaunded Moses.

Exo.34.11. Deut.7.2.

16 And so Iosuah tooke all that land of the hils, and all the South countrey, and all the lande of Gosen, and the lowe countrey, and the plaine, and the h mountaine of Israel, and the lowe countrey of the same:

h Which is, Samaria.

17 Euen from the mount i Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, vnto * Baal Gad, in the valley of Libanon, vnder mount Hermon: and all the kings of the same hee tooke, and smote them, and slewe them.

i So called, because it was bare & without trees. * The valley of Gad.

18 Iosuah made warre long time with those kings.

19 Neither was there any citie that made peace with the children of Israel, saue those Hethites that inhabited Gibeon, and therefore all other they tooke with battell:

20 For it came of the Lorde, which did k harden their hearts, that they shoulde come against Israel in battel, and that they should destroy them vtterly, and shew them no mercie: but to bring them to nought, as the Lord commanded Moses.

k That is, he gaue them ouer to themselues, and therefore they could not but rebell against God, and seeke their owne destruction.

21 And the same season came Iosuah, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines, as out of Hebron, Dabir, Anab, & out of all the mountaines of Iuda, and out of all the mountaines of Israel: and Iosuah destroyed them vtterly, with their cities.

22 There was not one Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Azzah, Gath, and Asdod, there remained of them.

23 And Iosuah tooke the whole land, according to all that the Lord said vnto Moses, and Iosuah gaue it for a possession vnto Israel, according to their parts and tribes: and the land rested from warre.

7 Now therefore, deuide this land to inherite vnto the nine tribes, and the halfe tribe of Manasses.

8 For with that other, the Rubenites and the Gadites haue receiued their inheritance, * which Moses gaue them beyonde Iordane East ward, as Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them:

1 The lot of the children of Iuda, and the names of the cities and villages of the same. 13 Calebs portion. 19 The requeſt of Achsah.

THis was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iuda by their kinreds, euen to the border of Edom in the wildernesse of Zin Southward, euen from the vttermost part of the South coast.

2 And their South coast was from the brinke of the salt sea, from a [a] rocke that leaneth Southward.

a The Hebrew word signifieth Tongue, whereby is meant either the arme of the sea that commeth into the land, or a rocke or cape that goeth into the sea.

3 And it went out to the South side, toward the going vp to Maale-acrabim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vp on the South side vnto Cades Barnea: and went along to Hesron, and went vp to Adar, and fet a compasse to Karcaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the west side: this is [b] their South coast.

b The Hebrew worde is Chem, and signifieth Sour, which as one learned in Hebrewe thinketh, is put here for Yam, which signifieth Their.

5 Their East coast is the salt sea, euen vnto the ende of [c] Iordane: and their border in the North quarter, was from the rocke ‖ of the sea, and from the ende of Iordane.

8 And then went vp to the valley of the Sunne of Hennom, euen vnto the South side of Iebusi, the same is Hierusalem: and then went vp to the top of the hill that lyeth before the valley of Hennom west ward, and by the ende of the valley of the giants Northward.

9 And then it compasseth from the top of the hill vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephthoah, and goeth out of the cities of mount Ephron, & draweth to Baala, which is [e] Kariathiarim.

3 And goeth downe againe Westwarde, euen to the coast of Japhleti, and vnto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gazer, and the ends of their coastes leade at the west sea.
4 And so the children of Ioseph, Manasses, and Ephraim, tooke their inheritance:

6 And went out Westward to Michmathath on the Northside, and returneth Eastwarde vnto Thaanath Silo, and passeth it on the East side vnto Janoah,
7 And went downe from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarath, and came to Iericho, and went out at Iordane.
8 And their border went from Thaphuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanath, and the endes were the west sea: This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their kinreds.
9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasses, euen the cities, with their villages,

10 And they draue not out the Chanaanites that dwell in Gazar: but the Chanaanites dwelt among the Ephraites vnto this day, and serue vnder tribute.

The xvij. Chapter.

1 The portion of the halfe tribe of Manasse. 3 A portion is giuen to the daughters of Zalphaad.

Gen.46.14. THis was the lot of the tribe of *Manasses, which was the eldest sonne of Ioseph, to wit, of Machir, the eldest sonne of Manasses, which was the father of Gilead: (now because he was a man of warre) he had Gilead and Basan.

Nū.26.29. a For the other halfe tribe had their portion beyond Iordane, Num.26

2 *This is the possession of the a rest of the children of Manasses by their kinreds, namely of the children of Abiezer, the children of Helek, the children of Asriel, the children of Sechem, the children of Hepher, the children of Semida: for these were the male children of Manasses, the sonne of Ioseph by their kinreds.

Num.27.7. and 36.2.

3 *But Zalphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasses, had no sonnes, but daughters: whose names are these, Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirsa:

4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and before the lordes, saying, The Lorde commanded Moses to giue vs an inheritance among our b brethren: and therefore according to the commaundement of the Lorde, hee gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

b Among them of our tribe.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasses, beside the land of Gilead & Basan, which were on the other side Iordane,

6 Because the daughters of Manasses did inherite among his sonnes: and Manasses other sonnes had the land of Gilead.

7 And the coast of Manasses was from Aser to Machmathath, that lieth before Sichem, and went along on the right hand, euen vnto the inhabitants of En-taphuah.

8 And the land of Thaphuah belonged to Manasses: which c Thaphuah is beside the border of Manasses, beside the border of the children of Ephraim.

c Meaning the citie it selfe.

9 And the coast descended vnto the ‖riuer Canah Southward, euen to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasses: the coast of Manasses went also on the North side to the riuer, and the endes of it goe out at the sea:

‖Or, brooke of reedes,

10 So that the South pertained to Ephraim, and the North to Manasses, and the sea is his border, & they met together in d Aser Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

d In the tribe of Aser and the tribe of Issachar.

11 And Manasses had in Issachar and in Aser, Beth sean & her townes, Ibleam and her townes, and the inhabiters of Dor, with the townes pertaining to the same, and the inhabiters of Endor, with the townes of the same, and the inhabiters of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabiters of Magedo with the townes of the same, euen three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasses could e not ouercome those cities, but the Chanaanites presumed to dwell in the same land.

e For at the first they were conquerours, and after agreed with them on condition of their seruice: or else it was for want of strength.

13 Neuertheless, as soone as the children of Israel were waxed strong, they put the Chanaanites vnder tribute, but expelled them not.

14 And the children of Ioseph spake vnto Iosuah, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot and one portion to inherite, seeing I am a great people, and forasmuch as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

f According to my father Iacobs prophecie, Gen.48.

15 And Iosuah answered them, If ye be much people, then get thee vp to the wood countrey, and prepare for thy selfe there in the land of the Pherezites and g of the Giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

g If this mount be not large enough, why dwell not thou get more by destroying Gods enemies as he hath commanded?

16 And the children of Ioseph saide, The hill is not ynough for vs: and all the Chanaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charets of iron, and so haue they that inhabite Beth sean and the townes of the same, and they also that dwel in the valley of Iezrael.

17 And Iosuah said vnto the house of Ioseph, Ephraim, and Manasses, Ye be much people, and haue great power, and shall not therefore haue one lot:

18 Therefore the hill shalbe yours, and ye shal cut downe the wood that is in it: and the ends of it shalbe yours, if ye cast out the Chanaanites, which haue iron charets, and are very strong.

6 And he shall dwell in the said citie vntill he stande before the congregation in [b] iudgement, or vn till the death of the high Priest that shall be in those dayes: for then shall the slear returne, and come vnto his owne citie, and vnto his owne house, and vnto the citie from whence he fled.

8 And on the other side Iordane ouer against Jericho Eastward, * they appointed Bezer in the wildernes vpon the plaine, out of the tribe of Ruben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Basan out of the [c] tribe of Manasses.

Deut. 8.43.

The xxi. Chapter.

41 The cities giuen to the Leuites, in number eight and fourtie. 44 The Lord according to his promise gaue the children of Israel rest.

AND then came the principall fathers of the Leuites vnto Eleazar the Priest, and vnto Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and vnto the ancient fathers that were ouer the tribes of the children of Israel,

2 * And spake vnto them at Silo in the land of Chanaan, saying, The Lord cõmanded by Moses to giue vs cities to dwell in, with the suburbes thereof for our cattell.

Num. 35.2.

3 And the children of Israel gaue vnto the Leuites out of their inheritance, at the bidding of the Lord, these cities following, with their suburbes.

4 And the lot came out of the kinred of the [a] Caathites: the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Leuites, had giuen them by lot out of the tribe of Juda, out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Beniamin, thirteene cities.

[a] There were three families of the Leuites, the Caathites, Gersonites, & the Merarites. The priestes were of the family of Caath.

5 And the rest of the children of Caath had by lot out of the kinreds of the tribe of Ephraim, out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manasses, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gerson had by lot out of the kinreds of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Aser, and out of the tribe of Nephthali, and out of the other halfe tribe of Manasses in Basan, thirteen cities.

7 And the children of Merari by their kinreds, had out of the tribe of Ruben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zabulon, twelue cities.

8 And the children of Israel gaue by lot vnto the Leuites these cities with their suburbs, as the Lord commanded by the hande of Moses.

9 And they gaue out of the tribe of the children of Juda, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the kinreds of the Caathites, and of the children of Leui, obteined: (for theirs was the first lot.)

11 And they gaue them Kiriath-arba of the father of Enac (which is Hebron) in the hill countrey of Juda, with the [b] suburbs of the same round about it.

[b] The suburbs were a thousand cubites from the wall of the citie round about. Iosu. 14.14. 1.chr. 6.56.

12 * But the land that perteined to the citie, and the villages thereof, gaue they to Caleb the sonne of Jephune, to be his possession.

13 And thus they gaue to the children of Aaron the Priest, a citie, to the which the slayer might flee, euen Hebron with her suburbes, and Libna with her suburbs,

14 And Jathir with her suburbs, and Esthemoa with her suburbs:

16 Ain with her suburbs, Juttah with her suburbs, Bethsames with her suburbs: nine cities, out of those tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Beniamin, they gaue Gibeõ with her suburbs, Gabaa with her suburbes, 18 Anatoth with her suburbes, Almon with her suburbs, foure cities.

19 All these cities of the children of Aaron Priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the kinreds of the children of Caath that were Leuites, that is to say, the [c] other childrẽ of Caath, had cities giuen them for their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

[c] That is, that were no priests, but Leuites onely.

12 For they gaue them the citie that the slear might flee vnto, Sichem with her suburbes in mount Ephraim, and Gazer with her suburbs, 12 And Cibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs, foure cities.

25 And out of the [d] halfe tribe of Manasses, Thanach with her suburbes, & Gathremon with her suburbes, two cities.

[d] which dwelled in Chanaan.

26 All the cities for the other kinreds of the children of Caath, were ten, with their suburbes.

27 And vnto the children of Gerson, which were of the kinreds of the Leuites, they gaue out of the other halfe tribe of Manasses, the cities of refuge for the slear, Golan in Basan with her suburbs, and Beesthera with her suburbs, two cities.

21 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kison with her ſuburbes, and Daberey with her ſuburbes:

29 And Jarmuth with her ſuburbes, Enganim with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Aſer, Miſal with her ſuburbs, Abdon with her ſuburbs, 31 Helcath with her ſuburbes, and Rohob with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

33 All the cities of the Gerſonites throwout their kinreds, were thirteene cities with their ſuburbs.

34 And vnto the other kinreds of the children of Merari [e] the reſt of the Leuites, they gaue out of the tribe of Zabulon, Jecnam with her ſuburbs, and Cartha with her ſuburbes, 35 Dimnah with her ſuburbes, and Nahalal with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Ruben, [f] Bezer with her ſuburbes, and Jahaſa with her ſuburbes, 37 Kedemoth with her ſuburbes, and Mephaath with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, they gaue the citie for the ſlayer to flee vnto, Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbes, and Mahanaim with her ſuburbes, 39 Heſbon with her ſuburbes, and Jaſer with her ſuburbes, foure cities in all.

40 So that all the cities of the children of Merari throughout their kinreds which were the reſt of the kinreds of the Leuites, were by their lot twelue cities.

41 And all the cities that the Leuites had [g] among the poſſeſſion of the children of Iſrael, were fourtie and eight, with their ſuburbs.

42 And theſe cities lay euery one ſeuerally, hauing their ſuburbes round about them throwout all the ſaid cities.

43 And the Lord gaue vnto Iſrael all the land which hee ſware to giue vnto their fathers: and they conquered it, and dwelt therin.

44 And the Lord gaue them reſt round about, according to all that hee ſware vnto their fathers, and there ſtood not a man of all their enemies before them: the Lord alſo deliuered all their enemies into their handes.

45 There eſcaped nothing of all the good things which the Lord had ſaide vnto the houſe of Iſrael, but all came to paſſe.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 Ruben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes are ſent againe to their poſſeſſions.

THen [a] Joſuah called the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes,

2 And ſaide vnto them, Yee haue kept all that Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde [b] commanded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you.

3 Ye haue not left your brethren of a long ſeaſon vnto this day, but haue kept the commandement of the Lord your God.

4 And now that the Lord hath giuen reſt vnto your brethren, as hee promiſed them, therefore returne yee, & goe vnto your tents, and vnto the land of your poſſeſſion, * which Moſes the ſeruant of the Lorde gaue you on the other ſide Jordane. Num. 32, 33.

5 But in any wiſe take diligent heede, to doe the commandement and [c] lawe, which Moſes the ſeruant of the Lord charged you, that ye loue the Lord your God, and walk in all his wayes, and keep his cõmandements, and cleaue vnto him, and ſerue him with all your heartes, and all your ſoules.

6 And ſo Joſuah [d] bleſſed them and ſent them away: and they went vnto their tents.

7 Vnto the one halfe of the tribe of Manaſſes Moſes gaue poſſeſſion in Baſan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Joſuah among their brethren on this ſide Jordane weſtward. And Joſuah ſent them away alſo vnto their tents, and bleſſed them,

8 And ſaide vnto them, Returne with much riches vnto your tents, & with a great multitude of cattell, with ſiluer and golde, with braſſe, and yron, and with much raiment: and deuide the ſpoyle of your enemies with your [e] brethren.

9 And the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, returned, and departed from the children of Iſrael out of Silo, which is in the land of Chanaan, to goe vnto the countrey of Gilead, to the land of their poſſeſſion, which they had obteined according to the worde of the Lorde by the hand of Moſes.

10 And when they came vnto the borders of Jordane, that are in the land of Chanaan, there the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes built [f] there an altar by Jordane, and that a great altar to ſee to.

11 When the children of Iſrael heard ſay, Behold, the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, haue built an altar in the forefront of the lande of Chanaan, in the borders of Jordane, at the paſſage of the children of Iſrael:

12 When the children of Iſrael heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael gathered them together at Silo, to make [g] battaile againſt them.

13 And the children of Iſrael ſent vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, into the land of Gilead, Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar the Prieſt.

14 And with him tenne lordes, of euery chiefe houſe a lord, throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, which were heads of their fathers houſholdes, among the ‖ thouſandes of Iſrael. ‖ Or, multitudes.

15 And

[a] After that the Iſraelites enioyed the lande of Chanaan.

[b] Which was to goe armed before their brethren, Num. 32. 33.

[c] Joſuah vſeth a prayer, willing to ſhew them his care, and his thankefull heart for their paines, remembreth them of the keeping of gods lawe, as a ſpecial meane of all the reward, and his office he willeth them, [d] He commendeth them to God, and prayeth for them.

[e] The families of Caath and Gerſon, already ſpoken of, remaineth only Merari, of which being the youngeſt, came the third familie of Leuites, and are here therefore called the reſt. [f] Bezer & Ramoth, were the cities of refuge, vnder the Merarites and beyond Jordane.

[g] That Jacobs prophecie might be fulfilled, and Gods prouidence performed: that is, that no part of Iſrael ſhould want their teachers of Gods lawe.

[e] Which they had left at home to keep their owne poſſeſſions.

[f] That is beyond Jordan. For ſometime the whole countrey on both ſides of Jordane, is meant by Chanaan.

[g] Gods lawe required this to be doe, though they were [h] deare friendes they had, if they were found to fall away from true religion.

15 And they went vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, vnto the land of Gilead, and they ſpake with them, ſaying, 16 Thus ſaith the whole congregation of the Lorde, what tranſgreſſion is this that ye haue tranſgreſſed againſt the God of Iſrael, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue builded you an altar for to rebel this day againſt the Lord?

Num. 25. 4. b The reproch of that wickednes doeth ſtick by vs ſtil, though after punishment by death of 24. thouſande, Gods wrath was pacified.

17 * Is the wicked deede of Peor too litle for vs, whereof we are yet not [b] cleanſed vnto this day: and there was a plague in the congregation of the Lord?

18 Ye alſo are turned away this day from the Lord: and ſeeing ye rebell to day againſt the Lord, it wil come to paſſe that to morow he ſhalbe wroth with all the congregation of Iſrael.

i As wanting the arke of the Lorde and his altar.

19 Notwithſtanding, if yee thinke that the land of your poſſeſſion is [i] vncleane, then come ouer vnto the lande of the poſſeſſion of the Lorde, wherein the Lordes tabernacle dwelleth, and take poſſeſſion among vs: but k To bilde any other ſeruice then God ordeined, is to rebell againſt God.

[k] rebel not againſt the Lord, nor rebel againſt vs, to builde you any other altar, ſaue the altar of the Lord our God.

20 Did not Achan the ſonne of Zareth treſpaſſe grieuouſly in the accurſed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Iſrael? and this man [l] periſhed not alone in his wickednes.

l Signifying that many ſuffered for one mans fault, for the fault of many, all ſhould ſuffer.

21 Then the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, anſwered, and ſaide vnto the heades ouer the thouſands of Iſrael, 22 The Lorde God of Gods, the Lorde God of Gods knoweth, and all Iſrael ſhall knowe, if it bee to rebell or to tranſgreſſe againſt the Lord, then ſhew Lord ſaue vs not this day.

23 Or els if we haue built vs an altar to turne from following the Lorde, or to offer thereon whole burnt offering, or meate offering, to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord himſelfe [m] require it.

m That is, let him punish vs and reuenge it.

24 And if wee haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, ſaying, In time to come your children might ſay vnto ours, What haue you to do with the Lord God of Iſrael?

25 The Lorde hath made Iordane a border betweene vs and you, ye children of Ruben, and of Gad, ye haue no part therefore in the Lord: and ſo ſhall your children make our children [n] ceaſe from fearing the Lord.

n Fall away from true religion.

26 Therefore we ſaid, We will make vs an altar, not for whole burnt offering, nor for ſacrifice:

27 But for a witneſſe betweene vs and you, and our generations after vs, that we ſhould ſerue the Lord with our whole burnt offerings, ſacrifices, and peace offerings before him: and that your children ſhould not ſay to ours in time to come, Ye haue no part in the Lord.

o As you are excluded from the benefite are you excluded from being partakers of the Gods ſeruice.

28 Therefore ſaide we, that if they ſhould ſo ſay to vs, or to [p] our generations in time to come, that we would ſay againe, Behold the faſhion of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, neither for whole burnt offerings, nor ſacrifices, but for a witneſſe betweene vs and you.

p God requireth that the care of his glorie be in euery man, not onely for his time, but alſo that it reache to his poſterite.

29 God forbidde that we ſhould rebell againſt the Lord, and turne this day from after him, and build any other altar for whole burnt offerings, oblations, or ſacrifices, ſaue the altar of the Lord our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 And when Phinehes the Prieſt, and the lordes of the Congregation, and heades ouer the thouſandes of Iſrael which were with him, heard theſe wordes, that the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manaſſes ſpake, ‡ they were well content.

‡ Heb. It was good in their eyes.

31 And Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar the Prieſt, ſaid vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manaſſes, This day we perceiue that the Lord is [q] among vs, becauſe ye haue not done this treſpaſſe againſt the Lord: now ye haue rid the children of Iſrael [r] out of the hand of the Lord.

q His couenant and his true religion being preſerued vncorrupt.

r From the puniſhment that they muſt haue looked for, by tranſgreſſing of Gods lawe.

32 And Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar the Prieſt, with the lords, returned from the children of Ruben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, vnto the land of Chanaan, to the children of Iſrael, and brought them this word againe.

33 And the ſaying pleaſed the children of Iſrael, and they bleſſed God, and did not intend to goe againſt them in battel, and to deſtroy the lande which the children of Ruben and Gad dwelt in.

34 And the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad called the altar ‖ Ed, for it ſhalbe a witneſſe betweene vs, that the Lord is God.

17 For the Lorde our God, hee it is that brought vs and our fathers out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage, and which did those great myracles in our sight, and preserued vs in all the way that we went, and among all the people which we came through.

18 And the Lord did cast out before vs all the people, euen the Amorites which dwelt in the land, and therefore will we also serue the Lord, for he is [h] our God.

19 And Iosuah sayde vnto the people, Ye [i] cannot serue the Lorde: for hee is an holy God, and a ielous God, and cannot beare your iniquitie and sinne.

20 If yee forsake the Lorde, and serue strange gods, hee will turne, and doe you euill, and consume you, after that hee hath done you good.

21 And the people said vnto Iosuah, Nay, but we will serue the Lord.

22 And Iosuah sayde vnto the people, Ye are witnesses [k] against your selues, that ye haue chosen you the Lord to serue him. And they said, we are witnesses.

23 Then put away saide hee the [l] strange gods which are among you, and bowe your hearts vnto the Lord God of Israel.

24 The people sayde vnto Iosuah, The Lord our God will wee serue, and his voyce will we obey.

25 And so Iosuah [m] made a couenant with the people the same day, and set an ordinance and lawe before them in Sichem.

26 And Iosuah wrote these wordes in the booke of the lawe of God, and tooke a great stone, and pitched it on an ende in the sayde place, vnder an Oake that was in the sanctuarie of the Lord.

27 And Iosuah sayde vnto all the people, Behold, this stone shalbe a witnesse vnto vs, for [n] it hath heard all the wordes of the Lord which he spake vnto vs, it shalbe therefore a witnesse vnto you, lest ye denie your God.

28 And so Iosuah let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritance.

31 And Israel serued the Lord [o] all the dayes of Iosuah, and all the dayes of the elders that ouerliued Iosuah, and which had knowen all the workes of the Lord that hee had done for Israel.

The ij. Chapter.

2 The Angel rebuketh the people, becauſe they had made peace with the Chanaanites. 22 The cauſe is ſhewed why God ſuffered idolaters to remaine among them.

AND the n Angel of the Lorde came vp from Gilgal to Bochim and ſayde, I made you to goe out of Egypt, and haue brought you vnto the lande which I ſware vnto your fathers, and I ſaid, I will neuer breake my couenant that I made with you.

n A prophet, or meſſenger: as ſome think, which maketh it poſſible that there was not an Angel of God, but a prophet that ſpake in his name, Iud.13.

2 And yee also shall make no couenant with the inhabiters of this lande, but shall breake downe their altars: neuertheless, ye haue not hearkened vnto my voyce: why haue ye this done?

3 Wherefore, I haue likewise determined, that I will not cast them out before you: but they shall be as thornes vnto you, and their gods shalbe a snare vnto you.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people cryed out, and wept:

5 And called the name of the same place, ‖Bochim, and offered sacrifices there, vnto the Lord.

‖Or, weeping.

6 And when Iosuah [b] had sent the people away, the children of Israel went euery man into his inheritance, to possesse the land.

[b] Reade Ios. 24.28.

7 And the people serued the Lorde all the dayes of Iosuah, and all the dayes of the elders that outliued Iosuah, and had seene all the great workes of the Lord, that he did for Israel.

8 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun, the seruant of the Lorde dyed, when hee was an hundred and ten yeeres olde:

10 And so all that generation were gathered vnto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which neither knewe the Lorde, nor yet the workes which he had done for Israel.

11 And then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and serued [d] Baalim, [d] That is, all maner of Idoles.

12 And forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and followed strange gods, euen of the gods of the nations that were round about them, and bowed themselues vnto them, and angred the Lord:

13 They forsooke the Lorde, and serued Baal and [e] Astharoth.

[e] Idols which had the formes of sheepe & among the Heathens.

14 And the wrath of the Lord waxed hot against Israel, & he deliuered them into the hands of raueners, that spoyled them, and solde them into the handes of their enemies round about them, so that they had no power any longer to stand before their enemies.

‡ In all their enterprises. [f] The vengeance.

15 But ‡ whither so euer they went out, the [f] hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lorde had sayd, and had sworne vnto them: and he punished them sore.

16 Neuertheless, the Lorde raysed vp iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressours.

17 And yet for all that, they would not hearken vnto their Iudges, but rather went a whoring after strange gods, and bowed themselues vnto them, and turned [g] quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandements of the Lord: but they did not so.

[g] That is the author of the contrary nature of man, and therefore God of his mercy from time to time did reforme, and reuoke true religion.

18 And when the Lorde raysed them vp Iudges, he was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hands of their enemies, all the dayes of the Iudge: (for the Lord ‡had compassion ouer their sorowings, which they had by the reason of them that oppressed them, and vexed them:)

‡ Heb. Repented.

19 Yet for all that, assoone as the Iudge was dead, they returned, and ‡did worse then their fathers, in following strange gods, to serue them, and worship them, and ceassed not from their owne inuentions, nor from their stubburne way.

‡ Heb. Corrupt themselues.

20 And the wrath of the Lorde was moued against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my couenant which I commaunded their fathers, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce:

21 I will henceforth not cast out before them one man of the nations which Iosuah left when he died:

22 That through them I may [h] proue Israel, whether they will keepe the way of the Lorde, & walke therein as their fathers did, or not.

[h] Outward enemies and false prophets are a triall to proue our fayth.

23 And so the Lord left those nations, and drone them not out immediatly, neither deliuered them into the hand of Iosuah.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The Chanaanites were left to trie Israel. 9 Othoniel deliuereth Israel. 21 Ahud killeth king Eglon. 23 Samgar killeth the Philistines.

2 Onely for the learning of the generations of the children of Israel, that hee also might teach them warre, onely such as before time knewe nothing thereof:)

3 Of those whom he left, there were fiue lordes of the Philistines, and all the Chanaanites, and the Sidonites, and the Heuites that dwelt in mount Libanon, from mount Baal Hermon, vnto the comming into Hamath.

4 Those remayned to proue Israel by, and to wit whether they would hearken vnto the commaundements of the Lord which he commaunded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites,

6 And tooke the daughters of them to bee [b] their wiues, and gaue their owne daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods.

[b] Contrary to Gods commandement.

7 And the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, and forgate the Lorde their God, and serued Baalim, and [c] Astaroth.

Chusan Risathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel serued Chusan Risathaim eight yeeres.

9 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a sauiour to the children of Israel, and saued them, one Othoniel the sonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

d Enduing him with the gift of prophecie, zeale of true religion, strength, policie, wisedome, and fortitude.

10 And d the spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he iudged Israel: and went out to warre, & the Lorde deliuered Chusan Risathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chusan Risathaim.

13 And this Eglon gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and the Amalekites, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the citie of Palme trees.

14 And so the children of Israel serued Eglon the king of Moab eighteene yeeres.

15 But when they cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lord stirred them vp a sauiour, Ahud the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini, a man lame of his ‖ right hande: and by whome the children of Israel sent a present vnto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ahud made him a dagger with two edges, of a cubite length, and hee did gyrde it vnto his rayment, vpon his right thigh, 17 And carried the present vnto Eglon the king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when hee had presented the present, he sent the people that bare it, away.

19 But hee himselfe turned againe from the place of grauen images that was by Gilgal, and saide, I haue a secrete errand vnto thee, O king. which said, Keepe silence. And all that stoode before him, went out from him.

20 And Ahud came vnto him, and in a sommer parler which he had, sate hee himselfe alone: And Ahud sayde, I haue a message vnto thee from God. And hee arose out of his seate.

21 And Ahud put forth his left hand, and tooke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.

22 And the haft went in after the blade: and the fat closed the hast, so that hee might not draw the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

23 Then Ahud gate him out into the porch, and shut the doores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

24 When hee was gone out, his seruants came: and when they sawe that the doores of the parler were locked, they sayde, Surely he ‡ couereth his feete in his sommer chamber.

‡ He doeth his easement.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and seeing he opened not the doores of the parler, they tooke a key, and opened them: and beholde, their lorde was fallen downe dead on the earth.

26 And Ahud escaped while they tarried, and was gone beyond, to the place of the grauen images, and escaped vnto Seirath.

27 And when he was come, hee blewe a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the hill, and he went before them.

28 And he saide vnto them, Followe me: for the Lorde hath deliuered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they descended after him, and tooke the passages of Iordane towarde Moab, and suffered not a man to passe ouer.

29 And they slewe of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, which were all g fat, and men of warre, and there escaped not a man.

g That is, strong and lusty.

30 So Moab was subdued that day vnder the hand of Israel, and the land had rest fourescore yeeres.

31 After him was Samgar the sonne of Anath, which slue of the Philistines sixe hundred men with an Oxe goade, and deliuered Israel also.

The iiij. Chapter.

4 Debora iudgeth Israel, and exhorteth Barac to deliuer the people. 16 Sisera fleeth, 17 and is killed by Iael.

AND the children of Israel began againe to doe wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, when Ahud was dead.

a This was one of the princes of Iabin, whom Iosiah (Iosh. 11. mete learning remembred) ouercame to ouerthrow b which was by Iosiah ouerthrowen: but after recouered and builded by the enemies.

3 And the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, for he had nine hundred charets of iron: and twentie yeres he troubled the children of Israel very sore.

4 And Debora a prophetisse, the wife of Lapidoth, iudged Israel the same time.

5 And the same Debora dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramath and Bethel, in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.

6 And she sent and called Barac the sonne of Abinoam, out of Kedes Nephthali, and sayd vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel c commanded, saying, Goe, and draw towarde mount Thabor, and take with thee ten thousande men of the children of Nephthali, and of the children of Zabulon?

c It should appeare that she had done this message vnto him before, and now calleth vpon him in the same after the whole matter.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his charets, euen nine hundred charets of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuer of Kison.

14 And Debora said vnto Barac, Vp, for this is the day in which the Lorde hath deliuered Sisera into thine hand: is not the Lorde gone out before thee? And so Barac went downe from mount Thabor, and ten thousand men after him.

Psal. 83. 10

15 f But the Lorde destroyed Sisera and all his charets, and all his hoste, with the edge of the sword, before Barac: so that Sisera lighted downe off his charet, and fledde away on his feete.

16 But Barac followed after the charets, and after the host, vnto Harosheth of the Gentiles, and all the host of Sisera fell vpon the edge of the sworde, and there was not a man left.

f The wise of the famelie of Iethro spoke further in latine, and his speeches applied themselues to Christ in the true worshipping of God.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fledde away on his feete, to the tent of Iael the wife of Haber the Kenite (for there was peace betweene Iabin the king of Hazor, and the houshold of Haber the Kenite.)

18 And Iael went out to meete Sisera, and said vnto him, Turne in, my lord, turne in to me, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, shee couered him with a mantell.

19 And he said vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a little water to drinke, for I am thirstie. And shee opened a bottell of milke, and gaue him drinke, and couered him.

20 And againe he said vnto her, Stande in the doore of the tent: and when any man doeth come and enquire of thee whether there be any man here, thou shalt say, Nay.

21 Then Iael Habers wife, tooke a nayle of the tent, and an hammer in her hand, and went softly vnto him, and fixed the nayle into the temples of his head, and fastened it into the ground: (for he slumbred, for very wearinesse) and so he died.

22 And behold, as Barac followed after Sisera, Iael came out to meete him, and said vnto him, Come, and I will shewe thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came in to her tent, behold, g Sisera lay dead, and the nayle was in his temples.

g So the fauor that a woman had for Barac, as Debora prophecied, iudg. 4.

2 And the hand of Madian preuailed againſt Iſrael: and [c] becauſe of the Madianites, the children of Iſrael made them dennes in the mountaines, and caues, and ſtrong holdes.

3 And when Iſrael had ſowen, then came vp the Madianites, the Amalekites, & they of the Eaſt, and came vp againſt them,

4 And pitched their tents againſt them, and deſtroyed the increaſe of the earth, till thou come vnto Azah, and left no ſuſtenance for Iſrael, neither ſheepe, oxe, nor aſſe:

5 For they went vp, they and their cattel, and came with their tentes, as a multitude of Graſſhoppers, ſo that both they and alſo their camels were without number: & they entred into the land to deſtroy it.

6 And ſo was Iſrael exceedingly impouriſhed [d] in the ſight of the Madianites, [†] and cryed vnto the Lord.

7 And when the children of Iſrael cryed vnto the Lord, becauſe of the Madianites,

8 The Lorde ſent vnto them a Prophet, which ſaid vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, I ſet you from Egypt, and brought you out of the houſe of bondage:

9 And I ryd you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppreſſed you, and caſt them out before you, and gaue you their land:

10 And I ſaide vnto you, I am the Lorde your God, feare not the gods of the Amorites in whoſe land you dwell: But you haue not obeyed my voyce.

11 And the Angell of the Lord came, and ſate vnder an Oke which was in Ephrah, that pertained vnto Ioas the father of the Ezrites: and his ſonne Gedeon threſhed wheate by the winepreſſe, to hide it from the Madianites.

12 And the Angell of the Lorde appeared vnto him, and ſayde vnto him, The Lorde is with thee thou mightie man.

13 And Gedeon anſwered him, [e] Oh my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why is all this come vpon vs? Yea, and where be all his miracles which our fathers told vs of, and ſaid, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt? but now the Lorde hath forſaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hands of the Madianites.

14 And the [f] Lorde looked vpon him, and ſaid, Goe hence in this thy ſtrength, and thou ſhalt deliuer Iſrael out of the hands of the Madianites: haue not I ſent thee?

15 And hee anſwered him, Oh Lorde, wherewith ſhall I ſaue Iſrael? behold, my kinred is [g] poore in Manaſſes, and I am leaſt in my fathers houſe.

16 The Lord ſaid vnto him, I will be with thee, and thou ſhalt ſmite the Madianites as they were but one man.

[a] Speaking idolatrie, as before hath been premiſed.

[b] That is, the power or ſtrength.

[c] That is, for feare of the ſpoyle taking.

[d] That is, by the Madianites.

[†] The children of Iſrael.

[e] Affliction afflicteth faith, and at the firſt their argueth Gods abſence in his ſtruction, but conſtant hath ſhall finde it Gods meſſenger to repentance and ſaluation.

[f] The Angel is called the Lord, for that he was the Lordes meſſenger: or rather it was Chriſt the Lord him ſelfe that did appeare.

[g] Which was vpon occaſion of me.

[for, the leaſt

17 And

17 And he answered him, Oh, if I haue founde grace in thy sight, then shewe mee a h signe, that it is thou that talkest with me:
18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and til I bring mine offring, and haue set it before thee. And he said, I wil
tary vntil thou come againe.
19 And Gedeon went in, and made ready a kidde, & sweete cakes of an i Epha of flourre, and put it with the flesh in a basket, and put the broath in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the Oake, and presented it.
20 And the Angel of God saide vnto him,
Take the flesh and the sweete cakes, and lay them vpon this rock, and poure out the broth.
And he did so.
21 Then the Angell of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that he held in his hande, and touched the flesh, and the sweete cakes, and there rose vp fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the sweete cakes: but the angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.
22 And when Gedeon perceiued that it was an angel of the Lorde, he saide, Alas, O Lord God, haue I therfore seene an angel of the Lord face to face, that I should die?
23 And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee, feare not, thou shalt not die.
24 Then Gedeon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, The Lord of peace.
And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrath, that perteineth vnto the father of the Ezrites.
25 And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Take thy fathers young bullocke, and another bullocke of seuen yeres old, and k destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it:
26 And make an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke, in a conuentient place, and take the second bullocke, and offer whole burnt sacrifices vpon the wood of the groue which thou shalt cut downe.
27 Then Gedeon tooke ten men of his seruaunts, and did as the Lord bade him: But because he feared to doe it by day, for his fathers houlholde, and the men of the Citie, he did it by night.
28 And when the men of the citie arose early in the morning, behold ỹ altar of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the l second bullock offered vp-on the altar that was made.
29 And they sayde one to another, who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gedeon the sonne of Joas hath done this thing.
30 Then the men of the citie said vnto Jo-as, Bring out thy sonne, that he may die: because he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and cut downe the groue that was by it.
31 And Joas said vnto all that stoode by him, Will ye pleade m Baals cause? or wil ye saue him? Hee that wil contend for him, let him die yer the morning: if he be a God, let him plead for himselfe, against him that hath cast downe his altar.
32 And from that day was Gedeon called Jerobaal: because his father had saide, Let Baal plead for himselfe, because hee hath broken downe his altar.
33 All the Madianites therefore, and the Amalekites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went, and pitched in the valley of Jezrael.
34 But the spirit of the Lord ‡ came vpon ‡ Heb. clad Gedeon, and he blewe a trumpet, and n Abie- Gedeon.
zer was ioyned with him. n That is, the 35 And he sent messengers throughout al familie of Abi-Manasses, which also was ioyned with him, ezer.
and he sent messengers vnto Azar, Zabulon,
Naphthali, and they came to meete them.
36 And Gedeon said vnto them, If thou wilt o saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast o This re-said, quest proce-deth not of infi-delitie, but that he might be confirmed in his vocation.
37 Beholde, I will put a fleece of wool in the threshing place: and if the dewe come on the fleece only, and it be dry vpon al the earth beside, then shal I be sure that thou wilt saue
Israel by my hand, as thou saidest.
38 And it came so to passe: for he rose vp early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wrong the dew thereout, and filled a bowle of water.
39 *And Gedeon said againe vnto God, Gen.18.32
Bee not angry with mee that I speake once more, for I wil proue once again by the fleece.
Let it be drie onely vpon the fleece, and dewe vpon all the ground.
40 And God did so that same night: for it was drie vpon the fleece only, and there was dewe on all the ground.

The vij. Chapter.

1 The Lorde commandeth Gedeon to send away a great part of his companie. 22 The Madianites are discomfited by a wonderous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeb are slain.

THen Jerobaal (who is Gedeon) and all the people that were with him, rose vp early, and pitched beside the well of Ha-rad: so that the hoste of the Ma-dianites were on the North side of them by the hil of Moreh, in the valley.
2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Gedeon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me to giue the Madianites into their hands, e least Israel make their a vaunt against me, a God will and say, Mine owne hand hath saued me. not that any creature deprive him of his glory.
3 Now therefore make a proclamation in the eares of the people, and say, *If any man Deut.20.5.
dread or be afraid, let him returne and depart 1.mac.3.56 early from mount Gilead: and there returned of the people twenty and two thousand, and there abode ten thousand.
4 And the Lorde saide vnto Gedeon, The people are yet too manie: bring them downe vnto the water, & I will trie them vnto thee there: and of whome I say vnto thee, This shal go with thee: the same shal go with thee. And of whom soeuer I say vnto thee, This shal not goe with thee: the same shal not goe.

h Gedeon to be assured it was Gods message, & not fansion of a fantasie, requireth a signe: But Gods worde once confirmed by signes, is to be beleeued without signe.

i A measure of drie things, conteining about three pecks.

k First idolatrie is to be destroyed, and true religion restored: and then the deliuerie of the people, or ciuil gouernance of the same to be taken in hand.

l Which was of seuen yeres fatning, & kept to be offred to Baal.

m Thus we ought to incite them that are zealous in Gods cause, throughout the multitude be against vs.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water: and the Lord said vnto Gedeon, As many as lap ẽ water with their tongues as a dogge lappeth, them put by themselues, and so do them that kneele downe vpon their knees [b] to drinke.

6 And the number of them that put their hands to their mouthes, and lapped, were three hundred men: but all the remnaunt of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to drinke water.

7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Gedeon, By these three hundred men that [c] lapped, will I saue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thine hande, and let all the [d] other people goe euery man vnto this place.

8 They therefore of the people tooke victuals with them, ẽ their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, euery mã vnto his tent, and reteined those three hundred men: ẽ the host of Madian was beneath him in a valley

9 And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Arise, get thee downe vnto the host, for I haue deliuered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou feare to go downe, then go thou and Phara thy ladde downe to the host.

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shal thine hands be strong to go down vnto the host. Then went he down, and Phara his ladde, vnto the outside of the men of armes that were in the host.

12 And the Madianites, the Amalekites, and all they of the East, lay along in the valley like a multitude of grashoppers, ẽ their camels were without number, as the sande by the sea side in multitude.

13 And when Gedeon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dreame vnto his neighbour, and saide, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, and me thought that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoste of Madian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fel, and ouerturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellowe answered, and saide, This is nothing els saue the sworde of Gedeon the sonne of Joas, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Madian and all the hoste.

15 When Gedeon heard the telling of the dreame, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped, ẽ returned into the host of Israel, and said, Vp: for the Lord hath deliuered into your hand the hoste of Madian.

16 And he deuided the three hundred men into three companies, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hand, with emptie pitchers, and [c] ‖ lampes therein,

17 And said vnto them, Looke on me, and doe likewise: that when I come to the side of the hoste, euen as I doe, so doe you.

18 When I blowe with a trumpet, and al that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on euery side of the host, and say, For the Lord, and for Gedeon.

19 So Gedeon and the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the hoste, in the beginning of the middle watche, and rayled vp the watchmen: and they blew with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blewe with trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and helde the lampes in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right, to blow withall: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gedeon.

21 And they stoode still euery man in his place round about the hoste: and all the hoste ‖ ranne, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, * and the Lord sent euery mans sworde vpon his [f] neighbour thorowout all the host: and the host fled to Bethhasitah, to Zererath, and to the edge of the plaine of Meholah vnto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel, being gathered together out of Nephthali, of Aser, and of all Manasses, followed after the Madianites.

24 And Gedeon sent messengers vnto all mount Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Madianites, and take before them the [g] waters vnto Bethbarath, and to Jordane. Then al the men of Ephraim gathered together, and took the waters vnto Bethbarath, and to Jordane.

25 *And they took two princes of the Madianites, Oreb and Zeb: and slew Oreb vpon the rock Oreb, and Zeb at the [h] winepresse of Zeb, and followed after Madian: and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon on the other side Jordane.

b They shall depart as vnmeete for this enterprise.

c Drinke water, by putting their hands to their mouthes and by lapping.

d Which were in number, ẽ parted at two times, thirtie and one thousand, and seuen hundred.

‖ Or, their army.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Ephraim murmureth against Gedeon. 27 He maketh an Ephod: which was the cause of idolatrie. 30 Of Gedeons sonnes, and of his death.

AND the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus, that thou calledst vs not when thou wentest to fight with the Madianites? And they chode with him sharply.

2 And hee saide vnto them, What deede haue I done like vnto [a] yours? Is not the [b] gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim, better then the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath deliuered into your handes the lords of Madian Oreb and Zeb: ẽ what was I able to doe like as you haue done? and then they left off their anger from him, when he had said that.

4 And Gedeon came to Jordane, to passe ouer, he ẽ the three hundred men that were with him, weary, and yet followed the chase.

5 And he saide vnto the men of [c] Sucoth, Giue, I pray you, cakes of bread vnto the people that follow me, for they be faintie, that I may follow after Zebah and Zalmana kings of Madian.

6 And the lordes of Sucoth saide, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmana now in thine [d] handes, that wee shoulde giue bread vnto thine armie?

a Vpbraiding their slacknesse.

b Or, gathering.

c Sucoth was a citie of Gad, which Jacob builded, and called it Sucoth, Gen. 33. 17. and it was in the tribe of Ephraim, Iosh. 13. 27.

d They were not bounde that way to be able to command them, ẽ they were in their owne power, and might do what they would.

7 Gedeon sayd. Therefore when the Lord hath delyuered Zebah & Zalmana into mine hande, I will teare the flesh of you with the thornes of the wildernesse, and with byers.

8 And he went vp thence to Phanuel, and spake vnto them the like: and the men of Phanuel answered him, as did the men of Succoth.

9 And he sayde also vnto the men of Phanuel, When I come again in peace, I will breake downe this tower.

10 Zebah and Zalmana were in Carcor, & their hoste with thē, vpon a fifteene thousande men, which were all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slaine an hundred & twentie thousande men that bare weapons.

11 And Gedeon went through them that dwelt in tabernacles on the East side of Nobah, and Iegbahah, and smote the hoste: for the hoste did cast no perils.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmana fled, he followed after them, and tooke the two kings of Madian, Zebah and Zalmana, and discomfited all the hoste.

13 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas, returned from battell afore the sunne was vp,

14 And caught a ladde of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he wrote him of the lordes and elders of Succoth threescore and seuenteene men.

15 And he came vnto the men of Succoth, and sayd, Behold Zebah and Zalmana, with which ye did cast me in the teeth, saying, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana already in thine hand, that we should giue bread vnto thy faintie men?

16 And he tooke the elders of the citie, and thornes of the wildernesse, and briers, & did teare the men of Succoth with them.

17 And he brake downe ẏ towre of Phanuel, and slewe the men of the citie.

18 And then sayd he vnto Zebah and Zalmana, what maner of mē were they whom ye slewe at Thabor? And they answered, The likenesse of thee and them is all one, euen after the fashion of the children of a king.

19 And he sayd, They were my brethren, euen my [f] mothers children: as truely as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I would not slay you.

20 And he sayde vnto Jether his eldest sonne: vp, and slay them. But the lad drewe not his sworde: for he feared, because he was yet young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmana sayd, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for as [g] the man is, so is his strength. And Gedeon arose, and slewe Zebah and Zalmana, and tooke away the ornaments that were on their camels neckes.

22 Then the men of Israel sayd vnto Gedeon, Reigne thou ouer vs, both thou, thy sonne, and thy [h] sonnes sonne, for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Madian.

23 And Gedeon sayd vnto them, I will not reigne ouer you, neither shall my child reigne ouer you: but the Lorde shall [i] reigne ouer you.

24 And againe Gedeon sayd vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would giue me euery man the earings of his pray. For they had golden earings, because they were Ismaelites.

25 And they answered, We will giue thē. And they spred a mantel, and did cast therein euery man the earings of his pray.

26 And the weight of the golden earings that he required, was a thousande and seuen hundred sicles of golde, beside chaines and iewels, and purple rayment that was on the kings of Madian, & beside the chaines that were about their camels neckes.

27 And Gedeon made an [k] Ephod thereof, and put it in his citie Ephrah: and all Israel went a whoring after it in the same place, which thing became a ruine vnto Gedeon, and to his house.

28 Thus was Madian brought lowe before the children of Israel, so that they lifted vp their heads no more: and the countrey was in quietnesse fourtie yeeres in the dayes of Gedeon.

29 And Jerobaal the sonne of Joas, went and dwelt in his owne house.

30 And Gedeon had threescore and tenne sonnes of his body begotten: for he had many wiues, 31 And his concubine that was in Sichem bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas died in a good age, and was buryed in the sepulchre of Joas his father in Ephrah, that pertained vnto the father of the Ezrites.

33 But as soone as Gedeon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, & went a whoring after Baalim, and made a couenant with Baal to be their god.

34 And the children of Israel thought not on the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the handes of all their enemies on euery side.

35 Neither [l] shewed they mercie on the house of Jerobaal, otherwise called Gedeon, according to all the goodnesse which he had shewed vnto Israel.

[f] By this we see as he shall thinke meete, hauing an eye to the lawes of his kingdome, all ought to maintaine his true title.

[k] To be a continuall remembrance of this benefite: but afterward abused to idolatrie.

[l] The Historie declareth ingratitude to be vsuall: that almost euery brother shall kill, and hinder, and wrong, that beneficiall to y children of Jerobaal.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Abimelech vsurpeth the kingdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Ioatham propoſeth a parable.

ABimelech the sonne of Jerobaal, went to Sichem, vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the kinred of the house of his mothers father, saying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the eares of all the men of Sichem, whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Jerobaal (which are threescore and ten persons) reigne ouer you, either that one reigne ouer you? Remember that I am of your bone, and of your flesh.

3 And his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Sichem, all these words, and their hearts were moued to follow Abimelech: for they saide, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him threescore and ten pieces of siluer, out of the house of Baal Berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vaine and light persons, which went with him.

5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ephrath, and slewe his brethren the sonnes of Ierobaal, being threescore and ten persons, vpon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Ioatham the yongest sonne of Ierobaal escaped, for he hid himselfe.

6 And all the men of Sichem gathered together, and all the house of Mello, & came, and made Abimelech king, in the plaine where the stone was in Sichem.

7 And when they told it to Ioatham, he went and stoode in the toppe of mount Garizim, and lift vp his voyce and cried, & saide vnto them, Hearken vnto me, you men of Sichem, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 The trees went foorth to annoynt a king ouer them, and said vnto the Oliue tree, Reigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the Oliue tree sayde vnto them, Should I leaue my fatnesse, wherewith by me the honour of God and man, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?

10 And the trees saide to the figge tree, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

11 The fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetenesse, and my good fruit, and goe to be promoted ouer the trees?

12 Then saide the trees vnto the vine, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

13 The vine said vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare both God and man, and go to bee promoted ouer the trees?

14 Then said all the trees vnto the Brier, Come thou, and reigne ouer vs.

15 And the Brier said vnto the trees, If it be true that ye will anoint me king ouer you, then come, and put your trust vnder my shadowe: if no, the fire come out of the Brier, and deuoure the Cedar trees of Libanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye doe truely and vncorruptly to make Abimelech king, and if ye haue dealt well with Ierobaal & his house, and haue done vnto him according to the deseruing of his hands:

17 (For euen my father fought for you, and aduentured his life, and rid you out of the hand of Madian:

18 And ye are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slaine his children, being threescore and ten persons, vpon one stone, and haue made Abimelech, the sonne of his maide seruant, king ouer the men of Sichem, because he is your brother:)

19 If ye then haue dealt truely and purely with Ierobaal, and with his house this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

20 But if you haue not dealt truely, then let a fire come out of Abimelech, & consume the men of Sichem, and the house of Sichem: and let there come out a fire from among the men of Sichem, and out of the house of Sichem, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Ioatham ranne away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 When Abimelech had reigned three yeeres ouer Israel,

23 God sent an euil spirit betweene Abimelech and the men of Sichem: and the citizens of Sichem brake their promise to Abimelech:

24 That the wickednes done to the threescore & ten sonnes of Ierobaal, might come on him, and that God might lay the blood of them vnto Abimelech their brother which slew them, & vpon the other men of Sichem which aided him in & killing of his brethren.

25 And the citizens of Sichem set men to lay awaite for him in the top of the mountaines, which men robbed all that came along the way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the sonne of Obed came with his brethren, and they got them to Sichem: and the men of Sichem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merrie, and went into the house of their God, and did eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the sonne of Obed sayde, What is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierobaal? and Zebul is his officer? serue such as come of Hemor & father of Sichem: for what reason is it & we should serue him?

29 Would God this people were vnder my hand, then would I take Abimelech out of the way. And he spake against Abimelech, Make thine host greater, and goe out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Obed, he was wroth, 31 And sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuily, saying, Behold, Gaal the sonne of Obed, & his brethren, be come to Sichem, and behold, they beside the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore, vp by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wait in the fielde.

33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and fall vpon the citie: And if he and the people that is with him come out against thee, do to them what thine handes shalbe able.

34 And Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him by night, and layde awayte against Sichem in foure companies.

35 And Gaal the sonne of Obed went out, and d Because wine was appointed by the Lawe to be a liquide offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, as Num. 15.

e Abimelech shall deuour the nobles of this citie.

and stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, from lying in waite.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he sayde to Zebul, Beholde, there come people downe from the top of the mountaines. And Zebul said vnto him, The shadowe of the hilles seeme men vnto thee.

37 And Gaal answered againe, and said, See, there come folke downe by the middle of the lande, and another compantie come along by the plaine of the charmers.

38 Then sayde Zebul vnto him, Where is nowe thy mouth that sayde, What fellowe is Abimelech, that we should serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Goe out nowe, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the citizens of Sichem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, that he fled before him, & many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal & his brethren, that they should not dwell in Sichem.

42 And on the morowe the people went out into the fielde, and they tolde Abimelech.

43 And he tooke the people, and deuided them into three companies, and laide awaite in the fielde, and looked, and behold, the people were come out of the citie, and he ranne vpon them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, & the companies that were with him, rushed forwarde, and stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: & the two other companies ran vpon all the people that were in the fieldes, and slewe them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he tooke it, & slewe the people that was therein, and destroyed the citie, and sowed [h] salt in it.

46 And when all the men of the towre of Sichem heard that, they entred into an holde of the house of the god [i] Berith.

47 And it was tolde Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Sichem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gate him to mount Zelmon, both he and all the people that were with him, and tooke axes with him, and cut downe boughes of trees, and tooke them, and bare them on his shoulder, and said vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue seene me doe, speede your selues, and do likewise as I haue done.

49 And all the men that were among the people cut downe boughes, and followed Abimelech, and put them into the holde, and set the holde a fire by them: so that all the men of the towre of Sichem dyed also, vpon a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and besieged it, and tooke it.

51 But there was a strong towre within the citie, and thither ranne all the men and women, and all the chiefe that were in the citie, and shut it to them, and gate them vp to the toppe of the towre.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre, and fought against it, and went hard vnto the doore of the towre, to set it on fire.

53 [k] And a certaine woman cast a piece of a milstone vpon his head, and all to brake his braine panne. 2. King. 11. 21.

54 Then Abimelech called hastily vnto the yong man that bare his harnesse, and said vnto him, Draw thy sworde, & slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slewe him: and his lad thrust him through, and he dyed.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne house.

56 Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimelech which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seuentie brethren.

57 And thereto all the wickednesse of the men of Sichem, did God bring vpon their heades: and vpon them came the [l] curse of Joatham the sonne of Jerobaal.

k What strength the curse of holy men oppressed with wrong hath of late brought the vengeance of God vpon the oppressors, may appeare by this, and likewise by Esdras the Prophet.

The x. Chapter.

1 Thola dyeth. 5 Iair also dyeth. 7 The Israelites are punished for their sinnes. 10 They cry vnto God, 16 and he hath pitie on them.

fter Abimelech, there arose to defende Israel, Thola & sonne of Phuah, the sonne of Dodo, a man of Issachar, which dwelt in Samir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he | iudged Israel twentie and three yeeres, and dyed, and was buried in Samir. | Or, gouerned.

3 And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel twentie and two yeeres.

4 And he had thirtie sonnes that rode on [a] thirtie asse coltes, & they had thirtie cities, which are called [b] Hauoth Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead. a That was the dignitie of great auncestrie & pompe. b Of the townes of Iair, Deu. 3.

5 And Iair dyed, and was buryed in Camon.

6 And the children of Israel wrought wickednesse yet againe in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim and Astaroth, and the gods of | Syria, the gods of Sidon, & the gods of Moab, the gods of the children of Ammon, & the gods of the Philistines, and forsooke the Lord, and serued not him. | Or, Aram.

7 And the Lord was wroth with Israel, and | he solde them into the handes of the Philistines, and into the handes of the children of Ammon. | Or, deliuered.

8 Which from that yeere foorth, pilled and oppressed the children of Israel eighteene yeeres, [c] all that were on the other side Iordane, in the lande of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. c That is, the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses.

9 Moreouer, the children of Ammon went ouer Iordane, to fight against Iuda, Beniamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was sore cumbred.

10 And the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, saying, we haue sinned against thee, for we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim.

d By stirring them vp some prophet, as Chap. 6.

11 And the Lorde d sayde vnto the children of Israel, Did not I rid you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Sidonites also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppresse you, and ye cryed to me, and I deliuered you out of their hands.

13 And for all that ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange gods: wherefore I will helpe you no more.

14 Goe, and cry vnto the gods which yee haue chosen, and let them saue you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel sayde vnto the Lorde, We haue sinned, doe thou vnto vs whatsoeuer pleaseth thee, deliuer vs onely, we pray thee, e this day.

e That is, from this present danger.

16 And they put away the strange gods from them, and serued the Lorde: and his soule had pitie on the miserie of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel gathered them together, and pitched in Mispah.

Iudg. 11.6. 18 *And the people and lordes of Gilead sayde eche to other, whosoeuer will beginne the battell against the children of Ammon, the same shall bee head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

The xi. Chapter.

2 Iephtath being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Israel. 30 He maketh a rash vowe. 32 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 and sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

AND there was one Iephthah a Gileadite, a strong man, the sonne of an ‖harlot.

‖Or, vitailer.

2 And Gilead begate Iephthah: and Gileads wife bare him sonnes, which when they were come to age, thrust out Iephthah, f saide vnto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our fathers house, for thou art the sonne of a strange a woman.

f Neuer receiued to the priuiledge of a wife.

3 Then Iephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the lande of b Tob: and there gathered idle men to Iephthah, and c went out with him.

a That was the name of the owner of the lande.

c To make inuasions vpon the enemies of the people of God and to liue of the spoyles.

4 And in processe of time, the children of Ammon made warre against Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought thus against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Iephthah out of the land of Tob,

6 And said vnto him, Come, and d be our captaine, that wee may fight with the children of Ammon.

d God can bring the castaway to haue rule ouer his oppressors: let no man therefore exalt himselfe. e despise any man of Gods creation.

7 Iephthah answered the Elders of Gilead, did not ye hate me, and expell me out of my fathers house? howe then come you vnto me nowe in time of your tribulation?

8 And the Elders of Gilead saide vnto Iephthah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with vs, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iephthah saide vnto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, then if the Lorde deliuer them before me, shal I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Iephthah, The Lorde be * witnesse betweene vs, if we doe not according to thy wordes.

*Heb. be the hearer.

11 Then Iephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iephthah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lorde in Mispah.

12 And Iephthah sent messengers vnto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to doe with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 The king of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iephthah, *Because Israel tooke away my land when they came out of Egypt, euen from Arnon vnto Jabok, and vnto Jordane: nowe therefore restore those landes againe * with faire meanes.

Num. 21. 13.

*Heb. In peace.

14 And Iephthah sent messenges againe vnto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iephthah, Israel tooke not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernesse vnto the red sea, they came to Cades:

17 *And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, goe through thy lande. But the king of Edom would not agree thereto: And in like maner they sent vnto the king of Moab, but he would not consent: and Israel abode still in Cades.

Num. 20. 29.

18 And then they went along through the wildernesse, and compassed the lande of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came along by the Eastside of the lande of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, *and would not come within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

Num. 21. 13.

19 And then Israel sent messengers vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, and king of Hesbon, and said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, through thy land, vnto our owne countrey.

20 But Sehon consented not to Israel, that he should goe through his coast: but gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jasa, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel deliuered Sehon and all his folke into the handes of Israel, * and they smote them: so Israel smote them, and possessed all the lande of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey.

Deut. 2.36.

22 And they possessed all the coastes of the Amorites, Amozites, from Arnon vnto Jabok, and from the wildernesse vnto Jordane.

23 So nowe seeing the Lorde God of Israel hath cast out the Amozites before his people Israel, shouldest thou possesse it?

24 Nay, but what people Camos thy god driueth out, that land possesse thou: Euen so, whatsoeuer nation the Lord our God expelleth before vs, that land ought we to enioy.

a Ye would thinke that you had good right to that land, that your beloued your maker god should giue you? Beleue surely since he hath giuen vs good right vnto that land, that the true liuing lord our God hath giuen vs?

25 And art thou better then Balac the sonne of Zephor king of Moab? Did he not striue with Israel, and fight against them, 26 All the while Israel dweit in Helbon, and her townes, in Aroer, and her townes, & in all the cities that be along by the coastes of Arnon, three hundred yeeres? why did ye not recouer them in all that space?

27 Wherefore, I haue not sinned against thee, but thou doest mee wrong to warre against mee: the Lorde therefore which is a iudge, bee iudge this day betweene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iephthah which he sent him.

29 Then [f] the Spirite of the Lorde came vpon Iephthah, and he passed ouer to Gilead, and to Manasses, and came to Mispah, that lyeth in Gilead, and from thence vnto the children of Ammon.

f Enduing him with strength, might, magnanimitie, and warlike power.

30 And Iephthah [g] vowed a vowe vnto the Lorde, and sayd, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into my hands, g As the Apostle commendeth Iephthah till his worthie ouercome in deliuering the people, Heb. 11.32. in the rash vowe and wicked performance ouerthrowe himselfe and his house: for it may appeare, that the fumes of the gentry doe not alwayes extinguish their faith.

31 Then that thing that commeth out of the doores of my house against mee, when I come in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lordes, and I will offer it vp for a whole burnt offering.

32 And so Iephthah went vnto the children of Ammon, to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

33 And hee smote them from Aroer, till thou come to Minnith, euen twenty cities, and so foorth to the plaine of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter: and thus the children of Ammon were brought vnder before the children of Israel.

34 When Iephthah came to Mispah vnto his house, see, his daughter came out against him with [h] tymbrels and daunces, which was his onely childe: so that beside her, he had neither sonne nor daughter.

h According to the manner after the victorie.

35 And when hee sawe her, he [i] rent his clothes, and sayde, Alas, my daughter, thou hast brought mee lowe, and art one of them that troubleth mee: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lord, and can not go backe.

i The common behauiour of such as doe lament or mourne for any thing.

36 And she saide vnto him, My father, if thou haue opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, then doe with me according to it that proceeded out of thy mouth: forasmuch as the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.

37 And she said vnto her father, Do this much for me: Let mee alone two moneths, that I may [k] goe to the mountaines and bewaile my virginitie, I, and my felowes.

k For it was accounted as a shame in Israel to die without children.

38 And he saide, Goe. And he sent her away two moneths, and so she went with her companions, & lamented her maidenhead vpon the mountaines.

39 And after the ende of two moneths, shee turned againe vnto her father, which did with her according to his vow which he had vowed, and shee had knowen no man: and it grewe to a custome in Israel.

40 The daughters of Israel came yeere by yere, to lament the daughter of Iephthah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeere.

The xij. Chapter.

6 Iephthah killeth two and fourtie thousande Ephraimites. 8 After Iephthah succeedeth Ibzan, 11 Elon, 13 and Abdon.

AND the men of Ephraim gathered them selues together, and went [a] Northwarde, and sayde vnto Iephthah, wherefore wentest thou to fight [b] against the children of Ammon, and diddest not call vs to goe with thee? we wil therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.

a After they had passed Iordane.

b Thus ambition enuieth Gods workes in others, as they did also against Gedeon, Chap. 8.

2 And Iephthah sayd vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon: and when I called you, yee deliuered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I sawe that ye deliuered me not, [c] I put my life in my handes, and went vpon the children of Ammon, and the Lorde deliuered them into my handes: wherefore then are ye come vpon me nowe, to fight against me?

c That is, I ventred my life.

4 Iephthah therefore gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with the Ephraites: and the men of Gilead smote the Ephraites, because they said, Yee Gileadites are but runnagates of Ephraim, among the Ephraites, and the Manassites.

5 Moreouer, the men of Gilead tooke the passages of Iordane before the Ephraites: and when those Ephraites that were escaped, sayde, Let me goe ouer: then the men of Gilead sayde vnto him, Art thou an Ephraite? If he sayd, Nay:

6 Then sayde they vnto him, Then say, [d] Shibboleth. And he sayde, Sibboleth: for hee could not so pronounce. And then they tooke him, and slewe him at the passages of Iordane: and there were ouerthrowen at that time of the Ephraites, fourtie and two thousande.

d Which signified an eare of corne, or the fall of waters.

7 And Iephthah iudged Israel six yeres, then dyed Iephthah the Gileadite, and was buryed in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 After this man, iudged Israel one Ibzan of Bethlehem.

9 And hee had thirtie sonnes and thirtie daughters, who he sent out, & tooke in thirty daughters from abroade for his sonnes. And when Ibzan [e] had iudged Israel seuē yeres, e Which of some is supposed to be Boos the husband of Ruth.

10 He died, & was buried at Bethlehem.

11 After him, Elon, a Zabulonite, iudged

Iſrael tenne yeeres.

12 And Elon the Zabulonite dyed, and was buried in Aialon, in the countrey of Zabulon.

13 After him, Abdon, the ſonne of Hellel a Pharathonite, iudged Iſrael.

14 And he had fourtie ſonnes, and thirtie ‡ nephewes, that rode on threeſcore and ten Aſſe coltes: and when Abdon the ſonne of Hellel the Pharathonite, had iudged Iſrael eight yeeres,

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Iſrael for their wickednesse is oppreſſed of the Philiſtines. 3 The Angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 16 The Angel commanded him to ſacrifice vnto the Lord. 24 The birth of Samſon.

2 And there was a man in Zaraah, of the kinred of Dan, named Manoah, whoſe wife was barren, and bare not.

3 * And the Angel of the Lorde appeared vnto the woman, and ſaid vnto her, Behold, now thou art barren, and beareſt not: but thou ſhalt conceiue and beare a ſonne.

Num. 6. 1. 1. ſam. 1. 11

4 And nowe therefore beware that thou drinke no wine, nor ſtrong drinke, neyther eate any vncleane thing:

* Meaning, he ſhould haue a peculiar calling to ſerue God in, ſeparate from the common order of men.

6 Then the wife came, and tolde her husband, ſaying, A man of God came vnto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of an Angel of God, exceeding ‖ fearefull: but I aſked him not whence hee was, neyther tolde he me his name:

‖ Or, wonderfull.

7 But ſaide vnto me, Behold, thou ſhalt be with childe, and beare a ſonne, and nowe drinke no wine nor ſtrong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing: for the lad ſhall be a Nazarite to God from his birth, to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah made interceſſion to the Lorde, and ſayde, I pray thee my Lorde, let the man of God which thou ſendedſt, come againe vnto vs, and teach vs what we ſhall doe vnto the lad when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the angell of God came againe vnto the wife as ſhe ſate in the fielde: But Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the wife made haſte, and ranne and ſhewed her husband, and ſaid vnto him, Behold, the man appeared vnto mee, that came vnto me b to day.

b It ſeemeth that the Angell appeared twiſe in one day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the c man, and ſayd vnto him, Art thou the man that ſpakeſt vnto the woman? And he ſaid, I am.

c Vpon the thought of a man, but was in deed an angell.

12 Manoah ſaide, Now let thy ſaying come to paſſe: How ſhall we order the childe, and doe vnto him?

13 And the angel of the Lorde ſaide vnto Manoah, The woman muſt abſteine from all that I ſaid vnto her:

15 Manoah ſaide vnto the angell of the Lorde, I pray thee, let vs retaine thee, vntill we haue made readie a kid before thee.

e Or to the Lorde.

17 And Manoah ſaide againe vnto the angell of the Lorde, what is thy name, that when thy ſaying is come to paſſe, we may do thee worſhip?

18 And the angell of the Lord ſayde vnto him, Why aſkeſt thou thus after my name, whiche is ‖ ſecrete?

‖ Or, wonderfull.

19 And ſo Manoah tooke a kid, with a meate offering, and offered it vpon a rocke vnto the Lorde: and the angell did ‖ wonderously, Manoah and his wife looking vpon.

23 But his wife ſayde vnto him, If the Lord would kill vs, he would not haue h receiued a whole burnt offering, and a meate offering of our handes, neither would hee haue ſhewed vs all theſe things, nor would now haue tolde vs any ſuch.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 Samſon deſireth to haue a wife of the Philiſtines. 6 He killeth a Lion. 12 Hee propoundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirtie. 20 His wife forſaketh him, and taketh another.

SAmſon went downe to Thamnah, & ſaw a woman in Thamnah, of the daughters of the Philiſtines:

2 And

2 And he came vp, and told his father and his mother, and sayde, I haue seene a woman in Thamnath, of the daughters of the Philistines: and now ᵃ giue me her to wife.

3 Then his father and mother sayde vnto him, ᵃ Is there neuer a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou must go & take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistines? And Samson sayde vnto his father, Giue me this woman: for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and mother ᵇ wist not that it was the Lordes doing, and that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines reigned ouer Israel.

5 Then went Samson, and his father, and his mother, downe to Thamnath, and came to the vineyardes of Thamnath: and behold, a yong Lion roared vpon him.

6 And the spirit of the Lorde ᶜ came vpon him, and he tare him, as he would haue rent a kid, and yet had nothing in his hand: neither told he his father and mother what he had done.

7 And hee went downe, and talked with the woman, which seemed wellfauoured in the sight of Samson.

8 And within a short space after, as hee came thither againe to take her to wife, hee turned out of the way to see the carkeise of the Lion: and behold, there was a swarme of bees and hony in the carkeise of the Lion.

9 And he tooke thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and mother, and gaue them also, and they did eate: but he told not them that he had taken the hony out of the carkeise of the Lion.

10 And so his father went downe vnto the woman, & Samson made there a ᵈ feast: for so vsed the yong men to doe.

11 And when they saw him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

12 And Samson sayde vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle vnto you, & if you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, & finde it out, I will giue you thirtie ᵉ sheetes, and thirtie changes of garments:

13 But and if you can not declare it me, then shall ye giue me thirtie sheetes, and thirtie changes of ᶠ garments. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that wee may heare it.

14 And he sayd vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetenes. And they could not in three dayes expound the riddle.

15 And when the ᵍ seuenth day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wife, Entice thine husbande, that he may declare vs the riddle, lest we burne thee & thy fathers house with fire: Haue yee called vs hither, to make vs beggers? is it not so?

16 And Samsons wife wept before him, and sayde, Surely thou hatest me, and louest me not: for thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he sayde vnto her, Beholde, I haue not told it my father and my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And Samsons wife wept before him seuen dayes while the feast lasted: and the seuenth day he told her, because she lay so sore vpon him: and she tolde the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the citie said vnto him the seuenth day ʰ before the Sonne went downe, What is sweeter then hony? & what is stronger then a Lion? Then sayde he vnto them; If ye had not plowed with my ⁱ heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 And the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to ᵏ Ascalon, & slew thirtie men of them, and spoyled them, and gaue change of garments vnto them which expounded the riddle: and he was wroth, and went vp to his fathers house.

20 But Samsons wife was giuen to one of his companions that he had taken vnto him.

The xv. Chapter.

4 Samson tyeth firebrandes to the foxes tailes. 6 The Philistines burne his father in law & his wife. 19 Out of a great tooth in the iawe, God giueth him water.

But within a while after, in the time of wheate harueſt, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I will ᵃ go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father sayde, I thought that thou hadest hated her, and therefore gaue I her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fayrer then she? Take her, I pray thee, in steade of the other.

3 Samson sayde vnto him, Now am I more ʰ blameles then the Philistines, and therefore I will doe them displeasure.

4 And Samson went out, & caught three hundred foxes, and tooke firebrandes, & turned them tayle to tayle, and put a firebrande in the middes betweene two tayles.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistines, and burnt vp both the reaped corne, and also the standing, with the vineyardes and Oliues.

6 Then the Philistines sayde, who hath done this? and they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Thamnite, because he had taken his wife, & giuen her to his companion. And the Philistines came vp, and ᶜ burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet will I bee auenged of you, and then I will cease.

8 And he smote them ʲ legge and thigh with a mightie plague, & then he went and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam.

11 Then three thousande men of Iuda went to the top of the roche Etam, and saide to Samson, Wotest thou not that the Philistines are rulers ouer vs? wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? Hee answered them, As they did vnto mee, so haue I done vnto them.

12 And they said vnto him againe, we are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hande of the Philistines. And Samson sayde vnto them, Sweare vnto me, that yee shall not fall vpon me your selues.

13 They answered him, saying, No: but we will binde thee, and [d] deliuer thee vnto their handes: but we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two newe cordes, and brought him from the rocke.

14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and the cords that were vpon his armes became as flaxe that was burnt with fire, so the bandes loosed from off his handes.

15 And he found a [e] new iawe bone of an Asse, and put forth his hande, and caught it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson sayde, With the iawe of an Asse, heapes vpon heapes, with the iawe of an Asse haue I slaine a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, he cast away the iaw bone out of his hand, and called the place [f] Ramath Lehi.

18 And hee was sore a thirst, and [g] called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast giuen this great victorie into the hande of thy seruant: and now I must die for thirst, and fall into the hands of the vncircumcised.

19 But God brake a great tooth that was in the iaw, & there came water therout, and when he had dronke, his spirit came againe, and hee was refreshed: wherefore the name thereof was called vnto this day, The well of the caller on: which came of the iawe.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 Samson caryeth away the gates of Azza. 18 He was deceiued by Dalila. 33 He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistines, and dieth with them.

THen went Samson to Azzah, and saw there an ‖ harlot, and went in vnto her.

‖ Or, victualer.

2 And it was told the Azzathites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laid waite for him there all night in the gate of the citie, and were still all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson tooke his rest till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gate of the citie, and the two postes, and rent them off, with the barre and all, and put them vpon his shoulders, and caried them vp to the top of an hil that is before Hebron.

4 And after this, hee loued a woman by the ‖ riuer of Sorek, whose name was Dalila. ‖ Or, Soreck.

5 Vnto whom came the lords of the Philistines, and sayd vnto her, [h] Perswade him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what meanes wee may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and punish him: and euery one of vs shall giue thee eleuen hundred sicles of siluer.

h Or, entice him.

6 And Dalila sayde to Samson, Oh tell me where thy great strength lieth, and how thou mightest be bound, and brought vnder.

7 Samson answered vnto her, If they binde me with seuē greene withs that were neuer dryed, I shalbe weake, and be as another man.

8 And then the lordes of the Philistines brought her seuen withes that were yet greene, and neuer dryed, and she bound him therewith.

9 (Notwithstanding, shee had men lying in wayte with her in the chamber:) and shee said vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And immediatly hee brake the cordes, as a string of towe breaketh when it feeleth the fire: and so his strength was not knowen.

10 And Dalila sayd vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and tolde me lies: now therefore [i] tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound.

i Or, entice him.

11 Hee answered her, If they binde me with newe ropes that neuer were occupied, I shalbe weake, and be as another man.

12 Dalila therefore tooke newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines be vpō thee, Samson. (And there were lyers in wayte in the chamber.) And he brake them from his armes, as they had bene but a threade.

13 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson, Hetherto thou hast beguyled me, and tolde me lyes: yet tell mee how thou mightest bee bound. He sayd vnto her, If thou plaitest the seuen lockes of my head with the threades of the woofe.

14 And shee fastened it with a pinne, and said vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And hee awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the pinne of the web, and the woofe.

15 And shee sayde vnto him againe, How canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not tolde mee wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And as shee lay vpon him with her words, continually vexing of him, his soule was encumbred euen vnto the death.

17 And so hee tolde her all his heart, and sayd vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head, for I haue bene [k] Nazarite vnto

God from my mothers wombe: therefore when I am shaven, my strength will go from me, and I shall waxe weake, and bee like all other men.

18 And when Dalila sawe that hee had tolde her all his heart, shee sent and called for the lordes of the Philistines, saying, Come up yet this once, for hee hath shewed mee all his heart. Then the lordes of the Philistines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And shee made him sleepe vpon her knees, and shee sent for a man, and hee did shaue off the seuen lockes of his head, and began to vexe him, and his strength was gone from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And hee awoke out of his sleepe and said, I will go out now as at other times before, and shake my selfe. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 But the Philistines tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters of brasse, and he did grinde in the prison house.

22 Howbeit, the haire of his head began to growe againe after that he was shaven.

23 Then the lordes of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a solemne offring vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they said, Our God hath deliuered Samson our enemie into our hands.

24 And when the people sawe him, they praised their god: for they sayde, Our god hath deliuered into our handes our enemie, and destroyer of our countrey, which slewe many of vs.

25 And when their hearts were mery, they saide, Send for Samson, that hee may make vs ‖ laugh. And they set Samson out of the prison house, and hee played before them, and they set him betweene the pillars.

26 And Samson said vnto the lad that led him by the hand, Set mee that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 And the house was full of men and women, and there were all the lordes of the Philistines: and there were vpon the roofe a three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson ‖ played.

28 And Samson called vnto the Lorde, and sayde, O Lorde God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me, and strengthen me, I beseech thee, at this time onely, O God, that I may ‡ be at once auenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson caught the two middle pillars on which the house stoode, & on which it was borne vp, the one in his right hand, and the other in his left.

30 And Samson said, My [c] soule shall die with the Philistines, and bowed him with al his might, & the house fell vpon the lords, and vpon all the people that were therein: and so the dead which hee slewe at his death, were moe then they which he slew in his life.

31 And then his brethren, and al the house of his father, came downe, and tooke him vp, and brought him, and buried him betweene Zarah and Eshaol, in the burying place of Manoah his father: and hee iudged Israel twentie yeeres.

The xvij. Chapter.

3 Micahs mother, according to her vow, made her sonne two idoles.

THere was a man of mount Ephraim, named Micah.

2 And he sayde vnto his mother, The eleuen hundred ‖ siluerlings that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest it in mine eares, beholde, the siluer is with me, I tooke it away. And his mother sayde, Blessed be thou, my sonne, in the Lord. ‖ Or, sicles of siluer.

3 And when hee had restored the eleuen hundred siluerlings to his mother, his mother sayde, I had dedicated the siluer vnto the Lord of mine hand, for thee, my sonne, that thou shouldest make a grauen and molten [a] image: nowe therefore I will giue it thee againe.

8 And the man departed out of the citie of Bethlehem Juda, to goe dwell where hee could find a conuenient place: and hee came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah sayde vnto him, Whence commest thou? The Leuite answered him, I am of Bethlehem Juda, and goe to dwell where I may finde a place.

10 And Micah sayde againe vnto him, Dwel with me, and be vnto me a father and a Priest, and I will giue thee ten siluerlings by yeere, two garments, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was [d] content to dwel with the man, and was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

The xviij. Chapter.

2 The children of Dan send men to search the land: 11 Then come the sixe hundred, & take the gods and the Priest of Micah away. 27 They destroy Lais.

a So that it was no marvell that religion was corrupt, and all things out of order, seeing there was no magistrate to punish offences.

IN those dayes there was a no king in Israel, and in those dayes the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that time all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their kinred, fiue actiue men in feates of warre, out of their coastes, euen out of Zaraah, and Esthaol, to vewe the land, and search it out, and said vnto them, Go, & search out the land. Which when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 And when they were in the house of Micah, they knewe b the voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and when they turned in thither, they sayde vnto him, Who brought thee hither? what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

b That is, they knewe him by his speech.

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am become his Priest.

5 And they sayde vnto him againe, Aske counsell nowe of God, that wee may knowe whether the way which we go, shalbe prosperous, or no.

c Thus God doth send to such as loue not the truth, strong delusion, whereby they are confirmed in their error, to their destruction.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, c Goe in peace, for the Lord guideth your way which ye goe.

7 Then the fiue men departed, and came to Lais, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt carelesse, after the maner of the Sidons, still, and without casting of perils, and that no man ‡ made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no businesse with other men.

‡ Made them ashamed.

8 And they came againe vnto their brethren, to Zaraah, and Esthaol, and their brethren said vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may goe vp against them: for wee haue seene the land, surely a very good one: and do ye sit still? Be not slouthfull to goe and enter, to possesse the land.

10 If ye wil go, ye shal come vnto a people that casteth no perils, and it is a very large countrey, which God hath giuen into your hands, it is also a place which doth lacke nothing that is in the world.

11 And there departed thence of the kinred of the Danites, out of Zaraah, & Esthaol, sixe hundred men, appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-iarim, which is in Juda: wherefore they called the place ‖ Mahaneh-dan, vnto this day, and it is on the backeside of Kiriath-iarim.

‖ Or, the tentes of Dan.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came vnto the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the fiue men that went to spie out the countrey of Lais, and sayde vnto their brethren, Wote yee not that there is in their houses an Ephod, Theraphim, and a grauen & a molten image? Now therefore, d consider what ye haue to doe.

d For it were expedient that we should take them away in our owne bd.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Micah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the sixe hundred men girded with weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entring of the gate.

17 And the fiue men that went to spie out the land, went in thither, and e tooke the grauen image, and the Ephod, Theraphim, and the molten image: (and the Priest stoode in the entring of the gate, with the sixe hundred men that were appointed with weapons of warre,) e Such is their blindenesse, that they beleeue that those things which by robbery and violence they take away, may helpe them.

18 While the other went into Micahs house, and fet the carued image, the Ephod, Theraphim, and the molten image: then sayde the Priest vnto them, What doe ye?

19 They answered him, Holde thy peace, lay thine hand vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest: Is it better for thee to bee a Priest vnto the house of one man, then to bee a Priest vnto a tribe or kinred in Israel?

20 And the Priests heart f was glad, and tooke the Ephod, and Theraphim, and the grauen image, and went g in the middest of the people.

f For he regarded neither Gods power, nor his owne honestie: but all his care was for his liuing and promotion.

g With the idoles, louing the most of the enemies of the truth.

21 And they turned, and departed, and put the children, the cattell, and their other substance before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses neere to Micahs house, gathered together, and followed after the children of Dan, 23 And called vnto them: and they turned their faces, and said vnto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou makest an outcry?

24 And he sayd, Ye haue taken away my gods which I made, and also the Priest, and goe your wayes: and h what haue I more? Howe then say yee vnto mee, What aileth thee?

h The deuil may looke for no god and worship but the worshipper of the true liuing God, can neuer be found.

25 And the children of Dan sayde vnto him, Let not thy voyce bee heard among vs, least ‡ angry fellowes runne vpon thee, and thou loose thy life, with the liues of all thine houshold.

‡ Who haue their hearts bitter.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah sawe that they were too strong for him, he turned, and went backe vnto his house.

27 And they tooke the i things which Micah had made, and the Priest which hee had, and came vnto Lais, vnto a people that were at rest, and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sworde, and burnt the citie with fire.

i Meaning idoles, with that appertenely to the same.

28 And there was no man to ‖ helpe, because

‖ Or, deliuer them.

cause [k] Lais was farre from Sidon, and they had no medling with any other man: and it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob.

29 *And they built them there a citie, and dwelt therein, and called it Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Israel: howbeit, the name of the citie was Lais at the beginning.

30 And the children of Dan set them vp the grauen image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gersom, the sonne of Manasses, and his sonnes were the Priests in the tribe of Dan, vntill the day of the [l] captiuitie of the land.

31 And they set thē vp the carued image, which Micah made, all the while that the house of God was in Silo.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Of the Leuite whose wife was villanously killed in Gibea. 29 The Leuite cutteth her in twelue pieces, and sendeth them to the twelue tribes.

ALso in those dayes, when there was no king in Israel, a certaine Leuite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, took to wife a [a] concubine out of Bethlehem Juda:

2 And his concubine played the whore by him, and went away from him vnto her fathers house to Bethlehem Juda, and there continued foure moneths.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speake ‡friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe, hauing his lad with him, and a couple of Asses: and shee brought him vnto her fathers house, and when the father of the damsell sawe him, he reioyced of his comming.

4 And his father in lawe, the damsels father, reteined him, and hee abode with him three dayes: and so they did eate and drinke, and lodged there.

5 The fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, the man stood vp to depart: and the damsels father saide vnto his sonne in lawe, ‖ Comfort thine heart with a morsell of bread, and then goe your way.

6 And they sate downe, and did eate and drinke both of them together: and the damsels father said vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarrie all night, and let thine heart be mery.

7 And when the man stoode ready to depart, his father in lawe ‖ compelled him: therefore hee returned, and taried all night there.

8 And he rose vp early the fift day to depart, and the damsels father saide, Comfort thine [b] heart, I pray thee. And they taried vntil after mid day: and they did eate both of them together.

9 And when the man arose to depart with his Concubine, and his lad, his father in lawe, the damsels father, sayde vnto him, Beholde, now the day goeth fast away, and ‡draweth toward Euen, I pray you tarry all night: behold, ‖ the sunne goeth to rest, lodge here, that thine heart may be mery: & to morow get you early vpon your way, that thou maiest get thee to thy [c] tent.

10 Neuertheless, the man would not tarie, but arose, and departed, and came as farre as Jebus (which is Hierusalem) and his two Asses laden, and his concubine with him.

11 And when they were fast by Jebus, the day was sore spent, and the yong man said vnto his master, come, I pray thee, and let vs turne in into this citie of the Jebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 His master answered him, wee will not turne into a [d] strange citie, that are not of the children of Israel, we will goe foorth to Gibea.

13 And he sayd vnto his lad, Go forward, and let vs draw neere to one of these places to lodge all night, eyther in Gibea, or in Rama.

14 And they went forwarde vpon their way, and the Sun went downe vpon them when they were fast by Gibea, which belongeth to them of Beniamin.

15 And they turned thitherward, to goe in and lodge all night in Gibea: and when he came, he sate him downe in a streete of the citie, for there was no man that ‖ tooke them into his house to lodging.

16 And beholde, there came an olde man from his worke out of the field at Euen, which was also of mount Ephraim, and dwelt as a stranger in Gibea: but the men of the place were the children of [e] Jemini.

17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, hee saw a wayfaring man in the streete of the citie: and the old man said, whither goest thou? and whence commest thou?

18 Hee answered him, Wee come from Bethlehem Juda, toward the side of mount Ephraim, from thence am I: and I went to Bethlehem Juda, and go nowe to the [f] house of the Lorde, and there is no man that receiueth me to house.

19 We haue straw and prouender for our Asses, and bread and wine for me & thy handmaid, & for the lad that is with thy seruant: and we lacke nothing.

20 The olde man saide, ‖ Peace bee with thee, all that thou lackest, shalt thou finde with mee: onely abide not in the streete all night.

21 And so he brought him into his house, and gaue fodder vnto the Asses: and they washed their feete, and did eate and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts mery, behold, the men of the citie which were ‡wicked, beset the house rounde about, and thrust at the doze, and spake to the man of the house, the old man, saying, Bring foorth the man that came into thine house, that we may [g] know him.

22 And the people the men of Israel plucked vp their heartes, and set their battell againe in aray, in the same place where they did the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went vp, and wept before the Lord vnto Euen, and asked of the Lord, saying, Shall we go againe to battell against the children of Beniamin our brethren? And the Lord saide, God vp against them.)

24 And the children of Israel came neere, against the children of Beniamin, the second day.

25 And the children of Beniamin went against them out of Gibea the second day, and destroyed to the earth of the children of Israel once againe eighteene thousande men, that drewe swords euery man of them.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and al the people went vp, and came vnto the house of God, and wept, and sate there before the Lorde, and fasted the same day vnto Euen, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord, (for there was the arke of the appointment of God in those dayes:

[b] That is, serued in the priests office.

28 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron [b] stoode before it at that time) saying, Shal I get me vp to go out any more to battell against the children of Beniamin my brethren, or shall I cease? The Lord said, Goe vp: for to morow I will deliuer them into your hands.

29 And Israel set liers in wait rounde about Gibea.

30 And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Beniamin the thirde time, and put themselues in aray against Gibea, as twise before.

[i] By the politike of the children of Israel.

31 And the children of Beniamin came out against the people, and [i] were drawen away from the citie, and they began to smite of the people dead as twise before, by two high wayes in the fielde (of which one goeth vp to the house of God, and the other to Gibea) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

32 And the children of Beniamin sayde They are fallen before vs as at the first. But the children of Israel sayde, Let vs flie, and plucke them away from the citie, vnto the high wayes.

33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselues in aray at Baal Thamar: and likewise the liers in waite of Israel came forth out of their places, [k] euen out of the medowes that were about Gibea, [k] To wit, the Beniamites.

34 And came against Gibea ten thousand chosen men, out of all Israel, and there was a sore battell: but [k] they wist not that [l] euill was neere them.

[l] They knewe not that Gods iudgement lieth at hand to destroy the.

35 And the Lord plagued Beniamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroied of the Beniamites the same day twentie and fiue thousand, and an hundred men, that drew swords euery one of them.

36 And the children of Beniamin sawe that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel [m] gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted vnto the liers in wayte which they had laid beside Gibea.

[m] Retyred to draw them after.

37 And the liers in waite hasted, & brake foorth against Gibea, and the embushment ‖ drewe themselues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sword.

‖ Or, made a long sound with a trumpet.

38 And the men of Israel had appointed a certaine time with the liers in waite, that they should make a great flame and smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battel, Beniamin began [n] to smite dead of the children of Israel about thirtie persons, and said, Surely they are stricken downe before vs, as in the first battel.

[n] Being encouraged by the two former victories.

40 But when there began to arise out of the citie a flame, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde the flame of the whole citie began to ascend vp to heauen.

41 When the men of Israel also turned [o] agayne, the men of Beniamin were abashed, for they sawe that euill approched them:

[o] To withstand their enemies.

42 And therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel, vnto the way that leadeth to the wildernesse, but the battell ouertooke them: and beside that, they which came out of the citie, destroyed them [p] in the middle of them.

[p] For they had compassed them round about.

43 And thus they compalled the Beniamites about, and chased them ‖ diligently, and ouerran them, euen ouer against Gibea on the East side.

‖ Or, from their rest.

44 And there were slaine of Beniamin eighteene thousande men, which were men of warre.

45 And they turned and fledde to the wildernesse warde, and vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they [q] gleaned by the way of the rest of them fiue thousand men: and pursued after them vntill they came to Gidom, and slue two thousand men of them.

[q] They slue them here and there, as they found them scattered abroade.

46 So that all that were slaine that same day of Beniamin were twentie & fiue thousande men that drewe swordes, which were all men of warre.

[r] Besides eleuen hundred that had ben slaine in the former battailes.

47 Onely fiue hundred men turned and fled to the wildernesse vnto the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock of Rimmon foure moneths.

48 And the men of Israel turned backe againe vnto the children of Beniamin, and smote them with the edge of the sworde in the cities both man and beast, and all that came to hande, and set on fire all the [r] cities that they could come by.

[r] If they belonged to the Beniamites.

The xxj. Chapter.

2 The Israelites sweare that they will not marrie their daughters to the Beniamites. 10 They slay them of Iabes Gilead, and giue their virgins to the Beniamites. 22 The Beniamites take the daughters of Silo.

d This othe came of rashnesse, for after they make it by a subtill deuice, as ver. 14.

AND the men of Israel a sware in Mispah, saying, There shall none of vs giue his daughter vnto any of Beniamin to wife.

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till Euen, before God, and lift vp their voices, and wept sore,

3 And sayd, O Lord God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that there shoulde bee this day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And on the morowe the people rose vp betime, and made there an b Altar, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings.

b That they might consult with the Lord, and giue God thanks for the victorie.

5 And the children of Israel sayd, who is hee among al the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the congregation vnto the Lorde? for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lorde to Mispah, saying, He shal surely die.

e Or repented that they had destroied their brethren.

6 And the children of Israel c had pitie on Beniamin their brethren, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day:

7 What shall we doe vnto the remnant of them, that they may haue wiues? we haue sworne by the Lorde, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues.

8 And they sayde, Is there anie of the tribes of Israel, that d came not vp to Mispah, to the Lorde? And beholde, there came none of Iabes Gilead vnto the host and congregation.

d Condemning them to bee faultie of vice, which would not put their hand to punish it.

9 For the people were viewed, e beholde, there were none of the inhabitaunts of Iabes Gilead there.

10 And the Congregation sent thither twelue thousand men of the ‡ stoutest, and commaunded them, saying, Goe, and smite the inhabitants of Iabes Gilead with the edge of the sword, both women and children.

‡ Heb. children of strength.

11 And this is it that ye shall doe, Ye shall vtterly destroy all the males, and all the women that haue lien by men.

12 And they founde among the inhabitants of Iabes Gilead foure hundred damsels virgins, that had knowen no man, by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the hoste to Silo, which is in the land of Chanaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent, and e spake with the children of Beniamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

e By Ambassadours sent to them about foure monethes after the last commixture.

14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wiues, which they had saued aliue of the women of Iabes Gilead: but they f sufficed them not.

f For there lacked two hundred.

15 And the people were sorie for Beniamin, because that the Lorde had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 And then the elders of the Congregation saide, What shall we doe to the remnant of them, to gette them wiues? seeing all the women of Beniamin are destroyed.

17 And they sayd, There must be g an inheritance for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

g Beniamin must be retained to haue the eleuenth portion of the inheritance of Iacob.

18 Howbeit, wee may not giue them wiues of our daughters. For the children of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he that giueth a wife to Beniamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lorde yeerely in Silo, which is on the North side of Bethel, and on the East side of the way that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, and South from Libanon.

20 Therefore they commaunded the children of Beniamin, saying, Goe, and lie in waite in the vineyardes.

21 And when yee see that the daughters of Silo come out to daunce in daunces, then come yee out of the vineyardes, and catch you euery man a wife of the daughters of Silo, and goe to the lande of Beniamin.

22 And when their fathers or brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we wil say vnto them, Haue pitie on vs for their sakes: because we reserued not to ech man his wife in time of warre, and that yee haue not giuen vnto them hitherto, the fault is yours.

23 And the children of Beniamin did euen so, and tooke them wiues according to the number of them that daunced, whome they caught: and they went and returned vnto their inheritaunce, and repaired the cities, and dwelt therein.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, and went euery man to his tribe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.

25 In those dayes there was no king in Israel: but euery man did that which seemed right in his owne eyes.

The ende of the Booke of Iudges.

The

The booke of Ruth.

The first Chapter.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 3 He and his sonnes die. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

NOw came to passe, that when the iudges *ruled, there fell a dearth in the land, and a certaine man of Bethlehem b Juda, went for to sojourne in the countrey of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sonnes were Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephraites, out of Bethlehem Juda: and when they came into the lande of Moab, they continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomies husband died, and she remained with her two sonnes:

4 Which tooke them wiues c of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpha, and the others Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them, and the woman was left destitute of her two sonnes, and of her husband.

6 Then shee arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrey of Moab, how that the Lord had visited his people, and giuen them bread.

7 Wherefore shee departed out of the place where shee was, and her two daughters in lawe with her: and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Juda.

8 And Naomi saide vnto her two daughters in lawe, Goe and returne d eche of you vnto your mothers house: and the Lorde deale as kindely with you, as ye haue dealt with the dead, and with me:

9 And the Lorde graunt you, that you may finde rest either of you in the house of her e husbande. And when shee kissed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept,

10 And said vnto her, Surely we will returne with thee vnto thy folke.

11 And Naomi saide, Turne againe my daughters: for what cause will you goe with mee? Are there any moe children in my wombe to be your husbandes?

12 Turne againe my daughters, go your way, for I am too olde to haue an husbande: and if I said, I haue hope, if I tooke a man also this night, yea and though I had already borne sonnes:

13 Would ye tary for them till they were of age? or would ye for them so long restraine from taking of husbandes? not so my daughters: for it grieueth me ‖much for your sakes, that the hand of the Lorde is gone out f against me.

14 And they lift vp their voyces, g wept againe: and Orpha h kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode still by her.

15 And Naomi said, See, thy sister in law is gone backe againe vnto her people, and vnto her gods: returne thou after her.

16 And Ruth answered, Entreate mee not to leaue thee, and to returne from thee: for whither thou goest, I will goe also, and where thou dwellest, there I will dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou dyest, there I wil die, and there will I be buried: the Lord doe so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 When she saw that shee was stedfastly minded to goe with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 And so they went both, vntil they came to Bethlehem: And when they were come to Bethlehem, it was i noised of them through all the citie, and they saide, Is not this Naomi?

20 And shee answered them, Call me not ‖Naomi, but call me ‖Mara: for the almightie hath made me very bitter.

21 I went out full, and the Lorde hath brought me home againe emptie: why then call yee mee Naomi, seeing the Lorde hath humbled mee, & the almightie hath brought me vnto aduersitie?

22 And so Naomi with Ruth the Moabitesse her daughter in lawe, returned out of the countrey of Moab and came to Bethlehem, in the beginning of k barly haruest.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Ruth gathered corne in the fieldes of Booz. 15 The gentlenesse of Booz toward her.

AND Naomis husbande had a *kinsman, a man of power and wealth, which was of the kinred of Elimelech, named Booz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitesse saide vnto Naomi, Let mee now goe to the fielde, & gather eares of corne after any man, in whose sight I finde grace. And thee saide vnto her, Goe, my daughter.

3 And she went and came to the field, and gathered after the reapers: and so it was, that the same fielde perteined vnto Booz, which was of the kinred of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Booz came from Bethlehem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they answered him, The Lorde blesse thee.

5 Then said Booz vnto his young ‖man ‖that stood by the Reapers, Whose damosell is this?

6 And the young man that stoode by the reapers answered and saide, It is the Moa-d Here by it appeareth that Naomi by dwelling among idolaters, was nothing colde in the true zeale of God, which rather had respect to the sake of the bodie, then to the conscience of the soule.

e She wisheth them neither riches, wealth nor gift of fole life: but mariages agreeable to Gods institution.

7 And ſhe ſaide vnto vs, I pray you let me gleane and gather after the reapers amongſt the ſheaues: and ſo ſhe came, and hath continued euen from the morning vntill nowe, ſaue that ſhe tarried a little in the houſe.

8 Then ſaide Booz vnto Ruth, Heareſt thou my daughter? Goe to no other fielde to gather, neither goe from hence, but abide here by my maidens.

b That is, marke what fielde they doe reape.

9 Let [b] thine eyes bee on the fielde that they doe reape, & goe thou after the maydens: Haue I not charged the yong men, that they ſhall do thee no hurt? Moreouer, when thou art a thirſt, goe vnto the veſſels, and drinke of that [c] which the laddes haue drawen.

c That is, of the water that they haue drawen.

10 Then ſhee fell on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the ground, and ſaide vnto him, How is it that I haue founde grace in thine eyes, and that thou ſhouldeſt knowe me, ſeeing I am a [d] ſtranger?

11 And Booz anſwered, and ſaide vnto her, All is told and ſhewed me that thou haſt done vnto thy mother in law ſince the death of thine husband: how thou haſt left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou waſt borne, and art come vnto a people, which thou knewеſt not in time paſſed.

e Of mercie, might, protection, and prouidence.

13 Then ſhe ſaide, Let me finde fauour in thy ſight, my lorde, thou that haſt comforted me, and ſpoken ‡ comfortably vnto thy maid, which yet am not like vnto one of thy maidens.

14 Booz ſaide vnto her againe, At the meale time come thou hither, and eate of the bread, and dippe thy morſell in the vineger. And ſhe ſate beſide the reapers: and hee reacher her parched corne, and ſhe did eate, and was ſufficed, and left [f] part.

f Which ſhe brought home to her mother in lawe.

15 And when ſhe was riſen vp, to gather, Booz commaund his yong men, ſaying, Let her gather euen among the ſheaues and [g] rebuke her not.

g By forbidding her.

16 And leaue her ſome of the ſheaues for the nonce, and let it lie, that ſhe may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 And ſo ſhe gathered in the field vntill Euen, & threſhed that ſhe had gathered: and it was in meaſure vpon an Epha of barley.

18 And ſhee tooke it vp, and went into the citie: and when her mother in lawe had ſeene what ſhe had gathered, ſhe pluckt out alſo, and gaue to her that ſhe had reſerued, when ſhe had eaten ynough.

19 And her mother in law ſaid vnto her, Where haſt thou gathered to day? and where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be hee that knewe thee. And ſhee ſhewed her mother in lawe, how ſhe had wrought with him, and ſaide, The mans name, with whome I wrought to day, is Booz.

20 And Naomi ſaide vnto her daughter in law, Bleſſed be he of the Lorde, for he ceaſſeth not to doe good to the liuing and to the [h] dead. And Naomi ſaide againe vnto her, The man is nigh vnto vs, & of our affinitie.

h They are ſaide to doe good to the dead, which doe good to their friendes, being alme for their ſakes.

21 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſaid, He ſaid vnto me alſo, Thou ſhalt bee with my yong men, vntill they haue ended all my harueſt.

22 And Naomi anſwered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is beſt my daughter, that thou goe out with his maydens, that they come not againſt thee in any other field.

23 And ſo ſhee kept her by the maidens of Booz to gather, vnto the ende of barley harueſt, and of wheate harueſt alſo, and dwelt with her mother in lawe.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counſell. 8 Shee ſleepeth at Booz feete. 12 He acknowledgeth himſelfe to bee her kinſman.

THen Naomi her mother in law ſaide vnto her, My daughter, ſhall I not ſeeke [a] reſt for thee, that thou mayeſt proſper?

a Meaning, that ſhe muſt prouide for an husband, with whome ſhe might be quietly.

2 And is not Booz our kinſman, with whoſe maidens thou waſt? Beholde, he winnoweth barley to night in the threſhing ‖ flooze.

‖ Or, in the barne.

3 Waſhe thy ſelfe therefore, and annoint thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the flooze: but let not the man knowe of thee, vntil he haue left eating and drinking.

4 And when he goeth to ſleepe, marke the place, where he layeth him downe, and then goe, and lift vp the clothes, that are on his feete, and lay thee downe there: and he ſhall tell thee what thou ſhalt doe.

5 And ſhee anſwered her, All that thou biddeſt me, I will doe.

6 And ſhee went downe vnto the flooze, and did according to all that her mother in lawe bade her.

7 And when Booz had eaten and drunken, and cheared his heart, hee went to lye downe at the ende of the heape of corne: and ſhee came ſoftly, and lifted vp the clothes of his feete, and laide her downe.

8 And at midnight, the man was afraid, and caught holde: and behold, a woman lay at his feete.

9 And he ſaide, What art thou? Shee anſwered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: ſpread the wing of thy garment ouer thine handemaide, for thou art the kinſman.

10 He ſaid, Bleſſed be thou in the Lorde, my daughter: for thou haſt ſhewed more goodnes in the latter ende, then at the beginning, in as much as thou followeſt not yong men, whether they were poore, or rich.

11 And nowe my daughter, feare not, I will doe to thee all that thou requireſt: for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a woman of vertue.

12 And it is true, that I am of thy next kinne:

kinne: howbeit there is one nigher then I.

13 Tary this night, and when morning is come, if hee will [b] performe the part of a kinsman vnto thee, it is good, let him doe the kinsmans part: but if hee will not doe the kinsmans part, then will I doe the duetie of a kinsman, as the Lorde liueth: sleepe vntill the morning.

14 And thee lay at his feete vntill the morning: and she rose vp before one could knowe another. And hee saide, Let no man knowe, that there came any woman into the floore.

15 And he sayd againe, Bring the mantle that thou hast vpon thee, and holde it. And when she held it, he mette in sixe measures of barley, and layde it on her: And she gate her into the citie.

16 And when thee came in to her mother in law, she said, who art thou, my daughter? And thee tolde her all that the man had done to her, 17 And saide, These sixe measures of barley gaue he mee, and sayde, Thou shalt not come emptie vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then saide thee, My daughter, sit still vntill thou know, how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, vntill he haue finished the thing this same day.

[b] That is, if he will take thee to be his wife, by the title of affinitie, or according to Gods lawe.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 Booz speaketh to Ruths next kinsman touching her mariage. 7 The ancient custome in Israel. 10 Booz marrieth Ruth, of whom hee begetteth Obed. The generation of Phares.

Then went Booz vp to the [a] gate, and sate him downe there: and beholde, the kinsman, of which Booz spake, came by, vnto whō he saide, [b] Ho, such one: come, sitte downe heere. And hee turned, and sate downe.

2 And hee tooke ten men of the elders of the citie, & said, Sit ye downe here. And they sate downe.

3 And he said vnto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the countrey of Moab, will sell a parcell of land which was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thought to doe thee to wit, and bid thee buy it before the inhabitantes and elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, then tell me, that I may knowe: for there is none to redeeme it, [c] saue thou, and I next to thee. And the other answered, I will redeeme it.

5 Then said Booz, what day thou buiest the fielde of the hande of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitesse, the wife of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his [d] inheritance.

6 The kinsman answered, I can not redeeme it, for marring of mine owne inheritance: redeeme thou my right to thee, for I cannot redeeme it.

7 Now this was the maner of old time in Israel, concerning redeeming and changing, for to stablish all thinges: that a man must pluck off his shoe, and giue it his neighbour: and this was a sure [e] witnesse in Israel. Deut. 25. 7.

8 Therefore the kinsman saide to Booz, Buy it thou: and so drue off his shoe.

9 And Booz said vnto the elders, and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions, and Mahalons of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreouer, Ruth the Moabitesse, the wife of Mahalon, haue I purchased to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his [f] place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders said, Wee are witnesses: The Lorde make the woman, that is come into thine house, like Rahel and Lea, which twaine did build the house of Israel: and that thou mayest doe worthily in [g] Ephrata, and be famous in Bethlehem.

12 Thy house be like the house of Pharez (whom * Thamar bare vnto Juda) euen of the seede which the Lorde shall giue thee of this young woman. Gen. 38. 29.

13 And so Booz tooke Ruth, and she was his wife: And when he went in vnto her, the Lord gaue, that thee conceiued, and bare a sonne.

14 And the women sayde vnto Naomi, Blessed be the Lorde, the which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shall be continued in Israel:

15 And that shall bring thy life againe, and cherish thine olde age: for thy daughter in lawe which loueth thee, hath borne vnto him, & she is better to thee the [h] seuen sonnes.

16 And Naomi tooke the childe and layde it in her lappe, and became nurse vnto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gaue it a name, saying, There is a childe borne to Naomi, and called it Obed: the same is the father of Jsai, the father of Dauid.

The ende of the booke of Ruth.

The first Booke of Samuel, otherwise called the first Booke of the Kings.

The first Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Elkana the father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. 11 Hanna was barren, and prayed to the Lorde. 15 Her answere to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lorde.

THere was a man of one of the two [a] Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, named Elkana, the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Thohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite,

2 Which had [b] two wiues, the one called Hanna, and the other Phenenna: and Phenenna had children, but Hanna had no children.

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euery yeere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lorde of hostes in Silo, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, the Lordes priests.

4 And it fell on a day, that Elkana offered and gaue to Phenenna his wife, and to all her sonnes and daughters, portions.

5 But vnto Hanna hee gaue a [c] worthie portion: for he loued Hanna, and the Lorde had made her barren.

6 And her enemie Phenenna vexed her sore, forasmuch as she vpbrayded her, because the Lord had made her barren.

7 (And so did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as she went vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept, and did not eate.

8 Then said Elkana her husband to her, Hanna, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart troubled? Am not I better to thee, then ten [d] sonnes?

9 So Hanna rose vp after that they had eaten and drunken in Silo. (And Eli the Priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the temple of the Lorde.)

10 And shee was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore,

11 And vowed a vowe, and said, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmayde, and remember mee, and not forget thine handmayde, but giue vnto thine handmayde a man childe, I will giue him vnto the Lorde all the dayes of his life, and there shall no rasor come vpon his head.

12 And as shee continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hanna spake in her heart, and her lippes did but moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: and therefore Eli thought she had bene drunken.

14 And Eli saide vnto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? Put away from thee ‖ the wine that thou hast.

15 Hanna answered, and said, Not so, my lord: I am a woman of a ‡ sorowfull heart, I haue drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue powred out my soule before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmayde ‖ for a wicked woman: for out of the abundance of my heauinesse and griefe, haue I spoken hitherto.

17 Eli answered her againe, and sayde, Goe in peace: the God of Israel graunt thee thy petition, that thou hast asked of him.

18 She sayde, Let thine handmayd finde [e] grace in thy sight. And so the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more sadde.

19 And they rose vp earely, & worshipped before the Lorde, and then returned, and came to their house to Ramath: and when Elkana knewe Hanna his wife, the Lorde [f] remembred her.

20 For in processe of time it came to passe, that shee conceiued, and bare a sonne, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I haue asked him of the Lord.

21 And the man [g] Elkana, and all his house, went vp to offer vnto the Lorde the yeerely sacrifice, and also his vowe.

22 Neuertheless, Hanna went not vp, but said vnto her husband, I will tarie vntil the ladde be weaned, and then I will bring him that hee may appeare before the Lorde, and there abide for euer.

23 Elkana her husbande answered her, Doe what seemeth thee best, tarrie at home vntill thou haue weaned him, and I beseech the Lorde to make good [h] his saying. And so the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke, vntill she weaned him.

24 And when shee had weaned him, shee tooke him with her, with three bullockes, and an Epha of flowre, and a bottell of wine, and brought him vnto the house of the Lord in Silo, and the childe was ‡ young.

25 And they slew a bullocke, and brought in the ladde to Eli.

26 And shee sayde, Oh my lorde, as thy [i] soule liueth, my lorde, I am the woman, that stoode before thee here praying vnto the Lorde.

27 For this ladde I prayed, and the Lorde hath giuen mee my desire, which I asked of him:

28 And therefore I haue giuen him vnto the Lorde, as long as he liueth he shall be giuen to the Lorde. And he [k] worshipped the Lord there.

The ij. Chapter.

1 The song of Hanna. 12 The sonnes of Eli are wicked. 13 The new custome of the priests. 18 Samuel ministreth before the Lord. 20 Eli blesseth Elkana and his wife.

AND Hanna prayed, and sayde, My heart reioyceth in the Lord, and mine [a] horne is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is [b] wide open ouer mine enemies, for I reioyce in thy saluation.

a I haue recouered strength and glory by the benefite of the Lord.
b I can now answere them that reproche my barrennesse.

2 There is none holy as the Lorde: for without thee is nothing: neither is there any of strength, as is our God.

3 Talke no more proudely, let not arrogancie come out of your mouthes: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and his purposes come to passe.

4 The bowes with the mightie men are broken, and they that are weake, haue girt themselues with strength.

e He preferreth to honor, and putteth downe, according to his owne will, though mans iudgement be contrary.

l Which was commaunded first to bee burnt vnto God.

16 And if any man sayde vnto him, Let them burne the fat according to the ‖ custome, and then take as much as thine heart [m] desireth: then he would answere him, Yea, thou shalt giue it me nowe: and if thou wilt not, I will take it with violence.

18 But the childe Samuel ministred before the Lord, gyrded with a linen Ephod.

19 Moreouer, his mother made him a litle coate, and brought it to him from yeere to yeere, when she came vp with her husband to offer the yeerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkana and his wife, and saide, The Lorde giue thee seede of this woman, for the [o] petition that she asked of the Lord. And they went vnto their owne home.

o Asking A sonne to serue the Lord, and bestowing him to the Lords seruice.

21 And the Lorde visited Hanna, so that shee conceiued, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters: and the childe Samuel grewe [p] before the Lord.

p That is, being in the seruice of the Lord.

22 Eli was very olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto Israel, and how they lay with the women that waited at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said vnto them, Why do ye such things? for of all these people I heare euill reports of you.

24 Oh nay my sonnes: for it is no good report that I heare, howe that yee make the Lords people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the iudge shal iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will be his [q] dayes man? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not vnto the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

q No man, nor reasons, nor things can pacifie Gods wrath for sinne.

26 (The childe Samuel profited, and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lord, and also with men.)

But though the lawe haue no helpe in this case, yet the Gospel sheweth Iesus Christ, that taketh away the sinnes of the world.

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainely appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaos house?

28 And I [r] chose him out of all the tribes of Israel, to bee my priest, for to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me: and I gaue vnto the house of thy father, all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

r That is, Aaron thy father.

The iij. Chapter.

1 There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuel three times. 11 And sheweth what shall come vpon Eli, and his house. 18 The same thing declareth Samuel to Eli.

AND the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lord before Eli, and the word of the Lord was a precious in those dayes, neither was there any open vision.

a Because there were very fewe prophets to declare it.

2 And as at that time Eli lay in his b place, his eyes began to waxe dimme, that he could not see.

b In the court nert to the tabernacle.

3 And yer the lampe of God went out, Samuel laid him downe to sleepe in the temple of the Lord, where the arke of God was.

4 And the Lord called Samuel. And hee answered, I am here.

5 And he ranne vnto Eli, and saide, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And hee saide, I called thee not, goe againe and sleepe. And he went, and laide him downe to sleepe.

6 And the Lorde called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here, for thou diddest call me. And hee answered, I called thee not, my sonne, goe and sleepe.

c He was not before this time accustomed to heare the Lord.

7 Samuel c knewe not yet the Lord, neither was the worde of the Lorde yet opened vnto him.

8 And the Lord went to, and called Samuel the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here, for thou hast called me. And Eli perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

9 Therefore Eli saide vnto Samuel, Goe and sleepe, and if hee call thee, then say, Speake Lorde, for thy seruant heareth thee. So Samuel went and slept in his place.

10 And the Lord came, and stood and called as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will doe a thing in Israel, that both the eares of as many as heare it, shall d tingle.

d God declareth what tokens shall come vpon men, when they shall heare that the arke is taken, and also see that Elies house is destroyed.

12 In that day, I will raise vp against Eli, all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an ende.

13 I haue tolde him, that I will iudge his house for euer, for the wickednesse which he knoweth: for when the people cursed his sonnes for the same wickednesse, hee did not correct them.

14 And therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednesse of Elies house shall not bee purged with sacrifice, nor offering, for euer.

15 Samuel slept vntill the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord: and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and sayde, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here am I.

17 He sayde, What is that the Lord hath said vnto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: e God doe so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from mee, of all that hee said vnto thee.

e God vseth other phrases of that kinde, except thou tell me the truth.

18 And Samuel told him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. And he sayd, It is the Lord: let him doe what seemeth him good.

19 And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and left none of his wordes ‖ vnperformed.

‖ Or, fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from Dan to Beer-seba, wist that faithfull Samuel was the prophet of the Lord.

21 And the Lord appeared againe in Silo: for the Lord opened himselfe to Samuel in Silo, through the word of the Lord.

The iiij. Chapter.

10 The arke of the Lorde is taken. 11 Eli and his children die.

AND Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel a went out against the Philistines to battell, and pitched beside the ‖ Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphec, a From the departure of the Israelites out of Egypt vnto the time of Samuel, are about 300 yeeres.

‖ Or, stone of helpe.

2 And put themselues in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battel, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistines: and the Philistines slewe of the armie in the fielde about foure thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into their tentes, the elders of Israel sayde, b Wherefore hath the Lorde caste vs downe this day before the Philistines? let vs fetch the arke of the appointment of the Lorde out of Silo vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

b Samuel, as a type of Christ, affirmeth, that Israel had destroyed themselues, and that the taking of the arke was for their sinne, and not for any iniquitie in it: and so the Philistines are but the rod of God.

4 And

4 And so the people went to Silo, and fet from thence the arke of the appoyntment of the Lord of hosts, which [c] dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehes, with the arke of the appoyntment of God.

[c] This he saith, because of the mercy seate that was betweene the Cherubims.

5 And when the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde came into the host, all Israel shouted a mightie shoute, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noyse of the shout, they sayd: What meaneth the sounde of this mightie shout in the host of the Hebrewes? And they vnderstoode how that the arke of the Lord was come into the hoste.

7 And the Philistines were afraide, and sayde, God is come into the hoste. And they sayd againe, [d] Woe vnto vs: for it was neuer so before this.

[d] Before we fought against them and now God is come to fight against vs.

8 Woe vnto vs: who shall deliuer vs out of the hand of these mightie gods? these are the gods that smote the Egyptians with many plagues in the [e] wildernesse.

[e] For in the red sea in the wilderness, the Egyptians were destroyed: which was the last of all his plagues.

9 Be strong, & quite your selues like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not seruants vnto the Hebrewes, as they haue bene to you: be of a manly courage therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fledde euery man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter, for there were ouerthrowen of Israel [f] thirtie thousand footemen.

[f] This number doeth not lye lacke of sufficient number of men, but lye lacke of Gods fauour.

11 And the arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes were dead.

12 And there ranne a man of Beniamin out of the armie, and came to Silo the same day with his clothes [g] rent, and earth vpon his head.

[g] The common gesture of such as fell to calamitie, sorrow, or heauinesse.

13 And when hee came, loe, Eli sate vpon a stoole by the way side, waiting: for his heart feared for the [h] arke of God. And when the man came into the citie, and tolde it, all the citie cried.

[h] Lest it should be taken of the enemies.

14 And when Eli heard the noyse of the crying, he sayd, What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? And the man came in hastily, and tolde Eli.

15 Eli was ninetie and eight yeeres olde, and his sight failed him, that he could not see.

16 And the man said vnto Eli, I am hee, that came out of the armie, and fledde this day out of the hoste. And he said, What thing is done, my sonne?

17 The messenger answered, and sayde, Israel is fled before the Philistines, & there hath bene a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sonnes, Hophni, & Phinehes, are dead, and the arke of God is taken.

[i] If he had corrected his sonnes, and remoued wickednesse from the tabernacle of the Lord, he and all Israel had escaped this horrible plague.

18 And when he made mention of the arke of God, Eli fell from his stoole backeward by the side of the gate, and his [i] necke brake, and he died: for he was an olde man, and heauie, and ‖ iudged Israel fourtie yeeres.

‖ Or, gouerned.

19 And his daughter in lawe Phinehes wife was with childe, and nigh ‖ the birth: and when she heard the tidings that the arke of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, shee bowed her selfe, and trauelled, for her paynes came vpon her.

‖ Or, to crie out.

20 And about the time of her death, the women that stoode about her, sayd vnto her, Feare not, for thou hast borne a sonne. But she answered not, nor regarded it.

21 And shee named the childe [k] Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, (because the arke of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.)

[k] Which is by interpretation, no glory, or where is the glorie?

23 And she said againe, The glory is gone from Israel: for the arke of God is taken.

The v. Chapter.

2 The Philistines bring the arke into the house of Dagon. 6 The men of Asdod are plagued. 8 The arke is caried into Gath, and after to Acaron.

AND the Philistines tooke the arke of God, and caried it from Eben-ezer vnto Asdod.

2 Yea the Philistines tooke the arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, & set it by [a] Dagon.

[a] Which was their chiefe idol, and from the nauell downeward like a fish, and vpward like a man.

3 And when they of Asdod were vp the next day in the morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the earth before the arke of the Lord: and they tooke Dagon, and set him in his place againe.

4 And when they were come earely in the next morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the grounde, before the arke of the Lord, and his head, and his two hands were cut off vpon the threshold, that onely the stumpe of Dagon was left to him.

5 And therefore is it, that neither the priestes of Dagon, nor any man that commeth into Dagons house, [b] treadeth on the threshold of Dagon in Asdod, vnto this day.

[b] Proceeding from one superstition to another.

6 But the hand of the Lorde was heauie vpon them of Asdod, and he destroyed them, and [*] smote them with Emerods, both Asdod, and all the coastes thereof. Psal. 77.66.

7 And when the men of Asdod sawe that it was so, they sayde, The arke of the God of Israel shall not abide here with vs: for his hand is sore vpon vs, and vpon [c] Dagon our god.

[c] This is a lamentable blindnesse: they cleaue still to that idoll which lieth vpon the ground like a blocke, and is not able to helpe, neither them, nor it selfe.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lordes of the Philistines vnto them, and sayde, What shall we doe with the arke of the God of Israel? they answered, Let the arke of the God of Israel bee caried about vnto Gath. And they caried the arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had Emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the arke of God to Acaron: and as soone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cried out, saying, saying, They haue brought the arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slay vs, & our people.

11 And so they sent, and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send [d] away the arke of the God of Israel, to goe againe to his owne place, that it slay vs not, and our people. For there was a destruction & death throughout all the citie: and the hand of God was exceeding sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the Emerodes: and the cry of the citie went vp to heauen.

[d] Affliction worketh not like effect in the wicked and in the godly: in the one grudge and desperation, in the other repentance and reconciliation.

The vj. Chapter.

17 The Philistines offer golden Emerodes. 19 The men of Bethsames are stricken for looking into the arke.

AND the arke of the Lorde was in the countrey of the Philistines seuen moneths.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the soothsayers, saying, What shall we doe with the arke of the Lorde? Tell vs wherewith wee shall send it home againe.

3 They said, If you send away the arke of the God of Israel, send it not emptie: but reward it with a sinne [a] offering: and then yee shall be whole, and it shall be knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then sayde they, And what shall be the sinne offering, which wee shall reward him with? They answered, Fiue golden Emerodes, and fiue golden Mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistines: For one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images like to your Emerodes, and images like to your Mice, that corrupt the land, and ye shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that hee may take his hand from off you, and from off your [b] gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore doe yee harden your hearts, * as the Egyptians and Pharao hardened their hearts? which when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people goe, and they departed?

7 Nowe therefore, make a newe cart, and take two milch kine, on whome there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calues home from them.

8 And take the arke of the Lord, and lay it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of golde, which yee reward him with for a sinne offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and sende it away, that it may goe.

9 And if yee see that hee goeth vp by the way of his owne coast to Bethsames, then it is he that did vs this great euill: If no, wee shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a [c] chance that happened vs.

10 And the men did euen so: and tooke two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and kept the calues at home.

11 And they layd the arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer, with the mice of gold, and with the images of their Emerods.

12 And the kine tooke the straight way to Bethsames, and went on the straight way: and as they went, they lowed, and turned neither to the right hand, nor to the left: and the princes of the Philistines went after them, vnto the [d] borders of Bethsames.

13 And they of Bethsames were reaping their wheate haruest in the valley: and they lifted vp their eyes, and spied the arke, and reioyced when they sawe it.

14 And the cart came into the field of one Iehosua, a Bethsamite, and stoode still there. There was also a great stone: and [e] they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

15 And the Leuites tooke downe the arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the [f] iewels of golde were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Bethsames sacrificed whole burnt sacrifice, and offered offerings the same day vnto the Lord.

16 And when the fiue princes of the Philistines had seene it, they returned to Acaron the same day.

17 And these are the golden Emerodes which the Philistines gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord, [g] for Asdod, one, for Gaza, one, for Ascalon, one, for Gath, one, and for Acaron, one,

18 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cites of the Philistines, belonging to the fiue lordes, both of walled townes and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone ‖ of Abel, whereon they set downe the arke of the Lord, vnto this day, in the field of Iehosua the Bethsamite.

19 And hee smote of the men of Bethsames, because they had [h] looked in the arke of the Lord, and he slew among the people fiftie thousand, and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter.

20 Wherefore the men of Bethsames sayde, Who is able to stand before this holy Lorde God? and [i] to whome shall hee goe from vs?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabiters of Kiriath-iarim, saying, The Philistines haue brought againe the arke of the Lord, come yee downe, and fet it vp to you.

[a] For that you haue presumed to carry it away from Israel.

[b] Here they are forced to knowledge the true liuing God and his mightie hand: and yet because of their idolatrie, haue not the grace to conuert and worship him. Exo. 12. 32.

[c] The wicked attribute almost al things to fortune and chance: whereas in deede there is nothing done without Gods prouidence and decree.

[d] For the trial of the matter.

[e] To wit, the men of Bethsames, which were Israelites.

[f] Opening the golden coffer, and the golden chest.

[g] That was the fiue principall cities of the Philistines, which were all conquered to the time of Dauid.

‖ Or, plaine.

[h] For it was not lawfull to any other to touch or to looke into it, but only to Aaron and his sonnes.

[i] For what people will not crie out, and be stirs plagued by the returning thereof?

The vij. Chapter.

1 The arke is brought to Kiriath-iarim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sinne, and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistines fight against Israel, and are ouercome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Israel.

AND so the men of [a] Kiriath-iarim came, and fet vp the arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Aminadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the arke of the Lord.

[a] A citie in the tribe of Iuda, called likewise Baal, Iosh. 15.

2 And

2 And while the arke abode in Kiriath-iarim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeres: and all the house of Israel [b] lamented after the Lord.

[b] Repented them of their sinnes, and sought after the Lord.

3 And Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with al your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Astharoth from among you, and prepare your hearts vnto the Lord, * and serue him onely: for he shall rid you out of the hand of the Philistines.

Deut.6.4 mat.4.10.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Astharoth, and serued the Lord onely.

5 And Samuel saide, Gather all Israel to [c] Mispah, and I wil pray for you vnto the Lorde.

[c] For Silo was now layde, because the Philistines had taken thence the arke.

6 And they gathered together to Mispah, and [d] drewe water, and powred it out before the Lorde, and fasted the same day, and saide there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mispah.

[d] After the exposition of some of the learned, it meaneth that they wept before the Lord.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mispah, the princes of the Philistines went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel saide to Samuel, [e] Cease not to crye vnto the Lorde our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistines.

[e] Seeing they saide they trusted not to their owne strength, but to God: it is to be feared they put not their hope in him, but in their owne deuise.

9 And Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, & offered it all together for a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord, and cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuel offred ỳ whole burnt offring, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundred a great thunder the same day among the Philistines, and [f] scattered them, that they were slaine before Israel.

[f] Feared.

11 * And the men of Israel went out of Mispah, & pursued the Philistines, & smote them, vntill they came vnder Bethcar.

Ecclē.46. 21.

12 And then Samuel tooke a stone, and pitched it betweene Mispah and [g] Sen, and called the name thereof [h] Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lorde helped vs.

[g] Which was a great rocke ouer against Mispah. [h] The stone of helpe.

13 And so the Philistines were brought vnder, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hande of the Lorde was against the Philistines all the dayes of Samuel.

14 The cities which also the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, euen from Acaron to Gath, & the coasts of the same did Israel deliuer out of the hãds of the Philistines: and there was peace betweene Israel and the [i] Amorites.

[i] Meaning, ỳ Philistines.

15 Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life,

16 And went about yeere by yeere to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mispah, and iudged Israel in all those places, 17 And came againe to Rama: for there was his house, & there he iudged Israel also and there he built an [k] altar vnto the Lorde.

[k] Which was not contrary to the law: for as yet a certaine place was not appointed.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes iudges ouer Israel, who follow not his steps. 5 The Israelites aske a king.

WHen Samuel was olde, hee [a] made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel.

[a] Because he was not able to trauell, still take ỳ paines in his old age.

2 The name of his eldest sonne was [b] Joel, and the name of the second, Abia, and they were iudges in Beer-seba.

[b] Who was also called Vashni.

3 And his sonnes [c] walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, & tooke bribes, and perverted the right.

[c] That is, they obserued not the matter, as iustice, righteousnesse, and feare of their father.

4 Then all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Rama,

5 And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: now * therefore make vs a king to iudge vs, as all other nations haue.

Osee.9.14. acts 13.21.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, whe they saide, Giue vs a king to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in al that they say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I shoulde not reigne ouer them.

8 And as they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt vnto this day, & haue forsaken me, and serued other gods: euen so doe they vnto thee.

9 Nowe therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, & shew them the maner of the king that shall reigne ouer them.

10 And Samuel told all the words of the Lorde vnto the people that asked a king of him:

11 And he said, This shall be [d] the maner of the king that shal reigne ouer you: He will take your sonnes, and put them to his charets, & make his horsemen of them, to runne before his charet, [d] Except it be of such kings as shall haue the feare of God before their eyes, and will follow his statutes and lawes, as Dauid, Salomõ, Ezechias, and Iosias.

12 And will make him of them captaines ouer thousands, and ouer fifties, and will set them to eare his ground, and to gather in his haruest, and to make instruments of warre, and things that serue for his charets.

13 And he will take your daughters, and make them Apoticaries, Cookes, & Bakers.

14 And he shall take your fields, and your vineyardes, and your best Olive trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he shal take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyardes, and giue to his Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And he shall take your men seruants, and maide seruantes, yong men, and the chiefe of your Asses, & put them to his worke.

17 And hee shall take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shalbe his seruants.

18 And ye shall crye out at that time, because of your king which ye shall haue chosen you, and the Lord will [c] not heare you at that day.

c Because you repent not for your sinnes.

19 Neuertheleſſe, the people would not heare ỹ voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, not so: but there shall be a king ouer vs, 20 That we may be like other nations, and that our king may iudge vs, and goe out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the words of the people, he rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lorde said to Samuel, Hearken vnto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel saide vnto the men of Israel, Goe euery man vnto his citie.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Saul seeking his fathers asses, by the counsell of his seruant goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophets called Seers.

THere was a man of Beniamin, named Cis, the sonne of [a] Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bechorah, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man that was a Jemmite, [b] mightie in power.

a This Abiel in the 2. Chr. 8. is called Hur.

b That is, both valiant and rich.

2 And the same had a sonne called Saul, a goodly young man, and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: from the shoulders vpward, he was higher then all the other people.

3 And the asses of this Cis, Sauls father were lost, and Cis sayde to Saul his sonne, Take one of the lads with thee, and arise, go and [c] seeke the asses.

c All these circumstances were meanes to serue vnto Gods prouidence, whereby Saul was made king.

4 And he went thorow mount Ephraim, and passed through the lande of Salisa, but they found them not: then they went thorow the land of Salim, and there they were not: when they went also through the land of Jemini, they found them not.

5 At the last when they were come to the land of [d] Zuph, Saul said to his lad that was with him, Come, let vs returne, lest my father leaue caring for the asses, and take thought for vs.

d Where was Ramath Nophim the citie of Samuel.

6 He saide vnto him, Behold, there is in this citie a man of God, and he is an honourable man, all that he saith, commeth surely to passe: Now then let vs goe thither, if so he can shew vs what way we may goe.

7 Then said Saul to his ladde, if we will goe, what shall we bring the man? for the ‖ bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no other present to bring the man of God: what haue we?

‖ Or, victuals.

8 And the lad answered Saul againe, & saide, Behold, I haue found about me the fourth part of a [e] sickle of siluer, that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

e Which is about fiue pence, Gen. 33.19.

9 (Before time in Israel, when a man went to seeke an answere of God, thus wise he spake, Come, and let vs goe to the [f] Seer: for he that is now called a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer.)

f Because he saw Gods will reuealed vnto him by his diuine spirit, and for ỹ he foresaw things to come.

10 Then saide Saul to his lad, Well sayd of thee, come, let vs goe. And so they went vnto the citie where the man of God was.

11 And as they went their way vp the hil to the citie, they mette with damosels that came out to draw water, & said vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And the maidens answered them, and said, Yea, behold he is before you, make haste nowe: for he came this day to the citie, for there is an [g] offering of the people this day in the high place.

g That is, a feast after the offering.

13 When ye be come into the citie, ye shall finde him straight way yer hee goe vp to the high place to eate: for the people will not eate vntill he come, because he doth [h] bleſſe the offering, and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: Now therefore, get you vp, for this day shall ye finde him.

h That is, giue thanks, and pronounce the meate to be sanctified in the custome.

14 And they went vp into the citie: and when they were come into the middes of the citie, behold, * Samuel came out against them, for to goe vp to the high place.

* 1. Reg. 15.1

15 * But the Lorde had told Samuel in his eare a day before Saul came, saying,

* Acts 13.21.

16 To morowe this time I will send thee a man out of the lande of Beniamin, him shalt thou anoint to be captaine ouer my people Israel, that he may saue my people out of the hands of the Philistines: for I haue looked [i] vpon my people, and their [k] crye is come vnto me.

i That is, by reason of the affliction, and oppression they suffer.

k Meaning, that they lacke help and deliuerance of vs.

17 When Samuel therefore saw Saul, the Lorde answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, this same shall raigne ouer my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the mids of the gate, and saide, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is?

19 Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: goe vp before me vnto the high place, for ye shall eate with me to day, and to morowe I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine [l] heart.

l That is, vpon what matter it is thine heart so much.

20 And as for thine Asses that were lost three dayes agoe, care not for them, for they are found: And [m] whose shall the beautifull things of Israel be? belong they not to thee, and vnto all thy fathers house?

m Why doth Saul make so much of his kingdome?

21 But Saul answered, and saide, Am not I the sonne of Jemini, of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my kinred is the least of all the kinreds of the tribe of Beniamin? Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his lad, and brought them into the [n] parlar, & made them sitte in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were vpon a thirtie persons.

n Where the feast was.

23 And Samuel sayde vnto the Cooke, Bring foorth the portion which I gaue thee, and of which I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee.

o That is, the shoulder and the breast, which ỹ priest had for his portion in all peace offerings. Leui. 7.

24 And the Cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was [o] vpon it, and set it before Saul, and Samuel saide, Behold, that which which is left, put it before thee, and eate: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I called the people. And so Saul did eate with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the citie, Samuel communed with Saul vpon the top of the house.

26 And when they arose early about the dying of the day, Samuel called Saul vpon the toppe of the house, saying, Vp, that I may sende thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both he and Samuel.

27 And when they were come almost out of the towne, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the ladde goe before vs (and hee went before) but stand thou stil a while, that I may shew thee the [r] word of God.

p That doth by the assembling of the people, and by the oracle preserued for that, thou mightest vnderstand that I knew of the comming.
q For after the maner, it was fit, that men might walke together vpon it.
r That is, Gods commandement as concerning this.

The x. Chapter.

6 Saul is anoynted king by Samuel. 19 Samuel assembleth the people, and sheweth them their sinnes.

THen Samuel tooke a vessel of [a] oyle, and powred it vpon his head, and kissed him, and sayde, * Hath not the Lorde anoynted thee to be captaine ouer his inheritance?

2 When thou art departed from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by [b] Rahels sepulchre in the border of Beniamin, euen at Zelzah: and they will say vnto thee, The Asses which thou wentest to seeke, are founde: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the Asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my sonne?

3 Then shalt thou goe forth from thence, and shalt come to the ‖ plaine of Thabor, and there shall meete thee three men, going vp to God to Bethel, one carying three kids, and another carying three loaues of bread, and another carying a bottel of wine.

4 And they wil ‡ salute thee, and giue thee two loaues of bread, which thou shalt receiue of their hands.

5 After that shalt thou come to the [d] hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the citie, thou shalt meete a company of Prophets comming downe from the high place, with a psalter, timbrel, a pipe, and a harpe before them, and they shall prophecie.

6 And the spirite of the Lord wil come vpon thee also, & thou shalt prophecy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 Therefore when these signes are come vnto thee, doe what thou hast to doe, for God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt goe downe before me to Gilgal, and I also wil come down vnto thee, to sacrifice whole burnt sacrifices, and to offer peace offerings, tary for me seuen dayes, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt doe.

9 And when he had turned his ‡ backe to goe from Samuel, God gaue him another [e] heart, and all those tokens came to passe that same day.

10 And when they came thither to the hil, beholde, the company of the prophets mette him, and the spirite of God came vpon him, and he [f] prophecied among them.

11 And all that knewe him before, when they sawe that he prophecied among the prophets, they said eche to other, what is this that is come vnto the sonne of Cis? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered & said, who is their [g] father? And therof came the prouerbe, Is Saul also among the [h] prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophecying, he came to the high place.

14 And Sauls vncle said vnto him, and to his ladde, Whither went ye? He saide, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you?

16 Saul said vnto his vncle, He told vs plainly that the asses were found. But of the kingdome whereof Samuel spake, told he him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together vnto the Lord to Mizpah,

18 And saide vnto the children of Israel, Thus said the Lord God of Israel, I brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hands of all kingdoms that troubled you.

19 And ye haue this day cast away your God, who only deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: & ye haue said vnto him, No, but make a king ouer vs. Now therefore, stande ye before the Lorde by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had assembled together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was [i] taken.

21 When hee had assembled together the tribe of Beniamin by their kinreds, the kinred of Matri was caught, and at the last, Saul the sonne of Cis was caught: and whe they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked the Lord further, if the man should yet come thither? And the Lord answered, Beholde, [k] he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe.

23 And they ran and fet him thence, and when he stoode among the people, he was higher then any of the people from the shoulders vpward.

24 And Samuel said to al the people, See ye not him whom the Lord hath chosen, and how there is none like him among al the people? And all the people showted, and saide, * God ‡ saue the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and laid it vp before the Lord, and sent all the people away, euery man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibea, and there followed him a bande of men,

The xi. Chapter.

1 Nahas the Ammonite warreth against Iabes Gilead, who asketh helpe of the Israelites. 6 Saul promiseth helpe. 11 The Ammonites are slaine. 14 The kingdome is renewed.

THen a Nahas the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabes in Gilead: and all the men of Iabes sayde vnto Nahas, Make a couenant with vs, and we will be thy seruants.

a For feare of whom Israel chose a king, as they did 12.12.

2 And Nahas the Ammonite answered them, In this will I make a couenant with you, if I may b thrust out all your right eies, and bring that shame vpon all Israel.

b No reasonable condition can satisfie a tyrant, and therfore Gods wrath is not farre frō him.

3 To whom the elders of Iabes said, Giue vs seuen dayes respite, that we may sende messengers vnto all the coasts of Israel: and then if there be no man to deliuer vs, we will come out to thee.

4 Then came the messengers to Gibea of Saul, and tolde this tidings in the eares of the people: and al the people lift vp their voyces, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came following the cattel out of the field, and Saul said, What aileth this people that they weepe? And they tolde him the tidings of the men of Iabes.

c God gaue him the spirite of strength and courage to goe against this tyrant.

6 And the spirit of God c came vpō Saul, when he heard those tydings, and he was exceeding angry,

7 And tooke a yoke of Oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them thorowout all the coastes of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoeuer commeth not forth after d Saul and after Samuel, so shall his oxen be serued. And the feare of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out ‡ with one consent.

d Ye see how Samuel ioyneth him for more authoritie, for he himselfe was not yet approued of all.

‡ Heb. as one man.

8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men, and the men of Iuda thirty thousand.

e Meaning, Saul and Samuel.

9 And e they sayde vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabes in Gilead, To morowe by that time the sunne be hote, ye shall haue helpe. And the messengers came, and shewed it to the men of Iabes, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Iabes saide, To morow we will come f out vnto you, and ye shal doe with vs all that pleaseth you.

f That is, to the Ammonites, dissembling that they had hope of ayde.

11 And on the morow Saul put the people in three parts, and they came in vpon the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: and they that remayned, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

g By this victorie, the Lord wonne the hearts of the people to Saul.

12 And the people sayde vnto Samuel, g Who is he that sayde, Shal Saul raigne ouer vs? bring those men, that we may slay them.

13 And Saul saide, There shall no man h die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel.

h He wisely beginneth his kingdome with clemencie, as a vertue meete for a prince.

14 Then saide Samuel vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdome there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul king there before the Lorde in Gilgal, and there they offred i peace offrings before the Lorde: and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

i In signe of thankesgiuing for victorie.

The xij. Chapter.

1 Samuel declaring to the people his integritie, reproueth their ingratitude.

ANd Samuel sayde vnto all Israel, Beholde, I haue a hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye said vnto me, and haue made a king ouer you:

a I haue granted your petition.

2 Nowe therefore your king walketh before b you: and I am old and gray headed, and behold my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childhoode vnto this day.

d God would that this confession should be a patern for all them that beare any office.

4 They said, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

5 He said vnto them againe, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his anoynted is witnes this day, that ye haue found nought in my hands. And they answered, He is witnesse.

6 And Samuel said vnto the people, It is the Lord that c made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the lande of Egypt.

c That is, ordained them, and endued them with giftes to be rulers in their room.

7 Now therefore stand stil, that I may reason with you before the Lord, according to al the ‖ righteousnesses of the Lord, which he shewed both you and your fathers.

f That is, captaine of Iabins hoste, king of Iuda.

10 And they cried vnto the Lord, and said, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Astaroth: nowe therefore deliuer vs out of the hands of our enemies, g we will serue thee.

11 And

11 And the Lord sent Jerobaal, [g] Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euery side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And for all that, when you saw that Nahas the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said vnto me, Not so, but a king shal reign ouer vs, when yet the Lord your God was your king.

13 Now therefore, behold the king whom ye haue chosen, and whome ye haue desired: loe, the Lord hath set a king ouer you.

14 If ye will feare the Lorde, and serue him, and heare his voyce, and not disobey the worde of the Lorde, both ye and the king that reigneth ouer you, shal [h] follow the Lord your God.

15 If ye will not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, but disobey the Lordes mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be vpon you, and on [i] your fathers.

16 Now also stande, and see this great thing which the Lorde will doe before your eyes.

17 Is it not now wheate haruest? I will call vnto the Lorde, and he shall sende thunder and raine, that yee may perceiue, and see howe that your wickednes is [k] great which yee haue done in the sight of the Lorde in asking you a king.

18 And so Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder & raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people sayde vnto Samuel, Pray for the seruaunts vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for wee haue sinned in asking vs a king, beside all our other sinnes.

20 And Samuel sayde vnto the people, Feare not: (yee haue in deede done all this wickednesse, yet [l] depart not from following of the Lord, but serue the Lord with all your hearts:

21 Neither turne ye away, for then ye go after vaine things, which are not able to profite you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie.)

22 For the Lord will not forsake his people, because of his great names sake: because it hath pleased the Lorde to make you [m] his people.

23 Moreouer, God forbid that I should sinne against the Lorde, and cease praying for you: but I will shewe you the good and right way.

24 Therefore feare you the Lorde, and serue him in the trueth, and with all your [n] hearte: and consider howe great thinges he hath done for you.

25 But if ye doe wickedly, then shal ye perish, both ye, and your king.

The xiij. Chapter.

13 Saul being disobedient to Gods commandement, is shewed of Samuel that he shal not raigne.

SAul * nowe had bene ‖ king one yeere, (and hee raigned two yeres ouer Israel.)

2 And Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel, two thousand were with Saul in Michmas, & in mount Bethel, & a thousand with Jonathan in Gibea Beniamin: & the rest of ỹ people he sent euery man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistines that was in the [b] hil, and it came to the Philistines eares: and Saul blew the [c] trumpet throughout all the lande, saying, Let the Hebrewes heare.

4 And all Israel heard say, howe that Saul had destroyed a garison of the Philistines, wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines: And the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 The Philistines also gathered themselues together, to fight with Israel, thirtie thousand charets, and sixe thousande horsemen, with other people like the sand by the sea side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmas, Eastward from [d] Bethauen.

6 And when the men of Israel sawe it, they were in a straite (for the people were in a distresse) and the people hid themselues in caues, and in holes, and in rockes, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrewes went ouer Jordane, to goe vnto the land of [e] Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people being afraid, followed him.

8 And hee taried seuen dayes, euen vnto the time that Samuel had appoynted: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were therefore [f] scattered from him.

15 And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal [k] in Gibea of Beniamin, & Saul numbred the people that were found with him, and they were about a a fyre hundred men.

k And went to his citie Ramath.

16 And Saul and Ionathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibea of Beniamin: but the Philistines pitched in Michmas.

17 And there came out of the hoste of the Philistines, three companies, to destroy: one companie turned vnto the way that leadeth to Ophra, vnto the land of Saul:

18 And another company turned the way to Bethoron: and the third companie turned to that way of the coast that is seen aboue the valley of Zeboim toward the wildernes.

19 There was no Smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Least the Hebrewes make them swords or speares.

20 But all the Israelites went downe to the Philistins, to mend euery man his share, his mattocke, his axe, and weeding hooke.

21 Yet they had a fyle for the shares, for the mattocks, for the pickforkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goades.

3 *And Ahia the sonne of Ahitob Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehes the son of Eli, was the Lords Priest [b] in Silo, and ware an Ephod: and the people wist not that Ionathan was gone.

b For the priesthode was not yet taken away from the house of Eli: but continued vntill the time of Zadok.

4 And in the middes of the passage, by which Ionathan sought to go ouer vnto the Philistines garison, there was a sharpe rock on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the one called Bozez, and the other Senes:

5 The forefront of the one leaned Northward toward Michmas, and the other was Southward toward Gibea.

6 And Ionathan saide to the young man that bare his harnesse, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised it may be that the Lorde wil worke with vs: *for it is ‖ no hardnesse with the Lord to saue either in many or in fewe. 2. Chron. 14. 11.

8 Then saide Ionathan, Behold, we goe ouer vnto these men, & shall shew our selues vnto them.

9 If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntil we come to you: then we wil stand still in our place, and not goe vp vnto them.

10 And if they say, Come vp vnto vs: then we will go vp, for the Lorde hath [c] deliuered them into our hands: and this shalbe a signe vnto vs.

c This ful learned neither at diuiners nor sothsayers: but at the spirite of God, confirming his hope by signes prescribed by the same spirit.

11 And they both shewed themselues vnto the garison of the Philistins: and the Philistines said, See, the Hebrewes come out of the [d] holes where they had hid them selues in.

d This they spake contemptuously, and by derision.

12 And the men of the garison answered Ionathan and his harnesse bearer, and said, Come vp to vs, and we wil shew you a thing. And Ionathan saide vnto his harnesse bearer, Come vp after me, for the Lorde hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Ionathan climed vp vpon hands and feete, and his harnesse bearer after him: and they fell before Ionathan, and his harnesse bearer slew them after him.

e Because of the slipperie of the rocke where they did clime vp.

14 And that first slaughter which Ionathan and his harnesse bearer made, was vpon a twentie men, within the compasse as it were about an halfe acre of land, whith two oxen plowe.

15 And there was a feare in the hoste in the field, and among all the people: insomuch that they that were gone out of the garison to rob, were afraid also, and the [f] earth trembled for the feare that was sent of God.

f It is an hyperbolicall speech, whereby is signified that the feare which God sent vpon the host of the Philistines, was exceding great.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibea Beniamin sawe: and beholde, the multitude were discomfited, and were smitten as they went.

17 Then said Saul vnto the people that was with him, Search and see who is gone away from vs. And when they had nombred, behold, Ionathan and his harnesse bearer were not there.

18 And Saul saide vnto Ahia, Bring hither the [g] Arke of God. (For the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)

21 Moreouer, the Hebrewes that were with the Philistines before that time, and were come with them into all partes of the hoste, turned to bee with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 And all the men of Israel also which had hid themselues in mount Ephraim, as soone as they heard howe that the Philistines were fled, they followed after them in the battell.

23 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Bethauen.

24 And when the men of Israel were kept downe with hunger that day, Saul charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food vntil night, til I be auenged of mine enemies. And so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, where honie lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, and beholde, the honie dropped, and no man mooued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the [k] oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath, wherefore hee put forth the ende of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it on an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his [l] eyes receiued light.

28 Then answered one of the people, and sayde, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed bee the man that eateth any sustenance this day: And the people were ‖faint.

29 Then sayde Jonathan, My father hath [m] troubled the lande: see howe mine eyes haue receiued light, because I tasted a little of this hony:

30 Howe much more then to day, if the people had eaten of the spoyle of their enemies which they found? And had there not bene then a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmas to Aialon: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 And the people gate them to the spoyle, and tooke sheepe, oxen, and calues, and slewe them on the ground, and the people did eate them with the blood.

33 Then men tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eate with the blood. And he sayde, [n] Yee haue trespalled: rowle a [n] great stone vnto me this day.

34 And Saul sayde againe, Goe abroad among the people, and bid them bring mee euery man his oxe, & euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, & eat, & sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hand that night, and slewe them there.

35 And Saul made an altar vnto the Lord: and that was the ‖ first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

36 And Saul said, Let vs goe downe after the Philistines by night, and spoyle them vntil it be day in the morning, and let vs not leaue one man of them. And they said, Doe whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then sayde the Priest, Let vs [o] come hither vnto God.

37 And Saul asked of God, Shall I goe downe after the Philistines? wilt thou deliuer them into the handes of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 And Saul said, Let all the [p] chief of the people come hither, and know & see by whom this sinne is done this day.

39 For as the Lorde liueth, which saued Israel, though it be in Jonathan my sonne, hee shall die the death. But there was no man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, what thou thinkest best, that do.

41 Therefore Saul said vnto the Lorde God of Israel, Giue a [p] perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were caught: but the people escaped free.

42 And Saul said, Cast lot betweene me & Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was caught.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan then told him, and said, I tasted a little honie with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and loe, I [q] must die.

44 Saul answered, God doe so, and more also to me, thou shalt die ϸ death, Jonathan.

45 And the people said vnto Saul, Shal Jonathan die, which hath so mightily deliuered Israel? [r] God forbid: as the Lord liueth, there shal not one haire of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. And so the people deliuered Jonathan, that he died not.

46 And then Saul departed vp from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their owne place.

47 And so Saul held the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against al his enemies on euery side, against Moab, against the children of Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of Zoba, and against the Philistines: & whither soeuer he turned himselfe, he put them to the worst.

48 And he gathered his hoste together, & smote the [s] Amalekites, and rid Israel out of the hands of them that spoyled them.

49 The sonnes of Saul were, Jonathan, [t] Iesui, and Melchisua, and his two daughters were thus named, the elder was called Merob, and the yonger [u] Michol.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoa, the daughter of Ahimaaz, & the name of his chiefe captaine, was Abner, the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

10 Then came the word of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying,

14 Samuel sayde, What meaneth then the bleating of the Sheepe in mine eares, and the lowing of the Oxen which I heare?

15 Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen, to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed vtterly.

16 Samuel sayde, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath sayd to me this night. And hee said vnto him, Say on.

25 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, take away my [m] sinne, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord.

m This was not true repentance, but dissimulation, fearing the losse of his kingdome.

26 And Samuel saide vnto Saul, I will not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the worde of the Lorde, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not bee king ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned himselfe to goe away, he caught the lap of his coate, and it rent.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 Samuel is reproued of God, and is sent to anoynt Dauid. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The spirit of the Lord commeth vpon Dauid.

THe Lord sayde vnto Samuel, Howe long wilt thou mourne for Saul, a seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? Fill thine b horne with oyle, and come, that I may send thee to Isai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided me a king among his sonnes.

2 And Samuel sayd, How can I goe? for if Saul heare it, he wil kil me. The Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, c and say, I am come to offer to the Lord.

3 And call Isai to the offering, and I will shewe thee what thou shalt doe: and thou shalt anoynt vnto me d him whome I name vnto thee.

4 And so Samuel did as the Lorde bade him, and came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the towne were e astonied at his cõming, and sayd, Commest thou peaceably?

5 Hee answered, Yea, I am come to offer vnto the Lorde: sanctifie your selues, & come with mee to the offering. And hee sanctified Isai, and his sonnes, and bade them to the offering.

6 And when they were come, hee looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lords f anointed is before him.

7 But the Lorde sayde vnto Samuel, Looke not on his fashion, or on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth. For * man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

8 Then Isai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel: and he sayd, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Isai made Shamma come: and he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10 Againe Isai made seuen of his sonnes to come before Samuel, and Samuel sayde vnto Isai, The Lorde hath chosen none of these.

11 And Samuel sayd vnto Isai, Are here all thy children? Hee sayde, There is yet a litle one behinde, that keepeth the g sheepe. And Samuel sayde vnto Isai, * Sende, and fetch him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither.

12 And he sent, & brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of an excellent beautie, and well fauoured in sight. And the Lorde sayde, Arise, and anoynt him: for this is he.

13 Therefore Samuel tooke the horne of oyle, and anoynted him in the middes of his brethren: and the h spirit of the Lord * came vpon Dauid from that day forward i and Samuel rose vp, and went to Rama.

14 But the spirit of the Lorde departed from Saul, and an euill spirite sent of the j Lord vexed him.

15 And Sauls seruants sayde vnto him, Beholde, an euill spirite sent of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lord therefore command thy seruants (that are before thee) to seeke a man that is a cunning player with an harpe: that when the euill spirite of God commeth vpon thee, hee may play with his hand, and thou shalt be eased.

17 Saul said vnto his seruants, Prouide me a man then, that can play wel, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his seruants, and said, Behold, I haue seene a sonne of Isai the Bethlehemite, that can play vpon instruments, and is strong, valiant, and a man of warre, and prudent in doing of feates, and well made, and the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Isai, and sayd, Send me Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe.

20 And Isai tooke an Asse laden with bread, and a flagon of wine, and a kid, & sent them by Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

7 And the shaft of his speare was like a weauers beame, & his speares head weighed fiue hundred sicles of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stoode and cried against the hoste of Israel, and sayde vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in aray? am not I a Philistine, and you seruants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

9 And if he be able to fight with mee, and to ‖ kill mee, then will we bee your seruants: but if I can ouercome him, and kil him, then shall ye be our seruants, and serue vs.

‖ Or, smite.

10 And the Philistine said, I defie the host of Israel this day, giue me a man, that we may fight ‖ together.

‖ Or, hand to hand.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly [d] afraid.

d For the spirit of courage and right handling of matters was taken away from Saul.

12 Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite, of Bethlehem Iuda, named Isai, which had eight sonnes: and this ‖ man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saul.

‖ Or, he was counted among them that bare office.

13 And the three eldest sonnes of Isai went, and followed Saul to the battell: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell, were Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the third Samma:

14 And Dauid was the least: and the three eldest went after Saul.

e The three eldest sonnes of Isai are taken forth as valiant men with Saul to warre: but Dauid as vnable, is left to keepe sheep.

15 Dauid also went, and departed from Saul, to [e] feede his fathers sheepe at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine came forth in the morning and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

f Isai by this message meaneth to relieue the necessitie of his sonnes: But God worketh therby the deliuerance of his people.

17 And Isai said vnto Dauid his sonne, [f] Take for thy brethren an Epha of this parched corne, and these ten loaues, and runne to the hoste to thy brethen, 18 And cary these ten fresh cheeses vnto the captaine, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and fet out their pledge.

19 And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And Dauid rose vp earely in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Isai had cõmanded him, and came within the compasse of the hoste: and the hoste went out in aray, and shouted in the battell.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put themselues in aray, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the things which hee bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the vessels, and ranne into the hoste, and came, and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, beholde, there stood a man in the middes (Goliath the Philistine by name, of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistines, and spake [g] such words: and Dauid heard it.

g As we are bone reuerend, heard.

24 And al the people of Israel when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afrayd.

25 And euery man of Israel sayd, Sawe yee not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come: and to him that killeth him, will the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter thereto, yea, and make his fathers house [h] free in Israel.

h From tax and payment.

26 And Dauid spake to the men that stood by, and sayde, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the shame from Israel? and what is this vncircumcised Philistine, that hee should reuile the hoste of the liuing God?

27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was angry with Dauid, and sayde, Why camest thou downe hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheepe in the wildernesse? I know thy pride, & the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29 And Dauid sayde, And what haue I nowe done? is there not a [i] cause?

i For by cause of his father's commandement, and yet also moued by Gods spirit to take that enterprise against Goliah.

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner: and the people answered him againe as before.

31 And they that heard the words which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saul: which caused him to be fet.

32 And Dauid sayde to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him because of him: thy seruant will goe, and fight with yonder Philistine.

k Dauid shewed to performe the worke of God, and motion of his spirit to attempt by a miracle of Satan, the enmie of his brother, and the infidelitie of Saul.

33 And Saul sayde to Dauid againe, Thou art [k] not able to goe against yonder Philistine, to fight with him: for thou art but a childe, but he is a man of warre, euen from his youth.

34 Dauid

34 Dauid answered vnto Saul, Thy seruant kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a Lion, and likewise a Beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, & tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against mee, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slewe him.

36 And so thy seruant slew both the Lion and the Beare: & truely this vncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing hee hath railed on the hoste of the liuing God.

37 And Dauid spake moreouer, The Lord that deliuered me out of the hand of the lion, and out of the hand of the Beare, he shal deliuer mee also out of the hande of this Philistine. And Saul sayd vnto Dauid, Goe, and the Lord be with thee.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, & put an helmet of braſſe vpon his head, and put a coate of male vpon him,

39 And girded Dauid with his owne swoorde vpon his rayment, and hee assayed to goe: and because he had neuer proued it, Dauid said vnto Saul, I can not go with these: for I haue not vsed my selfe thereto. And Dauid put them off him, 40 And tooke his staffe in his hande, and chose him fiue smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in a shepheards bagge which hee had, that is, in a scrippe, and his sling was in his hande, and hee went to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came & drew neere against Dauid, and the man that bare the shield, went before him.

42 And whē the Philistine looked about, & sawe Dauid, he disdained him: for he was but yong, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistine sayde vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou comest to me with staues? And the Philistine cursed Dauid in the name of his gods.

44 And the Philistine sayde to Dauid, Come to mee, and I will giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beasts of the fielde.

45 Then sayde Dauid to the Philistine, Thou commest to me with a sword, a speare, and a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lorde of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israel, whom thou hast railed vpon.

46 This day shal the Lord close thee into my hand, & I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and will giue the carkeises of the hoste of the Philistines this day vnto the foules of the ayre, & to the beasts of the earth, that all they which bee in the worlde, may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this congregation shall know that the Lorde saueth not with swoorde and speare (for the battell is the Lordes) and hee shall giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistine arose to come and draw nigh to Dauid, Dauid hasted, and ranne to fight against the Philistine.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bagge, and tooke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunke into his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth.

50 So Dauid ouercame the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slewe him, when Dauid had no sword in his hand. 1. Mach. 4. 30.

51 But Dauid ranne and stood vpon the Philistine, and tooke his swoorde, and drewe it out of his sheath, and slewe him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines sawe that their Champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel, and of Iuda, arose, and shouted, & followed after the Philistines, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Acaron: & the Philistines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim, euen vnto Gath and Acaron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and spoyled their tents.

54 And Dauid tooke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Hierusalem, but he put his armoure in his ‖ tent. ‖ Or, house

55 When Saul sawe Dauid goe forth against the Philistine, he said vnto Abner the captaine of the hoste, Abner, whose sonne is this yong man? Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, O king, I can not tell. at Bethlehem.

56 And the king sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne the yongling is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner tooke him, and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul sayde to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruaunt Isai, the Bethlehemite.

The xviij. Chapter.

3 The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid. 11 Saul would haue slaine Dauid. 29 Saul feareth Dauid, seeing that the Lord is with him.

AND when he had made an ende of speaking vnto Saul, the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathan loued him as his owne soule.

2 And Saul tooke him that day, and would let him goe no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathan and Dauid made a couenant, because he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathan put off the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it to Dauid, and his garments, euen to his swoorde, and to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whither so euer Saul sent him, & behaued himselfe wisely: and Saul set him ouer his men of warre, and and he was accepted in the sight of al the people, and in the sight of Sauls seruants.

6 And as they came againe, when Dauid was returned from ẏ slaughter of the e Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and daunceing, to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with ioy, and with instruments of musicke.

e To wit, Goliath.

7 And the women d answered one another in their play, and said, Saul hath slaine his thousande, and Dauid his tenne thousande.

d In their songs, Chap. 21.47.

8 And Saul was exceeding e wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayd, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, and to me but a thousand: and what can he more haue, saue the kingdome?

e Dauid receiueth for his vertues and goodqualities, of Ionathan, loue & friendship, of Saul, hatred, and displeasure: there be in ẏ worlde mo Sauls thẏ Jonathans.

9 Wherefore Saul had an eye on Dauid, from that day forward.

10 And on the morow the euill spirit sent of God, came vpon Saul, and he f prophecied in the mids of the house: and Dauid played with his hande, like as at other times: and there was a iauelin in Sauls hand.

f By abuse of the word, they are sometime said to prophecie, which as madde men speake things that haue neither sense nor reason in thẏ.

11 And Saul tooke the iauelin, and said, I will nayle Dauid to the wall with it: And Dauid auoyded out of his presence, two times.

12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, because the Lorde was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, & made him a g captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before the people.

g Not for his preferment, which ẏe enuied: but ẏ pompe of that destruction that warre is wont to bring to many.

14 And Dauid behaued himselfe wisely in all his wayes, & the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore, when Saul sawe that hee was so exceeding wise, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel & Juda loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 And Saul said to Dauid, Behold my eldest daughter Merob, her will I giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, & fight the Lords battels: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be vpō him, but ẏ hand of the Philistines shall be vpon him.

18 And Dauid answered Saul, what am I? and what is my life, or the kinred of my father in Israel, that I should bee sonne in law to the king?

19 Howbeit when the time was come, that Merob Sauls daughter shoulde haue bene giuen to Dauid, shee was giuen vnto h Adriel, a Meholathite, to wife.

h To whome she bare fiue sonnes, which Dauid put to death, at the request of the Gibeonites, 2 Sam. 21.

20 Howbeit Michol Sauls daughter, loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul saide, I wil i giue him her, that shee may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul sayd to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in law in the one of the twaine.

i By his hypocrisie appeareth: for vnder pretence of fauour, he seeketh his destruction.

22 And Saul commaunded his seruants to commune with Dauid secretly, & to say, Beholde, the king hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the kings sonne in law.

23 And Sauls seruāts spake those words in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to bee a kings sonne in law, seeing that I am a poore man, and of small reputation?

23 And the seruants brought Saul word againe, saying, Of this maner spake Dauid.

25 And Saul said, This wise shall ye say to Dauid, The king careth for no other dowrie, but for an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines, to be auenged of the kings enemies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruants tolde Dauid these words, k it pleased Dauid wel to be the kings sonne in law: and the dayes were not expired.

k Meruelously though ẏe loue of a true friend doth couple the kings wyll.

Afterwarde, Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistines two hundred men, and Dauid brought their foreskinnes, and l they gaue them wholy to the king, that he might be the kings sonne in law: wherefore Saul gaue him Michol his daughter to wife.

l Speaking, Dauid and his followers.

28 * And Saul sawe, and vnderstood how that the Lorde was with Dauid, and that Michol his daughter loued him:

* 2. Re. 3. 14

29 And he was the more m afraide of Dauid, & Saul became alway Dauids enemie.

m Read ẏe second booke of his kingdome.

30 The lordes of the Philistines vsed to goe forth: and when they went forth, Dauid behaued himselfe more wisely then all the seruantes of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

The xix. Chapter.

2 Ionathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 23 The spirit of prophecie commeth on Saul.

Saul spake to Jonathā his sonne and to al his seruants, that they should a kill Dauid.

a By vnder the pretence and fauour of ẏe kyng he seeketh his destruction.

2 But Jonathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Dauid, and Jonathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: Now therefore I pray thee, take heede to thy selfe vntil the morning, and abide in some secret place, and hide thy selfe:

3 And I will goe out and stand by my father in the fielde where thou art, & will commune with my father of thee, and whatsoeuer I see, I will tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him, Let not the king sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for hee hath not sinned against thee, and his workes haue bene to thee ward very good.

5 For he did put his life in * his hand, and slewe the Philistine, and the Lord brought to passe a great health for al Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slaye Dauid without a cause?

* An Hebrewe phrase, whereby is meant, he put his life in danger.

6 And Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of of Jonathan, & Saul [b] sware, As the Lorde liueth, he shall not die.

b Being perswaded & pacified by the oth sworne by Jonathans iniection.

7 And Jonathan called Dauid, and Jonathan shewed him all those words: and Jonathan brought Dauid to Saul, & he was in his [c] presence as in times past.

c That is, he served him.

8 And the warre began againe, and Dauid went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slewe them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

9 And the euill spirite of the Lorde was vpon Saul, as he sate in his house, hauing a iauelin in his hand: and Dauid [d] played with his hand.

d By his harp, & meditating the ease of the euill spirit, as chap. 16.

10 And Saul entended to smite Dauid to the wall with the iauelin: but he rid himselfe out of Saules presence, & he smote the speare into the wall: And Dauid fled, & was saued the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michol Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt bee slaine.

e Herein being the duetie of a faithful wife toward her husband.

12 And so Michol [e] let Dauid downe thorow a window: and he went, and fled, and and was saued.

13 And Michol tooke an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillowe stuffed with Goates haire vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to fetch Dauid, she saide, He is sicke.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see Dauid, saying, Bring him to me bed and all, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde, there laie an image in the bed with a pillowe of Goates haire vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul saide vnto Michol, why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? Michol answered Saul, For he said vnto me, Let me go, or else I will kill thee.

18 And so Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Rama, and tolde him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in [f] Naioth.

f It was a schoole where Gods laire was studied & taught, neere to Rama.

19 And one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Rama.

20 And Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid: and when they saw a company of Prophetes prophecying, and Samuel standing as [g] appointed ouer them, the spirite of God fel vpon the messengers of Saul, & they [h] prophecied too.

g For he was their teacher, & ruler of that schoole.
h They sang Psalmes with the Prophets, & inuited God, hauing off to finde other Dauid.

21 And when it was told Saul, hee sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: and Saul sent messengers yet againe the third time, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he himselfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked, and saide, where are Samuel and Dauid? And one saide, Behold, they bee at Naioth in Rama.

23 And he went thither, euen to Naioth in Rama: and the spirite of God [i] came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntill he came to Naioth in Rama.

i That Dauid might the better by that meanes escape his hand.

24 And he stript off his clothes, & prophecied before Samuel in like manner, and fell naked al that day and all that night: & therefore it is that they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

k Saul is said to fall naked, for so much as he put off his kingly apparel, and put on such as the prophets vsed to weare in time of prophecying, 2. Reg. 6. 20.

The xx Chapter.

2 Ionathan comforted Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul woulde haue killed Ionathan. 38 Ionathan aduertiseth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers furie.

AND Dauid fled from Naioth, which is in Rama, and came & saide before Jonathan, What haue I done? wherein am I faultie? what is the sinne that I haue committed before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 He said vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will doe nothing either great or small, but that he will [*] shewe it me: and howe should my father hide this thing from me? he will not doe it.

*Heb. reueale it in mine eares.

3 And Dauid sware againe, and saide, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes, and therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not knowe it, least hee be sorie: and in very deede, euen as the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a [a] steppe betweene me and death.

a That is, I am in great danger of death.

4 Then saide Jonathan vnto Dauid, whatsoeuer thy soule [*] desireth, that I will doe vnto thee.

*Heb. saith.

5 And Dauid saide vnto Jonathan, Behold, to morow is the [b] beginning of the moneth, and I should sit with the king at meat: but let mee goe, that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the third day at Euen.

b And therefore a solemn feast, & solemn sacrifices belonging thereto.

6 If thy father speake of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of mee that hee might goe to Bethlehem to his owne citie: for there is holden a yeerely feast for all the kinred.

7 And if he say, It is well done, then thy seruant shal haue peace: but if he be angry, then be sure that wickednesse is vtterly concluded of him.

8 And then thou shalt shew mercie vnto thy seruant, [*] for thou hast [c] couenanted thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thy selfe: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

*1. Sa. 18. 3.
c Because it consisted in all godly & honest matters, & for that it was confirmed of both parties by an othe in the name of the Lord.

9 And Jonathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednes were [d] concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee?

d That you were fully determined to kill thee.

10 Then said Dauid to Jonathan, Who shall tel me? howe shall I know if thy father answere thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan saide vnto Dauid, Come, and let vs goe out into the fielde. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan saide vnto Dauid, O Lorde God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde, at this time to morow, or within these three daies, & if it be well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shew it thee:

c That is, the Lord punish me most grieuously.

13 The Lord doe so c and much more to Jonathan: but if my father haue pleasure to doe thee euill, I will shew thee also, and send thee away: that thou maiest goe in peace, & the Lord be with thee, as he hath bene with my father.

14 And I require not whiles I liue, for I doubt not but thou wilt shew mee the mercie of the Lord, that I die not:

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy mercie from my house for euer, no not when the Lorde hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid euery one from the face of the earth.

16 And so Jonathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, saying, Let the Lorde require it at the handes of Dauids enemies.

17 And Jonathan sware againe vnto Dauid, because hee loued him: for he loued him as his owne soule.

18 Then said Jonathan to Dauid, To morow is the first day of the moone: & thou shalt bee ‖ missed, because the place where thou wast wont to sit, shalbe emptie.

‖ Or, mentioned.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe three daies, then thou shalt goe downe quickly, and come to the place where thou diddest hide thy selfe when the businesse was in hande, and shalt remaine by the stone ‡ Ezel.

‡ Heb. of the waye, because it serued as a signe to shew the way.

20 And I will shoote three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot them at a marke.

21 And I will send a lad, and bid him goe seeke the arrowes. And if I say vnto the lad, See, ỹ arrowes are on this side thee, bring them: then come thou, for it is peace and no hurt, as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I say vnto the lad, Behold, the arrowes are beyond thee: goe thy way, for the f Lord hath sent thee away.

f Vsing me as his instrumẽt to giue thee warning to make away.

23 And as touching this which thou and I haue spoken, behold, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 And so Dauid hid himselfe in the field: And when the new Moone was come, the king sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And the king sate as at other times, vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wal: and Jonathan arose, & Abner sate by Saulls side, and Dauids place was emptie.

26 Neuertheless, Saul saide nothing at g Yet he might haue some businesse to let him. all that day: for he thought, some thing hath befallen him, & though he were cleane: or else because he was not purified.

27 But on the morow, which was the second day of the new Moone, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Jonathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of h Jsai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

h He calleth him the sonne of Jsai, by contempt and disdaine.

28 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid asked licence of me to go to Bethleh.

29 For hee saide, Let me goe, I pray thee, for our kinred doth hold an offering in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me, & therefore if I haue found fauour in thine eies, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren: This is the cause that he commeth not vnto the kings table.

30 Then Saul was angrye with Jonathan, and said vnto him, Thou i sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, doe not I knowe that thou hast chosen the sonne of Jsai vnto thine owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke & shame of thy mother?

i Thou hilding as the manner of the wicked is, which abuse me.

31 For as long as the sonne of Jsai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not bee stablished, nor yet thy kingdome: wherefore now sende and fetch him vnto me, for he is the child k of death.

k Ben Hebuth pheth, that is, a man, or he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shal he dye? what hath he done?

33 And Saul lift vp a speare to hit him, whereby Jonathan wist wel ỹ it was vtterly determined of his father to slay Dauid.

34 And so Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate ỹ second day of ỹ moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, because his father had done him shame.

35 On the next morning, Jonathã went out into the fielde, at the l time appointed, with Dauid, and a little lad with him.

l For this was the 3. day, as it was agreed betweene them.

36 And he said vnto his boy, Runne, and seeke out mine arrowes which I shoote. And as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyõd him.

37 And when the ladde was come to the place whither Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan cried after the lad, and sayde, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the ladde again, Make m speede, haste, and stande not still. And Jonathans lad gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master.

m By the wordes he bent to driue, he admonished Dauid what he had don.

39 But the lad wist nothing of the matter, onely Jonathan and Dauid wist it.

40 And Jonathan gaue his n instruments vnto the lad that was with him, & said vnto him, Goe and cary them to the towne.

n Christ is betweene and sinners.

41 And assoone as the lad was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was toward the South, and fell on his face to the grounde, and bowed himselfe three times: and they kissed eche other, and wept together, but Dauid o exceeded.

o In weeping.

42 And Jonathan sayd to Dauid, Go in peace, and the things which we haue sworn both of vs in the name of the Lorde, saying, The Lord be betweene me & thee: & betweene thy seede and mine, let them stand for euer. And he arose, and departed: and Jonathan went into the towne.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 Hee getteth of him the shewbread to satisfie his hunger.

Then

THen came Dauid to [a] Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimeleth was astonied at the meeting of Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And Dauid sayde vnto Ahimelech the Priest, The king hath [b] commaunded mee a certaine thing, and hath sayde vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I send thee, and what I haue commaunded thee: and I haue appointed my seruantes to such and such places:

3 Nowe therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hand, giue me fiue loaues of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, and said, There is no common bread vnder mine hand, but here is hallowed bread: if the yong men haue kept them selues, specially from women.

5 Dauid answered the Priest, and sayde vnto him, Of a trueth women haue bene separated from vs this two or three daies, since I came out: & the [c] vessels of the young men were holy, although this way be impure, yet this day it shal be sanctified in the vessell.

6 * And so the Priest gaue him hallowed bread, for there was none other bread there, saue the shewbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put fresh bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was there the same day, a certaine man of the seruants of Saul, [d] abiding before the Lord, named Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of Sauls heardmen.)

8 And Dauid sayde vnto Ahimelech, Is not heere vnder thine hande either speare or sword? for I haue neither brought my sword nor my harnesse with me, because the kings businesse required hast.

9 * And the Priest said, The sword of Goliah the Philistine, whome thou slewest in the valley of Elah, beholde, it is here wrapt in a cloth behinde the [e] Ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it, for there is no other saue that here. And Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

10 And Dauid arose, and fled the same day from the [f] presence of Saul, and went to Achis the king of Gath.

11 * And the seruants of Achis said vnto him, Is not this Dauid the king of the lande? Did not they sing vnto him in daunces, saying, Saul hath slaine his thousand, & Dauid his ten thousand?

12 And Dauid [g] put those words into his heart, and was sore afraid of Achis the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his speach before the, and faigned himselfe mad in their handes, & [h] scrabled on the doores of the gate, & let his spittle fall downe vpon his beard.

14 Then said Achis vnto his seruantes, Loe, ye see this man is beside himself, wherefore then haue ye brought him to me?

15 Haue I need of mad men, that ye haue brought me this felow to play the mad man in my presence? Shal he come into my house?

[i] Meaning that they shoulde haue him as wap frō him. as vnmeete to come to a kings house.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 Dauid hideth himselfe in a caue. 2 Many that were in trouble, came vnto him.

DAuid therefore departed thence, and escaped to the caue [a] Adullam: when his brethren also & his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in combrance, and in debt, and troubled in their mindes, and he became a captaine ouer them: and there were with him about a foure hundred men.

3 And Dauid went thence to Mispah, in the land of [b] Moab, and sayde vnto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth vnto you, till I know what God will doe for me.

4 And he [c] brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid kept himselfe in the [d] hold.

5 And the Prophet Gad sayde vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but depart and goe into the land of Iuda. Then Dauid departed, and came into the forrest Hareth.

6 And Saul heard that Dauid was discouered, and also the men that were with him: & Saul sate in Gibea vnder a tree in Ramu, hauing his speare in his hande, and all his men stood about him.

7 And Saul said vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare, I pray you, [e] yee sonnes of Jemini: will the sonne of Isai giue euery one of you fieldes & vineyardes, and make you all captaines ouer thousands, and ouer hundreds:

8 That yee haue also conspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a couenaunt with the sonne of Isai, and there is none of [f] you that is sory for me, or sheweth me that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruant to lie in waite against me, as appeareth this day.

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (which was appointed by the seruauntes of Saul) and sayde, I saw the sonne of Isai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitob, 10 which asked counsell of the Lord for him, and gaue him victuals, and gaue him the sword of Goliath the Philistine also.

11 Then the king sent & called for Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitob, & all his fathers house, that is to say, the [g] priestes that were in Nob: and they came all to the king.

12 And Saul sayde, Heare now thou son of Ahitob. He answered. Heere I am my Lord.

13 And Saul sayde vnto him, Why haue ye conspired against me, thou, and the sonne of Isai, in that thou hast giuen him victual,

The xxiii. Chapter.

5 Dauid chaſeth the Philiſtines from Keila. 16 Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 28 Sauls enterpriſe is broken in purſuing Dauid.

THen they tolde Dauid, ſaying, Beholde the Philiſtines fight againſt [a] Keila, and ſpoyle the barnes.

2 Therefoꝛe Dauid aſked counſell of the Lord, ſaying, Shal I goe and ſmite theſe Philiſtines? And the Lorde anſweared vnto Dauid, Goe, and ſmite the Philiſtines, and ſaue Keila.

3 And Dauids men ſaide vnto him, See, we be afraide here [b] in Juda: howe muche moꝛe then if wee come to Keila againſt the hoſt of the Philiſtines?

4 Then Dauid aſked counſel of the Lord againe: and the Lord anſwered him, & ſaide, Ariſe, and goe downe to Keila: foꝛ I will deliuer the Philiſtines into thine hand.

5 And ſo Dauid and his men went to Keila, and fought with the Philiſtines, and brought away their cattel, and ſmote them with a great ſlaughter, and ſo Dauid ſaued the inhabitants of Keila.

6 And when Abiathar the ſonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keila, hee brought an [c] Ephod with him in his hand,

7 And it was told Saul that Dauid was come to Keila: and Saul ſaide, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: foꝛ he is ſhut in, now that he is come into a towne that hath gates and barres.

8 And Saul called all the people together to warre, foꝛ to goe downe to Keila, and to beſiege Dauid and his men.

9 And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined miſchiefe againſt him, ſaid to Abiathar the prieſt, [d] Bring the Ephod.

10 Then ſaide Dauid, O Lorde God of Iſrael, thy ſeruant hath heard that Saul is about to come to Keila, to deſtroy the citie foꝛ my ſake.

11 Will the Lordes of Keila deliuer mee into his hand? And will Saul come downe as thy ſeruant hath heard, O Lorde God of Iſrael? I beſeech thee tel thy ſeruant. And the Lorde ſaide, he will come downe.

12 Then ſaid Dauid, Will the Lordes of Keila deliuer me, & the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lorde ſaide, They wil deliuer thee vp.

13 Then Dauid & his men, which were vpon a ſixe hundꝛed, aroſe, & departed out of Keila, and went [e] whither they coulde: and it was told Saul that Dauid was fled from Keila, and he let the iourney alone.

14 Dauid abode in the wilderneſſe, in ſtrong holds, and remained in a mountaine in the wilderneſſe of Ziph: and Saul ſought him euery day, but God [f] deliuered him not into his hand.

15 And Dauid ſaw that Saul was come out to ſeeke his life: and Dauid was in the wilderneſſe of Ziph in the wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls ſonne aroſe, and went to Dauid into the wood, and comfoꝛted his [g] hand in God, 17 And ſaide vnto him, Feare not, foꝛ the hand of Saul my father ſhal not finde thee, and thou ſhalt be king ouer Iſrael, & I ſhall be next vnto thee: and that doth Saul my father know.

18 And they made a bond both of them together before ye Lord: & Dauid tarried ſtill in the wood, and Jonathan went to his houſe.

19 Then came ye Ziphites to Saul to Gibea, ſaying, Doth not Dauid hide himſelfe fall by vs in ſtrong holdes in the wood, in the hill of Hachila, on the right ſide of ‖ Jeſimon?

20 Now therefoꝛe, O king, thou maieſt come downe according to all the luſt of thy ſoule, and our part ſhal be to deliuer him into the kings hand.

24 And they arose, and went to Zyph before Saul: but Dauid and his men were in the wildernesse of Maon, in the plaine that is on the right hand of Jesimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they tolde Dauid: wherefore hee came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernes of [h] Maon: and when Saul heard that, he followed after Dauid in the wildernesse of Maon.

26 And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountain, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: and Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed Dauid and his men round about, to take them.

27 But there came a [i] messenger vnto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistines haue inuaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from persecuting Dauid, and went against the Philistines, and therefore they called that place, [m] Sela Hammahlekoth. And Dauid went thence, & dwelt in strong holds at En-gadi.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

1 Dauid hid in a caue, spareth Saul. 10 He sheweth to Saul his innocencie. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 22 He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto him to be fauourable to his seede.

WHen Saul was come againe from following after the Philistines, there were which tolde him, saying, Behold, Dauid is in the wildernes of [a] En-gadi.

2 Then Saul tooke three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seeke Dauid and his men in the height of the rockes [*] where wild goates remaine.

4 And the men of Dauid saide vnto him, See, the day is come of which the Lord saide vnto thee, Beholde, I will deliuer thine enemie into thine hand, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good in thy sight. Then Dauid arose, and cut off the lappe of Sauls garment priuily.

5 And afterwarde Dauids heart smote him, because he had cut off the lap of Sauls garment.

6 And he saide vnto his men, The Lorde keep me from doing this thing vnto my master the Lords anointed, to lay mine hand vpon him, seeing he is [b] the anointed of the Lord.

7 And so Dauid kept off his seruants with these wordes, and suffered them not to rise against Saul: but Saul rose vp out of the caue, and went away.

8 Dauid also arose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cried after Saul, saying, My Lord king. And when Saul looked behinde him, Dauid stowped with his face to the earth, and bowed himselfe.

9 And Dauid saide to Saul, Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mens wordes, that say, Beholde, Dauid seeketh euill against thee?

10 Behold, this day thine eies haue seene how that the Lorde had deliuered thee this day into mine hande in the caue: and some bade me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I will not lay mine handes on my master, for he is the Lords anointed.

11 And moreouer my father, beholde and see yet the lappe of thy garment in my hand, in as much as I killed thee not when I cut off the lap of thy garment: vnderstand therefore and see, that there is neither euill nor wickednesse in me, and that I haue not sinned against thee, and yet thou huntest after my soule, to take it.

1.Reg.28.3 AND * Samuel dyed, and all the Iſraelites gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his owne [a] houſe at Rama. And Dauid aroſe, & went downe to the wilderneſſe of Pharan.

2 And there was a man in [b] Maon, whoſe poſſeſſion was in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie, and had three thouſand ſheepe, and a thouſand goates: and hee was ſhearing his ſheepe in Carmel.

[b] Maon and Carmel, were cities in the tribe of Iuda. Carmel the mountaine was in Galile.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail, and ſhe was a woman of a ſingular wiſedome, and beautifull: but the man was churliſh, and of euil conditions, and was of the kinred of Caleb.

4 And Dauid heard in the wildernes that Nabal did ſheare his ſheepe.

12 And ſo Dauids ſeruants turned their way, and went againe, and came and tolde him all thoſe ſayings.

13 And Dauid ſaid vnto his men, Gyrde euery man his ſworde about him. And they girded euery man his ſworde about him, and Dauid was girded with his ſworde: and there followed Dauid vpon a foure hundred men, & two hundred abode by the ‡ ſtuffe.

32 And Dauid sayde to Abigail, Blessed bee the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.

33 Blessed is thy saying, and blessed art thou which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, and from auenging my selfe with mine owne hand.

34 For in very deede, as the Lorde God of Israel liueth, which hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met mee, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 And so Dauid receiued of her hand that which shee had brought him, and sayde vnto her, Goe vp in peace to thine house, behold, I haue heard thy voice, and haue [‡] granted thy petition.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king, and Nabals heart was merie within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she tolde [n] him nothing neither lesse nor more, vntill the morow morning.

37 But in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him these words, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

1 Dauid was discouered vnto Saul by the Ziphites. 12 Dauid taketh away Sauls speare, and a cruse of water that stoode at his head. 21 Saul confesseth his sinne.

THe Ziphites came againe vnto Saul to Gibea, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide himselfe in the ‖ hill of [m] Hachilah, which is before ‖ Jesimon?

2 Saul arose, and went downe to the wildernes of Ziph, hauing three thousand [o] chosen men of Israel with him, for to seeke Dauid in the wildernesse of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jesimon by the way side: but Dauid dwelt in the wildernesse, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wildernesse:

4 Dauid therefore sent out spies, and vnderstoode that Saul was come in very deede.

5 And Dauid arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and [n] Dauid beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the sonne of Ner, which was the chiefe captaine: for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered Dauid, and spake to Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abisai the sonne of Zaruia and brother to Joab, saying, who will goe downe with mee to Saul to the host? And Abisai said, I will goe downe with thee.

7 And so Dauid and Abisai came downe to the people by night, and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare stacke in the ground at his ‖ head: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then sayd Abisai to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemie into thine hande this day: nowe, I pray thee, let me smite him once with my speare to the earth, and I will not [b] smite him the second time.

9 And Dauid said to Abisai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes [c] anoynted, and be guiltelesse?

10 And Dauid sayde furthermore, As the Lord liueth, the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, or hee shall descend into battell, and perish:

11 The Lord keepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lords annoynted: but I pray thee, take thou now the speare that is at his head, and the cruse of water, and let vs goe.

12 And so Dauid tooke the speare and the cruse of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man sawe it, nor marked it, neither awaked: for they were all a sleepe, because the ‡ Lord had sent a dead sleepe vpon them.

19 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, let my Lorde the king heare the wordes of his ſeruant: If the Lorde haue ſtirred thee vp gainſt mee, [e] let him ſmell the ſauour of an offrice: but if they bee the children [f] of men, curſed are they before the Lord, for they haue caſt mee out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lorde, [g] ſaying, Goe ſerue other gods.

21 Then ſayde Saul, I haue ſinned: Come againe, my ſonne Dauid, for I will doe thee no more harme, becauſe my ſoule was [h] precious in thine eies this day: behold I haue plaied the foole, and haue erred exceedingly.

22 And Dauid anſwered and ſaide, Behold the kings ſpeare, let one of the young men come ouer and fetch it.

23 The Lorde reward euery man according to his [i] righteouſneſſe and faithfulnes: for the Lord deliuered thee into my hand this day, but I would not laye mine hande vpon the Lordes anointed.

The xxvij. Chapter.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achis King of Gath, who giueth him Ziklag. 8 Dauid deſtroieth certeine of the Philiſtines. 10 Achis is deceiued by Dauid.

AND Dauid ſayde in his heart, I ſhall periſh one day by the hande of Saul: therefore is there nothing better for mee then to flee, and [a] ſaue my ſelfe in the land of the Philiſtines, and Saul ſhal ceaſe, and ſeeke me no more in all the coaſtes of Iſrael, and ſo ſhall I eſcape out of his hand.

a Deſire to eſcape, Gods prouidence, truſting, vnbeliefe, traitors, were vnto Gods people.

2 And Dauid arose, and hee and the ſixe hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achis the ſonne of Maoch king of Gath.

3 And Dauid dwelt with Achis at Gath, both hee and his men, euery man with his houſhold, and Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Jezrahelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was told Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath, and hee ſought no more for him.

5 And Dauid ſaid vnto Achis, If I haue nowe founde grace in thine eyes, [b] let them giue me a place in ſome towne in the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why ſhould thy ſeruant dwell in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

b Appoint me a place.

6 Then Achis gaue him [c] Ziklag that ſame day, for which cauſe Ziklag pertaineth vnto the kings of Juda vnto this day.

8 And Dauid and his men went vp and inuaded the Geſſurites, the Gerzites, and the Amalekites: for thoſe nations were from the beginning the inhabitants of the lande, as men goe to Sur vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And Dauid ſmote the lande, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke away the ſheepe, the oxen, the aſſes, the camels, and clothes, and returned, and came to Achis.

10 And Achis ſaide, where haue yee bene a routing this day? And Dauid anſwered, Againſt the South of Juda, and againſt the South of the [d] Jerameelites, and againſt the South of the [e] Kenites.

d Of Jerameel.
e Of Ken.

11 And Dauid ſaued nether man nor woman aliue, to bring tidings to Gath, ſaying, Leaſt they ſhould tell on vs, and ſay, So did Dauid, and ſo will bee his maner all the while hee dwelleth in the countrey of the Philiſtines.

12 And Achis beleeued Dauid, ſaying, ‖ Hee hath made his people Iſrael vtterly to abhorre him, and therefore he ſhall be my ſeruant for euer.

‖ Or, hath cauſed his people to abhorre him.

The xxviij. Chapter.

2 Dauid hath the chiefe charge promiſed about Achis. 8 Saul conſulteth with a witch, and ſhee cauſeth him to ſpeake vnto Samuel, 18 Who declareth his ruine.

AND in thoſe dayes the Philiſtines gathered their hoſt together to war, to fight with Iſrael: and Achis ſaid vnto Dauid, Be ſure thou ſhalt goe out with with me to battell, thou, and the men that are with thee?

2 And Dauid said to Achis, Surely thou shalt know what thy seruant can do. And Achis sayde to Dauid, Then I will make thee keeper of my head for euer.

3 Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Rama his owne citie: and Saul had put [a] away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered together and came and pitched in Sunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul sawe the hoste of the Philistines, he was afraide, and his heart was sore abashed.

6 And when Saul asked counsell of the Lorde, the Lorde answered him not, neyther by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by the Prophets.

7 Then sayde Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke mee a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may go to her, and aske of her. And his seruantes sayde to him, Beholde, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor.

8 And Saul changed himselfe, and [c] put on other rayment, and then went hee and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night, & he sayde, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by thy familiar spirit, & bring me him vp whom I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman said vnto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my soule, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lorde, saying, As the Lorde liueth, there shall no harme come to thee for this thing.

11 Then sayd the woman, Whom shall I fetch vp vnto thee? He answered, Bring me vp Samuel.

12 When the woman sawe Samuel, shee cryed with a loude voyce, and spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king sayde vnto her, Be not afraid: what sawest thou? The woman said vnto Saul, I sawe | goddes ascending vp out of the earth.

14 He said vnto her againe, What fashion is he of? She answered, There commeth vp an olde man with a mantle vpon him. And Saul perceiued that it was [c] Samuel, and he stowped with his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou vnquieted me, to make mee be brought vp? Saul answered, I am sore encombred, for the Philistines make warre against me, and God is departed from mee, and answereth me no more, neither by Prophetes, nor by dreames: and therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest [d] tell mee what I shall doe.

16 Then sayde Samuel, Wherefore doest thou aske of me, while the Lord is gone from thee, and is become thine enemie?

17 Truely the Lord hath done to [e] him as he spake by my | hand: for the Lorde hath rent the kingdome out of thine hand, and giuen it thy neighbour Dauid:

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedst his wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lorde done this vnto thee this day.

19 And moreouer, the Lorde will deliuer Israel with thee, into the hands of the Philistines: to morow shalt thou and thy sonnes be [h] with me, and the Lord shall giue the hoste of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore [i] afraid, because of the wordes of Samuel, and there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 And the woman came vnto Saul, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and sayde vnto him, See thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voyce, and [k] haue put my soule in my hand, and haue hearkened vnto thy wordes which thou saydst vnto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, and let mee set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate, and get thee strength, and then goe on thy iourney.

23 He refused, and sayde, I will not eate. But his seruants, and the woman together compelled him, and he hearkened vnto their voyce: and so hee arose from the earth, and sate on a bed.

24 The woman had a fatte calfe in the house, and she hasted and killed it, and tooke floure and kneaded it, and did bake vnleauened bread thereof,

25 And brought them before Saul, and before his seruants: & when they had eaten, they stood vp, & went away the same night.

[a] That is, punished, and suppressed not his doctrine while he was aliue: But now he would learne of him being dead, contrary to Gods word.

[c] That is, Dauid.

[d] Or, ministerie.

[e] That is, Saul.

[h] That is, Saul shalbe dead.

[i] And yet had no grace to repent and turne to the Lord.

[k] That is, I haue put my life in danger.

The xxix. Chapter.

4 The Princes of the Philistines cause Dauid to be sent backe from the battel against Israel, because they mistrusted him.

NOw the Philistines were gathered together with all their armies in Aphec: and the Israelites pitched by ‡ Ain, which is in Jezrael.

3 Then sayde the princes of the Philistines, What doe these Hebrewes here? Achis said vnto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this Dauid the seruant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath beene with mee these dayes, or these yeeres, and I haue found found no fault in him, since he fell vnto me vnto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines sayde vnto him, Make this fellow returne, that hee may goe againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not goe downe with vs to battell, least in the battell he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith should he obtaine the fauour of his master? should it not bee with the heades of these men?

1. Chro. 12. 19.

b Would not Saul receiue him to fauour if he could betray vs?

5 Is not this Dauid, to whom they sang in daunces, saying, Saul slew his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand?

6 Then Achis called Dauid, and said vnto him, As the Lorde liueth, thou hast bene honest and good in my sight, when thou wentest out and in with mee in the hoste, neither haue I founde euill with thee since thou camest to mee vnto this day: neuertheless the ‡princes fauour thee not.

c That is, was conuersant with me.

‡Heb. thou art not good in the eyes of the princes.

7 Wherefore nowe returne, and goe in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistines.

8 And Dauid said vnto Achis, And what haue I done? what hast thou found in thy seruant as long as I haue beene with thee vnto this day, that I may not goe fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 Achis answered and sayde to Dauid, I know that thou art d good in my sight as an angell of God: notwithstanding, the Princes of the Philistines haue said, Let him not goe vp with vs to battell.

d A phrase in meaning, thou pleasest me.

10 Wherefore now rise vp earely in the morning, with thy e masters seruants that are come with thee: and when yee be vp early, as soone as ye haue light, depart.

e With them that fled vnto thee frō Saul.

11 And so Dauid and his men rose vp early, to depart in the morning, to returne into the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went vp to Jezrael.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 5 Dauids two wiues are taken prisoners. 6 The people woulde stone him. 8 He asked counsell of the Lord, and pursuing his enemies, recouereth the pray.

BVt when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklag the third day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklag, and had a smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire:

a That is, destroyed the citie.

2 And had taken the women that were therein prisoners, both small and great, and slew not a man, but carried them away, and went their wayes.

3 So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, and their wiues, their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then Dauid and the people that were with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more.

5 And Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Jezraelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great cumbrance: for the people b intended to stone him, because the hearts of all the people were vexed, euery man for his sonnes, and for his daughters: but Dauid tooke a good courage to him in the Lord his God.

b In their rage, bodies of reason and true conclusion cease.

7 And said to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring mee the Ephod: and Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid.

8 And Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? shall I ouertake them? & he answered him, Follow, for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and c recouer all.

c When there is no place left for hope of mans reason, God puts in store means of deliuerance for such as trust in him.

9 So Dauid and the fyre hundred men that were with him, went, and came to the riuer Besor, where a part of them abode.

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men followed: (for two hundred abode behinde, beeing too wearie to goe ouer the riuer Besor.)

11 And they founde an Egyptian in the field, & brought him to Dauid, and gaue him bread, and he did eate, and water to drinke, 12 And gaue him a fewe figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when hee had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes and three nights.

13 And Dauid said vnto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? Hee saide, I am a young man of Egypt, and seruant to an Amalekite, and my master left me because three dayes agone I fell sicke.

14 We came a rouing vpon the South of Cherethus, and vpon the coast belonging to Juda, and toward the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And Dauid saide to him, Canst thou bring me to this company? And hee sayde, d Sweare vnto mee by God, that thou wilt neither kill mee, nor deliuer mee into the handes of my master, and I will bring thee to this company.

d Meaning as the Lord liueth, or as I am a true man: like as the Iewes vse to swear by their prophets.

16 And when hee had brought him thither, behold, they lay scattered abroade vpon all the earth, e eating, and drinking, & dauncing, because of all the great praye that they had caried away out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Juda.

e They were merie, not considering the destruction that hanged ouer their heads: this is the manner of the wicked.

17 And Dauid laid vpon them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening of the next morow: so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred yong men which rode vpon Camels, and fled.

18 And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had caried away: and Dauid rescued his two wiues.

19 So that there was nothing lacking to them, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoile of all that they had taken away, Dauid recouered them all.

20 And Dauid tooke all the sheepe, & the Oxen,

Oren, and they draue them before his cattel, and said, This is Dauids pray.

21 And Dauid came to the two hundred men that were too weary for to follow Dauid, whom they had made also to abide at the riuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid and the people that were with him: & when Dauid came to the people, hee saluted them friendly.

22 Then answered al the wicked and the vnthryftes of the men that went with Dauid, and sayde, Because they went not with vs, therefore will we giue them none of the pray that wee haue retouered: but let euery man take his wife and his children, those let them cary away, and depart.

23 Then sayd Dauid, Ye shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserued vs & deliuered the company that came against vs, into our handes.

24 For who wil hearken vnto you in this matter? But as his part is that goeth down and fighteth, so shall his part be that tarieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike.

25 And so from that day forwarde was that made a statute, and a lawe in Israel, vnto this day.

26 When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, hee sent of the pray vnto the elders of Iuda, and to his friends, saying, See, there is a blessing for you, of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Bethel, to them of South Ramoth, to them of Jathir, 28 To them of Aroer, to them of Sephamoth, to them of Eshtemoa, 29 To them of Rachal, to them of the cities of Jerahmeel, to them of the cities of the Kenites.

30 To them of Horma, to them of Chorashan, to them of Athach.

31 To them that are in Hebron, and to all places where Dauid & his men were woont to haunt.

f which the Amalekites had taken of others, & Dauid from thē, before the goods of Ziklag.

g Perchance here the holy ghost giues, with whom he hath done sacrifice in the time of his persecution.

The xxxj. Chapter.

4 Saul killeth himselfe. 6 His children are slaine in the battell.

1.Chr.10.1

Or, slaine.

NOw the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled away from the Philistines, and fell downe ‖ wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines preassed sore vpon Saul and his sonnes, and slewe Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchisua, Sauls sonnes.

3 And when the battel went sore against Saul, the archers with bowes ‖ found him, and he was sore afraide of the archers.

‖ Or, hit him.

4 Then sayde Saul vnto his harnesse bearer, a Draw out thy sworde, and thrust me thorow therewith: least the vncircumcised come, and thrust me thorowe, and mocke me. And his harnesse bearer would not, for he was sore afraide: therefore Saul tooke a sworde, and fell vpon it.

a So the fire that his cruell life hath a desperate end, as is commonly seene in them that persecute the children of God.

5 And when his harnesse bearer sawe that Saul was dead, he fel likewise vpō his sword, and died with him.

6 And so Saul died, and his three sonnes, and his harnesse bearer, and all his men that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the b valley, and c they of the other side Jordane, sawe that the men of Israel were put to flight, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead, they left the cities, and ran away, and the Philistines came & dwelt in them.

c That is, the tribes of Ruben and Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasses.

8 On the morowe when the Philistines were come to spoyle them that were slaine, they found Saul and his three sonnes lying in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped him out of his harnesse, and sent into the lande of the Philistines on euery side, that they shoulde d publish it in the Temple of their e idoles, and among the people.

d In token of victorie and triumph.

12 They arose, as many as were strong men, and went all night, and tooke the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes, from the wall of Bethsan, and came to Jabes, and burnt them there.

13 And tooke their bones, and buried them vnder a tree at Jabes, and g fasted seuen dayes.

The ende of the first Booke of Samuel, or first Booke of Kings.

The second Booke of Samuel, otherwise called the second booke of the Kings.

The first Chapter.

4 It was tolde Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He causeth him to be slaine that brought the tidings. 19 Hee lamenteth the death of Saul and Ionathan.

AFter the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, & had beene two dayes in Ziklag:

2 Behold, there came a man the third day out of the hoste from Saul, with his [a] clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: and when he came to Dauid, he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

[a] As one in signe of Lamentating (as hee should seeme) the ouerthrow of the people of Israel.

3 Dauid sayde vnto him, Whence commest thou? Hee sayde vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.

4 And Dauid saide vnto him, And what is done? I pray thee, tell me. He sayde, The people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and dead, and Saul and Ionathan his sonne are dead also.

5 And Dauid sayde vnto the young man that tolde it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathan his sonne be dead?

6 The young man that tolde him, answered, [b] As I came by chaunce to mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned vpon his speare: & loe, the charets and ‖ horsemen followed hard after him.

[b] Hy I fled in the chase.

‖ Or, captaines.

7 And when he looked backe, he saw me, and called me: and I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said vnto mee, Who art thou? I answered him, I am an [c] Amalekite.

[c] He was an Amalekite borne, but renounced his countrey, and ioyned with the Moabites.

9 He sayde vnto me againe, I pray thee, come vpon mee and slay mee: for anguish is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

‖ Or, came vpon him.

10 And so I ‖ stoode vpon him, and slewe him: and because I was sure that hee could not liue after that he had fallen, I tooke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and haue brought them hither vnto my lord.

11 Then Dauid tooke hold on his clothes, and rent them, and so did all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, & fasted vntill Euen for Saul and Ionathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israel, because they were ouerthrowen with the sword.

13 And Dauid said vnto the young man that brought him these tidings, Whence art thou? He answered, I am the sonne of an alient, an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid said vnto him, * Howe is it that thou wast not afraide to lay thine hand on the Lords anoynted, to destroy him? * Psa. 105

15 And Dauid called one of his young men, and sayde, Goe to, and fall vpon him. And he smote him, that he died.

16 Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood [d] be vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lordes anoynted. [d] Hy bloud be vpon his owne head.

17 And Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionathan his sonne.

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Iuda [e] the vse of the bowe: and beholde, it is written in the booke of the ‖ righteous:)

[e] Or, the song of the bowe.

‖ Or, Iasher.

19 O noble Israel, [f] he is slaine vpon thy high places: howe are the mighty ouerthrowen?

[f] Or, the glorie.

20 Tell it not in Gath, nor publish it in the streetes of Askalon: lest the daughters of the Philistines reioyce, and least the daughters of the vncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountaines of Gilboa, vpon you be neither dewe nor raine, nor [g] fieldes of offerings: for there the shielde of the mighty is cast downe, the shield of Saul, as though he had not bene anointed with oyle.

24 Yee daughters of Israel, weepe ouer Saul, which clothed you in scarlet with [h] pleasures, and hanged ornaments of golde vpon your apparel.

[h] Or, delicately.

25 Howe were the mightie slayne in the middest of the battell? O Ionathan, thou wast slaine in thine high places.

26 Woe is me for thee, my brother Ionathan, very kind hast thou bene vnto me: thy loue to me was wonderfull, passing the loue [i] of women.

The ij. Chapter.

4 Dauid is anoynted king in Hebron.

AFter this Dauid [a] asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I goe vp into any of the cities of Iuda? And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Goe vp. And Dauid saide, Whither shall I goe? He answe-answered, vnto [b] Hebron.

3 And to Dauid went thither with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Iezraelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite:

3 And the men that were with [c] him, did Dauid carry vp also, euery man with his houshold: and they dwelt in the townes of Hebron.

4 And the men of Iuda came, and there they anointed Dauid king ouer the house of Iuda: and they told Dauid, saying, It is the men of Iabes Gilead that buried Saul.

5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Iabes Gilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are yee vnto the Lorde, that ye haue shewed such kindnes vnto your Lord Saul, and haue buried him.

6 And nowe the Lorde shewe mercy and [d] trueth vnto you: and [e] I will doe you also such kindnesse, as yee haue done in this thing.

7 Therefore nowe let your handes bee strong, and [f] play yee the men: for your master Saul is dead, and they that are of the house of Iuda, haue anoynted me king ouer them.

8 But Abner the sonne of Ner, that was captaine of Sauls hoste, tooke Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to [g] Mahanaim, 9 And made him king ouer Gilead, and ouer the Assurites, and ouer Iezrael, Ephraim, Beniamin, and ouer [h] all Israel.

10 And Isboseth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeeres old when he began to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned two yeres: but the house of Iuda followed Dauid.

11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebron ouer the house of Iuda, was seuen yeeres and sixe moneths.)

12 And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Isboseth the sonne of Saul, went out of Mahanaim, to Gibeon.

13 And Ioab the sonne of Zaruia, and the seruants of Dauid went out, and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they sate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side.

14 And Abner said to Ioab, Let the yong men now arise, and [h] play before vs, and Ioab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose & went ouer twelue of Beniamin by number, which pertained to Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruants of Dauid.

16 And euery one caught his fellowe by the head, and thrust his sworde in his [i] fellowes side, and so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called ‖ Helkathhazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was an exceeding cruell [k] battell that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel fel before the seruants of Dauid.

18 And there were three sonnes of Zaruia there, Ioab, Abisai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foote as a wilde Roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going, he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behinde him, and said, Art thou Asahel? Hee answered, Yea.

21 Abner sayde, Turne thee either to the right hand or to the left, and catch one of the yong men, and take thee his ‖ weapons. But Asahel would not depart from him. ‖ Or, spoyle

22 And Abner said againe to Asahel, Depart from mee: [l] wherefore should I smite thee to the ground, and not be able to holde vp my face to Ioab thy brother? [l] Why doest thou prouoke me to kill thee?

23 Howbeit, when he would in no wise depart, Abner with the hinder ende of the speare smote him vnder the [m] fift ribbe, that the speare came out behinde him, that he fell downe in the same place, and died there: and as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and died, stood still. [m] Where the scrate of the gall and liuer (which be liuely parts) is.

24 Ioab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: and the Sunne went downe when they were come to the hill Amma, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wildernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Beniamin gathered themselues together after Abner, and were on a heape, and stoode on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and sayd, Shall the [n] sworde deuoure for euer? Knowest thou not that it will bee bitternesse in the latter end? How long shall it be then, yer thou bid the people returne from following their brethren? [n] Shal we not make an ende of murdering?

27 And Ioab said, As God liueth, if thou hadst spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euery one from persecuting his brother.

28 And so Ioab blewe a trumpet, and all the people stoode still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night thorowe the ‖ plaine, and went ouer Iordane, and past thorowe all Bethhoron, till they came to Mahanaim. ‖ Or, wildernesse.

30 And Ioab returned from persecuting Abner, and when hee had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruants nineteene men, and Asahel.

31 But the seruants of Dauid had smitten of Beniamin and of Abners men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they tooke vp Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and the day arose to them at Hebron.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Long warre betweene the houses of Saul and Dauid. 2 The children of Dauid in Hebron. 12 Abner turneth to Dauid. 27 Ioab killeth him.

a For it endured two yeres, which was the whole reigne of Isboseth.

THere was then a long warre betweene the house of Saul, and the house of Dauid: but Dauid waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And vnto Dauid were children borne in Hebron: his eldest sonne also was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Iezreelite:

‡ Heb. Fortified himselfe for the house of Saul.

6 And while there was warre betweene the house of Saul, and the house of Dauid, Abner ‡ held vp the house of Saul.

d Doest thou esteeme me no more then a dog for all my seruice done to thy fathers house?

7 And Saul had a concubine, named Rizpha, the daughter of Aiia: and Isboseth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in vnto my fathers concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the wordes of Isboseth, and said, Am I d a dogs head, which against Iuda doe shew mercy this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, and to his brethren and friendes, and haue not deliuered thee into the hand of Dauid: and thou findest a fault in me this day, for this woman?

9 So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to Dauid, euen so will I doe to him,

10 To bring the kingdome from the house of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may bee stablished ouer Israel, and ouer Iuda, euen from Dan to Beer-seba.

11 And hee coulde giue Abner neuer a word to answere, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to Dauid secretly, saying, Whose is the lande? who should also say, Make a bond with mee, and behold, my hand is with thee, to bring al Israel vnto thee.

13 He said, Wel, I wil make a bonde with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that thou see not my face, except thou first bring Michol Sauls daughter, when thou comest to see me.

14 And Dauid sent messengers to Isboseth Sauls sonne, saying, Deliuer mee my wife Michol, * which I married for an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines.

1. King. 18. 27.

15 And Isboseth sent, and tooke her from her husband Phalti, the sonne of Lais.

16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping behinde her till they came to Bahurim: then saide Abner vnto him, Goe and returne. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the Elders of Israel, saying, Yee sought for Dauid in times past, that hee might bee your king:

18 Now then do it, for the Lord hath spoken of Dauid, saying, By the hand of my seruant Dauid I will saue my people Israel out of the hands of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner spake in the eares of Beniamin: and afterward Abner went to speake in the e eares of Dauid in Hebron al that Israel was content with, and the f whole house of Beniamin.

20 And so Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, hauing twentie men with him: and Dauid made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner saide vnto Dauid, I will vp, and go gather all Israel vnto my lord the king, that they may make an appoyntment with thee, and that thou maiest reign ouer al that thine heart desireth. And when Dauid had let Abner depart, he went ‖ in peace.

22 And beholde, the seruaunts of Dauid and Ioab came from the g campe, & brought a great pray with them: (but Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron, for he had sent him away, to depart in peace.)

23 When Ioab and all the hoste that was with him, were come, men told Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Ioab came to the king, and said, h What hast thou done? behold, Abner came vnto thee, and why hast thou sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner, for he came to deceiue thee, and to know thy out going and in going, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Ioab was come out from Dauid, hee sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Syra, vnknowing to Dauid.

27 * And when Abner was come againe to Hebron, Ioab tooke him aside in the gate to speake with him ‖ peaceably: and smote him vnder the fift ribbe, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And when afterwarde it came to Dauids eare, hee saide, I and my kingdome are i guiltlesse before the Lorde for euer, concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner.

29 Let the blood fal on the head of Ioab, and on all his fathers house, that the house of Ioab bee neuer without one or other that hath running issues, or leper, or that leaneth on a staffe, or that doth fall on the sworde, or that lacketh bread.

30 (So Ioab and k Abisai his brother slew Abner, because he had slaine their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battell.)

31 And Dauid said to Ioab, and to al the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and l mourne before Abner. And king Dauid himselfe followed the beere.

32 And

33 And when they buried Abner in Hebron, the king lift vp his voice, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept.

34 And the king lamented ouer Abner, and said, Died Abner as a [m] foole dieth?

34 Thy handes were not bound, nor thy feete brought into fetters of brasse: but as a man falleth before wicked children, so fellest thou. And all the people wept againe ouer him.

35 And when all the people came to cause Dauid to eate meate while it was yet day, Dauid sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread or ought else till the sunne be downe.

36 And all the people wist it, and it pleased them: as whatsoeuer the king did, pleased all the people.

37 For all the people, and all Israel vnderstood that day howe that it was not the kings deed that Abner the sonne of Ner was slaine.

38 And the king said vnto his seruantes, Know ye not how that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

AND when Sauls [a] sonne heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his handes were [b] feeble, and all the Israelites were afraid.

2 And Sauls sonne had two men that were captaines of bands, the one called Baanah, and the other Rechab, the sonnes of Rimmon a Berothite, of the children of Beniamin: (for [c] Beroth was reckoned to Beniamin.

3 And these Berothites fled to [d] Gittaim, and sojourned there vntill this day.)

9 And Dauid answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, and said vnto them, As the Lord liueth, which hath deliuered my soule out of all aduersities, 11 Howe much more when wicked men haue slaine a righteous person in his owne house, and vpon his bed: Shall I not nowe therfore [g] require his blood of your hand, and take you from the earth?

12 And Dauid commaunded his young men, and they slewe them, and cut off their handes and feete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: but they tooke the head of Isboseth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner, in Hebron.

15 So Dauid and all the house of Israel brought the arke of the Lord, with shouting and trumpet blowing.

16 And as the arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michol Sauls daughter looked through a window, and saw king Dauid lyping and daunce before the Lorde, and she s despised him in her heart.

s He one that had by light behauiour disgraced him selfe, and plaied a foolish part as she thought.

17 And when they brought in the arke of the Lorde, they set it in his place, euen in the middes of the tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: and Dauid offred whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, before the Lorde.

1.Chro.16. 1. 18 * And as soone as Dauid had made an ende of offring whole burnt offrings and peace offrings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hostes, h That is, to pray for his house, as he had done for the people.

20 Then Dauid returned to h blesse his houshold, & Michol the daughter of Saul came out to meete Dauid, and saide, O how glorious was the king of Israel this day: which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruants, as a foole vncouereth himselfe!

I wish that he is to be found with more then the ordinarie sort of men.

21 And Dauid saide vnto Michol, It was before the i Lorde, which chose me rather then thy father and all his house, and commanded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel, and therefore will I play before the Lord:

22 And will yet be more vile then so, and will be meeke in mine owne sight: and of the very same maide seruants which thou hast spoken of, shal I be had in honour.

1 Dauid ouercommeth the Philistines, and other strange nations, and maketh them tributaries to Israel.

AFter this now, Dauid smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and Dauid tooke the ‡ bridle of bondage out of the [a] hande of the Philistines.

2 And he smote the Moabites, and measured them with a line, and cast them downe to the grounde, euen with two lines measured he them, to put them to death, and with one full corde to keepe them aliue. And so became the Moabites Dauids seruants, and brought him giftes.

3 Dauid smote also Hadarezer the sonne of Rehob king of Zoba, as he went ‖ to recouer his border at the riuer ‖ Pherah.

4 And Dauid tooke of his, a thousande, and seuen hundred horsemen, and destroyed all the charets, and twentie thousand footemen: but reserued an hundred charets of them.

7 And Dauid tooke the shieldes of golde that belonged to the seruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to [c] Hierusalem.

8 And out of Beta and Berothai, cities of Hadarezer, did Dauid bring exceeding much brasse.

14 And he put a garison in Edom, euen throughout all Edom put he souldiers, and all they of Edom became Dauids seruants: and the Lord kept Dauid whereseuer hee went.

The ix. Chapter.

9 Dauid restoreth all the landes of Saul to Miphiboseth the sonne of Ionathan. 10 He appointeth Ziba to see to the profite of his landes.

AND Dauid sayde, Is there yet any man left of the house of Saul? for I will shewe him mercie for Jonathans sake.

2 And there was of the house of Saul a seruant, whose name was Ziba: and when they had called him vnto Dauid, the king saide vnto him, Art thou Ziba? He saide, Thy seruant is he.

3 And the king sayde, Remaineth there yet any man of the house of Saul, whome I may shew the [a] mercie of God vpon? Ziba answered the king, Jonathan hath yet a sonne, which is lame on his feete.

11 Then sayde Ziba vnto the king, According to all that my Lorde the king hath commanded his seruant, so shall thy seruant doe, [e] that Miphiboseth may eate as the king sayde vpon my table, as one of the kings sonnes.

e That he may haue nourture, and be maintained, and be mused by the kings table.

12 Miphiboseth had a sonne that was young, named Micha: and all that dwelt in the house of Ziba, were seruantes vnto Miphiboseth.

13 And Miphiboseth dwelt in Hierusalem: for he did eate continually at the kings table, and was lame on both his feete.

The x. Chapter.

1 The messengers of Dauid are villanously entreated of the king of Ammon. 7 Ioab is sent against the Ammonites.

After this, the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanon his sonne reigned in his steade.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said vnto Hanon their lord, [‡] Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? Hath not Dauid rather sent his seruantes vnto thee to search the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrowe it?

‡ Or, Is it a token that Dauid honoureth thy father, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee?

c Or, All.

5 When they tolde it vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king saide, Tarie at Jericho vntil your beardes be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they [d] stanke in the sight of Dauid, they sent, & hired the ‖Syrians of the house of Rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twentie thousand footemen, and of king Maacha a thousand men, & of Istob twelue thousand men.

9 When Joab sawe that the front of the battell was against him, before and behinde, hee chose of all the choyse of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that hee might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he saide, If the Syrians be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe mee: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

12 Therefore quite thee like a man, and let vs bee valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde doe that which is good in his owne eyes.

13 And Joab proceeded forth, and the people that were with him, to fight against the Syrians: but they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abisai, and entred into the citie. and so Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Hierusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themtogether.

18 And the Syrians fledde before Israel, and Dauid destroyed [f] seuen hundred charets of the Syrians, and fourtie thousand horsemen, and smote Zoba the captaine of their host, which also died there.

1.Chr.20.1

2 And in an euening tide Dauid aroſe out of his [b] bed, and walked vpon the roofe of the kings palace, and from the roofe hee ſaw a woman waſhing her ſelfe, and the woman was very beautifull to looke vpon.

b Whereupon he vſed to reſt at afternoone, as was read of Iſboſeth, Chap. 4.

3 And Dauid ſent to enquire what woman it ſhould be: And one ſayde, Is not this Bethſabe the daughter of Eliam, and wife to [c] Urias the Hethite?

c Who was not an Iſraelite borne, but conuerted to the true religion.

4 And Dauid ſent meſſengers, and tooke her away: and ſhe came in vnto him, and hee lay with her (and ſhee was purified from her vncleannes) and returned vnto her houſe.

5 And the woman conceiued, and ſent and [d] told Dauid, and ſaid, I am with childe.

d Fearing leſt ſhe ſhould be ſtoned, according to the lawe.

6 And Dauid ſent to Joab, ſaying, Send me Urias the Hethite. And Joab ſent Urias to Dauid.

7 And when Urias was come vnto him, Dauid demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre proſpered.

e Dauid thought by this meanes to cloke his fault.

8 And Dauid ſayd to Urias, [e] Go downe to thy houſe, and waſh thy feete. And Urias departed out of the kings palace, and there followed him a preſent from the king.

9 But Urias ſlept at the doore of the kings palace, with all the ſeruantes of his lorde, and went not downe to his houſe.

10 Which when they had tolde Dauid, ſaying, Urias went not downe vnto his houſe: Dauid ſayd vnto Urias, Cameſt thou not from thy iourney? why diddeſt thou not goe downe then vnto thine houſe?

11 Urias anſwered Dauid, The arke, and Iſrael, and Juda dwell in pauilions, and my lorde Joab, and the ſeruants of my lorde abide in the open fieldes, and ſhall I then goe into mine houſe, to eate and drinke, and lye with my wife? By thy life, and by the life of thy ſoule, I will not do this thing.

12 And Dauid ſaid to Urias, Tarie here this day alſo, and to morowe I will let thee depart. And ſo Urias abode in Hieruſalem that day, and the morowe.

13 And when Dauid had called him, hee did eate and drinke before him, and he made him [f] drunke: And at euen he went out to lie on his couch with the ſeruants of his lorde, but went not downe to his houſe.

f Thereby to prouoke him to goe and lie by his wife.

14 On the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Joab, and ſent it by the hand of Urias.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, ‡ Put ye Urias in the forefront of the ſharper battell, and come yee backe from him, that hee may be ſmitten, and die.

‡ Except one continually vpholde his friend his neighbour (here the moſt part) ſeeke fall ſtudied long to all vnkindneſſe and abomination.

16 So when Joab beſieged the citie, hee aſſigned Urias vnto a place where hee wiſt that ſtrong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Joab: and there were certaine ouerthrowen of the people of the ſeruantes of Dauid: and Urias the Hethite died alſo.

18 Then Joab ſent, and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre:

19 And charged the meſſenger, ſaying, When thou haſt made an ende of telling the matters of the warre vnto the king:

20 If the kings anger ariſe, and hee ſay vnto thee, Wherefore approched yee ſo nigh vnto the citie when ye did fight? wiſt ye not that they would hurle and ſhoote from the wall?

21 * Who ſmote Abimelech ſonne of [h] Jerubeſeth? Did not a woman caſt a piece of a mylſtone vpon him from the wall, and hee died in Thebes? why went ye nigh the wall? Then ſay thou, Thy ſeruant Urias the Hethite is dead alſo.

22 So the meſſenger went, & came and ſhewed Dauid al that Joab had ſent him for.

24 And the ſhooters ſhot from the walles vpon thy ſeruantes, and ſome of the kings ſeruants bee dead, and thy ſeruant Urias the Hethite is dead alſo.

25 And Dauid ſaide vnto the meſſenger, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto Joab, Let not that thing trouble thee, for the ſworde deuoureth ‡ one as well as another: Make thy battell † more ſtrong againſt the citie, to ouerthrowe it, and encourage thou him.

† Heb. & and ſo.

26 And when the wife of Urias heard that her huſband was dead, ſhe mourned for him.

13 And Dauid saide vnto Nathan, * I haue sinned against the Lorde. And Nathan sayde vnto Dauid, The Lorde also hath put away thy sinne, thou shalt not die.

g In saying that the Lord hath ap-pointed a wicked man to raigne ouer his people.

15 And Nathan departed vnto his house: and the Lorde strake the childe that Urias wife bare vnto Dauid, and it sickened sore.

16 Dauid therefore besought God for the childe, and fasted, and h went in, and lay all night vpon the earth.

h To wit, in his priuie chamber.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to take him vp from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eate meate with them.

18 And the seuenth day the child died, and the seruants of Dauid feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they saide, Beholde, while the childe was yet aliue, we spake vnto him, and he would not hearken vnto our voyce: how will he then ‡ vexe himselfe, if we tell him that the childe is dead?

‡Heb. do euill to himselfe.

i Shewing that our lamentations ought not to be exceeding, but moderate, and that we must praise God in all his doings.

21 Then saide his k seruants vnto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou diddest fast and weepe for the childe while it was aliue, and as soone as it was dead, thou diddest rise vp and eate meate.

The xiij. Chapter.

14 Amnon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Thamar. 19 Thamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Amnon.

After this, it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid had a faire sister named a Thamar, whome Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued.

a Thamar was Absalos sister both by father & mother, and Amnon only by father.

2 And

2 And he was so sore vexed, that he fell sicke for his sister Thamar: for shee was a [b] virgine, and hee thought it hard for him to doe any thing to her.

[b] And therefore kept in her fathers house, as virgins were accustomed.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab, the sonne of Shimah Dauids brother: and Jonadab was a very subtill man.

4 And he saide vnto him, How commeth it that thou, being the kings sonne, art thus consumed from day to day: wilt thou not tell me? Amnon answered him, I loue Thamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 Jonadab sayde vnto him, [c] Lay thee downe on thy bed, & make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father is come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Thamar come, and giue me meate, and dresse it in my sight, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand.

[e] That is, she serued them in a dish.

[f] For the wicked are ashamed to do that afore men, which they are wont alwaies to commit in the sight of God.

10 And Amnon said vnto Thamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hand. And Thamar tooke the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother:

11 And when she had set them before him to eate, he tooke her, and said vnto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And shee answered him, Nay, my brother, doe not force me: for there hath no such thing bene done in Israel, doe not thou this follie.

13 And I, ‖ whither shall I cause my shame? and thou shalt be as one of the [g] fooles in Israel: Now therefore, I pray thee, speake vnto the king, and hee will not denie me vnto thee.

‖ Or, how shall I put away my shame?

[g] As a lewde and wicked person.

14 Howbeit hee would not hearken vnto her voyce: but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 And then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith hee hated her, was greater then the loue with which he before loued her: and Amnon saide vnto her, vp, and get thee hence.

16 Shee answered him, ‖ There is no cause: This euil that thou putteſt me away, is greater then ỹ other that thou diddeſt vnto me. Neuertheles, he would not heare her:

‖ Or, for this cause.

17 But called his ‖ boy that serued him, and sayde, Put away this woman from me, and bolt the doore after.

‖ Or, seruant

18 And shee had a garment of [h] diuers colours vpon her: for with such garmentes were the kings daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his seruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her.

[h] Of which diuers sorts of colours the Greekes make great mention, Gen.

19 And Thamar tooke and put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of diuers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and so she went away crying.

20 And Absalom her brother sayde vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother bene with thee: Now yet bee still, my sister, hee is thy brother, let not this thing grieue thine heart. And so Thamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 But when king Dauid heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom sayde vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: howbeit, Absalom hated Amnon, because hee had forced his sister Thamar.

23 And after the time of two yeres, Absalom had sheepe shearers in the ‖ plaine of Hazor, beside Ephraim, and bade all the kings sonnes, ‖ Or, Hamon.

24 And came to the king, and saide, Behold, thy seruant hath sheepe shearers, I pray thee, that the king with his seruants come to thy seruant.

25 The king answered Absalom, Nay, my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not goe all, lest we bee chargeable vnto thee. And Absalom lay sore vpon him: howbeit hee would not goe, but ‖ blessed him.

‖ Or, kissed.

26 Then said Absalom, But, I pray thee, shall not my brother [i] Amnon goe with vs: And the king answered him, What needeth it that he goe with thee?

[i] Heere is a notable example of the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

27 But Absalom made such instance, that he let Amnon and all the kings children goe with him.

28 Now had Absalom commaunded his young men, saying, Marke when Amnons [k] heart is merie with wine, and when I bid you, Smite Amnon: then kill him, and feare not: haue not I bidden you? be bolde therefore, and play the men.

[k] Or, good.

29 And the seruants of Absalom did vnto Amnon, euen as Absalom had commanded: and all the kings sonnes arose, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 And while they were yet in the way, tidings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hath slaine all the kings sonnes, and there is none left aliue.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay along on the [l] earth: & all his seruants stoode by with their clothes rent.

[l] In signe of great griefe.

32 And Jonadab the sonne of Shimah, Dauids brother, answered and sayde, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slaine all the young men of the kings sonnes, but Amnon onely is dead: for that hath bene determined in Absaloms mind, since he forced his sister Thamar.

33 Now

33 Nowe therefore let not my lorde the king ‖ take the thing so grieuously, to thinke that all the kings sonnes are dead, ‖ for Amnon onely is dead.

‖ Or, innocent.

34 But Absalom fled: and the yong man that kept the watch, lift vp his eyes, and looked, and beholde, there came much people by the way of the hill side ‖ behinde him.

35 And Jonadab sayd vnto the king, Beholde, the kings sonnes come: as thy seruant said, so it is.

36 And as soone as he had left speaking, beholde, the kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept. The king also and all his seruants wept exceedingly sore.

37 But Absalom escaped, and went to [m] Thalmai the sonne of Ammihur king of Gesur: and Dauid mourned for his sonne euery day.

38 And so Absalom escaped, and went to Gesur, and was there three yeeres.

39 And king Dauid ‖ desired to goe forth vnto Absalom: for where as Amnon was dead, he was comforted ouer him.

The xiiij. Chapter.

Absalom is reconciled to his father by the subtiltie of Ioab. 24 Absalom may not see the kings face.

NOw Ioab the sonne of Zeruia, perceiued that the kings [a] heart was toward Absalom:

2 And hee sent to Thecoa, and fet thence a ‖ wise woman, and sayde vnto her, I pray thee faine thy selfe to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparell, and [b] annoint not thy selfe with oyle, but be as a woman that had long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speake on this maner vnto him: and so Ioab ‡ taught her what she should say.

4 And when the woman of Thecoa spake with the king, shee fell on her face to the ground, and did obeysance, and sayd, ‡ Helpe O king.

5 The king sayde vnto her, What ayleth thee? Shee answered, I am in deede a ‡ widowe, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaide had [c] two sonnes, and they two fought together in the fielde, where was no man to go betwene them, but the one smote the other, and slue him.

7 And beholde, the whole kinred is risen against thine handmaid, and they sayd, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the [d] soule of his brother whom he slue, we will destroy the heire also: and so they shall quench my sparkle which is left, and shall not leaue to my husbande neither name nor issue vpon the earth.

8 And the king sayde vnto the woman, Go home to thine house, I will giue a charge for thee.

9 And the woman of Thecoa sayde vnto the king, My Lorde, O king, this [e] trespasse be on me, and on my fathers house: and the king and his throne be ‖ guiltelesse.

‖ Or, innocent.

10 And the king sayde, If any man say ought vnto thee, bring him to mee, and hee shall ‡ hurt thee no more.

‡ Heb. touch

11 Then sayd she, I pray thee, let the king remember the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, least they slay my sonne. And hee answered, As the Lord liueth, there shall not one haire of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 The woman sayde, Let thine handmaid speake one word vnto my lord the king. And he sayd, Say on.

13 The woman said, Wherefore then hast thou [f] thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doeth speake this thing as one which is faultie, that he should not fetch home againe his banished.

[f] Why hast thou gone contrary to iustnes in thy sonne Absalom?

14 For we must needes die, [g] are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered vp againe, neither doth God spare any person: yet doth he appoint meanes, that his banished be not vtterly expelled from him.

[g] God hath prouided wayes (as sanctuaries) to saue them oft times, whom man vnjustly worketh the death.

15 Now therefore I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the king, because the people [h] haue made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, Now will I speake vnto the king, it may bee that the king will performe the request of his handmaid.

[h] For I thought they would hit this my suit.

16 And the king shall heare his handmaide, to deliuer her out of the hand of the man that would haue destroyed me, and also my sonne, out of the inheritance of God.

17 And thine handmaid sayd, The word of my lord the king shal now be ‡ comfortable: for my lord the king is as an [i] angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

‡ Heb. rest.

[i] Is of great wisedome to discerne right from wrong.

18 Then the king answered and said vnto the woman, Hide not from mee, I pray thee, the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speake.

19 And the king said, Is not the [k] hand of Ioab with thee in all this matter? The woman answered and said, As thy soule liueth, my lorde the king, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lorde the king hath spoken: for euen thy seruant Ioab bade me, and he put all these wordes in the mouth of thine handmaid:

[k] Hast not thou done this by the counsell of Ioab?

20 For to the intent that I should [l] change the fourme of speech, hath thy seruant Ioab done this thing: and my lorde is wise, according to the wisedome of an Angell of God, to vnderstand all things that are in the earth.

[l] By speaking rather in parable then plainely.

21 And the king said vnto Ioab, Behold, I haue [m] done this thing: goe, and bring the yong man Absalom againe.

[m] Hath graunted thy request.

22 And Ioab fell to the grounde on his face, and bowed himselfe, and ‡ thanked the king: and Ioab sayde, Nowe thy seruant knoweth that I haue founde grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his seruant.

‡ Heb. blessed.

23 And so Ioab arose, and went to Gesur, and and brought Abſalom to Hieruſalem.

24 And the king ſayde, Let him turne to his owne houſe, and not ſee my face. And ſo Abſalom returned to his owne houſe, and ſawe not the kings face.

25 But in all Iſrael there was none to be ſo much praiſed as Abſalom for beautie: from the ſole of his foote, to the toppe of his head there was no blemiſh in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at euery yeeres ende hee polled it: becauſe the haire was heauie on him, therefore he polled it) hee weighed the haire of his head at two hundred [n] ſicles, after the kings weight.

n Which weyed fiue pounds foure ounces, after halfe an ounce to the ſicle.

27 And Abſalom had three ſonnes borne him, and one daughter, named Thamar, which was a faire woman to looke vpon.

28 So Abſalom dwelt two yeres in Hieruſalem, and ſawe not the kings face.

29 Therefore Abſalom ſent for Joab, to haue ſent him to the king, but he would not come to him: and when hee ſent againe, hee would not come.

30 Therefore he ſaide vnto his ſeruants, Behold, Joab hath a fielde by my ‖ place, and he hath barley therein: goe, and [o] ſet it on fire. And Abſaloms ſeruants ſet it on fire.

‖ Or, poſſeſſion.

o Here is an vnmercifull cruell heart, couered in this beautifull body.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Abſalom vnto his houſe, and ſayde vnto him, Wherefore haue thy ſeruants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Abſalom anſwered Joab, Behold, I ſent for thee, deſiring thee to come, becauſe I would haue ſent thee to the king, for to ſay, Wherefore am I come from Geſur? It had bene better for me to haue bene there ſtill: Now therefore would I ſee the kings face, and if there be any [p] treſpaſſe in me, let him kill me.

p If I bee offended by reuenging my fathers diſhonour. Thus the wicked iuſtifie themſelues in their euill.

33 And ſo Joab came to the king, and tolde him: which when he had ſent for Abſalom, hee came to the king, and fell to the ground on his face before him, and the king kiſſed Abſalom.

22 And Dauid said to Ithai, Come then, and goe forwarde. And Ithai the Gethite went forth, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loud voyce, and all the people went ouer: the king also himselfe passed ouer the brooke Cedron, and al the people went ouer toward the way that leadeth to the wildernesse.

24 And loe, Sadoc also, & all the Leuites were with him, and [a] bare the arke of the couenant of God, and they set downe the arke of God, and Abiathar [b] went vp, vntill the people were all come ouer out of the citie.

25 And the king said vnto Sadoc, Carie the arke of God againe into the citie: if I shal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lorde, he will bring me againe, and shewe me both it, and the tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I haue no lust vnto thee: behold, here am I, let him doe with me what seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The king saide also vnto Sadoc the priest, Art not thou a Seer? Returne into the citie in peace, and take your two sonnes with you, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Behold, I will tarie in the fieldes of the wildernesse, vntil there come some word from you to be told me.

30 And Dauid went vp on mount Oliuete, & wept as he went vp, and had his head [c] couered, and went barefoot, and all the people that was with him had euery man his head couered, & as they went vp, they wept.

31 And one tolde Dauid, saying, Achitophel is one of them that haue conspired with Absalom. And Dauid sayde, O Lord, I pray thee, turne the counsell of Achitophel into foolishnesse.

32 When Dauid was come to the toppe of the mount, he worshipped God: and behold, Chusai the Arachite came against him, with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whom Dauid sayde, If thou go with me, thou shalt be a burden vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the city, and say vnto Absalom, I wil be thy seruant, O king: as I haue thus long bene thy fathers seruant, so am I now thy seruaunt: thou maiest [d] for my sake destroy the counsel of Achitophel.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The infidelitie of Ziba. 5 Semei curseth Dauid.
16 Chusai commeth to Absalom.

AND when Dauid was a little past the [a] top of the hill, behold, Ziba the seruant of Miphibosheth met him with a couple of asses sadled, and vpon them two hundred loaues of bread, and one hundred bunches of raisings, and an hundred of dryed ‖ figges, and a bottel of wine.

2 And the king said vnto Ziba, What meanest thou with these? And Ziba said, They be asses for the kings houshold to ride on, and bread and fruit for the yong men to eate, and wine, that such as be faint in the wildernes may drinke.

3 And the king said, Where is thy masters sonne? Ziba answered vnto ye king, Behold, he tarieth still at Hierusalem: for hee saide, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then saide the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained vnto Miphibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly ‡ beseech thee that I may finde grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king Dauid came to [b] Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the kinred of the house of Saul, named Semei the sonne of Gera, and he came out cursing.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of Dauid: and al the people and al the men of warre were on his right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Semei when he cursed, Come forth, come forth, thou ‡ blood shedder, and thou man of ‖ Belial.

8 The Lord hath brought vpō thee al the [d] blood of the house of Saul, in whose steade thou hast raigned, & the Lord hath deliuered the kingdome into the hande of Absalom thy sonne: and behold, thou art come to thy mischiefe, because thou art a bloodshedder.

9 Then saide Abisai the sonne of Zeruia vnto the king, Why doeth this dead dogge curse my lorde the king? let me goe now and take off the head of him.

10 And the king said, What haue I to doe with you ye sonnes of Zeruia? for he curseth, euen because ye Lord [e] hath bidden him curse Dauid: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And Dauid saide to Abisai, and to all his seruants, Behold, my sonne which came of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: howe much more then may this sonne of Gemini doe it? Suffer him to curse, for the Lord hath bidden him.

22 And so they spread Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in vnto his fathers Concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsell of Achitophel which he councelled in those dayes, was as a man had asked counsel k at the oracle of God: euen so was all the counsell of Achitophel, both with Dauid and with Absalom.

21 And assoone as they were departed, the other came out of the wel, and went and told king Dauid, and sayd vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water, for thus hath Achitophel giuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they were come ouer Iordane [h] by that it was day: so that there lacked not one of them that was not come ouer Iordane.

23 And when Achitophel sawe that his counsell was not followed: he sadled an asse, & arose & gate him home to his owne house, and to his owne city, and put his houshold in order, and [i] hanged himselfe, & dyed, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom passed ouer Iordane, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captaine of the hoste in stead of Joab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Jethra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of [k] Nahas, sister to Zaruia Joabs mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

The xviij. Chapter.

2 Dauid deuideth his armie into three partes.

AND Dauid [a] numbred the people that were with him, and set captaines of thousands and of hundreds ouer them.

2 And Dauid sent forth the third part of the people vnder the hand of Joab, and the third part vnder the hand of Abisai the sonne of Zaruia Joabs brother, & the other third part vnder the hand of Ithai the Gethite: and the king sayd vnto the people, I will goe with you my selfe also.

3 And the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for vs, neyther shall they regarde vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou art now worth ten thousand of vs. Wherefore it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 And the king said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that will I doe. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, Intreate the young man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people hearde that the king gaue all the captaines charge concerning Absalom.

6 And so the people went out into the field against Israel (and the battell was in the [b] wood of Ephraim,)

8 For the battel was scattered ouer al the countrey: and the wood deuoured moe people that day, then did the sword.

9 And Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and he rode vpon a Mule, which caried him vnder the thicke boughes of a great oke, and his head was caught of the oke, and he was [c] lift vp betweene the heauen and the earth, & the mule that was vnder him went away.

10 And one that sawe it told Joab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hang in an oke.

11 And Joab said vnto the man that told him, If thou diddest see him, why diddest not thou there smite him to the grounde, and I would haue giuen thee tenne sicles of siluer, and a girdle.

12 The man saide vnto Joab, Though I should [‡] receiue a thousande sicles of siluer in mine hand, yet would I not stretch out mine hand against the kings sonne: for we heard with our eares when the king charged thee, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, Beware that none touch the yong man Absalom.

13 Moreouer, if I had done it, I should haue done against mine owne life: for there is no matter hid from the king, yea, and thou thy selfe wouldest haue bene against me.

14 Then sayde Joab, I may not stande thus tarying with thee. And hee tooke three dartes in his hand, and thrust them [‡] thorow Absalom, while he was yet aliue in the middest of the oke.

15 And tenne seruantes that bare Joabs weapons, turned, and smote Absalom, and slewe him.

16 And Joab blewe the trumpet, and the people returned from following Israel: for Joab [d] held backe the people.

17 And they tooke Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: and al Israel fled euery one to their tents.

18 And this Absalom yet in his life time, tooke and reared vp a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he sayde, I haue no [e] sonne to keepe my name in remembrance: And he called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day Absaloms place.

19 Then sayd Ahimaaz ꝑ sonne of Zadoc, Let me runne nowe, and beare the king tydings how that the Lorde hath [f] iudged him quite of the hand of his enemies.

17 And there were a thousande men of Beniamin with him, and Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fifteene sonnes, and twentie seruants with him, and they went ouer Iordane before the king.

18 And there went ouer a boate to carrie ouer the kings household, and to do him pleasure: and Semei the sonne of Gera, fell before the king as he was come ouer Iordane, 15 Moreouer, the Philistines had yet warre againe with Israel, and Dauid went downe, and his seruantes with him, and fought against the Philistines, and Dauid waxed faint.

16 And Jesbibenob, one of the sonnes of the Gyants (the yron of whose speare waxed three hundred l sicles of brasse, and he being girded with a newe sworde) thought to haue slaine Dauid.

l Which amounte to nine pound a quarter and a halfe.

17 But Abisai the sonne of Zeruia succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the seruants of Dauid sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt goe no more out with vs to battaile, that thou quench not the m light of Israel.

m That the glorie and wealth of Israel perish not with thee.

18 * And yet after this, there was a battell with the Philistines, at n Gob: and then Sibbechai the Husathite, slewe o Saph, which was one of the sonnes of the Giants.

19 And there was another battel in Gob, with the Philistines, where Elhanan the sonne of Jaare Oregim a Bethlehemite slue p Goliath the Gethite: the staffe of whose speare was as great as a weauers beame.

p That is, Lahmi, the brother of Goliath, whome Dauid slewe, 1. Chron. 20.

20 And there was yet another battell in Geth, where was a man of a great stature, that had on euery hand sixe fingers, and on euery foote sixe toes, foure and twentie in number, and was borne also of the kinred of the Gyants in Geth:

21 And when hee defyed Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Simah the brother of Dauid slewe him.

22 These foure were borne to the Gyant in Geth, and dyed by the hand of Dauid, and by the handes of his seruants.

The xxij. Chapter.

1 Dauid after his victories praiseth God. 8 The anger of God towarde the wicked.

AND Dauid spake the wordes of this a song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

a Wherein he praiseth God for the victories and benefites he receiued at his handes.

2 And he sayde, * The Lord is my rocke, and my castle, and my deliuerer.

Psal. 18. 3.

3 God is my ‖ strength, in him will I trust: he is my shielde, and the horne of my saluation, my high towre, & my refuge, my sauiour, thou hast saued me from wrong.

‖ Or, rocke.

4 I will call on the Lord which is praysworthie: and so shall I be saued from mine enemies.

5 For the pangs of death closed me about: the floods of ‖ Belial put me in feare.

‖ Or, vngodlinesse.

6 The sorowes of ‖ hell compassed me about: the snares of death ouertooke me.

‖ Or, the graue.

7 In my tribulation did I call vpon the Lorde, and cryed to my God: and hee did heare my voyce out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his eares.

8 The earth trembled and quaked: the fundations of heauen mooued, and shooke when he was angry.

b That is, cloudes and vapours

9 b Smoke went out at his nostrels, and consuming c fire out of his mouth: coales were kindeled thereat.

c Lightning, and thundering.

10 And he bowed d heauen, & came down: and there was darkenesse vnder his feete.

d So it seemeth when the ayre is darke.

11 And he rode vpon Cherub, and did flie: he came flying vpon the wings of the winde.

12 He made darkenesse a tabernacle rounde about him: with waters gathered together in thicke cloudes.

13 Through the brightnesse of his presence: were the e coales of fire kindled.

e By this description of a tempest, he declareth the power of God against his enemies.

14 The Lorde thundred from heauen: and he that is most high, gaue his voyce.

15 He shot arrowes, and scattered them: to wit, lightning, and ouerthrewe them.

16 The chanels of the sea appeared, and the fundations of the worlde were seene: by the reason of the rebuking of the Lorde, and through the blasting of the breath of his nostrels.

17 He sent from aboue, and tooke mee: he drewe me out of many waters.

18 Hee deliuered mee from my mightie enemie, and from them that hated mee: for they were too strong for me.

f When I was so beset, that all meanes seemed to faile.

19 When they had f preuented mee in the day of my calamitie: the Lord stayed me vp.

20 For hee brought mee out into a large place: he deliuered mee, because hee had a fauour vnto me.

21 The Lorde rewarded me according to my g righteousnesse: according to the purenesse of my hands he recompensed me.

g Whereby Saul being his enemie, was forced to say, Thou art more righteous then I.

22 For I haue kept the wayes of the Lord: and did not wickedly against my God.

23 For all his lawes were in my sight: and from his statutes I did not depart.

24 In his sight also haue I bene vpright: and haue kept me from mine owne iniquitie.

25 And the Lorde did to me againe according to my righteousnesse: euen after my purenesse in his eye sight.

26 With the godly thou shalt bee godly: and with the man that is vpright, thou shalt be vpright.

27 With the pure thou shalt be pure: and with the froward, thou shalt shewe thy selfe h froward.

h Their wickednesse is cause that thou seemest to forget thy wonted mercie.

28 And the poore people thou wilt saue: but thine eyes are vpon the proude, to bring them downe.

29 For thou art my light, O Lorde: and the Lord shall lighten my darkenesse.

30 For by thee I shall breake thorowe an hoste of men: and by my God will I spring ouer a wall.

31 God is vncorrupt in his way, the worde of the Lorde is tryed in the fire: he is a shielde to all them that trust in him.

32 For who is a God saue the Lord? and who is mightie saue our God?

33 God strengtheneth me in battell: and maketh the way cleare before me.

34 He maketh my feete like i hindes feete: and setteth me vpon my high places.

i Swift to auoyde all danger.

35 Hee teacheth my handes to fight: so that euen a bowe of steele is broken with mine armes.

36 Thou hast giuen me the shielde of thy saluation: and with thy louing meekenesse thou doest multiplie me.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me: and my legges shall not faile me.

38 I haue followed vpon mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not againe vntill I had consumed them.

39 I haue wasted them and wounded them, that they shall not be able to arise: yea, they shall fall vnder my feete.

40 Thou hast girded mee about with might to battell: and them that rose against me, hast thou subdued vnder me.

41 And thou hast giuen me the neckes of mine enemies: that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked about, but there was none to saue them: euen vnto the Lorde, but he heard them not.

43 Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did stampe them as the clay of the streete, and did spreade them abroade.

44 Thou also hast deliuered me from the dissention of people, thou hast kept me to bee an head ouer nations: the people which I knewe not, doe serue me.

45 Strange children k dissemble with me: at the hearing of the eare they obey me.

k My flesh for feare of power is tamed, or brought into subiection, and yeeldeth vnto me against their will.

46 Strange children will shrinke away: and they shall be smitten with feare in their priuie chamber.

47 The Lorde liueth, and blessed be my strength: magnified be God, euen the force of my saluation.

48 It is God that giueth mee power to reuenge me: and bringeth downe the people vnder me.

49 He deliuereth me from mine enemies, thou also hast lift mee vp on high from them that rose against me: thou hast deliuered me from the wicked man.

50 * And therefore I will prayse thee, O Lorde, among the nations: and will sing vnto thy Name. * Rom. 15.9

51 Hee is the towre of saluation for his king, and dealeth mercifully with his anointed: with Dauid, and with his seede for euermore.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

1 Dauid cauſeth the people to be numbred. 10 He repenteth, and chooſeth to fall into Gods hands. 15 Seuentie thouſand periſh with the peſtilence.

And

AND againe the Lorde was wroth against Israel, and he moued Dauid against them, in that he sayde, Goe number Israel and Juda.

2 For the king sayd to Joab the captaine of the hoste which was with him, Goe thou abroade nowe throughout all the tribes of Israel, euen from Dan to Beersheba, and number yee the people, that I may know the [b] number of them.

3 And Joab said vnto the king, The Lord thy God encrease the people an hundred fold moe then they be, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: and what is the cause that my lord the king hath a lust to this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the kings word preuailed against Joab, & against the captaines of the hoste: and Joab & the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed ouer Jordane, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the citie, that lieth in the middes of the ‖valley of Gad, and toward Jazer.

6 And then they came to Gilead, & to the ‖land Tahtim Hodsi, and from thence they came to Dan Jaan, and about to Sidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to al the cities of the Heuites, and of the Chanaanites: and then went out to the South of Juda, euen to Beersheba.

8 And so when they had bene abroad thorowout all the land, they returned to Hierusalem after the ende of nine moneths, and twentie dayes.

9 And Joab deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the king, and there were in Israel [c] eight hundred thousand men of might that drewe swordes: and the men of Juda were [d] fiue hundred thousand men.

10 And Dauids heart smote him, after that he had numbred the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: and nowe I beseech thee, Lord, take away the trespasse of thy seruant, for I haue done very foolishly.

11 And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids [e] Seer, saying, 12 Goe and say vnto Dauid, Thus sayth the Lord, I offer thee three things, choose thee which of them I shall doe vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, & sayde vnto him, wilt thou haue [f] seuen yeeres of hunger to come vpon the lande: or wilt thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee: or that there be three dayes pestilence in thy land? Now therfore aduise thee, and see what answere I shal giue to him that sent me.

14 And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull straite: let mee fall nowe into the hand of the Lorde (for much is his mercie) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 And so the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning vnto the time appoynted: and there died of the people from [g] Dan to Beersheba, seuentie thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand vpon Hierusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the euill, and sayd to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is nowe sufficient, holde thine hand. And the Angel of the Lorde was by the threshing place of Areuna the Jebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lord when he sawe the Angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, it is I that haue sinned, & that haue done wickedly: but these sheepe, [h] what haue they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my fathers house.

18 And Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him, Go vp, and reare an altar vnto the Lorde in the threshing floore of [i] Areuna the Jebusite.

19 And Dauid, according to the saying of Gad, went vp, as the Lord commanded.

20 And Areuna looked, and sawe the king and his seruants comming toward him: and Areuna went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face vpon the ground.

21 And Areuna said, wherfore is my lord the king come to his seruant? Dauid answered, To buy the threshing floore of thee, and to make an altar vnto the Lorde, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 And Areuna said vnto Dauid, Let my lord the king take, & offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: behold, here bee oxen for whole burnt sacrifice, and charets, and the other instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 Al these things did Areuna, as a [k] king, giue vnto the king, and sayde moreouer vnto the king, The Lord thy God accept thee.

24 And the king said vnto Areuna, Not so, but I wil buy it of thee at a price, and wil not offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the lord my God, of that which doeth cost mee nothing. And so Dauid bought the threshing floore and the oxen for [l] fiftie sicles of siluer.

25 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offered whole burnt sacrifices, and peace offerings: and so the Lord was intreated for the lande, and the plague ceased from Israel.

The firſt Chapter.

3 Abiſag keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adonia vſurpeth the kingdome. 30 Solomon is anointed king. 50 Adonia fleeth to the altar.

NOw king Dauid was [a] olde, and ſtricken in yeeres, ſo that when they couered him with clothes, hee caught no heate.

2 Wherefore his ſeruants ſayde vnto him, Let there bee ſought for my lorde the king a [b] yong virgin, to ‖ ſtand before the king, and to cherish him, and let her lye in thy boſome, that my lord the king may get heate.

3 And ſo they ſought for a fayre damoſell thorow out all the coaſts of Iſrael, and found one Abiſag a [c] Sunamite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damoſell was exceeding fayre, and cheriſhed the king, and miniſtred to him: but the king knew her not.

5 And ‖ Adonia the ſonne of Haggith exalted himſelfe, ſaying, I will be king. And hee gate him charets and horſemen, and [d] fiftie men to runne before him.

6 And his father for his time would not diſpleaſe him, to ſay, Why haſt thou done ſo? And he was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Abſalom.

7 And he tooke counſel at Joab the ſonne of Zaruia, and at Abiathar the Prieſt: and they [e] helped forward Adonia:

8 But Sadoc the Prieſt, ‖ Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada, Nathan the Prophet, Semei, and Rei, & the men of might which were with Dauid, they were not with Adonia.

9 And Adonia ſacrificed ſheepe and oxen, and fat cattel, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, which is by the well of Rogel, and called all his brethren the kings ſonnes, and all the men of Iuda the kings ſeruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, & Banaia, and the mightie men, and ‖ Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 Wherefore Nathan ſpake vnto Bethſabe the mother of Solomon, ſaying, Haſt thou not heard that Adonia the ſonne of Haggith doth reigne, and Dauid our Lord knoweth it not?

12 Nowe therefore come, and I will giue thee counſell how to ſaue thine owne life, and the [f] life of thy ſonne Solomon.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto king Dauid, and ſay vnto him, Diddeſt not thou, my lord, O king, ſweare vnto thy handmaid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit vpon my ſeate? why is then Adonia king?

14 Beholde, while thou yet talkeſt there with the king, I will come in after thee, and [g] confirme thy wordes.

15 And Bethſabe went in vnto the king into the chamber: and the king was very olde, and Abiſag the Sunamite miniſtred vnto the king.

16 And Bethſabe ſtouped, and made obeiſance vnto the king: and the king ſaid, What is thy matter?

17 She anſwered, My lord, thou ſwareſt by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaide, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhal ſit vpon my ſeate:

18 And beholde, now is Adonia king, and thou my lord the king knoweſt it not.

19 And he hath offred oxen, fat cattell, and many ſheepe, and hath called all the ſonnes of the king, and Abiathar the Prieſt, & Joab the captaine of the hoſte: but Solomon thy ſeruant hath he not bidden.

20 And nowe my lord, O king, the eyes of all Iſrael wayte on thee, that thou ſhouldeſt tell them who ought to ſit on the ſeate of my lord the king after him:

21 For elſe when my lorde the king ſhall ſleepe with his fathers, I and my ſonne Solomon ſhalbe [h] ſinners.

22 And loe, while ſhee yet talked with the king, Nathan the Prophet came alſo.

23 And they told the king, ſaying, Behold, here cõmeth Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to ỹ king, he made obeiſance before the king vpon his face on the ground.

24 And Nathan ſayde, My lord, O king, haſt thou ſayd, Adonia ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit vpon my ſeate?

25 For he is gone downe this day, & hath ſlaine oxen, and fat cattell, and ſheepe a great many, and hath called all the kings ſonnes, and the captaines of the hoſt, & Abiathar the Prieſt: and beholde, they eate and drinke before him, and ſay, God [i] ſaue king Adonia.

26 But mee thy ſeruant, and Sadoc the Prieſt, & Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada, and thy ſeruant Solomon hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done of my lord the king, and thou haſt not ſhewed it vnto thy [k] ſeruant, who ſhould ſit on the ſeate of my lord the king after him?

28 Then king Dauid anſwered, and ſaid, Call mee Bethſabe. And ſhee came into the kings preſence, and ſtoode before him.

37 And as the Lorde hath bene with my lord the king, euen ſo bee hee with Solomon alſo, And make his ſeate greater then the ſeate of my lord king Dauid.

38 And ſo Sadoc the Prieſt, and Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, and Phelethites, went downe, and ſet Solomon vpon king Dauids Mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Sadoc the Prieſt tooke an horne of [l] oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anoynted Solomon: and they blewe the trumpets, and all the people ſayde, God ſaue king Solomon.

40 And all the people came vp after him, piping with pipes, and reioycing greatly, ſo that the earth ‡ rang with the ſound of them.

41 And Adonia and all the ghests that he had called vnto him, heard it euen as they had made an ende of eating: and when Ioab heard the ſound of the trumpet, he ſaide, What meaneth this noyſe and vprore in the citie?

42 And as he yet ſpake, behold, Ionathan the ſonne of Abiathar the Prieſt came, and Adonia ſaid vnto him, Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringeſt good tidings.

43 And Ionathan anſwered and ſayde to Adonia, Verily our lorde king Dauid hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath ſent with him Sadoc the Prieſt, and Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, and the Phelethites, and they haue ſet him vpon the kings Mule.

45 And Sadoc the Prieſt and Nathan the Prophet haue anoynted him king in Gihon: and they came vp from thence, and reioyced, that the citie did ſounde againe: and that is the noyſe that ye haue heard.

46 And Solomon ſitteth on the ſeate of the kingdome.

47 And moreouer the kings ſeruants came to [m] bleſſe our lord king Dauid, ſaying, God make the name of Solomon more honourable then thy name, and make his ſeate greater then thy ſeate. [n] And the king bowed himſelfe vpon the bed.

48 And thus ſayd the king, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael, which hath made one to ſit on my ſeate this day, mine eye ſeeing it.

49 And all the ghests that were with Adonia were afraide, and roſe vp, and went euery man his way.

50 And Adonia fearing the preſence of Solomon, aroſe, and went, and caught hold on the hornes of the altar.

51 And one tolde Solomon, ſaying, Behold, Adonia feareth king Solomon: for loe, he hath caught holde on the hornes of the altar, ſaying, Let king Solomon ſweare vnto me this day, that he will not ſlay his ſeruant with the ſword.

52 And Solomon ſaide, If he will ſhewe himſelfe a worthie man, there ſhall not an haire of him fall to the earth: but if wickednelle be found in him, he ſhall die.

53 And ſo king Solomon ſent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeyſance vnto king Solomon, & Solomon ſayd vnto him, Get thee to thine houſe.

1.Chro.29.23.

13 And Adonia the sonne of Haggith came to Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, and she said, Commest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He saide moreouer, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. She said, Say on.

15 And hee saide, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should raigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and giuen to my brother: for it is appointed him of the Lord.

e In signe of their fauour and consent.

16 And now I aske a petition of thee, denie me not. And she said vnto him, Say on.

17 And he saide, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Solomon the king (for he will not say thee nay) that he giue mee Abisag the Sunamite to wife.

18 And Bethsabe saide, I will speake for thee vnto the king.

19 Bethsabe therefore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonia: and the king rose vp to meete her, and bowed him selfe vnto her, and sate him downe on his seate, and there was a seate set for the kings mother, and she sate on his right side.

20 Then she said, I desire a little petition of thee, I pray thee say mee not nay: and the king said vnto her, Aske on my mother, for I will not say thee nay.

21 She saide, Let Abisag the Sunamite be giuen to Adonia thy brother to wife.

d Meaning, that if her sonne Adonia became Abisags husband afterward, hee might aspire to the kingdome.

22 And king Solomon answered, and saide vnto his mother, Why doest thou aske Abisag the Sunamite for Adonia? d aske for him the kingdome also: for hee is mine elder brother, and haue for him Abiathar the Priest, and Ioab the sonne of Zaruia.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lord, saying, God doe so and so to me, if Adonia haue not spoken this worde against his owne life.

24 Nowe therefore as the Lorde liueth, which hath ordeined mee, and set mee on the seate of Dauid my father, and made mee an house as hee promised, Adonia shall die this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hande of Banaia, the sonne of Iehoiada, and hee smote him, that he died.

26 And vnto Abiathar the Priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth vnto thine owne fieldes, for thou art worthie of death: but I will not at this time kill thee, because thou barest the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered with my father in all his afflictions.

27 e And so Solomon put away Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lorde: that hee might fulfill the wordes of the Lord, which he spake ouer the house of Eli in Silo.

e King Solomon deposed the high priest. 2.Reg.2.31.

28 Then tidings came also to Ioab (for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though hee turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lorde, and caught holde on the hornes of the altar.

29 And it was tolde king Solomon how that Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and beholde, hee is by the altar: Then Solomon sent Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, saying, Goe, and fall vpon him.

30 And Banaia came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said vnto him, Thus saith the king, Come out. And he said, Nay, but I will die euen here. And Banaia brought the king worde againe, saying, Thus saide Ioab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said vnto him, f Doe euen as hee hath saide, smite him, and burie him: that thou mayest take away the blood which Ioab shed causelesse, from mee, and from the house of my father.

f It was lawfull to take a wilfull murderer from the altar, Exod. 21.

32 And the Lord shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for hee smote two men, more righteous and better then he, and slew them with the sworde, my father Dauid not knowing thereof, euen Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Iether, captaine of the hoste of Iuda.

2.Kin.3.27. 2.Sam.20.9.

33 Their blood shal therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his seede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his seed, and vpon his house, and vpon his seate, shall there be peace for euer of the Lord.

34 So Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada went vp, and he fell vpon him, and slew him, and buried him in his owne house in the wildernesse.

35 And the king put Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada in his roome, ouer the hoste, and put Sadoc the Priest in the roome of Abiathar.

g And thereby the office of the high Priest from the house of Eli, and restored it to the house of Phinehes.

Act. 36 And

36 And the king sent, and called Semei, and saide vnto him, Builde thee an house in Hierusalem, and dwell there, and see that thou goe not foorth thence any whither.

37 For be thou sure, that the day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the riuer Cedron, thou shalt die that day, and thy blood shall be vpon thine owne head.

38 And Semei saide vnto the king, This saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy seruant doe. And Semei dwelt in Hierusalem many a day.

39 And after three yeeres, two of the seruants of Semei ranne away vnto Achis sonne of Maacha king of Geth: and they told Semei, saying, Beholde, thy seruants be in Geth.

h His coue-tous minde made him venter his life.

40 h And Semei stoode vp, and sadled his Asse, and gate him to Geth to Achis, to seeke his seruants: and Semei went, and brought his seruants againe from Geth.

41 And it was tolde Solomon how that Semei had gone from Hierusalem to Geth, and was come againe.

42 And the king sent and called Semei, and saide vnto him, Did I not charge thee by the Lorde with an othe, and testified vnto thee, saying, Be sure that when soeuer thou goest out, and walkest abroade any whither, thou shalt die the death? And thou saydest vnto me, It is good tidings that I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lord, and the commandement that I charged thee withall?

44 The king sayde moreouer to Semei, Thou remembrest all the wickednes which thine heart knoweth, and that thou diddest to Dauid my father: the Lord also shall bring thy wickednesse vpon thine owne head:

45 And king Solomon shalbe blessed, and the seate of Dauid stablished before the Lord for euer.

46 So the king commanded Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada: which went out, and smote him, that hee died: and the kingdome was stablished in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon loued the Lorde, walking in the ordinances of Dauid his father: saue onely that hee sacrificed and offered incense vpon altars in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to offer there, for that was the special high place: and a thousand whole burnt offerings did Solomon offer vpon that altar.

5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night, and God said, Aske what thou wilt, that I may giue it thee.

6 And Solomon saide, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercy, when he walked before thee in truth, in righteousnesse, and in plainnesse of heart with thee, & thou hast kept for him this great mercy that thou hast giuen him a sonne to sit on his seate, as it is come to passe this day.

7 And now, O Lorde my God, it is thou that hast made thy seruant king, in steade of Dauid my father: and I am but yong, and c wote not how to goe out and in.

c To behaue my selfe in this great charge of rule.

9 d Giue * therefore thy seruant an vnderstanding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may discerne betweene good and badde: for who is able to iudge this thy so mightie a people?

10 And this pleased the Lorde well, that Solomon had desired this thing.

11 And God said vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thy selfe long life, neither hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding, and discretion in iudgement:

12 Behold, I haue done according to thy wordes: loe, I haue giuen thee a wise and an vnderstanding heart, so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like vnto thee.

13 * And I haue also giuen thee that which thou hast not asked, euen riches and honour, so that there shal be no king like vnto thee all thy dayes. Wis.7.11.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances and my commandements, as thy father Dauid did walke, I will lengthen thy dayes.

e He knew that God had appeared vnto him in a dreame.

15 When Solomon awoke, e beholde, it was a dreame: and hee came to Hierusalem, and stoode before the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

16 Then came there two women that were ‡ harlots vnto the king, and stoode before him. ‡ Or, Cruddes

17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the house.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, she was deliuered also: and we were togetogether, & no stranger with vs in the house saue we two.

19 And this wiues childe died in the night: for she smothered it.

20 And she arose at midnight, & tooke my sonne from my side while thine handmaide slept, and laide it in her bosome, and put her dead childe in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my childe sucke, beholde, it was dead: but when I had looked vpon it in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne which I did beare.

22 And the other woman saide, It is not so, but my sonne liueth, & thy sonne is dead. And shee saide againe, No, but thy sonne is dead, and my sonne is aliue, And thus they pleaded before the king.

23 Then saide the king, The one saith, This that is aliue is my sonne, and the dead is thine: and the other saith, Nay: but thy sonne is the dead, & the liuing child is mine.

f The iudgement of king Solomon. 24 And the king said, f Bring me a sword. And they brought out a sworde before the king:

25 And the king saide, Deuide the liuing childe in two, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the liuing childe was, vnto the king (for her bowels yerned vpon her sonne) & said, I beseech thee my Lord, giue her the liuing childe, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but deuide it.

27 Then the king answered and saide, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay it not: for she is the mother thereof.

28 And all they of Israel heard of the iudgement which the king had iudged, and feared the king: for they sawe that the wisedome of God was in him, to doe iustice.

The v. Chapter.

1 Hiram sendeth to Solomon, and Solomon to him, purposing to builde the house of God. 6 He prepareth stuffe for the building. 13 The number of the workmen.

AND Hiram king of Tyre sent his seruants vnto Solomon: (for he had heard that they had anointed him king in ẏ roome of his father) for Hiram was euer a louer of Dauid.

2 * And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying. 2.Chr.2.3.

3 Thou knowest how that Dauid my father could not build an house vnto the name of the Lord his God, * for the warres which were about him on euery side, vntil the Lord put them vnder the soles of his feete. 2.Re.7.13. 1.ch.22.10

4 But now the Lord my God hath giuen me rest on euery side, so that there is neither aduersarie nor euill to resist.

5 And behold, I am determined to build an house vnto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lorde spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne whome I will set vpon thy seate for thee, he shall build an house vnto my name.

6 Now therefore commande thou, that they hewe me Cedar trees out of Libanon, and my seruants shal be with thine: and vnto thee will I giue the hyre for thy seruants, according to al such things as thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there are not among vs, that can skill to hewe timber like vnto the Sidons.

7 * And when Hiram heard the wordes of Solomon, hee reioyced greatly, and saide, Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath giuen vnto Dauid a wise sonne ouer this mightie people. * In the prestigne [illegible] Genesis should [illegible] to [illegible] Septuagint.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I haue considered the thinges which thou sentest to me for, and will accomplish all thy desire concerning timber of Cedar trees and firre.

9 My seruants shall bring them from Libanon vnto the Sea: & I will conuey them by sea in flotes, vnto the place that thou shalt shew me, and will cause them to bee discharged there, and thou shalt receiue them: and thou shalt doe me a pleasure againe, if thou minister foode for mine house.

10 And so Hiram gaue Solomon Cedar trees, and firre trees, according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gaue Hiram twentie thousand quarters of wheate for foode to his household, and twentie buttes of pure oyle: thus much gaue Solomon to Hiram yeere by yeere.

15 And Solomon had three score and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourescore thousand Masons in the mountaines:

16 Besides the lordes whom Solomon appointed to ouersee the worke, euen three thousande and three hundred, which ruled the people and them that wrought in the worke.

17 And the king commaunded them to bring great stones, costly stones, and hewen stones, for the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomons masons, and the masons of Hiram, did hewe them, and the stone squarers: and so they prepared both timber and stones for the building of the house.

The vi. Chapter.

1 The building of the temple, and the forme thereof. 12 The promise of the Lord to Solomon.

AND * in the foure hundred and [illegible] foure score yeere after the [illegible] of Israel were come out of [illegible] the lande of Egypt, and in the fourth yeere of the reigne of Solomon vpon Israel, and in the moneth [illegible] which is the second moneth, hee began to build the house of the Lord. And the house which king Solomon built for the Lorde, was three score cubits long,

…and twentie cubites wood, and thirtie cubites high.

3 And he made a porch before the temple of the house, which was twentie cubits long, after the breadth of the house, and ten cubits broad, in the forefront of the house.

4 And for the house he made * windowes, broade without, and narrow within.

5 And by the wall of the house hee made chambers round about in the walles of the house round about the temple and the quier: and he made chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was fiue cubites broade, and the middle was fiue cubites broade, and the third was seuen cubites broade: for without in the wall of the house he made rests round about, that the beames of the chambers should not bee fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And the house was built of stone, made perfect already before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe, nor any toole of iron heard in the house while it was in building.

8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and men went vp with winding staires into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 And so he built the house, and finished it: and sieled the house, being vaulted, with beames of Cedar trees.

10 And then he built chambers to all the house, fiue cubites high: and they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning the house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my lawes, and keepe all my commandements to walke in them: then will I make good vnto thee my promise, * which I promised Dauid thy father:

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 Solomon therefore built the house, and finished it:

15 And sieled the walles of the house within with boordes of Cedar tree, euen from the pauement of the house, vnto the roofe, did he sile the walles of it within with Cedar tree, and boorded the floore of the house with planckes of firre.

16 And he builded twentie cubites in the sides of the quier of the Temple, both floore and walles with boordes of Cedar, and built it within for the secrete place of the temple, euen for the most holy place.

17 But the house, that is, the temple before it, was fourtie cubites long.

18 And the Cedar of the house within, was carued with knoppes, and grauen with flowres: and all was Cedar timber, so that no stone was seene.

19 And the quier that was within the temple, hee prepared, to set there the arke of the appointment of the Lord.

20 And the quier [before, was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in height: and hee couered it with pure golde, and boorded the altar with Cedar. [Or, within.

21 So Solomon couered the house within with pure golde, and he made golden bars runne along the quier, which he had couered with golde.

22 And the whole house he ouerlaide with golde, vntill he had ended it: also all the altar that was before the quier, he ouerlaide with golde.

23 And within the quier hee made two Cherubims of [olive tree, ten cubites high. [Or, Pine tree.

24 Fiue cubites long was a wing of the one Cherub, and fiue cubites long was a wing of the other Cherub: so that from the vttermost part of one wing vnto the vttermost part of the other, were ten cubites.

25 And the other Cherub was tenne cubites high also: so that both the Cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was it of the other.

27 And hee put the Cherubims within the inner house: and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the one wing of the one touched the one wall, and the one wing of the other touched the other wall: and the other two wings of them touched one another in the middest of the house.

28 And hee ouerlaide the Cherubims with golde.

29 And in the walles of the house rounde about, hee made figures of carued and sieled woorke: as namely pictures of Cherubims, and palme trees, and grauen flowres within and without.

30 And the floore of the house hee couered with gold, within and without.

31 And in the entring of the quier hee made two doores of olive tree: and both the vpper and two side postes, were fiue square.

32 The two doores also were of olive tree, and he graued them with grauing of Cherubims, and palme trees, and grauen flowres, and couered them with gold, and laid thinne plates of golde vpon the Cherubims and palme trees.

33 And so made he for the doore of the temple, postes of olive tree, foure square.

34 The two doores were of firre tree, and either doore with folding leaues.

35 And hee graued thereon Cherubims, palme trees, and carued flowres: and couered the carued woorke with golde finely wrought.

36 And hee built the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, and one rowe of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yeere was the foundation of the house of the Lord laide, in the moneth [Zif. [Aprill.

38 And in the eleuenth yeere in the moneth,

October. neth | Bul (which is the eight moneth) was the house full finished throughout all the partes thereof, according to all the fashion of it: And so was he seuen yeres in building it.

The vij. Chapter.

1 The building of the house of Solomon. 15 The excellent workemanship of Hiram in the pieces which hee made for the temple.

BVt Solomon was building his owne house thirteene yeeres, and finished it all.

2 And hee built the house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites high: and it stoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillars, and Cedar beames were laid vpon the pillars.

3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that lay on the pillars, euen fiue and fourtie beames, fifteene in a rowe.

4 And there were windowes in three rowes, and the windowes were one against another, three folde.

5 And all the doores with the side postes, and the vpper postes, were foure square, and had windowes one against another, three folde.

6 And he made a porch by the pillars that bare vp the house fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broad, and the porche was before those and the other pillars: for there was a thicke tree set before them.

7 Then he made a porche to sit and iudge in, euen a porch of iudgement sieled with Cedar thorowout all the pauements.

8 And his house wherein hee dwelt, had an other hall more inward then the porch, of like woorke: and then Solomon made an house for Pharaos daughter * (whome hee had taken to wife) like vnto the fashion of the porche. 3. King. 3. 1.

9 And all these were of the best stones, hewed after a measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto the a beames that lay aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the outside towarde the great court.

a These beams were laide vpon stones, that hanged out on the toppe of the wall, the breadth of a hand.

10 And the foundation was layde vpon riche stones, and that verie great stones, whereof some were ten cubites, and some eight cubites.

11 And aboue were riche stones squared after a certain rule, and couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court round about, was with three rowes of hewed stones, and one rowe of Cedar planks after the maner of the inner court of the house of the Lorde, and of the porch of the temple.

13 And king Solomon sent and set one Hiram out of Tyre,

14 A widowes sonne of the tribe of Nephthali, his father being a man of Tyre: which Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, full of wisedome, vnderstanding, and cunning, to worke all maner of worke in brasse: and he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his worke.

15 For he cast two pillars of brasse of eighteene cubites high a piece: * and a string of twelue cubites did compasse either of them about. Iere. 52. 21.

16 And hee made two pommels of moulten brasse, after the fashion of a crowne to set on the toppes of the pillars: the height of the one head piece conteined fiue cubits, and the height of the other head piece conteined fiue cubites also.

17 He made net woorke & wreathen woorke like chaynes, for the pommels vpon the head pieces that were on the toppe of the pillars: euen seuen rowes vpon the one head piece, and seuen vpon the other.

18 And so he made the pillars, and two rowes of pomegranates round about in the one net woorke, to couer the pommels that were vpon the toppe: and this he did also for the other head piece.

19 And the pommels that were vpon the top of the pillars, were after Lillie woorke, in the porche, foure cubites.

20 And the pommels vpon the two pillars had also aboue ouer against the midst within the net woorke pomegranates, and vpon the seconde head piece were there two hundred pomegranates, in two rowes round about.

21 And he set vp the pillars in the porche of the temple: & when he had set vp the right pillar, hee called the name thereof b Jachin: and when he had set vp the left pillar, he called the name thereof c Boaz.

b Ie stablish, and confirme, as ye shall say. God confirme & make firm this pillar my sonne.

c Fortitude, or strength, as he might say, God make strong this house by me.

22 And vpon the toppe of the pillars were Lillie woorke: and so was the woorkemanship of the pillars finished.

23 And he made a moulten lauatorie, ten cubites wide from brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and fiue cubites high: and a string of thirtie cubites did compasse it about.

24 And vnder the brim of it, there were knoppes round about, ten in one cubite, and they compassed the lauatorie rounde about: and the knops were cast with it in two rowes when it was cast.

25 And it stood on twelue oxen, of which, three looked towarde the North, three towarde the west, three toward the South, and three toward the East: and the lauatorie stood vpon them, and all their hinder partes were inward.

26 It was an hand breadth thicke, and the brimme was brought like the brim of a cup, with flowres of Lillies, and it contayned two thousand d Battes.

d Of Bat is an Epha sayeth he both one measure, Ezech. 45. read Bat contrarely to bunt ten pottels, wherof the Epha by nature to measure dry things, and the Bat by moyst things.

27 And hee made ten feete of brasse: foure cubites long, and foure cubits broad a piece, and three cubites high.

28 And the woorke of the feete was on this maner, they had sides, and the sides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the sides that were betweene the ledges, were Lions, Oxen, and Cherubims: and likewise vpon the ledges that were were aboue: and beneath the Lions and Oxen, were certaine additions made of thin worke.

30 And vnder euery foote were foure brasen wheeles, and ‖ boordes of brasse: and in the foure corners thereof vnder the lauatory, were vndersetters moulten, at the side of euery addition.

31 And the stalke of the lauatorie was in the middle of it, and aboue one cubite: but the stalke thereof was round, after the worke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: and also vpon the stalke were grauinges, with their bordes, foure square, and not round.

32 And vnder ỹ sides were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned fast to the bottome, and the height of euery wheele was a cubite and an halfe.

33 And the workmanship of the wheeles was like the worke of a charet wheele: and their axeltrees, their naues, spokes, & shaftes, were all moulten.

34 And there were foure vndersetters in the foure corners of one foote, and the vndersetters were of the very bottome it selfe.

35 And in the height of the bottome was there a round compasse of halfe a cubit high: and in that height of the bottome there proceeded both ledges and sides out of the same.

36 For in the boords of the ledges, and on the sides, he had grauen pictures of Cherubims, Lions, and Palme trees, one by another round about.

37 Thus made he the ten seete after this maner: and they had al one fashion of casting, one measure, and syse.

38 Then made he tenne lauers of brasse, one lauer conteyning fourtie Baths: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten seete, he put one lauer.

39 And hee put fiue of those seete on the right side of the house, and other fiue on the left: and he set the lauatorie on the right side of the house Eastward, & toward the South.

40 And Hiram made pots, shouels and basons, & so finished al the worke that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 That is to say, two pillars, and two round head pieces that were to be set on the tops of the two pillars: and two net workes, to couer the two rounde head pieces which were vpon the top of the pillars:

42 And foure hundred pomgranates for the two net works, euē two rowes of Pomegranates in one net worke, to couer the two head pieces that were to be set on the toppes of the pillars:

43 And the ten seete, and ten lauers on the seete:

44 The lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it:

45 And pots, shouels, and basons: and all these vessels which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the Lorde, were of bright brasse.

46 In the plaine of Iordane did the king cast them in the thicke clay, betwene Socoth and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels vnweighed: because they were so exceeding many, neither found they out the weight of the brasse.

48 And so Solomon made all the vessels that pertained vnto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table whereon the shewe bread was:

49 And fiue candlesticks for the right side, and fiue for the left before the quier, of pure golde, with flowres, lampes, and snuffers of golde, 50 And bowels, flatte pieces, basons, spoones, and masons of pure golde: and hinges made he of gold, both for the doores of the quier the place most holy, and for the doores of the temple also.

51 And so was ended all the woorke that king Solomon made for the house of the Lord, * and Solomon brought in the thinges which Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the siluer, golde, and vessels, and laid them vp among the treasures of the house of the Lord. * 2.Chro.5.1

The viij. Chapter.

4 The arke is borne into the temple. 10 A cloud fillet h the temple. 15 The king blesseth the people.

THen * Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, & all the heads of the tribes, & them that were captaines among the fathers of the children of Israel, vnto him in Hierusalem, that they might bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde, out of the citie of Dauid, which is Sion. * 2.Chro.5.2

2 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto king Solomon, to the feast that falleth in the ‖ moneth Ethanim, which is the seuenth moneth. ‖ Or, September.

3 And all the elders of Israel were come, and the priests tooke vp the arke.

4 And they bare the arke of the Lord, the tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holie vessels that were in the Tabernacle, those did the priests and the Leuites beare.

5 And king Solomon, and al the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, and went with him before the arke, did offer sheepe, and oxen, that could not be told nor numbred for multitude.

6 And so the Priestes brought the arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple, and place most holy, vnder the wings of the Cherubims:

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their winges ouer the place of the arke, and couered both it, and also the staues thereof a high vpon it.

8 And they drue out the staues, that the endes of them might appeare out of the holy place within the quire, but they were not seene without, and there they haue bene vnto this day.

9 And there was nothing in the Arke
Deut. 10.5. * saue the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the Lorde made a couenant with the children of Israel when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt.

a Ye meanerly, nothing of the whole law remained in the arke, sauing the two tables conteining the ten commandements: neyther receiuing Aarons rod, neither the pot with Manna, which also were in the arke, Heb. 9.

10 And when the Priests were come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the Lord, 11 That the priestes coulde not stand and minister, because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lord said that he would dwel in the darke cloud.

13 I haue built thee an house to dwel in, an habitation for thee to abide in for euer.

14 And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood still.

15 And he saide, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hande fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the tribes of Israel to builde an house, that my name might be therein: but I haue chosen Dauid to be ruler ouer my people Israel.

2.Sam.7.1. 17 * And it was in the heart of Dauid my father, to builde an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lord said vnto Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house vnto my name, thou didst well that thou wast so minded:

19 Neuertheless, thou shalt not build the house: but thy sonne that shall come out of thy loynes, he shall build the house vnto my name.

20 And the Lorde hath made good his word that he spake, and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and sit on the seat of Israel, as the Lorde promised, and haue built an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel:

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the couenaunt of the Lorde, which he made with our fathers when hee brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 Solomon stood before the altar of the Lorde, in the sight of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes toward heauen, and saide,

2.Mac.2.8. 23 * Lorde God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepest couenant and mercie with thy seruants that walke before thee with all their heart, 24 Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hande, as it is come to passe this day.

25 Therefore now, Lorde God of Israel, keepe with thy seruaunt Dauid my father, that thou promisedst him, saying, * There 2.Sa shalt not be without a man in my sight, to sit on the seat of Israel: so that thy children take heede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou hast walked in my sight.

26 And nowe, O God of Israel, let thy worde bee verified which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father.

27 But God in deede dwell on the earth? beholde, the heauen and heauens of all heauens are not able to conteine thee: and how should then this house do it that I haue builded?

28 Haue thou therefore respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lorde my God, to heare the crie and prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, euen toward the place, of which thou hast sayde, * My name De shalbe there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant prayeth in this place:

30 And regarde thou the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, when they pray in this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and when thou hearest, haue mercie.

31 If any man trespas against his neighbour, and there go an oath betweene them, and the one compell the other, to come, & sweare before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hearken thou in heauen, and do and iudge thy seruants, that thou condemne the vngodly, to bring his way vpon his head: and iustifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousnesse.

33 When thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemie, because they haue sinned against thee, and afterward turne again to thee, and knowledge vnto thy name, and pray, and make supplication vnto thee in this house:

34 Then heare thou in heauen, & be merciful vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them again vnto the land which thou gauest vnto their fathers.

35 If heauen be shut vp, and there bee no raine, because they haue sinned against thee: yet if they pray in this place, and giue knowledge vnto thy name, and turne from their sinne through thy scourging of them:

36 Then heare thou in heauen, and bee merciful vnto the sinnes of thy seruants, and of thy people Israel, that thou shew them a good way to walke in, and giue raine vpon the land that thou hast giuen to thy people to inherite.

37 If there be in the land dearth, or pestilence, drouth, blasting, Grashopper, or Caterpiller: or if their enemie besiege them in the land of their cities, or whatsoeuer plague or sickenesse chaunce vnto them,

38 Then what prayer and supplication so euer bee made of any man of all thy people Israel,

Israel, which shall knowledge euery man the plague of his owne heart, and stretch forth his hands toward this house:

39 Heare thou then in heauen in thy dwelling place, and be mercifull, & doe and giue euery man according to his wayes, euen as thou that onely knowest his heart (for thou onely knowest the hearts of all the children of men.)

40 That they may feare thee, as long as they liue, in the land which thou gauest vnto our fathers.

41 And likewise, if a stranger that is not of thy people Israel, come out of a farre countrey, for thy names sake:

42 (For they shal heare of thy great name, and of thy mightie hand, and of thy stretched out arme,) and shall come and pray in this house:

43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and doe all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all nations of the earth may knowe thy name, and feare thee, as doe thy people Israel, and that they may know that thy name is called vpon in this house which I haue builded.

44 If thy people goe out to battel against their enemie, whither so euer thou shalt send them, and shall pray vnto the Lorde towarde the way of the citie which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house that I haue built for thy name:

45 Heare thou in heauen their prayer and supplication, ‖ and iudge their cause.

46 If they sinne against thee (for there is no *man that sinneth not) and thou bee angrie with them, and deliuer them into the hande of their enemies, so that they carrie them away prisoners vnto the lande of their enemies, whether farre or neere:

47 Yet if they turne againe vnto their hearts, [b] in the lande of them that carryed them away captiues, and returne and pray vnto thee in the lande of their enemies, saying, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly, and haue committed vngodlinesse:

48 And so turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and all their soule, in the land of their enemies which led them away captiue, and pray vnto thee towarde the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and towarde the citie which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house which I haue built for thy name:

49 Then heare thou their prayer and supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and iudge their cause:

50 And be mercifull vnto thy people that haue sinned against thee, and vnto all their iniquities, whereby they haue done wickedly against thee, and get thou them the fauour of those which led them away captiue, that they may haue compassion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egypt, euen from the middes of the furnace of yron.

52 And let thine eyes bee open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, to hearken vnto them in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou diddest separate them from among al the nations of the earth to be thine owne inheritance, as thou saydest by the hande of Moses thy seruaunt, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Solomon had made an ende of praying all this prayer and supplication vnto the Lorde, he arose from before the altar of the Lorde, and from kneeling on his knees, and from stretching of his handes vp to heauen,

55 And stoode, and blessed all the congregation of Israel, with a loude voyce, saying,

56 Blessed bee the Lorde that hath giuen rest vnto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one worde of all the good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his seruant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as hee was with our fathers, and forsake vs not, neither leaue vs:

58 But that hee may bowe our hearts vnto him, that wee may walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandements, his statutes, and his lawes which he commanded our fathers.

59 And those my wordes which I haue prayed before ỹ Lord, be nigh vnto the Lorde our God day & night, that he defend the cause of his seruant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all nations of ỹ earth may know that the Lord is God, and no one but he.

61 Let your heart therefore bee perfect with the Lord our God, that ye walke in his statutes, and keepe his commandements, as this day.

62 And the king, and al Israel with him, offered offerings before the Lord.

63 *And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which hee offered vnto the Lord, to wit twentie and two thousand oxen, and an hundred & twentie thousand sheepe: And so the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord. 2.Chro.7.5.

64 The same day did the king halowe the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered whole burnt offerings, meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offrings: because the brasen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receiue the whole burnt offerings, meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Solomon held that same time an high feast, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hemath, vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God seuen dayes, and seuen dayes, euen fourteene dayes. & Seuen daies for the dedication, and seuen dayes for the feast.

66 And the eight day he sent the people away, and they ‖blessed the king, and went vnto ‖Or, thanked.

vnto their tentes ioyous, and with gladde heart, because of all the goodnesse that the Lorde had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

4 And if thou wilt walke before mee, as Dauid thy father walked, in pureneſſe of heart, and in righteousnesse, to doe all that I haue commaunded thee, and will keepe my statutes, and my lawes:

5 Then will I stablish the seate of thy 2.Sam.7. kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I * promised to Dauid thy father; saying, Thou shalt 12.1.chro. not be without a man vpon the seate of Israel. 22,10.

6 But if ye and your children turne away from me, and will not keepe my commandements, and my statutes which I haue set before you, but goe and serue other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I weede Israel out of the lande which I haue giuen them, and this house which I haue halowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shalbe a prouerbe, and a fable among all nations,

8 ‖ And this house shalbe taken away: so ‖Some reade, when this house is in great honour. that euery one that palleth by it, shalbe astonied, and shall hisse, and they shall say, * why Deut.29.24 hath the Lord done thus vnto this land, and ier.22.8. to this house?

9 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lord their God, which brought their fathers out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde vpon other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them: therefore hath the Lorde brought vpon them all this euill.

2.Chro.8.1. 10 * And at the ende of twentie yeeres, when Solomon had finished the building of the two houses that is to wit, the house of the Lord, and the kings palace, 11 (And Hiram the king of Tyre, brought Solomon timber of Cedar, and firre trees, golde, and whatsoeuer he desired) then Solomon gaue Hiram twentie cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had giuen him, and they pleased him not.

13 And hee sayde, What cities are these which thou hast giuen me, my brother? And he called them the land of ‡ barren, vnto this ‡Heb. Chebul. day.

14 And Hiram sent the king fiue score talents of golde.

15 (And this is the summe which king Solomon raised for a tribute, when he builded the house of the Lorde, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Hierusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gazer.

16 For Pharao king of Egypt went vp, and tooke Gazer, and burnt it with fire, and slue the Chanaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gazer, and Bethhoron the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Thamor in the wildernesse, in the land,

19 And all the treasure cities that Solomon had, and cities for his charets, & cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired, and would builde in Hierusalem, in Libanon, and in all the land of his dominion.)

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able to destroy: those did Solomon compel to bring tribute vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel, did Solomon make no bondmē: but they were men of warre, his ministers, his lordes, his captains, & rulers of his charets, & his horsmen.

23 And these were the lords that were set ouer Solomons worke, fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought the worke.

24 * And Pharaos daughter came vp out 2.Chr.8.11 of the citie of Dauid, vnto her house which Solomon had built for her: and then did he also builde Millo.

25 And thrise a yeere did Solomon offer whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings vpon the altar which he built vnto the Lord, and he burnt incense vpō the altar that was before the Lord, and so he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a naue of ships in Ezion Gaber, which is beside Eloth, on the brinke of the red sea, in the lande of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent by ship also of his seruants that were shipmen & had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Solomon:

28 And they came to Ophir, and fet from thence ‡ foure hundred and twentie talents of gold, and brought it to king Solomon.

AND the * queene of Saba hearing the fame of Solomon (concerning the name of the Lorde) came to prooue him with hard queſtions.

2 And ſhee came to Hieruſalem with a very great traine, with Camels that bare ſweete odours, and golde exceeding much, and precious ſtones: and ſhe came to Solomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto her all her queſtions, ſo that there was not one thing hid from the king, which hee expounded not vnto her.

4 And the queene of Saba conſidered all Solomons wiſedome, and the houſe that he had builded,

5 And the meate of his table, and the ſitting of his ſeruaunts, the order of his miniſters, and their apparell, & his ‖ butlers, and his whole burnt ſacrifices that he offered in the houſe of the Lord: and ‡ ſhe was aſtonied.

‖ Or, drinking veſſels. ‡ Heb. There was no more ſpirit in her.

6 And ſhe ſaide vnto the king, It was a true word that I heard in mine owne land, of thy ſayings, and of thy wiſedome.

7 Howbeit, I beleeued it not, til I came, and ſawe it with mine eyes: and beholde, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wiſedome and proſperitie exceedeth the fame which I heard of thee.

8 Happie are thy men, and happie are theſe thy ſeruaunts which ſtand euer before thee, and heare thy wiſedome.

9 Bleſſed be the Lorde thy God which loued thee, to ſet thee on the ſeate of Iſrael, a becauſe the Lord loued Iſrael for euer, and made b thee king, to doe equitie and righteouſneſſe.

a God loueth that people in whom he giueth a wiſe ruler. b The office of a king.

10 And ſhe gaue the king fiue ſcore talents of golde, & of ſweete odours exceeding much, and precious ſtones: there came no more ſuch abundance of ſweete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to king Solomon.

11 The nauie alſo of the ſhippes of Hiram (that caried golde from Ophir) brought likewiſe great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious ſtones, from Ophir.

12 And the king made of the Almuge trees pillars for the houſe of the Lorde, and for the kings palace, and made Harpes and Pſalteries for ſingers: there came no more ſuch Almuge trees, nor were any more ſeene vnto this day.

13 And king Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba, according to all her deſire, whatſoeuer ſhee aſked, beſides that he gaue her of a free will with his owne hand: and ſo ſhee returned vnto her owne countrey, both ſhe, and her ſeruants.

14 The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was fiue hundred, three ſcore, and fiue talents of golde, 15 Beſides that he had of marchants, and of the marchandizes of the ſpices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the lords of the countrey.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: fiue hundred ſicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred ſhieldes of beaten golde: three pounde of golde went to one ſhielde, and the king put them in the houſe of the wood of Libanon.

18 And the king made a great ſeate of Iuorie, and couered it with the beſt golde.

19 And the ſeate had ſixe ſteppes, and the toppe of the ſeate was rounde behinde, and there were pommels on eyther ſide on the place of the ſeate, and two Lions ſtoode beſide the pommels.

20 And there ſtoode twelue Lions on the ſteppes, ſixe on a ſide: there was none like worke ſeene in any kingdome.

21 And all king Solomons drinking veſſels were of gold, and likewiſe all the veſſels of the houſe of the wood of Libanon were of pure gold: and as for ſiluer, it was nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon:

22 For the kings nauie of ſhippes went on the ſea vnto Tharſis, with the nauie of Hirams ſhippes: euen once in three yeeres went the nauie to Tharſis, and brought golde and ſiluer, Elephants teeth, Apes, and Pecockes.

23 And ſo king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth, both in riches & wiſdome.

24 And all the world reſorted to Solomon, to heare his wiſedome which God had put in his heart:

25 And brought him euery man his preſent, veſſels of ſiluer, and veſſels of golde, raiment, harneſſe, and ſweete odours, and horſes, and mules, yeere by yeere.

26 And * Solomon gathered together charets and horſemen. And hee had a thouſand and foure hundred charets, and twelue thouſand horſemen, whō he beſtowed in the caret cities, & with the king at Hieruſalem. 2.Chro.1. 14.

27 And the king made ſiluer in Hieruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, and Cedar as plenteous as the wild figge trees, that grow abundantly in the fieldes.

28 Alſo Solomon had horſes brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: the ‖ kings marchants receiued the linen for a price.

‖ Or, for the company of the kings marchants did receiue a number at a price.

29 A caret came vp out of Egypt ‖ for ſixe hundred ſicles of ſiluer, that is, one horſe for an hundred and fiftie, and euen ſo for all the kings of the Hethites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out ‖ through their hands.

‖ Or, worth. ‖ or, by their meanes.

The xj. Chapter.

1 Solomon had a thouſand wiues and concubines, which bring him to idolatrie.

BVt king Solomon loued many outlandiſh women, and the * daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonites, and Hethites: Deut.17.17

2 where as yet concerning theſe nations, tions, the Lord saide vnto the children of Israel, Go not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you, els will they turne your hearts after their gods: neuertheless Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

a God tollerated in his people the Israelites pluralitie of wiues, as well for the increase of that his people, as also for ỹ mysterie. For Agar and Sara Abrahams wiues, Lea & Rachel Iacobs wiues, were figures of the Synagogue, and of ỹ true church: but Christ hath called vs to the first institution, saying, There shalbe two in one flesh, Mat. 19. Iudges 2.

3 a And he had seuen hundred wiues that were queenes, & three hundred concubines: and his wiues turned away his heart.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

5 For Solomon followed Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Milcom the abomination of the Amorites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lorde, and followed not the Lord perfectly, as did Dauid his father.

7 For then did Solomon builde an high place for Chamos the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Hierusalem, and vnto Moloch the abomination of the children of Ammon.

b Here it appeareth what daunger it is to ioyne with infidels and wiues of strange religion.

8 b And like wise did hee for all his outlandish wiues, which burnt incense, and offered vnto their gods.

9 And the Lorde was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the Lord God of Israel, which had appeared vnto him twise,

10 And gaue him a charge concerning this thing, that hee should not followe other gods: but hee kept not that which the Lorde commanded him.

11 Wherefore the Lorde saide vnto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept mine appointment, and my statutes which I commaunded thee, I will rent the kingdome from thee, and will giue it to thy seruant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy dayes I will not doe it, because of Dauid thy father: but will take it from the hand of thy sonne.

c Because the tribes of Iuda & Beniamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

13 Howbeit, I will not take away all the kingdome: but will giue one c tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruant, and because of Hierusalem which I haue chosen.

14 And the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kings seed, which was in Edom.

2.Kin.8.14.

15 For when Dauid was * in Edom, and Ioab the captaine of the host was gone vp to burie them that were slaine, he smote all the men children in Edom:

16 (For sixe moneths did Ioab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the men children of Edom,)

17 And this Hadad fled, & certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to come into Egypt: Hadad being yet a litle childe.

18 And they arose out of Madian, and came to Paran, & tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt, vnto Pharao king of Egypt, which gaue him an house, & appointed him victuals, and gaue him land.

19 And Hadad gate great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Thaphpenes the queene.

20 And the sister of Thaphpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whom Thaphpenes nourished in Pharaos house: and Genubath was with Pharaos housholde among the sonnes of Pharao.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that Dauid was laide to sleepe with his fathers, and that Ioab the captaine of the host was dead also, he said to Pharao, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey.

22 Pharao said vnto him, What hast thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldest thus goe to thine owne countrey? He answered, Nothing: Howbeit, let me goe.

23 And God stirred him vp an other aduersarie, one Rezon, the sonne of Eliada, *which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zoba: 2.Sam.8.

24 And hee gathered men vnto him, and became captaine ouer the companie when Dauid slewe them: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, & reigned in Damascus.

25 Therefore was he an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Solomon, and this was the mischiefe, in that Hadad did abhorre Israel, and reigned ouer Syria.

26 *And Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite, of Zareda (whose mother was called Zeruah, which was a widowe) and he Solomons seruant, lift vp his hand against the king. 2.Chr.13.6

27 But this was the cause that he lift vp his hand against the king: Solomon built Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this fellow Ieroboam was a man of strength and courage: and Solomon seeing the young man that hee was able to doe the worke, made him ruler ouer all ỹ charge of the house of Ioseph.

29 And at that season Ieroboam went out of Hierusalem, and the prophet Ahia the Silonite met him by ỹ way, hauing a newe mantell on him, and they two were alone in the field.

30 Ahia caught the newe mantell that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces, 31 And said to Ieroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdome out of the hands of Solomon, and will giue ten tribes to thee.

32 And he shall haue one for my seruant Dauids sake, and for Hierusalem the citie which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

33 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue worshipped Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, mon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, my statutes, & my lawes, as did Dauid his father.

34 I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: but I will make him chiefe all his life long, for Dauid my seruants sake whom I chose, because he kept my commandements and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, euen ten tribes of it:

36 And vnto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant may haue a light alway before me in Hierusalem, the citie which I haue chosen me to put my Name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt raigne according to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commaund thee, & wilt walke in my wayes, and doe that is right in my sight, that thou keepe my statutes, & my commandements, as Dauid my seruaunt did, then will I bee with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for my seruant Dauid, and will giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for this offence which Solomon hath committed punish the seede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, & Jeroboam arose, & fled into Egypt, vnto Sisac King of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt, vntill the death of Solomon.

41 The rest of the wordes that concerne Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisedome, are they not written in the booke of the wordes of Solomon?

42 The time that Solomon reigned in Hierusalem, vpon all Israel, was fourtie yeeres.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, & was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Roboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Roboam succeedeth Solomon. 20 Ieroboam reigneth ouer Israel.

2.Chro.10.1. AND * Roboam went to Sichem: for all Israel were come to Sichem to make him king,

2 And when Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which was yet in Egypt heard of it (for hee fledde to Egypt from the presence of King Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt:)

3 So they sent, and called him: and Jeroboam & all the congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Roboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grieuous, now therefore make thou the grieuous seruice of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he sayd vnto them, Depart yet for the space of three dayes, and then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Roboam tooke counsell with the olde men that stood before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, and sayd, What counsell giue yee, that I may answere this people?

7 And they sayd vnto him, [a] If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and followe their mindes, and answere them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruants for euer. [a] Graue and wise counsell.

8 But hee forsooke the counsell that the olde men had giuen him, and called vnto his counsell yong men, that were growen vp with him, and waited on him:

9 And he sayd vnto them, What counsell giue yee, that we may answere this people? for they haue communed with mee, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter.

10 [b] And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people that haue sayde vnto thee, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: * euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My litle finger shall be weightier then my father was in the loynes. [b] Yong and raih counsell. Eccl.47.28.

11 And now where as my father did lade you, and put a grieuous yoke vpon you, I will make it heauier: my father hath chastised you with roddes, but I will correct you with ‖ scourges. ‖ Or, scorpions.

12 And so Jeroboam and all the people, came to Roboam the third day, as the King had appointed, saying, Come to mee againe the third day.

13 And the King answered the people churlishly, and left the olde mens counsell that they gaue him:

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I will make it grieuouser: my father also chastised you with rods, but I will chastise you with scourges.

15 And the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the * ordinance of God, that hee might perfourme his saying which the Lord spake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And so when all Israel sawe that the king regarded them not, the people answered the king with these wordes, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? we haue not inheritance in the sonne of Jsai: to your tents, O Israel, now see to thine owne house, Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tents.

17 Howbeit, ouer the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Juda, did Roboam reigne still.

18 The King Roboam sent Aduram the receiuer of the tribute, and all they of Israel stoned him to death: but King Roboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, and to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And they of Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid vnto this day.

20 And when all Iſrael heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they ſent and called him vnto the multitude, and made him king ouer all Iſrael, and there was no tribe that followed the houſe of Dauid, but Iuda onely.

Chap.11. 13. 21 And when *Roboam was come to Hieruſalem, hee gathered all the houſe of Iuda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and foure ſcore thouſand of choſen men, which were good warriers, to fight againſt the houſe of Iſrael, and to bring the kingdome againe to Roboam the ſonne of Solomon.

2.Chro. 11.2. 22 *And the word of God came vnto Semai the c man of God, ſaying, c The prophet of God. 23 Speake vnto Roboam the ſonne of Solomon King of Iuda, and vnto all the houſe of Iuda & Beniamin, and to the remnant of the people, ſaying, 24 Thus ſaith the Lord, Ye ſhall not goe vp, nor yet fight againſt your brethren the children of Iſrael: returne euery man to his houſe, for this thing is my doing. They hearkened therefore to the worde of the Lord, and returned to depart, according to the worde of the Lorde.

25 Then Ieroboam built Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Ieroboam thought in his heart, Now ſhall the kingdom returne to the houſe of Dauid.

d Worldly policie againſt Gods worde. 27 d For if this people goe vp, and doe ſacrifice in the houſe of the Lorde at Hieruſalem, then ſhall the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lorde Roboam king of Iuda, and ſo ſhall they kill mee, and goe againe to Roboam King of Iuda.

28 Whereupon the King tooke counſell, and made two calues of golde, and ſayd vnto them, It is much for you to goe vp to Hieruſalem: Exod.32.8. *beholde O Iſrael, theſe are thy gods, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he ſet the one in Bethel, and the other ſet he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to ſinne: for the people went (becauſe of the one) as farre as Dan.

31 And he made an houſe of high places, 2.Chro.11. 49. *and made prieſts of the loweſt of the people, which were not of the ſonnes of Leui.

32 And Ieroboam made a feaſt the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, like vnto the feaſt that is in Iuda, and offered on the altar: and ſo did he in Bethel, to offer vnto the calues that he had made: and he put in Bethel the prieſtes of the high places which hee had made.

33 And he went vp to the altar, to burne incenſe which he had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, euen in the ‖Or, and he went vp to the altar to burne incenſe. moneth which he had imagined of his owne heart: and made a ſolemne feaſt vnto the children of Iſrael, ‖ and offered vpon the altar, and burnt incenſe.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Ieroboam is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand drieth vp.

AND beholde, there came a a man of God out of Iuda by the word of the Lorde, vnto Bethel: and Ieroboam ſtood by the altar, to put incenſe. a 2.Pe

2 And hee cryed againſt the altar in the worde of the Lord, & ſaid, O altar, altar, thus ſaith the Lord, *Behold, a child ſhalbe borne vnto the houſe of Dauid, Ioſia by name, and vpon thee ſhall he offer the prieſts of the high places that burne incenſe vpon thee; and mens bones ſhall be burnt vpon thee. 4.Kin. 17.

3 And he gaue a token the ſame time, ſaying, This is the token that the Lorde hath ſpoken it, Beholde, the altar ſhall rent, and the aſhes that are vpon it ſhall fall out.

4 And when the king heard the ſaying of the man of God, which had cried againſt the altar in Bethel, hee ſtretched out his hand from the altar, ſaying, Holde him: And his hand which he put forth againſt him, dryed vp, and he could not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar alſo claue aſunder, and the aſhes fell out from the altar, according to the token which the man of God had giuen by the worde of the Lorde.

6 And the king anſwered, and ſayd vnto the man of God, Oh pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make interceſſion for me, that my hand may bee reſtored mee againe. And the man of God beſought the Lord, & the kings hand was reſtored againe, and became as it was before.

7 And the king ſaid vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayeſt dine, and I will giue thee a reward.

8 And the man of God ſaid vnto the king, If thou wilt giue mee halfe thine houſe, I will not goe in with thee, neither wil I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place:

9 For ſo was it charged mee through the word of the Lord, ſaying, Eate no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the ſame way that thou cameſt.

10 And ſo he went another way, & returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 And there dwelt an olde prophet in Bethel, and his ſonnes came & tolde him all the workes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: & the words which he had ſpoken vnto the king, told they their father alſo.

12 And their father ſaid vnto them, what way went he? And his ſonnes ſhewed him what way the man of God went, which came from Iuda.

13 And he ſaid vnto his ſonnes, Saddle me the aſſe. Which when they had ſadled, he gate him vp thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him ſitting vnder an oke, and he ſaide vnto him, Art thou the man of God that cameſt from Iuda? And he ſayd, I am.

15 Hee ſayde vnto him, Come home with with me, and eate bread.

16 He answered, I may not returne with thee, to goe in with thee: neither will I eate bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was saide to me in the worde of the Lorde, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to goe by the way that thou camest.

18 He said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as well as thou, and an angel spake vnto me in the word of the Lorde, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that hee may eate bread, and drinke water: And he lyed vnto him.

19 And so he went againe with him, and did eate bread in his house, & dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the Prophet that brought him againe.

21 And hee cryed vnto the man of God that came from Juda, saying, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandement which the Lorde thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread, and drunke water, in the place concerning the which the Lorde did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke no water: thy carkeise shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And when hee had eaten bread, and dronke, he sadled him the asse, to wit, to the prophet whome he had brought againe.

24 And when he was gone, [b] a lion mette him by the way, and slewe him: and his carkeise was cast in the way, and the asse stoode thereby, and the lion stoode by the corse also.

25 And men that passed by, sawe the carkeise cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carkeise: and they came and tolde it in the towne where the olde prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, he was disobedient vnto the word of the Lorde, & therefore the Lorde hath delivered him vnto the Lion, which hath rent him, and slaine him, according to the word of the Lorde which he spake vnto him.

27 And hee spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me an asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went, and found his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lion stood by the carkeise, and the lion had not eaten the carkeise, nor hurt the asse.

29 And the prophet tooke vp the body of the man of God, and laide it vpon the asse, and brought it againe: & the old prophet came to the citie, to lament, and to burie him.

30 And hee laide his body in his owne graue, and then lamented over him, saying, Alas my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, when I am dead, see that ye bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buryed: lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For the saying which he cryed at the word of the Lord against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall come to passe.

33 Howbeit, for all that, Jeroboam conuerted not from his wicked way: but turned backe, and made of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: * and who so pleased him, he ‖ filled his hand, and he became priest of the high places. Cha. 12. 31. ‖ Or, consecrated him.

34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Jeroboam, euen to destroy him, and to bring him to nought from off the face of the earth.

The xiiij. Chapter.

2 Ieroboam sendeth his wife disguised to Ahia the prophet, who declareth vnto him the destruction of his house.

AT that time Abia the sonne of Jeroboam fell sicke.

2 And Jeroboam sayd to his wife, Vp, I pray thee, and disguise thy selfe, that thou be not knowen to be the wife of Jeroboam: and get thee to Silo, for there is Ahia the prophet, * which tolde me that I should be king ouer this people. 3. King. 11. 31.

3 And take with thee tenne loaues, and cracknels, and a cruse of hony, and goe to him, that he may tell thee what shall become of the childe.

4 And Jeroboams wife did so, and arose, and went to Silo, and came to the house of Ahia: but Ahia coulde not see, for his eyes were waxen dimme for age.

5 And the Lord said vnto Ahia, Beholde, the wife of Jeroboam commeth to aske a thing of thee for her sonne, for he is sicke: but thus and thus shalt thou say vnto her, And when she came in, shee fained her selfe to bee another woman.

6 But when Ahia heard the sound of her feete, as she came in at ỹ doore, he said, Come in thou wife of Jeroboam, why fainest thou thy selfe to be another? I am sent to thee to shew thee heauy things.

7 Goe tell Jeroboam, Thus saith ỹ Lorde God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, & made thee prince ouer my people Israel,

8 And haue rent ỹ kingdome away from the house of Dauid, and gaue it thee: neuertheless, thou hast not bene as my seruaunt Dauid, which kept my commaundements, and followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes.

9 But hast done euill aboue all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to prouoke me, and hast cast me behind thy backe.

10 Therefore behold, I will bring euill 3. King. 15. 29.

vpon the house of Ieroboam, & will roote out from Ieroboam, euen him that pisseth against the wal, and him that is in prison and forsaken in Israel, & wil take away the remnant of the house of Ieroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till he hath carryed out all.

11 Whosoeuer of Ieroboams house die in the towne, him shall the dogges eate: and he that dieth in the fielde, shall the foules of the ayre eate: for the Lord hath said it.

12 Vp therefore, and gette thee to thine owne house: Behold, when thy foote entreth into the citie, the child shall die, 13 And all they of Israel shall mourne for him, and bury him: for he onely of Ieroboam shall come to the sepulchre, because in him there is found goodnesse towarde the Lorde God of Israel, in the house of Ieroboam.

14 Moreouer, the Lorde shall stirre him vp a king ouer Israel, which shall destroy the house of Ieroboam in that day: but what is it now?

15 For the Lord shall smite Israel, like as a reede is shaken in the water, and he shall weede Israel out of this good land which he gaue to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond ‖ the riuer, because they haue made them groues, and angred the Lord. ‖ Or, Euphrates.

16 And he shall giue Israel vp, because of the sinnes of Ieroboam, which did sinne, and made Israel to sinne.

17 And Ieroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Thirzah: and whē she came to the threshold of the doore, the childe was dead.

18 And all Israel buried him, and lamented him, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake by the hand of his seruant Ahia the prophet.

19 And the rest of ẏ wordes that concerne Ieroboam, how he warred, & how he reigned, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, were two and twentie yeres: and when he was laid a sleepe with his fathers, Nadab his sonne reigned in his stead.

2.Chro.12, 13. 21 * Roboam the sonne of Solomon reigned in Juda: and Roboam was fourtie and one yeeres olde when he beganne to reigne, and he reigned seuentteene yeeres in Hierusalem the citie which the Lord did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite.

22 And Juda wrought wickednes in the sight of the Lord, & angred him in mo things then their fathers did in their sinnes which they sinned.

23 For they also made them high places, images, and groues on euery high hill, and ‖ Or, greene. vnder euery thicke tree, 24 And there was a stewes of male children in the land, and they did according to al the abominations of the nations which the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

25 And in the fifth yeere of king Roboam Sisac king of Egypt, came vp against Hierusalem:

26 And tooke away the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kings house, and spoyled all that was to be had: and he tooke away all the shields of gold * which Solomon had made: 3.King.14. 16.

27 In whose steede king Roboam made brasen shields, and committed them vnto the handes of the keeping of the captaines of the gard, which waited at the doore of the kings house.

28 And when the king went into ẏ house of the Lord, they of the garde bare them, and brought them againe into the garde chamber.

30 And there was warre betweene Roboam and Ieroboam all their liues.

31 And Roboam slept with his fathers, and was buried beside his fathers in the city of Dauid: his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite. And Abiam his sonne raigned in his stead.

IN the * eighteenth yeere of king Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, reigned Abiam ouer Juda. 2.Chro.11. 22.

2 Three yeeres reigned he in Hierusalē: & his mothers name was Maacha, the daughter of [a] Abisalom. [a] Or, Vrisalom.

3 And he walked in al the sinnes of his father which he had done before him, and his heart was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as the heart of Dauid his father.

4 Neuertheless for Dauids sake did the Lord his God giue him [b] a light in Hierusalem, that he set vp his sonne after him, and stablished Hierusalem: [b] Or, a lampe or light ouer Jus.

6 And there was warre betweene Roboam and Ieroboam as long as he liued.

9 In the twentieth yeere of Ieroboam king of Israel, reigned Asa ouer Juda.

10 Fourtie and one yeeres reigned he in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Maacha, the daughter of Abisalom. [c] Grandmother.

11 And

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lorde, as did Dauid his father.

12 And hee tooke away the male strewes out of the land, and put away all the abominable idoles that his father had made.

d Idolatres are to be punished without respect of person.

13 d And he put downe Maacha his mother from bearing rule, because she had made an idole in a groue, and Asa destroyed her idol and burnt it by the brooke Cedron.

e He suffered that deede only of ignorance.

14 But the high places were not put e downe: neuertheless, Asa his heart was perfect with the Lord all his dayes.

15 Hee brought in the holy vessels of his father, & that he had dedicate vnto the house of the Lorde, golde, and siluer, and iewels.

16 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa king of Israel all their dayes.

17 And Baasa king of Israel went vp against Juda, and built Rama, so that hee would let none goe out or in to Asa king of Juda.

18 Then Asa toobe all the siluer and gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kings house, and deliuered them into the hands of his seruants, & king Asa sent them to Benhadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a bond betweene mee and thee, betweene my father & thy father: and beholde, I haue sent vnto thee a present of siluer and golde, that thou come and breake the bond that thou hast with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Benhadad hearkened vnto king Asa, and sent the captaines of the hostes, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Hion, and Dan, and Abel, Bethmaacah, and all the region of Cineroth, with all the land of Nephthali.

21 And when Baasa heard thereof, hee left building of Rama, and dwelt in Thirza.

‖Or, gathered together all Iuda, & none to be excepted.

22 Then king Asa ‖ made a proclamation throughout all Juda, that none should be excused: and so they tooke the stones of Rama, and the timber wherewith Baasa had builded, and king Asa built with them the hill of Beniamin and Mizpah.

23 The remnant of all the wordes that concerne Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which hee builded, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda? Neuertheless in his olde age he was diseased in his feete.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried beside his fathers, in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iosaphat his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the sonne of Jeroboam began to raigne vpon Israel, the second yere of Asa king of Juda, and reigned vpon Israel two yeeres.

26 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

27 And Baasa the sonne of Ahia, which was of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasa smote him at Gibbethon, which is a citie of the Philistines, (for Nadab and all Israel laide siege to Gibbethon,) 28 Euen in the thirde yeere of Asa king of Juda, did Baasa slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And when he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam, & he left him nought that breathed, vntill hee had put him cleane out, according vnto the saying of the Lorde, which he spake by his seruant Ahia the Silonite: 3.Kings 14.10.

30 Because of the sinnes of Jeroboam wherewith hee sinned, and made Israel sinne, when hee with his prouocation angred the Lorde God of Israel.

31 The rest of the wordes that concerne Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa king of Israel all their dayes.

33 So in the thirde yeere of Asa king of Juda, begannne Baasa the sonne of Ahia to reigne ouer all Israel in Thirza, twentie and foure yeeres.

34 And hee did that which is euill in the sight of the Lorde, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sinne wherewith hee made Israel to sinne.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 Of Baasa. 6 Ela. 9 Zimri. 19 Amri. 31 Achab marrieth Iezabel. 34 Iericho is built againe.

THen the word of the Lord came to Jehu the sonne of Hanani, against Baasa, saying,

2 For as much as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captaine ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to anger me with their sinnes:

3 Beholde, I will roote out the posteritie of Baasa, and the posteritie of his house: and will * make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat. 3.Kings 15.29.

6 And so Baasa slept with his fathers, and was buried in Thirza, & Ela his sonne reigned in his stead.

7 And by the hand of the prophet Jehu, the sonne of Hanani, came the worde of the Lorde against Baasa, and against his house, and against all the wickednesse that hee did in the sight of the Lorde, in angring him with the worke of his owne handes, that hee should be like the house of Ieroboam, and because he killed him.

a Meaning, Baasah Ieroboams sonne.

8 The twentie and fire yeere of Asa king of Iuda, began Ela the sonne of Baasa to reigne ouer Israel in Thirza two yeeres.

9 And his seruaunt Zimri (which was captaine of halfe his charets) conspired against him as hee was in Thirza drinking, and was drunken in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Thirza.

4. King. 2. 3 Reg. 16. 10 And Zimri came and smote him, and killed him, in the twentie and seuenth yeere of Asa king of Iuda, and reigned in his stead.

11 And when he was king, & sate on his seate, he slewe all the house of Baasa, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wall: yea, he slewe his kinsfolkes and friends also.

12 And thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasa, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake against Baasa by the hand of Iehu the Prophet, 13 For all the sinnes of Baasa and sinnes of Ela his sonne, which they sinned, & made Israel to sinne, and anger the Lorde God of Israel with their vanities.

14 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ela, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twentie and seuenth yeere of Asa king of Iuda, did Zimri reigne seuen dayes in Thirza: and the people was then in the hoste besieging Gibbethou, a citie of the Philistines.

16 And the people in the hoste heard say Zimri hath conspired, and slaine the King: wherefore all they of Israel made Amri the captaine of the hoste, King ouer Israel that same day, euen in the hoste.

17 And Amri departed vp from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Thirza.

18 And when Zimri sawe that the citie must needes be taken, hee went into the palace of the Kings house, b and ‡ burnt him selfe and the Kings house with fire, & so dyed, 20 The rest of the wordes that concerne Zimri, and the treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel deuided into two partes: for halfe the people followed Thibni the sonne of Ginath, making him King: and the other halfe followed Amri.

22 But the people that followed Amri, preuailed against the people that followed Thibni the sonne of Ginath: and so Thibni dyed, and Amri reigned.

23 In the thirtie and one yeere of Asa King of Iuda, began Amri to reigne ouer Israel twelue yeeres: fiue yeeres reigned he in Thirza.

24 Hee bought the hill of ‖ Samaria of one Semar, for two talents of siluer, & built in the hill, and called the name of the citie which he built, after the name of Semar, which had bin owner of the hill of Samaria.

‖ or, Schomron.

25 But Amri wrought that which is euill in the sight of the Lorde, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel sinne, to anger the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amri, and all that he did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 And so Amri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, and Achab his sonne reigned in his stead.

29 In the thirtie and eight yeere of Asa King of Iuda, began Achab the sonne of Amri to reigne ouer Israel, and the same Achab the sonne of Amri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria twentie and two yeeres.

30 And Achab the sonne of Amri did euill in the sight of the Lord, aboue all that were before him.

31 For * it seemed vnto him but a light thing, to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat: hee tooke Iezabel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonites to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him.

* Some read, it seemed a light thing.

32 And he reared vp an altar for Baal, in the temple of Baal, which he had builded in Samaria:

33 And Achab made a groue, and proceeded further in angring the Lord God of Israel, then all the Kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel of Bethel build Iericho: he laide the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub, * according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Iosuah the sonne of Nun.

6 And the Rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and like wise bread and flesh in the euening: and hee dranke of the brooke.

7 And after a while the brooke dryed vp, because there fell no raine vpon the earth.

8 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto him, saying,

Luke 4.25. ‖Or, Zarphath.

9 Vp, and get thee to ‖Sarepthа which is in Sidon, and dwell there: beholde, I haue commaunded a widowe there to sustaine thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Sarepthа: and when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde, the widowe was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a litle water in a vessel, that I may drinke.

11 And as shee was going to fetch it, hee cryed after her, and saide, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread also in thine hande.

12 She saide, As the Lorde thy God liueth, I haue no bread readie, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrell, and a litle oyle in a cruse: and beholde, I am gathering two sticks for to goe in, and dresse it for mee and my sonne, that we may eate it, and dye.

13 And Elias sayde vnto her, Feare not, goe, and doe as thou hast sayde: but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, and bring it vnto me, and afterwarde make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meale in the barrell shall not be wasted, neither shall the oyle in the cruse bee diminished, vntill the Lorde haue sent rayne vpon the earth.

15 And she went, and did as Elias saide: and she and he, and her house, did eat a good space.

16 And the meale wasted not out of the barrel, neither was the oyle spent out of the cruse, according to the worde of the Lorde which he spake by the hand of Elias.

17 And after these things, the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sickenesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she saide vnto Elias, What haue I to doe with thee, O thou man of God: Art thou come vnto me to cal my sinne againe to remembrance, and to slay my sonne?

19 He said vnto her, Giue me thy sonne. And he woke him out of her lap, and caryed him vp into a loft where he abode, and layed him vpon his owne bed.

20 And called vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lorde my God, hast thou punished also this widowe, with whome I dwell as a straunger, and hast slaine her sonne?

21 And hee ‖stretched himselfe vpon the childe three times, and called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lorde my God, I pray thee, let this childes soule come ‖into him againe.

23 And Elias tooke the boy, and brought him downe out of the chamber, into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother, and Elias said, Beholde, thy sonne liueth.

24 And the woman sayde vnto Elias, Nowe I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lorde in thy mouth is true.

The xviij. Chapter.

1 Elias is sent to Achab. 13 Obadia hideth an hundred prophets. 40 Elias killeth all Baals prophets.

AFter processe of many dayes, the word of the Lorde came to Elias in the third yeere, saying, Goe shewe thy selfe vnto Achab, and I will send raine vpon the earth.

2 And Elias went to shewe himselfe vnto Achab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Achab called Obadia, which was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Iezabel destroyed the Prophets of the Lorde, Obadia tooke an hundred Prophets, and hid them by fifty in a caue, and prouided bread and water for them.)

5 And Achab sayd vnto Obadia, Go into the lande, vnto all fountaines of water, and vnto all brookes, if so that we may finde grasse to saue the horses and mules aliue, that all the beastes perish not.

6 And so they diuided the land betweene them, to walke thorowout it: Achab went one way by himselfe, and Obadia went another way by himselfe.

7 And as Obadia was in the way, beholde, Elias met him: and hee knewe him, and fell on his face, and saide, Art not thou my lord Elias?

8 And he answered him, I am he: go and tell thy lord, Behold, Elias is here.

9 He said, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hande of Achab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome, whither my lorde hath not sent to seeke thee: & when they said, He is not there he tooke an othe of the kingdome and nation, when he found thee not.

11 And nowe thou sayest, Go and tell thy lord that Elias is here.

12 And as soone as I am gone from thee, the spirit of the Lorde shall carrie thee into some place that I do not know, and so when I come and tell Achab, and he can not finde thee, hee shall slay me: but I thy seruaunt feare the Lord from my youth vp.

13 Was it not tolde my lorde what I did when Iezabel slewe the Prophets of the Lorde, howe I hid an hundred men of the Lordes Prophets, fiftie men in one caue, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread and water?

14 And thou sayest, Goe thou nowe and shewe thy lorde, Beholde, Elias is here: that he may slay me.

15 And Elias said, As the Lorde of hostes liueth, before whome I stande, I will shewe my selfe vnto him this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Achab, and tolde him: and Achab went to meete Elias.

17 And when Achab sawe Elias, hee sayde vnto him, Art thou hee that troubleth Israel?

18 He answered, It is not I that haue troubled Israel, but thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandements of the Lorde, and thou hast followed Baal.

a The ministers of Gods word ought to be faithful and bolde to reproue the wicked without respect of persons.

19 Nowe therefore sende, and gather to me all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal, foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the groues, foure hundred, which eate at Iezabels table.

20 So Achab sent vnto al the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Elias came vnto all the people, and sayde, Howe long halt yee betweene two opinions? If the Lorde bee God, followe him: but if Baal be he, then goe after him. And the people answered him not one worde.

b Religion is not an indifferent thing, but to be imbraced, and constantly professed.

22 Then saide Elias vnto the people againe, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lorde: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie.

c Baal hath more prophets then God.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two oxen, and let them choose the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on wood, and put no fire vnder: and I will dresse the other oxe, and lay him on wood, and will put no fire vnder.

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him bee God. And all the people answered, and sayde, It is well spoken.

25 And Elias saide vnto the prophets of Baal, Choose you an oxe, & dresse him first, for yee are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder.

26 And they tooke the one oxe that hee did giue them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal fro morning till noone, saying, O Baal heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to answere: And they leapt vpon the altar that they had made.

27 And at noone, Elias mocked them, and sayde, Cry loude, for hee is a god, peraduenture he is talking, or occupied in following vpon his enemies, or in his iourney, or it may be hee sleepeth, and must bee awaked with your cry.

28 And they cryed loud, & cut themselues, as their maner was, with knyues, and launcers, till the blood followed on them.

29 And when midday was passed, they prophecied vntill the time of the euening sacrifice, but there was neither voyce, nor one to answere, nor any that regarded them.

30 And Elias saide vnto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him: and hee repayred the altar of the Lord that was broken.

31 And Elias tooke twelue stones, according to the number of the twelue tribes of the sonnes of Iacob, vnto whom the word of the Lorde came, saying, Israel shall bee thy name. Gen. 28. 4. 34.

32 And with the stones he made an altar in the name of the Lord: and he made a ditch about the altar, as great as would containe two measures of seede.

33 And hee put the wood in order, & hewed the Oxe in pieces, and laide him on the wood, and said, Fill foure barrels with water, and powre it on the whole burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he sayd, Doe so againe. And they did so the second time. And he sayde againe, Doe it the thirde time. And they did it the thirde time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar, and he filled the pit with water also.

36 And when they should offer the euening sacrifice, Elias the Prophet came, and sayde, Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel, it shall bee knowen this day that thou art the God in Israel, and that I am thy seruant, and that I haue done all these things at thy commandement.

37 Heare me, O Lorde, heare mee, that this people may knowe that thou art the Lorde God, and that thou hast turned their heart againe now at the last.

38 And the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the whole burnt sacrifice, & the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the pit.

39 And when all the people sawe it, they fell on their faces, and saide, The Lord he is God, the Lorde he is God.

40 And Elias said vnto them, Take the prophets of Baal, and let not one of them escape. And they tooke them, and Elias brought them vnto the brooke Kison, & slewe them there.

41 And Elias said vnto Achab, Get thee vp, eate, and drinke, for there is a sounde of much rayne.

42 And so Achab went vp to eate and to drinke: and Elias went vp to the top of Carmel, & he laide him selfe flat vpon the earth, and put his face betweene his knees,

43 And sayde to his seruant, Goe vp I pray thee, and looke toward the way of the sea.

ua. And he went vp, and looked, and sayde, There is nothing. And againe he sayd, Go againe seuen times.

44 And at the seuenth time, he said, Behold, there ariseth a litle cloude out of the sea, like a mans hand. He sayde, Goe and say vnto Achab, Prepare thy charet & get thee downe, that the raine stop thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes & winde, and there was a great rayne: and Achab gate vp, and came to Jezrahel.

46 And the hand of the Lorde was on Elias, and he girded vp his loynes, and ranne before Achab, till he came to Jezrahel.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Elias fleeing from Iezabel, is nourished by the angell of God. 15 He is commanded to anoynt Hazael, Iehu and Elias.

AND Achab told Jezabel al that Elias had done, and how hee had slayne all the Prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezabel sent a messenger vnto Elias, saying, So and so let the gods doe to mee, if I make not thy soule like one of theirs, by to morow this time.

3 When hee saw that, he arose, and went for his life, & came to Beersleba in Juda, and left his seruant there.

4 But he himselfe went a dayes iourney into the wildernesse, and came & sate downe vnder a Juniper tree, and hee desired for his soule that he might die, and saide, It is now inough, O Lord, take my soule: for I am not better then my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept vnder the Juniper tree, behold, an angell touched him, and sayd vnto him, Vp, and eate.

6 And whē he looked about him, behold, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a vessell of water at his head: and hee did eate and drinke, and layde him downe againe to sleepe.

7 And the angel of the Lord came againe the second time, and touched him, and sayde, Vp, and eate, for thou hast yet a great iourney.

8 And he arose, and did eate & drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate, fourtie dayes and fourtie nights, euen vnto Horeb, the mount of God.

9 When he came thither vnto a caue, hee lodged therein all night, and behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and said vnto him, what doest thou here, Elias?

11.3. 10 And he answered, I haue bene iealous for the Lord God of hostes sake: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, & slaine thy Prophets with the sworde: and I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

11 And he sayde, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And behold, the Lorde went by, and a mightie strong winde that rent the mountaines, and brake the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake, came fire, but the Lorde was not in the fire: and after the fire, came a small still voyce.

13 And when Elias heard, he couered his face with his mantell, and went out, & stoode in the entring in of the caue: & beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, and said, what doest thou here, Elias?

14 And he answered, I haue bene iealous for the Lorde God of hostes sake, because the childrē of Israel haue forsaken thy couenāt, cast downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophets with the sworde, and I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

15 And the Lord sayd vnto him, Goe, and turne thy way to the wildernesse, vnto Damascus: and when thou commest there, anoynt Hazael king ouer Syria:

16 And Jehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou anoynt king ouer Israel: and Elizeus the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah, shalt thou anoynt to be Prophet in thy roume.

18 *And I haue left me seuen thousand in Israel, of which neuer man bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kissed him with his mouth. Rom.11.4. a Wicked idolaters are not of God.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elizeus the sonne of Saphat plowing, and hauing twelue yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelue: & Elias went by him, and cast his mantle vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ranne after Elias, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, & then I will followe thee. He said vnto him, Goe bake againe, for what is it that I haue done to thee?

21 And when he went backe againe from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, & slewe them, and dressed the flesh, with the instruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: and then he arose, and went after Elias, and ministred vnto him.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord promiseth the victorie to Achab by a Prophet.

AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoste together, hauing thirtie & two kings with him, & horses, and charets, and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Achab king of Israel, into the citie, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayth Benhadad, 3 Thy siluer & thy gold is mine, & the fayrest of thy wiues, & of thy children be mine.

4 And

4 And the king of Israel answered, and sayd, My lorde king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And whē the messengers came againe, they sayde, Thus sayth Benhadad, For as much as I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer, and thy golde, and thy wiues, and thy children:

6 I will therefore send my seruants vnto thee to morowe this time, & they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruants, and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away.

7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the elders of the land, and sayde, Take heede, I pray you, and see how this fellowe goeth about mischiefe: for hee sent vnto mee for my wiues, for my children, for my siluer, and for my gold, and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders, and all ỹ people sayd, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said vnto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou diddest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will doe: but this thing I may not doe. And the messengers departed, and brought answere againe.

10 And Benhadad sent vnto him againe, and sayd, Thus and thus doe the gods vnto me, if the dust of Samaria be ynough for all the people that follow me, to take euery man an handfull.

11 And the king of Israel answered, and sayd, Tell him, Let not him that putteth on his harnesse, boast himselfe, as hee that putteth it off.

12 And when Benhadad heard that tydings (as hee was with the kings drinking within the pauilions) he sayde vnto his seruants, Put your selues in order. And they set themselues in aray against the citie.

13 And behold, there came a Prophet vnto Achab king of Israel, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? beholde, I will deliuer it into thine hande this day, and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord.

14 And Achab sayd, By whom? He sayde, Thus sayth the Lord, Euen by the seruants of the gouernours of the shyres. He sayde againe, who shal order the battel? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbred the seruants of the gouernours of the shyres, and they were two hundred and thirtie and two: and after them also he numbred all the people of the children of Israel, euen seuen thousand.

16 And they went out at noone: But Benhadad did drinke till he was drunken in the pauilions, both he and the kings, euen thirtie and two kings that holpe him.

17 And the seruants of the gouernours of the shyres went out first, and Benhadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 He sayd, whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet aliue.

19 And so those yong men of the gouernours of the shires, came out of the citie, and the hoste after them:

20 And they slewe euery one his enemie that came in his way: & the Syrians fled, and they of Israel followed after them: and Benhadad the king of Syria scaped on a horse, with his horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, & with a great slaughter slew he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a Prophet to the king of Israel, and saide vnto him, Goe forth, and play the man, bee wise and take heede what thou doest: for when the yeere is gone about, the King of Syria will come vp against thee.)

23 And the seruants of the king of Syria sayde vnto him, The gods of the hilles are their gods, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and for what ye will we shall haue the better of them.

24 And this doe, Take the kings away, euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their roumes:

25 And number thee an hoste, like the hoste that thou hast lost, such horses, and such charets, and wee will fight against them in the plaine, and thou shalt see vs get the better of them. And hee hearkened vnto their voyce, and did euen so.

26 And after the yeere was gone about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphec, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbred, & with their whole number went they against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two litle flocks of kids: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, & sayde vnto the king of Israel, Thus sayth ỹ Lord, Because the Syrians haue sayd, The Lorde is but God of the hilles, & not God of the valleyes: therefore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, & ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day the battel was ioyned: and the children of Israel slewe of the Syrians an hundred thousand footemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphec, into the citie, and there fell a wall vpon twentie and seuen thousand of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the citie, from chamber to chamber.

31 And his seruants saide vnto him, Beholde, we haue heard say that the kings of the house of Israel are mercifull kings: we will therefore put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, & goe out to the king of Israel, it may be, he will saue thy life.

32 And

32 And so they girded sackecloth about their loynes, & put ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and sayde,
Thy seruant Benhadad sayth, I pray thee, let me liue. He said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.
33 And the men tooke that word for good lucke, and hastily caught it out of his mouth, and sayde, Yea, thy brother Benhadad. He sayde, Goe, bring him hither. And Benhadad came out vnto him, and hee caused him to come vp into the charet.
34 And hee sayde vnto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore againe, and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria: and I will make an ap-poyntment with thee, and sende thee away.
And so he made an appoyntment with him,
and sent him away.
35 And there was a certaine man of the children of the Prophetes, which sayde vnto his neighbour in the worde of the Lorde, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man would not smite him.
36 Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as soone as thou art departed from me, a Lion shall slay thee. And as soone as he was departed from him, a Lion found him, and slew him.
37 Then hee found another man, and sayde, Smite mee, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting hee wounded him.
38 So the Prophet went forth, and wayted for the king by the way, and put himselfe out of knowledge, with ashes which he layd vpon his face.
39 And when the king came by, hee cryed vnto the king, and sayd, Thy seruant went out in the middes of the battell, and behold, there went a way a man, whome another man brought vnto me, and sayd, Keepe this man: and if he be missed, or lost, thy life shall goe for his, or elle thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.
40 And as thy seruant had here and there to doe, he was gone. And the king of Israel sayde vnto him, Euen so shal thy iudgement be, as thou hast giuen sentence.
41 And he hasted, & tooke the ashes away from his face, and the king of Israel knewe him that he was of the Prophets:
Reg. 22. 42 And he sayd vnto him, *Thus sayeth the Lord, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whome I appoynted to dye, thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.
43 And the king of Israel went to his house, heauie, and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

The xxj. Chapter.

1 Iezabel commandeth to kill Naboth for the vineyard that he refused to sell to Achab. 19 Elias reproueth Achab, and he repenteth.

AFter these things, Naboth the Iezrahelite had a vineyard in Iezrahel, hard by the palace of Achab, king of Samaria.
2 And Achab spake vnto
Naboth, saying, Giue me thy vineyard, that I may make me a garden of herbes thereof, because it lieth so nigh my house, and I will giue thee for it a better vineyard then it is:
or rather if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.
3 And Naboth sayd to Achab, The Lord forbid that from mee, that I should giue the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.
4 And Achab came into the house, heauie, and euill apayde, because of the worde which Naboth the Iezrahelite had spoken to him: for he had sayde, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers: and hee layde him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread.
5 But Iezabel his wife came to him, and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?
6 And hee sayd vnto her, For I spake vnto
Naboth the Iezrahelite, and sayd vnto him, Giue mee thy vineyarde for money, or elle if it please thee, I will giue thee another vineyard for it: And he answered, I will not giue thee my vineyard.
7 And Iezabel his wife sayde vnto him,
Doest thou now gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, and eate bread, and let thine heart be merie: I will giue thee the vineyard of Na-both the Iezrahelite.
8 And so shee wrote a letter in Achabs name, and sealed it with his seale, and sent the letter vnto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.
9 And she wrote in the letter, saying, Proclaime a [b] fast, & set Naboth on high among the people:
10 And set two vnthryftes before him, to beare witnesse against him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God & the king: and then cary him out, and stone him to death.
11 And the men of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours which dwelt in his ci-tie, did as Iezabel had sent vnto them, and as it was written in the letter which she had sent vnto them.
12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.
13 And there came in two men, the children of Belial, and sate before him: and the two vnthryftie persons witnessed against Na-both, in the presence of the people, saying,
Naboth did blaspheme God and the king.
And they caryed him out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, that he died.
14 And then they sent to Iezabel, saying,
Naboth is stoned to death.
15 And when Iezabel heard that Naboth was stoned to death, shee sayd to Achab, Vp, & take possession of the vineyarde of Naboth
the

a As though she said, thou knowest not what it is to raigne, com-mand, and entreat not.

the Jezrahelite, which hee denyed to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but dead.

16 And when Achab heard that Naboth was dead, he roose vp, to goe downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezrahelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the worde of the Lorde came to Elias the Thesbite, saying, 18 Vp, and goe downe to meete Achab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: beholde, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone to possesse it.

19 And therefore shalt thou say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde, hast thou killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, Thus sayeth the Lorde, In the place where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogges licke euen thy blood also.

20 And Achab sayd to Elias, Hast thou found mee, O thou mine enemie? He answered, I haue founde thee: for thou hast solde thy selfe to worke wickednes in the sight of the Lord.

4.Kings. 9.8. 21 Beholde, *I will bring euill vpon thee, & wil make cleane riddance of thy posteritie, and will destroy from Achab, euen him that maketh water against the wall, & him that is shut vp, and left behinde in Israel,

3.King.15. 29. 22 And will make thine * house like the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and like the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia, for the prouocation wherewith thou hast prouoked, and made Israel to sinne.

4.King.9. 53. 23 And of Jezabel spake the Lord, saying, *The dogges shall eate Jezabel by the wall of Jezrahel, 24 And hee that dyeth of Achab in the towne, him shall dogges eate: and hee that dieth in the fielde, him shall the foules of the ayre eate.

25 But there was none like Achab, which did sell himselfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and that because Jezabel his wife pricked him forward.

26 He did exceeding abominably in following foule idoles, according to all things as did the Amorites, whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And when Achab heard those words, he rent his clothes, and put sackecloth about his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went ‖ bare foote.

‖ Or, softly, in token of mourning.

28 And the word of the Lorde came to Elias the Thesbite, saying,

4.King.9. 26. 29 *Seest thou howe Achab humbleth himselfe before me? because he so submitteth himselfe before me, I wil not bring that euil in his dayes: but in his sonnes dayes will I bring euill vpon his house.

The xxii. Chapter.

2 Iosaphat and Achab fight against the king of Syria. 15 Michea sheweth the king what shall bee the successe of their enterprise. 24 Sedechia the false prophete smiteth him. 34 Achab is slayne. 40 Ahazia his sonne succeedeth. 41 The reigne of Iosaphat, 51 and Ioram his sonne.

AND they* continued three yeeres without warre betweene Syria and Israel. 2.Chron. 18.2.

2 And in the third yere, did Iosaphat the king of Juda come downe to the king of Israel.

3 (And the king of Israel sayde vnto his seruants, Know ye not that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we sit still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?)

4 And he sayd vnto Iosaphat, Wilt thou come with me to battell against Ramoth in Gilead? And Iosaphat said vnto the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

5 And Iosaphat said vnto the king of Israel, a Aske counsell, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord, to day.

a In all our enterprises we ought first to aske counsell of God.

6 And then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, vpon a foure hundred men, and said vnto them, Shal I go against Ramoth in Gilead to battell, or shall I let it alone? and they said, Go vp, for the Lord shal deliuer it into the hands of the king.

7 And Iosaphat said, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, There is yet one man (Michea the sonne of Imla) by whome we may aske counsell of the Lord, but I hate him, for he doth not prophecie good vnto me, but euil. And Iosaphat sayd, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called a* chamberlaine, and said, Fetch Michea the sonne of Imla hither at once. *Heb. Eunuch.

10 And the king of Israel, and Iosaphat the king of Juda, sate either in his seate, and their apparel on them, in a void place beside the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophecied before them.

11 And Sedechia the sonne of Chanaana, made hornes of iron, & saide, Thus saith the Lord, With these hornes shalt thou push the Syrians, vntil thou haue made an ende of them.

12 And all the Prophets prophecied euen so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth in Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the kings hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Michea, spake vnto him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the Prophetes speake good vnto the king with one mouth: Let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, bee like the worde of euery one of them, to speake that which is good.

14 And Michea said, As the Lord liueth, whatsoeuer the Lord sayth vnto me, b that will I speake.

b The true Prophet will speake no other then that he hath learned of God.

15 And so hee came to the king, and the king sayde vnto him, Michea, ought wee to goe against Ramoth in Gilead to battell, or to to be still? He answered him, c Goe, and prosper: the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the king.

c Or (peraduenture) this in derision.

16 And the king saide vnto him, So and so many times doe I charge thee, that thou tell mee nothing but that which is true, in the Name of the Lord.

17 He said, I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the hilles, as sheepe that haue not a shepheard. And the Lorde saide, These haue no master, let euery man returne to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said vnto Iosaphat, Did I not tell thee that hee would prophecie no good vnto me, but euill?

19 And he saide againe, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lorde: I sawe the Lorde sit on his seate, and all the hoste of heauen stoode about him, on his right hande, and on his left.

20 And the Lorde saide, who shall ‖ perswade Achab, that he may go, and fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And one saide on this maner, and another on that.

‖Or, deceiue.

21 And there came foorth a certaine spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and saide, I will perswade him.

22 And the Lord saide vnto him, wherewith? And hee saide, I will goe out, and be a false spirite in the mouth of all his prophets. He saide, Thou shalt perswade him, and preuaile: Goe foorth then, and doe euen so.

23 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of al these thy prophets, and the Lorde hath spoken euill toward thee.

24 But Sedechia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea on the cheeke, and said, when went the spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Michea said, Beholde, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Michea, & cary him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Joas the kings sonne, 27 And say, Thus saith the King, Put this fellow in the prison house, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michea saide, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by mee. And he said, Hearken ye people, euery one of you.

29 And so the king of Israel, and Iosaphat the king of Juda, went vp to Ramoth in Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said vnto Iosaphat, I will change my apparell, and will enter into the battell, but put thou on thine apparel. And the king of Israel changed him selfe, and went to battell.

31 But the king of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaines that had rule ouer his charets, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, saue onely against the king of Israel.

32 And when the captaines of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they saide, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned to fight against him: And Iosaphat cried.

33 And when the captaines of the charets saw that hee was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 And a certaine man drew a bow ignorantly, and smote the king of Israel betwene the ribbes and his harnesse: wherefore hee saide vnto the driuer of his charets, Turne thine hande, and cary me out of the hoste, for I am ‡hurt.

‡Heb. Sicke

35 And the battel encreased that day: and the king stoode still in his charet against the Syrians, and died at Euen: And the blood ranne out of the wound, into the middes of the charet.

36 And there went a proclamation throwout the hoste, about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria, and the dogges licked vp his blood, and they washed his armour, * according vnto the worde of the Lorde which hee spake.

* Chap. 21. 21.

39 The rest of the wordes that concerne Achab, and all that hee did, and the Iuorie house which he made, and all the cities that he builded, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 And so Achab slept with his fathers, and Ahazia his sonne reigned in his steade.

41 Iosaphat the sonne of Asa, began to raigne vpon Juda, in the fourth yeere of Achab king of Israel.

42 And Iosaphat was thirtie and fiue yeeres olde when hee began to raigne, and raigned twentie and fiue yeeres in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Asuba, the daughter of Silhi.

43 And he walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, and bowed not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord: Neuertheless, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Iosaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iosaphat, and the might that he shed, & how he warred, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

46 And the remnant of the Sodomites of the males which remained in the dayes of his father Asa, he put cleane out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom, the deputie was king.

d In the time of this king, Idumea was subiect to Juda, and was gouerned by whom they of Juda appointed.

48 And Iosaphat made ships in the sea, to come through Tharsis for golde, but they went not, for the shippes brake at Esion Gaber.

49 Then ſaid Ahazia the ſonne of Achab vnto Iolaphat, Let my ſeruants goe with thy ſeruants in the ſhippes. But Iolaphat would not.

50 And Iolaphat did ſleepe with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iehoram his ſonne reigned in his ſtead.

51 Ahazia the ſonne of Achab began to reigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria the ſeuenteenth yeere of Iolaphat king of Iuda, and reigned two yeeres ouer Iſrael.

52 But he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, & walked in the way of his father, & in the way of his mother, & in the way of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, which made Iſrael to ſinne.

53 For hee ſerued Baal, and worſhipped him, and prouoked the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.

The ſecond or fourth booke of the Kings.

The firſt Chapter.

Ahazia by a fall falleth ſicke, and conſulteth with Beelzebub.

WHen Moab rebelled againſt Iſrael, after the death of Achab.

2 And Ahazia fell thorow a lattelle windowe of his vpper chamber that hee had in Samaria, and while hee was yet in his ſickeneſſe, he ſent meſſengers, and ſaid vnto them, Goe and enquire of [a] Beelzebub the god of Ecron, whether I ſhall recouer of this my diſeaſe.

3 But the Angel of the Lorde ſpake to Elias the Thelbite, Ariſe, and goe vp againſt the meſſengers of the king of Samaria, and ſay vnto them, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that ye goe to aſke counſell at Beelzebub the god of Ecron?

4 Wherefore, thus ſaith the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt die the death. And Elias departed.

5 And when the meſſengers turned backe againe vnto him, hee ſaide vnto them, Why are ye now come againe?

6 They anſwered him, There came a man vp againſt vs, and ſaid vnto vs, Go and turne againe vnto the king that ſent you, and ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lorde, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Beelzebub the god of Ecron? therefore thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt die the death.

7 And he ſaid vnto them, What maner of man was that which came vp, and met you, and told you theſe wordes?

8 And they anſwered him, It was an hairie man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loynes. And hee ſaide, It is Elias the Thelbite.

9 Then the king ſent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: which came to him (and beholde, he ſate on the top of an hill) and hee ſpake vnto him, Thou man of God, the king hath ſaid, Come downe.

10 Elias anſwered and ſaide to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. [b] And there came fire from heauen, and conſumed him and his fiftie.

11 Againe alſo he ſent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie: And hee ſpake, and ſaide vnto him, O man of God, thus hath the king ſaide, Make haſte, and come downe.

12 Elias anſwered and ſaide vnto them, If I bee a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. And there came fire of God from heauen, and conſumed him and his fiftie.

13 And the king yet againe ſent the third captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: and the thirde captaine ouer fiftie went vp, and came & fell on his knees before Elias, and beſought him, and ſaide vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, & the life of the fiftie thy ſeruants be precious in thy ſight.

14 Beholde, there came fire downe from heauen, and burnt vp the two fore captaines ouer fiftie, with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy ſight.

15 And the Angel of the Lorde ſaide vnto Elias, Goe downe with him, and [c] be not afraide of him. And he arose, and went downe with him vnto the king.

16 And he ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou haſt ſent meſſengers to aſke counſell at Beelzebub the god of Ecron (as though there had bene no God in Iſrael, whoſe worde thou mighteſt ſeeke after) therefore thou ſhalt not come downe off the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt die the death.

17 And ſo hee died, according to the worde of

[a] The god of flies: ſo called, either for that the people thought that he could preſerue them from the flies, wherewith that countrey was infected, or becauſe flies were engendred in great abundance of the blood of the ſacrifices to that idole.

of the Lorde which Elias had spoken: and Ioram his brother beganne to reigne in his stead, in the second yeere of Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat King of Iuda, because hee had no sonne.

18 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ahazia, what things hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

The ij. Chapter.

1 Elias deuideth the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken vp into heauen. 23 The children that mocke Eliseus are rent in pieces with Beares.

AND when the Lorde would take vp Elias into * heauen by a whirlewind, Elias went with Eliseus from Gilgal.

2 And Elias sayd vnto ‖ Eliseus, Tarry heere, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Bethel. Eliseus said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And they came downe to Bethel.

3 a And the children of the Prophets that were at Bethel, came out to Eliseus, and said vnto him, Knowest thou not howe that the Lorde will take away thy master from thy head this day? He sayd, I know it also, holde you your peace.

4 And Elias sayd vnto him, Eliseus, tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lorde hath sent me to Jericho. He said, As the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And so they came to Jericho.

5 And the children of the Prophets that were at Jericho came to Eliseus, and sayde vnto him, Knowest thou not that the Lorde will take away thy master from thy head this day? He answered, I knowe it also, holde ye your peace.

6 And Elias sayd vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lorde hath sent me to Jordane. He said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And so they two went together.

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Prophets came, and stood on the other side a farre off: and they two stood by Jordane.

8 And Elias tooke his mantel, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters, and they were deuided part the one way, and part the other: so that they two went ouer thorowe the dry land.

9 And as soone as they were ouer, Elias sayd vnto Eliseus, [illegible] what I shall doe for thee yer I be taken away from thee. And Eliseus sayd, I pray thee, let thy spirite be double vpon me.

10 And he sayd, Thou hast asked an hard thing: neuertheless, if thou see me when I am taken away from thee, thou shalt haue it so: If thou doe not, it shall not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, behold, there appeared a charet of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both a sunder, and * Elias went vp through the whirlewinde into b heauen. Ecclus. 48. 13. 1. mac. 2. 58.

12 And Eliseus saw, and cryed, O my father, O my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And hee sawe him no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, & rent them in two pieces. b A testimonie of the resurrection.

13 He tooke vp also the mantell of Elias that fell from him, and went backe againe, and stoode by Jordanes side, 14 And tooke the mantell of Elias that fell from him, and smote the waters, and hee said, where is the Lord God of Elias, and he himselfe? And when he had smitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Eliseus went ouer.

15 And when the children of the Prophets, which were at Jericho, saw him from a farre, they sayde, The spirite of Elias doeth rest on Eliseus: And they came to meete him, and fell to the ground before him,

16 And sayde vnto him, See, nowe there be with thy seruants fiftie strong men, let them goe, we pray thee, and seeke thy master: if so bee the Spirite of the Lorde hath taken him vp, and cast him vpon some mountaine, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall send none.

17 And when they lay vpon him, till hee was ashamed, hee saide, Send. They sent therefore fiftie men, which sought him three dayes, but found him not.

18 And when they came againe to him (which taried at Jericho) he said vnto them, Did I not say vnto you, that yee should not goe?

19 And the men of the citie said vnto Eliseus, Behold sir, the dwelling of this citie is pleasant, as thou thy selfe seest: but the water is naught, and the ground ‡ barren. ‡ killeth the inhabitants.

20 He said, Bring mee a newe cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And hee went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in thither, and said, Thus saieth the Lorde, I haue healed these waters, there shall not come henceforth either death or barrennesse.

22 So the waters were healed vnto this day, according to the saying of Eliseus, which he spake.

23 And he went vp from thence vnto Bethel: and as he was going by the way, there came little children out of the citie, and mocked him, and said vnto him, Go vp thou bald head, goe vp thou balde head.

24 And hee turned backe, and looked on them, & cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came two shee Beares out of the wood, and tare fortie & two children of them.

25 And hee went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence hee turned againe to Samaria.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The reigne of Ioram. 6 He and Iosaphat go to warre against Moab, which rebelled. 24 The Moabites are ouercome.

NOwe Ioram the sonne of Achab began to reigne vpon Israel in Samaria y eighteenth yere of Iosaphat king of Juda, and reigned twelue yeeres.

2 And he wrought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father and like his mother: for hee put away the images of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheles, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesa king of Moab was a lord of sheepe, and rendered vnto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambes, and an hundred thousand rammes, with the wooll.

5 But when Achab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Ioram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel:

7 And went, and sent to Iosaphat the king of Juda, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against mee, wilt thou come with me against Moab in battell? Hee answered, I will come vp: for as I am, so art thou: and as my people be, so are thy people: and my horses, as thy horses.

8 And he said, What way shall we goe vp? And he answered, The way thorow the wildernesse of Edom.

9 And so the king of Israel tooke his iourney, and the king of Juda, and the king of Edom: and when they had compassed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the hoste, and for the cattell that ‡ followed them.

‡ Heb. were at their feet.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliuer them ouer into the hand of Moab.

11 But Iosaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may enquire of the Lorde by him? And one of the king of Israels seruants answered, and said, Heere is Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, which powred water on the hands of Elias.

12 And Iosaphat saide, The worde of the Lorde is with him. And so the king of Israel, and Iosaphat, and the king of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Eliseus said vnto the king of Israel, What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the Prophets of thy father, and to the Prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said vnto him, Oh nay: for the Lorde hath called these three kings together, to deliuer them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Eliseus said, As the Lord of hoste liueth, in whose sight I stand, and it were not that I regarde the presence of Iosaphat the king of Juda, I would * not looke toward thee, nor yet see thee.

* God suffereth his worde to be declared to the wicked, because of the godly that are among them.

15 But nowe bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the Lorde came vpon him:

16 And hee saide, Thus saith the Lorde, Make this valley full of ditches:

17 For thus saith the Lorde, Yee shall see neither winde nor raine, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye, and your beastes, and your cattell:

18 And this is yet but a smal thing in the sight of the Lord, for asmuch as hee will giue ouer the Moabites also into your hands:

19 And ye shal smite euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, & shall fell euery pleasant tree, and stoppe euery well of water, and marre euery good plat of grouñd with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able ‡ to put on harnesse, and stoode in the border of the land:

‡ Heb. to girde himselfe with a girdle.

22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vpon the water, that the Moabites saw the water a farre off as red as blood.

23 And they saide, This is the blood of slaughter: The kings are slaine, & one haue smitten another: Now therefore, Moab, get thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the host of Israel, the Israelites stoode vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they followed vpon them, and smote Moab, 25 And they ouerthrew the cities, and on euery good parcell of land cast euery man his stone, and filled it, & they stopt all the welles of water, and felled all the good trees, only in Kirharaseth left they the stones therof: howbeit they went about it with slings, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battell was too sore for him, hee tooke with him seuen hundred men that drew the swoorde, to haue gone thorow euen vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 And when hee tooke his eldest sonne that should haue reigned in his stead, and offered him for a whole burnt offering vpon the wall: And there was b great indignation against Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne land.

b The Israelites were greatly abhorred, because of the cruelty of the fact.

The iiij. Chapter.

4 God increaseth the oyle to the poore widowe by Eliseus. 12 Hee obteineth for the Sunamite a sonne at Gods hand. 28 Who died and was raised vp againe.

NOw there cryed a certaine woman of the wiues of the sonnes of the Prophets vnto Eliseus, saying, Thy seruant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy seruant did feare the Lord: And the creditour is come to set my two sonnes to be his bondmen.

2 Eliseus saide vnto her, Tell mee what I shall doe for thee: what hast thou in thine house? Shee sayde, Thine handmayde hath nothing nothing at all in the house, saue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He said vnto her, Go, and borow vessels for thee without, of all thy neighbours emptie vessels, and that not a fewe:

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore after thee, & after thy sonnes, and powre out into all [a] those vessels: and set aside that which is full.

a God euer prouideth for them that trust in him, although hee suffer them many times to fall into great necessitie.

5 And so she went from him, and shut the doore after her, and after her sonnes: and they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were full, she said vnto her sonne, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said, I haue no moe. And the oyle ceased.

7 Then shee came, and tolde the man of God: and he sayde, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto: but liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 And it fell on a day that Eliseus came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that tooke him in for to eate bread: And so it came to passe, that from that time forth (as oft as hee came that way) hee turned in thither to eate bread.

9 And shee sayde vnto her husband, Beholde, I perceiue that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candlesticke: that hee may turne in thither when he commeth to vs.

11 And on a day hee came thither, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein.

12 And sayde to Gehezi his seruant, Call this Sunamite. And when he called her, she presented her selfe before him.

13 And againe he said vnto him, Tel her, beholde, thou hast bene carefull for vs with all this care, [b] what shal we now do for thee? Wouldest thou bee spoken for to the king, or to the captaine of the host? She answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

b The seruants of God are not vnthankfull for benefites receiued.

14 And he said againe, What is to be done for her? Gehezi answered, Verily shee hath no childe, and her husband is olde.

15 And he sayd, Call her. And when hee had called her, she stoode in the doore.

16 And he sayde, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt imbrace a sonne. And she sayd, Oh nay my lord thou man of God, doe not lye vnto thine handmayde.

17 And the wife conceiued, and bare a sonne that same season that Eliseus had said vnto her, according to the time of life.

18 And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he said vnto his father, My head, my head. And he sayd to a ladde, Cary him to his mother.

20 And when hee had taken him, and brought him to his mother, hee sate on her knees till noone, and then dyed.

21 And she went vp, and layd him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore vpon him, and went out, 22 And called vnto her husbande, and sayd, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men, and one of the asses: for I will runne to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And he sayd, Wherefore wilt thou goe to him, seeing that to day is neither newe moone nor sabboth day? And thee answered, All shall be ‡ well. ‡Heb. peace

24 Then she sadled an asse, and said to her seruant, Driue and goe forward, stay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.

25 And so shee went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmell: and when the man of God saw her ‖ farre off, he sayd to Gehezi his seruant, Beholde, yonder is the Sunamite: ‖Or, ouer against him.

26 Runne therefore to meete her, and say vnto her, Is all well with thee, and with thy husband, and with the ladde? And shee answered, All is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God vp to the hill, she caught him by the feete: but Gehezi went to her to thrust her away. And the man of God sayd, Let her alone, for her soule is ‖ vexed within her, & the Lorde hath hidde it from me, and hath not tolde it me. ‖Or, in bitternesse.

28 Then she sayd, Did I desire a sonne of my Lorde? did I not require thee that thou shouldest not deceiue me?

29 Then hee sayde to Gehezi, * Girde vp thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meete any man, [c] salute him not: and if any salute thee, answere him not againe: and lay my staffe vpon the face of the childe. * Luke 10.4.

c Make such speede, that nothing may let thee in the way, Luke 10.

30 And the mother of the childe sayde, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And he arose, & followed her.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layde the staffe vpon the face of the child, but there was neither voyce, nor any feeling: wherefore he went againe to meete him, and tolde him, saying, The childe is not awaked.

32 And when Eliseus was come into the house, beholde, the childe was dead, and layd vpon his bed.

33 Hee went in therefore, and shut the doore vpon them twaine, and prayed vnto the Lorde, 34 And went vp, and lay vpon the ladde, and put his mouth vpon his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his hands, and when hee so lay vpon the childe, the flesh of the childe waxed warme.

35 And hee went againe, and walked once vp and downe in the house, and then went vp, and laid himselfe vpon him againe: and then the childe ‖ gaped seuen times, and opened his eyes. ‖Or, sneesed, that is, often times.

36 And he called Gehezi, and saide, Call for this Sunamite. So he called her: which when she was come in vnto him, he said vnto her, Take thy sonne.

37 Therefore shee went in, and fell at his feete, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and tooke vp her sonne, and went out.

38 Eliseus came againe to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the land, and the children of the Prophets dwelt with him: and he sayde vnto his seruant, Set a great pot on the fire and make pottage for the children of the Prophets.

39 And one went out into the fielde to gather herbes, and found a wilde vine, and gathered thereof wilde gourdes his lappe full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knewe it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and when they had tasted of the pottage, they cryed out, and sayde, O thou man of God, there is death in the potte. And they could not eate thereof.

41 But he said, Bring meale. And he cast it into the pot: and he said, Fill for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.

42 There came a man from Baal Salisa, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruites, euen twentie loaues of barley, and full eares of corne in the huske: & he said, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And he answered, Why shall I set this before an hundred men? Hee sayde againe, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: Iohn 6.11. for thus sayeth the Lorde, * They shall eate, and there shalbe left ouer.

44 And so hee set it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the word of the Lorde.

The v. Chapter.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Eliseus refuseth his giftes.

NAaman, captaine of the hoste of the king of Syria, was a great man, and honourable in the sight of his master, because that by him the Lorde had giuen health vnto Syria: He was also a mightie man, and expert in warre, but hee was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought out of the countrey of Israel a litle mayd, and she was with Naamans wife.

3 And she sayd vnto her lady, I would to God my lorde were with the Prophet that is in Samaria, for he would deliuer him of his leprosie.

a Naaman. 4 And hee a went in, and tolde his lorde, saying, Thus and thus sayde the mayd that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria saide, Goe thy way thither, and I will send a letter vnto the king of Israel. And hee departed, and tooke with him ten talents of siluer, and sixe thousand pieces of golde, and ten changes of raiments:

6 And brought the letter to the king of Israel, conteining this tenour, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, behold, I haue therewith sent Naaman my seruant to thee, that thou mayest rid him of his leprosie.

7 And when the king of Israel had read the letter, hee rent his clothes, and sayd, Am I God, that I should slay, and make aliue? for he doeth send vnto me, that I should deliuer a man from his leprosie: wherefore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarell against me.

8 Which when Eliseus the man of God had heard, howe that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, hee sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come nowe to mee, and he shall knowe that there is a Prophet in Israel.

9 And so Naaman came with his horses, and with his charets, and stood at the doore of the house of Eliseus.

10 And Eliseus sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Goe, and wash thee in Iordane seuen times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and sayde, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, hee would surely come out, and stand, and call on the name of the Lorde his God, and put his hand on the place, that hee may heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abana and Pharphar riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? If I wash mee also in them, shall I not be cleansed? And so hee turned him, and departed with displeasure.

13 And his seruants came, and communed with him, and sayde, Father, If the Prophet had bid thee doe some great thing, oughtest thou not to haue done it? How much rather then when hee sayth to thee, wash and be cleane?

14 Then went hee downe, * and washed Luke 4.27. him selfe seuen times in Iordane, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a litle child, and he was cleansed.

15 And hee turned againe to the man of God, hee and all his companie, and stoode before him, and, sayd, Beholde, I knowe nowe that there is no God in all the world, but in Israel: nowe therefore, I pray thee, take a ‖blessing of thy seruant. ‖Or, reward

16 But he sayde, As the Lorde liueth, before whom I stand, I wil receiue none: And when the other would haue constrained him to receiue it, he would not.

17 And Naaman said, Shal there not be giuen to thy seruant as much of this earth as two mules may beare? for thy seruant will henceforth offer neither whole burnt sacrifice, nor offering vnto any other goddes, saue vnto the Lord.

18 But herein the Lorde be mercifull to thy seruant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon for to worship there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe my selfe seise in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bowdowne, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercifull vnto thy seruant because of this thing.

b The prophet did not approue his act, but after the common maner of speach, he bade him farewell.

19 Vnto whom hee sayde [b] Goe in peace. And when he was departed from him, as it were a furlong of grounde, 20 Gehezi the seruant of Eliseus the man of God, sayde, Beholde, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, that hee woulde not receiue at his handes those things that he offered: as the Lorde liueth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 And so Gehezi followed Naaman: and when Naaman saw him running after him, he light downe from the charet to meete him, and said, Is all well?

22 He answered, All is well: beholde, my master hath sent mee, saying, Beholde, there bee come to mee euen now from mount Ephraim two yong men, of the children of the Prophets: Giue them, I pray thee, one talent of siluer, and two change of garments.

23 And Naaman sayd, With a good will, take two talents. And hee constrayned him, and bound two talents of siluer in two bags, with two change of garments, & laide them vpon two of his seruants, to beare them before him.

Fortresse, or secret place.

24 And when he came to the [a] lower place, he tooke them from their hande, and bestowed them in the house, and he let the men goe, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stoode before his master: and Eliseus sayd vnto him, Whence commest thou Gehezi? He sayd, Thy seruant went no whither, c Was not I present with thee in spirit?

26 But he said vnto him, Went not mine heart with thee when the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is it nowe a time to receiue money, to receiue garments, Olive trees, vineyards, sheepe, and oxen, men seruants, and mayde seruants?

d Couetousnes punished.

27 [d] The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy seede, for euer. And hee went out from his presence a leper as white as snowe.

The vi. Chapter.

6 Eliseus maketh yron to swimme aboue the water. 8 He discloseth the king of Syrias counsel to the king of Israel.

THe children of the Prophets sayde vnto Eliseus, Beholde, wee pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is too little for vs:

2 Let vs go, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and builde vs a place to dwel in. And hee answered, Goe.

3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and come with thy seruants. And he answered, I will come.

4 And so he went with them: and when they came to Iordane, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fell into the water: and hee cryed, and sayd, Alas master, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God sayde, Where fell it? and he shewed him the place: And hee cut downe a sticke, and cast it in thither, and immediatly the yron did swimme.

7 Therefore said he, Take it vp. And hee stretched out his hand, and tooke it vp.

8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and tooke counsel with his seruants, and sayd, In such and such a place shalbe my campe.

9 And the man of God sent vnto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou goe not ouer to such a place, for there the Syrians are lurking.

10 Therefore the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned him of, [a] and saued himselfe from it, not once, nor twise.

a God will disclose the craftie counsel of the wicked.

11 And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled for this thing, and hee called for his seruants, and sayde vnto them, Will ye not shewe me which of our men betrayeth me to the king of Israel?

12 And one of his seruants saide, None, my lord O king: but Eliseus the Prophet, that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, yea, the words that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.

13 Hee sayde, Goe and spie where hee is, that I may send and fetch him. And one told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and charets, and a mightie host: and they came by night, and compassed the citie about.

15 And when the seruant of the man of God rose vp early to goe out, beholde, there was an host rounde about the towne, with horses and charets: and his seruant sayd vnto him, Alas master, what shall we doe?

16 He answered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that bee with them.

17 And Eliseus prayed, and sayde, Lord, I beseech thee open his eyes, that hee may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the yong man, and he looked: and beholde, the mountaine was full of horses, and charets of fire, round about Eliseus.

18 And when they came downe to him, Eliseus prayed vnto the Lorde, and sayde, Smite this people, I pray thee with blindnesse. And hee smote them with blindnesse, according to the word of Eliseus.

19 And Eliseus sayd vnto them, This is not the way, neyther is this the towne: follow mee, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seeke. But he led them to Samaria.

20 But when they were come to Samaria, Eliseus sayd, Lord, open their eyes, that they may see. And the Lorde opened their eyes, and they saw, and beholde they were in the middes of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel saide vnto Eliseus when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them, shall I smite them?

22 And hee answered, Thou shalt not smite them: but smite those that thou hast taken with thine owne sword, and with thine owne bowe: but rather set bread and water before them, that they may eate and drinke, and goe to their master.

23 And hee prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten and drunke, he sent them away, and they went to their master: and so the souldiers of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 After this, Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went vp, and besieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, vntil an asses heade was solde for fourescore siluer pence, and the fourth part of a [b] cab of doues dong for fiue pieces of siluer.

b The Hebrewes write, that they burned it in the siege for lacke of wood.

26 And as the king of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe me my lord, O king.

27 He sayde, If the Lord doe not succour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine presse?

28 And the king said vnto her, What wilt thou? She answered, Yonder woman sayde vnto me, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we wil eate mine to morow, 29 And so wee dressed my sonne, and did eate him: and I sayd vnto her the other day, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate him: and she hath hid her sonne.

30 And when the king heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vpon the wall, & the people looked, and behold, he had a sackcloth vnder vpon his flesh.

c Thus hypocrites seeing Gods iudgement, thinke to please him with outward ceremonies, whom in prosperitie they will not know.

31 Then he said, God doe so, and more also to mee, if the head of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, shall stand on him this day.

32 But Eliseus sate in his house (and the elders sate by him) and the king sent a man before him: but yer the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Haue yee not seene how that the sonne of this murderer hath sent to take away mine head? See circumspect when the messenger commeth, and shut the doore, and holde him at the doore: Is not the sound of his masters feete behinde him?

33 While he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came downe vnto him, and sayde, Behold, this euil is of the Lorde, and what more shall I looke for of the Lorde?

The vij. Chapter.

Eliseus prophecieth plentie of vittaile and other things in Samaria.

THen Eliseus sayd, Heare ye the word of the Lord, Thus sayeth the Lord, To morow this time shall a measure of fine flowre be solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a certaine lorde (on whose hande the king leaned) answered the man of God, and sayde, Behold, if the Lorde would make windowes in heauen, might this saying come to passe? He sayd, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they sayd one to another, why sit we here vntill we dye?

4 If we say, We will enter into the citie: behold, the dearth is in the citie, and we shal dye therein: and if we sit still here, we dye also. Now therefore come, and let vs flee vnto the host of the Syrians: if they saue our liues we shall liue: if they kill vs, then are we dead.

5 And they rose vp in the twylight, to goe to the host of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermost part of the hoste of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the Lorde had made the hoste of the Syrians to heare a noyse of charets, and a noyse of horses, and the noyse of a great host: insomuch that they saide one to another, Loe, the king of Israel hath hired against vs the kings of the Hethites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fledde in the twilight, and left their tentes, and their horses, and their asses, and the fielde which they had pitched, euen as it was, [a] and fledde for their liues.

a The Arabians write in part truely, that they were mistaken to iudge thus.

8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the host, they went into a tent, and did eate and drinke, and caryed thence siluer, and golde, and rayment, & went and hid it, and came againe, and entred into another tent, and caryed thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then sayd one to another, Wee doe not well this day is a day to bring good tydings, and we hold our peace. If we tary till the day light, some mischiefe wil come vpon vs: now therefore come, that we may goe, and tell the kings houlholde.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and told them, saying, We came to the campe of the Syrians, and lo, there was no man there, neyther voyce of man, but horses and asses tyed, & the tents were as they were wont to be.

11 And the porters cryed, and declared it to the kings house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, [b] I wil shew you now what the Syrians haue done vnto vs: They know that we be hungrie, and therefore are they gone out of the campe, to hide themselues in the fielde, saying, when they come out of the citie, we shal catch them aliue, and get into the citie.

b He rightly feared the Hypocrites wiles, & as we say, politicke practises for goods, call troupe perils their minds.

13 And one of his seruantes answered, and sayde, Let men take, I pray you, fiue of the horses that remaine & are left in the multitude: (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: behold, I say they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites rarities that are consumed) and we will send, and see.

14 They tooke therefore the horses of two charets, and the king sent after the hoste of the Syrians, saying, Goe, and see.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and loe, all the way was full of clothes, and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoyled the tents of the Syrians: and so it came to passe, that a measure of fine flowre was solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, according to the word of the Lord.

17 And the king appointed that lord (on whose hand he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people [c] trode vpon him in the gate, and he died according to the worde of the man of God, which hee sayde when the king came downe to him.

[c] The vnbeliefe of some punished.

18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fine flowre for another, shalbe to morow this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 Whereunto that Lorde answered the man of God, and saide, Yea, and if the Lorde made windowes in heauē, might it come to passe? And he saide, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, & he died.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Eliseus prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeeres.

THen spake Eliseus vnto the woman (whose sonne hee had restored to life againe) saying, [4 Reg. 4. 34] Vp, and goe thou and thine house, and sojourne whersoeuer thou canst: for the Lord hath called for a dearth, and the same shall come vpon the land seuen yeeres.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and went both she and her houshold, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seuen yeeres.

3 And at the seuen yeeres ende, the woman came againe out of the land of the Philistines, & went out to call vpon the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell mee, I pray thee, all the great deedes that Eliseus hath done.

5 He tolde the king how he had restored a dead body to life againe: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne he had raised vp againe, cryed to the king for her house and for her land: And Gehezi sayd, My lorde, O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Eliseus raised vp againe.

6 And when the king asked the woman, shee told him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlaine, saying, Restore thou vnto her all that are hers, and all the [a] fruites of the fielde, since the day that she left the lande, vnto this time.

[a] The king caused that to be fully restored, which was wrongfully holden from her.

7 And Eliseus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sicke, and one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?

9 And so Hazael went to meete him, and tooke the present with him, and of euery good thing of Damascus, euen as much as fourtie camels coulde beare: and came and presented himselfe before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?

10 And Eliseus sayde vnto him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt [b] recouer: Howbeit, the Lord hath shewed me that hee shal surely dye.

[b] Speaking, that he should not die of that disease, yet he should dye by the hand of Hazael the messenger.

11 Hee looked vpon him stedfastly, vntill he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael sayde, Why weepeth my lorde? Hee answered, For I know the euill things that thou shalt doe vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the sworde, & shalt dash out the braines of their sucking children, and all to teare their women with childe.

13 But Hazael sayd, What is thy seruant a dogge, that I should doe this great thing? And Eliseus answered, The Lord hath shewed me that thou shalt be king of Syria.

14 And so he departed from Eliseus, and came to his master, which said to him, What said Eliseus to thee? He answered, He tolde me that thou shouldest recouer.

15 And on the morowe, he tooke a thicke cloth, and dipt it in water, and [c] spread it on his face: and he dyed, and Hazael reigned in his stead.

[c] Hazael deliuer presumption reigneth the king, stifleth him with this cloth. 2. Chr. 22. 1.

16 * The fifth yeere of Iozam the sonne of Achab king of Israel, Iosaphat being also king of Iuda, Iozam the sonne of Iosaphat king of Iuda began to raigne.

17 Thirtie and two yeeres olde was hee when he began to raigne, and hee raigned eight yeeres in Hierusalem.

18 And hee walked in the wayes of the kings of Israel, as they [y] were of the house of Achab: for the daughter of Achab was his wife, and he did euill in the sight of the Lord.

19 And the Lord would not destroy Iuda, because of Dauid his seruants sake, * as hee promised to giue him alway a light among his children. 2. Sam. 7. 13.

20 In those dayes Edom rebelled against Iuda, and made them a king of their owne.

21 So Iozam went to Zair, he, and al his charets with him, and he rose by night, and smote smote the Edomites, which compalled him in with the captaines of his charets, and the people fled into their tents.

22 But Edom rebelled, so that he would not be vnder the hand of Iuda vnto this day: then Libnah rebelled that same time.

23 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioram, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

24 And Ioram rested with his fathers, and was buried beside his fathers, in the 2.Chr.22.1 citie of Dauid: * And Ahazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

25 In the twelfth yere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, king of Israel, did Ahazia, ẏ sonne of Ioram king of Iuda, begin to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeeres olde was Ahazia when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem, & his mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of Omri, king of Israel.

27 But he walked in the way of the house of Achab, & did euill in the sight of the Lord, as did the house of Achab: for hee was the sonne in law of the house of Achab.

28 And hee went with Ioram the sonne of Achab, to warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.

29 And king Ioram went backe againe to be healed in Iezrahel, of the wounds which the Syrians had giuen him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: & Ahazia the sonne of Ioram king of Iuda went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab in Iezrahel, because he was sicke there.

The ix. Chapter.

6 Iehu is made king of Israel. 24 And killeth Ioram the king thereof.

AND Elizeus the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophets, and said vnto him, 3.Kin.19.17. *Gird vp thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thine hãd, and get thee to Ramoth in Gilead.

2 And when thou commest thither, looke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, and go to him, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and cary him to a secrete chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarying.

4 And so the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the host were sitting together, & he said, I haue an errand to thee, O captaine.

6 And Iehu saide, vnto which of all vs? He said, To thee, O captaine. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and saide vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue anoynted thee to bee king ouer the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel.

7 Thou shalt smite the house of Achab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophets, & the blood of all the seruantes of the Lorde, *of the hande of Iezabel: 3.K. 21.

8 For the whole house of Achab shall be destroied, and I wil destroy from Achab, him that maketh water against the wal, and him that is prisoned and forsaken in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Achab, like the *house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and like the *house of Baasa, the sonne of Ahia. 3.K. 16.

10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shall eate her in the fielde of Iezrahel, and there shall be none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

11 Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lord, and one said vnto him, Is al well? Wherfore came this mad felow to thee? And he said vnto them, Ye know what maner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They said vnto him againe, It is not so, tel vs. He said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lorde, I haue anoynted thee to be king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the stayres, and blewe with trumpets saying, Iehu is king.

14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, cõspired against Ioram: (Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he, and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 And king Ioram returned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes which the Syrians had giuen him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Iehu said, If it be your minds, then let no man depart, & ed cape out of the citie, to goe & tell in Iezrahel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charet, and went to Iezrahel, where Ioram lay: and Ahazia king of Iuda was come downe thither to see Ioram.

17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Iezrahel, spyed the company of Iehu as hee came, and sayde, I see a company. And Ioram sayde, Take an horseman, and send to meete them, that hee may aske whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsebacke to meete him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Iehu sayde, What hast thou to doe with peace? ‖ turne thee behinde me. And the watchman tolde, saying, The mes- mes. senger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then hee sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and sayd, Thus sayeth the king, Is it peace? Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne thee behinde me.

20 And

20 And the watchman tolde, saying, Hee came to them also, and commeth not againe: and the driuing is like the driuing of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, for he drieueth the charet as he were mad.

21 And Ioram saide, Make ready. And the charet was made ready, and Ioram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Iuda, went out either of them in his charet, against Iehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

22 And when Ioram sawe Iehu, he said, Is it peace, Iehu? He answered, What peace (could there be, so long as the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, and her witchcrafts are so great?

23 And Ioram turned his hand, and fledde, and said to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia.

24 And Iehu tooke a bowe in his hand, and smote Ioram betweene the armes, and the arrowe went thorowe his heart, and he fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar a captaine, Take him, and cast him in the platte of the ground of Naboth the Iezrahelite: for I remember, that when I and thou rode together after Achab his father, the Lord ‖ laide this heaute burden vpon him:

26 *I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, said the Lorde, & I will quite it thee in this ground, saith the Lord. Nowe therefore take and cast him in the plat of ground, according to the word of the Lord.

27 But when Ahazia the king of Iuda sawe this, he fledde by the way of the garden house: and Iehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the charet, at the going vp to Gur, by Ibleam. And he fledde to Megiddo, and there dyed.

28 And his seruants caried him in a charet to Hierusalem, and buried him there in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid.

29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, began Ahazia to reigne ouer Iuda.

30 And when Iehu was come to Iezrahel, Iezabel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window, 31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, shee saide, Had [b] Zimri peace *which slewe his master?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the window, and saide, Who is on my side, who? And there looked out to him two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he saide, Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, and her blood dashed vpon the wall, and toward the horses: and he trode her vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eate and drinke, and saide, Goe and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, and bury her, for she is a kings daughter.

35 And so when they came to burie her, they found no more of her then the skull, and the feete, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe, and told him, and he saide, This is the worde of the Lord, *which he spake by the hand of his seruant Elias the Thesbite, saying, In the fielde of Iezrahel shall dogges eate the flesh of Iezabel. 3.Reg.21. 21.

37 And so the carkeise of Iezabel was euen as doung vpon the earth in the fielde of Iezrahel, so that no man might say, This is Iezabel.

The x. Chapter.

6 Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slaine.
25 He killeth also all the priestes of Baal.

AChab had threescore and tenne sonnes in Samaria: and Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Iezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying,

2 Now when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your masters sonnes, ye haue with you both charets and horses, a strong citie haue ye also, and harnesse,)

3 Looke which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers seate, and fight for your lordes house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraide, and saide, See, two kings were not able to stand before him: howe shall we then be able to stand?

5 And he that was gouernour of Achabs house, and he that ruled the citie, the Elders also, and the tutours, sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruaunts, and will doe all that thou shalt bid vs, we wil make no man king: therefore doe thou what seemeth good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and will hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to me to Iezrahel by to morowe this time: (and the kings sonnes were threescore and tenne persons, and they were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp.)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kings children, and slewe them, euen threescore and tenne persons, and laide their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Iezrahel.

8 And there came a messenger, and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he saide, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntill the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and stoode, and said to all the folke, Ye be righteous: beholde, I conspired against my master, and slue him: But who slue all these?

10 Learne here, that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lorde, *which hee spake concerning the house of Achab: 3.Reg.21. 29.

Achab: for the Lorde hath brought to paſſe the thinges that hee ſpake by the hand of his ſeruant Elias.

11 And ſo Iehu ſlew all that remained of the houſe of Achab, in Jezrahel, and all that were great with him, & his kinſfolkes, and his prieſtes, ſo that he let nothing of him remaine.

12 And hee arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Iehu was in the way of the houſe where the ſhepheardes did ſheare their ſheepe, 13 Hee met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Juda, and ſaide, What are ye? They anſwered, The brethren of Ahazia are wee, and goe downe to ſalute the children of the king and of the queene.

14 And he ſaide, Take them aliue. whom when they had taken aliue, they ſlewe them at the well which was beſide ỹ houſe where the ſheepe are ſhorne, euen two and fourtie men, neither left he any of them.

15 And when hee was departed thence, he met with Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab, comming againſt him, and hee bleſſed him, and ſaide to him, Is thine heart right, as mine heart is true with thine? And Ionadab anſwered, Yea that it is. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had giuen him his hand, he tooke him vp to him into the charet, 16 And ſaide, Come with me, and ſee my zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And ſo they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when hee came to Samaria, hee ſlew al that remained vnto Achab in Samaria, til he had deſtroyed him, according to the ſaying of the Lorde which he ſpake to Elias.

3.Kin.16. 32. a Baal ſignifieth Aſtaroth, the idole of the Sidonians. 1.Reg.16.

18 *And Iehu gathered all the people together, and ſaide vnto them, Achab ſerued aBaal a litle, but Iehu ſhall ſerue him more.

19 Now therefore, call vnto me al the prophets of Baal, all ſuch as ſerue him, and all his prieſts, & let none be lacking, for I haue a great ſacrifice to doe to Baal, and therefore whoſoeuer is miſſed, he ſhal not liue. But Iehu did it for a ſubtiltie, to the intent that he might deſtroy the ſeruants of Baal.

‡Heb. Sanctifie. 20 And Iehu ſaide, ‡Proclaime an holy conuocatiõ for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Iehu ſent vnto all Iſrael, and all the ſeruants of Baall came, that there was not a man left behinde that came not: and they came into the houſe of Baal; and the houſe of Baal was full from the one ende to another.

22 And he ſaid vnto him that was the keeper of the veſtrie, Bring foorth garments for all the ſeruaunts of Baal. And hee brought them out garments.

23 And when Iehu went with Ionadab the ſonne of Rechab into the houſe of Baal, he ſaid vnto the ſeruants of Baal, Search, and looke that there be here with you none of the ſeruants of the Lord, but the ſeruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer ſacrifice and whole burnt offering, Iehu appointed foureſcore men without, & ſaide to them, If any of the men whome I haue brought vnder your hands eſcape, he that letteth him goe, ſhall die for him.

25 And as ſoone as hee had made an ende of offering the whole burnt ſacrifice, Iehu ſaid to the men of warre, & to the captaines, Go in, and ſlay them, let none come out. And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and the men of warre, and the captaines, caſt them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the houſe of Baal, and made a draught houſe of it, vnto this day.

28 And ſo Iehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael.

29 But from the ſinnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, which made Iſrael to ſinne, Iehu departed not from them, neither from the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lord ſaid vnto Iehu, Becauſe thou haſt done right wel in bringing to paſſe the thing that is right in mine eies, and haſt done vnto the houſe of Achab according to al things that are in mine heart, * therefore 4.Reg.15. 12. ſhall thy children, vnto the fourth generation, ſit on the ſeate of Iſrael.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the law of the Lord God of Iſrael, with al his heart: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Jeroboam, which made Iſrael to ſinne.

32 In thoſe dayes the Lorde began to cut Iſrael ſhort, and Hazael ſmote them in al the coaſts of Iſrael, 33 From Jordane Eaſtwarde, euen all the lande of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manaſſes, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Balan.

34 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Iehu, and all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the booke of ỹ Chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

35 And Iehu ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joachas his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

36 And the time that Iehu reigned vpon Iſrael in Samaria, is twentie and eight yeeres.

The xj. Chapter

1 Athalia putteth to death all the kings ſonnes, except Ioas the ſonne of Ochoſias. 15 Iehoiada cauſeth Athalia to be ſlaine. 18 Baal and his prieſtes are deſtroyed.

AND * Athalia the mother of Ahazia, when ſhe ſawe that her ſonne was dead, ſhe arose, and deſtroyed all the kings ſeede. 2.Chro.22. 10.

3 And hee was with her hid in the house of the Lord sixe yeres: and Athalia did reigne ouer the land.

2.Chro.23.1. 4 * And the seuenth yeere Iehoiada sent and set the rulers ouer hundreds, with the captaines, and them of the garde, and tooke them to him into the house of the Lorde, and made a bonde with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the kings sonne.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must doe, One thirde part of you, whose duetie is to come in on the Sabboth day, shal keepe the watch of the kings house,

6 And another thirde part shall keepe the gate of Sur, and another thirde part shall keepe the gate which is behinde them of the garde: and so shall ye keepe the watche of the house of Hessah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, all that goe out on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watch of the house of ỹ Lord about the king.

8 And ye shall compasse the king round about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be slaine: and see that ye be with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines ouer the hundreds did according to all things that Iehoiada the priest commanded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the Sabboth day, with them that should goe out on the Sabboth, & came to Iehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captaines ouer hundreds, did the priest giue king Dauids speares and shields, that were in the temple.

11 And they of the gard stood, & euery man had his weapon in his hande, roumde about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And hee brought out the kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon him, and deliuered him the a witnesse, and made him king, and anoynted him, and they clapt their handes, and said, God saue the King.

14 b And when she looked, behold, the king stoode by a pillar, as the maner was, and the singers, and the trumpetters by the king, and all the people of the lande reioyced, and blewe with trumpets: and Athalia rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.

15 But Iehoiada the priest commaunded the captaines of the hundreds, that had the rule of the hoste, and saide vnto them, Haue her foorth of the ‖ ranges, and if any followe her, kill him with the sword. For the Priest had said, She may not be slaine in the house of the Lord.

‖ Or, out of the temple.

16 And they layde handes on her, till shee came into the way by the which the horses went into the kings palace, and there was she slaine.

17 And Iehoiada made a bond betweene the Lorde, and the king, and the people, that they should be the Lords people, and also betweene the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his altars also, and his images brake they downe lustily, and slew Mathan the priest of Baal, before the altars: and the priest set watche ouer the house of the Lord,

19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captaines, and them of the garde, and all the people of the lande, and they brought the king from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kings palace, and hee sate him downe on the seate of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was in quiet, & they slue Athalia with the sword, beside the kings palace.

21 Seuen yeres olde was Ioas when he beganne to reigne.

The xij. Chapter.

6 Ioas maketh prouision for the repairing of the Temple.
20 Ioas is killed by two of his seruants.

AND * Ioas began to reigne in the seuenth yere of Iehu, fourtie yeeres reigned he in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beersheba. 2.Chro.24.1.

2 And he did that which was good in the sight of the Lorde, as long as a Iehoiada the Priest enfourmed him.

a So long as rulers giue eare to the true Ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offred, and burnt incense yet vpon the high places.

4 And Ioas said to the Priests, All the siluer of the dedicate things that be brought to the house of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing heart giueth, and bringeth into the house of the Lord:

5 Let the Priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, to repaire the broken places of the house, wheresoeuer any decay is found.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeere of king Ioas, the Priestes had mended nothing that was decayed in the Temple.

7 Then king Ioas called for Iehoiada the Priest, and the other Priestes, and said vnto them, Why repaire ye not the broken places of ỹ temple? now therfore see that ye receiue no more money of your acquaintance, except ye deliuer it to repaire the temple withall.

8 And the Priests consented to receiue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the Priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the Priests that kept the vessels, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they sawe there was much money in the chest, the kings scribe and the high Priest came vp, and told the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and put it into a bagge.

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the handes of them that executed the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of the Lord: and they brought it out to the Carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord, 12 And to Masons and hewers of stone: and they brought timber and free stone to repaire the decay in the house of the Lord, and to all that went out to mend the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lorde, bowles of siluer, instruments of musicke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer, of ỹ money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gaue that to the workemen, and repaired therewith the house of ỹ Lord.

15 Moreouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose handes they deliuered that mõney to be bestowed on workemen: for they did their businesse vpon trust.

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lord, for it was the priestes.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought against Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Ioas king of Iuda, tooke all the halowed things that Iosaphat, Ioram, and Ahazia his fathers kings of Iuda had dedicate, and that he himselfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and so he departed from Hierusalem.

19 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

20 And his owne seruants arose, and conspired, and slew Ioas in ‡ the house of Millo, in the way going downe to Silla:

‡Beth Millo.

21 Iozachar the sonne of Semaah, and Iozabad the sonne of Somer, his seruants smote him, and he died: and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amazia his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xiij. Chapter.

3 Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the handes of the Syrians. 5 Hee prayeth vnto God, and is deliuered.

IN the three and twentieth yeere of Ioas the sonne of Ahazia king of Iuda, Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuenteene yeeres.

2 And he wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hande of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, all their dayes.

4 And Ioachaz besought the Lorde, and the Lorde heard him: for hee considered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out from vnder the subiection of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents ‡ as before time.

6 Neuertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam, which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: and there remained a groue stil also in Samaria.

7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Ioachaz, but fiftie horsemen, ten charets, and ten thousande footemen: for the king of Syria destroied them, and made them like threshed dust.

8 The rest of the words that concerne Ioachaz, and all that he did, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Ioachaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioas his sonne reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirtie and seuenth yeere of Ioas king of Iuda, beganne Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, sixteene yeeres, 11 And did that which is euill in the sight of the Lorde, and departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, that made Israel sinne: for he walked therein.

12 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, & his power, wherewith hee fought against Amazia king of Iuda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Ioas slept with his fathers, & Ieroboam sate vpon his seate: & Ioas was buried in Samaria, amõg the kings of Israel.

14 When Eliseus was fallen sicke, of his sickenesse whereof he died, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept before him, and saide, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Eliseus said vnto him, Take bowe and arrowes. And hee tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he saide to the king of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And hee put his hand vpon it: and Eliseus put his hands vpon the kings hands,

17 And said, Open a window Eastward. And when he had opened it, Eliseus saide, Shoote. And he shotte. And he saide, The arrowe arrowe of health of the Lord, and the arrow of health against Syria: for thou shalt smite Syria in Aphec, till thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he said, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he said vnto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased.

19 And the man of God was angrie with him, and saide, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe times, and then thou haddest smitten Syria till thou haddest made an ende of them: where nowe thou shalt smite Syria but thrise.

20 And so Elizeus died, and they buried him: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the land [a] the same yeere.

a Other read, the yere following, which best agree with the Hebrewe.

21 And as they were burying a man, and spied the souldiers, they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elizeus: & when the man was rolled downe, * and touched the bones of Elizeus, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete. Eccl.48. 14.

22 But Hazael king of Syria, vexed Israel all the dayes of Joachaz.

23 And the Lord had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his couenant made with Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and woulde not destroye them, neither cast he them from him as yet.

24 So Hazael the king of Syria died, and Benhadad his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 And Joas the sonne of Joachaz went againe, and tooke out of the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities which hee had taken away out of the hande of Joachaz his father in warre: for three times did Joas beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel againe.

1 Amazia the king of Iuda putteth to death them that slew his father, 7 And after smiteth Edom.

1.Chro.25. 1. IN the * second yeere of Joas sonne of Joachaz king of Israel, raigned Amazia the sonne of Joas king of Juda.

4 Neither were the high places taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice, and burnt incense on the high places.

5 And as soone as the kingdome was setled in his hand, he slewe his seruants which had killed the king his father.

6 But the children of those murderers he slew not, according vnto it that is written in the booke of the lawe of Moses, wherein the Lord commaunded, saying, * Let not the fathers die for the children, nor let the children be slaine for the fathers: but let euery man be put to death for his owne sinne. Deut.25. 16.ezec. 18.20.

7 He slewe of Edom in the salt valley, ten thousand, and tooke the castle on the rocke in the same battell, and called the name of it Joctheel vnto this day.

8 Then Amazia sent messengers to Joas the sonne of Joachaz sonne of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, [a] let vs see eche other.

a Let vs fight and trie it by battaile.

9 And Joas the king of Israel sent to Amazia king of Juda, saying, Did not a thistle that is in Libanon, send to a Cedar tree that is in Libanon, saying, Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife? And the wilde beast that was in Libanon, went and trode downe the thistle.

10 Thou hast smitten Edom, thine heart hath made thee proude: enioy this glory, and tary at home: why doest thou prouoke to mischiefe, that thou shouldest be ouerthrowen, and Juda with thee?

11 But Amazia would not heare: and Joas king of Israel went vp, and he, and Amazia king of Juda, sawe either other at Bethsames, which is in Juda.

12 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fledde euery man to their tents.

13 And Joas king of Israel tooke Amazia king of Juda, the sonne of Joas, the sonne of Ahazia, at Bethsames, and came to Hierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

14 And he tooke all the golde, and siluer, and all the vessels that were found in ỹ house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house: and the children tooke hee to be his wards, and returned to Samaria againe.

22 He built Elath, and brought it againe to Juda, after that the king was laide to rest with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth yeere of Amazia the sonne of Joas king of Juda, was Jeroboam the sonne of Joas made king ouer Israel in Samaria, & reigned fourtie and one yeeres:

24 And wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, neither turned he away from all the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 He restored the coast of Israel, from the entring of Hemath, vnto the sea of the wildernesse, according to the worde of the Lorde God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his seruant Jonas, the sonne of Amithai the prophet, which was of Geth Hepher:

26 For the Lord sawe how that the affliction of Israel was exceeding ‡ bitter, in so much that the prisoned & the forsaken were at an ende, & there was none to helpe Israel.

27 And the Lord saide not, that he would put out the name of Israel from vnder heauen: but he helped them by the hand of Jeroboam the sonne of Joas.

3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea and made his sonne to goe thorowe the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

4 And he offered and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hils, and vnder euery thicke tree.

5 * Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pecah sonne of Romelia king of Israel, came vp to Hierusalem to fight: and they fought against Achaz, but coulde not ouercome him.

* Esa. 7. 1.

6 At the same time Rezin king of Syria, brought Elath againe to Syria, and rid the Jewes thence: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt therein vnto this day.

7 So Achaz sent messengers to Theglah Phalalar king of Assyria, saying, I am thy seruant, and thy sonne, come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise vp against me.

8 b And Achaz tooke the siluer and golde that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent a reward to the king of Assyria.

b Neglecting Gods helpe, he spoyled the temple of God, to procure mans helpe, Esa. 8.

9 And the king of Assyria consented vnto him: for the King of Assyria went vp against Damascus, and when hee had taken it, he caried the people away to Cir, and slewe Rezin.

10 And king Achaz went to Damascus, to meete Theglah Phalalar king of Assyria, and when king Achaz sawe an altar that was at Damascus, he sent to Uria the priest the paterne of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workemanship thereof.

11 And Uria the priest made an altar, in c all poyntes like to the paterne which king Achaz had sent from Damascus, euen so did Uria the priest make it, against king Achaz came from Damascus.

c There is no prince so wicked, but he shall find flatterers, and false ministers to further his ruine.

12 And so when the king was come from Damascus, he sawe the altar: and the king went to it, and offered thereon.

13 And hee burnt his whole burnt offering, and his meate offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinckled the blood of his peace offerings beside the altar,

14 And by the braken altar which was before the Lorde, and set it without the temple, betweene the altar and the temple of the Lorde, and put it on the Northside of the altar.

15 And king Achaz commanded Uria the priest, and sayde, vpon the great altar, set on fire in the morning the whole burnt offering, and in the Euen the meate offering, and the kings whole burnt sacrifice, and his meate offering, with the whole burnt offering of all the people of the lande, and their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings, and powre thereby all the blood of the whole burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be at my will.

16 And Uria the priest did according to all things as king Achaz commanded him.

17 And king Achaz brake the sides of the bottomes, and tooke the lauer from them, and tooke downe the lauatorie from the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.

5 Hosea king of Israel is taken.

IN the twelfth yeere of Achaz king of Iuda, beganne Hosea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria vpon Israel nine yeeres:

2 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp against him, and Hosea became his seruant, and gaue him ‖presents.

‖Or, tributes.

4 And the king of Assyria founde treason in Hosea: for hee had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Assyria from yeere to yeere: and therefore the king of Assyria shut him vp, and bound him in the prison house.

5 And then the king of Assyria came vp thorow out all the lande, and gate vp against Samaria, and besieged it three yeeres.

4. King. 18. 10. 6 *In the ninth yeere of Hosea the king of Assyria tooke Samaria, and caried Israel away vnto Assyria, and put them in Hala and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the [a] Medes.

a At that time the Medes and Persians were subiect to the Assyrians.

7 For it came to passe, that the children of Israel sinned against the Lorde their God, which had brought them out of the lande of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and feared other gods.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen, whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israel, and in the ceremonies which the kings of Israel had made.

9 And the children of Israel went about to hide those things that were not well, from the Lord their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, both in the towres where they kept watch, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made them images ‡ groues in euery high hill, and vnder euery ‡ thicke tree:

12 For they serued idoles, whereof the Lord had said vnto them, Ye shall doe no such thing.

13 And the Lorde testified in Israel, and in Iuda, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, * Turne from your wicked wayes, and keepe my commandements, and my statutes, according to all the lawe which I commaunded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the prophets.

b It is not safe to follow our fathers, except it may appeare they were good.

15 For they refused his statutes, and his couenant that hee made with their fathers, and the witnesses wherewith hee witnessed vnto them, and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they should not doe like them.

16 But they left all the commandements of the Lorde their God, and made them images of mettall, euen two calues, and made groues, and worshipped all the [c] hoste of heauen, and serued Baal.

c That is, the sunne, and the moone, and the starres.

19 Neuertheless, Iuda also kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel which they made.

20 And the Lorde cast off all the seede of Israel, and vexed them, and deliuered them into the hands of spoylers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight:

21 *For [d] he cut off Israel from the house of Dauid, and made them a king, euen Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, and Ieroboam drewe Israel away, that they shoulde not followe the Lorde, and made them sinne a great sinne.

Iere. 25. 9.

uants the Prophets: and ſo was Iſrael caried away out of their owne land to Aſſyria, euen vnto this day.

24 And the king of Aſſyria brought men from Babylon, from [c] Cutha, from Ana, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in ſtead of the children of Iſrael, and they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

[c] Of theſe people came the Samaritanes of whom mention is made in the Goſpell.

25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord, and the Lord ſent lions among them, which ſlew them.

26 Wherefore they ſpake to the king of Aſſyria, ſaying, The nations which thou haſt tranſlated and put in the cities of Samaria, know not the lawe of the God of the land: therefore he hath ſent lions vpon them, and behold, they ſlay them, becauſe they know not the maner of worſhipping the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Aſſyria commanded, ſaying, Carrie thither one of ỹ prieſts whom ye brought thence, and let him go and dwell there, & teach them the faſhion how to ſerue the God of the countrey.

28 And then one of the prieſtes, whome they had caried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they ſhould feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houſes of the high places which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Aſima.

31 The Auites made Nibhaz and Tharthac: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adramelech, and Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And ſo they feared the Lord, and made them prieſtes of the baſeſt of them, which ſacrificed for them in the houſes of the high places.

[f] We cannot worſhip God and mam.

33 And ſo [f] they feared the Lord, and ſerued their owne gods, after the maner of the people whom they caried thence.

34 And vnto this day they doe after the olde maner: and neither feare God, neither doe after their ordinances and cuſtomes, nor do after the law and commandement which the Lord commanded the children of Jacob, *whom he called Iſrael.

Gen.32.28 3.king.18.31.

35 And the Lord made a couenant with them, and charged them, ſaying, Feare none other gods, nor bowe your ſelues to them, nor ſerue them, nor ſacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lorde, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, with great power, and a ſtretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, and to him doe ſacrifice.

37 The ſtatutes, ordinances, lawe, and commandement which he wrote for you, ſee that ye bee diligent to doe for euermore, and feare not any other gods.

38 And the couenaunt that I haue made with you, ſee ye forget not, and feare none other gods:

39 But the Lord your God ye ſhall feare, and he ſhall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but did after their old cuſtome.

41 And ſo theſe nations feared the Lord, and ſerued their images alſo, like as did their children, and their childrens children: euen as did their fathers, ſo doe they vnto this day.

The xviii. Chapter.

4 Hezecia king of Iuda putteth down the braſen ſerpent, and deſtroieth the idoles, 7 and proſpereth.

IN the third yeere of *Hoſea ſonne of Ela king of Iſrael, it came to paſſe that Hezecia the ſonne of Achaz king of Juda did reigne. 2.Chron. 28.28. and 29.1.

2 Twentie and fiue yeeres olde was hee when he began to reigne, and reigned twentie and nine yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Abi, the daughter of Zacharia.

3 And hee did that which is right in the ſight of the Lorde, according to all as did Dauid his father.

4 Hee [a] put away the high places, & brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and all to brake the braſen ſerpent *that Moſes had made: for vnto thoſe dayes the children of Iſrael did burne ſacrifice to it: and he called it Nehuſtan.

[a] It appertaineth to a good prince to purge the Church of God.

Num.21.8.

5 He truſted in the Lord God of Iſrael, ſo that after him was none like him among all the kings of Juda, neither were there any ſuch before him.

6 For he claue to the Lorde, and departed not from him: but kept his commandemẽts, which the Lord commanded Moſes.

7 And the Lord was with him, ſo that hee proſpered in all things which hee tooke in hand: and he rebelled againſt the king of Aſſyria, and ſerued him not.

8 He ſmote the Philiſtines, euen vnto Azza, and the coaſts thereof, both caſtles where they kept watches, and ſtrong cities.

9 And in the fourth yeere of king Hezecia, (which was the ſeuenth yeere of Hoſea, ſonne of Ela king of Iſrael) Salmanazar king of Aſſyria, came vp againſt Samaria, and beſieged it.

10 *And after three yeeres they tooke it: euen in the firſt yeere of Hezecia (that is to ſay, the ninth yeere of Hoſea king of Iſrael) Samaria was wonne. 4.Kin.17.1

11 And the king of Aſſyria did carie away Iſrael vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Becauſe they would not hearken vnto the voice of the Lord their God, but tranſgreſſed his couenant, and all that Moſes the ſeruant of the Lord commanded, and would neither heare them, nor doe them.

2. Chron. 32. 1. eſai. 36. 1. ecclus. 48. 19.

13 * Therefore in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezecia, did Sennacherib king of Aſſyria come vp againſt all the ſtrong cities of Juda, and tooke them.

14 And Hezecia king of Juda, ſent to the king of Aſſyria to Lachis, ſaying, I haue offended, depart from mee: and all that thou puttest on mee, that will I beare. And the king of Aſſyria appoynted vnto Hezecia king of Juda three hundred talents of ſiluer, and thirtie talents of golde.

15 And Hezecia gaue him all the ſiluer that was found in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the kings houſe.

16 At the ſame ſeaſon did Hezecia rent off the doores of the temple of the Lord, and the pillars which the ſayd Hezecia king of Juda had couered ouer, and gaue them to the king of Aſſyria.

b After certaine preres when Hezecia ceaſſed to pay the appoynted tribute, the king of Aſſyria ſent his captaines againſt him.

17 And the king of Aſſyria ſent b Thartan and Rabſaris, and Rabſaceh, from Lachis, to king Hezecia, with a great hoſte, againſt Hieruſalem: and they went vp, and came to Hieruſalem, and gate them vp, and ſtoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, which is in the way of the fullers fielde.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them * Eliacim the ſonne of Elcia, which was ſteward of the houſhold, and Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah the ſonne of Aſaph the recorder.

Matth. 1.

19 And Rabſaceh ſaid vnto them, Tell ye Hezecia, I pray you, Thus ſayeth the great king, euen the king of Aſſyria, what confidence is this that thou haſt?

Eſa. 36. 5.

20 * Thou thinkeſt, Surely I haue eloquence, but counſell and ſtrength are for the warre: on whom then doeſt thou truſt, that thou rebelleſt againſt me?

21 Doeſt thou truſt to the ſtaffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it? euen ſo is Pharao king of Egypt vnto all that truſt on him.

22 If yee ſay vnto mee, wee truſt in the Lorde our God: is not that hee whoſe high places, and whoſe altars Hezecia hath c put downe, and hath ſayde to Juda and Hieruſalem, Yee ſhall worſhip before this altar here in Hieruſalem?

c Idolaters thinke that Gods religion is deſtroyed when idolatrie and ſuperſtition is remooued.

23 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, giue hoſtages to my lorde the king of Aſſyria, and I will deliuer thee two thouſande horſes, if thou be able to ſet riders vpon them.

24 Why thinkeſt thou ſcorne at the preſence of one of the leaſt Dukes of my maſters ſeruants, and truſteſt to Egypt for charets and horſemen?

25 Moreouer, am I come nowe without the bidding of ỹ Lord to this place, to deſtroy it? The Lord ſaid to me, Go vp to this lande, and deſtroy it.

26 And Eliacim the ſonne of Helcia, and Sobna, and Joah, ſayde vnto Rabſaceh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy ſeruants, in the Syrians language (for wee vnderſtand it) and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on ỹ wall.

27 And Rabſaceh ſayde vnto them, Hath my maſter ſent me to thy maſter and thee, to ſpeake theſe wordes? Hath hee not ſent mee becauſe of the men which ſit on the wall, that they may eate their owne dongue, and drinke their owne ‡ pisſe with you?

‡ Hebr. the water of their feete.

28 And ſo Rabſaceh ſtoode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes languages, and ſpake, ſaying, Heare the wordes of the great king, euen of the king of Aſſyria.

29 Thus ſayeth the king, Let not Hezecia beguile you, for hee ſhall not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand:

30 Neither let Hezecia make you to truſt in the Lorde, ſaying, The Lorde ſhall ſurely deliuer vs, and this citie ſhall not be giuen ouer into the hand of the king of Aſſyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezecia: for thus ſaith the king of Aſſyria, Weale kindely with me, and come out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne vine, and of his owne figtree, and drinke euery man of the water of his owne well, 32 Till I come, and fet you to as good a land as yours is, a lande of corne and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oyle, of Oliue trees, and of honie, that yee may liue, and not die: and hearken not vnto Hezecia, for he beguileth you, ſaying, The Lord ſhall deliuer vs.

33 Hath euery one of the gods of the nations deliuered his lande out of the hande of the king of Aſſyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath and of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Juah? Did they deliuer Samaria out of mine hand?

35 And what god is among all the gods of the nations, that hath deliuered his land out of mine hand? d Shall the Lord deliuer Hieruſalem out of mine hand?

d An vnreaſonable Rabſaceh to compare dead idoles, with the liuing God.

36 But the people held their peace, and anſwered not him a worde: for the king had commanded, ſaying, Anſwere him not.

37 Then Eliacim the ſonne of Elcia, which was the ſteward of the houſholde, and Sobna the Scribe, and Joah the ſonne of Aſaph the Recorder, came to Hezecia with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabſaceh.

The xix. Chapter.

6 God promiſeth Eſai victorie to Hezecia.

IT came to paſſe, * that when king Hezecia heard it, hee rent his clothes, and put on ſackecloth, and came into the houſe of the Lord,

Eſa. 37. 1.

2 And ſent Eliacim, which was the ſteward of the houſholde, and Sobna the Scribe, and the elders of the Prieſtes, clothed in ſacke, to Eſai the Prophet the ſonne of Amos.

3 And

3 And they saide vnto him, Thus sayeth Hezecia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to be deliuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy God will heare all the wordes of Rabsaceh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, and to rebuke him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard: and lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the seruants of king Hezecia came to Esai.

6 And Esai said vnto them, So shal ye say to your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraide of the wordes which thou hast heard, with which the yong men of the king of Assyria haue railed on me.

Esa.37.9. 7 Behold, *I will send a blast vpon him, and he shall heare tidings, and so returne to his owne land, and I will bring to passe that he shall fal vpon the sword, euen in his owne land.

8 And Rabsaceh went backe againe, and founde the king of Assyria, fighting against Libna: for he had heard howe that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he heard men say of Thirhacah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezecia, saying,

10 Thus speake to Hezecia king of Juda, saying, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Hierusalem shal not be deliuered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria haue done to all lands, how they haue vtterly destroyed them: and shalt thou escape?

12 Haue the gods of the heathen deliuered them which mine auncestors haue destroyed? As Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, the king of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena, and Iua?

14 And Hezecia receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezecia went vp into the house of the Lord, and laid it abroade before the Lord.

*It is the refuge & succour in al dangers, to flee vnto the Lord by earnest prayer.

15 And Hezekia *prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.

16 Lorde, bowe downe thine eare, and heare: open Lorde thine eies, I beseech thee, and see: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib which hath sent this man to raile on the liuing God.

17 Of a trueth, Lord, the kings of Assyria haue destroyed nations and their lands, 18 And haue set fire on their goddes: for they were no goddes, but the worke of the hands of man, euen of wood and stone: and they destroyed them.

19 Nowe therefore, O Lorde our God, I beseeche thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lord God.

20 And Esai the sonne of Amos sent to Hezecia, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I haue heard it.

21 This is therefore the worde that the Lord hath said of him, [b] The virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne, O thou king of Assyria, the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

[b] Hierusalem is called Virgin, because as yet it had not bene taken by the enemie.

22 Whom hast thou rayled on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? Against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes so high? euen against the holy one of Israel.

23 By the hand of thy messengers thou hast rayled on the Lord, and saide, With the multitude of my charets, I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaines, along by the sides of Libanon, and I will cut downe the high Cedar trees, and the lustie Firre trees thereof: and I will goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue digged and drunke strange waters: and with the step of my going wil I drie all the water pooles that are besieged.

25 Hast thou not heard how I haue ordeined such a thing a great while ago, and haue prepared it from the beginning? And shall I not nowe bring it foorth, that it may destroy and bring strong cities into waste heapes of stones?

26 And the inhabiters of them shall be of litle power, and faint hearted, and confounded, and shall be like the grasse of the fielde, or greene herbe, or as the hay on the tops of the houses, or as the corne that is vnripe, and smitten with blasting.

27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out, and thy going in, & thy furie against me.

28 And because thou rageste against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I wil put my hooke in thy nosethrils, and my bit in thy lippes, and I wil bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

29 And this shall be a signe vnto thee, O Hezecia, Ye shall eate this yere of such things as growe of themselues, and the next yeere such as come vp of those that did growe of their owne accorde, and the third yeere sowe ye and reape, plant vineyards, and eate the fruites thereof.

30 And it that is escaped and left of the daughter of Juda, shall yet againe take rooting downeward, and beare fruite vpward.

31 For out of Hierusalem shall goe a remnant and a number that shall escape out of mount mount Sion: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes shall bring this thing to passe.

32 Wherefore thus sayeth the Lorde concerning the king of Assyria, He shal not come to this citie, nor shoote an arrowe into it, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bancke against it:

33 But shal goe backe againe the way he came and shall not come into this citie, sayth the Lord.

34 For I will defend this citie, to saue it, for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

Tob.1.21. 35 And the selfe same night the * angel of the Lord went out, and smote in the hoste of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore and fiue thousand: and when the remnant were vp earely in the morning, behold, they were all dead coarses.

36 And so Sennacherib king of Assyria auoided, and departed, and went againe and dwelt at Niniue.

c This was þ iust iudgemẽt of God for his blasphemie, þ he shoulde be slaine before þ idole which he preferred before the liuing God: and by them, by whō he ought by nature to haue bene defended.

37 And as hee was in a temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sarasar his owne sonnes c smote him with the sworde: and they escaped into the land of Armenia, and Asarhaddon his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Hezecia being sicke, 7 receiueth the signe of his health.

2.Chro.32. 24. esa.38.1. ABout * that time was Hezecia sicke vnto death: and the Prophet Esai the sonne of Amos came to him, and saide vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Put thine houshold in an order, for thou shalt die, and not liue.

2 And Hezecia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lord, saying,

3 I beseeche thee, O Lorde, remember nowe howe I haue walked before thee in trueth, and with a perfect heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: And Hezecia wept sore.

4 And afore Esai was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lorde came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tell Hezecia the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, a I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares, and beholde, I will heale thee, so that on the third day thou shalt goe vp vnto the house of the Lord:

a God is moued with true prayer and vnfained repentance.

6 And I will adde vnto thy dayes yet fifteene yeeres, and I wil deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and will defende this citie, for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 And Esai saide, Take a lumpe of dryed figges. And they tooke and laide it on the sore, and he recouered.

8 And Hezecia said vnto Esai, What shall be the signe that the Lord will heale me, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the third day?

9 Esai answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will doe that hee hath spoken: shall the shadowe goe forward tenne degrees? or goe backe againe ten degrees?

10 Hezecia answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to goe downe ten degrees, I desire not that: but let the shadowe goe backward tenne degrees.

11 And Esai the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought the shadowe tenne degrees backwarde, by which it had gone downe in the Diall of Achaz.

12 The same season * Berodach Baladan, the sonne of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present vnto Hezecia: for he had heard how that Hezecia was sicke. Esa.39.1.

13 And Hezecia † was glad of them, and shewed them all his treasure house, siluer, golde, odours, precious ointment, all the house of his armorie, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realme, that Hezecia shewed them not. †Heb. heard them.

14 And Esai the Prophet came vnto king Hezecia, and saide vnto him, What said these men? and from whence came they vnto thee? And Hezekia said, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon.

15 And he saide againe, What haue they seene in thine house? Hezecia answered, All the things that are in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Esai said vnto Hezecia, Heare the word of the Lord.

17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, & whatsoeuer thy fathers haue laide vp in store vnto this day, shall be caried into Babylon: * and nothing shall be left, sayth the Lord. Ier.20.17.

18 And of thy sonnes that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shall be chamberlaines in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezecia said vnto Esai, b Welcome be the worde of the Lorde, which thou hast spoken. And he said, Shal there not be peace and trueth in my dayes? b He humbleth himself vnto the word of the prophet.

20 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Hezecia, and all his power, and howe he made a poole and a conduite, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

21 And Hezecia slept with his fathers, & Manasse his sonne reigned in his stead.

The xxj. Chapter.

3 King Manasse restoreth idolatrie, 16 and vseth great crueltie.

MAnasse was * twelue yeeres old when he began to reigne, and reigned fiftie and fiue yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephziba. 2.Chr.33.1

2 And

2 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, euen after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For hee went and built vp the high places, which Hezekia his father had destroyed, and he reared vp altars for Baal, and made groues, as did Achab king of Israel, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen, and serued them.

2.Sam.7.10 ierc.32.34. 4 *And he built altars in the house of the Lorde, of which the Lord saide, In Hierusalem will I put my name.

Chap.16.3. 5 *And hee built altars for all the hoste of heauen, euen in two courtes of the house of the Lord.

6 And he offered his owne sonne in fire, and gaue heede vnto witchcraft and sorcery, and mainteyned workers with spirites, and tellers of fortunes, and wrought much wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, to anger him.

3.Kin.9.3. 7 *And hee put an image of a grouе that he had made, in the Temple, of which the Lord saide to Dauid & Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Hierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for euer,

8 Neither will I make the feete of Israel moue any more out of the lande which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obserue and doe all that I haue commaunded them, and according to all the lawe, that my seruant Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse led them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lord spake by his seruauntes the Prophets, saying,

Iere.15.4. 11 *Because Manasse king of Juda hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then all the Amorites which were before him did, and hath made Juda sinne also with his idoles:

12 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Behold, I will bring such euill vpon Hierusalem and Juda, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall † tingle.

† We astonished.

13 And I will stretche ouer Hierusalem the squaring line of a Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Achab: and I will wipe out Hierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, and when he hath wiped it, turneth it vpside downe.

a In I haue destroyed Samaria and the house of Achab is ment I destroy Juda.

14 And I wil leaue the b remnant of mine inheritance, and deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, and they shalbe robbed and spoyled of all their aduersaries:

b Remaining, Juda & Hierusalem.

15 Because they haue done euill in my sight, & haue angred me since the time their fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day.

16 And Manasse c shed innocent blood exceeding much, til he replenished Hierusalem frō corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith he made Juda to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord.

c The Hebrues write that he slewe Esaias the Prophet.

17 The rest of the wordes that concerne Manasse, and all that he did, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the bookes of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

18 And Manasse slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his owne house, euen in the garden of Oza, and Amon his sonne reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was twentie and two yeeres olde when hee began to reigne, and he reigned two yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Harus of Jotbah.

20 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasse did:

21 And walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idols that his father serued, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsooke the Lorde God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruaunts of Amon conspired against him, and slewe the king in his owne house.

24 And the people of the land slue all them that had conspired against king Amon, and the people made Josia his sonne king in his stead.

25 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amon, what things he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

26 And ‖ they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Oza, and Josia his sonne reigned in his stead.

‖ Or, he (to wit Iosia his sonne.)

The xxij. Chapter.

4 Iosia repayreth the Temple. 8 Helcia findeth the booke of the lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosia, 14 who sendeth to Hulda the prophetisse to enquire the Lordes will.

IOsia was eight yeeres olde when he beganne to reigne, * and he reigned thirtie & one yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Jedida, the daughter of Adaia of Boscath. * 2.Chr.34.1

3 And in the eighteenth yere of the reigne of king of Josia, the king sent Saphan the sonne of Asalia, the sonne of Meshulan the scribe, to the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Go vp to Helcia the high Priest, that he may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lorde, which the keepers of the porch haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hand of them that do the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde: and let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lorde to repaire the decayed places of the temple,

6 Euen

6 Euen vnto carpenters & masons, and worthers vpon the walles, & for to buy timber and free stone, to repaire the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning bee made with them, of the money that is deliuered vnto their hand, but let them do it vpon trust.

8 And Helcia the high Priest saide vnto Saphan the Scribe, [b] I haue founde the booke of the Lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helcia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read it.

b This was the copy that Moses left the, as appeareth. 2. Chron. 34. which either by the negligence of the priestes had bene lost: or els by the wickednesse of idolatrous kings had bene abolished.

9 And Saphan the Scribe came to the king, and brought him worde againe, and saide, Thy seruants haue ‡ gathered the money that was founde in the temple, and haue deliuered it vnto them that doe the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

‡ Heb. melted.

10 And Saphan the Scribe shewed the king, saying, Helcia the Priest hath deliuered me a booke: and Saphan read it before the king.

11 And when the king had heard ỹ words of the booke of the lawe, hee rent his clothes.

12 And the king commaunded Helcia the Priest, and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kings, saying,

13 Go ye, and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Juda, concerning the wordes of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the words of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 So Helcia the high Priest, & Ahicam, Achbor, & Saphan, and Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetesse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thicua, the sonne of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: (which prophetesse dwelt in Hierusalem in the [c] house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

c Or the College which was neere to the temple, & where the learned assembled to intreate of the Scriptures and doctrine of the prophets.

15 And she answered them, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus sayth the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabiters thereof, euen all the wordes of the booke which the king of Juda hath read:

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me withall, the [d] workes of their hands: my wrath also shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

d The workes of mans hand here signifieth all that man inuenteth beside the worde of God, which are abominable in Gods seruice.

18 But to the king of Juda, which sent you to aske counsell of the Lord, so shal ye say, Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, as touching the words which ye haue heard:

19 Because thine heart did [e] melt, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lorde, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabiters of the same, how that they should be destroied and accursed: and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also haue heard it sayeth the Lord.

e Meaning, that he did repent.

20 Beholde therefore, I will receiue thee vnto thy fathers, & thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shal not see all the euill which I will bring vpon this place. And they brought the king word againe.

The xxiij. Chapter.

2 Iosias readeth the lawe before the people. 3 He maketh a couenant with the Lord. 4 He putteth downe the idols after he had killed their priestes. 22 He keepeth the Passeouer. 24 He destroyeth the Coniurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his sonne Joachas reigned in his steade. 33 After he was taken, his sonne Ioachim was made king.

AND then the king sent, and there gathered vnto him al the Elders of Juda and of Hierusalem. 2. Chro. 34. 30.

2 And the king went vp into the house of the Lorde, with all the men of Juda, and all the inhabiters of Hierusalem, with the priestes and prophetes, and all the people both small and great: and he read in the eares of them all, the words of the booke of the couenant which was founde in the house of the Lord.

3 And the king [a] stoode by a pillar, and make a couenant before the Lorde, that they should walke after the Lorde, and keepe his commaundements, his witnesses, and his statutes, with all their heart, and all their soule, and make good the wordes of the saide couenant, that were written in the foresaide booke: and all the people consented to the couenant.

a Where the king had his place. 2. King. 11.

4 [b] And the king commanded Helcia the high Priest, and the inferiour priestes, and the ‖ keepers of the ornaments, to bring out of the temple of the Lorde all the vessels that were made for Baal, for the groues, and for all the hoste of heauen: and hee burnt them without Hierusalem in the fields of Cedron, and caried the ashes of them into Bethel.

b King Josias zealously purgeth the temple of God, & destroyeth all the monuments of idolatry & superstition.

‖ Or, doore keepers.

5 And hee put downe the priestes of Baal whom the kings of Juda had founded to burne incense in the high places and cities of Juda that were round about Hierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne, to the moone, to the planets, and to all the host of heauen.

6 And hee [c] brought out the groue from the temple of the Lord, without Hierusalem, vnto the brooke Cedron, and burnt it there at the brooke Cedron, and stampt it to powder, & cast the dust thereof vpon the [d] graues of the children of the people.

c He commaundeth that groue which Manasses had planted here in the temple, contrary to the commaundements of the Lord. Deut. 16. as some reade, the hollowe of a groue, which was hanged in the temple.

d Mocketh in contempt of the idolatrous, and reproueth that which had been stumbled them in their times.

7 And hee brake downe the celles of the male stewes that were by the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue.

8 And he brought al the priests out of the cities of Juda, and defiled the high places where the priestes had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beersheba, & destroyed the high places places of the gates that were in the entring in of the gate of Iosua the gouernour of the citie, which were on the left hand as a man goeth in to the gate of the citie.

a Iosias thought not meete that those priests which had serued idoles, should bee ministers in the temple of God. Ierem.7

9 [a] Neuertheless, the priestes of the high places came not vp to the altar of the Lorde in Hierusalem, saue onely they did eate of the sweete bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled Thopheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, because no man shoulde offer his sonne or his daughter in fire to Moloch.

11 He put down the horses that the kinge of Iuda had giuen to the sunne, at the entring in of the house of the Lorde, by the chamber of Nathanmelech the chamberlaine, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the parlour of Achaz, which the kings of Iuda had made, and the altars which Manasse had made in the two courtes of the house of the Lord, did the king breake downe, and ran thence, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Cedron.

13 And the high places that were before Hierusalem, on the right hand of the mount Oliuet, * which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Astoreth, the abomination of the Sidons, and for Chamos, the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milchom, the abomination of the children of Ammon, those the king defiled:

f A mount that was full of Idols. 3.Reg.11.7

14 And brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 * Moreouer, the altar that was at Bethel, the high places made by Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel sinne, both the altar and also the high place he brake downe, and burnt the high place, and stampt it to pouder, and burnt the groue. 3.Reg.12, 28.

16 And as Iosia turned himselfe, hee spied the graues that were in the mount, and sent and set the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar, to pollute it, according to the worde of the Lorde that the man of God proclaimed, which told the same wordes.

17 Then hee said, what title is that that I see? and the men of the citie tolde him, * It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iuda, & told the selfe same things that thou hast done to the altar of Bethel. 3.Reg.13.2.

18 And hee said, Let him alone: see that no man moue his bones. And so his bones were saued, with the bones of a prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the king of Israel had made to anger the Lorde withall, those Iosia put out of the way, and did to them according to all the actes that hee had done in Bethel.

20 And hee sacrificed all the priestes of the high places that were there, vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Hierusalem.

21 * And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keepe the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lord your God, as it is written in the booke of this couenant. 2.Chr.35.1 3.esd.1.1.

22 There was no Passeouer holden like that, from the dayes of the iudges that iudged Israel, and in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Iuda.

23 In the eightenth yeere of king Iosia, was this Passeouer holden to the Lorde in Hierusalem.

24 And moreouer, workers with spirits, and soothsayers, images, idoles, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Iuda, and in Hierusalem, those did Iosia put out of the way, to performe the wordes of the lawe, which were written in the Booke that Helchia the priest found in the house of the Lord.

25 Like vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, with all his soule, and all his might, according to all the lawe of Moses, neither after him arose there any such as he.

26 Notwithstanding, the Lorde turned not from the fiercenesse of his great wrath, wherewith he was angry against Iuda, because of all the prouocations that Manasse had prouoked him withall.

27 And the Lord said, I will put Iuda also out of my sight, as I haue done away Israel, and will cast off this citie Hierusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house of which I sayd, My name shall be there.

28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iosia, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

29 * In his dayes Pharao Necho king of Egypt, went vp against the king of Assyria to the riuer of Euphrates: and king Iosia went against him, and was slaine of him at Megiddo, when he had seene him. 2.Chro.35. 20.

30 And his seruants carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Hierusalem, and buried him in his owne sepulchre: * and the people of the lande tooke Ioachas the sonne of Iosia, and annoynted him, and made him king in his fathers steade. 2.Chr.36.1

31 Ioachas was twentie and three yeres olde when he began to reigne, and reigned three moneths in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hamital, the daughter of Ieremia, of Libna.

32 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde, according to all things as his fathers had done.

33 And Pharao Necho put him in bonds at Ribla in the land of Hamath, while hee reigned in Hierusalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of siluer, and a talent of golde.

34 And Pharao Necho made Eliacim the sonne of Iosia king, in the roome of Iosia his father, and turned his name to Ioacim, and tooke Ioachas away: which when he came to Egypt, died there.

35 And Ioacim gaue the siluer and the golde to Pharao, and taxed the lande, to giue the money, according to the commandement of Pharao: requiring of euery man according to their abilitie, siluer and golde, euen of the people of the lande, to giue vnto Pharao Necho.

36 Ioacim was twentie and fiue yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Zebuda, the daughter of Pedaia of Ruma.

37 And he did that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all things as his fathers had done.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

1 Ioacim made subiect to Nabuchodonosor, rebelleth. 15 He and his people are caried to Babylon. 17 Zedecia is made king.

IN his dayes came ‖ Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon vp, and Ioacim became his seruant three yeres: and then turned, and rebelled against him. ‖ Or, Nabuchadnezer.

2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bandes of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and sent them against Juda, to destroy it, according to the saying of the Lord, which he spake by his seruants the prophets.

3 Onely at the bidding of the Lord came this vpon Juda, to put them out of his sight for the sinnes of Manasse, according to all that he did,

4 And for the innocent blood that he shed, and filled Hierusalem with innocent blood: and the Lord would not be reconciled.

5 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioacim, and al that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of ỹ Kings of Juda?

6 And so Ioacim [a] slept with his fathers: and Joachin his sonne reigned in his stead. a Not that hee was buried with his fathers, for he died in the way as they caried him prisoner toward Babylon, Jere. 22.

7 And the king of Egypt came no more out of his lande: for the king of Babylon had taken from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the riuer of Euphrates, all that perteined to the king of Egypt.

8 Ioachin was eighteene yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and reigned in Hierusalem three moneths: his mothers name also was Nehusta, the daughter of Elnathan, of Hierusalem.

9 And he did that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, according to all as his father had done.

Dan. 1. 1. 10 *In that time came the seruants of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylō vp, against Hierusalem, and the citie was besieged.

11 And Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came against the citie, and his seruants did besiege it.

12 And Joachin the king of Juda [b] came out to the king of Babylon, hee and his mother, his seruants, his Lords, and his chamberlaines: and the king of Babylon tooke him in the [c] eight yeere of his reigne. b That is, he yeelded himselfe vnto him. c In the reigne of the king of Babylon.

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasure of the kings house, and brake all the vessels of golde which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lorde, as the Lord had said.

14 And hee carried away all Hierusalem, and all the Lordes, and all the strong men of warre, euen ten thousande, into captiuitie, and all the craftesmen, and [d] keepers, none remaining, saue the poore common people of the land. d The word signifieth counsellours, wise men of estimation, cunning men in ordering of a campe.

15 *And hee caried away Joachin to Babylon, and the kings mother, and the kings wiues, his chamberlains, & them that were mightie in the land, those caried he away into captiuitie, from Hierusalem, to Babylon. 2. Chro. 36. 10. Hester. 2. 6.

16 And all the actiue men of warre, euen seuen thousande, and craftesmen, and ‖ posters, a thousande, all that were strong and apt for warre, did the king of Babylon bring to Babylon captiue. ‖ Or, cunning men, as before.

17 *And the king of Babylon made Mathania his fathers brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedecia. Iere. 37. 1. and 52. 1.

18 Zedecia was twentie and one yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and hee reigned eleuen yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hamital, the daughter of Jeremia, of Libna.

19 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all as Joachin had done.

20 For the wrath of the Lord was moued against Hierusalem and Juda, vntill hee [e] cast them out of his sight: and Zedecia rebelled against the king of Babylon. e Out of Hierusalem and Juda into Babylon.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is besieged of Nabuchodonosor, and taken. 7 The sonnes of Zedecia are slaine before his eyes, and after, his owne eyes put out.

AND in the *ninth yeere of his reigne, the tenth day of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he, and all his hoste, against Hierusalem, and pitched against it, and made engins against it, on euery side. Iere. 39. 1. and 52. 4.

2 And the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecia.

3 And the ninth day of the moneth, there was so great an hunger in the city, that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the citie was broken vp, and all the men of armes fled by night, by a way through a gate which is between two walles by the kings garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie) and the king went the way toward the plaine.

5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followfollowed after the King, and tooke him in the plaine of Jericho: and all his armie were scattered away from him.

6 So they tooke the King, and brought him to Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedecia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedecia, and fettered him with chaines, and caried him to Babylon.

8 And the seuenth day of the fifth moneth (which is the nineteenth yeere of king Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon) came Nabuzaradan, a seruant of the king of Babylon, and chiefe captaine of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem:

9 And burnt the house of the Lorde and the kings house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, & all great houses burnt he with fire.

10 And all the souldiers of the Caldees that were with the chiefe Captaine of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem round about.

11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fledde to the king of Babylō, with the remnant of the common people, did Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, cary away.

12 But the captaine of the souldiers left of the poore of the lande to dresse the vines, and to till the ground.

13 And the pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the sockets, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldees breake, and caried all the brasse of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots, shouels, instruments of musicke, spoones, and all the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, tooke they away,

15 And the firepannes, and basons, and such things as were of golde and of siluer, them tooke the chiefe captaine away:

16 Euen two pillars, one lauatorie, and the sockets which Solomon had made for the house of the Lorde: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.

3.Reg.7. 15.ierc.52. 21.2chro. 3.15.

17 * The height of the one pillar was eighteene cubites, and the pommell thereof was brasse: and the height of the pommell was with wreathen worke three cubites, & pomegranates vpon the pommell rounde about, all of brasse: and of the same fashion was the second pillar with a wreathen worke.

18 And the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, tooke Saraia the chiefe priest, and Zephoniah the high Priest saue one, and the three keepers of the holy things:

19 And out of the city he tooke a chamberlaine, that had the ouersight of the men of warre, and fiue men of them that were euer in the kings presence, which were found in the citie, and him that was scribe to the captaine of the hoste, which brought out the people of the land to warre, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the citie.

20 And Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon, to Ribla.

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Ribla in the land of Hamath: and so Juda was caried away out of their land.

Iere.40.5. 22 * Howbeit there remained people in the land of Juda, whome Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan, ruler ouer them.

23 And all the captaines of the souldiers, they, and theirs, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mispah, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Johanan the sonne of Carea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazania the sonne of Maachati: they, and their men.

24 And Gedalia sware to them, and to the men whome they had with them, and saide vnto them, ‖ Feare not ye to be the seruants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serue the king of Babylon, and ye shalbe well.

‖ Or, be yee not afraide of the seruants of the Caldees.

25 But in the seuenth moneth, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Elisama, of the kings blood, came, and tenne men with him, and smote Gedalia, that he dyed: and so did hee the Jewes and the Chaldees that were with him at Mispah.

26 And all the people both small and great, and the captaines of warre arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraide of the Chaldees.

27 Notwithstanding, yet in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after Joachin king of Juda was caried away, the seuen and twentieth day of the twelue moneth, Euilmerodach king of Babylon, the same yeere that hee beganne to reigne, did lift vp the head of Joachin king of Juda out of prison,

28 And spake kindely to him, and set his seate aboue the seate of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 29 And changed his prison garments, and he did euer eate bread before him all the dayes of his life.

30 His portion was a continall portion that was assigned him of the king, euery day a certaine, as long as he liued.

1.Sam.31.1 NOW *the Philiſtines fought againſt Iſrael, and the men of Iſrael fled before the Philiſtines, & were ouerthrowen and wounded in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philiſtines followed after Saul and his ſonnes, and the Philiſtines ſmote Jonathan and Abinadab, and Malchiſua, the ſonnes of Saul.

4 Then ſayde Saul to his harneſſe bearer, Draw thy ſword, and thruſt me thorough therewith, that theſe vncircumciſed come not and doe me ſhame. But his harneſſe bearer would not, for he feared exceedingly: So Saul caught a ſword, and fell vpon it.

5 And when his harneſſe bearer ſaw that Saul was dead, hee fell on a ſword alſo, and dyed.

6 And thus Saul and his three ſonnes, and all they of his houſe, dyed together.

7 And when all the men of Iſrael that were in the valley, ſaw how they fled, & that Saul and his ſonnes were dead, they forſooke their cities, and ranne away: and the Philiſtines came and dwelt in them.

8 And on the morowe when the Philiſtines came to ſtrippe the dead bodies, they found Saul and his ſonnes ouerthrowen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had ſtript him, they tooke his head and his harneſſe, & ſent them into the land of the Philiſtines round about, to ſhewe them vnto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his harneſſe in the houſe of their god, and ſet vp his head in the temple of Dagon. a

THen all *Iſrael gathered them ſelues to Dauid vnto Hebron, ſaying, 2.Reg. 5.1.

2 Behold, we be thy bones, and thy fleſh: and moreouer in time paſt euen when Saul was king, thou leddeſt Iſrael out and in: and the Lorde thy God ſayd vnto thee, Thou ſhalt feede my people Iſrael, and thou ſhalt be captaine ouer my people Iſrael.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Iſrael to the king to Hebron, and Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron before the Lorde: and they anointed Dauid king ouer Iſrael, according to the worde of the Lord, by the hand of Samuel.

4 And Dauid and all Iſrael went to Hieruſalem, (which is Jebus, where as were the Jebuſites, the inhabiters of the land.)

5 And the inhabiters of Jebus ſayde to Dauid, Thou commest not in here. Neuertheleſſe, Dauid wanne the caſtle of Sion, which is called the citie of Dauid.

6 And Dauid ſayde, Whoſoeuer ſmiteth the Jebuſites firſt, ſhall be the principall captaine, and a lord. So Joab the ſonne of Zaruia went firſt vp, and was made the chiefe captaine.

7 And Dauid dwelt in the caſtle of Sion, and therefore they called it the citie of Dauid.

8 And he built the city on euery ſide, euen from Millo, round about: & Joab repaired the reſt of the citie.

9 And Dauid proſpered, & waxed great, and the Lord of hoſtes was with him.

2.Sam.23.8 10 *These are the principall men of power whom Dauid had, & that claue to him in his kingdome, with all Iſrael, to make him king, according to the word of the Lord ouer Iſrael.

11 And this is the number of the mightie men whome Dauid had: Jaſobam the ſonne of Hachmoni, the chiefe among thirty: hee lift vp his ſpeare againſt three hundred, and wounded them at one time.

12 After him was Eleazar his vncles ſonne, an Ahohite, which was one of the three mightieſt.

13 He was with Dauid at Paſdammim, and there the Philiſtines were gathered together to battell: and there was there a parcell of ground full of barley, and the people fled before the Philiſtines.

14 And they ſtept ſoothy into the middeſt of the fielde, and ſaued it, and ſlue the Philiſtines, * and the Lord gaue a great victorie.

15 And the three of the thirtie chiefe captaines, went to a rocke, to Dauid, into the caue Adullam: and the hoſte of the Philiſtines abode in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And when Dauid was in the holde, the Philiſtines watch was at Bethlehem that ſame time.

17 And Dauid longed, and ſaid, Oh that one would giue me drinke of the water of the well that is at the gate at Bethlehem.

18 And the three brake through the hoſte of the Philiſtines, and drew water out of the well that was by the gate at Bethlehem, and tooke it, and brought it to Dauid: Neuertheleſſe, Dauid would not drinke of it, but rather offered it to the Lorde, 19 And ſayd, My God forbid it me that I ſhould doe this thing: Shall I drinke the a blood of theſe men, that haue put their liues in ieopardie? for with the ieopardie of their liues they brought it: therefore hee woulde not drinke it. And this did theſe three mightieſt.

a That is, this water, for the which they ventred their liues.

20 And Abiſai the brother of Joab, he alſo was captaine among three: For hee lift vp his ſpeare againſt three hundred, and wounded them, and had a name among the three:

21 Yea among three, hee was more honourable then the two, for he was their captaine, howbeit, hee attained not to the firſt three.

22 Benaia the ſonne of Jehoiada, the ſonne of a very ſtrong man, which had done many acts, of Cabzeel, hee ſlewe two ſtrong ‖Lions of Moab, and went downe, and ſlewe a Lion in a pit in time of ſnow.

24 Such things did Benaia the ſonne of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mightieſt, 25 And was honourable among thirtie, but attained not to the firſt three: and Dauid made him of his counſell.

f Ha the whole hoste were three hundred twentie and two thousand, two hundred twentie and two.

38 f All these were men of warre, keeping the forefront of the battell, and with perfect heart came to Hebron to make Dauid king ouer all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accord to make Dauid king.

39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreouer, they that were nigh them, euen vnto Issachar, Zabulon, and Nephthali, brought bread on Asses, Camels, Mules, and Oxen, and meate, flowre, figs, raisings, wine, and oyle, Oxen, and Sheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.

The xiij. Chapter.

AND Dauid counselled with the captaines of thousandes and hundreds, and with al the lords,

2 And saide vnto all the congregation of Israel, If it seeme good to you, and that it bee of the Lorde our God, we wil send abroade vnto our brethren that are left in al the land of Israel, and with them also to the Priests and Leuites which are in their suburbs, to gather them together vnto vs:

a This first care was to restore religion.

3 And wee will bring againe the a arke of our God to vs: for wee regarded it not in the dayes of Saul.

4 And all the congregation was content that hee shoulde doe so: for the thing seemed good in the eyes of all the people.

c Oza punished because he tooke vpon him an office whereunto hee was not called, for it was the priestes office, Num.4.15: so that all good intents be condemned, except they bee commanded by the word of God.

9 And when they came vnto the threshing flooze of Chidon, Oza put forth his hand to holde the arke, for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the Lorde was wroth with Oza, and c smote him, because he put his hande to the arke: and there he died before God.

11 And Dauid was out of quiet, because the Lord had rent a rent in Oza: and hee called the name of that place, The renting of Oza, vnto this day.

12 And Dauid was afraide of God that day, saying, Howe shall I bring the arke of God home to me?

13 And so Dauid brought not the arke home to him to the citie of Dauid: but caried it into the house of Obed Edom, a Gethite.

14 And the arke of God remained with Obed Edom, euen in his house, three moneths: and the Lorde blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

7 Elisama, Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that * Dauid was anoynted king vpon all Israel, all the Philistines went vp to seeke Dauid: and Dauid heard of it, and went out against them.

2.Reg.

9 And the Philistines came in, and spread themselues thorow the valley of Rephaim.

10 And Dauid b asked counsaile at God, saying, Shall I go against the Philistines: and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hand? And the Lorde said vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hand.

b Heb. made inquisition.

11 And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid saide, God hath deuided mine enemies with mine hande, as a man woulde deuide water: therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, Dauid gaue a commaundement, and they were burnt with fire.

16 Dauid therefore did as God commanded him, and they smote the hoste of the Philistines, from Gibeon, to Gazer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into all landes, and the Lorde made all nations feare him.

The xv. Chapter.

25 Dauid bringeth the arke with ioy. 29 And dauncing before it, is despised of his wife Michol.

AND Dauid made him houses in the citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid said, *The arke of God ought not to be caried but of the Leuites: for them hath the Lorde chosen to beare the arke of the Lorde, and to minister vnto him for euer. *4.2.

3 And Dauid gathered al Israel together to Hierusalem, to fetch the arke of the Lorde vnto his place which he had ordeined for it.

4 And Dauid brought together the children of Aaron and the Leuites.

5 Of the sonnes of Caath, was Vziel the chiefe, and of his ‖ brethren, there were an hundred and twentie. ‖ kinf.

6 Of the children of Merari, Asaia the chiefe, and of his brethren, two hundred and twentie.

9 Of the sonnes of Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and of his brethren, fourescore.

10 Of the sonnes of Oziel, Aminadab the chiefe, and of his brethren, an hundred and twelue.

11 And Dauid called Zadoc, and Abiathar the Priestes, and the Leuites, Vriel, Asaia, Joel, Semaia, Eliel, and Aminadab, 12 And saide vnto them, Yee that are the principall fathers of the Leuites, see that yee bee holy with your brethren, that yee may bring the arke of the Lord God of Israel, vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

13 *For because yee were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a rent among vs, for that we sought him not as the fashion ought to be. *no.13.

14 So the Priests and the Leuites sanctified themselues, to fetch the arke of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Leuites bare the arke of God vpon their shoulders, with staues thereon, *as Moses commaunded, according to the word of the Lord. *25.14.

16 And Dauid spake to the chiefe heades of the Leuites, that they should appoint certaine of their brethren to sing, with instruments of musicke, Psalteries, Harpes, and Cimbals, that they might make a sound, and to sing on high with ioyfulnesse.

17 And the Leuites appointed Heman the sonne of Joel, and of his brethren, Asaph the sonne of Berechia, and of the sonnes of Merari, and of their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Cusaia.

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zacharia, Ben-Jaziel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Vnni, Eliab, Benaia, Maasiah, Mathathia, Eliphale, Mienia, Obed Edom, and Jeiel, porters.

19 So Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, the singers, made a sound with Cimbales of brasse.

20 And Zacharia, Aziel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Vnni, Eliab, Maasia, and Banaia, played ‖ with Psalteries to sing with. ‖ Or, Alamoth.

21 Mathathia, Eliphale, Mienia, Obed Edom, Jeiel, and Azaia, played with Harpes of eight strings, to prouoke them to sing.

22 And Chenania the chiefe of the Leuites was maister of the song: for hee taught other to sing, because hee was a man of vnderstanding.

23 Berechia and Elcana kept the doore of the arke.

24 And Sebania, Josaphat, Nathanael, Amasai, Zacharia, Banaia, and Eliezer the priests did blowe with Trumpets before the arke of God: And Obed Edom, and Jehia were keepers of the doore of the arke.

25 *And Dauid, and the elders of Israel, and the captaines ouer thousandes, went to fetch the arke of the couenant of the Lord out of the house of Obed Edom with gladnesse. *2.King.6.12.

26 And when [a] God helped the Leuites that bare the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, they [b] offered seuen Oxen, and seuen Rammes.

[a] That is, gaue them strength to execute their office.

[b] Beside the oxe and the fat beast which Dauid offered at euery first pace, 2.Sam. 6.

27 And Dauid had on him a linnen garment, like as had also all the Leuites that bare the arke, and so had the singers, and Chenania, the ruler of the song, with the singers: and Dauid had vpon him an Ephod of linen.

28 And all they of Israel brought the arke of the Lordes couenant, with shouting and blowing of the Shaulme, and Trumpets, making a noyse with Cymbales, Psalteries, and Harpes.

29 And as the arke of the [c] couenant of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michol the daughter of Saul looking out at a windowe, sawe king Dauid daunsing and playing, and she despised him in her heart.

[c] It is called a couenant, because it is the signe or sacrament whereby they were put in remembrance of the Lordes couenant made with them.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The arke being placed, they offer sacrifices. 8 Dauid appointeth a notable Psalme to bee sung in the praise of the Lorde.

SO they brought in the arke of God, and set it in the middest of the tent that Dauid pitched for it: and they offered whole burnt sacrifices, and peace offerings before God.

2 And when Dauid had made an ende of offering the whole burnt offrings, and peace offerings, [a] he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord.

[a] Ye called vpon the name of God, desiring him to prosper the people, and giue good successe to their beginnings.

3 And hee dealt to all Israel, both man and woman, a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And hee appointed certaine of the Leuites to minister before the arke of the Lord, and to [b] shewe forth and to thanke and praise the Lord God of Israel.

[b] The benefites of God toward his people.

5 And Asaph was the chiefe, and next to him Zacharia, Jeiel, Semiramoth, Jehiel, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, Obed Edom, and Jeiel, with instruments, Psalteries, and Harpes: but Asaph made a sounde with Cymbales.

6 Banaia and Jahaziel, Priestes, blewe with Trumpets continually before the arke of the couenant of God.

[c] Dauid gaue them this Psalme to praise the Lord, signifying that in all our doinge, the name of God ought to be praised, and called vpon.

7 And that same time Dauid [c] did appoint chiefly to thanke the Lorde by Asaph and his brethren.

8 *Confesse you it vnto God, call vpon his Name: cause the people to vnderstande his deuises.

Psa. 105. 1.

9 Sing vnto him, sing Psalmes vnto him: talke you of all his wonderous workes.

10 Glory yee in his holy Name: let the heart of them reioyce that doe seeke God.

11 Seeke God and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

12 Remember the marueilous workes that hee hath done: his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth.

13 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant, ye his chosen children of Jacob, hee is God our Lord: his iudgements are in all the earth.

14 Hee hath bene mindefull alwayes of his couenant (for hee promised a worde to a thousande generations:) euen of his couenant that hee made with Abraham, and of his othe vnto Isahac.

15 And hee appointed the same vnto Jacob for a lawe, and to Israel for an euerlasting couenant, 16 Saying, Vnto thee I wil giue the land of ‡ Chanaan, ‡ the lot of your inheritance.

‡ Kenaan.

Psal. 96. 1.

20 *Sing vnto the Lorde, all the earth: and shewe from day to day his saluation.

21 Tell of his glory among the heathen: his wonderfull deedes among all nations.

22 For great is the Lorde, and worthie to be praised exceedingly: hee is to bee feared aboue all gods.

‖ Vanitie and no god.

23 For all the gods of the people are ‖ but idoles: but the Lord made heauen.

24 Praise and honour are in his presence: strength and gladnesse are in his place.

25 Giue vnto the Lord, ye kinreds of people: giue vnto the Lord glory and dominion.

26 Giue vnto the Lorde the glory due vnto his Name: bring sacrifices, and come before him, and worship the Lorde in his glorious Sanctuarie.

27 Let all the earth feare him: surely the world shall be stable, and not moue.

28 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: and let men tell among the nations that the Lord is king.

29 Let the sea roare, & the fulnes thereof: let the fields reioyce, and all that is therein.

30 Then shall the trees of the wood reioyce at the presence of the Lord: because hee commeth to iudge the earth.

31 O giue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is good: for his mercie endureth for euer.

32 And say yee, Saue vs, O God our saluation, gather vs together, and deliuer vs from among the heathen, that we may giue thankes to thy holy Name, and triumph in the praise of thee.

33 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel for euer and euer: and let all the people say, Amen, and praise the Lord.

34 And so hee left there before the arke of the Lords couenant, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the arke continually, euery day ‖ his dayes worke.

‖ Or, in his course.

35 And Obed Edom and his brethren, threescore and eight: and Obed Edom the sonne of Idithum, and Hosa were appointed to be porters.

36 And Zadoc the Priest, and his brethren the Priestes, were before the tabernacle of the Lorde in the high place that was at Gibeon, 37 To offer whole burnt offerings vnto the Lord, vpon the whole burnt offrings altar, perpetually in the morning and euening, according to all that which is written in the lawe of the Lord, which he commaunded Israel.

38 And with them were Heman and Idithum, and other that were chosen, whose names were expressed, to giue thanks to the Lord, that his mercy lasteth euer.

39 And with them did Heman and Idithum sing with Trumpets and Cimbales, making a sweete melodie with instruments of musicke, and godly songs, and the sonnes of Idithum were porters.

40 And all the people departed euery man to his house, and Dauid returned to blesse his house.

The xvij. Chapter.

12 Christ is promised vnder the figure of Solomon.

AND *when Dauid dwelt in his house, hee saide to Nathan the Prophete, Loe, I dwell in an house of Cedar tree, but the arke of the Lords couenant remaineth vnder [a] curtaines.

2 And

2 And Nathan ſaid vnto Dauid, Doe all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

3 And the ſame night the worde of God came to Nathan, ſaying,

4 Goe and tell Dauid my ſeruant, Thus ſaith the Lord, Thou ſhalt not builde me an houſe to dwell in:

5 For I haue dwelt in no houſe ſince the day that I brought out the children of Iſrael, vnto this day, but haue gone from tent to tent, & from one dwelling place to another.

b meaning, wherſoeuer his arke went, which was the ſigne of his preſence.

6 And whereſoeuer I haue [b] walked with all Iſrael, ſpake I euer one worde to any of the Iudges of Iſrael, whom I commaunded to feede my people, ſaying, Why haue ye not built me an houſe of Cedar tree?

7 Nowe therefore, thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto my ſeruant Dauid, Thus ſaith the Lorde of hoſtes, I tooke thee from the ſheepe coate, and from following the ſheepe, that thou ſhouldeſt be captaine ouer my people Iſrael:

8 And I haue bene with thee whitherſoeuer thou haſt walked, and haue weeded out all thine enemies out of thy ſight, and haue made thee a name, like the name of the greateſt men that are in the earth.

9 And I haue ordeined a place for my people Iſrael, and made it faſt, ſo that nowe they may dwell in their place, and moue no more: neither ſhall the children of wickednelle vexe them any more, as at the beginning.

10 And ſince the time that I commanded iudges to be ouer my people Iſrael, I haue ſubdued all thine enemies: and I tolde thee that the Lord would build thee an houſe.

11 This alſo ſhall come to paſſe: when thy dayes be expired, that thou muſt go vnto thy fathers, I will raiſe vp thy ſeede after thee, which ſhall be of thy ſonnes, and I will ſtablish his kingdome.

12 He ſhall build me an houſe, and I will ſtablish his ſeate for euer.

2.King.9.14. 13 * I will be his father, and he ſhall be my ſonne, and I will not take my mercie away from him, as I tooke it from him that was before thee.

14 But I will ſtablish him in mine houſe and my kingdome for euer, and his ſeate ſhal be ſure for euermore.

15 According to all theſe wordes, and according to all this viſion, did Nathan tell king Dauid.

16 And Dauid the king came, and ſate before the Lorde, and ſaide, What am I, O Lorde God, and what is mine houſe, that thou haſt promoted me thus farre?

17 And yet this ſeemed litle in thine eyes, O God: but thou haſt alſo ſpoken of thy ſeruants houſe for a great while to come, and haſt looked vpon me, as vpon a man of high degree, O Lord God.

18 What ſhall Dauid deſire more of thee, for the honour of thy ſeruant? For thou haſt knowen thy ſeruant.

19 O Lorde, for thy ſeruaunts ſake, euen according to thine owne heart, haſt thou done all this magnificence, to ſhew all great things.

20 Lorde, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beſides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

21 Moreouer, what nation on the earth is like thy people Iſrael, to whom God hath vouchſafed to come, and redeeme them to be his owne people, and to make thee a name of excellencie and terribleneſſe, with caſting out nations from before the people whom thou haſt deliuered out of Egypt?

22 Thy people of Iſrael didſt thou make thine owne people for euer, and thou Lorde becameſt their God.

23 Therefore nowe Lord, let the thing that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſeruaunt and his houſe, be true for euer, that thou Lord doe as thou haſt ſaid.

24 Let it come to paſſe, that thy name may be magnified for euer, that it may be ſaide, The Lorde of hoſtes is ỹ God of Iſrael, euen the God of Iſrael, and the houſe of Dauid thy ſeruant endureth ſtable before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, haſt told thy ſeruant that thou wilt build him an houſe, and therefore thy ſeruant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And nowe Lorde, thou art God, & haſt promiſed this goodneſſe vnto thy ſeruant.

27 Nowe therefore, let it be thy pleaſure to bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruant, that it may continue before thee for euer: For whom thou bleſſeſt, O Lord, the ſame is bleſſed for euer.

The xviij. Chapter.

1 The battell of Dauid againſt the Philiſtines, 2 And againſt Moab, 3 Zoba, 5 Aram, 12 and Edom.

AND after this, * Dauid ſmote the Philiſtines, and ſubdued them, and tooke Geth, and the townes that longed thereto, out of the handes of the Philiſtines. 2.Sam.8.1.

2 And hee ſmote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids ſeruants, and payed him tribute.

3 And Dauid ſmote Hadarezer king of Zoba, vnto Hamath, as hee went to ſtablish his dominion by the riuer Euphrates.

4 And Dauid tooke from him a thouſand charets, and ſeuen thouſand horſemen, and twentie thouſand footemen, and deſtroyed all the charets, but reſerued of them an hundred charets.

5 And when the Syrians of Damaſcus came to helpe Hadarezer king of Zoba, Dauid ſlue of the Syrians twentie and two thouſand.

6 And Dauid put ſouldiers in Syria Damaſcus, and the Syrians became Dauids ſeruants, and brought him tribute: and the Lord preſerued Dauid in al that he went to.

7 And Dauid tooke the ſhieldes of golde that were on the ſeruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Hieruſalem.

8 And from Thebhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought Dauid exceeding much brasse, wherewith Solomon made the brasen lauatorie, the pillars, and the vessels of brasse.

9 And when Thogu king of Hemath heard, howe Dauid had beaten all the ‖Or, hoste. ‖strength of Hadarezer king of Zoba, 11 And king Dauid dedicated them vnto the Lorde, with the siluer and golde that hee brought from all nations, from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalec.

12 And Abisai the sonne of Zaruia slue of the Edomites in the salt valley, eighteene thousand, 13 And put souldiers in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruauntes: thus the Lorde kept Dauid in all that hee tooke in hand.

14 And Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and righteousnesse among all his people.

15 And Joab the sonne of Zaruia was ouer the host, and Josaphat the sonne of Ahiud recorder.

16 And Zadoc the sonne of Ahitob, and Abimelech the sonne of Abiathar, were the Priestes, and Sausa was scribe, 17 And Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada, was ouer the Cherethites, and Phelethites: and the sonnes of Dauid were next vnto the king.

2.Sam.10. 1. After this, * Nahas the king of the children of Ammon died, and his sonne reigned in his stead.

2 And Dauid saide, I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nohas, because his father dealt kindly with me. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him ouer the death of his father: and the seruauntes of Dauid came into the lande of the children of Ammon, to Hanon, to comfort him.

* Because Nahas receiued Dauid and his company when Saul persecuted him, he would nowe shewe pleasure to his sonne for the same.

3 But the lordes of the children of Ammon said to Hanon, Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father in thy sight, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruants, come to [b] search, to looke, and espie out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanon tooke Dauids seruants, and [c] shaued them, and cut off their coates hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 And there went certaine and tolde Dauid howe the men were serued: and the king sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king saide, Tary at Jericho, vntill your beards be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, Hanon and the children of Ammon, sent a thousand talents of siluer, to hire them charets and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria, Maacha, and out of Zoba.

7 And they hyred thirtie and two thousand charets, and the king of Maacha and his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselues together from their cities, and came to battell.

8 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Joab and all the host of strong men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put themselues in aray to battell, before the gate of the citie: and the kings that were come, kept them by themselues backe in the fielde.

10 When Joab also sawe that the front of the battell was against him before & behind, he chose out of all the chosen men of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people hee deliuered vnto the hand of Abisai his brother, and they put themselues in aray against the children of Ammon.

12 And hee saide, If the Syrians be too strong for me, thou shalt succour me, and if the children of Ammon preuaile against thee, I will helpe thee.

13 Plucke vp thine heart, and let vs play the men for our peoples sake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lord shall doe that which is good in his owne sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him, drue nigh, before the Syrians, vnto the battell: and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they ranne away likewise before Abisai his brother, and gate them into the citie: and Joab came to Hierusalem.

5 And there was battell againe with the Philistines, and Elhanan the sonne of Iair slue Lahemi the brother of Goliah the Gethite, whose speare staffe was like a weauers beame.

6 And yet againe there was warre at Geth, whereas was a man of a great stature, with foure and twentie fingers and toes, sixe on euery hand, and sixe on euery foote, was the sonne of ‖ Raphah.

7 But when he defyed Israel, Ionathan the sonne of Shimea Dauids brother slue him.

8 These were borne vnto Raphah at Geth, and were ouerthrowen in the hand of Dauid, and in the hand of his seruants.

The xxj. Chapter.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 14 And there die seuentie thousand men of the pestilence.

AND Satan stoode vp against Israel, and *prouoked Dauid to number Israel.

1.Chro.24.1

2 And Dauid said to Ioab, and to the rulers of the people, Goe ye, and number Israel, from Beersheba to Dan: and bring it me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Ioab answered, The Lorde make his people an hundred times so many mo as they be: but my lord, O king, are they not all my lords seruants? why then doeth my lorde require this thing? why will my lorde be a cause of trespasse to Israel?

4 Neuertheless, the kings worde preuailed against Ioab: and Ioab departed, and walked thorowout all them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem againe, a Dauid offended in numbring the people, partly because he did it of ambition, but chiefly for that he payed not to the vse of the temple, for euery one numbred halfe a sicle, according to the lawe.

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and all they of Israel were a thousand thousand, and an hundred thousand men that drue sword: and Iuda was foure hundred, threescore, and tenne thousand men that drue sword.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: for the kings worde was abominable to Ioab.

7 And the Lord was displeased with this thing, and smote Israel.

8 And Dauid said vnto God, *I haue sinned exceedingly in doing this thing: & nowe I beseeche thee, doe away the wickednesse of thy seruant, for I haue done very foolishly.

2.Sam.24.9

9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad, Dauids ‖ Seer, saying,

‖ or, prophet

10 Goe, and tell Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I giue thee the choise of three things: choose thee one of them, that I may doe vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and saide vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Choose thee

12 Either three yeeres famine, or three moneths to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and that the sworde of thine enemies may ouertake thee: or else the sworde of the Lord, and pestilence in the land three dayes, and the angel of the Lord destroying thorowout all the coastes of Israel: and nowe aduise thy selfe what worde I shall bring againe to him that sent me.

13 And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in an exceeding straite: let me fall nowe into ỹ hand of the Lorde (for passing great are his mercies) but let me not fal into the hand of men.

14 So the Lorde sent pestilence vpon Israel: and there were ouerthrowen of Israel threescore and ten thousand men.

15 *And God sent the angel vnto Hierusalem to destroy it: & as he was about to destroy, the Lorde beheld, and had compassion on the euill, & saide to the angel that destroyed, It is ynough, let nowe thy hand cease. And the angel of the Lorde stoode by the threshing floore of ‖ Ornan the Iebusite.

2.Sam.24.16.

‖ or, Areuna.

16 And Dauid lift vp his eyes, and sawe the angel of the Lorde stand betweene the earth & heauen, hauing a drawen sworde in his hand, stretched out toward Hierusalem: then Dauid and the elders of Israel which were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid saide vnto God, Is it not I that commanded ỹ people to be numbred? It is I that haue sinned, and done euill in deede: and what haue these Sheepe done? Let thine hand, O Lord my God, be on me, and on my fathers house: but [b] not on thy people, that they should be punished.

[b] Thus he shewed a true repentance, and a fatherly care toward his people.

18 *And the angel of ỹ Lorde commanded

2.Chro.3.1

Gad

Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid should goe vp, and set vp an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid went vp, according to the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lord.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the Angel, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hid themselues: but Ornan was threshing wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshing floore, and bowed himselfe to Dauid, with his face to the ground.

22 And Dauid saide to Ornan, Giue me the place of the threshing floore, that I may build an altar therein vnto the Lorde: thou shalt giue it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

23 And Ornan said vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, & let my lord the king doe that which seemeth good in his eyes: Loe, I giue thee Oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheat for meate offering, I giue it all.

24 And king Dauid saide to Ornan, Not so, but I will bute it for as much money as it is worth: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lorde, nor offer whole burnt offerings without cost.

2. Sam. 24. 24. 25 *And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sicles of gold, sixe hundred by weight.

26 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lord, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, & called vpon the Lord, and he heard him from heauen in c fire vpon the altar of whole burnt offering.

c God declared that hee heard his request, in that he sent downe fire from heauen, for else they might vse no fire in sacrifice, but of that which was reserued still vpon the altar, Leuit. Chap. 6. verse 13. and came downe from heauen. Leuit. Chap. 9. verse 14. as appeared by the punishment of Nadab and Abihu, Leuit. Chap. 10. verse 1.

27 And when the Lord had spoken to the angel, he put vp his sworde againe into the sheath of it.

28 At that time, when Dauid sawe that the Lorde had heard him in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite, hee vsed to offer there:

29 (For the Tabernacle of the Lord which Moses made in the wildernesse, and the altar of whole burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon:

30 And Dauid could not goe before it to aske counsell at God, for he was afraide of the sworde of the angel of the Lord.)

The xxij. Chapter.

2 Dauid prepareth things necessarie for the building of the Temple.

AND Dauid saide, This is the house of the Lorde God, and this is the altar for the whole burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commaunded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set Masons to hewe and polish stones for the building of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nailes, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withall, and abundance of brasse without weight,

4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons and they of Tyre brought much Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid said, Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the Lord, must be magnifical, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie thorowout al countreys: I will therefore make ordinaunces for it. And so Dauid prepared many things before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged him to builde an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And Dauid saide to Solomon, My sonne, I thought in mine heart to builde an house vnto the name of the Lord my God:

8 But the worde of the Lord came to me, saying, * Thou hast shed much blood, and 1. Chr. hast made great battels: thou shalt therefore not builde an house vnto my Name, for thou hast shedde much blood vpon the earth in my sight.

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shall be a man of rest, for I will giue him rest from all his enemies rounde about: for his name is Solomon, and I will send rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shall builde an house for my Name, and he shall be my sonne, and I will be his father, and I will establish the seate of his kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

11 Now therefore my sonne, the Lord be with thee, and prosper thee, and thou shalt build an house to the Lorde thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 And the Lord giue thee wisdome and vnderstanding, and giue thee ‖ commandements for Israel, that thou mayest keepe the Lawe of the Lord thy God. ‖ Or, charge

13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede, and fulfillest the statutes and lawes which the Lorde charged Moses with for Israel: plucke vp thine heart therefore, and be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.

14 Beholde, according to my pouertie haue I also prepared for the house of the Lord an hundred thousand talents of golde: and a thousand thousande talents of siluer: and as for brasse and yron, it cannot be numbred (for it is very much) and I haue prepared timber and stone: and thou mayest prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou hast workemen with thee ynowe, and Masons, and Carpenters, to worke in stone and timber, and many men that be actiue for euery worke.

16 And of golde, siluer, brasse, and yron, there is no number: vp therefore and be doing, and the Lord shalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commanded al the lords of Israel to helpe Solomon his sonne, saying,

18 Is not the Lorde your God with you: and and hath he not giuen you rest on euery side? for he hath giuen the inhabiters of the lande into my hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19 Nowe therefore set your hearts and your soules to seeke the Lord your God: vp, and builde ye the temple of the Lord God, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and the holy vessels of God, into the house so built for the name of the Lord.

The xxiij. Chapter.
